Re: NIPS Answers to glpvc experience March 8.

Hi all, I spent some nice time last night on glpvc. (Thursday March 8) Phenn and others even came in well into it to calm down the heat. We did agree to another podcast, the last one was very successful in terms of downloads of it. Well over 2000 I did not remember the exact number, I was stunned, but I think it approached 2500 downloads.

It will not be this weekend, hopefully next weekend. I will change the title of the tread when we have set the date and time. I will post some material discussed last night here in this thread and you may make requests and questions about what you would like to see covered. I desire to have that entire podcast totally question and answer by those attending and it will be well moderated so many of you will get opportunity to speak. I have suggested next weekend and I will also ask for it to start before 11 pm ET, which is 9 for me. And getting towards then end of my day. maybe one hour earlier perhaps.

Last nights experience simply happened, I had logged in tired and just thought I might listen a bit for a change of pace and got asked to mic up. So there is no recording of it.

so post some questions here or let me know your interests so I am more prepared. I don't intend at this point anyway have the podcast cover certain topics. We shall see where this thread goes but I did much enjoy the open questions and answer stuff last night so I do want the emphasis to be on question interchange.

Christians, during periods of open mic you sound BAD on GLPVC tonight, April 3, nearly as bad as your nasty antagonists. Perhaps worse. Your nastiness is NOT GODLY and NOT OF LOVE. IT IS OF THE EGO OF FALSE DESIRES. There was no resurrection. Jesus did NOT die on the cross, and people were resurrected to eternal life long before Jesus came to this world. People chose eternal life on every planet by their own works.

Immanuel (Jesus) said 2000 years ago: "Truly, I say to you, wisdom must be learned from the laws of Creation, which humans may recognize in nature. But if humans do not think and seek, they will not be able to attain wisdom and will remain fools. There is no higher happiness than wisdom, no better friend than knowledge, and no other savior than the power of the spirit."

Ok to the science folks of last night, I said I would post Phoenix Journal links in this thread. There were at least 9 journals banned after publication for the material in them. The link to find the Journals which my team has transcribed to date using OCR software is here. [\[link to www.freewebs.com\]](http://www.freewebs.com) They are being transcribed as the original ones that made it to print, we copied page by page on a copy machine and then scanned into the computer, by Patrick Bellringer of 4winds. These make for very long files to download and a problem for those still on slow connections. download time when I was on dial up was 1 to 3 hours for each. Also that format was terrible for doing translations.

This material is free, help yourself, they are all books ranging from about 150 pages on up. you cannot modify the pdf files, but you CAN copy and paste from them, so that translators can translate by sentence or paragraph easily. The information was given over about 10 years from craft, using a radio type signal to several receivers, the main one being dharma.

As to the science reading, I suggest starting with PJ #8 on Aids. both walter russell and tesla make an appearance. Now the material in nearly all the journals was given every day and contains a lot of political commentary and there is political commentary in some or all of the science ones. you can read it or skip it but I think you will find it worthy of your time, to at least skim it for it reports the news of the times.

PJ #8 was the first banned journal and you will see why I think. They did that one again minus the old political news pretty much in #65. but I think the tesla and walter russell material was left out. as I said last night, Tesla's death was faked and he went into inner earth. Walter Russell as far as I know, did "die" as to his body, but that does not negate him giving material from the next realm or from craft.

The other banned science journals are the Pleiades Connection Series : #30 thru #37.

#22, Matter, AntiMatter and the Matter I think also has some interesting scientific material in it. All the science is given in every day terms, you don't get any math formulas that I remember any way and a lot of it was given already to earth by Walter Russell. I have some of Russell's books on my computer but I don't have links to find them, a few years ago I couldn't find any free copies but apparently somebody has and I was sent the pdf files, but I will need to find out where that person found them. I can I think give a link to that persons website maybe.

Pj #21 should be interesting around Creation also.

Those interested in incarnation and other cycles maybe like #50. I don't think I have read that one or little of it anyway. I own many print copies, all that were left available a few years ago anyway. But i have not read them all.

Reading through the Pleiades Connection series and #8 with an open mind in a state of quietness may help osme of you think beyond your book teachings. I am not saying all that man "knows" is incorrect and there are scientists learning better, but what is given to the public thru books may or may not be correct. I was not able to let myself go into science, I saw too many holes in it in high school and college long ago and I wasn't going to fight the "system" nor what I going to reproduce shit to students.

Now last night, I suggested ones feel up their heads to see if there is any change in their sutures. One science type came on to disrupt that by claiming that a suture is a cut or injury having sutures to sew it together and spent a long time making fool of hisself to others saying there cracks between the bones of the head, REALLY? Also I was confronted for using the term 3 lobed brain, which many of you are growing. We settled out that I "meant" hemispheres of the brain, but if you are growing a 3rd one, we need a name, trispheres, would that do to describe 3? The brain is basically in two parts in man. There are beings with single "brains", beings with 2 "brains" (man of earth) and beings with 3 brains who have walked this planet and who also walk in "heaven". The 3rd brain which I called the 3rd lobe, is the psychic "brain." Now as to those "cracks" in which it was said my truth is doubted, are indeed called sutures, which are spaces initially in the skull of the infant to allow the head to compress during birth and to grow after birth and they do fuse together when head growth is finished in the early adult years.

however, the changes now are causing brains to grow in size, and some are adding the 3rd "brain" which will sit on top and to the back of the crown area under the skull and your skull most grow and it does. If there are any questions in the pod cast to this, I will refer people to this thread and probably not cover it otherwise or simply. Dear one who presented the CRACKS can please go here to see the location of the what English calls sutures. I was a nurse for a long time plus I took a great deal of A and P beyond simple nursing courses and you need to go take a course apparently. Your long winded rebutall put some egg on your face. I did being confused use the word lobes, but the two hemisphere are LOBES dear one. Right and left Parietal if memory serves, OK. I was very fatigued from a very poor nights sleep and doing too much the day before, you game was necessary and as I said, with your suture story you surely looked the fool you were attempting to make me look like.

[\[link to www.getbodysmart.com\]](http://www.getbodysmart.com) So click on "major sutures" at that link and I do hope you are growing some more brain, see if your "cracks" are softening and expanding. Add colors as you work thru the images.

My own head would probably as I stated look a bit odd if I shaved it, from the very large changes in my own skull. You ones will get your baby soft spots (fontanels), back if your brains needs more room. Some of you who have rather large skulls under the age of about 45 or so, may not feel these at all, your heads may be big enough, but a friend of mine with a very large tall fore head has recently visibly seen changes when he last shaved his head and so did his wife. When your sutures begin to change you may first feel a small groove over them. I have a 2 inch spread in the ones around the rear crown of my skull.

And my skull is now expanding where there are no sutures. A couple months ago, I think just before christmas or just after, I woke in the middle of the night terribly ill, with nausea,, headache and not feeling so good. I had just returned from craft and thought maybe at the time, it was just a harsh rapid return of body. It passed in a short time.

next morning, a skype friend sent a you tube link ot music, so I put on my headphones. They have always been a bit big on my head as to my ears, and all of a sudden from the day before, they FIT! And a couple weeks later, the same thing, only now they are SNUG. I can FEEL ROUNDING of the sides of my skull, above my ears that was not there before. So I underwent some technology during those two nights that "expanded" my skull in that area, and in fact a period of headaches I had had, went away with the first expansion. I have felt other expanding skulls and others of my team and readers have noticed changes.

As to the recent sudden expansion on the sides of my head, this inculdes both the parietal and temporal bones. I feel no change itself in the squamous sutures between them, there is a whole new rounded side that is litterally buldging outward. [link to en.wikipedia.org] has good images.

for our "scientist" who on your cracks? [link to en.wikipedia.org] here is what wiki says: A suture is a type of fibrous joint which only occurs in the skull (or "cranium"). They are bound together by Sharpey's fibres. A tiny amount of movement is permitted at sutures, which contributes to the compliance and elasticity of the skull. Enlarge the images there to get the names of those "cracks" which is NOT a good word for them at all. They are not cracks.

Both of my coronal sutures are expanding. My lamdoidal suture is massively expanding and I have expansion NOT on those suture lines in the upper back of my skull.

Oh good, steve quayle is back up. Here we go. [link to stevequayle.com] the cone head skulls as I mentioned last night are from people with what I called 3 lobed brains. Meaning 3 brained people, as people of earth are 2 brained people. The Egyptian images of long ago, they often were bald and wore scarfs on their cone heads. The expansion on the side of my head, feels a bit like the skull in the 3rd image from the left on top. NOT that pronounced, but its definitely rounding out. the way my upper rear head feels, it might be starting to look something like the 2nd image from the left. Ok enough on this one.

Ok a short comment. Someone last night seemed to think I said I spoke many languages in my first podcast. I have not listened to it, but I asked ones on my forum that have, and they said I did not say any such thing and that I said the only language I speak is English. I will take their word for it. They said there were questions asked about what language I communicate with those above in, as part of the discussion.

now to some pushing for certain truth, in the domains of science and energy, this is WHY I will not be giving some information

This was what happened to the apartment of one on my team several years ago now, who was very into free energy, and why Tesla and I aren't giving details of making magnetic motors etc. The person lost everything but his wife. A person living in the adjacent unit was killed and there were injuries. My team member and wife were in fact rescued in time by those in craft over all of our homes. it was early morning and they were still asleep when the blast occurred. And I will not risk bringing harm to GLP either. The information is kept very general for these reasons. There have been murders in families of those into healing methods too.

From the UB Paper 49 regarding "Brain-Type Series":

49:5.6 2. Brain-type series. The one physical uniformity of mortals is the brain and nervous system; nevertheless, there are three basic organizations of the brain mechanism: the one-, the two-, and the three-brained types. Urantians are of the two-brained type, somewhat more imaginative, adventurous, and philosophical than the one-brained mortals but somewhat less spiritual, ethical, and worshipful than the three-brained orders. These brain differences characterize even the prehuman animal existences.

49:5.7 From the two-hemisphere type of the Urantian cerebral cortex you can, by analogy, grasp something of the one-brained type. The third brain of the three-brained orders is best conceived as an evolvment of your lower or rudimentary form of brain, which is developed to the point where it functions chiefly in control of physical activities, leaving the two superior brains free for higher engagements: one for intellectual functions and the other for the spiritual-counterparting activities of the Thought Adjuster.

49:5.8 While the terrestrial attainments of the one-brained races are slightly limited in comparison with the two-brained orders, the older planets of the three-brained group exhibit civilizations that would astound Urantians, and which would somewhat shame yours by comparison. In mechanical development and material civilization, even in intellectual progress, the two-brained mortal worlds are able to equal the three-brained spheres. But in the higher control of mind and development of intellectual and spiritual reciprocation, you are somewhat inferior.

49:5.9 All such comparative estimates concerning the intellectual progress or the spiritual attainments of any world or group of worlds should in fairness recognize planetary age; much, very much, depends on age, the help of the biologic uplifters, and the subsequent missions of the various orders of the divine Sons.

49:5.10 While the three-brained peoples are capable of a slightly higher planetary evolution than either the one- or two-brained orders, all have the same type of life plasm and carry on planetary activities in very similar ways, much as do human beings on Urantia. These three types of mortals are distributed throughout the worlds of the local systems. In the majority of cases planetary conditions had very little to do with the decisions of the Life Carriers to project these varied orders of mortals on the different worlds; it is a prerogative of the Life Carriers thus to plan and execute.

49:5.11 These three orders stand on an equal footing in the ascension career. Each must traverse the same intellectual scale of development, and each must master the same spiritual tests of progression. The system administration and the constellation overcontrol of these different worlds are uniformly free from discrimination; even the regimes of the Planetary Princes are identical.

Ok now I am going to huff and puff and bitch nicely. apparently some thought I left in a bad mood last night, not actually except for the small happening that occurred when a few started on the aliens and all their supposed awful sex practices. those living in heaven, the architectural spheres generally do have have reproducing so why these questions and comments and these dross behaviors occur on planets like this one, not on more grown up worlds. Yes that ending part was NOT well received by me, but I did not leave the process grumpy or whatever I have heard that occurred second hand.

There were some of you, as above with the suture issues that were manufacturing bullshit. One somehow tried to link me to being controlled by russians, totally inane bullcrap which was done on purpose as were other "games".

Now I am more than aware that there is scintillation and the like due to atmosphere lower to the horizon. I am not stupid people. But when I was growing up and in my younger adult eyars stars did not flash in many colors, no matter where they were. And when I brought up that planets and starts do not MOVE in manners I and others have seen them move, one there started in again on the lecture of, of course they move, the earth moves in it's rotation and so on and so forth. This is deliberate destruction of my teachings and its unethical some of what occurred last night. You know who you are.

The moving I talk about is the ones that move in squares, circles, dance around, make the sign of the cross and other antics and these are thus obviously NOT stars. I have covered on this forum several times about how STARSHIP Sirius (witnessed also by a friend I was chatting with in another STATE, on the cell phone. We both watched it move at least 1/2 way in a few minutes to that other little star nearby, that is above to the right. That is NOT the normal movement in the sky. When certain comets have come to visit in our night skies, and people are told on TV and the net, about where to watch for them, other "stars" have been seen to put on a show of movement and flashing in the area where the comet is expected to be. If the orb up there behaves in such ways, it is NOT a star or a planet.

Many have seen Star Ship Venus move around and even flash extra and there have been many you tubes documenting it. Again, I am not stupid and during the podcast, I will refer ones making any deal over this back to this thread to read, because I am not putting up with the intentional unethical methods of ones trying to turn others ON PURPOSE away from what I do. Ponder that one.

OK rant is over. These are not the only situations of last night, but its enough.

I have met the person personally that created it. I found his intent is good in collecting a variety of ideas and articles. Use from it what resonates with you.  Project Blue Beam will not be allowed but it was a serious idea. the cell towers were to be used to project the "voices" of the various masters into the heads of people and that has been disabled. It was used against me a number of years ago and some others on my team to issues some nasty threats. I was told by that method that one way or the other they would kill me and Jess for example. the technology to "throw voice " per se, is also available in small devices which are often used outside churches and with various small church groups as a method of "god" talking to them. I have seen a goodly number of reports on the net about this in fact.

These that I heard WERE SOUND and not "telepathy". There were a whole bunch of them, some manifested sort of close to my head, and others were several feet away.

Editing' I had just had a memory of the above, in church. I had gone to visit this local large evangelical church that was part of a study I made of several churches in my area years ago. That day I was a bit late to sunday service, actually on purpose, to miss the first long boring part. Every one was lying prostrate on the floor when I arrived. Afterwards I talked to some of them about WHY on that and they said the Voice of the Lord had come and all heard it and that is why they were on the floor. It was described as literal SOUND. Since the Lord speaks Sounds there, its a very popular church and the minister is about as satanic as they get in those sorts of churches.

Pj #21 should be interesting around Creation also.

Those interested in incarnation and other cycles maybe like #50. I don't think I have read that one or little of it anyway. I own many print copies, all that were left available a few years ago anyway. But i have not read them all.

Reading through the Pleiades Connection series and #8 with an open mind in a state of quietness may help osme of you think beyond your book teachings. I am not saying all that man "knows" is incorrect and there are scientists learning better, but what is given to the public thru books may or may not be correct. I was not able to let myself go into science, I saw too many holes in it in high school and college long ago and I wasn't going to fight the "system" nor what I going to reproduce shit to students.

Now I notice today that apparently, at least you have not posted anything, a few of you on Last Thursday night, have not bothered to seek out this thread. If you were amongst those interrogating me, and making some nonsense statements, please let me know if you have read here yet. Because some of you said you would when I said I would create a thread and if you want me to answer any of those questions, other than what I remember here to post about, you need to add them here.

OK, one of the topics, was over Pleiades and sorry, but I am not ignorant and spewing false material because I pronounce it differently than you do. As I stated my last life before I came to earth was spent on Myrua of Merope, and I and current folks working from craft and inner earth pronounce Pleiades as I did, but its NO BIG DEAL. How silly. Am I taking "potshots", I guess so, you were taking potshots of less than intelligent statements at me, its fair play, don't you think?

Now, I mentioned that Alcyone is a central sun for about 500 other suns that encircle it, and we got into the photon belt we are in, but kept near the edge of being in it at this time, because of its effects. One of the "science" experts there, stated Alcyone could be no different from other suns, and shines all around it, and in that regard that is so, but it also carries a photon band handed down to it by other central suns, of which it goes round dragging its 500 suns with it.

What is labeled Pleiades is the 7 sisters, including alcyone, but our sun is a member sun and thus also a "sister."

Now here is some small commentary from the UB. Paper 41, and the pages are identified as well as the paragraphs. Since some here won't read a wall of text, I will place only some samples and it for the curious, and curiosity is essential to getting to heaven and staying there, so I suggest ones use it if they have an interest in their LIFE ETERNAL. Man on this planet lacks much curiosity. I have seen animals more curious than man in fact. Not to say everyone is that way, but the lack of curiosity keeps boxes on heads even amongst the mind controlled scientists. I have had many a college teacher who is nothing more than a programmed robot and I have run into many engineers and others who are of the same robotic memorized material, who cannot challenge anything. They can be programmed, they cannot THINK. Even true of the highest military.

from this section 7. Sources of Solar Energy

(464.1) 41:7.14 Only those suns which function in the direct channels of the main streams of universe energy can shine on forever. Such solar furnaces blaze on indefinitely, being able to replenish their material losses by the intake of space-force and analogous circulating energy. But stars far removed from these chief channels of recharging are destined to undergo energy depletion — gradually cool off and eventually burn out.

Ok, there you have that there are direct channels of the main streams of universe energy. Photon belts are one of those. Alcyone is in one of these energy streams, and is eternal and will never age out. The reason we have craft pretending to be stars in our sky, is that our sun, as part of the ascension is being MOVED into this eternal energy stream. it will be recharges continuously and will remain white, it was yellow, before some 25 years ago maybe. Also important to the ascension into eternal life of our solar system, is turning Jupiter and Saturn into suns. That has been done with Jupiter. Saturn is being prepared now at this time and you are looking now since I think last year, a star ship showing, yep, a 3d movie.

Here is two other paragraphs I will quote for this post, then I will start another post so the long wall of text will not put people who don't want to read, off.

(461.4) 41:5.8 *The action of certain secondary and other undiscovered energies present in the space regions of your local universe is such that solar-light emanations appear to execute certain wavy phenomena as well as to be chopped up into infinitesimal portions of definite length and weight. And, practically considered, that is exactly what happens. You can hardly hope to arrive at a better understanding of the behavior of light until such a time as you acquire a clearer concept of the interaction and interrelationship of the various space-forces and solar energies operating in the space regions of Nebadon. Your present confusion is also due to your incomplete grasp of this problem as it involves the interassociated activities of the personal and nonpersonal control of the master universe — the presences, the performances, and the co-ordination of the Conjoint Actor and the Unqualified Absolute. The Conjoint Actor, is 3rd person Trinity folks.

(459.1) 41:3.7 Most of the giant suns are relatively young; most of the dwarf stars are old, but not all. The collisional dwarfs may be very young and may glow with an intense white light, never having known an initial red stage of youthful shining. Both very young and very old suns usually shine with a reddish glow. The yellow tinge indicates moderate youth or approaching old age, but the brilliant white light signifies robust and extended adult life.

I included the above, because you see, our sun is now VISIBLY White, when it used to be yellow, which supports that it is being re energized to become an eternal sun. It is now helium dominant rather than hydrogen dominate I have been told and some place in the UB in the science discussions I did find something to support that.

Jupiter is now a dwarf sun. This happened in early February 2009. I don't think "collisional" is a proper term it though, but it is a brilliant WHITE little sun. And certainly will not be in any red stage. It will form a triad with of sorts along with Saturn to make this a 3 sun solar system. all feeding each other, besides gaining energy rejuvenation what what we have labeled an energy river our solar system is being moved into, which is actually, not the photon belt, but the photon belt will do a lot of recharging while we are in it.

You can view, (once again, I have posted this how many times now?) our new little sun. NASA took its baby pics. I is rather white! Watch it being moved back behind our big sun, to prevent its energies from causing a premature magnetic pole reversal. (that kind where the sun will come up in the west.) [link to sohowww.nascom.nasa.gov] Please do watch the movie. It was moving the WRONG direction. And right here on GLP somebody posted a thread at the time, saying the sun just ate Jupiter.

I would suggest you ones having an interest in space science, be about reading at least papers 41 and 42 in the Urantia Book.

Quoting: einsteinsfly

I have repeatedly taught it went down the tube. The planet will be cleansed and restarted. China is now in control in this regard and you continue to even hear rumors upon rumors on that on the net. There was the original intent of GESARA way back in 1980, with the creation of the never activated, but fully signed Global Agreement. Because it was not implemented, some in the US of A working under Germain etc attempted to get a US of A only version and get those thugs out of this country and it did not manifest. It was hoped at that time, it would then more easily spread to the rest of the world.

WE have alluded to the Global Agreement on my website in the Whistleblower work and we were going to publish it until David Righter, the high incarnate in physical flesh form from the super universe, decided it was not a good idea, as these ones are backed into a corner and do what animals backed into a corner do, and more because they are "thinking" animals.

Some of you were introduced to David Righter, as "S333" on my website and as David Righter on the forum not allowed here. He is walking in a created body, not one born of woman, but nevertheless it is a real reproducing human body and he came around to me on Mar 10 to remind his baby daughter was one year old that day. He is embodied with his soul mate from Orvonton who is here with him and they had this child, by normal sex people. I would ask ones unfamiliar with such, who are into Christianity, to consider Melchizedek of the OT, who came to Abraham and had no Father or Mother. Bodies are easily created. Adam and Eve were in bodies from "heaven" too, but both of them were actually BORN there, having parents of the Adam and Eve material sons groups.

I was going to cover that more in my podcast. Thread: GLPVC Discussion on Global Overcontrol of Money and Politics with NIP Tonight at 11:15 EST I would ask you to go to that thread and find the linky to Fulford which shows a "current" but false paper of the committee of 300. The reason I posted that link, is because the global agreement of 1980 is in a similar format. David will still not allow it to be posted because my team is being heavily threatened again and there was a recent attempted murder by auto accident against one of them. Many are being "tazed" of sorts when out in public and one member had their internet taken down Friday, that was Eve actually in Germany. I hope she has resolved that today or soon. I had my cell phone killed Friday or rather made non working. Right when I needed it to call for a ride home from my errands. This has happened twice, but they have not unkilld it yet today, they know I will need it this week.

I don't why they are even calling it "Nesara" anymore, Nesara was for only the US of A at the time, so now they talk all this global stuff? I have read some of the postings. One that follows it had his email canceled, and is attempting to get another address.

I would ignore it all. WE hope still for a short announcement period, and are not sure if it will be possible. During that time of change, I can say that unemployed people will get some help, as the banking system will be down.

I have seen these posted and may have watched some of it in the past, now that you mention the 3rd video, I have seen that portion. I don't have time to watch over 3 hours of video, then or now.

I will take as to what I am told by David Righter and others I work with, and this was always denied by the OITC folks I work with. Its a long story. The chinese are being discourage from giving out some money to everyone in the world, because we are not continuing but their version is nothing related to the original ideas. These people on these videos I assume never heard of the Global Agreement of 1980. Dove who worked with Germain until she got so mad at him and died, literally, brought the information of Nesara and we continued it until it was no more.

True Nesara requires KNOWLEDGE and spirituality and it was realized the citizens of the US of A were so ignorant they would have simply gone into massive consumption, IF massive consumption was available, as many would simply walk from their jobs causing issues of delivery of goods. The original NESARA required Americans to be able to return to republican ideas and its NOT there in the minds of people. Yes I remember these and I am not the one who is an agent, the ones continuing this are.

china has enough wealth to give everyone a little money but the solving of the worlds problems will still not happen, as the people are stuck in materialism. They would likely develop better farming, but its getting late. Also they WANT the US of A to expand on, and are willing to have WW3 if the khazars start it, which would finish the destruction of the planet.

Even wiht developing more technology this world is over populated and the resources of earth are not there to support what needs to be done for so many. And the folks are not about to learn not to make more babies. I find people claiming the world can handle 11 billion, OK what happens then to keep it there, even if it were so. As a seed world this one must stay within population bounds, so that the animal evolution can continue, which produces NEW human souls. These ones supporting what is a false Nesara have no concept of these problems and issues.

Earth people have no ability to move their excess numbers anywhere yet to colonize other worlds, and they are too unspiritual to colonize other worlds, it would end in continuous war just as on this world right now.

The depth of the CIA infiltration, double agent type into the OITC, which destroyed it, and the continuous efforts against China by the Khazars in Libya alone this past year do not substantiate the PEOPLE of this world finding peace. Not the answer, and unless all the US of A aircraft carriers and other war vessels are placed on the bottom of the sea, the Khazars are not going to give up.

that these videos hijack Doves work and brilliance, does not mean the Khazars and Chinese are going to accomplish anything. While China has considerable wealth and also uses a false King Anthony Santiago to sign the wealth of Marcos over to them, in late 2010, does not make them proper custodians of the world either. This is stuff I meant for my podcast to cover and the moderators took it elsewhere and would not allow me to even work on the thread I started which was necessary to that podcast and I haven't done much more with the thread, because there is exactly zero interest here in it. There has only been interest in the immoral lawsuit of Keenan, put on the net thru David Wilcox, and that says it all. And it's not the truth. Even Poofness was lying all those years, but he did mention the Dragons now and then if I recall, that he was working with them, which is working AGAINST this country and makes him also a traitor. Keenan is a traitor. Keith Scott destroyed Gods' OITC, thru himself and others and the doping of the custodian of the Foundation Divine, essentially Ray Dam.

It's a long sad and painful story, and the current NESARA stuff is nothing but a continuation of the attempted rape of the wealth of the planet, literally provided by Michael of Nebadon. I think we are done here. You can go to the link to my site about the Foundation Divine that is in the thread above, for my podcast that was in the one sense completely derailed. But I accepted graciously because at least some people got a sense of me. But the minute I covered the Alpha and Omega Ring which is not in the rightful hands of the queen the direction changed completely.

Britain was originally the true source of the WAY, after the crucifixion. Thru the works of Joseph of A. They had the first "church" which Rome later admitted. But it was not what Christianity became. The Ring does not belong, it was coerced out of Marcos hands,, in the hands of Elizabeth 2. She is not of that royal lineage, she is Khazar. Her father was Khazar, they got into the British "monarchy" at the same time the Khazars destroyed Christian Russia in the early 1900's. The chain was broken, it is not theirs to have.

Thank you for your input. Unless one is a direct part of an organization/movement which one believes in, discerning truth, fiction and disinfo becomes a complicated dance.

In the end, the truth seems so corrupt and hopeless, buried in centuries of violence and deceit, one wants to throw arms in air and shrug.

If this is a "seed planet" with a handful of corrupt, controlling elites, why would there be any expectation of spirituality? Given a book (the bible) that has been altered, re-written, a dominant duality with the Sons of God (one is the light, one pretends to be the light), how could the duality of deceptions ever give way to a general spiritual nature of humans?

The elite has to allow at least some truth to make the lies believable. Those with discernment and the desire to seek and know the truth will always receive assistance from. It is very hard to distinguish the truth from the lies, but assistance is always rendered and there are many influences to guide the truth seeker such as the spirit of truth bestowed by Christ Michael over 2000 years ago, their higher self, their thought adjuster, their guardian angels, from those that have gone before, etc. The light cannot be extinguished and wherever the light shines, the darkness has to recede.

there is not expectation of spirituality in the elite thugs, but they are put on seed planets, to challenge the growing minds/souls of seed planets. Organic mind grows very slowly, and must be challenged or growth stops. How many people do some of you know would be perfectly happy if their governments solved all their problems and made life easy for them. Simple jobs, entertainment for simple minds, little or no decisions to make? They have little interest in soul growth.

They need shaking up actually and that is starting to happen. The normal GOD indwelt soul wants FREEDOM, to grow themselves according to their desires. REAL GROWTH and curiosity, that is why the teaching of "Jesus", that you cannot enter heaven unless you become as little children. This does not mean act like babies. It means CURIOSITY must return. The judgement in progress is related to the development of desire to know. Those with it, move up, those who haven't it, there are lesser opportunities.

the normal souls will RESIST the elite. This alone defines whether a soul is worthy. Do they want to be slaves and live easy,, the elite will treat them well, once technology comes into place, or will they resist and come into true desire?

Desire is of God and if its missing, that person is not a candidate for eternal life, they cannot make progress. The huge testing on these worlds must challenge people to think. The elite provide huge CHOICES to make. People should be responding to the pollution, and the wars carried out in their name. Where is that in my country? Something is very wrong. I worry about mind in my world. I really do. I know its hard to short thru the shit, and its ok to not always get it right, but one MUST SORT thru it, care to sort thru it. It matures the soul into wisdom. Usually on planets with the pollution problems, fleet will keep a bit of a lid on it, while people awaken to the destruction of their planet going around them. Then contact is made, and great joint effort goes into the repairs and all the other issues. This has been the goal of my organization in fact. The helping with those issues. We were to fund so many projects that a carrying and worried populace would be involved in, and right here and lots of other places, ETs are believed to be demons and there is NO care for this world.

These ones will fail the test. We really have a mess on this world actually. And a lot of immaturity. I run into people who don't give a shit for various reasons. Some are fine with the world going to hell, as long as they get their share. Others think god is destroying the world anyway, so why bother. This is common in religion, really common. These churches should be turning this world upside down with concern. Where are they?

The morality of the elite is not the issue, the morality of the people living under them IS.

Christians, during periods of open mic you sound BAD on GLPVC tonight, April 3, nearly as bad as your nasty antagonists. Perhaps worse. Your nastiness is NOT GODLY and NOT OF LOVE. IT IS OF THE EGO OF FALSE DESIRES. There was no resurrection. Jesus did NOT die on the cross, and people were resurrected to eternal life long before Jesus came to this world. People chose eternal life on every planet by their own works.

Immanuel (Jesus) said 2000 years ago: "Truly, I say to you, wisdom must be learned from the laws of Creation, which humans may recognize in nature. But if humans do not think and seek, they will not be able to attain wisdom and will remain fools. There is no higher happiness than wisdom, no better friend than knowledge, and no other savior than the power of the spirit."

I agree with you completely on this, war is wrong period. But some have been brainwashed by media into believing the middle east is full of terrorists, so they want the wars, some know it's wrong but keep the thought to themselves and do nothing about it. Some do march against war sometimes in this country but not enough to make a difference, mostly because people believe that it won't make a difference so don't bother turning up so the out cry is bigger.

A celestial snapping of the fingers is required I think to awaken those who have been hypnotised and mind controlled day in and day out (especially anyone under 30) by our msm who are the masters of enchantment and deception.

I appreciate fully that the awakening is occurring (very slowly) but saddened by the realisation that we are up against a very powerful dark force that is fed every day, unknowingly by the masses who are duped into supporting rituals, symbols and acts that maintain and oil the chains around humanity's consciousness.

I hope the veil is lifted very soon.

just reading along, my thoughts i'd like to share.

i am, has been dealing with negative programming since birth, re-structuring thought consciousness to manifest positive change in ourselves.
the ego is seemingly a relentless friend/foe, very few acknowledge, if ever.
we start with the illusion of self, and all the destruction it has caused in this lifetime.
we are working to heal within to manifest change outside.
this doesn't mean kumbiah, it's the steady progression of love and spiritual advancement on a personal level, through intention/desire.
i am, is currently navigating the infinite, one reference point steady, polarity being negotiated/resolved/accepted/non-accepted.
currently we are being batteries for family and co-workers, working behind the scenes, leading by example.

if i were to go put out signs saying -save the planet, kill your ego-, few in thousands would understand.

how about a sign saying negative, slanderous, derogatory, words against some idea or social injustice.
wouldn't i be scuttled off by the po po's shortly thereafter?

anyways, interesting post, another question for nip, if we start seeing another star in sept, coming from under the sun, are the portals soon to follow?

i have a follow up question.

I remember in the late 1960's there were antiwar marches against the Vietnam War. Most were college students from universities across the nation. I do not see any up rise today from universities. My posts on Facebook about what is going on in the middle east go unanswered. Not much interest from anyone. What has happened to the people of the US?
What will awaken them? Most people I know also are too busy to notice or do not care....makes me crazy and sad!

i dont feel anything in my heart...i dont feel anything--anger, love, fear, i dont feel anything.

this seems like the notorious 'i feel dead inside'

but i dont, i feel alive. what the hell does this mean nobody?

btw, I appreciate your posts.

I know this question was for NIP but my feelings are that you may not be attached to any material or worldly obsessions, that would invoke strong feelings of anger or fear. But Love....well...have you ever felt love?

If you feel alive, than is it a joyful happy feeling? Are you in peace? Sometimes I feel numb to this world because of the insanity and negativity. Meditations and sitting in silence with only your inner self and feelings may bring insights to you regarding these answers.

i am, has been dealing with negative programming since birth, re-structuring thought consciousness to manifest positive change in ourselves.

the ego is seemingly a relentless friend/foe, very few acknowledge, if ever.

we start with the illusion of self, and all the destruction it has caused in this lifetime.

we are working to heal within to manifest change outside.

this doesn't mean kumbiah, it's the steady progression of love and spiritual advancement on a personal level, through intention/desire.

I am not familiar with this star in September and it remains not time for Jupiter to come out. All I can say. I think you misunderstand portals, for we re not where people can travel thru them yet on this planet, a certain DNA level must be attained and then other solar system energies must manifest.

Most of you are working to drop the old programming you had to uphold to pass as human, and the doing so helps also rewrite the genetic mind. There are others who of course must process their shit for different reasons to come to a new way of being, by clearing their karma which is mostly about the replacement of the old stored on their electron forms, and trading it in for more truth, which is put on photons which is what the "light body" is about. Its different everybody and for different groups.

is cern capable of producing inorganic or organic portals?

No, cern cannot do that, they are looking for the God particle amongst other things with it. It is not necessarily a bad project. Organic portals have been created in the under ground labs over the last 200-300 years because the elite want two things, to destroy god mind on this world, and to have robot peoples to work for them. It is backfiring on them big time however.

The ones long in control of this planet do have DNA skills and use them. Mostly this is an act of war against god.

Why would anyone go against god like that, it's complete stupidity, all god wants is us to know he is there, and our love and respect. As well as looking after the planet we are on. Why is this so difficult, and why do people have to do the complete opposite on purpose. I'm glad it's backfiring and I know you answered why in your post, but that's not the type of why I mean. It's sort of an angry rant.

all god truly desires here, is that folks desire to become LIKE HIM, knowing all things. that is your right as a SON of God. It is not difficult. But people have imagined God to be an angry SOB, a god that has favorite people because of the race they are born in, a god that takes sides in war against his other sons and daughters. Some believe "god" is going to destroy this planet anyway, so why bother with anything? Some believe that Gods other sons and daughters must be destroyed in favor of his favorite race.

Creator only CREATES, He/she does NOT destroy. There have been strong armed folks from other places who have conquered earth and made themselves "god" and some folks want those to return and rule with a strong arm, big fist.

This is NOT how things are supposed to work. these concepts of "god" are NOT concepts of a loving creator. Some also think creates everything and every situation, not realizing they are the ones that co create with God. The creator of the vast creation does behave in these manners, these are peoples ideas of God and I so hope the people of this planet will come to much more inspiring ideas of what God is and realize they are the ones responsible for this planet that they are destroying. God has no intention of destroying the planet. It is MAN doing that.

Either during this podcast, or during the impromptu event earlier, there was a discussion on machine mind/AI. Now I asked somebody to please WRITE their questions about it, and nothing showed up. It was something I could not answer that night/nights. I was reminded of this when I saw this thread I had done posting in Thread: Has this scientist changed the world with his discovery? A formula for consciousness????? on the topic, on the front today. Please if you see this here, or in my other thread, PLEASE post your questions on this.

there is a gnawing feeling that the luci intend to off most the planet, after shift, take control.

all souls entering from then out would be oblivious to what had occurred.

a level of control, very few, could possibly fathom.

old fear i suppose, dead memories of things that are false.

i am now positive, has the world flipped as well?

here's a good one,

why not just let us know this is all a test, keep said previous memories of lives past, and have greater control over spiritual growth?

i blame the moon...and myself of course.

lots-o-love

anyway, I agree with ya!
