NIP's End of this Age thread.

Hi all, I am starting this thread because of questions being asked and my posts in other threads. I will move some of those questions and my answers here. I welcome honest questions. Detractors will be removed as always. Do read the thread as it becomes, if you have just discovered it, so I don't have to repeat myself. Since I am obviously starting it just now, there won't be too many posts yet. I will try to remember to archive posts here, when around this topic of this thread.

Here is one I am moving here from ELQ's earthquake thread. I will move some others, so my teaching is all in one place on these topics based around the "2nd Coming" and end of age changes going on with this planet and this solar system, and the spiritual issues around it besides the physical earth changes.

OK below in bold is a copy of a post I made in ELQ's quake thread. After that in blue, is a question asked of me.

I happen to be IN THE KNOW since I do sit on those "boards" planning all of this. Since WHEN are the "First" crafts the deceivers? HOW SILLY. all will have ID and there will be hundreds in any area. There was certainly no deceivers in the rescue in Japan with the Tsunami There are NO deceivers flying the skies of our solar system. Everyone not belonging here for this has been sent packing or taken out. The Deceivers WERE people right from this planet who had little ability to even pick up folks in the first place. And now lets drop this topic in this thread. It is not to be overtaken by it.

The craft are FROM HEAVEN, but that topic is not understood on this planet. All planets entering the times of ascension are evacuated when it becomes necessary and that requires an incredible number of craft and planning. PONDER THAT ONE. This planet was evacuated the last time the land went under the seas too. What is coming is not survivable by even the plants, thus the stasis period. Prep and dig in, when even the plants will not be able to breathe? I don't think so. YOU are NOT informed and just because you have picked up bad information on the net does not make it so. I can start a thread on these things if people are interested. Doesn't belong here taking up ELQs thread.

Hi NIP, the bolded part, is this really happening? people being shipped somewhere else because of the tsunami? Even the deceased ones? Or there is no death wherever they're being taken?

As to the comments on the rescue in Japan, ones "chipped" to the computer on the New Jerusalem, which is all ensouled ones on this planet, were rescued, in body if possible as the Tsunami came in. If this was not possible, then their souls went aboard. They were generally not returned. These will be held pending the stasis, or moved to where they are to be moved, as all are sorted now with the impending stasis coming forth.

many planets are taking refugees from earth. Some of these would then be moved to those planets. Others may be returning to earth after the stasis and can just wait patiently where they are. Those passing, whose were not thus rescued IN body, their souls are taken to their next location in their journey.

Some go back to the mansion worlds, or other architectural spheres in heaven. Some of these souls may be returned to the craft from their respective planets. They would simply reenter their "stored" real body, or a body can be created for them. All situational. Some ensouled folks who "know" just drop these earth bodies during a rescue, on purpose.

Those who are not ensouled are just allowed their passage of death in these times at the end of age. If some might have real potential there are trained angels that handle these things. Those with Father Fragments obtained in this life are considered ensouled and are Chipped to the New Jerusalem computers upon receiving such. Most of you are reincarnating which means you are ensouled. In emergencies, in the case of the ensouled, the ones of light are always removed first, followed by children, and then if time remains, any dark ensouled beings are removed. Those dark ones not rescued may go thru the bardos process, which is beyond the scope of this post right now.

The NEw Jerusalem, spoken of above, is the Command Craft of Ashtar Command, whose great purpose IS the evacuations of planets in big doo doo and especially at the end of an age. They also teach. I am a ground crew incarnate of Ashtar Command, and you would be surprised how many of you may also be here incarnate at this time, because IF and WHEN the evacuation craft appear, your help is needed to help other people board the craft, and if you have NOT remembered that, you WILL when it happens. Some of you that IS in fact your main purpose of incarnation and then otherwise you just go what you do to hep show the way in this world.

Please feel free to ask any honest questions in this thread on these wide spread topics related to the end of this age. I will move some more of my posts here to provide info and ideas for questions.

Here's another post today from ELQ's thread. Thread: ELQ'S EQ LIVE "ELF" SEISMIC PRECURSOR SIGNAL MONITORING ON GLP. EARTHQUAKE FORECAST UP TO 3HRS IN ADVANCE. \(Updated Daily\) \(Page 138\)

Morning all!

NIP - I for one would be interested if you started a thread on the subject.

Quoting: 2curious

I would too NIP. Also keep up the Sun reports. Keep posting them quakes omitted from USGS sites.

Quoting: El Quisqueyano

well I have been ill and not watching the sun, but today I got up in time, feeling better and we had clouds. I will set an alarm to obtain high noon, I forgot all about Due EAST this morning. It is too late now on that well let me go see if it's LATE. brb YEP too late. so at least its not running real late anyway!

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

I know Sun is rising and setting a bit off. It is either Earth's tilt that has affected it or the Sun's Orbit has changed?

Quoting: El Quisqueyano

Suns orbit has nothing to do with it. Our whole solar system is being moved but what the sun does, is not reflected to our eyes. The changes observed are changes in TILT and Rotation of the earth.. If the sun comes up or sets early or late, that is a change in the speed of rotation of earth. If it rises or sets in the wrong place, that is a change in tilt. I think I last time I posted, the sun had come up NORTH of where it had before. So I was watching for that this morning, until a darn cloud got in the way. but as it rose above the cloud, it appeared that rise was likely south (as it should be), of where I last observed it, but without being able to see exactly WHERE, I can't say if it was too much south or not enough etc. I depend on the buildings on the hill in the east to inform me of the movement at rise. I will not watch set, until the sun we get closer to equinox, as the walk is simply to far right now for me to do. I am not driving at this time to find a better spot. As we move close to equinox I will have a clear view about 3 minutes from where my house is.

We did undergo a change IN AXIS last fall. I forget the exact figure, 2 degrees was desired but earth would not do it. I think it was roughly 1.5 degrees which is WHY the sun came up a couple days early in the arctic this year actually. In an axis SHIFT you get a new equator. In a TILT CHANGE, that is just tilt of the axis, not a shift. This will complicate using most star programs, and I bet they are busy updating them.

The earth changes tilt all day long normally, that is why the sun moves south after rise and then north after high noon, until set.

OUR ORBIT around the sun has shortened also. We no longer have a 365 1/4 day year. It recently became 360 days, which is one reason for the season changing going on and why our calendars seem very OFF, they are.

As the ascension of this solar system continues, more and more of the planets will go in perfect circular orbits around the sun. Not ellipses. Balance produces perfect circles. At some point, when we enter monopolarity, the earth will not have a tilt at all in fact. I should start that other thread and move some posts into it.

Just for fun, here's the list of 25 4.5+ quakes that did NOT make USGS yesterday. This fits the purpose of this thread, because the earth changes ARE directly related to this end of the age and our being in the photon belt and other factors causing a rise in temperature of the earth's core, which is heating the magma and more and more volcanoes are going off, including MANY in the oceans which are heating ocean waters and producing "climate change."

Interesting stuff NOT SHOWING UP on USGS , I am editing this to add more. It's going to shock you. These are unreported ones just for TODAY UTC to now. 25 unreported quakes 4.5+. I will check one last time at the end of this UTC day. Ok checked, no new ones. I probably will not do this everyday. I am posting this to my own website with a little teaching about this area for seismologists, so my readers don't blow a cork for not understanding it.

Hey NIP, thanks for the thread. Regarding the shifts, would that explain why we're seen the moon's face, rotated? I've watched the moon for many years, and just this year noticed it was really odd.

I have not followed it, so I take others words for it. Since I haven't paid attention in the past I have no idea. It could be energy changes I assume but it's also a "craft" being an artificial sphere and at perhaps able to change the rotation. I really don't know. I saw it "toggled" once a few years ago, it bounced around for several mintutes or more, when it was full and somewhat northeast one night after rise, in memory perhaps 30 degrees or so up. I don't know if the purpose was simply to get attention or some sort of adjustment was needed.

Hi NIP,

Congrats on your new thread.

For our comprehesion on this matter could you please...first things first

- 1.describe who you are, introduce yourself, how do you know all this information?
- 2.Could you describe Jesus Christ , if you have ever met him .What´s his planetary name, is He is the One coming back with the stars/angels?

3. is this operation as we know in the bible as the rapture ?
4. Those spaceships you mention that gonna rescue people, Who will be commanding all operation?

4. Will the planet X (nibiru) hit earth ?

Would appreciate your input.
Kind regards .

Ok that is very appropriate and may help readers not familiar with me.

1. Ok, I first a now 64 year old grandmother. Birthday was yesterday. Divorced a long time ago. Disabled, since folks keep bringing it up from serious osteo arthritis, spinal stenosis from same, Multiple Sclerosis and a long list of past health stuff I don't wish to detail today. I do indeed live in an older mobile home in a mobile home park, best living choice for me when I divorced.

As to knowing, a broad mix of personal training starting many years ago, with a lot of suggested material read and watched. Guides would send me to book and video stores and stuff would pop out on the shelf. Lots of telepathy answered to me and the like. Books suggested included some of that in my signature file and lots and lots of others, some of which I purchased some of which I read and put back on the shelf.

They had a hard time getting me to finally buy the Urantia Book, because I was in such a BAD MOOD from Christians. I have been going to craft for many years now. I downloaded my monad in 2002, I think, in May, not getting out the journals today.

Given instructions for AH from Michael of Nebadon in August 2003. Including use of the christic circle to become the logo. enhanced logo for website is this.

Simple logo is this.

The initiating experience to all of this occurred on March 30, 1998, and for that story please find my website and read it under the Miracle That IS me. a book I never got finished. I guess I could post it here but not right here. That was the day I was provided the opportunity to LEAVE. And Choose to Stay.

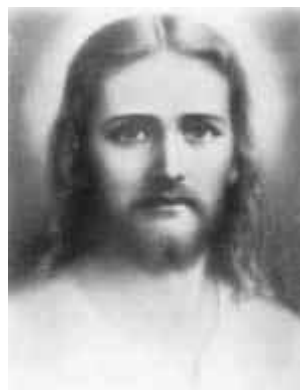

As to a few other details, this is incarnation #6 on this planet for me. Me and soul mate and others of my group came about 400 years ago. Soul mate stayed behind as my main guide this time and the source of all those trips to libraries and bookstores and video stores for things that popped off the shelves. I hail from Paradise. I am a Mighty Messenger of what is described in the Urantia book. (UB). I have had this amply confirmed. I have completed the ascension journey to paradise and because of the MONAD, I have access to a great deal of what I do know if I need it and it can be released on this plane. We do not release pearls to the thugs. Soul mate also mighty messenger, now embodied and will join me directly after the working out of an uncovered event, involving removal of the dark.

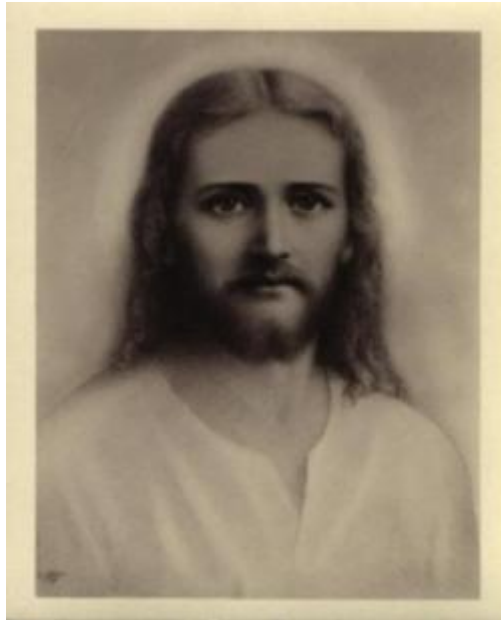

Last assignment before earth was to Myrua, a planet encircling Merope of Pleiades. It is 8d consciousness, thus a evolutionary "heaven" planet high in light and life. My name this life, Candace, is close to my stellar name. Can Day See, is how it is pronounced. Suggested to my mother before my birth.

2. Yes I have personally met BOTH who played the Role of Jesus Christ 2000 years ago as Both are returned in bodies suitable for these events. As I have taught, based on confirmation given to me, this was the shared incarnation of Michael of Nebadon and Esu Immanuel. Michael cannot even come close to using one of these forms, but can attach his mind and experience what the body experiences and what Esu experienced. He guided much of what Esu said 2000 years ago. His role was far more than teacher he came to begin the cleaning up of the long issues with this planet. Only 2000 years hence would be the end of the Grand Cycle around the Milky Way and earth folks are way behind schedule and something needed to be done. Short version.

Esu is a high evolved old soul from Paradise, also a Mighty messenger. Older messenger than I am. He has a LONG history in earth, since at least the days of Atlantis. Soul Mate played the role of Mary Magdalene. Her name is simply NADA, she does NOT LIKE "Lady Nada." Esu is son of Sanat Kumara, and son of the one who played Mother Mary 2000 years ago. Her name is Anna, said as Ah NAH. Kumaras came from Lyra to this solar system as part of cleaning it up long ago. Sanat is Solar Logos.

Esu looks like this an actual pic from 1961.

He has reddish sandy light brown hair. 7 feet tall, blue grey eyes. There was a full image of him taken at that time that was on the net and I cannot locate it anymore. he was wearing white robes.

The form Michael of Nebadon is using, is the one labeled Hatonn in the Phoenix JOurnals, The closest image I can find on the net is this, which shows the very large head of this type of form.

He also goes by ATON in the PJ's. Michael is a spirit being of very high energy. PHOTON BEING. He cannot be seen or touched in that form, (which is why he could not be touched when he left at the crucifixion), so if he wishes to effectively walk this plane, he needs a body that can do that. he is over 9 1/2 feet tall, 3 meters. I am only 5ft 1/4 inch, so he is immense to me. Bodies are easily constructed people.

Esu did NOT die on the cross. Another whoever did, and that causes some confusion in the stories, two were hung on the cross. There were several teachers from the higher realms and that is behind the story of one showing up in Japan believed to be Jesus. Esu recovered and left to India after spending some time with his friends the apostles. He did confront Saul in Damascus. that is true. he married and had 5 kids after settling in Kashmir and the body of that life is buried near Srinagar.

Both of these ones ARE returned as are many other of the avatars who have graced this world since the last trip thru the photon belt. Krishna, Mohammed, Maitreya is the Coming Buddha, Buddha of long ago, is planetary logos which means planetary spiritual teacher and a lot of folks attend his schools at night.

Colorado is the chosen area after stasis for the building of the International Headquarters. We are already working at obtaining properties and universities and the like. He will walk the planet then openly. There will be 50 to 100 subregions around the world and some regional directors are already chosen for their roles. Divinity will be actively engaged in planetary affairs again. Esu will be "visible planetary prince" for around 1000 years or whatever it takes. I have promised a similar term of service. Our organization is our partnership. AH, and I can't post the website here, if you need it, click on my name and follow the instructions. Planets are always managed. This was, as the result of the Lucifer Rebellion was quarantined and has not been under direct management for a long time. It will be now. These headquarters will be real buildings around the planet. Current Nebadon headquarters (for a long time) is a large city under Nepal roughly. Under a mountain. That is why the sightings there for generations.

Planetary name? Same as above. No special name, the original name. Esu has two titles, Sananda, earned since 2000 years ago and Immanuel. So full name is Sananda Immanuel Esu Kumara. Michael of Nebadon's name is now pronounceable, it is Sung and 1/2 a page long in syllables before the music.

So he is Christ Michael ATON at this time. ATON is the first two syllables of his long name.

Christ Michael will also establish a headquarters in the mountains of Colorado in due time and will also openly walk the planet using his special body.

3. The bible has NO RAPTURE in it at all. The taking of one and not the other is simply the story of the SORTING. Nothing more. Now, all those christian websites with people being sucked up into the sky, to meet the lord in the clouds, (silly idea, not possible), is evacuation to Craft. They leave out the craft part. This planet will be fully emptied during the stasis period. Mostly as we go into it. More on this later. This piece is turning into a wall of text which offends those who don't like to read. Topic for another post.

4. as to evacuation, that is in the hands of Ashtar Command. The being who heads that, is NOT named Ashtar, but because of internet crap, accepts identity under that name. That is what Ashtar Command does, evacuates planets when necessary and otherwise provide teaching. Many ashtar command folks are incarnate to come into service during the final evacuations as needed, plus otherwise to simply serve.

The command craft is the NEW Jerusalem. See how the bible has messed some stuff up. I guess it's a holy city coming down from heaven. All craft of this level are holy cities. Aboard the New Jerusalem, for safety issues because of nuclear weapons, there is a huge computer that contains a copy of the soul records of every ensouled being on this planet, should nuclear holocaust occur. it won't. but souls can be damaged by nearby nuclear explosions. All ensouled folks are "chipped" to the huge computer, so that their location can always be found. Children of light are always lifted first should a massive axis shift, incoming asteroid etc happen. Asteroids are being prevented by the way. There are 3 reasons in which the master computer will start a full evacuation process, and those are nuclear holocaust, Axis shift or magnetic reversal, or incoming asteroid. The computer decides.

All those massive craft seen working on the sun are generally much larger than earth, and all these massive craft are management craft belong to Nebadon, and Orvonton. Craft of these size are NOT evolutionary worlds. Some are several times the size of earth, and there are many technological capabilities. managing sun activities is just one of them.

OK enough. Add questions before I decide where to go next, and I will spend more time on the rapture question, but lets see what gets asked first.

Without going into numerous questionable assumptions in your story, how do you explain the fact since you apparently attend these godly crafts they are unable to heal your disabilities?

What will you do when 2012 passes fully and the following year for that matter as a non-event except perhaps a few illuminati cards pulled in the meantime? Are you prepared to deal with psychological withdrawals?

NIP, if you could please explain to me why I am seeing this same "star" in the same place every night. I have been observing this thing for quite a while and it moves way too fast to be a star, its colors change constantly and it is brilliantly lit. Also, I think I saw it depart as well early in the morning. I saw this light fly right over me from the direction I saw this thing, but no sound as it passed. Really odd.

Quoting: Light Crown

YOU ask for the sighting, and they aren't ON earth, they are through out our solar system. There are big ones every single clear night in fact, if they flash colored lights they are craft. There are always some alien craft, the creation is Managed from the misunderstood "heaven." The creation is not accidental. Even this solar system was "built" by the intentional drawing of another larger sun nearby to cause big blobs of our sun to come off to form eventual planets! IF YOU have a sighting, then that will be proof for you. I don't even know where you live to ask for such anyway, but they ARE revving up the activities in the sky. People who are NOT open may actually by mental choice NO see anything. So be OPEN to the idea.

That said above, the folks living in inner earth also have craft and the Russians have over 300 antigravity craft also. However none of these would be alien craft. The craft here are both from the Heaven realms and from other planets similar to this one, evolutionary worlds.

Get yourself in a quiet state and ASK. If you are sincere it will be answered at a time appropriate for you. Watch the sky often. if you have a camera, you might even pick up some close in "orbs" around you, that you can't see, but the camera can. many can be seen also, but the person has to be "ready" for that one.

You ones that have reached a certain maturity HAVE guardian angels. Are not your guardian angels "ETs"? JESUS (both of them) was and IS an ET. I AM an ET incarnate. I am NOT an earth soul. I am however a NEBADON soul, rising out of the life implantation of another planet. Basically there are two sources of "soul" "created beings" which are labeled "angels" and those arising out of the life implantation process on evolutionary planets. ESU above has his origin from this process, as I do, while Michael of Nebadon is a created being.

I know, took the answer past your question, it just flowed for whatever reason.

OMG, I got to get my head down, Momma earth is moving, "motion sickness" is getting me very quickly. Be back later. I have to collect also todays missing quakes.

Hi nip.

Those photo's you showed from 1961.

They reminded me of pictures accompanying a piece regarding teh discovery of, I think the name was 'the drogda stones'?

It was quite a while ago, anyway these stones resemble a solid form of the pulsating disc's seen in some nasa vids.

Like an old l.p with a nick in the outer edge.

The stones were found in a cave.

The finders were 'visited 'by beings, as you describe and allowed photo's to be taken.

sorry about the sketchy detail.but you just rang a bell.

NIP, regarding your being offered the opportunity to exit this realm--

I know you said that it was in 1998 for you, for me and two other Wanderers I've talked to it was the summer of 2008. August to be exact. Did you get any of this then?

I'll never forget it for two reasons--

1) The amount of love I felt for my soul brethren was large and permeating. In that moment I couldn't even fathom the concept of "abandoning" them, and that's exactly what it felt like I would be doing.

It was a beautiful moment...there was no question about my choice. Really intense energy flowing - literally electric - a bit much to hang through (I so easily could've been gone), but a really beautiful moment.

2)  What in the blue blazes was I thinking?

This event (of course) happened in an altered/expanded state of awareness, and I've since had an occasion or two to ironically question the wisdom of that decision.

I'm mostly joking about this, but while dealing with a few difficult life circumstances since 2008 I did think about how I could've been outta here.

Don't regret it though. I know why the decision was made, and I also know that relative to all else, all of this "life and living" here on this planet, in this realm...it's so transient and we are so much more than our bodies. Knowing these things - and I clearly remember thinking those were the supportive reasons to stay, the love for soul brethren aside -made the decision a no-brainer.

Do you know of many others who have experienced this?

2.- Means that after the big stasis, earth changes, dark removal, etc., private property will be respected as it is today no matter what. Otherwise after all why expend money NOW to "obtain properties and universities and the like?" when you can wait for stasis, total geological change, not to mention total political and economical meltdown and take what you need at the end.

I will look at this thread tomorrow again, LOTS of interruptions. And an interesting late afternoon. [\[link to 137.229.36.30\]](#) Haarp did THIS at 21:10 UTC. At 22:30 UTC I got the biggest mostest ear thumps I have ever had. At least a dozen, very rapid, right ear, felt like somebody was literally using my ear drum for a drum. NEVER had something like this. I do get the "ear blocks, screeches, and thumps " many of us get, but this was absolutely beyond explaining. I have had an increase in the thumps for about a week, in each ear. But nothing to compare to this.

Then at 23:30 I got the worstest most sudden terrible nausea I ever remember in my life too. As you noticed in a post above, I had to ditch to get my head down. SOMETHING BIG happened. so I guess we watch and see if it produces something. I am fine now.

I have a feeling you are referring to some form of out-of-body experience? If so, my answer is: No, not unless you count just having hectic 'philosophical' thoughts. I have never had any remotely paranormal experience of any kind other than lots of what appears to be some sort of 'synchronistic' communication lately.

I just feel lately that, as I am working on my own personal 'faults' with ever increasing effort, our society is similarly working on 'faults'. Last night just seemed like a bit of a Rubicon/threshold, on a personal level at least. It feels like we are all finally about to "pick a lane", after much indecision...

NICE POST. This world would transform much more rapidly if most would work on their personal faults in a conscious manner. Self examination is essential to soul growth and so many don't realize their purpose IS to grow their soul and refine themselves. IN ALL CASES in fact. Even Michael of Nebadon continues on a growing curve of the solving of the massive problems in this sector. Learning NEVER EVER STOPS because the problems never stop. There is extensive experimenting with the issue of the dark manifestation on that has become out of balance and which must be dealt with so it can't infect the younger creations coming into existence. The darkness was ignored by the celestial hierarchy too long. Learning curve going on hugely now for that one.

To be honest, I know this doesn't quite sound appropriate, but I would love to just have a few bongos of 'chronic' with 'Jesus and the guys' and laugh about the last 28 years or so of my current human existence. I would also love to know where/who I was before this.

I am about to experiment with a model of sharing the 'excess' of my own personal salary with other work colleagues who wish to join me in this 'philosophy', such that we all end up with the same salary per hour of work. Basically pool and divide, i.e. treat each others as equal regardless of the type of labour we do. Thinkers can only think because the 'doers' are taking care of the doing. Would solve our problems "in 10 seconds!". [lol, RIP Richard Pryor]

I agree 100% with what was said above.

There's a Divine Plan in full run mode for Earth (Gaia) and for each one of us.

When things will happen doesn't matter at all.

Each one of us have to look inside because is in the inside of each one that we'll find the answers.

We must bear in mind that nothing is written in stone, things can change up to the last moment.

If one looks for the Truth, Truth will pop out in front of him, by all means!

Let us be confident in the Divine Plan.

Blurry pics of dots around the sun, and cheesy YouTube vids simply do not prove anything.

I have also noticed that at least these people don't make as many predictions as they used to, mostly because the predictions are always FAIL.

I fully expect to be able to check back here next week or 10 years from now and read the some old "ANY DAY NOW" posts.

the point of some of my work, has been about making people aware of the decision making process going into this whole thing. No magic wands. a Lot of new age sites are CIA run which doesn't help.

When I became public we all got up some hopes of doing something wondrous and the thugs that run the planet were highly encouraged to engage in the plan, with plenty more carrots offered, including it would go a lot better for them when they faced the courts of Nebadon and possibly Orvonton. Well it didn't work, back to the drawing board as the expression goes. The plan however, is way beyond the WORST of expectations, which was that they would allow the axis shift, (massive), remove the children of God and the children who are not yet held responsible, any others as time allowed, and come back in 3000 or more years to start over.

What we do have with the stasis and the rest of the planning, is something much more satisfactory than the above version. Count thy blessings and wait. For there is great learning and things you can do in the meantime. Those that have followed this journey with me since 2005 have had great opportunity to see a bit of the process. We cannot give out everything at this point, the meetings are heavy and constant.

Just a few things off the top of my head:

- the sun is increasingly active & we are getting hit by many solar flares a CME's.

- EQ & volcano activity increasing.
- magnetosphere is weakening.
- the axis is shifting more than ever before.
- weather anomalies all over the world, flooding in almost every country, drought, increased heat etc.
- US & EU economy on the verge of collapse. In fact the TPTW have totally lost control of the global economy as evidenced by the fluctuating stock markets. It will crash.
- sink holes/cracks all over the world.
- millions of fish and animals still dying.
- demonstrations and riots throughout the middle east, Europe & North Africa. This is soon to come to a town near you.
- rapidly increasing anger against the international bankers/illuminati.

I'm sure you can think of more.

Hi, NIP;

All this talk of RESCUE and waiting reminds me a lot of the Christians who keep waiting for Jesus to bring them salvation.

This talk of a "rescue" coming "soon" is very attractive. But I really have to wonder if it isn't just more excuse for apathy.

Why has The Federation been hanging around for so long and they won't even tell us why we are here? Straighten out this FEAR of God stuff that keeps us timid and controllable???

What are we waiting for... Hell to freeze over by itself...?

Someone to "rescue" us from ourselves? How does that work?

Why bother to rescue us PHYSICALLY if we continue to DIE SPIRITUALLY?

Seems like most souls are not evolving... but have chosen the dark path because it's more popular and easier too.

Comments would be appreciated!!!

Thanks!

It feels like we are all finally about to "pick a lane", after much indecision...

To me... it's more like pick a DIRECTION:

Fear, ignorance, anger, frustration, separation

OR

Love, Knowledge, Compassion, peace, unity.

Excellent info Candace, thanks.

I didn't quite realize the extent of Lucifer's devious works.

Uggggg.

BTW, I read somewhere a while back that the High Counsels considered deleting this reality in order to fully exterminate all the dark programs.

In the end, the Father said no to that. Doing so would have resulted in all of the experiences (in this realm) of the participating souls being lost.

Ever hear anything like this? I think it was in the Global Awakening Newsletter.

I agree 100% with what was said above.

There's a Divine Plan in full run mode for Earth (Gaia) and for each one of us.

When things will happen doesn't matter at all.

Each one of us have to look inside because is in the inside of each one that we'll find the answers.

We must bear in mind that nothing is written in stone, things can change up to the last moment.

If one looks for the Truth, Truth will pop out in front of him, by all means!

it is going to happen in MY lifetime. I don't however, screw this life. this could go considerably BETTER if people would wake up and take action and fleet could come in and assist the process openly. Your governments are still most resistant and if the governments are not supportive, the people will be in huge fear which has a detrimental effect also.

As to Lucifer, yes he was a shit, but also some of this grid is actually related to keeping the dark ENTITIES in a cage, the rest of the neighboring cosmos does not want them. There is a plan to remove all the darkness, as to entities in the very near future. It is complex and we did mention in my recent piece that there will be a mini stasis period for this, so we can get on the air waves and teach.

To Deeze, Michael considered seriously blowing up the planet at one point. That was actually quite some time before the UB was commissioned, and the commissioning of that was directly related to the decision to make another effort. This is a seed world. And the expanding cosmos would be affected by the termination of the life plans here. This is not only a seed planet, it's an experimental one, where an attempt before the ORION Wars (more than Lucifer), was made to create more intelligent mind here. This problem is well more than Lucifer, multifaceted. The channels above, most UB channels are unable to look at the other processes here, like Christians, they are glued to the written word and the UB did not cover the entire history of this world and the galactic warring.

Thus there is still the needing to understand how to deal with the darkness which is beyond the discussion of the codes left above. It must be understood and the methods of containment and dealing with it developed. I can post more on this maybe later.

NIP, if you could please explain to me why I am seeing this same "star" in the same place every night. I have been observing this thing for quite a while and it moves way too fast to be a star, its colors change constantly and it is brilliantly lit. Also, I think I saw it depart as well early in the morning. I saw this light fly right over me from the direction I saw this thing, but no sound as it passed. Really odd.

Interesting! I have had a 'star' visiting me since January of this year. It 'communicates' with both myself and my child. Sometimes there are more than that one, but the one is here whenever the skies are clear at night. I cannot express with mere words the happiness I feel when I see it.

Thank you SO much for this thread, Candace!

the only explanation of the "star" you see consistantly is that its a craft attempting to get attention. There are quite a few craft that appear both consistantly and not consistantly to get attention. if it does as you describe, start naming it correctly. Its NOT a star, its a craft or starship.

So it means it could happen from now to may be in next 15 years (just guessing it may be more, considering you are 63).

We may call ourselves enlightened/awakened or any other thing, but the truth is we are in minority and rest of the "normal" world thinks we are lunatic.

With that in mind would you still consider living detached from normal world, with very few friends/family and a world around you who thinks you are out of your mind.

I don't want to wait indefinitely for something to happen and spoil my present in the process.

I'll cross that bridge when I come to it. and suggest this to everybody who is in same situation.

Elenin is a normal small comet which the black ops people are exploiting by making it have a long cycle of 13,000 years, which they couldn't even know, considering there are NO records that old. I think they are doing it because Nibiru just isn't showing up. I don't really know. It is a NEW comet to us, not one seen recently at all. As to stocking, just stock whatever so you don't want be standing in food lines for after the mini stasis coming up, particularly of items where you have special needs. Fleet has a lot of stocked food but it may not be what you like. I would stock what you like, and also any none food items you think you can't live without for a few mans. They are only to supply necessities. Your favorite shaving lotions, tampons and other personal items may not be available as examples. There will be toilet paper and those sorts of necessities, but if you think you need something special to survive, stock it.

for those not seeing the last work with CM and me, we are to enter a short period of stasis for the dark of all sorts, from beings to thoughtforms, and time is not important to you on this. Upon the planet being taken back out of this short stasis, we plan a teaching period with a variety of activities that will last at least several weeks. There are variables. it is during the teaching period you should have preferred supplies on hand. Many many will be unemployed and fleet is going to provide for those in need in various ways. Those not working will be on "fleet unemployment" lets just state it that way. With so many vacancies delivery of all sorts of food and supplies will be restricted. Also there are some earth changes that will affect abilities to deliver and work as per normal.

There is a HUGE plan for everyone "left behind" during this period of a few weeks to perhaps a few months. You need not worry, but there are likely to be lines for food and supplies and there will certainly not be the brand selections currently available, but nobody will be without what is essential. A lot of people will be redefining "essential." Please don't stock on beer, wine and booze. Will be a grand time to give those up. I almost stocked on coffee today, and really, I am not going to need that. the world will undergo some cleansing of the environment while every one sleeps too. After the teaching period, the big stasis will commence. And everyone "left behind" will fully know all the stuff. Tonight I am tired, very long weekend and I can't remember for sure exactly what we did cover in that piece.

Hello Nip is it true that the Elite who are going off planet or anyother for that matter will not be incarnated back? Or is it true we are tied to this planet?

Quoting: Being Mindful

It is not true you are tied to this planet. That WAS the way it was under Caligastia our former prince and Lucifer. He would not let anyone leave this planet, so light workers who came in here knew they could not leave until this was cleared up. Even Moses leaving was contested and he was not released until Michael/Aton came. Caligastia was deposed 2000 years ago of this throne. And the normal procedures re installed. However, this planet IS a school and certain ones have to stay until the level is PASSED before moving to another sphere. God's grades in school ARE EARNED. NO BYPASSING.

The "elite" are NOT all bad, but the worst of them will face actual trials in the courts of Nebadon, and this will not be "pretty." Many elite are star seeds incarnate to do the work, so don't lump them all together. Powerful people are needed here.

Notice this planet has advanced a lot since about maybe 1850. TONS of star seeds AND folks invisible working here. The new rules are that ANY being incarnating on this planet, has to be at least of 5d consciousness, so, no, the thugs will not be returning, in answer to that question.

At this end of the age, all souls OF this planet are simply sorted. This is the resurrection of GAIA herself back to the light and only those prepared for this can continue here. This planet has students of every imaginable sort and many light workers get to go home in fact, where ever home is. many have moved up a notch or too, so there may be a new home coming to them. As to GAIA's CHILDREN, those who have cleared 51% or more karma get to continue to experience here. Those not ready must move and that is in the hands of guardian angels etc.

Lighted souls incarnating here, have usually make a commitment of service and actually my own commitment was over in 1998, but I chose to not leave. I just didn't feel I was "done". This is the result of that. I have made a new commitment of roughly 1000 years years, to serve with Esu and Michael of Nebadon, until we get it done and provide whatever else is needed. It could be done well before 1000 years or take longer than that. I could ask to have the commitment changed, but I don't anticipate doing that, there is too much to learn and experience. i will not be born of woman again though during those many years and many others who are committing will also not have to be born of woman. I will be trading out this worn out body for a new one. many of you might also.

"Detractors will be removed"..?

Not looking to good on the old Karma bar there NIP.

I guess the detractors are having there say anyway.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1474497

You bet, one just did get removed for calling me bat shit crazy. I could care less about the "karma" system. It has no value to me and have no reason to win free prizes here. I think the whole thing is silly, but somewhat worthy of "people watching." did I get back on top, or is Russ still ahead of me percentage wise? I was out for while. It is interesting to STUDY, because it proves what people think is legit or that they think or not. So I will simply observe and learn. I don't know yet whether to laugh or cry! I got a bad karma yesterday from posting in a thread about Jesus having SEX. I am quite sure that is where that one came. I can't point the way to the thread, because it was deleted. He did have sex, he fathered 6 children in fact.

I personally very much liked every positive karma commentaries. Well written by thoughtful people.

Anytime someone takes a stand on something, especially of this nature, there are always detractors.

The other side of that coin is those of us here that appreciate you and all the work/teaching that you do.

I wish you MANY blessings dear sister.

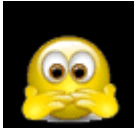

You deserve them!

These times are so exciting, personally, I could CARE LESS what the doubters and haters say.

It's not about being "right" or "wrong" regarding various historical facts or figures.

It's ALL about growing and evolving as a child of God. Loving ALL of our brothers and sisters wherever they are found.

Learning to be perfect (in LOVE) as our Father/Mother God is perfect.....

Well said Deeze! I agree, Candace has played a huge part in my awakening to Who I AM and why I AM here and countless others. YOU are such a blessing. Thanks for answering my questions about stocking, I AM good, i have prepared, just needed to know how long for. Happy to know I enough for that amount of time. Couldn't imagine telling my two young boys sorry we have nothing to eat. Awesome that starfleet is so well prepared. I love them all to pieces =)

I am so excited for the upcoming times, all of it, to have no fear feels so so great. Just had a great 3 hour conversation with an older friend of mine and my husbands about all of this, from the dark elite, monsanto, chemtrails, higher beings, god, all of it, it is fantastic to be in the presence of awakened people, He fears nothing either which is so great. Haven;t seen in him in a couple years. People are truly awakening. Not all, but alot. LOVE IT! Meaning full converstation about meaningfull topics. Just like your threads.

Take care!!

If you believe in God in whom u have never seen but deny that anything else exists, i just have a hard time swallowing that pill. There is a video i saw i would like to post to show our celestial brothers in action. Candace with your permission i would like to post that video.

must maximize the video and pay attention as to what is moving about the air and be honest. There is one portion of the video which i call the Ninja scene. You can see something jumping from roof to roof.

27th sec to 33rd sec Ninja

53rd sec helicopter

1.50 to 1.54 something streaks away

1.56 something boomerang like flies in then dissapears

2.16 till 2.48 show 3 objects come in seperately then leave in triangular formation.

past my bedtime. God night. I meant to type Good but my fingers typed God. So be it.

Typical of the end of an age, is the cloning of people in office so they can be controlled. I am pasting this from a pinned thread on Ron Paul

I am so sick of hearing about Ron Paul. That wouldnt change shit. He would play ball just like the rest of em. Absolute powers corrupts absolutely.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1505859

If there's no hope, then just crawl in a hole and die already. Quit pissing on everyone else's parade just to make them as miserable as you are.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1503816

People you have got to look at the reality. They will kill this man and put up lookalikes, so yes, we will have again the same thing as we have with the many OBAMI. I don't think Ron Paul is that corruptible, so they will make new Ron Pauls. Not by cloning because the cloning labs are closed now, but by making lookalikes using surgery and DNA injections, so that look alikes will take on more obama like looks. You can be sure they saved plenty of DNA from the murdered real obama. There have been many OBAMI people.

Thankyou! SEe this is one reason I do this that I do, so people have a bit of a ring side seat to the show and the planning process. There are no magic wands, and all goes according to where the energy flows, as to determining what is needed as we change out between this old and the new. This has been carried out so very long, because of the grand grace that is always offered, because the purpose is always to bring the maximum number of folks along, until the energies can no longer be controlled or not wise to control them for undesirable results.

The "management" of the creation is indeed a bit hairy deal to use that expression. It's very complex. The grace is needed, because there are some who are going to have to wait a very long time for the opportunity to ascend again. And so many have been misinformed and have not a clue they are supposed to be working on that! So time continues to be "bought" as long as possible.

And for others here studying universal management, its a great opportunity to be sitting in the mess and studying and feeling it. I made a decision in 1998 which I have mentioned before to NOT leave. While life would be more "cushy" up there, being HERE will give me an experience I have NEVER had before from this perspective.

All of YOU ONES treasure that idea. LEARN the MOSTEST YOU CAN out of this.

OK, maybe today I will have time to gather all known unreported quakes to USGS. There are already several. i will just edit this post thru the day. Now it used to be that USGS only posted US quakes 2.5+ and then 4.0 changed to 4.5+ quakes from elsewhere in the world. NOW, today this their current statement:

This list contains all earthquakes with magnitude greater than 2.5 located by the USGS and contributing networks in the last week (168 hours). Magnitudes 4.5 and above are in bold font. Magnitudes 6 and above are in red. So for today only, every 2.5+ quake around the world will be on this list, and not just the 4.5+ they leave off. i will not be placing the ones they do report here.

IZU Japan area 00:22 UTC 4.9
Western Turkey 00:29 2.8
Tajikistan 00:35 utc 4.8
TAJIKISTAN 00:35UTC 4.7
Central Kazakhstan 00:36 UTC 4.5
Northwestern Uzbekistan mb=4.3 00:36:37 UTC
Southern Greece 00:53 UTC 2.7
AFGHANISTAN-TAJIKISTAN BORDER 1:01 UTC 3.7
Western turkey 1:10 UTC 3.0
Sicily 1:20 UTC 2.7
Turkey 1:21 2.6
Iceland 1:34 3.3
eastern Med. sea. 2:34 3.0
Philippine Sea mb=5.3 03:04 UTC
Priamurye-Northeastern China border 3:06 4.4
Northeastern China 3:06 4.5
Western turkey 3:10 3.0
HINDU KUSH, AFGHANISTAN, 4:36 UTC 4.1
Eastern china 3:14 4.9

Now there IS a 3:14 Honshu area quake on USGS, but the reports on this, are very widespread and probably more than one, but I will still with EMSC as one quake, so won't listen the wide variety of reports here.

HINDU KUSH, AFGHANISTAN, 4:36utc 4.1
TUVA-BURYATIA-MONGOLIA BORDER 5:46 utc 3.1

Ok, I have a coffee date shortly, be back later. 21 before 6 Utc. I really need the coffee, the above was a slow process, my concentration stinks this morning.

I also want to thank you for your efforts. Although I am skeptical of some things, I find your passion & sincerity inspiring. I keep experiencing revelations when I am in meditation but cannot remember them when I come out. I know something was revealed, but it is just below the surface of my consciousness -- very frustrating. On the other hand, I am an intuitive and have felt something bearing down most of my life, I do not know what it is but I know it is now sooner rather than later.

As far as detractors are concerned, if they do not like your writing, they have the free will to not read it. I will continue to give you good karma when I can to at least neutralize one hater. OBTW, I have never given anyone bad karma, if I do not like them, I ignore them.

My only concern was that you are to believed to have inside information and sometimes it seems that events catch you off guard. With the knowledge of fleet on your side, it just appears that either they don't tell you everything or they don't know everythem themselves.

It's not a criticism, more or less a need of understanding on my part. I've always thought that "God" is all knowing.

If events catch me off guard, I ask. There are some things we do not post for various reason, mostly protection of those on the ground, but there are reasons of stealth.

God does know all beloved, but star fleet are God's sons of which we all are, and not God, as in the universal mind that has always pervaded the entire creation. Star FLeet, even with the return of Christ Michael must rely also on technologies to assess conditions as they appear. These conditions are then talked about as to potentials, just as we do on earth, but in far more detail, as they old ones have more experience. What most people view as God, is all those councils above. And they are very experienced but no always perfect about the future either, as energies manifest as they manifest. There are advanced computers beyond our conception that are so much more accurate than ours and these are very useful.

The future is not written, there are suggestions as to what may occur by when, but it's not written, so it is only estimated. That God knows all, is the mind you access via meditation, and even that is a somewhat complex topic to earth man yet.

God as in the mind of all that has existed, does know all because it's recorded, as to what has happened, but the future remains to be defined. Always.

Here is a link to a post I made today in the transformation thread. Its a big wall of text, you can't miss it. This may be helpful in understand what God is, other than the all knowing big boss. Michael of Nebadon as god of Nebadon, is constantly expanding his own knowledge, and in fact all of Nebadon is his mind and body in the fullest sense of the word. there are creator sons much older than he and younger ones in their training. Not a one of them is fully perfect, it comes with "age" an as the creation marches on, so does change. We are dealing with something in Nebadon and other younger universes regards evil that was not anticipated to happen as fully as it did, and thus there were no full solutions to it, they must tried out and experimenting goes on. I can elaborate more on that, I did on my forum recently, but have not fully covered that topic.

Anyway, heres the nice piece I found on urantians Jupiter thread this morning and placed it also on my site, but we have carried it before. I think the reading of it, may help with the understanding of what god is. The piece is by Christ Michael/Aton.

Thread: The Spiritual Transformation of GAIA and your roles in the process. \(Page 4\)

now today, the gulf of Mexico is acting up seriously and huge attention is focused on it. They do not want this mess to erupt. A big lake of fire could happen, plus of course the release of massive methane and other toxins is not desired. the lake of fire would be from man's technologies igniting the mess and the whole area up the mississippi has a lot of pipelines that could go boom big time. Ditto southern california and what they are smelling there too, old corrupted pipes. The us of a has been one of the most un- responsible in this regard around it's people's safety.

Fleet gave a lot of help last year, down to manipulating the time to delay the process. I do not yet know what is going to be done, or not done. The methane and other gases can cause the need to put the earth into emergency stasis to protect life and there could be the possibility of an emergency evacuation in the area. I wait for my own update on this. but if craft comes down anyway, board them and help others. there was much lifting as the tsunami came in, during the Japan event.

I also want to thank you for your efforts. Although I am skeptical of some things, I find your passion & sincerity inspiring. I keep experiencing revelations when I am in meditation but cannot remember them when I come out. I know something was revealed, but it is just below the surface of my consciousness -- very frustrating. On the other hand, I am an intuitive and have felt something bearing down most of my life, I do not know what it is but I know it is now sooner rather than later.

As far as detractors are concerned, if they do not like your writing, they have the free will to not read it. I will continue to give you good karma when I can to at least neutralize one hater. OBTW, I have never given anyone bad karma, if I do not like them, I ignore them.

Smiles

Message 68, FINDING THE END

Seraphin through Rosie, 20th August 2011

R: Dearest Seraphin: I woke up this morning with the words FINDING THE END circling around in my head. This was the only instruction our wonderful dancing teacher gave to our group before we launched into a ten-minute improvised performance, although the quality of the finding process was not to be forgotten. There was no choreography. I sense that you wish to comment on this. In addition to these words in my head, I can physically hear a door banging in a draught and a river flowing in the distance ...

*

S: Yes, Dearest: the emphasis here is on the searching process, not on the END itself, for an end is a millisecond which itself ends, thus beginning a new performance, beginning a new experience, or in your case on this planet at the present time, beginning A NEW ERA.

*

A door may close (and you may experience massive and very sudden closure in the sense of dissolution of habitual mental, physical and spiritual landscapes), but with the next forceful gust of wind, or with the next gentle turning of the doorknob by a timid hand, you can be sure that it will REOPEN and that MOVEMENT is possible. The hinges may creak, but there is always a river flowing WHERE STAGNATION WILL BE RELEGATED TO THE PAST.

*

The stagnation in your society (which greatly lacks the improvisation tools advocated by your dancing teacher) has reached such turgidity that only major waves of discontent, major releases of pressure or major outbursts of anger from the oppressed (or those who have willingly subjected themselves to oppression) will have any visible effect. They merely scratch the surface.

*

The ripples caused by your nuclear fallout, however, by your lack of responsibility and awareness, by your low spiritual vibrations, by your corruption and war-mongering, have penetrated beyond the boundaries of earth and negatively affected your neighbours. Therefore, MAJOR INTERVENTION is required from the other as yet unseen members of your galaxy. Once this has been initiated, nothing will be able to stop it from spreading.

*

THE DOORS OF YOUR MINDS WILL FLY OPEN: you will realise at once that you have neglected your QUALITY OF MOVEMENT by focussing exclusively on the END, that you have created a noisy, complex, manipulative, selfish, cruel and soulless existence devoted to the search for power, money and influence. For many centuries and longer, you have been FINDING THE END in this way, but you have not found an end to the chaos, so this has to be found for you.

*

Though our words are harsh we love you for your journey, for your darkness which has propelled you towards the light, and we recognise your great potential for creative and positive behaviour once you may TRULY SEE YOUR VERY OWN PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION TO THE LACK OF HARMONIOUS COORDINATION ON THIS PLANET, AND COME INTO THE KNOWLEDGE AND JOY OF YOUR VERY OWN PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION TO ITS FUTURE MAJOR TRANSFORMATION.

We love you, Seraphin.

Candace, what is your opinion of this latest post from Bao on the UVB 76 thread. (yes, it's still going)

Thanks!

Thread: UVB-76 - Important message in 16 days. \(Page 346\)

Things are about to go haywire. It will be important to remain calm in the coming months. Very calm.

Keep Calm and Don't Panic. Do not let fear engulf you at any cost. Many will, and your only hope is to stay in control of your emotions at all times. Many will experience dizziness and disorientation. This is normal, don't be afraid. Many will also experience minor hearing impairment, this is due to the magnetic field distortion/disturbance. Visions might be affected as well. You can expect the following to occur to you: color and tridimensional distortion (slight astigmatism, time lapses and memory loss).

For those that have experienced drugs previously, you might be able to handle more easily the coming disruption. As you are familiar with your mind functions being altered under controlled biological experiments (self inflicted). For the others, it will be very hard to cope with (your family and your loved ones, especially children). Please make sure that you will do your best to reassure them, and help them go through this transition period.

Your sense of smell and touch will fade away, replaced by your new senses. They will still exist, but will be subdued by much more powerful experiences.

You'll experience everything and anything at once. An unfiltered reality, which your brain was initially created for, and prevented to work fully for millennium. Nothing to worry here. Everyone is wired the same way. And if you keep your cool, you'll transit though it like a breeze. If you don't, you'll most probably end up crazy and lost mentally.

All of us, here and now, are here to help you go through it. We will offer you help, and you are free to decline it at any time.

We are not a religion, we are not a cult, we do not sell you anything. Just remember that if at any time during this transition you need help. Ask and you shall receive. We are here to protect you.

All of you.

The shift of reality that is about to occur will be difficult to handle for some and somehow fatal to others.

It will take years for most people to adapt to this new reality. Eventually, this new reality will settle down. Things will get quieter. But the first couple of years will be extremely chaotic for those that are unprepared. And even for us that are ready, we will have to deal with hordes of aggressive and dangerous beings, roaming the earth, looking for a shelter or food.

If you can, provide them food and shelter. If you can, help them and cherish them. As they are not your enemies. They are the children that needs to be saved. They are beautiful beings, like you, only they are lost and afraid of the darkness. Give them light. Light their way. You are the only hope they have.

Only the ones that are able to condense fact from the vapor of nuance will be truly prepared and be ready to handle the situation properly.

Stuxnet is alive and well. It is progressing faster than I anticipated and it is evolving quickly to the next stage. Which will express itself in the coming 2 weeks.

You will be lured by more of this scenario's elements. The dollars crash, the natural catastrophes and the Stars Moving in The Sky / Talking to you.

There is one listener and one actor in this world: You.

well you know whats funny, I never saw that thread, or it did not get my attention anyway! It's ok I guess. I remain not totally informed on what stuxnet is, seems like a traveling virus? I am going to disagree with some of this, but much is also true. take what fits. the reason behind the idea of stasis, is to prevent some of this and get these hordes off the planet. because a lot of the time, the so called wicked, survive. its is never a pretty process on such a divided messed up world as this one.

From what I gather, the Stuxnet virus is possibly a quantum virus. It was designed to work on Siemens software, I think. Some feel that it may start affecting other systems now such as the power grid and so forth.

Anyway, was curious what ya thought about some of the physical effects described and so forth.

Thank goodness (CM) for the stasis!

Do you think it might come around the 11-11-11?

I posted this on my site today. I want folks to consider this, because one of the reasons gaia is having such troubles and depression and not accomplishing the cleansing is good intended people interfere. folks here do not realize their power of mind even over weather. Star fleet and few of us more powerful minds worked the hurricane directed at New orleans. the dark wanted to sink that city and all who were in it, poor evacuation. So when the hurricane veered right, and it was NEVER as powerful as advertised, we spared New Orleans, that is, until the thugs blew up the levies when the hurricane didn't work, and they figured it wouldn't anyway actually, that is why the bombs had been planted beforehand, to be used under the cover of the perfect storm.

the american Indians in general did know the power of mind and did a lot of weather control, that is the story behind the rain dances for example.

Beloveds, there is something earth folks Need to learn because they do not understand the power of mind. So many prayed that storm would miss Washington DC and New York that poor little Vermont got the blast. Mother wanted to cleanse Washington DC and New York City.

It is so TIME to leave the MOTHER ALONE and let her cleanse what needs to be cleansed. Just a thought to PONDER. Suggest that one maybe to your friends. MANY new age sites and christian sites were movtivated to pray for the thugs safety. I know not everyone are thugs in those places, but these that are not had enough notice to get out of the way. Poor Vermont is completely NOT Used to this and did not deserve it. The reason dark and YOUNG souls are imprisoned here is for the purpose of learning the power of mind and actions. Take care, Candace

This idea sure get my vote!

Personally, I think that would be very reasonable and fair. Since the vast majority of mankind has been so mind screwed, allowances need to be made.

I find it very hard to get to many people because there are just too many lies and deceptions and most folks just throw their hands up.

While I don't agree with that, I certainly do understand.

the thugs cannot open stargates nor go thru them. this is of the new age cia stuff. some want to find stargates, they think they can leave that way, but dark energies cannot go thru them. I have never even figured out why the interest on any star gate in yemen or not in fact. I think the story is new age distraction. I will go look at the thread, I did not yet, guess I should before I comment actually.

well I can't make any sense of the post, really but there has been a new age site that posted all sorts around that. I think we have some more rumor mill going, as CM has assured me there is no star gate there. these are gates to other worlds actually, where portals/window are to other dimensions around earth.

this one in the thread by the unknown german says it is of some sort of metal/stone . It may thus if it exists simply be a place with small craft enter inner earth in the ocean floor. there are a bunch of these around the planet. I would not call them star gates.

Hello Candace, hello everybody, maybe instead of trying to interfere with what we think should be done, we all could just go ahead and give our support, our love & light to Christ Michael and his Crew and to Mother Earth with no special focus?

I trust God and since i am not able most of the times, to overlook the outcome of my wishes or prayers, i personally do not focus unto something special besides on : "Thy Will be done", until being asked to do so.

Why should i tell Mother where or when to let go? Do i know what is best for her?; i don't think so.

Blessings to all of you

The Emergence of Multiple Chaotic Nodes

A Hathor Planetary Message Through Tom Kenyon

Your planet is entering a critical transition state, characterized by a multiplicity of Chaotic Nodes.

In our previous communications we have discussed the changes taking place on your Earth in the context of a single Chaotic Node. But from our viewpoint, multiple Chaotic Nodes are now emerging. These complex interacting nodes involve such things as radical weather anomalies, increases in earthquake and volcanic activity, critical challenges to the planet's eco-systems, challenges to agriculture and food sources, as well as political and economic volatility.

In addition to these planetary Chaotic Nodes, the sun of your solar system is entering a greater level of volatility and unpredictability as well. It is entering into multiple Chaotic Nodes itself, driven by its own internal cycles, but also greatly impacted, as we have said in previous messages, by the galactic center.

The physical challenges you will face in the near future are many, but our message at this time does not concern the physical dimension of these difficulties. These changes, and their resulting challenges, will be apparent to anyone who looks beneath the surface of current events.

Our focus in this communication is on the emotional and spiritual crisis you are facing.

When a system enters multiple Chaotic Nodes there is increased stress on those elements or beings that reside in the vibratory level of existence where the Chaotic Nodes are taking place.

Let us speak to this for a moment in terms other than human existence. From our experience, other dimensions of consciousness and existence are also experiencing their own version of multiple Chaotic Nodes. Thus, the energetic challenges you are facing are not limited just to Earth, but extend to all dimensions of consciousness and all beings, including non-corporeal (energy beings without bodies), who are related to Earth and this galaxy.

But let us come down to Earth, to the nexus point of your existence in time and space.

As we said earlier, beings living in a realm of existence undergoing multiple Chaotic Nodes will be inevitably stressed by increases in chaotic events.

As chaotic elements within planetary weather patterns increase, as challenges to agriculture multiply, and as economic problems grow, there will be an increase in global human anxiety.

This type of anxiety tends to center around physical survival, and while anxiety about survival can drive human beings into a type of madness and irrationality, there is something more insidious and hidden in the current transition state you are now entering.

This hidden danger has to do with thought forms perpetuated by some of your major religions and spiritual traditions. These thought forms and belief systems maintain the notion that there is a separation between the physical and the interdimensional (spiritual) aspects of your existence. The physical world is viewed as tainted; nature is seen as something to be subdued and dominated (as opposed to co-creating with the natural world), and in essence, the world is viewed as something to be escaped from.

We do not share this belief. Our experience is that consciousness is one continuum from the highest vibrations of light into the lowest vibrations of matter and that the very atoms and subatomic particles that comprise your world are, by their very nature, sacred—if by sacred you mean related to the whole.

As the stresses generated by multiple Chaotic Nodes increase, there will be a tendency for many humans to enter delusional and dissociative states of consciousness.

Those who adhere to the thought form that there is an eternal schism between the realms of matter and those of spirit will be most prone to this aberration in consciousness. And as stresses increase, due to the complex interaction of multiple Chaotic Nodes, there will be a marked tendency for some of these individuals to be separated further and further from the realities of the physical dimension. This type of communal dissociation will be further driven by religious and spiritual thought forms regarding “the End Times,” “the Day of Judgment,” and the “Purification of Earth.” This delusional state of mind will become a type of collective mental/emotional virus as whole groups of individuals succumb to stress and overwhelm as they struggle to deal with the global effects of multiple Chaotic Nodes.

Lines in the Sand

From our perspective, a line is being drawn in the sands of human consciousness. And this line is nothing less than the demarcation between those who uphold the schism between matter and spirit as perpetuated by the world’s major religions and those who don’t.

What side of this line you stand on will determine to a great extent what you are open to, in terms of planetary and personal transformation.

All Initiates must determine for themselves, what is true and not true, especially when it comes to this religiously perpetuated schism between matter and spirit. And by Initiates, we simply mean those who strive to live upward in consciousness, regardless of the method or spiritual traditions they follow.

The Path of the Heart

From our perspective, the threshold for an Initiate from the lower vibrational worlds into the upper worlds is, first and foremost, through the heart. This transit of consciousness is essentially an inner journey from the lower chakras to the higher chakras. It is only when an Initiate both transcends and transforms his or her personal fixation on security, sex and power that the upward spiral opens. And the entrance into this upward spiral of consciousness occurs when the heart chakra becomes energetically open and permeable.

The paradox and the difficulty is that you live in a dualistic universe, and virtually any action you take is met by a counter-force. This paradox and difficulty is like a metaphorical grain of sand in an oyster; it is irritating. But through the process of self-evolution, the irritation (i.e. duality) becomes a pearl, and paradoxically, something of value emerges from that which was problematic. But each Initiate must create this pearl of self-transformation for him or herself. No religion, no master, no teacher or guru can do it for you.

It may sound too simplistic but, in our experience, the greatest evolutionary catalyst, and the greatest vibratory field of safety to bridge transition states (such as the one you are collectively entering), is through the heart, your heart.

Let us be more specific here. As the number of Chaotic Nodes increases, the challenges to mental and emotional stability will multiply. And as a result, increasing numbers of individuals will enter irrational states of consciousness. There will be a tendency for these individuals to act out in self-destructive ways. And because you are connected to all life on this planet, you will be affected to some extent by the emotional turmoil of others.

Thus it would be of great benefit to you as an Initiate, to cultivate a coherent emotional state, something you return to again and again, reinforcing what we call a positive attractor.

Then it will be as if you have an energetic bubble of coherency around you. You will be able to see clearly and respond to the dualistic world you live in, yet your vibratory essence will remain protected from the increasing levels of chaos and irrationality of others. How you do this is your choice. There are many ways to accomplish this. We will simply offer two.

The first is the most basic and fundamental but is the foundation for the more advanced. We are well aware that many persons reading these messages are new to this type of information, while others are very advanced, which is why we are offering two techniques.

The Basic Technique

This first method is for those unfamiliar with the vastness of their own inner consciousness. It is simple but highly effective.

We recommend you regularly cultivate this coherent state in the garden of your mind.

To accomplish this, you simply reside in the feelings of appreciation or gratitude, without any reason to do so. In other words, you are not looking to something in your environment or your life to feel appreciation or gratitude for. You simply enter into this vibratory state for no other reason other than choosing to do so.

This vibratory state creates a coherency in your body and mind, and it is a type of mental/emotional upliftment that acts as a counter-balance to the downward spiral many humans will be experiencing.

We recommend that you enter this emotional state several times a day. Just a minute or two is all that is needed, but by entering into this vibratory state throughout the day, you train your brain/mind/body to enter into a coherent state at will. And this will be a very helpful and important mind-skill as you enter further into this planetary transition state (i.e. the emergence of multiple Chaotic Nodes).

One reason we say that this mind-skill will be helpful to you is due to the inherent effects of multiple Chaotic Nodes.

Many of you will find greater opportunities for frustration in your daily life. This is because actions taken will increasingly not lead to the result anticipated. Even those of you who are intellectually gifted and masters of manifestation may find blocks and unanticipated hindrances, due to no causation on your part, but rather due to the actions or inactions of others, as well as unanticipated problems caused by the increase of chaotic events in the world around you. Thus, when you find yourself at your wit's end, so to speak, if you have cultivated the positive attractor of appreciation or gratitude you can use it to intervene into your own emotional turmoil, for if you succumb to your own emotional stress the contagion of mass hysteria is more likely to reach you.

Think of this simple technique as a lifesaver. It's something passive, you just rest in it, and it creates a vibratory field that by its very nature protects your emotional and spiritual essence.

The Advanced Technique

The second technique we wish to share is for those of you who are more experienced with your inner worlds.

We discussed the first part of this method in a previous message called Ecstasy and the Heart.

The technique involves focusing on the physical heart, not the heart chakra, and while focusing your attention on the physical heart you enter into the state of appreciation or gratitude (just as with the simple method we gave earlier).

The effect of holding your awareness in the physical heart while experiencing appreciation or gratitude creates bliss or ecstasy if you hold the two together long enough.

Once you enter bliss or ecstasy you become aware of the space between the atoms of your body and your environment. This is a shift of mental attention and is based on the quantum reality that physical matter is over 99% space.

Obviously, you do not perceive this space between the atoms of your body and your immediate environment through your physical senses due to the limitations of your nervous system. But the non-local aspect of your consciousness that is unfettered by the limitations of your physical reality can experience this space.

The final stage of this technique involves a shifting of attention. As you become aware of this space in your body and the space around you, you perform a paradoxical feat of consciousness. You send the appreciation and gratitude you are experiencing, both to the space within your body and to the space around you, as well to the particles of matter that comprise your body and the world around you.

This “holding” of both space and matter in the vibratory realm of appreciation or gratitude will eventually reveal your nature as both an embodied and un-embodied being—as a being living through a physical body or form and simultaneously as a consciousness unbounded by form. If you persist with this method, it will eventually open a miraculous doorway for you, a doorway that leads to profound insights regarding the nature of ascension.

In regard to choosing which method to use, we suggest you begin where you are.

The first method, though simple, is highly effective at protecting you from the contagion of human irrationality and will lift you upward into the currents of the upward spiral, even as those around you spiral downward.

When you feel you are ready, you can explore the advanced method. This is not a marathon race to see who can get to the advanced method the quickest.

The only thing that is required is that you reside in appreciation or gratitude as often as possible without causation. This simple vibratory realm will be a great ally to you as you pass through the current planetary transition state.

Another ally to you in this transition is a meditation we gave in one of our previous communications. We call it The Crystal Palace Within, and we encourage you to experiment with it. If it speaks to you, use it often for it connects you to the wisdom of Gaia (Earth) and enlivens a central conduit for the higher realms of your existence known to your science as your pineal gland and known to us as the jewel in the head.

For those of you planning to join us for the World Meditation on November 11th of this year (11/11/11), we ask that you work with The Crystal Palace Meditation as often as is convenient, to prepare you for the next Dimensional Attunement, which will be used during the World Meditation.

This Dimensional Attunement will be a sound meditation created to transmit light into the pituitary gland, the master regulator of your endocrine system. We will be giving instructions on how to use this sound meditation on your own and for use during the world meditation on 11/11/11.

We will post the Pituitary Dimensional Attunement (sound meditation) in the Sound Gifts section of the website at the end of September or the beginning of October.

Summary

As we said at the beginning of this message, you are entering a critical transition state. For those unfamiliar with our previous message entitled Transition States of Consciousness, we strongly suggest that you take a look at this communication.

Your Earth is entering a perilous period in its upward movement. Many aspects of your reality will be changing right before your eyes, more rapidly than you could ever have imagined.

Due to the acceleration of time, the transformation of your civilization will increase exponentially. Your word "transformation" literally means moving beyond form, thus the structures of your reality (meaning the thought forms and beliefs as well as the external realities of your life) will be undergoing rapid change.

A greater fluidity of consciousness is required. Protection of your vibratory essence is vital. You are entering harrowing times and yet in this complexity there are immense opportunities for your own personal evolution.

We believe that there will be a greater polarization between people as the Chaotic Nodes increase in number and intensity. And yet even in the midst of that polarization, if your heart/mind is open you will have moments of deep communion with others, even strangers, whenever you look into the eyes of another human being who recognizes the sacredness of this moment, the sacredness of life, and the sacredness of this Earth.

Our thoughts and blessings are with you.

Elenin is a normal small comet which the black ops people are exploiting by making it have a long cycle of 13,000 years, which they couldn't even know, considering there are NO records that old.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

This could be calculated knowing one position and velocity (including direction) at one moment in time, or position at two nearby moments in time, using standard orbital mechanics calculations and assumptions. One can safely assume that relative to the major masses in the solar system, the mass of Elenin is negligible so it will not transfer its own (again, relatively negligible) energy to the planets or sun.

However, for such a long narrow orbit, I think the period would be quite sensitive to the exact direction observed, and also to other perturbations both within the solar system and outside it that may be unobservable.

So the period of this comet may be knowable at least roughly, but that's not a big point in your argument anyway.

We discussed the first part of this method in a previous message called Ecstasy and the Heart.

The technique involves focusing on the physical heart, not the heart chakra, and while focusing your attention on the physical heart you enter into the state of appreciation or gratitude ...

I posted this on my site today. I want folks to consider this, because one of the reasons gaia is having such troubles and depression and not accomplishing the cleansing is good intended people interfere. folks here do not realize their power of mind even over weather. Star fleet and few of us more powerful minds worked the hurricane directed at New orleans. the dark wanted to sink that city and all who were in it, poor evacuation. So when the hurricane veered right, and it was NEVER as powerful as advertised, we spared New Orleans, that is, until the thugs blew up the levies when the hurricane didn't work, and they figured it wouldn't anyway actually, that is why the bombs had been planted beforehand, to be used under the cover of the perfect storm.

the american Indians in general did know the power of mind and did a lot of weather control, that is the story behind the rain dances for example.

Beloveds, there is something earth folks Need to learn because they do not understand the power of mind. So many prayed that storm would miss Washington DC and New York that poor little Vermont got the blast. Mother wanted to cleanse Washington DC and New York City.

It is so TIME to leave the MOTHER ALONE and let her cleanse what needs to be cleansed. Just a thought to PONDER. Suggest that one maybe to your friends. MANY new age sites and christian sites were motivated to pray for the thugs safety. I know not everyone are thugs in those places, but these that are not had enough notice to get out of the way. Poor Vermont is completely NOT Used to this and did not deserve it. The reason dark and YOUNG souls are imprisoned here is for the purpose of learning the power of mind and actions. Take care, Candace

Well, a few of us on here can direct our minds one way, and thousands or millions who are organized will direct their minds another way. They are organized in some ways we all can see, by religious organizations and corporate networks, maybe "CIA" or other government sponsored stuff. Wall Street has lots of money and smart and powerful people who can force (at least with very high probability) a strong mental effort in their defense. Vermont has few people, and generally not so knowing in the ways of getting things done in the world.

So maybe this is one of the lessons to learn from earth, of the ways of the dark. But are my brothers and sisters above really so slow to learn!? One perspective I've seen is that those of us down here, everyone, can see the details of what's going on, and up there they can't, so they need us to send them conscious messages. Well haven't they had enough messages to shut the dark down a bit more aggressively?

Agree that quiet undetected action is needed. But some of these lost battles make me wonder about the grand strategy and tactical execution -- sometimes I want to knock some sense into the heads of certain decision makers, and I don't mean Wall Street or Washington!

Message 68, FINDING THE END

Seraphin through Rosie, 20th August 2011

*

R: Dearest Seraphin: I woke up this morning with the words FINDING THE END circling around in my head. This was the only instruction our wonderful dancing teacher gave to our group before we launched into a ten-minute improvised performance, although the quality of the finding process was not to be forgotten. There was no choreography. I sense that you wish to comment on this. In addition to these words in my head, I can physically hear a door banging in a draught and a river flowing in the distance ...

*

S: Yes, Dearest: the emphasis here is on the searching process, not on the END itself, for an end is a millisecond which itself ends, thus beginning a new performance, beginning a new experience, or in your case on this planet at the present time, beginning A NEW ERA.

*

A door may close (and you may experience massive and very sudden closure in the sense of dissolution of habitual mental, physical and spiritual landscapes), but with the next forceful gust of wind, or with the next gentle turning of the doorknob by a timid hand, you can be sure that it will REOPEN and that MOVEMENT is possible. The hinges may creak, but there is always a river flowing WHERE STAGNATION WILL BE RELEGATED TO THE PAST.

*

The stagnation in your society (which greatly lacks the improvisation tools advocated by your dancing teacher) has reached such turgidity that only major waves of discontent, major releases of pressure or major outbursts of anger from the oppressed (or those who have willingly subjected themselves to oppression) will have any visible effect. They merely scratch the surface.

*

The ripples caused by your nuclear fallout, however, by your lack of responsibility and awareness, by your low spiritual vibrations, by your corruption and war-mongering, have penetrated beyond the boundaries of earth and negatively affected your neighbours. Therefore, MAJOR INTERVENTION is required from the other as yet unseen members of your galaxy. Once this has been initiated, nothing will be able to stop it from spreading.

*

THE DOORS OF YOUR MINDS WILL FLY OPEN: you will realise at once that you have neglected your QUALITY OF MOVEMENT by focussing exclusively on the END, that you have created a noisy, complex, manipulative, selfish, cruel and soulless existence devoted to the search for power, money and influence. For many centuries and longer, you have been FINDING THE END in this way, but you have not found an end to the chaos, so this has to be found for you.

*

Though our words are harsh we love you for your journey, for your darkness which has propelled you towards the light, and we recognise your great potential for creative and positive behaviour once you may TRULY SEE YOUR VERY OWN PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION TO THE LACK OF HARMONIOUS COORDINATION ON THIS PLANET, AND COME INTO THE KNOWLEDGE AND JOY OF YOUR VERY OWN PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION TO ITS FUTURE MAJOR

TRANSFORMATION.
We love you, Seraphin.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

If I may paraphrase very roughly (and please do correct where you think I have not done it justice)

"If only people would live in and for the moment, and not be coldly calculating on a strategic outcome for personal gain, the world would be a nicer (better, whatever adjective you want) place."

But the winners of conventional business life are the cold calculators to a fair extent, those who study economics and plan. That's how this system works now and has for much recorded history, and maybe much before our historical records. It's the way of the world. And the winners enjoy their game in certain ways and succeed also in material terms.

If the goal is to make people give up economic thinking, I suggest that a different way be found to improve the world. And if the new equilibrium envisioned is yet another that can be beaten by economic strategy, that should be reconsidered too. Economics will not be forgotten, and it would reemerge. It's a tool that can be used for good or bad, and it's being perverted in certain ways now (welfare economics has been totally replaced by growth economics, for example) so the adjustment required may be the following: the people, rather than money, must be sovereign. People's welfare must be what is primarily optimized. If money is eliminated as NIP says, it could well do the trick while retaining the possibility of using economic reasoning for good ends.

Comet Elenin is a Mother-Ship of the Galactic Federation.

It will Trigger the Visible Split of Earth in Ascended Earth (A) and Catastrophic Earth (B) in October 2011.

First Wave of Ascended Human Masters is Expected between October 16 and November 11, 2011.

Earth is to enter the Photon Belt on 11.11.11.

By Dr. Georgi Stankov, Copyright 2011
[\[link to www.stankovuniversallaw.com\]](http://www.stankovuniversallaw.com)

Comet Elenin is in the news and the minds of the world community since it was first discovered by the Russian amateur astronomer Leonid Elenin on December 10, 2010, through remote control of the International Scientific Optical Network's robotic observatory near Mayhill, New Mexico,

When I predicted in my last interview with you that the financial collapse will take place in late September and October, I explicitly stressed that only after this, the true End Time of Revelations and Jubilations (not Tribulations) of humanity will begin. This will be the final period of preparation for Ascension. All facts must come on the table. I told you that you must bear in mind the two pivotal dates, 11.11.11 and 12.12.12, which mark the last two star portals, opening the road to Ascension for earth and mankind. The 11.11.11 portal will be the beginning of the official Ascension process for humanity. As I have written on many occasions, it will be triggered by the First Wave of Ascended human Masters.

Now I can give you new and more precise information on how these dramatic and breath-taking events will unfold in detail in the course of this fall. This information I am receiving continuously from the causal worlds, with which I stay in an open telepathic contact since 1992.

The first brand-new information is the role, which the Comet Elenin will play in the coming crucial events. Contrary to the current confusion in the mass media and Internet, deliberately instigated by the dark ones, Comet Elenin is a mother-ship of the Galactic Federation and is heading towards earth to support the begin of human Ascension. It is tarnished as a hollow planetoid/asteroid of comparatively modest proportions. The more important. bigger 5th-dimensional part of this mother-ship is invisible to human eyes and cannot be detected with material devices.

Elenin's First Function - The actual effect of Elenin will be in the high frequency astral levels, beyond the detection of material instruments, which are limited to the electromagnetic spectrum. In the first place, it will augment the wobbling of the earth, which is in a process of mitosis, to use this term from biology, describing the division of growing cells from the original one. The same phenomenon is also observed with earth in the End Times. This wobbling of the earth has begun after the last portal 10.10.10 was opened and is now gaining momentum. The earth wobbling causes the split of the two earth versions - the ascended earth A and the catastrophic earth B. This wobbling will reach a preliminary peak after October 16, when Elenin is nearest to the earth and will subside in the following months. This peak will lead to significant consequences for mankind and earth, which I will discuss below.

During the time between October 16 and November 11, the veil between 3d-space-time of earth and the high frequency realms of the souls, defined as 5th and higher dimensions, will become very thin for a short period of time. During this time, Elenin and the other cosmic forces that manage the Ascension of our planet will establish numerous interdimensional portals on many places on earth. These portals will remain throughout the next year, when mass Ascension of humanity is scheduled to take place in December 2012. Some of these portals will stay after that and will link the catastrophic earth B with the ascended earth A for some time, so that some laggards will still have the possibility to ascend after mass Ascension. They will be like a driver on a highway, who has missed the right exit and takes the next one, but still arrives at his final destination with a minor delay.

Purely for this reason, the period between October 16 and November 11, 2011 is the ideal time for the First Wave of Ascended human Masters to take place. This is will be the most dramatic event in the history of mankind. It will be the actual "First Contact" with us - we will encounter us for the first time as immortal, multidimensional beings. This insight will profoundly change human perception of mankind as a transgalactic civilisation. The subsequent appearance of representatives from the Galactic Federation, the Inner Earth Agartha, etc. will be of secondary importance, contrary to the current aspirations and expectations of many light workers.

With the First Wave of Ascended Masters, the Time of Revelations will begin. Mankind must be informed about the insidious role of the Powers That Be from the Orion Empire that have controlled this planet and humanity for more than 10 000 years. The collapse of the financial system, the stronghold of these dark forces, will precede this event and will contribute to their demise and expose.

Earth entered the photon belt back in 1992. It's a done deal.

Earth is not going to be split between the catastrophic portion and the ascended portion. this is not a possibility even. there cannot be two sets of land masses with portals between them, it does not work that way. there is no magic here, the ascended civilization of light and life is yet to be created by mankind. AbundantHope is going to provide a great deal of advice and supervision after stasis towards that goal.

there are already lots of immortal ascended beings walking the planet right now. These are not an immortal body type however, but some of us do have one, but it will still be discarded, as we are spirit beings and only borrowing a form right now.

all those craft you see in the night sky with changing colors ARE MOTHER CRAFT. There are MANY up there, often pretending to be "stars" because our solar system is being moved to an eternal energy river and also closer to alcyone. So there are "pretenders" in our sky. Some of these have been there actually for generations now because of this.

In 1992 when we did enter the photon belt, the higher planetary life was put into a mini stasis then, because entry into the photon belt causes huge brightness for several days, and which can cause massive blindness and confusion in an unprepared people, and even if we were entering it November, there would still be needing to be a mini stasis, for the above reason. People are not prepared.

They will and they have been here for millions of years, actually the planet was seeded with life by "aliens" (special angels that do that sort of thing), 550 million years ago. And they were here otherwise before then prepping the planet. And others. This is not the only planet that has born life in the solar system, two others have also, Maldek and Mars. And now Venus has been prepared and actually has more than 200, 000 earthlings on it's surface now. Mars will once again house humans on the surface, it is being repaired.

I don't think Maldek will be put back together. some claim so, but if that happens its a long time off yet. Europa will be seeded with life sometime in the future also.

all those craft you see in the night sky with changing colors ARE MOTHER CRAFT. There are MANY up there, often pretending to be "stars" because our solar system is being moved to an eternal energy river and also closer to alcyone. So there are "pretenders" in our sky. Some of these have been there actually for generations now because of this.

In 1992 when we did enter the photon belt, the higher planetary life was put into a mini stasis then, because entry into the photon belt causes huge brightness for several days, and which can cause massive blindness and confusion in an unprepared people, and even if we were entering it November, there would still be needing to be a mini stasis, for the above reason. People are not prepared.

My understanding is that there will be Earth A and B.

Earth A is 5th dimension Earth that is right here, not separate, just a different frequency.

Earth B is the same 3 d earth we are currently experiencing, but it will fall deeper into physicality. This is where the current ruling thugs will live an underground reality while being served by there slaves.

I agree, that two physical realities would be impossible.

Sorry, thought you were a guy :P

I dunno. The answers lie inside, not 'out there'. In truth there is no 'out there' which isn't 'in here', if you catch my drift. I don't know whether aliens exist or no, but the crap smeared all over this planet is only ever gonna be cleaned up by humans, else what have we learnt?
OP, you seem like a really decent guy but this is madness ^^

GLP for you, what? Peace brother.

Quoting: ThereIsNoHandle

could I ask you what you meant by "GLP for you, what?" No madness, not a drop. All very real, but there are CIA created new age websites spinning quite a yarn.

Maybe I missed a post above that is behind your question. I am a couple days or more behind reading my own thread.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Quoting: ThereIsNoHandle

I catch your drift and what I get except from when I travel to ship IS on the inside, as was my calling years ago now that led to what I do. They do exist, the creation is many many trillions of "years" old and these are the 2nd coming folks in command from the very misunderstood heaven. Jesus (which was never his name) commands it at this time. There is hierarchy here from very high places in the creation, because this little planet is really important at this time. The stories of the final battle of evil are true but not understood. Evil got a bigger hand that it should have, which was causing great risk of spread to the younger sectors of the creation. This is the end of a long long process at bringing it under control.

All is well, use this final portion of this age to grow some more according to what is necessary for you. The thugs of this planet have kept this covered up well. the so called "bad aliens" in the press are those confined to this prison world, they do not fly the friendly universe and many are already removed in fact.

Man will not be experiencing the horror suggested in many religions and the like, the leadership of the creation is very compassionate. The big earth changes will come while the life on the planet "sleeps", a period called stasis, and will be unharmed.

I just finished reading this outstanding piece on the ascension.

beloved, Elenin is not a mother ship. and it is not related to our ascension in any way. We are already on our 4th wave of ascended masters that are awakening! I was part of the 3rd to be activated.

Earth entered the photon belt back in 1992. It's a done deal.

Earth is not going to be split between the catastrophic portion and the ascended portion. this is not a possibility even. there cannot be two sets of land masses with portals between them, it does not work that way. there is no magic here, the ascended civilization of light and life is yet to be created by mankind. AbundantHope is going to provide a great deal of advice and supervision after stasis towards that goal.

there are already lots of immortal ascended beings walking the planet right now. These are not an immortal body type however, but some of us do have one, but it will still be discarded, as we are spirit beings and only borrowing a form right now.

the 5th dimension earth is NOT here at all. It must be created by both Gaia and her people. It's a ways off yet and we have to go thru more 4d learning lessons beforehand. there are writers who are confusing the high astral realms with 5d. This is not so. those are completely NON physical (mental constructs) and this world is not going to be non physical. NO world is, but the vibrations and types of matter do vary.

There has been created in new age by both those that don't understand and the black ops folks a 5d for new agers, and a heaven someplace with Jesus for christians. Neither is true. It all has worked to keep some from not coming into action, by creating a "ready made" place for people to go to, so why bother with fixing this place, essentially, was the goal and it's working pretty well actually.

the matter here will change to a higher vibratory level, and probably during the long stasis when a bigger lap of the wave will come in. Words like 3d, 4d, 5d are states of consciousness, and there is no way this world can just skip to 5d. Its not there in the people. plus each level is carefully planned as to experiences to be had. 4d is supposed to be a confused mess in the lower stages where people are have to get off the fence and serve either the light or the dark. Its a time of great great arguing and is behind the teaching of Jesus, in the statements about he came not to bring peace but dissension.

then there is DENSITY, which is matter, not consciousness. This world is 2nd Density and always well be. evolutionary lifebearing planets are always 2nd Density. 1st Density are spheres like moons, suns, etc that do no bear life.

3rd Density worlds are custom built. these are officially the spheres of heaven, but planets like this become very heavenly as to the level of consciousness that can be obtained. Up to 9.99999 dimensional consciousness. right now this world is still just barely 4d. and we can label that as 2.41, meaning 2nd Density, 4.1 dimensional consciousness (which is an average of everyone).

the magic 5d consciousness is not obtained until the people average that! I have given an example of just glp here. GLP can only be as godlike as is the sum total of the consciousness of it's members. Same with the whole of the planet. And within each organization on the planet. the vibration of the matter will increase over time with the consciousness, but this can never be a 3rd Density world. It cannot have what is called morontial elements, those generally above our 100. The 3rd Density "heaven" worlds are the bottom of heaven so to speak. and they have 200 elements.

5d will be the dimension of Peace but the folks that get to stay here are going thru a lot of experiences to get them to that stage. A NWO that maintains peace by guns is not 5d. 5d is the beginning level of true god consciousness, in which the people understand they co create with God and see consciously to make all decisions in alignment with the Fathers Will. They don't always do that, but they struggle to do that by choice. That is still terribly absent here.

ON the Havona worlds, there are 1000 elements, a mix of material and morontial elements which just can't be explained here at this time. But even there, are lakes, streams and air, just a more refined version.

our astral realms are mental constructs.

the idea behind new age that there will be wonder IS SO, but it has to be co created. And as the Bestowal world of Michael of Nebadon, this IS a special world and always well be in Nebadon. the rumors are not false necessarily, they just are quite understood. Only one planet of the 10 million possible in Nebadon will have this experience as the bestowal world of Michael. And to use the english slang, that IS A BIG HAIRY DEAL.

to There is no Handle, your lion avatar says much!

As to ET's please look at this image of the sun from march. This is from Stereo Ahead.

Enlarge the post or transfer the image to your computer and enlarge it, so you can see better the craft around the sun. those are not pixel errors. These craft are much larger than earth, everyone of them. They are equipped with energy beams of various sorts and they are doing some "remodeling" on the sun.

These craft are not owned by folks from ordinary planets. They are owned by the Superuniverse management that earth belongs to. (the milky way is the core galaxy of the our superuniverse, but not the whole of it, to give you an idea of the size of the superuniverse. (there are 7 superuniverses). Each superuniverse has a massive government. it is not "God" that does all this stuff, it is the sons of god that do all this stuff. These craft are manned by both angelic and human beings. Man does become like the angels after all. Pause and ponder the wonders of the creation when you look at these and realize you are part of that creation and you to one day will be engaged in stuff such as managing suns and solar systems.

Ok, Esu said they are now working on the new biggy sunspot 1289 and there might be images on stereo. Well here is one on Ahead earlier today. be sure to click the plus to enlarge. from Ahead today. left of image is front of sun.

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) one not far off from sunspot [\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) maybe a whole craft or shooting a beam?

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) hmm FLARE!

OK now to stereo Behind sunspot 1289 is to the right and look at that big sunspot area coming around maybe, unless it dries up. Right of images is front of sun.

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) Just a couple here but not close to the sunspot.

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) BIGGY with perhaps a few smaller ones around it near the top of the image.

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) 4 on the left side. the big one may be the same one above having moving to a new spot

from yesterday ahead (left of images would be front on sun)

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#)

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) that big puppy again? and a couple smaller ones

[\[link to stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov\]](#) big puppy again, same or another?

from Stereo Behind, near end of yesterday. (right of image would be front of sun) this happens OFTEN after a shock wave with a CME, I have seen it several times. I once thought it meant the "detection" of a new storm coming in, because that has happened sometimes, but other times, there is no relation. I assume today, its going to be another storm.

the meaning is that the field is tightly closed, which is evident also on the AE index graphs on the lower right. The AE etc index, is a group of satellites closer to earth inside the magnetosphere. They always show when the energy IS inside the magnetosphere, as in yesterday, the field was wide open. Today it tightly shut so the ae index shows that. Nothing coming despite the moderately high wind speed. I saw this last 24 hours or longer once.

If it lasts too long though, fleet will likely take some sort of action as the earth Needs protons coming in. The bz is VERY high always when this "ball" is there.

I bolded the stuff you wrote that makes absolute sense to me and checks with my internal knowing. I've heard theories from Kavassilas and Stankov and a few others of jumping into 5D so suddenly and every time I tried to internalize it my gut was coming back with bad vibes in such scenario. 99% of people on this planet would not be able to handle such a jump from the current state. We have so much to learn still even us that are a bit more aware than most.

BTW, I wanted to thank you for your response to the post about 2 Earths etc. I had resonance issues with some of the info and you cleared it up for me.

As I share this material with a couple of lists I'm on or own, I try to be careful and not spread incorrect data. It's a challenge of course as I am not nearly as plugged in as you are. :-)

I'm sure most of us are on the edge of our seat wondering how this is going to play out.

Here is to patience!

As an aside, it is a BEAUTIFUL day here in Joshua Tree. Mid to upper seventies with blue skies.....
