Feb 27, 2022 - The War On Cash Entering Bold New Phase

Ron: This author correctly outlines the problems inherent in the current global banking and financial systems. However, his assessment and recommended methods for trying to protect personal earnings and wealth assumes that our global socio-political and economic systems and governance arrangements won't change. However, those systems and arrangements are in the process of being changed NOW.

Because of the gross criminality and dysfunctionality of current global governance, Universe Management has tasked the Triodity of Presidents Trump, Putin and Xi with its elimination and replacement with godly governance. Accordingly the Talmudic cabal of banksters and corporatists who have created the dysfunctional monetary meme and the fraudulent political, banking and financial control systems that enslave our world are being removed. This is evidenced by Russia's recent cleansing of the corrupt cabal infrastructure in the Ukraine.

Accordingly the methods for wealth preservation discussed herein are no longer relevant or needed. Having removed the demonic global controllers the Triodity and its global Alliance supporters are now orchestrating the introduction of new global governance and financial arrangements that eliminate the problems this author discusses.

The current global financial system is about to crash and the Triodity is introducing a Quantum Financial System (QFS) to replace it. The transition is being organised in such a way as to prevent anyone losing the value of their savings, pensions and 401Ks etc. The QFS is a divinely organised unhackable system that will ensure that neither governments nor anyone else can steal or defraud anyone using it. The system will be oversighted by divinely controlled military forces globally.

To ensure a speedy introduction of these changes a critical mass of humans on this planet needs to want it and to stay positive so that their high consciousness energetic frequency overcomes remaining negative energies to ensure that remnants of the demonic globalist cabal's plans are publicly outed and their cohorts routed. That exposure needs to be public so that the huge numbers of individuals still unaware of the reality in which they have been living will begin to see it.

That reality has been built on the money meme and associated demonic ideologies like Capitalism, Fabianism, Socialism, Communism, Bolshevism and Fascism that have been used as mind control mechanisms to alienate and subjugate most of this planet's population. An hypnotic trance centred on the need for money and compliance with corporatist government control of almost every facet of life has mentally and physically enslaved most of humanity here. BUT that mind control trance is breaking down because people are starting to see the dictatorial nature of governments and corporations everywhere as government bureaucracies and corporate managements try desperately to convince everyone that common colds and flues are a deadly, mysterious magic virus requiring societal lockdowns and regular poisonous injections forever.

In addition to the financial and banking changes, the Triodity and the global Alliance have assumed control of virtually all global governments and are currently organising the least disruptive and harmful means for introducing Quantum governance along with the QFS. The Quantum system will pave the way for genuine grass roots republican representative governance everywhere. It will also transform healthcare, education and power provision arrangements. Those changes are beginning to manifest now.

Although the global cabal caused the coming socio-economic collapse and initiated the Covid mass psychosis scandemic with its associated injection bio-weapons, hoping to cause their financial and governance RESET; it ain't gonna happen. Quantum governance and the QFS will rapidly result in money ceasing to dictate human thoughts, narratives and actions.

There will be a RESET but it will be divinely orchestrated and it will permanently eliminate all the demonic influences that have created the dystopia in which this planet has been drowning for centuries.

As bankster controlled COVID-19 related anti-human governance policies become more strident, their lies and mind control techniques have become more obvious as is apparent in Canada today. People are starting to reject corporatism, centralism and globalism and to seek alternatives. They are also starting to see that abundance and security actually depend on communitarian societal life using human initiative and labour properly applied locally to the planet's abundant physical resources. For instance "Truckers" create wealth, welfare and security, politicians and bureaucrats DON'T.

Happiness and security is not global, it's local. Most humans are thought to be able to relate on a personal level to a maximum of about 145 people and in most cases that limits the locale in which such mutual socialisation and support can occur.

Christ Jesus taught that love is the way, the truth and the life, and that love facilitates the growth of higher consciousness, aka salvation. The divine model for human evolvment in society is that of the life of Christ Jesus. That life, as modelled during Jesus' public ministry, was communitarian living, with each member of the community contributing time and energy for the benefit of everyone else.

Higher consciousness is attained by individuals developing their capacity for unconditional love. It isn't transactional and doesn't arise from marketing the self or things; or acquiring or hoarding money, wealth or power. Nor is it facilitated by jet setting and celebrity status. Love thrives in community. It grows from giving our energy and abilities freely and unconditionally in the service of others we know and live with.

Despite the financial fears bedevilling our world we are on the cusp of real positive change which will rapidly eliminate our current excessive focus on money. That may not be apparent because most governments and the global MSM are still wedded to furthering the plans of our erstwhile Globalist controllers. Be aware though, that their Talmudic bankster power base has been destroyed and they are clinging to the appearance of power just like the Biden pretendancy in the US. That facade is about to collapse and the truth about our world will be exposed for everyone to see.

When the truth of how our world really operates is publicly disclosed most people will be shocked and emotionally devastated. As that happens it will be important for everyone to forgive themselves and each other for what they will feel has been their ignorance, gullibility, insecurity and ego-centricity. Our mind controlled ignorance and ego-centric psychic condition has been programmed and inculcated into us from birth and the failure to realise the true toxic reality of life on this planet can be said to be understandable.

We need to move through our shock and anger at the demonic deception and incredible cruelty and criminality of our demonic controllers and their minions and enablers in order to increase our energetic vibrations. Why? So that we can accommodate the higher energetic frequencies coming to this planet from the centre of the galaxy to increase consciousness here. If we do that we will be able to enjoy and enhance the divinely ordained freedom and abundance that will become our new world.

When the Triodity's task is completed the US and all nations around the world will enter upon a totally new, warfare-free environment in which local, national and international community co-operation, rather than violent opposition and ego-centric competition, will become the norm.

After President Trump is affirmed as the legitimate Commander in Chief of North America, public disclosures about the Globalist cabal's demonic, grossly criminal genocidal activities and its impoverishment and enslavement of the global population, will occur. Similarly, disclosure of the suppressed inventions and discoveries of Nikola Tesla, Royal Raymond Rife and many others will occur. As those inventions become available physical life, health and welfare on this planet will be transformed.

Under the unhackable QFS the US and every nation will be responsible for issuing their own gold backed money, currency and cryptos in their respective jurisdictions. This initiative is currently being undertaken by the Trump administration and its global Alliance allies under the guidance of the Office of the International Treasury Controller (ITC).

The monetary system reset in the US will be part of a global QFS Reset. That Reset is being organised by the ITC who is agreeing with every nation in the world, the "Pegging" of their currency to a replacement for the Petro Dollar which will be the INTERNATIONAL GOLD BACKED GLOBEC CURRENCY to be used for international trading. That process will establish the value of each national currency vis-a-vis the Globec. That will initiate global monetary stability and result in the existing currency markets being abolished. That process has involved the collection of numerous details and data so that a real and practical value could be assessed for each currency and agreed with the applicable country. See: DAVID CRAYFORD ----- IT'S TIME THAT SOMEONE STARTED KICKING ASS SO THAT CHANGES TO THE CURRENT FINANCIAL SYSTEM CAN BE MADE TO BENEFIT EVERYONE, NOT THE MINORITY

The QFS is said to be already operating in tandem with the SWIFT system but may not be fully implemented until after the coming Magnetic Reversal STAND STILL, and stasis period. The QFS will transform social and economic life on this planet. Problems associated with commercial banking and usury as we know them will be gone. Sovereign national treasuries will issue all local money and currency on an interest free basis. The QFS will also include an unhackable gold backed crypto money system.

The elimination of usury will eliminate income taxation and pave the way for global prosperity and abundance. Gross inequality and poverty will be eliminated very quickly. This planet and its remaining inhabitants will then be ensconced in Christ Michael Aton's Millennial Reign.

The Celestials and the Triodity are fully aware of globalist plans to create supply chain disruptions, food shortages and socio- economic chaos. As a result, food stockpiles have been created to prevent widespread starvation and chaos once the stock, bond and financial markets collapse. Alliance military around the world will organise and supervise food distribution and maintain order as necessary.

Also, plans are in hand to ensure that the QFS and independent systems created by Russia, China and the US will replace the SWIFT system without serious long term disruption to global banking arrangements. Bank savings, retirement plans, pensions and 401K plans etc will not suffer serious loss as a result of this process. Moreover, in due course the QFS will arrange for proper restitution of wealth fraudulently taken from everyone during their lifetime. Accordingly, an abundant future is assured for everyone and concerns about acquiring gold, silver or cryptos is unnecessary.

Apart from having food and water on hand to enable survival for, say, seven days or so, if (when) power and/or telecommunications facilities cease to operate in your locale, it is time to stop focussing on negative past occurrences, COVID-19 machinations and seeming continuing Globalist control of our world. Those appearances are deceptive, a mirage, a movie being allowed to be played out by those tasked by CM to take back Gaia, his beloved seed planet. This is happening in order to get the population to realise what the globalist controllers of governments and most everything else INTENDED to do once they got complete control of this planet.

Those who do Wake Up will be saved the tedious repetition involved in continuing their journey on 3d planets while Gaia is fast tracked into 5d higher consciousness after the coming Magnetic Reversal and Stand Still. Those who don't, will be transported by Star Fleet during stasis to other 3d environments more suited to their energetic needs.

Accordingly those who seek to hasten the coming new world of freedom and abundance should seek to increase their consciousness by turning their attention and positive focus to visualising the loving, peaceful, harmonious and abundant global environment they wish to see. Dwelling upon, or getting angry at the misery and machinations of the past and/or fearing the future, will merely create low personal vibrations and the resultant lower energetic frequencies impede the manifestation of the higher vibrational world we all desire. Once enough people look forward to our impending, loving and abundant future, it will manifest. So be it.

The stationing of US military personnel on the island of Taiwan, territory the US officially recognizes as "part of China," or at the very least, territory the US recognizes China has claimed as its own - is an obvious provocation. US diplomatic, political, economic, and now military activity on and around Taiwan takes place thousands of miles from America's own shores and helps illustrate that amidst rising tensions between the US and China, Washington is clearly the chief instigator. Vasko Kohlmayer: The Covid-19 crisis was a government-imposed disaster from beginning to the end...

Ron: Actually "the virus" was a psy Op, a false narrative about common colds, flues and respiratory infections used to create mass hysteria - mass psychosis; by governments, health authorities and the MSM.

Vasko Kohlmayer: The Ukrainian crisis is likewise a government induced disaster. The feckless Joe Biden, Antony Blinken and their globalist cronies provoked Putin by pushing the idea of NATO at the doorstep of Russia. This was as unacceptable to the Russians in the same way that Mexico entering the Warsaw Pact would be unacceptable to the United States.

Ron: Moreover, the hysteria about Russia's military action to eliminate the criminal regime in power in Ukraine and to restore real democracy to the Ukrainian population, is also a Psy Op, designed to create mass hysteria and psychosis.

Vasko Kohlmayer: We should not be surprised at Putin's anger. If he overreacts, the ensuing catastrophe will have been sparked by the provocateurs who were needlessly poking the Russian bear in the eye.

Ron: Putin will not 'overreact'. Russia's military actions in Ukraine are necessary to draining the global demonic swamp.
