I recently made an unplanned appearance one night when I was tired, but too early to go to bed and not focused enough to start something else. I have a thread resulting from that here, which I will attempt to remember to add some more material based on the impromptu discussion that night.

Thread: NIPS Answers to glpvc experience March 8.

You can add any questions to THIS THREAD you would like covered tomorrow night. I have no set agenda, this is be an event of those participating to ask questions. It will be Moderated, and Phenn invited me to do it last Thursday Mar 8. She will be there, as long as she is well, and it will be of course moderated, so it will not descend into shit slinging.

I also earlier this week on was a radio station located in Australia. There is a thread running here about that. Thread: NIP appearing on RadioFremantle107.9fm archive link posted last pg Phenn near the end of the thread placed the 2 links to the archive for it. The archive will expire by next thursday but we will have a permanent link to the show on my site when we can provide one.

So ponder your topics, and I hopefully would like for Christianity to cover what it is you DO for your life eternal of trillions of years, but this will go where it goes.

I will green pin THIS thread later this afternoon, I have earth stuff to contend with for a few hours. Phenn will red pin it tomorrow.

Teaching #54 from THE WAY OF LIFE by Lao Tzu

*Since true foundation cannot fail
But holds as good as new,
Many a worshipful son shall hail
A father who lived true.
Realized in one man, fitness has its rise;
Realized in a family, fitness multiplies;
Realized in a village, fitness gathers weight;
Realized in a country, fitness becomes great;
Realized in the world, fitness fills the skies.
And thus the fitness of one man
You find in the family he began,
You find in the village that accrued,*

*You find in the country that ensued,
You find in the world's whole multitude.
How do I know this integrity?
Because it could all begin in me*

NIP, you have corrupted the UB beyond redemption with the Phoenix Journals.

As far as the picture you post as Jesus Christ, it is laughable.

Sorry to be blunt to the point of rude, but you've ended up burning the bridges that got you to where you are and now have very little credibility left. A Podcast on St. Patrick's Day could be a drunkfest.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12494936

since I KNOW both that played Jesus personally I answer you that no I have not. Nor has my team of telepaths who are also connected to them and others of the higher realms. I didn't set the date by the way. And I didn't register it as being St. Patricks day which is something I pay no attention to any way, it has no meaning to me, other than its another day in the calendar. I actually have increasing credibility and so do the rest of us. Things are going well enough.

Now this is a thread for questions, did you have one?

I liked the interpretation of the commandments in that post. It explained a lot more than just the one sentence does, and it made a lot of sense to me. I'm sorry if the rules explained properly are too hard for you. If you're talking of a different post from the journals I haven't seen it yet.

You are denying the Christ actually Incarnated in the flesh, which is contrary to what the Urantia Book states, as well as the Bible. Put in terms of a question:

If Christ Michael never incarnated in the flesh, how can he be a 7th stage Creator Son?

I've read the UB 6 times, NIP.

The UB statement on Incarnation Bestowals given by the Melchizideks is that they themselves are not privy to the secrets of Sonarington and cannot testify as fact to which is merely their opinion.

You are denying a historical reality of the power of a Creator Son to incarnate in the very essence of the creations of the Creator and in so doing you are underestimating their power and abilities. Your statements are contrary to Urantia Book teachings.

I have enough of this. I KNOW things of which you apparently do not and I am not going to reply any more to this obvious game. I too have read it at least that many times. PHOTON/Spirit/Energy BEINGS cannot occupy flesh. The flesh is consumed. Photons consume the flesh, which is why fusing with the Thought adjuster when in the material body will consume it. If you persist iin that which you do not know, I will remove further similar posts if you continue and my work will not be destroyed by your misunderstanding. The Father Fragment is made of programmed photons.

I do know who I work with, and we have agreed on this story we carry at this time, which before we could carry it, had to be approved. And Christ Michael himself gave the first parts of the additional material. You can accept that, or not, it is your choice, but I do know my job and whom I work with. We are revelatory, as were the Phoenix Journals and what is revealed is approved FIRST before it is revealed. My other team members that also work with these ones know similarly and have such confirmed to them.

I would think you know the UB far more than I, but I am somewhat surprised at your beliefs; and as I am not familiar with the Phoenix Journals, I can't speak about them.

However, Jesus of Nazareth received the same Father Fragment which had inhabited Machiventa Melchizidek in his Incarnation in the flesh for 93 years. If the same Indwelling Adjuster had inhabited both individuals and that Father Fragment had access to the life experiences of Machiventa which aided Jesus, then clearly the Father Fragment is not 'programmed photons' per se, but rather a summation of that creature's experiences while in the human form.

Similarly, Adjuster fusion resulting in the immediate consummation of the host is not the case in self-actualized adjusters. It is that duality of God in unison with man at that higher level that would allow for a higher level of understanding in the human form. While I would agree that in most cases immolation would occur, the fact that Jesus of Nazareth had attained access to his own self acting visualized adjuster, He is living proof that immediate immolation need not occur.

We can read within the UB the testimony of valiant Indwelling Adjusters who sought a greater degree of participation with their human hosts. These Father Fragments are not 'programmed photons' at all, they are individualized spiritual beings who grow within the minds of man as God's lowest creatures that these Fragments may one day attain the Father Himself within their own individual status of being into whom they were indwelt.

Feel free to banish my posts if you wish, but if you do so because you think that it is I who have the misunderstanding on what the UB states, I'm not so sure that it is not you yourself who does not like an actual discussion of UB content. Granted, the UB would side with you on the issue of Father Fragment and immediate dissolution and I'm not so certainly convinced.

As you prefer questions:

Could the manifestation of a self actualized adjuster fused within the human counterpart suffice as a pre-qualification as the Supreme Being?

AC: 12494936 I will look at your new post later, because the topic you bring up will NOT be interesting to those likely to partake of the post cast. Just letting you know that. There is another factor to be considered and I need to study it and do have "time" left to detail that. Perhaps it might even better be placed in my UB thread. You may wish to consider reading just Phoenix Journal 2 and 3, which are here. [link to www.freewebs.com] It will help you understand where I am coming from.

My strong statement was because there have been some others who have come on purpose to distract the work. I had to even stop working here in seriousness until Trinity made it so gold stars could moderate their own threads, I could leave for a couple hours and come back to several pages of bullshit in my threads, making it nearly impossible to find real questions and answer them 15 pages later. If you are a serious person then I will discuss with you. There have been several here who work to totally destroy the UB and that is why I started a UB thread so I can toss those ones out on their proverbial ears.

Since this is the podcast thread and most aren't even interested in the Thought adjuster, and misconcept it with the "Holy spirit" and the Spirit of Truth anyway, its not a good podcast topic. Certainly maybe doing a private room in the glpvc might perhaps be an option some time for discussion. So if your intent in pure, I will ask you to take this up in the UB thread. well the UB is not a good book to discuss too much on the podcast, it must be read first, and I suggested to the above person taking about the UB, that the discussion go to the UB thread I started some time ago. If there is great interest in that book, a special chat room would be more useful for those interested some other time. This one tomorrow night will go the direction that those attending and moderating want it to go, I want it to be mostly questions to me. I don't have any particular topic, I tried that last time over some political stuff I thought good, to get away from star fleet stuff, and it went star fleet stuff and more anyway.

Well i hope i can be present during this broadcast tomorrow... I am not familiar with any of this as far as the book that has been mentioned...but i have had a lucid dream just recently that i shared with NiP.....so my interest has been sparked....always looking for answers to some powerful experiences i have had in my life...and although i gave NIP a hard time when she first came to GLP i see a very different side of her...i see a more loving person evolving...perhaps this was here from the begining but i was blinded by my own distrust....personal beliefs are the hardest to change..I always tread lightly into new waters...looking forward to the podcast NIP....

well the UB is not a good book to discuss too much on the podcast, it must be read first, and I suggested to the above person taking about the UB, that the discussion go to the UB thread I started some time ago. If there is great interest in that book, a special chat room would be more useful for those interested some other time. This one tomorrow night will go the direction that those attending and moderating want it to go, I want it to be mostly questions to me. I don't have any particular topic, I tried that last time over some political stuff I thought good, to get away from star fleet stuff, and it went star fleet stuff and more anyway.

You didn't give near the hard time some did! I actually liked this one you created.

I removed a bunch of irreverent posts. This thread is not for the purpose of bashing me or my work or any member of the 2nd Coming team. We are here to help provide education that can improve your quest of your life eternal. Earth is about to re enter "heaven" which is the cosmos beloveds. It has been a prison ward as the result of the Lucifer Rebellion and the Orion Wars.

The purpose of this thread is to announce the podcast tonight and and you may place questions here to be considered for the discussion. The podcast will be very open to those wishing to participate. Please be respectful. The owners and mods of glp have provided a wondrous example of a place of sharing and discussing knowledge. Please return the respect.

NIP, you have corrupted the UB beyond redemption with the Phoenix Journals.

As far as the picture you post as Jesus Christ, it is laughable.

Sorry to be blunt to the point of rude, but you've ended up burning the bridges that got you to where you are and now have very little credibility left. A Podcast on St. Patrick's Day could be a drunkfest.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12494936

I liked the interpretation of the commandments in that post. It explained a lot more than just the one sentence does, and it made a lot of sense to me. I'm sorry if the rules explained properly are too hard for you. If your talking of a different post from the journals I haven't seen it yet.

Quoting: alexisj9

I still have to continue that thread, there is a lot more in it, regards the commandments. People come here and bash in this manner, because they are yet not educated enough to know better and to seek more. In the radio show the other day, we chatted on the "bottomless" pit, and regards on earth, the pit of war, media, pollution etc appears to have no bottom. And then I mentioned that there is no LID either, on the seeking to become LIKE the Father. In fact seeking is of God and a process over the long life eternal that never stops, not even for the ones at the very top of the hierarchy ladder, not even for the oldest of beings in the very very old creation.

The creation, labeled the "universe" on earth, is not 15 billion or so years old and I think higher science knows that but will not place that before the public, There never was a big bang that started it all. There is sort of a bang, when each individual nebula is brought into creation. When space conditions are right, new ones are set into motion. And in time gathered together into a "universe" under an administration. Earth is in a new one of those creations, but even the nebulas that became Nebadon, go back nearly 1 trillion years. If you are going to use "time" the creation which had no beginning, there are not dates, is trillions upon trillions of years old and much of it is not visible from our telescopes. 15 billion or so years is preposterous and limiting.

Scientists have correctly estimated earths age at around 4.5 billion years, if that vast creation that is visible from our telescopes is only 14 to 20 billion years old, how can earth then even exist yet?

NIP, I have a question. On another thread you almost admitted that your trip is the same on that the Ashtar Command whipped to a frenzy 30 years ago. My question is this. What do you say about the people back then that quit school to follow the Ashtar Command and prepare for the then "imminent" pole shift and shtf they predicted for 1985. Most of them learned from the experience and moved on to reconstruct their lives. Do you not think that someone like me who did have contact with these people years ago would find your trip suspect after the stuff I uncovered about them back then and the lives I witnessed being derailed by this same nonsense?

I am a telepath, contactee and lots of other stuff as well, and I can say that your claim to be in contact with Christ Michael is incorrect. This entity is NOT THE Christ. It is a disincarnated entity that simply feeds off of the power you give it. Yes, it knows a LOT. But it is NOT from the highest realm of Truth and Light.

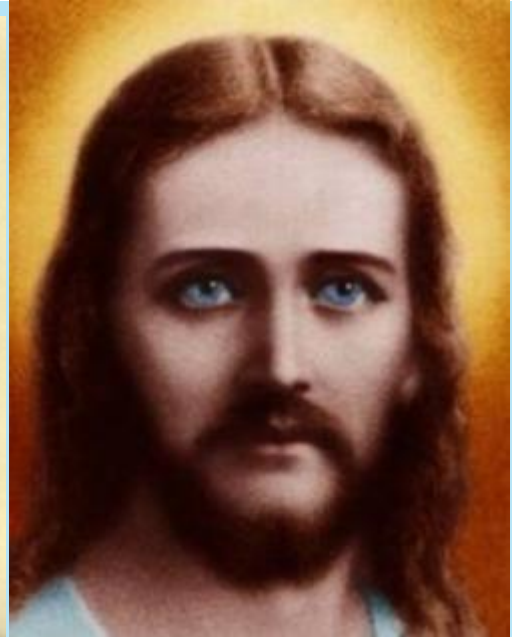

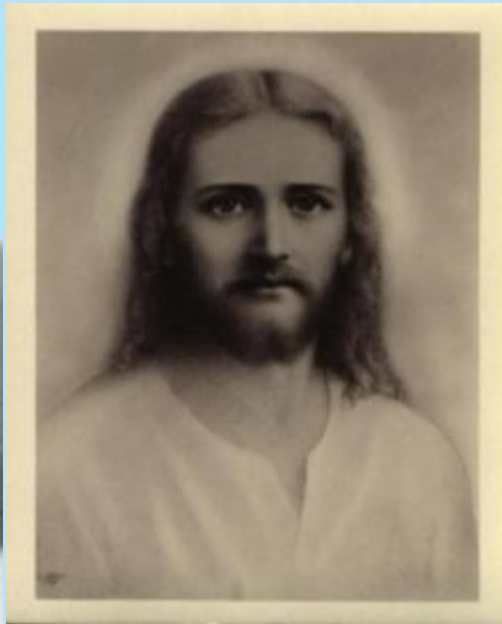

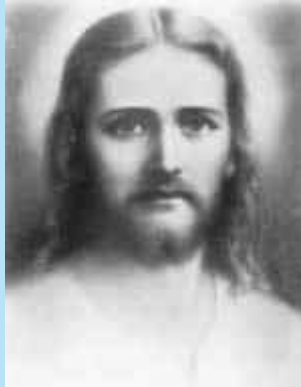

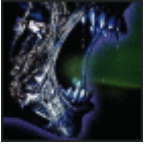

I could say more but choose not to, as every time I try to mention anything about Truth in your posts, I become spiritually attacked.

NIP, I hope you do wake up to who you are really talking to in your channelings. It is not who you think.

NIP, I kid you not!.. I had a dream I will never forget.. It was about a year ago I had a dream I was walking in streets of Israel and everyone was reaching out to touch this person dressed in white cloth.

When I finally got to this person I was able to see clearly Jesus with reddish hair and bright blue eyes.

I reach out to touch him and at the same time he reached out and touched me.

I awoke from the dream with this vision planted in my head every morning I wake up...

People keep doing that stuff because they want out of here. They have done it with my work, and its no different in a way from the religions "rapture". I was NOT involved in what happened in 1985, so I can't really comment on the reactions of others. But the CIA also built a whole new age religion of websites off of it. The evacuation has been impending since those days and earlier in fact, and it depends on where man is going and what's going on moment to moment. They always start EARLY and in fact, EARLY starting was 2000 years ago with Michael/Esu/Jesus coming to the planet. And before then, with Buddha and all the others that have come to let man know the end of this age was approaching. I have only read relatively small amounts of that material, and I think PJ #5 was used to reproduce it, because a bunch of Ashtars material given in that one I recognized as being given some years before, I think thru Tuella, but I don't remember exactly.

Even when Dove hit the web with NESARA, people went out and ran up their charge cards and debt, bought fancy cars, houses, stop paying student loans etc, so NESARA could pay for it, when the debt was forgiven. This is not wise planning, but some people ARE that way, and that is their reaction. And Dove kept SAYING over and over, don't do that. And keep paying your debt, but people made more debt beyond their ability, even people in other countries where NESARA was not intended to manifest at that time.

But ones need to be ready for any eventuality, in terms of storage of food and having small cash on hand, in the event of any banking holidays etc. And that has nothing to do with the evacuation, its just good sense. The mormon church, on that I give them credit, they encourage preparations to survive contingencies of all sorts.

If you are attacked, it is dark entities doing it, not the hierarchy I work with and I will not tolerate those posts in my threads. I am as I say I AM. I know there is intent today to derail this and it is not going to be successful. Some ones posting here come with that intent.

editing, understand that a new IP number will not prevent another ban. It will create another ban and a removed post. YOU are not going to destroy the intent of this podcast tonight.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12665862

it is not for me, God, or anyone else to PROVE anything to you. It is YOUR responsibility to question, look, read, ponder, and do it IN A STATE OF MEDITATION< so YOUR FATHER FRAGMENT thru the bestowed Spirit of Truth, Michael's Spirit, can confirm or not. And those who are still younger souls in ignorance won't do that or accept it anyway, because it differs from their programming and ability to reason.

To accept some of OUR work, as truth, requires necessary personal experience that has resulted in wisdom to understand and verify . There is for example, NO WAY I can prove anyone is a SON of GOD, that is something that results from the personal journey. People thru their experiences come to know they are Sons of the Father. When a new soul is created, it is IGNORANT and seen as "stupid" by others, It doesn't know anything. That is why there are "stupid" people on earth, they are simply YOUNG and Immature and forming themselves and do not reason well yet, and in fact don't have the experience to reason well.

The process of evolving ORGANIC MIND is a very long one. And this planet is for the purpose of that, being a seed world and because it does take so long, the purpose here by the life carriers was to attempt to speed up the process experimentally, and it did, God mind evolved on this planet showed up at least 500,000 years or so before it was expected. This was a surprise in fact to Nebadon, and there was no person yet selected as Planetary Prince, who would be "God" of earth, to steer the process from that point on. So this early mind went on for some time, before the prince was selected. And that Prince went into default with Lucifer which mucked up the whole thing even more. Earth, also being in the midst of the orion, pleiadian wars, had other not so great "gods" in the interim. Yahweh was a Pleiadian "god" who ruled with a iron fist and that didn't go any to well either.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO GROW YOUR MIND. Folks like me are here to help make up for the long period of things that did not work right, and Christ Michael has this program called the Correcting Time" which is also for the other planets whose Princes entered the Lucifer Rebellion. We are all trying to help the evolving ones of this planet CATCH UP. Other races who have colonized here have caused some issues too. Its a big mess, but we can only teach, it is up to you ones to research it and prove its worth to yourselves. It can be no other way. Mind grows no other way. True, mind can be programmed, but that does not necessarily lead to wisdom. God just could go program you all some more, but that does not mean you would come into KNOWING, which is Understanding.

If the churches would teach the simple concept of soul work, this world would would change nearly overnight, as it would seem and we cannot get that cooperation, because the thugs remain in over control of them. The star seed wakeup on this planet has been dismal at best. some not only don't remember why they came, they don't remember THAT they came! WE had to descend into human density on this world to help it and we had to subscribe to the mind control of this world to look like the others during our young years. Otherwise we would all be burned at the stake. Well they have new ways now to make us miserable too. ONLY YOU ones who are here can awaken from that ugly dream and go into action. That is WHY the UB was in fact given when it was, not so much for the average soul maturing on this planet, but for those that came from "heaven" to remind them WHERE they came from! Some are rejecting the book to this day, IF they find it in the first place. But for the ones that find it, and "hear", they will remember.

I suggest some of you resistant ones, give it a try for that very reason.

Others have ASKED in sincerity for proof and they have received it. I get pms all the time and mail, from ones with their stories of say, meeting Jesus during meditations and lucid dreams. I was given abundant proof years ago before I began this public role, otherwise I would never undertaken this in the first place. I have posted many of those stories and I am not doing that today. YOU WILL FIND YOUR PROOF of YOU ARE DESIROUS of TRUTH. It is not my work to do it FOR YOU nor is it even possible. If you are guided to certain books or music, do that. If you are given dreams, or meet certain people, take advantage. YOU WALK YOU R OWN PATH< YOU CREATE YOUR OWN PATH and NOT ME< JESUS< GOD< Buddha, Krishna, nor any of the oriental masters that have graced this world can do it FOR YOU, nor would we, even if we could. I will be back in a hour or two. With my godlike gold star power to ban and delete those coming here today on purpose to attempt to ruin the day. I would advise not spending similar efforts tonight. This podcast is going to be good. Again, I can prove nothing to anyone, you each must write your own path, using materials at hand, and your personal journey to date in your LIFE Eternal to that purpose. Jesus demonstrated right living and going into meditation to speak to the Father. Even he had to "find himself" in the density of this world before he began his public mission, and he never even had to do that!, the public mission, it was his choice. You who are old souls must dig yourselves out too, some of you have been given encouragement to do that, but lost your courage.

Younger souls of any age, are always charged with writing their own path. only YOU can do it. We only provide ideas and tools. And truth of how it is of course, but only you can verify it for yourself. Look at the sky more with boxes off heads, for some of your proof, regards those LIGHTS that are not "stars" up there.

NIP, I have a question. On another thread you almost admitted that your trip is the same on that the Ashtar Command whipped to a frenzy 30 years ago. My question is this. What do you say about the people back then that quit school to follow the Ashtar Command and prepare for the then "imminent" pole shift and shtf they predicted for 1985. Most of them learned from the experience and moved on to reconstruct their lives. Do you not think that someone like me who did have contact with these people years ago would find your trip suspect after the stuff I uncovered about them back then and the lives I witnessed being derailed by this same nonsense?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 10422385

People keep doing that stuff because they want out of here. They have done it with my work, and its no different in a way from the religions "rapture". I was NOT involved in what happened in 1985, so I can't really comment on the reactions of others. But the CIA also built a whole new age religion of websites off of it. The evacuation has been impending since those days and earlier in fact, and it depends on where man is going and what's going on moment to moment. They always start EARLY and in fact, EARLY starting was 2000 years ago with Michael/Esu/Jesus coming to the planet. And before then, with Buddha and all the others that have come to let man know the end of this age was approaching. I have only read relatively small amounts of that material, and I think PJ #5 was used to reproduce it, because a bunch of Ashtars material given in that one I recognized as being given some years before, I think thru Tuella, but I don't remember exactly.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

But do you not find it disturbing that people make life changing decisions based on this material that never happens? Would you not feel responsible if some kid read your stuff and dropped out of school only to find 10 years later that the world is no different that it was before and they probably should have stayed in school? I have watched Ashtar dangle the carrot just out of the following's reach since the late 70s. It looks like your "mission" is to give it all a new face, but it is the same as what seriously harmed many people decades ago.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 10422385

School? REally? Illuminati mind control sheep. Dude i know MILLIONS OF PEOPLE who went to school and college and are still clinically retarded.

School is a horrible example to argue with. I wish a few hundred million or so would drop out of school, would really help planet earth to stop the idiotic indoctrinations.

Quoting: Fatstogie

Well, maybe its just me, but when I need to see a doctor, I expect him to be educated in Medicine. I guess it's true that lack of education is a prerequisite for belonging to Candace's reheated Ashtar Command cult. I know Candace will probably delete and ban me now as she always does when anyone doesn't just kiss her holy feet.

Nip, is there any way for you to prove what you are saying?
I mean it's hard to believe you just like that.

If you cannot prove it, you cannot be trusted.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12665862

it is not for me, God, or anyone else to PROVE anything to you. It is YOUR responsibility to question, look, read, ponder, and do it IN A STATE OF MEDITATION< so YOUR FATHER FRAGMENT thru the bestowed Spirit of Truth, Michael's Spirit, can confirm or not.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

So, no proof.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12665862

what do you not understand here. YOU make your proof, JUST AS I MADE MINE when I ENTERED this role many years ago. You do it, or it doesn't get done. Not I nor Jesus nor anyone can do that for you. What do you want proof of, perhaps you can be more specific? Me thinks you are here to irritate, not to prove for yourself. Did I hit that on the proverbial nail?

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

seems more like that you cannot back up what you say.

This mod invited me for the podcast, after she helped calm down what was going on in VC last week. I am honored to have her support, and she is not afraid to call it how it is. I spent a goodly amount on time today removing the troll material. Now please ask questions if you have some besides "proof it to me". I can't "prove" my days to you any more than you can "prove" yours to me.

Your knowing and your obtaining your knowing remains completely in your hands. I have a good sized team, this is not a singular project, and a lot of thinking people like the material and I do not encourage "following" whatsoever. Yep I just deleted a post on that one. I encourage people to THINK about what they "follow" and lend support to, because this world has some serious problems because of that following in all arenas.

In one way, I don't care what people are deciding about "god". I care about the welfare of those and the planet, and the troubles of this planet are related to following religions, the MSM, and politics without bothering to spend time in research. I actually do a lot of posting in threads having nothing to do with God or Religion.

But religion is used by the thugs to mind control people into following the political agenda of destruction, and that I DO MIND. And example is christian Zionist support of Khazar agenda. And I do mind that one set of God's sons and daughters think its OK to destroy God's other sons and daughter, by seeing them as animals, or less than. This is accomplished easily thru political events and wars, and is carried out with the cooperation of the MSM.

You seen in the days before the tell a vision sets, people had to actually READ the papers. This actually promoted some thinking and discernment. A picture is worth a thousand words and that is so. They have to just show a mean ugly bin ladin or a few al cia duh split second training films, and so on and so forth, and a thousand words are NOT then there to cause at least some thinking. TV is a blessing and a curse and as with all technology, it can be used for good or bad, depends on the intent.

Oh and I do CARE about people finding that inner strength, their inner God by whatever terms used, and about the development of GOD MIND. But you MUST develop your God MIND, no can do it for you. It requires conscious effort. The elite wish to do everything for you, so you don't have to LEARN to do it for yourself. Mind that is not challenged, does NOT grow.

If even a few people look that what they have followed, and think about it, and make changes if necessary by that conscious act of thinking, my purpose will be complete. Our purpose on this seed world, is to produce SOVEREIGN individuals, who can link up with their inner self, and stand firmly in their own shoes, by their experience and reasoning and self direct their course. So be it. You are invited to consider that statement and apply it to everything you do. Are you following, or are you creating your life consciously?

So Jesus and his host ride horses across the sky to rapture you to heaven naked while leaving your clothes neatly folded, or is that perhaps a santa claus type fairy tale. You cannot be taken to your next journey minus the craft when the planet is emptied beloveds. You cannot hop on a horse in the clouds but you can ride up the beam of a craft. Only some of you can negotiate free space (always minus the animal body) and I hope that those that can, have remembered who they are.

Many of you are going to go in your current bodies to other worlds and my, won't that be an experience in learning? Its that or dump your bodies and be born a babe someplace again, unless you are mansion world bound, and then you get a new body there. I would opt myself for a continuation in your current life if you able.

hi NIP. Thrilled that your on tonight, looking forward to it. As one who can testify to those demanding proof, that it IS there if you look, listen, read and learn. I found the proof I was looking for! It took a lot of work. Not a little, a lot. I offer proof of how I did it to those with good intent and genuine desire. Too many however, expect to be handed silver platter treating it with the same conviction ala burger drive-thru. To that I say take a hike.

I would be interested in answers to some questions:

1. can you fill-in some of earth history that was left out (on purpose) in the UB? Can you speak to the blank periods where no history was given, like 50,000-65,000 years ago and what was going on after the rebellion 200,000 years ago e.g., the galactic war periods?
2. UB says there WAS a Noah but there never was a world wide flood short of what happened when it rained so much after firmament was taken down. Yet, the story of the asteroid taking down Atlantis at that time would have been huge. Can you speak to that some?
3. The Midwayers are a facinating bunch. What role did they play in for instance, Greek Mythology?

Thanks, good luck tonight?

Jamesbo, if the questions are not broached tonight, I will provide answer tomorrow to these, otherwise I will keep them in mind anyway, and probably the link up to this thread if others should post to it. I have paid little attention to greek mythology though, but I assume they have had many mythology roles, either were thought to be some of those, or help set up games, who knows on that one. Eve plays with some now and again, maybe she should channel one. I will make that suggestion to her now in fact. I have not worked with them but I suspect they were involved with my own wakeup, as to little things that happened along the way.

Teaching #54 from THE WAY OF LIFE by Lao Tzu

*Since true foundation cannot fail
But holds as good as new,
Many a worshipful son shall hail
A father who lived true.*

*Realized in one man, fitness has its rise;
Realized in a family, fitness multiplies;
Realized in a village, fitness gathers weight;
Realized in a country, fitness becomes great;
Realized in the world, fitness fills the skies.*

*And thus the fitness of one man
You find in the family he began,
You find in the village that accrued,
You find in the country that ensued,
You find in the world's whole multitude.
How do I know this integrity?
Because it could all begin in me*

I enjoyed the show very much, nice and calm for the most part. I was very interested in the information pertaining to getting on global tv and the hang-ups and potential ramifications this would elicit. 🍷💐

Those of you who posted questions that didn't get acknowledged in the text field etc, post them here. this is also the AFTER the podcast thread. I will attempt when I wake up enough to remember some of them, or things left unanswered. it went all over the place, which was the intent.

This was amazing all of the information given, thank you Nip!

I learned a few things, and a lot of what you stated made sense to me, because the world in which we live currently, does not make any sense at all.

The lack of progress in moving forward with current world issues is answered, as well as the state involving a soul's journey. Many people I know do not have a conscious understanding of world issues at this time, and I can now justify to myself.....with better understanding why!

I always knew within that there was more to learn, that God above was not limited in the way in which we had been taught, and NOW so much fits into place regarding my inner questions, regarding ET's, the universe, creation, and the soul's journey.

Thank you for your teachings and for being a way-shower to many!

I just blanched my soy beans to make them last another day, I have no concentration to be able to make the milk, it would burn it, boil it all over the stove, if I got that far! I took some psychic attacking last night I am having to remove too. But the process grows however we can grow it. I am going to attempt to make a pot of clean out the fridge soup, it is not as testy as making soy milk.

I just removed a post and re banned again. this time that person asked for PROOF of whom I work with. I can tell you if Jesus himself logged in here tonight, you would reject him. Others have ASKED in sincerity for proof and they have received it. I get pms all the time and mail, from ones with their stories of say, meeting Jesus during meditations and lucid dreams. I was given abundant proof years ago before I began this public role, otherwise I would never undertaken this in the first place. I have posted many of those stories and I am not doing that today. YOU WILL FIND YOUR PROOF of YOU ARE DESIROUS of TRUTH. It is not my work to do it FOR YOU nor is it even possible. If you are guided to certain books or music, do that. If you are given dreams, or meet certain people, take advantage. YOU WALK YOU R OWN PATH< YOU CREATE YOUR OWN PATH and NOT ME< JESUS< GOD< Buddha, Krishna, nor any of the oriental masters that have graced this world can do it FOR YOU, nor would we, even if we could. NIP and other telepaths get many messages in verbal and/or visual form. I don't get much of that. I don't remember meeting CM or any other specific people. If I may say so, I don't really care much for personalities. Or celebrities. Not to trivialize anyone's work or importance, but I just don't care if someone is famous, deep down. Some of the details in UB are interesting history, but some of it is too much for me to focus on at this time and I feel that I don't have to know all of it. If I feel a need to read a section, I read it.

If I met CM I would wonder what I could learn from him. (Probably, a lot, and I would try to do it.) But it doesn't make or break my views of things. Maybe I'm just arrogant; it's been said before. But others consider me humble. Everyone has some sort of reeaction to me though, I can't seem to have a peaceful life because of it!

Anyway my revelations or impressions come more as feelings, which I put together with logic. I'm good at logic and I know its capabilities and limits. It's a role I have taken in this life, to apply logic to things and ask revealing logical questions. To increase the pervasiveness of logic and, sometimes, to frustrate those who say things that must be at least partly wrong because they are internally inconsistent or inconsistent with known facts. If these things are pushed, they create confusion not reliable knowledge.

I'm just saying this to provide another, different example of experience, of how one might convince themselves of the possible truth of what NIP is saying. I don't know that it's true, but I don't know that it's NOT true either, because it meets logical tests I'm constantly applying to what I observe, it and she pass the "smell test" of sincerity, and all that puts it far above most theories that I read. It's generally consistent with the clues, earthly and otherwise, that I've picked up here and there. Everyone will have their own clues, and I think one can have an interesting time applying cold hard logic to what one has actually observed and experienced in this incarnation. As things have gone along in the past year or two, it's done better than a random, wrong theory would probably do.

I encourage everyone to think for themselves. That's pretty unusual, much as the phrase is used. I remember the exact moment, when I was about 20 years old, when I realized I could think and figure things out for myself. And I was lucky, because life provided me more opportunities and practice than most to figure out and understand things. Now we are all facing the sort of hard questions that fascinated Isaac Newton after he did the "easy" stuff of producing a version of the Calculus, and describing Mechanics in a usable form. Courage! God will respect you for it and help you.

One thing that has worked for me to test my beliefs is to ask myself the question: "what is the most embarrassing question I could ask about this?" God has consistently answered this and thus shown me a way to check and deepen my understanding. You don't have to come to one view or the other about what NIP presents and I don't think it's the most important thing. The most important thing, for yourself and us all, is that you DO THE WORK.

I meant to bring up something last night and that is about the SDO images and videos out, claiming to show how the craft or death star or is refueling on the sun, this is a terrible case of the blind leading the blind, of which there was suggestion of such 2000 years ago. I applaud people looking but few in the threads here I looked thru accepted anything but the postulates of those making the you tube video's.

This was nothing more than a magnetic filament which lifted off at some point, but in the meantime there was a roundish BUBBLE in the coronal gases. Craft do not fuel up this way, even if they were to use the corona of the sun to do so. I guess we are used to fuel tanks on this world.... and assume others do the same. One person in one of the threads which I did not bookmark and I am not going to go hunt for it, showed some other images from SDO where it much more obvious this was a bubble. The different color spectrum images can vary, but this was NOT a craft.

Another issue, is that one of the magnetic change on the back side of earth, in this imaging by BATS R US [link to iswa.gsfc.nasa.gov:8080] In the image in the threads on this, there was a thin red area on the back side of earth. That was just a strong magnetic reconnection, in the magnetotail. I have seen this before on the above imaging system. the imaging above of the magnetopause depresses and fluctuates a great deal during storms. It is supposed to make this reconnection on the back side of earth. Happens in varying intensities. It is not a magnetic reversal either, which one person labeled it that. Nor are the red and blue lines crossing in the magnetic field images on NICT magnetic reversals. In fact this is associated with the bz being high with a closed system.

oh I am better today, yesterday was so long, not all of it the podcast, I just assume there was "energy stuff" and just my own body reactions too. I couldn't focus well at all. we all get days, will many of us, when our minds just don't function so well. People are increasingly having more of this and i have an impaired nervous system anyway and the tense muscles of arthritis and I get tired days. Not illness, just waggged..... Saturday all day was emotionally challenged, just the excitement building up around the podcast, so that used "mental" energy. I was far more relaxed than the first one, I had a bit of stage fright, been years since I had done something of that sort with people, then the Thursday I went impromptu and the radio show I did are all taking that away. I was very comfortable Saturday night, no more frightening then chatting with friends on the phone, which was NICE for me and very enjoyable.

Either during this podcast, or duing the impromptu event earlier, there was a discussion on machine mind/AI. Now I asked somebody to please WRITE their questions about it, and nothing showed up. It was something I could not answer that night/nights. I was reminded of this when I saw this thread I had done posting in Thread: Has this scientist changed the world with his discovery? A forumla for consciousness????? on the topic, on the front today. Please if you see this here, or in my other thread, PLEASE post your questions on this.

It is so funny you would say this, and then, when someone has a differing opinion, you not only ban them from your thread, consistently and often, but also have your minions send them a psychic attack and also send a virus to their computer. There was at least one lovely lady who was desperately trying to get through to you, and not only did she get severely psychically attacked after posting on your thread, but her computer was hacked and loaded with backdoor viruses.

Also, it's funny that you changed your signature to reflect 'God consciousness' after the said lady mentioned above had mentioned it to you. Now you are claiming it.

I wish you understood that God Consciousness is NOT what you are portraying in your threads. Have you ever considered that a very powerful entity has just taken over your consciousness?

I am already psychically protected from anything you might send, and that is why I am posting here. I hope you realize the horrible pain and agony you caused that other lady who posted in your thread multiple times, who only had your best interest (and others') at heart.

If you ignore this and send your minions after me, then you truly are from the darkness, and not the Light of I AM.

She was strongly psychically attacked after posting a few times on your thread, entities who literally wanted her dead. She woke in the middle of the night, desperately wanting to commit suicide. I totally agree with you NIP. The more the person ASKS FOR PROOF, the more hardened will become in front of it.

AC4596203... I use to look for answers by myself, in all sort of reading material ever since I was still going to church as a christian some years back and use to practice deep prayer by myself. I read much, Not only the Bible but other kind of books such as Metaphysical, ufo's, ancient cultures (Egyptian, Maya, Sumerian, Babilonian) and study Oriental religions. This path lead me to some New Age and Spiritual Forums. It was a long journey to finally get to the Phoenix Journals and the Urantia Book. But more than all the information gathered through the years, I seek TRUTH and confirmation from my Higher Self within (GOD), through Meditation. I found out this develops logic, common sense, thought processing, discernment and enhance your MIND in a way that is like opening your eyes to a new way of perceiving the world and Life around. IT IS POSSIBLE to find ANSWERS by ourselves... BUT YOU HAVE TO PERSEVERE IN YOUR OWN JOURNEY AND WORK HARD, this is called SEEKING FOR THE TRUTH and achieveing AWARENESS. No body can do that for yourself and answer all your questions, no body.

Lady in Mexico.

GLP member Nobody In Particular aka "NIP" will be joining us again this evening in VC.

Her discussions have generated much interest from the GLP community and we welcome her back by popular demand tonight to expand on topics and issues cut short due to time restraints from last presentation.

agree, disagree, debate, discuss, resolve - thats what we do.....however; tho this will be an open mic presentation - this will be a podcasted show, and to be conducted in the same manner as our other invited/solicited guest shows.

there will be zero tolerance for trolling and disruptions.

join us this evening for this saturday night special.

yes and by agree, disagree, debate, discuss, resolve - thats what we do..... we evolve. This is 4d folks, the dissension get of the fence dimension. And GLP is a KEY PLAYER in this. And where does all this evolve to? 5th dimension, that of PEACE and early God Consciousness of man. all that discussion, nasty or civilized, leads to more real knowledge. Contention grows the soul/mind more than survival challenges ever will.

It is so funny you would say this, and then, when someone has a differing opinion, you not only ban them from your thread, consistently and often, but also have your minions send them a psychic attack and also send a virus to their computer. There was at least one lovely lady who was desperately trying to get through to you, and not only did she get severely psychically attacked after posting on your thread, but her computer was hacked and loaded with backdoor viruses.

Also, it's funny that you changed your signature to reflect 'God consciousness' after the said lady mentioned above had mentioned it to you. Now you are claiming it.

I wish you understood that God Consciousness is NOT what you are portraying in your threads. Have you ever considered that a very powerful entity has just taken over your consciousness?

I am already psychically protected from anything you might send, and that is why I am posting here. I hope you realize the horrible pain and agony you caused that other lady who posted in your thread multiple times, who only had your best interest (and others') at heart.

If you ignore this and send your minions after me, then you truly are from the darkness, and not the Light of I AM.

Interesting. Verry interesting. Thanks for having the balls to posts here.

NIP is an honest person. I have known her for some time now, and she would never do that you are accusing her of. She does her work exactly how she says in alignment with High Hierarchy under the supervision of Christ Michael of Nebadon. Prime Source (Papa Source) have validated that many times through other telepaths.

Don't you know that the Dark Cabal thugs consider her a strong enemy because of her work ? Don't you know that they would do ANYTHING to discredit her ? even using black magic (this is a common practice for them). Think about it, ponder it.
