Introduction to Messages with the Masters

by Candace Frieze, November 25, 2005

The messages in this section, to those of you new to this project, have been given through me since January 31, 2005. The purpose was to announce the Second Coming Project on the Internet. We chose to do this to not only provide knowledge, but to gain support, as the Second Coming event is not what many in the world are expecting. In fact, it will be a great deal more.

The beings involved in the messages are Sananda Immanuel (Jesus), Christ Michael, the Creator Son of our Universe of Nebadon, and a variety of other Master teachers. You will come to know them better through the messages. The messages were given through me by the method of mental telepathy, which is common place for communications on other planets, and in other realms. I have personally met some of those that gave messages through me. There will be several more messages yet, given in this manner, planned for after the NESARA announcement in the USA.

We hoped to encourage people to dream a bit, create some messianic ideas, and become rocks to those around them, who are unfamiliar with the reality of the event. Many advanced souls on Earth had become a bit depressed, especially after 911, and the messages restored their hopes and ambitions.

It was planned to have the Second Coming Event by June 30th, of 2005. However, that did not happen. The Elite, that I label the BBB&G's (Big Bad Boys and Girls) chose to cause a lot of trouble.

In early April, they were given notice by Christ Michael, to vacate their offices, and they chose not to do so. These BBB&G's have worked hard to delay the Second Coming, and as I write this today on November 25, this is close to happening. They are making their final arrangements to leave the country, as such, a resignation. They could have been forcefully removed, but that would make the Second Coming appear an invasion, rather than a sacred event.

By the time you read this, hopefully this is happened, ushering in the first portion of the Second Coming Event, what is called NESARA. This will be followed by various contact activities with our star visitors from many places. We have a variety of star visitors in our skies, who are here to share their methods of advanced living with our planet's peoples, in an open manner. Then will come a large event, the actual Second Coming Event, which will be worldwide and glorious.

This event inaugurates a period of change for the world. It opens the doors to many here upon the planet, and our star visitors to heal, teach, and other wise enlighten Earth's peoples.

By reading all of the messages, you will enhance your knowledge greatly. You will also take the journey that myself and my readers have taken since the first message given January 31, 2005. You will visit some of the difficulties that were encountered in the process. It was in sadness that we were unable to do the Second Coming event on the previous timetable, but in the waiting many problems are being solved that will make whole of the various parts flow much better. NESARA has continued to spread around the world in the waiting, other nations are not waiting on the USA to inaugurate changes for their peoples.

Many of the messages were written to answer questions posed by readers. We went with the flow. I have left the messages as written then, only correcting a few missed typo's. Some probably still have a few typing or spelling errors. I give much information of my own through them also. I have added comments to several, and these are dated at the end of whichever message I added comments. Some of you may have trouble following the story, based on your particular knowledge when you come to the website.

During the messages, I chose to make my readers aware of AbundantHope, my organization behind this web

The Glorious Time Ahead

By CM and Candace

Jul 31, 2011

Dearly beloveds, my, it has been a while now since Candace and I did a work together. It is time to update a bit in a more serious manner.

We have just come out of a series of meetings, and are ready to go ahead with a plan that removes the dark. Candace knows the plan, it has not changed since it's inception, but we are still not covering it. All I will state, is it comes before the lengthy stasis, and it will remove the dark ones from this planet, so we can engage in a teaching period of several weeks to a few months, depending on the conditions of the earth changes and simply the acceptance of the people who are here after this removal.

The removal will be extensive and it includes not only your dark puppets, but also many other dark types, such as those that deal in gambling, the sex trade and other obnoxious activities. The numbers will be quite large. It may thus include people you may know. Also, many of the ones scheduled to move to other planets that are not going forth with earth will be removed during this event. The teaching period to follow will benefit those moving laterally to other worlds, returning to the mansion worlds and the like who have made progress but are not part of the ascension group. Some folks will not benefit, such as the robotoids, so they will move during this event. Also leaving will be many light workers who are released to go home who are not participating in the ascension process. They have completed their assignments.

Now the teaching period will include contact activities. We will be giving many people the opportunity to voluntarily begin their next in body journey and thus to board craft to their destinations. These are ones such as those going to Venus for example, and some even get to go the underground areas of Mars, but that number is not huge.

There are many worlds taking "refugees" from earth and they will receive them also on their craft. There will be a great deal of teaching before hand so that people are truly comfortable with moving on. We have in place an email system in fact, and people can be in contact via that route. There will be rides too and from craft, so that ones get comfortable, with many scheduled landings that will be made public.

Esu will be on television, as well as Candace and many others during the teaching period. It is global and in all languages. (Candace: PLEASE do NOT write and ask if you are to be involved in the public teaching, because I don't know who is!)

Now this coming event, is going to be shocking to some, in fact to many, and thus now is the time to put on your best faces. There will be some portion of the events before the removal that are going to frighten people. I will not be explaining this before hand, but I will rely on all of you to stand up as needed. Now remember what I said, the teaching period is after the events. And man and woman of this planet will be in mourning when it this period starts because of the many removals and the shocks of it all. It will be glaringly obvious, a dramatic reduction. There is no point keeping folks here who will NOT benefit from the teaching period. Now the major portion of this moving will be done during a short stasis period, otherwise it would seem very harsh. During the short stasis period we will be put some other preparations into place so its all ready to go before the teaching period.

The ones that came last December, OUR lookalikes, 5000+, are in place, many already seen and people accustomed to them. There must be folks people trust and this includes some in government of course. But some major dark leaders will not be here even as lookalikes, for therein it would appear a lie as to who is good or bad, so there will be others standing in that people still remain familiar with.

Besides Esu during the teaching period, all those former masters who have walked this plane will be teaching their own and all countries and cultures will be introduced to them, but the bulk of their teachings after the introductory periods will be with their kind.

Mohammed, Krishna, Maitreya, Confucius, Lao-Tse, will be present as examples. There will also be some REAL leaders who are of the light, but I will inform Americans, Obama will not be one of them. We did of course have "Our Obama" who was shown last fall but these various ones with the massive head scars and people noticing more and more the differences, this cannot stand. Plus the truth process will not stand with Obama and others guilty of great treason.

The teaching period will include of course, teaching around God. But also, the TRUTH which will be individualized for each country, as to the treacheries. You will be well pleased. And for the time being, that is enough.

I cannot of course give a date. "Soon" will have to do, this must be a surprise and some of the events during this period will resemble to some degree what folks have been taught to expect. Jesus however will not be riding a white horse across the sky! (me laughing on that, its just one of my favorites as to what people can accept as truth-C)

Now some of you are wondering about watching to the east. IF POSSIBLE we will bring Jupiter into full view, but beloveds, we have to be careful with this, again it depends as its energy is so strong. If it is too much, we have an alternate idea that will satisfy something to the east, but it will have to be a night, we can't get starships to shine IN the day enough to be seen. So this is a play by ear as you ones use the term.

Now again, you should have a stock of what you need, pretty much no matter where you live and for those heavily affected by the banking issues, you must have small cash on hand, because it remains quite likely there will be a financial shutdown and banking holidays. This is a very tenuous situation and I am not updating about the risk of banks, social security checks and the like. Be prepared for a period of time.

We are hopeful there will also be arrests and many other events during the next days to a few weeks. Be prepared to assist those around you by standing in YOUR TRUTH.

Now, during the teaching period, with so many folks having left the planet, there is going to be a lot of temporary provisions. Many will be unemployed. There is a carefully laid plan to help people make their bills, the planet will mostly be on welfare for those weeks, and there is ample storage of food. Many of your corporate leadership will be leaving during the cleansing. There will also be some significant earth changes, and thus shipping and the like is not going to go well for distribution of goods.

There will be only minimal distribution of goods, only what people actually need. Toilet paper is included on that list (he smiles). But it is fine for yourselves to stock on what you WANT or NEED. (Candace: you might spend less time in line that way!) I suggest where you are able to make sure you have your supplements and medicines you think you need. The shelves are not going to be very full.

Now during that short stasis, many of you will sleep also. We will have only the barebones ones we need on board to prepare for the teaching process. If you are IN an area that might be effected by earth changes, that will occur, you and those who are to survive with you, will be removed to safety, but you may still sleep until the wake up.

If you and others ARE removed from certain areas, there will be fleet counselors and others to assist during the wakeup. You will obviously be aware you are not in the same place and you will be expected to rapidly come around and assist the process, assuring those around you. This process is going to get peoples attention and I assure you, no matter all the material on the web about evil aliens, these ones, still in the billions who are "left behind" after the cleansing of the dark will be very happy once oriented about the assistance of fleet personnel.

Oh, in addition during the teaching period, once TV and radio are on and we have gotten the folks settled down, there are also filmed tours of craft that will be shown, and when people do begin to tour craft they will be allowed to take cameras and the like aboard. We plan to have you tube running nicely. The Internet will work reasonably well.

The teaching will include the long stasis and the need to move, and again, many will get opportunity to board craft to move when they are comfortable. There will likely be more quakes and the like which may hasten some decision making.

This my beloveds, is meant to be a glorious time for those who are "left behind."

Candace: OK, I was given permission to teach something here at this time. Our Wave has been visible on Stereo since mid March or so. We did not point this out so the data would not be removed. It is noticeable in some of the electron material out also, but that fluctuates and I am not going to teach it.

I am surprised as nobody that supposedly follows Stereo has posted much anywhere on this and its so OBVIOUS something is going on.

Now, go here: <http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/> Observe the blue images, at this point Stereo Ahead HI 1 in the lower left corner you see some whitish fluff stuff coming into view. This started perhaps a week ago and I watched it to make sure for a few days. That is the WAVE.

Now look at the Gray Image, called Stereo Ahead HI 2. See all that white and black fluff stuff going across the screen? That is the WAVE. It has been in that for a while yet, but far enough away, it did not show yet on the Blue Stereo Ahead image. It seems to be moving towards the sun, which is why it did not show there until just recently.

Now, look at both the COR 2 images (red). All that DARK stuff that used to be red, and is now dark and sometimes black, IS the WAVE. The darkness came into those maybe mid April. I am not sure anymore, but it was SUDDEN. Cor 2 A and B have always had short period of dark muck in them, digital goo or something of that sort, but this has been constant. At first it was milder and then over a couple weeks or so it got darker.

Now, in later March, the wave was showing on Stereo Behind Blue and Gray images. I will post a couple samples here. You can browse a bit more if you wish. It is easy to go back one day, one week or use "rot." This option takes you back almost 4 weeks. It varies by a day or so. These options are found at the bottom of the page next to the dates. Once you have moved backwards, you can use these on the other side of the date to move forwards.

Ok this is the first "rot" date from today. July 2.

<http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/07/02/index.shtml>

On this one, only the gray images are important. On the BEHIND image (right side), you see the first lap of the wave moving away and out of the image to the right edge. On the AHEAD (left), you see the current one moving also to the right, but moving closer to the sun instead of away from the sun.

Ok so lets move back to when the wave was showing in March.

<http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/03/23/index.shtml> Look on the BLUE Behind image, this is March 23, 2011. The WAVE is just creeping up from the bottom as a little cluster of light blue stuff, where you see 2011. It is not really on the Gray image yet. Now I started seeing this fluff cloud, barely on March 18, but I had to wait a few days more to be sure.

OK moving ahead in time, heres the images on April 3.

<http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/04/03/index.shtml> You can see a lot more fluff stuff, with some dark blue and something black in it in the Blue Images. And in the Gray images you can barely see some fluff coming up from the lower left corner. At this time there is maybe a bit darker Cor 2, but I am not going to play with that yet. Lets move forward a bit more by a week.

April 10, 2011. <http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/04/10/index.shtml> Lots more fluff stuff in the Blue image, and a dark area shaped like the boot of Italy. I was able to see it gradually move each day but watching that boot! There is obviously more fluff, white and black in the Gray image. Cor 2 images are now clearly darker than the previous week.

April 17. <http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/04/17/index.shtml> Continuing on. And the very dark stuff on the blue behind image about in the middle is also wave energy. More progression on the Gray, and increasing darkness particularly on Cor 2 behind. Notice that the Blue and Gray images are reversed from Cor 2, so make sure you look at Cor 2 behind ON THE LEFT.

Now the HI 1 and 2 images look between the sun and earth more or less. So in each, the bright area on the border, is the sun, or rays from the sun, it varies. In Behind the sun is on the left, and in Ahead, on the right.

OK Now May 7, 2011. <http://stereo.gsfc.nasa.gov/browse/2011/05/07/index.shtml> On the blue Behind, you see the last of the wave on the right moving out and there is still a LOT of fluff on the Gray Behind image. Then for a time, these things are not seen, except the every darkening color on the Cor 2 images. The WAVE makes a u turn. And now is coming back thru, as what you see above.

It is very hard to determine on 2 d images exact locations. Or when earth is actually IN it. They way I feel at the moment we have some affects, but I don't feel it as much as I did in March and April and I don't hear it as intensely and I don't know if I have adapted, or its a case of we are not quite as intensely in it. Some are reporting a fair amount of discomfort and we are again in the weather patterns that were typical earlier. I am hearing more and more changes in sound too, sometimes really amplified. By this I mean city and road sounds and other sounds. The highway near me started to ROAR this morning. I have never heard it like this. It startled me. Last 10 minutes and began to quiet again. I hear a lot of LOUD vehicles last night too, and wondered what was going on. I didn't sleep well, got up finally just before 5 am.

The WAVE comes from Paradise, not the Milky Way. Paradise is in a plane, a disk like all of the creation. All of the matter in this "disk" of the creation is called PERVADED Space. The areas above and below this massive disk that is the creation, is called UN-PERVADED Space. Now the waves leaves the area ABOVE Paradise and returns to the area UNDER Paradise. I am going to insert here for you a link to Gary Tonge's painting that will give a clearer picture for you. No wave in it, but you were understand the above better.

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/gallery/?offset=48#/dastwu> This is Paradise. The Center of the Creation. The architectural Spheres you see in that are the 21 spheres of the Father, Son and Spirit. 7 each. Father's are closest, but his painting doesn't clear show the 3 orbits. They do Orbit Paradise.

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/gallery/?offset=48#/da9w3z>

Now this link shows the Central Universe of Havona, which includes Paradise as the center, the 21 worlds above, and the 1 billion regular worlds on which you all might live, or will live or have already been there and done that as part of your ascension journey. I am not teaching this stuff here. But anyway, you see a light coming out the top of Paradise and the Bottom of Paradise in these images. The top and bottom are UNperfaded Space. So the WAVE comes out the top and returns thru the bottom. It does not just keeping going on forever. It carries information cleaned when it returns that determines what needs to go forth again. So our WAVE has done this u turn and will head out back to Paradise.

If you have not seen Gary Tonge's work before, he was commissioned by the Urantia Foundation to paint these. He also has other images as part of his commission. I have posted teaching before on this, months ago sometime. I go to the above site because he gives information about the paintings. He has his own separate site too, which is here: <http://www.visionafar.com/> And has made a couple You tube video's you might enjoy.

Also of interest, in case some of you have not learned this, "heaven" is PLANETS dear ones, not fluffy space, and the planets of heaven, are custom built, where we live on an evolutionary planet. Spirit and material beings always live on SPHERE's of some sort, including CRAFT. And here is a painting by Gary, on that process. These are sphere worlds being constructed in a new nebula.

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/gallery/?offset=24#/d105sdt>

So there we go for now, I think this is enough. I want to get this up! Take care, Candace

PS, during the "teaching period" man will discover he does NOT need all his stuff, and he is going to have plenty of time on his hands to progress his spiritual development over this short period, before we call it quits for several years to cleanse the planet, undergo the magnetic Pole Reversal, and the axis shifts. ALL LIFE will be in stasis during the nasty parts as the atmosphere will be terrible. Plants are awakened first, to help reseed the Oxygen and so on and so forth.

Warning from Esu

By Esu thru Candace

Oct 25, 2011

Dearly beloveds, this is Esu, I want you ones in the United States to get yourself prepared because it's not looking good on the western coast of your country. The pressure is hugely building in several areas, we cannot predict which will move and then we cannot predict that which might move after the first movements. There may be perhaps several quakes in the 5 range or fewer ones that could be very large.

It's also possible all will be small without much severe damage, but you ones must have your water and food storage ready at all times. ALL TIMES. This is good advice anyway for all people because there are also political monetary games pending and there may be delivery issues for food, so please be stock inexpensive food that does not need a great deal of preparation, in your quake prone areas, and other areas you can expect to have normal foods in good quantity stored.

Those in quake areas need food that requires preferably nothing more than a can opener as preparation so you do not use needed water or if you have no heat. Dried beans are NOT a good idea if you cannot cook them, for example. Also always have small money at home. You have as it looks to our view possibly only a couple days to prepare for discomfort. Look at everything you have stored, and what you actually use and assume you could be without water, electricity, and heat. Do NOT follow teachings that God will provide, for you are the God that must provide. Namaste, Esu

What Can YOU OFFER TO GOD?

Listen up!

Esu thru Candace

October 29, 2011

Dearly beloveds, I have come for 2 purposes tonight. The first will be a word of advice on the Sunday 7 pm Meditations. First, since this is placed late for some of you, join in on any hour convenient later.

It is time for you ones to find your real place in all of this. Each of you have skills that are unique to you. Much of these lessons have been for the purpose of teaching you to meditate on a regular planned basis, simply because it must become a habit and you must start someplace. You must also be ready to drop into meditation at a moments notice should it be necessary. There will be some rough times and you will need to keep your connections going, and you must practice until you have the habit and can drop into it at automatically, so that you can be informed by your higher self and guides as necessary in any tight situations. This is not a long process, you must simply quiet your body and mind quickly.

You must be able to visualize. That has been part of these lessons unto you also, in directing the meditations as to intent. For your visualization sets up a new possibility and once you are powerful with it, you can even change some situations and in that you must listen up within, so that you know when to do this. We cannot guide you all the time. You will miss opportunity of service if you must wait on anything. We will not direct you regularly thru messages and on this front site of AbundantHope. You must be able to get your own when the going gets tough.

We will continue for a time in this regard, but you must become self reliant and not need to run to the net to get what you should be doing. This has all been preparations for your future, as you must walk with God, or not. And God is not going to post it all on the internet for you to read.

It was never intended long ago to put out the Phoenix Journals. We thought that the star seeds should be waking up and walking into duty. It was planned that those with Father Fragments be able to communicate with the Spirit of Truth. It did not happen in any great measure and so the WORD on paper was brought to you. Now it is time for you to get your word directly.

This does not mean we will not continue to publish here and through other sources, but you must get your word from those above directly. You all have guides of one sort or another around you. You have your own higher self around you. You have the Spirit of Truth available to you and you have your own common sense available to you. You must lessen your dependability on the printed word, because as things change in the next weeks, what will go out on TV and via the printed word may be even more deep in the pits than now. We cannot continue to babysit you.

You must determine your own strengths and gifts. There are still too many of you who even now want someone else to inform you of what to do. NO beloveds, you inform US what you can offer. A great man in the United States once said, Ask not what your country can do for you, but ask what YOU can do for your country.

Well you are scattered around the world. You tell GOD what YOU CAN DO for where you are, and then those of your guides can open some doors behind the scenes, but they must know what you can offer up. There is no other way. If you wait on your orders, having not given of your skills, you will be left waiting. Period.

So this Sunday, at each of your 7 o' clocks or nearest possible hour, tell your guides around you, what YOU CAN BRING as your gifts into this grand plan. For you have gifts. All those surrounding you and Michael of Nebadon himself, await your answers, so we may support YOU.

Alright, now I wish to discuss another topic. That of the Occupy movements, and specifically the Occupy Denver movement, for something tragic happened there today. There was a peaceful gathering. And then there was the unexpected. Our Dark brothers had some infiltrators with the demonstrators and they had hatched a plan to have police available. A small amount of trouble was made, some police officers were on duty, and were attacked by agents within the demonstrators set to carry that out. Of course, that caused the call for more officers and state patrol members who came in abundance.

There were small skirmishes and an episode of using some tear gas and rubber bullets. People were separated from their belongings which were piled up and then late in the day as it began to darken a dump truck came and hauled the tents and personal articles away.

Now we had our folks in the crowd, who worked tirelessly to calm things down. But to no avail and shortly ago the crowd was attacked by the Denver Police and state patrol. viciously so. Coverage from the live cameras dropped and we shall see what is put out in the media.

Now beloveds, we have put out that we would help when God is there at these things. God was there, but most of the people did not realize it nor ask God in the door to help them. Your thugs as Candace calls them, worked both sides, as they always do.

What the protestors should have done, was pack up and LEAVE the minute the cops were first attacked. There were guides who tried to get a word in edgewise. They were not listened to. Some of ours had materialized for a short time and worked amongst the police and supported attempts to discourage the police from acting. It did not work, ultimately. What resulted at the end was not pretty.

At this time, it is not useful to get into arguments with those that carry the guns. Nor is it useful to destroy property. We thru our ones that walk the grounds in all these situations, attempt to prevent all physical fighting. You can gather another day.

We also attempt to educate some of the protestors who are there with improper knowledge. We have carried pamphlets about the nature of truth and what they should be arguing for. This movement is not organized. Our adversaries want it that way, thus always the statements that there are no leaders to these. This is Arab Spring all over again. WALK away and gather quietly in other places so that ones can get your attention and so these altercations do not occur in this manner.

We cannot support rag tag groupings. We have many who manifest where needed and others of our own who are incarnate in these movements, and the attempt is and will continue to be made of unity of purpose. The issues are not Wall Street. That is the cover up. It is not capitalism. That is the cover up. The issues are the freedom of man to run his own life and you have people there begging to be cared for by government. This has never worked anywhere in the creation.

If you want God involved you must listen to God. It is that simple beloveds. And with that listening you then have to gently help others, and in intense situations maybe remove the others from the scenes.

That attempt was made today in Denver. Some folks were escorted out that are agents and a few were made ill enough they could not participate and had to leave. This is the nature of what we can do. But we cannot do it for you. There is that old but true statement, that God helps those who help themselves. It becomes more true each day. We will not help the agent provocateurs. We will help you deal with them, but in all cases you must form the habit of listening up. Following the intuition. You do not have to hear words, it can be "put upon your Heart." Listen up.

Namaste, Esu.

The End is Come
Man did not Unify in Brotherhood
But OH the SUCCESS!

Siraya thru Candace

Dec 12, 2011

December 8, 2011

Beloveds, it is with sadness but also a sense of joy that we are closing this chapter of your Earth History. The decision comes from the highest councils of the Creation, of whom I am representative of, over Orvonton. Candace may if she wish explain or provide UB material at the end.

I AM Siraya. I am Master Spirit # 7, and I reside on Paradise. I am representative of the Universal Father, the Eternal Son and Infinite Spirit. I personify those beings to you of the ascending mortals. I AM in fact, not only my personality, but I am also, all of you, being the source of Evolutionary Mind over Orvonton.

Now, it is not usual for one such as me to become involved in the distant evolutionary worlds, but on this world I took a personal interest and for a variety of reasons. First many of you on this planet in the teaching mission are from Paradise and Havona in one role or another. You are in training or in observation of one of the worse rebellions under my Vast domain.

Of course you know this as the Lucifer Rebellion. Lucifer, in your expression, "took the cake" in terms of those who seceded from the union. In all that has ever happened in Orvonton, nobody of angelic character actually decided to become God of a large region. And also took so many with him. This is the source of much of the so called galactic waring in your region. It was terrible. Lucifer had a full compliment of weaponry and he used it to extreme. Although your Urantia Book lays quiet on this one, this was in fact WAR in HEAVEN. And it was with weaponry.

We were aghast. But we let Lucifer and his various gangs of supporters, work it out for themselves for a very long time. This started sometime before your given records, quietly building over the eons until it erupted fully. The decision was made to let it collapse on its own weight and this did occur.

When the Master (Christ Michael) was upon your plane, Lucifer was not, he had already been removed from power. His challenge to the God's did not become a reality in the long run. He could never create. By create we mean new beings, either angelic or human. It has taken great effort behind the scenes to keep your sector of Nebadon even alive while this worked out. Never before had we experiences with this level of rebellion and never again will this even come close to being allowed. We have had quite a setback, but at the same time, the necessary learning curve.

You ones accept that God creates with his famous magic wand, as Candace likes to refer to it, and we get much laughter over this. For the whole creation has been created by the ones who reside in it, and not by a single entity.

But lets move on. Lets get to the closing chapter here. 200,000 years ago those of that great rebellion were given a fair chance to repent. Many refused and went to uncreation, long before your planet was ever populated with your "fallen angels." There were 10 billion various ones, angel and human, that decided to earn their way back into respectability.

They were placed on this planet you call Earth in English, and Urantia in the Heavenly records. At that time your Planetary Supreme, whom is also called Urantia was not yet "supreme." She was truly not able to participate in the decision to place these ones here. She had not formed herself. But oh has she now grown into her own conscious divinity, and you ones imprisoned here can no longer inhabit her surface.

You were given 200,000 years dear ones, to grow up, prove yourselves, understand from the very inside view what you have created, for it was your creation to join in this and become gods. Or so you thought you had been promised by Lucifer. Sadly 8 billion of you did not get the message, and are still trying to become God's on your own and you fight even amongst yourselves still who will have dominion of the planet. Well, you had your chance. YOU BLEW IT. You have all been through your karma. You have been the warriors and you have been the victims. And even experiencing as the victim, you did not learn what human experiences are, on the other side of the coin. You go right back into being warriors.

You thought you could keep Earth? You would destroy her, if you could NOT UNIFY into brotherhood, that chore which all ascending humans on the evolutionary worlds must accomplish. You did not learn you are not separate from the planetary mind. You had opportunity of greatness that was given to you, because simply, you did not know of what you did, when you entered the rebellion. You were forgiven, but only on condition you take a journey similar to what human must make, to become a unit of divinity.

YOU DID NOT FOUND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN UNDER THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD. THIS IS IMMENSE FAILURE BRETHREN. THE MOTHER DESPITE YOUR ABUSE OF HER HOWEVER, DID RISE UP AND FIND HERSELF WITHOUT YOU.

NOW THAT IS THE GREAT SUCCESS STORY HERE FOR HER. GAIA FOUND HER GOD MIND OR GODDESS MIND IF YOU WELL. WE DID NOT EXPECT THAT. THERE WAS A TIME BEFORE THE ADVENT OF MICHAEL, WHEN IT WAS CONSIDERED THE PLANET WOULD HAVE TO BE DESTROYED AND A GREAT POTENTIAL LOST.

FOR ON ALL PLANETS IN THE NORMAL SITUATIONS, IF MAN DOES NOT UNIFY, THE MOTHER ALSO DOES NOT BECOME EXISTENT, IN HER GLORY. GAIA DID. NOW WHAT SAY YOU DARK BROTHERS? THE IGNORANT MOTHER FOUND HERSELF AND YOU COULD NOT?

2 BILLION OF YOU PASSED, REASONABLY SO. Many of these did return to their former estates. Actually 1 billion of you are back in the realms of glory with a wondrous new understanding, and of this we are of course in joy, because never again will these ones fail. They are strong now, and will be even wiser for this, having done "the been there and done that," another term, Candace loves to use. Unto you who fled from glory, unto glory you have returned and then some, and in that regard for these ones, the experiment of repentance under the mercy and grace of God was successful. We hoped for more though. We did not expect 100%, but we hoped for more.

8 billion of you cannot become gods. You were not created as creators and you will no more muck up this glorious planet, this planetary supreme who found herself, out of the muck. She eventualized. What happened to YOU?

Well, some of you are facing the grand courts, of Orvonton. It does not look pretty for you. Others who possess some hope, will get another chance in the DISTANT FUTURE for you ones will never be placed but a few at a time on distant worlds, for you are without trust at this point. We cannot place you in numbers anywhere. You will wait for what may seem like eons in a state of complete sleep, ignorant of your existence, until that day down the road.

You had such opportunity. Such grace was offered. We hoped that the offer would produce true grandeur in terms of your future works. You and you alone are held accountable for your choices and actions.

We are giving out a lot of grace, because you created slave beings to the robotoids who had little chance. But surprise, some of them found the Father, a thing even you could not do. And the ones who really didn't find the Father, but are sweet kind folks, will also get a stupendous chance to become truly human. They go to other worlds, young worlds, to being an incarnational journey in hopes they will find themselves, meaning truly individuate. The Father has such great mercy.

I had such great mercy on you. For it was I who approved the Mercy for you, overriding the Ancients of Days of Orvonton. For 200,000 years I have hoped, and hoped, and hoped. Slowly some of you came around, those 20%. Well 1/2 of those will endure further trials, as these ones have covered 51% or more of their karma. They will get additional chance. But they will submit to the leadership of Michael on this world. They will not have hundreds of thousands of years to finish up.

All those born of human in these ages upon this world since the return of Michael, are cared for. They are young. They will be cleansed of your filth and given fresh opportunity on the younger worlds.

The astral realms of this world will be dismantled. They were of course full of those humans over a time that you did not allow to progress, and who had been trapped here. They are released to move forward. Even though Michael released them to journey as necessary forward, so many were too immature to move much in each life. We will be gradually resurrecting all these ones, even though they are not ready, to the mansion worlds. That is the purpose here now in part of AA Michael's team. He is the angel of the resurrection.

The robotoids having potential cannot go there yet, they must have opportunity to earn their thought adjusters. Opportunity will be given as above. They will not experience the destruction you planned to invest even upon them, who you called useless eaters.

You 8 billion ones, who did not cut the mustard, will be contained in holodeks, until you can be processed. You are done on this world. Those 1 billion who get one more chance to make the grade, will have mercy of exactly two lifetimes to establish the Brotherhood of Man on this planet. This will be accomplished by each of you, or not, and as a group. This will be your task. This time, it will be done under the normal Neadon oversight of this world. You will do it, or you will not. It's that simple.

The planet will be cleansed of your filth. All of it. The animals evolutionary patterns will be restored to normal by seasoned beings here for that purpose, under the direction of the great geneticist Skekmet. This is not a thing the Life Carriers can do.

You were given the care of this seed planet, you were so sure you could do that but you set into the infighting and instead nearly destroyed it.

Gaia will make her Ascension shortly. Normally this is done in concert with the sons and daughters coming into Godness with her. She adopted you ones, although she did not fully understand what she had done and look what you brought upon her and all her life.

5 times this planet has tossed you down. This is number 6. Not much of a tract record is it? And you proved what? Beloveds, WHY? For so long all will be asking that question that have been concerned with this arena. But dear brothers in God, you are finished and remember, you are not more powerful than those above you and you did not prevail.

Now, lets get on with some good news, for those of you who came to help the depraved ones. Some many of you have suffered at their hands, even unto the Creator Son, who has given so much grace to those of his and Nebadonia's creation. You volunteered in the millions to lift up this world. To bring it music, theater, films, television, and the greet achievement of the internet. Your gifts have been substantial, worthy and brought comfort to the lesser ones of this world.

You taught animal husbandry and you took so many animals into your arms, that something wondrous happened also not expected on this world. The higher animals are becoming human before they journey in a human body. How glorious is that! This is rare on normal planets beloveds. You have given them such dignity, they wanted to become like you. And they are and we of the hierarchy actually have to change a few things, under the direction of Shehkmet on that one. This is a stupendous accomplishment.

You brought love to those in need. You helped the poor. You brought and demonstrated goodness where there was none and showed another and better way. You gave hope. The disabled have wheelchairs, they have medical care now in much of the world. They have love and they have hope.

You have graced this world with nearly celestial level music, particularly this last 50 years, music even beyond the times of the Renaissance. You have perfected the art of acting on this world, even under the pressure of ones who did not want the light in the films. You demonstrated through film proper family life. That is until recently when you have been siderailed hugely by money and power.

You have developed technologies where those who preceded you, like the great Tesla could not. You could not bring in what is labeled free energy, but you did well otherwise and the world is a glow in light even if its methods are not what would have been the best. You got it lighted by whatever means you were able to do so.

You brought transportation to the common man. First the railroads, then the auto. You brought housing to the common man. You brought technology to make life easier to the common man. Examples such as washing machines, heat and related necessities.

And most importantly once more, the Internet. You developed your best programming. You have prevented the dark by that programming, from shutting it all down. You made it impervious to them. Try as they might, and they have, it stays running. That is an incredible accomplishment.

The dark were given some carrots initially but when they realized the potential of enlightenment through the Internet, they put on some brakes, but you were not squashed. You listened to the Father Within who gave you programming skills you could only dream of, and so it stands.

So many of you who are "star seed" have been here so long. You are tired, all of you, we find no star seed over 20 years of age in this life time who is not already tired. It is not due to the food and pesticides, but due to being tired of the effort it takes to accomplish something, but yet you have. Even those who have forgotten who they are over the long duration of time. Some of you have been here since the repopulation of Earth after the last trip thru the photon belt.

YOU HAVE ENDURED and your rewards in heaven shall be great. While these dark ones failed, you so shined that your light cannot be covered. You have won. And we are supporting that. There are over 100 million of you who have endured here anywhere from 11,000 years to the last several hundred. You have endured the inquisitions and so many other roundups. You have endured in Mother Russia, who has once again STOOD IN THIS WORLD in LIGHT. At all costs. She survived the great destruction of over 100 years ago now.

While we hoped the United States would rise to shine the greatest light ever on this world, that did not happen. But nevertheless you ones within that country did well. You should not feel rejected and lost and so many of you do feel that way, at this time of great repression on you.

YOU HAVE LIVED and SHOWN the WAY and by your efforts did this planetary mother awaken to her own being. That again IS the biggest surprise of all. Now rest in your glories dear ones, for the GOOD NEWS is far GRANDER than the SAD NEWS.

You ones have so grown in stature, and you will go rise up to further glory. You have survived the greatest of rebellions in Orvonton and well more than survived, you have a created a new way and that is NOT going unnoticed. You will serve well in your future journeys. You have so glorified the Father. IN YOU HE IS WELL PLEASED. You have saved a whole area of the Creation from extinction. You have the expertise now to deal with other dark beings who will manifest, that is the nature of free will.

There will be conclaves on conclaves on conclaves in the future. Whole “universities” will arise to discover what you have done and many of you will be the best of “professors.” These celestial universities will be in Neadon, Orvonton, and indeed even in Havona. For unto you, the whole of the future creations look BRIGHT. The end of the long age of Evil has come. Never will it rise to this extent again. EVER,for YOUR SUCCESSES WILL NOT ALLOW OF IT. I SIRAYA, Master Spirit of Orvonton, STAND SO PROUD OF YOU. You are our most cherished of folks. I AM SIRAYA.

Mohammed Speaks About the Cartoons

Mohammed thru Candace

February 8, 2006

Hello beloveds, I AM Mohammed. I come today to discuss the recent issues of the caricatures of myself, and the reaction to them. This is a political ploy to unite Western peoples against Islam, in a sense to increase the sagging support of these peoples. It is but a game.

I would love for the people of Islam, to do one of two things, either ignore it, or fight back in a similar manner, put up comics against the Western belief systems, and similar peaceful and educational tools. To war and burn down buildings of my caricature, is not what I would have taught, and nor do I support these tactics now. The world needs to understand all these games being played, and to play back in a more thoughtful way. Make your cartoons truthful, do not put falsehoods in them, and in that you show you are the better team!

To burn buildings and hold riots only adds fuel to the Western fire. You make yourselves look less than godly in this, and that of course is the goal. You have behaved exactly as they hoped, you fell into their trap. Show a better way.

Islam was created to fight the dragon, and there are better ways to do this. There is nothing so sacred about me, that a picture or cartoon can't be used. In fact, the thoughtful use of a caricature of me, in political retaliation would be quite a good idea. To use what you think I may have looked like back then, in a good political way, supporting the few great teachings that I was able to instill, would be good to do. Burning buildings is not. Do not assist the antichrist. Recognize the games of the antichrist, and do not play them. They have infiltrated Islam, with their filth and their ways. You must discard this.

There has arisen an interesting leader in Iran at this time, who knows the dragon games rather well. And the NWO is not pleased with being openly challenged. There is not the creation of nuclear weapons in Iran at this time, anymore than in Iraq. This is a ploy, an attack against this leader, who knows the truth and is willing to stand in it. This creates as usual fear and hatred in the Western peoples, who are of Judeo Christian origin, and in general in the hands of the antichrist, without knowing it. You can use good journalism to educate these ones, and better display the God within. I am not up there in the sky my friends, and neither is God. You are God together, and you must come away from the concocted teachings that have been added to Islam, that I did not bring by my choice.

Islam has many problems culturally right now. You put down your women and make them dress absurdly. They in general do not have power in many areas. Women are 1/2 of God, fully 1/2, not the lesser half. They need to be in your politics, you will benefit greatly from the feminine energy, that tends to use non violent methods to get work done. To war in a physical manner, especially as the aggressor is not of my teachings. Warring is for defense only. It is not for conquest, nor it is useful to defend a non physical warring, as has happened with the cartoons, with physical war. Why must you burn buildings far away from Europe in your anger? What does that look like to one who observes from a distance, watching it all?

Fight fire with fire, is a good idea to consider. They fought with cartoons, fight back with cartoons, my beloved. Fighting fire with fire is valid, even with real fire. Firefighters often create a fire, to burn ground and direct the new fire towards the central fire, which works by taking away fuel for the central fire. Take away their fuel my beloved, do not add to the fire with real flames. Use political and psychological tools just like they are using. Be creative, do it better. Show my "image" of being one with all, show your Godhood in this manner. Only fight back with weapons, if that is the needed defense. You have shamed yourselves in others eyes, by the burning of these buildings. You have defeated your cause, rather than building upon it.

I AM asking all who read at Candace's website, to identify Islamic websites and Islamic News services, including <http://english.aljazeera.net> and send both my big message from last summer, and this short one to these places. Most will not listen, but a few might at least study the idea. And you will have opened a door in the process. We have much to do to heal Islam, and in the healing the truth of how my mission was obstructed, will come a new and wonderful Islam.

This is a strong statement to those who will receive this message in the press, but the Quran is not truly my work. You must understand that I was deceived and a radio chip planted in my brain, through which the Surahs were given. These were never written down, but memorized according to the traditions at the time. There were few that were literate, and I was not either. By the tradition of oral memory the Surahs were further degraded, and the others Islamic resources are not valid either.

After my coming, we shall throw out the Quran and start over from scratch. You must stop being offended by such as the throwing of the book in the trash, or down the sewer. I will shortly in this wait, work up a new simple set of instructions for you, which Candace will publish on her website for future readers, Islamic and non Islamic. This would be appropriate to place in her Changing the Face of Religion section. I do remind you, I am returning my beloved's, to set the record straight, and gift Islam with the real tools of life, real truths, that which IS. Namaste, raise up your Godhood within, Mohammed.

Remembering Terri Schiavo

Terry Schiavo thru Candace

Dec 19, 2011

Terri's quite a lady, and I enjoyed working with her, as she did me, finding it wonderful for a person to give her a voice, even before she passed from this plane. I talked more than is in this, just didn't have notes on it. She was the first person, still incarnate I have telepathed with, and I have others now too, but must be quiet on them. I also will be doing a piece when allowed, started with another famous person who has passed this plane.

Remembering Terri Schiavo

Posted to my forum Dec. 3, 2006

By Candace Frieze and Terri Schiavo

I worked with Terri from shortly before her death and at additional times. I began this piece one year after her death. (Actually look below, I talked with her first March 24, 2005-tonight December 19, 2011)

Preface: I began this article after watching Larry King one year after Terri's passing this plane, during the time the TV had the one year coverage. I decided to not post it right away, as the forum was public at that time and I didn't want the piece to travel, and perhaps face some uncomfortable consequences down the road. PLEASE KEEP THIS HERE ON THE FORUM. DO NOT MAIL IT ANYWHERE. Terri came to my mind again, and for what reason I am not sure, and its time to tell what I have of her story, now that the forum is private and more time has elapsed.

Hi Everyone. During a Larry King show with survivors of brain injuries, that occurred during the death process of Terri last year, Sananda suggested we contact her. Now that many are again covering her death a year later, I think it is time now to present the material of my conversation with her.

Conversation with Terri, on March 24, 2005, after her feeding tube removed on March 15, 2005

Candace: Today, Good Morning America (One year later, after her death) had her family on live, and they are still in a place of hurting and healing, and carry still unresolved needs, as you will see why, I think in this work of a year ago. I chatted with Terri recently on the other side, taking no notes, but she gave me permission to begin the story.

Perhaps she will give me an addition message at some future point. I talked to Terri more than once during this time, including the day she finally passed this plane, on March 31, 2005.

Terri wrote through me, a loving letter to her parents a few days after she began this work with me, but before her death. She asked me to wait until she approved the idea to send it to them, because of their grief at the time, and also because being Catholics, they might not have been accepting of the letter, and her ideas that are in it. Terri did suggest in that letter that when the Earth changes make it possible, she can meet them once again in person, in her light body.

So, on Sananda's encouragement, we contacted Terri together and chatted a bit. It then occurred to me, I needed to take notes, so I found a spiral notebook. I was not in the mood to work at the computer, as I continued to watch TV a bit during the first session. The first part of the discussion was around introductions and who Sananda and I were and why we were contacting her. So this work starts where I began to write.

Terri: I still would like to live, but this body has been through so much as has my family.

Candace: I tell her that I am watching a female relative on TV who is in tears watching Terri.

Terri: I am in tears myself watching my body through this, and knowing most likely I will break my cord and let the body go. I am not in the body, because I don't want to feel the starvation yet once again, but I feel the distress in my body. It (the body) feels awful, the body can still register pain and discomfort.

Candace: I ask Terri her origins.

Terri: I am a person from a lighted planet. I am here to help enlighten Earth. I am from Meriarner. (Mer i ar ner. I spelled it as I heard it.) It is the 3rd planet around Atlas. This is my first incarnation on Earth.

Candace: Atlas is a Pleiadian sun that encircles our Central Sun Alcyone, as our sun does. Our sun is the 8th sister, to the "7 Sisters." Atlas is the 7th Sister.

Terri: My poor Mother, she loves me so. I may leave just to stop her pain. This body has been starved 3 times, and it sets me back. My husband tried to suffocate me.

Candace: Your husband tried to suffocate you?!!!

Terri: Yes, and I fought and fought. He is bigger and he was angry. I passed out I guess. I went into a coma, my brain damaged.

Candace: Why did he do this to you?

Terri: I think he had a girl friend. He later felt very guilty. I didn't do well with him because I knew, and I never trusted him.

Every time I am starved, I lose some more of my function. Michael starved me and gave me shots in the early years after my accident. He also tried to block my breathing several times.

The nurses were wonderful. Why didn't they help me?

Candace: At this time, I told her about a nurse's story on www.rense.com, from 1996, that some had been fired for attempting to help her with Michael.

Terri: My planet was part of the Lucifer Rebellion, but it never sank as low as Earth. It is not as prized a planet. We returned to the light long ago. My parents are advanced Earth Souls. I chose them and I had a wonderful life with them. This hurts so much because of their pain.

Candace: I then asked her about the story covered on TV that Michael claimed she would have not wanted to live.

Terri: I may have told someone in a light mood that I wouldn't want to live that way, but I never had an agreement with Michael. He made this up to get rid of me, and I have suffered much from refusing to die for him. He has kept me very separate from my family. I would have had better care with them and would have had a will to live that would be better with them.

Second Conversation, March 31, the day of her death

Terri: I want Michael to pay for what he did. I have lived around 15 years in a place like Hell. I would not give him the pleasure of my dying. Had this been an accident I could have left under similar circumstances. I live outside my body quite a bit so I don't have to feel it so much.

This is wonderful to talk with someone! (She was pleased to converse with someone still in this realm, me)

Candace: Do you have something to say?

Terri: Yes I do! Now that I have broken my cord, and left, I am in a state of anger, and I should be at peace. I needed my parents, not Michael to be with me. I did not so much stay for myself, but for them.

From this side, I want my truth spoken. I took 15 years to die. This man took 15 years to kill me. Now of Course, I am not dead, it is the body. Now I will somehow have my day in court. I ask you to help in whatever way you can.

This is Terry's letter to her Mom and Dad. She gave it to me before her death, but after the work above. She has not yet today, December 1, 2006 approved my sending it to them. She wishes the Second Coming first, to prepare them.

Dear Mommy and Daddy,

I loved you so. You gave me everything I could ever have hoped for. I chose you to be my parents in that one life on Earth. I so wanted to be here for the Earth changes.

I am not from Earth, dear Mommy. I am from another planet. There are many of us here at this time. You are such wonderful souls!

I know my body will be cremated, and Mommy, this is all right. I have another body, from my planet and one day, when back in my glorified body, I will visit with you again.

Do not be upset by cremation, Mommy. You do not have what you believe, that the body will join the glorified soul. It doesn't work that way, my Mother.

You have lived in many bodies, all of you, my family. When earth rises up, you can have the opportunity of keeping your bodies and changing them to eternal bodies, like I have. Do chose this journey, my dear Mommy and Daddy. I will help you in it.

It may be a few months before I return to you. It is not yet time, but when I do, I will be in my light body. I will not look the same. But you will know me.

Please Mommy, understand Michael has spent 15 years trying to kill me. He killed this worn body, but I am not dead. I shall one day have you both in my arms again.

My Love, your Terri.

Candace: Ok, as I work on this tonight, December 2, I am in tears. Who would not be?

I contacted Terri again, on Mar 27, 2006, the night I began this piece., taking notes I see as I watched Michael, her killer, was on TV with Larry King, pushing his book, "Terri the Truth". I was angry that this man had gotten his way. And today, now I remember why I started back on this, because I received an email about an article on Terri, and it described how in many legal ways, everything about her case was not legal. She should have been returned to the care of her parents, and in terms of Michael, he had only cared for her until the lawsuit was settled and only then did he dream up all the stories about Terri to end her life, including that she was bulimic and that she had said she didn't want to live.

Terri: I didn't want to die.

Candace: I explained bulimia to her. Her husband was pushing this, and explaining she had a cardiac arrest from it.

Terri: No, I did not have bulimia. I went on normal diets to loose weight.

Statement to Michael: I was present Michael, all that time. I smiled and I tried to talk to my parents. I laughed and gestured as I could to the many nurses that loved me. I would read things on TV, when I could watch it. My eyes worked.

Terri: Michael never loved me; he had girlfriends. I found life on Earth difficult, so different from my planet. We do not have violence like Earth. We have developed a global government and a global caring.

Life on Earth was difficult, but I did fine with it. I repeat, I lost weight on a normal diet. I did tire of people pressuring me on my weight, so I lost it.

I could see. Yes, he tried to suffocate me, three times. During my death, Michael also several times when alone with me, held his hand over my mouth and pinched my nose.

I watched this in spirit body, as I spend no time in my body after they removed my tube.

I broke the cord before my body died. It took maybe a few hours for the body to die.

Candace: I re questioned Terri on the cardiac arrest, and the rumor of her bulimia. She stated once again, that she did not have bulimia, but she did diet strongly at intervals, and that she was injured by suffocation and not a cardiac arrest. On the Larry King show, it was stated that she was 126 pounds at the time of her accident. She did not have enlarged neck muscles that would have occurred with repeated vomiting from bulimia. A doctor on Larry King stated he didn't believe she had bulimia.

When the time is right, I may go public with Terri's story, after the changes. I was advised to wait a bit, because the dark could cause AbundantHope and me some substantial difficulties. Plus, I would not be believed, of course now at this time. My story won't stand in a court of law, but the telling of it, might help her parent's. I might also cause another legal inquiry against Michael, and I would hope it would. I will work again in the near future with Terri.

2011, today December 19. I never contacted Terri again. I tried once and did not find her. I assume she returned

Germain speaks about Dove and NESARA and a bit more.

Germain thru Candace

January 1, 2006

To our many readers, I AM Germain, and I come today to clear up some of the little difficulties implied in the message from Dove today, that many of you have read. In this message she took some mighty aim at certain channelings, because she has been getting a great deal of discouragement from people telling her that her work is useless and unworthwhile, that the Federation has everything under control and that she has a great big ego problem.

Please be aware that these problems are the result of the dark, by intention to try to sway this woman from her great work. In her message, she did say, that there are diverse channelings of material, all claiming to be from the same people. There are indeed many channelings still going on from the fakes, and many of them are doing this by intent.

The other issue, is that many channelers, who are valid believe they have unmitigated protection, and in the case of telepathy, this is not so. This is a huge issue nowadays, with Patrick, Suzi Ward, and quite a few others. Plasma shields and star warrior protection do not filter telepathy. The receiver must do that. And many do not. Suzi remains in total trust and will not question, and this has been an ongoing problem for quite some time now. And this is taken advantage of. Nancy Tate and the A's remain doing their thing.

I would remind all who read the messages that the KOS of the A's is no longer around, he was detained many months ago. Their supposed KOS, and the person who bothers and tells lies to Dove, is a totally different individual, who is still playing the games.

Now what is going on with NESARA, is that all is coming in steps. The first most important step is that the government is to stand down. Then come other steps. Dove is taking care of at this time, the work I have assigned her to do, as she has been doing for a very long time now. She is a highly advanced and totally trustworthy soul. Ego is not her problem, but desire to get the world into shape is her very real agenda, and she is at this time, a bit on the distressed side, as are we all. She is bravely carrying out the work that must done in your realm.

It has been learned that the 16th amendment put into order illegally so long ago, was never an amendment to the real USA Constitution. There are two constitutions, one the original of the real united States, and the one that belongs to the foreign corporation that owns the United States. The 16th amendment was to the foreign corporation constitution. This the method of deceit of the dark. Substitution. The reason the amendment was not ratified back then, is because many states realized the difference, and would not ratify.

It was discovered recently, that President Clinton did not sign the NESARA law. This is not relavent, because he did not take the oath to serve the real Consitution. But many in Congress most certainly did, and these ones knew the difference. They took the oath to the real Constitution in secrecy, and passed NESARA with the aid of Navy Seals, for their protection during a special session.

And it was a law not really needing the presidents signature. I will not discuss more details on that right now, for our own secrecy. We did go back and research some other materials, and made the discovery that President Kennedy's Executive Order, to return to the production of coinage by the Treasury Department, and his ordering of the end of the Federal Reserve was never resinded. And President Kennedy was the real deal.

Every President you have elected in more recent times, takes the oath to the foreign corporation's constitution, and is thus, not the leader of your country, and the legal papers on this are real, and we have them in our hands. It remains our desire to handle this within the laws of the country, and it is very possible to do so.

So to make a long story short, everything that was done back then, and since regards the monetary systems of this country is truly not of this country and her true Constitution. We have been in court over this over the last few months, and we do indeed have the full whole truth, which can't be further taken apart by the existing government, because the existing government is totally a sham, and not the government of the United States of America.

Now the gold exists. The issue right now, is getting all the precious metals where they need to be. We are requiring the banks and all the other financial institutions to purchase the gold. Have you not noticed the run on gold right now? It is safeguarded in many places, and we have determined the correct ownership to much of it. Past these comments, what Dove has put out in her work, is what I want her to put out, and there is a plan in that.

Dove works for you, she is honest, and impeccable. I told her years ago to get away from Patrick, he was out to cause her harm, and so it continues to be apparently. The other folks working for the dark, continue to cause harm, in much the same way Patrick has done. Same game, different tools.

Omega is real, and in short order we will have access to it. I want to remind you all that money is simply a very expensive game, and all of you need to study the stuff and where it controls you, and work to get off of it. Do not buy that which you do not need, in general. Do not buy from the beast where you can avoid it. A few suggestions would be television at this time. Do not feed the beast. Do not buy expensive big cars. Do take the bus where you can. Do not buy the fake food in the stores. And teach your family members this.

I will not go into further detail, as this would compromise our own very needed secrecy. I would ask of you to not continue to buy into the many sources out there, that are not for real.

NESARA has become truly God's plan for the world. It is not called NESARA in other places, because the name comes from the USA. It has become more, a concept for the world, to be implemented with your help, as you know. That is the point of AbundantHope, to get the help up and going. We are not going to do all the work, and the apathy in America, and much of the rest of the world must end.

You are required to tell your truth, and to give up the compromising. This remains the same teaching that was told so long ago, when the Masters of that time incarnate, said they came not to bring peace, but to set one against the other. This was about doing the right thing, rather than going along with the system. It was about asking questions, and not blindly following others rules.

It is time to get rid of the new age garbage about peace. The star people are going to keep the peace in terms of preventing the use of weapons, but it will be your responsibility to build the true peace in this world. Gaia is going to ascend, with or without you. It is totally set in motion, and can't be stopped. We have given her much help, but we can not longer continue to totally prevent everything. You and the rest of the planet are going to face up to the issues, and you are going to get the changing done.

You are indeed to be provided with a great deal of money, and worry not at this moment about all the sources it will come from. The plan remains for Americans to receive the $75000 I have mentioned before, each month until either $10 million has been paid to each, or you get off the stuff. I certainly hope you will get off the stuff quite some time before that around 12 years is up.

But if you want off money, you will do it. If you want a brilliant new world, you will do it. You will stand up to your family, you will stand up to your bosses, you will stand up to your ignorant church leaders. You will stand up to ignorance. It is time to stop the New Age candle work, as we like to express it, and get on with the doing. It is a time of great judgement, the separating of the wheat from the chaf, and I truly hope you are up to it.

Life is not going to be wonderfully easy for Americans, and others of wealthy countries for a time. The increased wealth, is only wealth, if there are goods to buy. This will be a time of chaos, you live on the planet, the star people do not. You answered a call to come to Earth, many of you as long as 2000 years ago, others much more recently. It is time to answer the call. There is much apathy in this world, and many in ignorance, and there will be some issues to be worked out. You are here to bust the boxes, bust the systems.

Christ Michael asked you to be in trust a few months ago, and that remains. You do not need to be worried and upset about every little rumor that comes your way. In this time of waiting, what have you decided upon to do? Or are you still waiting for someone else to assign you a job? The dark is doing a great job of causing interference. I too look at the postings on the forum, and I see a bit of nonsense in many of them.

You no longer have the time to wonder the truth. And go from one to another asking for it. It has been given abundantly and then some. You are all God, you all co created this Universe. The Universe runs on you. It does not run on sky god somewhere. You are the Gods, and there is no better truth than that. It is complete unto itself. Stop spending time in useless discussion, and make use of the messianic section of the website, stop avoiding it. The time is now. Namaste, which means, if you have not figured it out yet, from the God within me, to the God within you. Become the God. I AM Germain.

Banking Rumor Not True

Germain thru Candace

Dec 19, 2011

August 7, 2006

Hi everyone, there are rumors being spread today via the GLP forum that Germain wishes to answer. Apparently somebody posted a message saying the banks will close globally in one week, get your money now. Some are worried that this is a terror game. There are often rumors that are not true that are started on this other forum. Here is Germain's response.

Germain: Dearly Beloveds, this could be a terror game, but will not be allowed to happen. If plans go the way intended at this time, the new temporary President of the United States and the closing of the Federal Reserve will be announced simultaneously. No matter the scenario, the banks in the USA will be closed for 3 to 5 business days to make the changeovers to the new Treasury system and to finish the stocking processes of the new currency.

You have known of this for sometime and it is wise to always, under any circumstances have a bit of cash on hand. The closing of the USA banks will be covered in the news, and people given time to withdraw cash, since plastic will not work. The absence of banking may cause a few businesses to have some monetary issues for a few days, and some may not stay open the whole time for business, so it is not a bad idea to have adequate food and related needs, and a full tank of gas in each car for commuting, in case some gas stations close that deal mainly in cards.

There is no plan to close banks globally at the same time. There will be other countries that have printed a new currency whose banks may or may not close at the same time. These would close at some point to make changes. Someone is again, having some fun creating fear amongst you.

The Prosperity funds and Farm claim funds can't be distributed until the changes in the USA. It is not safe to do so. Stop paying attention to false posts around that concept. It is not safe to identify receivers by delivering papers either, and there is a scam going on to deliver paperwork that is not legit, to cause harm. All important papers will be delivered by courier, not registered mail. This has always been the case.

There are still people trying to scam and steal of all of the funding, including my World Trusts and these shall face their music down the road. False "Lightworkers" will be identified and the funds recovered if mistakenly given out. I have new people who will be accepting applications for trust funds of many types and applications will be scrutinized carefully and proof will have to be submitted of appropriate use of funding. There are still those dark, who claim to be Lightworkers who are not, in hopes of obtaining funds for misuse and to be given unto dark people to use in wicked ways.

The problem with this idea, is that these dark ones will be exiting the planet over the next several months and not be around to use of their stealing. Once the "star people" are on the ground and public, many of the dark will be very easily identified and removed. Judgment time, we call it. I advise against the scams. It will not serve you well. There are resources, ways and means, to identify the dark after the Second Coming Event that are not on the planet yet, but under Monjoronson's courts, so shall it happen.

Beware the games, you players of them! With the Second Coming event, comes the new rules to play by, and they are tough, quick, and final. So Be It. This could have been easier for these dark ones, to cross the fence. At the beginning of the Second Coming, the decision time has ended for you who are intentionally dark. So Be It, on that too. You will be removed as rapidly as possible from the planet, your final chance to change is about over.

Now as to my various World Trusts. I have created many, in a variety of countries, so that application will be handled locally for the most part. These will be very carefully approved, and the application process will not be easy. These funds will start accepting applications about 3 months from the Second Coming, which helps to relieve the problem of the dark applying for them, because the worst will have exited the planet. I advise that there will be some not very pretty scenarios for some and Lightworkers will need to be of help to those in their circles who may experience some losses.

There are certain programs that will be funded shortly after the removal of the Federal Reserve, that have been pre approved by me and my staff. Others will have to await the public disclosure of the application process to begin to apply. Many of you will need to await, in the USA, for the refund programs to become active for your funding of missions. Your missions can be funded out of your personal rebates, which will be just as we have stated for some time now, $75000 a month for slightly over 12 years.

In the USA, the decimal point by then will be moved over, so this amount of money becomes huge in the USA, buying 10 times what it would now. This may not be true in other economies, but we are working hard to restructure all economies to a standard world monetary system, within 5 years, and if all goes well, considerably less. All countries that have experienced considerable inflation, such as in Europe and the USA will experience changes to correct the inflation. This is the first course in correcting the widespread problems of inflation.

Monjoronson's program will be public in a short while after the Second Coming event, and hopefully this knowledge will cause some to straighten up. His courts are definitive in their findings, and there is no recourse, nor will there be the possibility of long drawn out trials. Those that scam the trust funds will answer to his courts, and not the courts of the land. Enough said on that.

So, beloveds stop the worrying about all the stuff that spreads on forums at times. I am the one in charge and so be it. Namaste, I AM Germain.

Brief Update, Iraq nerve gassed last night
(back in 2006)

Monjoronson thru Candace

Dec 19, 2011

Monjoronson, March 17, 2006

Hello everyone, Monjoronson here today to provide a bit of an update. To begin with, the God event was a bit less than desired, but helpful still. It did increase the vibrations of the atoms, but not as much as hoped for. Now to move on.

You will continue, those of you who call yourselves lightworkers to have some discomforts physically. The best thing to do for this is to get rest, meditate often, and eat foods as real as you can obtain them. Please concentrate heavily on vegetables and fruits. And do your lightwork, the word "work" is in there my friends.

The regime should end finally shortly. The Iranian Bourse is scheduled on time, no matter what is on the Internet contrary to this. The Iranians were heavily threatened by the USA, but they have received some help by the Russians to stay on target. The US still does intend to attack Iran shortly and many are working to prevent this scenario. Admiral Jhonka, being top military leader in the USA is issuing many orders to prevent this possibility. He is under heavy protection to prevent his removal, which has been attempted.

There was an event of great sadness in Iraq over night. American military, in the latest endeavor of control, dropped chemicals upon a large area, in addition to the bombing, which was carried out contradictory to Admiral Jhonka's orders. There has been a small intervention of star fighters in this arena, and Arch Angel Rafael was kept busy in medical assistance where possible to do so. The chemicals dropped were of the nerve gas type. There is now interference going on to prevent further occurrence. Do not believe what is upon your tell a vision sets. What you are seeing is apparent desolation, and that part is true.

When are Americans going to wake up to this atrocity, on the whole? America, despite the works of the great Cindy Sheehan, and those of many on the net continues to de evolve, sadly. The news is attempting to get people interested, but continues to cover all inadequately. Although the polls do show Bush going downhill, and less favoritism in Iraq for the war, the favoritism that is declining is more around the lies told, and not the suffering of the Iraqi peoples. Still we see no coverage publicly of the Iranian Bourse soon to open, which is of course the real "nuclear" event.

We do move on and continue the plan. It must be done from the inside, with assistance that is allowed, such as Admiral Jhonka returning from Mars. People must boot out their dictators, otherwise they desire what they get. You reap what you sow. If you sow the dictator and do not remove him, you receive of his control. If heaven, which includes of course advanced races, bails people out, they do not learn. And you are getting a very rare bailing out, without it, your world would have experienced nuclear war once again, and worse than ever before, it would have been your extinction.

Remember, you are the ones who came to help the bailout from within. You are in your training in the ultimate of problem solving, that prepares you for your future journeys, as the Gods to come. It is time to get more serious on those messianic missions. You may not have the funds yet, but you do have the ability to dream, and begin your organizations. AbundantHope runs on volunteerism at this time. Find the volunteers for your future endeavors, Two or More in My Name. Namaste, I AM Monjoronson

Putting Christ Back Into Christmas

CM thru Candace

Dec 19, 2011

Dear ones, I AM Christ Michael here to speak a bit today. Candace tells me there are questions about the waiting, for NESARA in the USA. How long will it be? For the time being it will be when the star incarnates upon the planet in the USA in Government, Media, and the Military get their courage up and do the right thing.

We are watching events closely. This is a time for testing for these ones, who came to the planet to raise her up, and confront your BBB&G's. They volunteered for this, they were not sent against their will. Some of them are highly experienced in working with BBB&G's, as you see in some of them before you, who do venture out to do the right thing. Others are less experienced.

I mentioned in a message last April, and I believe again later, we have to have at least the void, the balance between light and dark, and we prefer, when all happens in more seriousness, that we are on the side to the light, to give us a measure of protection to cover those that will be in great fear. We are slightly to that, but we lost a bunch in America over the Fall, as people slowed down on their doing the right thing.

As lightworkers, you are responsible for helping. I know that your letters do little to persuade, but in sending them anyway, you are just saying no, and you increase the light. You plant seeds. You must continue to state your truth in front of the people with whom you associate, at home, at work, and in play. By the planting of the seeds, at least when the changes happen, they will be more expecting, and you get to say, I told you so! Is it wrong to do this? No, it is not. I know many of you are waiting this chance, and some are wondering if they should hold back and not make this statement, of "I told you so."

But do make it, remind them where they learned the facts, because just maybe, you will be seen as the way shower, the candle that you are. Americans are in general, in two groups, of these that do not know the truth. Either they totally are not aware, and just plug away, or they are maybe a bit aware, but too afraid to look at the truth of what America has become.

I am allowing this slow approach, since the BBB&G's did not stand down, for America to be prepared at least a little that their government frankly, well, to use a favorite expression upon the planet, it sucks. If they are starting to notice this, when their dear Mr. Bush, and his group walk away, they will rejoice, rather than be in fear, or not caring, and this ups the light substantially. America needs to be in support of change.

I am disappointed in the "white knights" in media, government and military, because of their fear. There still remains the mole issues and most of them do not know who to trust. I myself became rather aware of someone that has been important to our cause, is a mole recently. We do not go about reading everyone's minds.

To do so violates free will, and especially violates something this planet tends to hold in high regard, the ability to be themselves in secrecy. People must look into the fallacy of this idea, and they will, when they finally see that all the secrecy of the government, that secrecy in general, means something nasty is going on. Americans support the secrecy as being OK, and in fact needed, for government to protect them.

I am watching closing the reactions of America to the extension of the Patriot Act, and watching what goes on in Congress about doing away with it. America remains not ready for NESARA, but NESARA it will get, just as soon as Mr. Bush waves his white flag. The temporary government is in place, has been for a long time. There have been a couple changes in the membership of it.

Last spring, had the BBB&G's stood down, things would have flowed smoothly in our plans, because it would have been "voluntary." America would have accepted it. America is not ready to see the resident of the White House, which is of course a clone, be arrested, which would include also his many cohorts in crime. I have decided they will see a resignation first, the arrests later. There are quite a few, more than you realize, who have fled to Australia over the months.

Bush, Laura his wife, and Mr. Cheney are all clones. These are the last clones, there are no more. We have seen to that. To keep the balance to the light, I repeat, that America has to be in a state of readiness, and be willing to support the resignation of this awful regime. As you well know, many of those around you, are not ready for NESARA, not intellectually, not spiritually. You have a job on your hands.

Now, It is time to talk a bit more about New Orleans, since it is in the news today. The news is that the Army Corps of Engineers will rebuild the levies, higher, bigger, and to no avail, as the sea will keep rising.

But that is not the issue to discuss tonight. For a time after Katrina last fall, I was in anger. Yes, indeed I get angry. I just don't throw any magic lightning bolts around in the process, striking down the evil ones. You have such strange ideas of heaven and God.

Some of you noticed that there was an attempt to quarantine New Hampshire afterwards, because of the possibly of refugees being ill. A few days before Katrina, the public water supplies of New Orleans, were contaminated with the virus, that would have caused a pretty severe gastroenteritis. This virus would have been contagious. It was the plan to quarantine states, under martial law, as the refugees came down with this virus. Many elderly would have died from the illness, and many would have been in the hospital for severe dehydration.

Yes, Indeed there was widespread anger in my realms. Supervised by Arch Angel Rafael, thousands of star people treated hundreds of thousands of New Orleans folks during their sleep at night, all over the country. This was another 911 attempt. Many of you are aware the levies were brought down by explosives, and this is documented, down to the having of samples with explosives identified. A few people were killed, so the truth would not become known.

There remain a number of people in the camps, some of your concentration camps. The idea is to never let them see the light of day, hoping they would be forgotten in time. However, these are quite alive, and we are seeing to it, that this remains so, in this long wait.

I am still at loss over the lack of concern over Iraq. People are a bit angry over the possible lies told, but still there is not anger about the rest of the situation. Where is the concern about this war, other than those relatively few who do understand. This government did a very good job, of making the Arabs seen as less than human.

A time of testing for the peoples of the world over this attitude. There are still plenty who feel it is perfectly OK to steal the resources of another, for self. There is little outcry in the churches that profess to worship my name, and that of Sananda. There is still intense belief that the Arabs must be killed before they kill Americans. There are still lots of supposedly educated people who do not see.

The only reason America, in general, is going to support the resignation of this resident of the White House, is over the lies of intelligence, and the lack of adequate care for New Orleans. It is proving difficult to get people to see what their scumbag government is about. As the holiday season continues, in support of God, and his birthday, Iraq and its troubles are forgotten.

There are times in which I wish there was the draft, because at least the draft dodgers would raise a fuss like what happened with Viet Nam. America thought it was useless to fight the Vietnamese in a far away different land.

But not so Iraq. 911 was a masterful invent by your BBB&G's, to cloud the thinking of America. This is why we did not prevent 911, America needed the wake up call.

But little has happened except with a select few in this regard. Yes, enough happened to raise the light on the planet, meaning awareness, but in the long story, not enough yet. I will wait a bit longer for a sleepy country to awaken, and for its star people who are in leadership to do the same. It could come at any day, it could have come weeks ago, if only the news folks would but do the right thing, and expose the truth just a little bit faster.

It would be truly wonderful, this Holiday Season, if the Christ was put back into Christmas. Making stores change their slogans does not accomplish this. It is a holiday season. Yes, some celebrate My name in reverence on December 25, some Jewish people celebrate God during Hanukkah. But few celebrate My name and birth, My First Coming, when it comes to war and Iraq, and a government that owns them to the core.

Few want out of prison, the prison they accept so readily. Put the Christ back into Christmas, by standing up politically, demanding more, requesting the earnest end, and remediation of this war to the Iraqi peoples. Nothing more, and nothing less will do. Namaste, I AM Christ Michael, your Creator Son and I implore you to assist the light.

Hidden CM Message, Christmas Day

Christmas 2005 thru Candace

Hi All, I was working on a post on Christmas Day, and was asking Christ Michael a couple questions along the way. So he decided to add something to what I was writing. So this post contains also what I was writing, before his comments, which are at the end, in blue. The beginning, was my response to anothers writing asking for more detail from people on the forum, about who they are and where they are from.

Interesting reading here today. I personally like people to place a little detail, such as general region of the world, but I also understand that we are all followed about by NSA etc, and people have a real fear. I also understand that NSA and others can create cute names and cute writing, and be in total deceit. I learned this a good deal in my email. It is easy to trust somebody if the writing is "nice." You are having a nice discussion in this thread! AS littlebenny says, the term was just a handle he created to register, and it does not necessarily provide a decription of hem. Maybe it is not even "him" but "her." I have assumed the gender in a name used in email, or email addresses, and have been informed of my "error" later.

I assumed from her writing that "Dove of Oneness" is the "stern" type. However, I have the new DVD, and she is the "bubbly" type. Email, and writing are not always accurate, in being able to determine the nature of the person writing. Now we can also recieve computer generated writings that seem "human" also.

Around a month ago, I received letters from people, in snail mail, and by email that said they respected my work, nice kudos in them, telling me they are the good guys and understand what I am trying to do, describing their lifestyle of working for the light. Then I open email, assuming they are sending something friendly, they have gotten my "trust" a bit, and in the new mail, is a letter telling me I am evil. After extending the support, to get one of these is like getting kicked in the gut. No surprise anymore, this happens frequently. This is intentional in many cases. I know in some cases these are people still searching for the absolute perfect correct truth, and if I write something that disagrees with where they are at this moment, then they fall away from support. This is fine. It is their journey. And I am on my journey of my creation.

In the arena of "intentional" I have been writing back and forth with a person several times now, and then 2 days ago, I get a letter telling me he had received an astral message, that I had better beware of what I have bitten off, not said in a nice way, I assure you it was a threat. I assumed this person was the friend of another and was given my personal email address by the other person. Not so, I wrote this other person, and learned she doesn't have a clue who this supposed friend is. So this is a case of invasion of my letters by CIA or NSA, a creation of getting my attention once again, and then being told to back off.

We are going to see this on the forum. But as to the journey into truth and knowledge, it is individual, and we wrote about this in one of the messages, "Getting to the Truth of the Matter." Everyone is where they are at in the truth department. What is important is to continue the learning, and the remodeling of one's truth. This is the whole purpose of the journey, the expansion of one's knowing. The constant remodeling of the I AM THAT I AM. And that is the truth you can be assured of at this point, the constant upward journey of ascension.

What is most important is that we all accept certain things that seem true to us at the time, and well may be for the situation at hand. But as we continue to experience and learn, we may find that the old thing is no longer truth for us. The thing to do in that case, is toss it out the door, value it for what it taught at the time, and more ahead.

I said in that message, that I have occasionally accepted something as truth, then had to toss it, and I put aside somethings, as "maybies" and found a good measure of truth in them. This is the process of learning in life. Remember, our eyes tell us the sun goes around the earth. Our sensory systems seem to tell us the wall is solid, but then Sananda can walk through them.

I have personally been awake when I am taken somewhere. Two methods occur. Either I feel my entire body being picked up and often watch the ceiling come at me, as I move through it, or my body "dematerializes" and rematerializes elsewhere. Beam me up Scotty was a great truth given through Star Trek, but many people believe, it is their truth for the moment, that this is not possible. When I am taken "whole" I am always dumped back into bed, often in a odd position, on top of the covers. This does not occur often any more. Usually I come and go without a disturbance, always returned snugly under the blankets. This is the dematerialization technique.

People continue to believe the stars are too far away, and that nothing can go faster than light photons. Yet, Christ Michael tells me the Phoenix can journey to the nearest star in the Pleiades, in 10 minutes of our time. Yes, I typed that correctly, minutes. Remember in Star Trek, they started out at a "slow" speed and then popped into hyperspeed or something like that, I can't remember the terms now. That is what is done. Slower speed within a solar system, and then when past that, in the higher dimension outside it, there is jumping to a higher speed. CM, (as Hatonn) describes this a bit in one of the Phoenix Journals, but I don't remember which one. Outside a solar system or any system with gravity, there is no friction, and no gravity either. One does not travel at Faster than light within a solar system, in terms of a physical ship. However, there is no resistance to the pure energy of thought, which does travel far faster than light.

Ok, CM desires to add his bit here, as I have been conversing with him as I write this.

Hello, to all of you seemingly bound by gravity today. Thought travels instantaneously, without the influence of gravity. This is the energy of creation. There are no barriers to thought, and its transfer, other than the barriers of belief systems around it.

When each of you becomes ever more attuned to the universal circuits, which were closed to Earth during the rebellion and are now re established, you can connect by thought, all the way to Paradise, and very nearly instantly over this vast distance. It is mainly your belief system that disallows this. Despite the poor DNA upon the Earth plane, DNA and your body construction are NOT a barrier to the use of telepathy. What is the barrier, is your belief system, and the use of the word "try". Do not try, simply DO IT.

Animals are naturally telepathic, as soon as any sort of thinking starts in them. And it starts pretty early, even in animals such as frogs. Plants, while they do not think in the way you do, are still telepathic, and you can communicate with the various nature spirits.

In your brain, part of the hypothalamus, the master gland, is a portion that translates what others say into the language of your understanding. Animals do not speak English, but in your telepathy with them, your hypothalamus will translate the picture system they use into words for you. You can also receive the pictures. When you speak back to them telepathically, your hypothalamus will send them a picture that they understand. Same with "nature spirits." Your hypothalamus sends your message in such a way the nature spirit can understand. Nature spirits in the plants, the wind, et al, read and sense your aura also. You are an open book to them.

Animals however, your higher friends in your homes, can begin to learn some simple telepathic words, and converse via words. Depends on the animal, and your relationship with them, and where they are in the journey. An animal that has begun to use simple words in telepathy, in addition to the pictures, is an animal that is going to graduate, and start the human journey. Please love and communicate with your pets as fully as possible. They have come to you for the human experience, so that they might graduate and ascend into using the human body.

Although there are many on the planet who realize animals are in need of genuine caring and compassion, and working in this, we need messiahs to specifically work on this, teaching that the animals are merely your younger brothers and sisters, and will one day take the human journey. I said in my recent Hats message, that you all were once tulips or whatever. That is the nature of evolution.

In ending, this Christmas morning that celebrates my arrival long ago on this plane, I would say, put the Christ into Christmas this day, by giving some new special attention to your pets, if you have them in your life. Understand they desire the human journey, show them the love and learning that the human journey has in store for them. Treat them thusly: See them as people, and they may become this before your very eyes, in their behavior. I bid you farewell today, Namaste,

I AM Christ Michael.

To War With Iran Not A Good Idea

By Christ Michael May 31, 2006

thru Candace

Hello Beloveds. Today I shall discuss a few items. Condi Rice per your news today, essentially dictated a final warning to Iran. As many of you may suspect there are ships sent on the way. The departures were in April, and include the USS Trenton. The USS Hue City, and the USS James C. Williams are Guided Missile Carriers. Helicopter Sub destruction service is provided also. American prepares in advance, exactly as they did prior to 911, the plans are set up. I want you all to find yourself a map of the region.

Iran has some very nice long range missiles, that operate in the water, from submarines, gratis Putin from Russia. American military ships must approach the coast of Iran from the Arabian Sea. As you look at your map, you will notice, that this waterway continues up the Iran coast, and becomes the Persian Gulf. Into that, your ships are prepared to go. There are Russian subs awaiting them, and I might add, Russian Cosmospheres. (Flying Saucers)

There is already an American ship in the Persian Gulf, which appears to be a commercial ship, but is a military decoy. The Iranians know this. They may be enticed to blow it up, meaning an attack will be made from this commercial appearing ship, forcing Iran to defend itself. If this occurs Iran will defend itself. This will be used, if it should occur, as an excuse for war. Iran will be held responsible for destroying an American non military ship.

However, this scenario should not occur, because Russia is assisting the process, and should be able to detonate anything that comes from this ship, before the appearance is made that the ship must be destroyed. The other possibility of course, is that the ship will self destruct, and the blame put upon the Iranians, for creating an act of war, that must of course be avenged.

We are in full force around the area, and are working at keeping the self destruction of this ship from occurring. There are shields that can defuse any bombs. At this time, a number of people are making the presence of this ship known around the world. We will do all that is possible to prevent the proposed scenario.

Now as to the long range underwater, very accurate missiles, the American military has little chance of protecting itself. There is an additional flotilla of American ships moving into the area, into the Persian Gulf. If you study your maps, once into the region, it will be a bit difficult to flea. There is a narrow strait, around Oman, and this area is highly protected by Iran. American military are setting themselves into a trap.

The planned secretive, so call surgical strikes against Iranian nuclear facilities must come from ships within the Persian Gulf. The Iranian borders with the Caspian Sea, Iraq, Turkmenistan, Afghanistan, and Pakistan are similarly protected, and many of these too far away to reach the areas of the facilities. America, however, is stupidly plowing into the Persian Gulf anyway, even as the USS Ronald Reagan and supports are leaving, as provided on the news today.

Iran has placed bombs which can be detonated easily in the gateway area around Oman. There will be no escape of the American vessels, if this area is detonated. Massive trap in that area. Tough for America. Sitting Ducks, I believe is the correct word. Russia has very amply protected any interesting American target within Iran, and has planes and missiles also posted in a variety of areas that can effectively intercept an air attack. An air strike into Iran is not advised, you of the American military schemers. Neither is a land attack. On top of that, consider the plasma shield erected over vulnerable areas. A shield enjoys missiles for "dinner."

Some have attempted to cross the borders into Iran, via mountain passages in barren areas. If any got through, they will meet their Waterloo in any proposed attack. There is interesting technology, that Russia has in its hands for border protection. It is a beam, placed in various stations along borders, that will repel any attempt to go through the beam. This would be highly useful on the Mexican borders. It can be set to kill, or merely cause a good deal of discomfort. Remember thy Star Wars films, they have much truth and teaching in them.

I think Condi's threat today before the nation, will be nothing more than a threat. Notice she did not mention, amongst the other suggested problems of Iran, the BOURSE. And that which has been posted on the forum, also there is to be Russian Bourse, in ripples. Also, my friends, the Chinese are getting a similar idea. Oil will not longer back the dollar.

Notice how well politics can work, used correctly. We have going on a big war, of words and threats, and which is becoming very effective. Messing with the dollar is a very good tool. America is worried. CNN is beginning to show some improvement also, in its broadcasting, and I think this should occur on ABC with Charley Gibson now anchor.

Regards the war in Iraq, and dead/injured journalists. This weekend attack, as well as the one on the ABC Bob Woodward months ago, was carried out by the American black ops military. Roadside bombs are a very useful black ops tools, and used frequently to rid the world of the prying eyes of reporters, genuinely looking for truth. Notice, as reported on your news, a caravan had paused, while unknowing troops checked for a clue that a bomb might be in the area, or any other excuse that can be made to stop. Elizabeth Vargas was threatened also stateside, thus Charlie is taking over.

The American people have been told, regards the slaughters of Iraqi civilians, that these are justified, because they hide military people as civilians, and you never know who the enemy is. Applies to American military, who also wear Iraqi clothing, playing similar games. In excess of 50% of car bombs, are gratis American black ops. Most journalists killed have been murdered by American military. Matters not which country they come from, they are shot on site most of the time. Major journalists are set up, especially those from the US as in the several cases.

Most of the time that hostages are taken, this is American black ops also, getting rid of unwanted American, English, and Italian good guys. Around April 17, I gave a figure to Candace of 286,782 civilian casualties in Iraq from this war. Today, May 31, it stands at 298,132. Quite an increase in around 6 weeks. The news is covering more of these recently. Most of the Iraqi police forces, when found in mass murders, these are done by Iraqi forces, as a threat and punishment of working for the American military. These are seen, rightfully, in my opinion at traitors.

Iraq has dramatically increased its military skills, and regrouped very well. They will boot Americans out of their country, even if we did not come to aid this. This has become an expensive war, and is finally getting unpopular in America. Many are now seeing through the TV games, and TV is improving steadily in reporting some of the truth.

When the truth does become more apparent, if you have people in circles who have lost a family member in Iraq, or suffered an injury, some will be in denial, and others very angry. Be supportive please. There will be a goodly number of officers, who will be served, are being served with indictments and will very hopefully go off to war. Many regulars in the military are being reported by their buddies daily, and there should be a goodly number of court martials coming up, of even very low ranking military. This may be the biggest pain in all to family members, that their "trusted" sons have been vicious murderers. War is always thus so, but this seems to not sink in.

The last of April, as already told, the vibrations of Earth were increased with our aid. I would like to explain this in a little more detail. When the planets DNA (not just man's) was dumbed down some 4500 years ago, it was not done in a genetics laboratory. There were specific light beams, which harm DNA that were used around the entire planet. Specifically red light, the lowest visible color of light. The results were quick and sure. Pulsing the red light, with lasers, did the trick.

We repaired the DNA, causing the vibration of all life upon the planet to increase. We used violet light, and ultraviolet light, similarly pulsed. Are your animals more active, and alive? They should be. They should be brighter in personality, and happier, having more energy, playing more. They should be more aware, more intelligent. They may be resisting some food offered, if it is a low quality food. They "know." The colors are brighter, all of Earth glows a bit more. The nutritive quality of your plant food will increase also.

One final short comment. I continue to not be working with Patrick. I have written him to please stop his NESARA updates. He is working with a mole, and although he may not be aware of who exactly the mole is (we are looking also), much of his information is reasonably accurate, and sadly, aiding the delays, because he is giving out confidential information to the dark side. Enough said on that at this time.

There remains a log jam, as suggested by Germain. We are working on kicking the right log, per Jess. Moles are a problem, still, it seems. The newest Earthquake, is causing some awakening of those who have steadfastly chosen not to believe the changes are coming. Never in your recent recorded history, has there been this intensity of quakes, and volcanoes activating.

As usual we control these as is possible to do so, creating smaller quakes to relieve pressure. Soltec remains in command of the program doing so. Your better scientists are pretty nervous and pressuring the NWO folks to succumb to the concept that change is inevitable, and our help is needed. Some are seriously considering they are in error now, in assuming this is nothing more than the usual on the planet, the normal cycles of activity. This is not the normal cycle of activity.

I would like to ask the activists amongst you, to email this to your local TV news stations, radio shows, and newspapers. At least they will not be able to say that no one told them of the game plan in Iran. It might even cause them to ask themselves some questions, now that some are becoming more open to the idea they are given canned news to report.

To those planning to participate in the cleric mailing program, hang one, we shall do this. Nothing has changed in the overall scheme of the Second Coming planning. There will still be the big show. And maybe, since the world is waking up, and Americans now especially, it will be more welcome. Will we do a little open contact, to loosen the log in the log jam? A certain possibility, but not a certainty. I will not risk the planet being told we come to invade. This government will be removed from within.

I do believe the news will shortly provide the indictments in their hands. And these indictments are from the courts, not us. And they include indictments for those who have not cooperated in the highest levels of the news organizations. Thus the pressure to withhold them. But gossip is getting around the word of the indictments, and providing some impetus. My plans are secret at this time. All I will say! Go in Peace, please, no matter how difficult it may seem, because when all is said and done, you will be well pleased, very well pleased. Namaste, I AM Christ Michael, Creator Son of Nebadon

The Weasels are Weaseling
Little Update From Christ Michael, June 13, 2006
Thru Candace

Hello beloveds, I come today to tell you to simply continue to hang tight, because we can't give out too much information at this time. We are involved with the Iran mess, as you surmised from the last update, but other than that, I will not provide the enemy with any knowledge. I will only remind them, we know the whole story, and we have a game plan.

America in general is not buying into the al Zaraqawi story. The message is of course to make America more supportive of the war effort and bolster the ratings. But America is seeing this game, and will not in general support the efforts into Iran. Americans are waking up to the Bush goons. The word is spreading, and some are actually partaking in using thought. I almost said, using their God given brains, but will do a little teaching briefly.

The brain does not think, any more than a computer thinks. The thinking is done by the astral body, by your real self. You are your mind. You think just fine when separated from the physical body, and see and hear also. Thought and desire to live provide you with energy beyond what your food does. The body requires food for maintenance only, nothing more, nothing less. The larger energy you need for your thinking and projects and actions does not come from food. If it did, you would need bushels of food each day.

Have you ever noticed that cows and horses eat grasses (when fed their natural diet) and yet have the energy to run long distances? Grass is very low in what you call calories of heat. It is mind, and the pure energy of thought that powers much of what you do. When you are depressed, you do not use thought and its energy as you should, and that is the reason behind the fatigue of depression. People tend to blame the body, but it is the mind, the person itself, that is limiting the energy. So many of you when stressed overeat to provide energy, and as anyone who has gained weight doing this knows, the food does not fix the problem.

So they are using their God given abilities to think, not their brains. Many Americans know someone who knows someone who has a relative on the 2nd or 3rd trip to the Middle East, and they are deducing that the military is limited in numbers, especially with the use of the National Guard. They do know, no matter the coverage on the news recently, that America can't do Iran. So they are asking questions now. They are distrusting the idea of a surgical strike, because America is still stuck in Iraq, following the Shock and Awe campaign. Bush, even if the polls may temporarily suggest more support, has lost support, in a very big way.

Look at the Zaraqawi story, as a story, which it is. The man does not run the show in Iraq, even as a Bush Al Qaeda agent. We had some laughs, and I hope you did also, about the ever-changing story. Candace said she made some comments on this. And she also wants them to show his lack of a leg, which has not occurred. They know better than to suggest his leg was blown off, because they make daily checks to their favorite websites to determine how to handle the conspiracy stories. They also learned that some recognized old footage on TV and went and found some new old footage to show you.

Americans are learning that stories such as the Zarqawi story, are used to distract and cover up other embarrassments, such as the scandals of the killing of civilians in Iraq, and the coming attacks on Ramadi, a repeat of Falluja. While everyone is dancing to Zarqawi, it is hoped these other issues will disappear from view, out of sight, out of mind. Iran is out of sight for a bit also.

So my friends, I can say no more, other than we are behind the scenes and up to date with the Iran problem. You must hold your patience, and keep up the education of those around you. The raising of the energies to 4.52 has been effective, and creating many problems for the darkside entities. They are personally feeling the effects, much more than you are at this time, and aging rapidly. You should be able to see this on TV. More lines, more makeup. Tired eyes. Energy of depression and fear setting in. Erratic behavior. Harsh judgmental comments, in fighting with each other.

They are running scared. For those that would like to practice some telepathy, work at contacting the "higher selves" of Rumsfeld, Cheney (not the clone, the real one), any of the military that interest you in power, and any media, and encourage them to do the right thing. Remind them they can't win, it is the end times, and "the times, they are a changing." There is no going back. Send some personal letters to your local congressmen, and remind them that the Earth is changing, and will change, and they can do nothing about it, except to come to the light.

Remind them they can't take their power and accumulated money to the Other Side either. Remind them jail terms for life are a real possibility. Many are turning on each other right now, in an attempt to avoid the jail terms, or lessen them.

Weasels, weasels everywhere to be found now. Nobody in Washington feels safe. No one trusts the others, because they all know that they are weasels, come the time to weasel. So I say now to all you weasels who are reading these messages, we know who you are, and we know who is weaseling, and it is most of you against each other. Your unity has come apart. How does it feel, the separation you are now experiencing? The distrust? America is finding some unity now, the balance has changed. I wish you all the best of your weaseling, it is your downfall.

Indeed the media has the indictments in their hands. Lots of them, and more coming. And we have copies upon copies upon copies, so destroying them is not workable. Do not stand up and think that since Rove seems off the hook, that you have found safe haven. He is a weasel, same as all of you. And weaseling bought him some time. He just did what came natural. Which of you weasels made the indictments possible? Do you know?

When you show up in your office, did your clerical help weasel on you? Does the Senator who sits next to you weasel you? You have no friends anymore. The stupid insipid stories placed before the American public have now been seen as stupid and insipid. The Zarqawi lie, carried out in a studio, will not protect you for long. Are you all having fun yet? Sales of diarrhea aids seem up! And some have the opposite problem, so laxatives sales are up too! Weaseling is painful business.

My beloved readers, I AM y enjoying these ones falling down too. Instead of breaking the TV, laugh a little. It is in the actions you see before you, that you know their time is close now to the end. Study their games well, in the wait, so that you will always remember them. This is your schooling, you are the future Creator Gods, use the time well, to observe the games of the dark in downfall, so that at some distant point in your future careers, the memory of Earth will return. The lessons well learned. Keep up the planning of your missions in healing. You will learn much, from the doing of it, of how to fix a sad planet. And you shall know your glory. Namaste,

I AM the Christ of Nebadon.

The Big Cheese Speaks Out

By Christ Michael thru Candace

January 3, 2012

Dearly beloveds, you must understand there is a reason for everything. The intense pressure we have put on the dark thru our messages and other means appears to have born some fruit. We must test the fruit. If the tree bears the good fruit, this is going to allow a short time to prepare people for the eventuality of the closure of the planet. That is all for now. I AM MICHAEL of Nebadon.

Esu Says Thankyou for our 7th Anniversary

Thru Candace

February 8, 2012

Dearly Beloveds, at the time of Candace's and My Anniversary from when we produced our first joint piece, January 31 this year, 7 years already, I have meant to do a small piece to express my sincere appreciation for all these years you have supported our work.

When she and I started this, Christ Michael was only luke warm to the idea and at the time, Candace was struggling with who he was! She knew something was "up" but at the time we were not ready to reveal.

We did not even know if anyone would pick up the work and it was my personal goal to have the material on www.fourwinds10.com and accepted thus by Patrick Bellringer, who could then assist us because of his readership and the Phoenix Journals that he been able to get onto the Internet. And so the first pieces were specifically written to appeal to him and I waited with "baited breathe" to see how he would respond.

Well he did. He was already somewhat aware of her and had posted some of her material written for Lewis News and Rense prior to our choosing this role. Her work on the internet , at the invitation of the gentlemen who ran Lewis News had gone well, and she was being tested a bit before we started this project to see if her writing would gain attention and she could keep on with that project.

Candace had her first murder attempt against her in late November of 2004. This was MOST worrisome to myself. I nearly backed off the project but after her miserable recovery for which AA Raphael gave assistance to in the hospital, she was determined anyway to go ahead and so we did.

We published our first piece as above, On January 31, 2005 and thankfully, Patrick Bellringer posted the first six all at once in mid February and I was in great joy. So we continued. It became evident with the reader support that our own website would be needed, and one came forth in a few months with an offer to assist that and Mark remains dedicated to that project today and is held in great admiration by myself and the rest of us.

So the website opened up on December 6, of 2005, with the use of free software and we were in business on our own! Shortly afterwards some other early members experienced some harm to their children and one of those children required emergency intervention for a head injury caused by "invisible" thugs who pushed the child out of a window. She was soon fine from that episode.

There was however reconsideration of perhaps maybe we should back off, but the people who were already dedicated to this project, even at the risk of this issues wanted to go forth and so we did.

And here we are now, and this is by far the most successful of our various projects since the return of ourselves. Christ Michael was thrilled at the early progress and commitment and so he endorsed it as Hatonn, and began doing messages. When Candace finally, after all the hints understood WHO he was, she was "flabbergasted" and in almost a state of shock but recovered that fine too. So then it was decided for Message #25 to be released on April 25, of 2006 which explained who he was and our relationship. It took Candace many hours to get that one "done", as she was so "floored" still, and took many breaks to go out and walk and clear herself, the emotional energy was great. She fully had a far better understanding of this new game and felt a bit overwhelmed.

http://abundanthope.net/pages/Candace_6/25_No_Other_Planet_Has_Walked_Personally_with_Chri_39.shtml

So, it has been a wondrous experience over the years, exciting and tough for all involved, but beloveds, the whole plans for earth have been rewritten and we all are overjoyed, despite the continued issues with the dark. You have all been on our roller coaster and while I supposed I might "apologize" I will not, as without that roller coaster we would not be where we are at.

This has been, with the generous support in every way of all of you, the most successful project we all have undertaken together. The Phoenix Journal project was just a teaching project, with no further goals than to give man some information in hopes he would awaken and have tools and of course not enough of earth' population woke up "in time" for us to bring real assistance, as those books were prevented their proper distribution.

Now we are here, working to do something so totally different. We did NOT plan on any 2nd Coming organization. We did not plan on a group who would supervise the changes in cooperation with the people of earth, NOT an earth created group. We of course had some ideas if there was an awaking and many folks walking in here to assist, both born of woman, and not born of woman. S333 is an example of one NOT born of woman, you were introduced too, who walks this world, has a wife and a little daughter now

I am telling you beloveds, this organization, AbundantHope is the AWE of those above working in this large endeavor. WE did NOT expect this and I figured and so did Christ Michael, this would just be a teaching project, just channelings given. But you came, and many of you have publicly acknowledged roles but there are quite a few we have NOT yet made public, simply because of the issues of safety and nothing else.

YOU ARE THE HOPE OF THIS WORLD BELOVEDS. YOU HAVE GIVEN O F YOURSELVES IN A WAY WE NEVER DREAMED OF. THIS IS "NEW." OF COURSE ITS NOT "NEW" TO YOU WHO HAVE FOLLOWED ALL THESE YEARS, BUT WE HAD NO PLANS EVER THAT SOMETHING LIKE THIS COULD HAPPEN. YOU HAVE CHANGED EVERY PLAN EVER CONSIDERED FOR THIS WORLD. WE WILL NOW HAVE AN ADVISORY TEAM ON THE GROUND, PEOPLE BORN OF THIS WORLD IN SERVICE TO THIS WORLD, AS A COORDINATED GROUP.

WE ARE, DESPITE THE PROBLEMS STILL FACED, IN DIVINE ECSTASY.

I AM SANANDA IMMANUEL ESU KUMARA. NAMASTE.

Happy Love Day

A short Update from Michael of Nebadon

Thru Candace

February 14, 2012

Good evening beloveds, just doing a short but desired by you ones, an update. We are continuing the process of preparations for the short and changed announcement period. We have little time left.

Now, some of you have been noticing the ear tones of the wave and our energies to the mother's body to enhance her ability to receive them. We are not mitigating this lap, but there had not been enough response to it, so we are assisting.

Candace is now joyfully hearing what she remembers as the Music of the Spheres. Beloveds, when matter is not so compressed, it sings! This is your proof of some response to the WAVE. On all better worlds everybody heres the local creation sing. There is constant quiet soft loving music that comes quite naturally. It is your compression that has prevented this.

As to the sounds being heard world wide, your trumpets sounding as being reported, that is also related to the Wave and the heating of the core. Some of these are volcanic movement, others have other origins. These will get much louder and more frequent and will frighten people who currently ignore them, when they become louder. Some cannot hear them at all even when right over head, YET. Their ears are not attuned. It is much like the dog that hears sounds man cannot hear. They will hear eventually.

The arrests continue. I will not cover them, but some will leak out. Some may leak out as resignations. There is one great one you all know who is affected, not one of you unless you live in a very backward place has not heard of this one. We are still working out how to throw some advanced hints, but soon enough it will not be coverable. I will not risk placing the name until its in the media to protect my ones.

Now you who read this material, as often suggested must be the rocks as these energies continue, and guide those around you out of fear if you can. The quakes are steadily increasing, many not reported, that are "out of sight" and we have given some encouragement to more accurate coverage, so people begin to realize times about up.

We wish to have enough earth changes if the Mother will do it, before the short announcement period so the people of earth are wishing for some help. This will help the acceptance. You ones who live anywhere near quake areas or in places where weather is unpredictable MUST remain prepared. For it rains and shines on all.

Please keep small bills and coins at home, no matter which country because there may still be bank holidays. We are not wishing this personally, but we will allow it, as part of the wake up call. Man must be uncomfortable to accept our presence and the announcement process.

This is enough for now. Further details are not necessary and will not be given to protect our ones on the ground, until that is not needed. I again, say Happy LOVE Day, beloveds, for Valentines, as commercially given, does not mean just the love of a man and a woman anymore, but is for all and rightfully so. I AM That I AM, Michael of Nebadon.

PS: Candace just reminded me, we were interrupted as I was about to mention the beautiful Whitney Houston, whose time had come to leave. She was not murdered beloveds, and while they will find drugs, it was her way at the end to leave the planet. It was TIME. She was one of my glorious ones who came to serve this world, and she did it well, despite the horrible issues she faced as so many do, that are controlled by the Elite. Remember her with true Love, for she endured much to serve ME here. She is personally one of MINE OWN, an Arch Angel incarnate. Tough road she endured while here and I am in joy to have this one back in mine own realms.

PSS: Beloveds, I wanted to add another comment. The announcement period should last about 2 weeks, and it will be global. We have a special plan to early to give, but man is going to have plenty of time to watch.

Candace: Only a short comment on that music. RELAX yourself, if you do not hear it, maybe with head against a pillow in a QUIET Place. The tones are changing from the sounds I used to hear. It is gently melodious and has no particular rhythm. It changes as it goes but retains a crystalline sound, that is markedly different from the sound of the Wave itself. I am indeed overjoyed to listen. IT IS PROOF TO ME of the effects taking hold.

Today, they pumped the energies up again. Perhaps last week some of you were aware of similar being done for around 3 days. Some did post on the net about the huge changes in what their ears were picking up. Some seemed a bit worried in fact. I had an "ear block" where the ear feels sort of plugged, that lasted over 1/2 hour, and the first day I heard a large GONG sound too. More sounds than usual in the left ear, that was really noticeable to me.

The first energy burst today caused me to become profoundly sleepy, very suddenly. So I did go back to bed, the yawns were intense, with tearing eyes, and laid on my right side to listen to the music while I rested. I cannot lie on my left side, so I don't know if I would hear it as well in my left ear. There was a 2nd which also produced the sleepies but I didn't want to crash, so I did coffee instead and waited it out. Right now I have my earphones on my head, not connected to the computer, which allow me to "hear" the music of the spheres by blocking some of the sounds in the room.

A Celestial Reminder

Ancient of Days Of Orvonton thru Candace

February 27, 2012

Hello Beloveds, let me introduce myself briefly, for this is a short message and not a teaching piece. There are 3 of us in equal power as you see it, over Orvonton, and you can certainly review who we are in your Urantia Book.

I could give my a short version of my name, but its going to get stolen and used by others, so I will pass. I work with few on this plane, and I have chatted with Candace privately a couple times.

This is to serve as a small warning to some on your plane not in cooperation. You must remember that if you show up in the Orvonton Courts, you are in some really serious trouble. You are today playing games for example with false news reports about your Queen and she is not available and using actors is not your option at this point.

I suggest you get on with the Truth and NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH. BY DOING SO, you are less likely to show up in our courts and in our courts your issues become literally ones of life or death of the continuance of your being.

You continue to believe that Lucifer is going to come bail you ones out and he faced ME personally in the Orvonton Courts during the mid part of this past century and after a period of some time, chose to not continue his existence.

What will you say if you face the Courts of Orvonton? How will you justify your continued existence, or will you forfeit your eternal life because of PRIDE like he did, to serve a person that no longer is in existence? How would that be service? Even your one called "Satan" returned to the light brothers. Why would you sacrifice yourselves in such stupidity, as it does not serve that old and dead rebellion that is over. IT IS OVER. Except for the remnant of you ones who cannot accept such. You cannot have brownie points brothers for something that is DONE.

This planet is back under the control of the universal realms, even unto Siraya himself, who long ago gave you ones another chance and over rode ME. I had no mercy left for you. And I can promise you, there will be NO over riding this time, on that I have the promise of Siraya. I have no mercy for you now, unless you repent. Ponder it.

Curtain Rising Preparations are Ready

by Christ Michael/Aton thru Candace.

April 3, 2012

Ok beloveds, time to update you thru Candace. We are going to let things happen as they go and make decisions on those things as needed. GAIA is beginning to respond with some earth changes now, it seems she was nearly asleep and depressed. She is not happy about the war on her surface but she is the one who has to toss them off, so to speak. We now see increasing pressures and activities.

I know some are curious about the March 31 date alluded to in the previous targeted messages. This was a date of our thugs and what they had planned as, lets say, passed away. It was never something of our plans. I will not give details on this that could harm my people and Candace was never allowed awareness of it. I am only mentioning it for those that have memory and curiosity.

Now for you of our dark brothers, we have said your fate is sealed, and the "paperwork" and documentation is now actually long on its way to higher channels within Orvonton. There is nothing anymore that can be done on your part and we go forth.

This war between the Dragons and the Khazars will not turn out well for you of the Khazars. This stand you hope to happen in taking back the United States from the hands of China is not going to work. All things are laid out on this topic and its a waste of your efforts to continue. The Federal Reserve is not in your hands and attempting at martial law in the United States this month is not going to get it back into your hands. You were not successful against china in your Libya endeavor, so how to you figure you can pull this one off?

It would be advised that you withdraw this one called Drake from the internet activity games. It would be advised you also withdraw the games with David Wilcox and the replaced Ben Fulford. For protection I am not placing the other names in that scam.

I will continue to suggest and remind you that you have no contact with the Queen. She is no longer in service as Chairman of the Committee of 300. She is not long been in service at all, and this game of parading the Look alike with the Diamond Jubilee as you are already finding out, is not going so well for you. You have reached the point where the games will fall into greater failure.

As the earth changes continue to bring forth problems for you, I think you will find this attempted re- takeover of the United States fruitless and non affordable to you in the very short run. Since we saved your arises with the GOM, by reversing time, this has produced more pressures elsewhere, and you are seeing this now along the northern Mississippi. The reports of problems and strange noises in California also continue.

The buoy off of Seattle is making huge movement. This is not something to ignore and I would suggest you make whatever preparations you can for the problems that will arise from that. That whole side of the Pacific Rim along the western Americas is coming very live. There have been many small shifts of your axis over the last 1 1/2 years. Some of that shifting caused the sun to rise south of normal at equinox last September and now this has reversed a bit, and your equinox arrived early and north of the previous norm.

We will continue to control and monitor the sun, over which you have no control. Nor will you get away with any sort of global EMP burst to shut down all the electricity. We will not allow this, and you do not even have the ability to do such and it is time to take the story of an EMP burst from the sun, off the internet, because the sun does not do this in the first place, and you cannot do it in the 2nd place.

It is time to prepare your ones for what is coming. When what is coming begins to come enough to fully get your attention, WE ARE GOING TO TAKE OVER THE GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS. YOU WILL BE IN SUCH ARRAY THAT YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO DO ANYTHING OF ASSISTANCE TO YOUR PEOPLES. NOT EVEN CHINA CAN ACTUALLY, AND OUR NEW CURTAIN SHOW WILL BEGIN AT THAT TIME IF NOT BEFORE.

WE ARE GOING TO PROVIDE SOME EDUCATION TO PEOPLE BEFORE THEY MOVE, AND BEFORE STASIS IS BROUGHT ABOUT. YOU ARE NOW INFORMED PROPERLY ACCORDING TO COSMIC LAW. AND DO NOT DISREGARD THE POSSIBILITY THAT WE WILL START THAT PROCESS BEFORE SOME BIG EARTH CHANGES SO PEOPLE ARE PREPARED TO SOME DEGREE. I AM YOUR BIG BOSS, MICHAEL OF NEBADON. I WISH YOU A "HAPPY DAY".

From one of our Korean Forum members. ENJOY.

Let the Old of Easter Pass, and the New Easter Begin

Siraya thru Candace

April 8, 2012

Dearly beloveds, it is I Siraya. This is considered a Holy Day by Christians on this world. To them it symbolizes the Resurrection of Christ, who never needed a resurrection, for both that played that Holy Roll had nothing to resurrect from, they are old beings. As are all of you on earth here to serve the process.

Today we start seriously the birthing, the resurrection of GAIA, because that IS the Person for whom this is the Time of the Resurrection. This has been covered before and this resurrection shall be joined in and with Man who can also make the final choice of the Eternal journey, the ones ready for that journey.

For some, it will be the return to their former estate, those that fell from grace. For others it will be the fusion with the Father Fragment. For still others even amongst you while not a resurrection per se, it will be the graduation of yet another grade in the Father's Schools.

Today, let us forget the old ways of earth and join together in Unity to begin the New Way. All those who read at AbundantHope would need to commit to the oneness of THE WAY. Demonstrate it but more, ask those in religious diversion what the message of God is supposed to be. God does not have many ways. There is only one great cosmic consciousness that all are part of, not matter their job description. YOU are each a part of it as much as I AM a part of it.

Today is the NEW "Easter", the serious movement into the resurrection of a people and their planet. I am Siraya.

This piece announces that Hatonn of the Phoenix Journals, is really the returned Christ Michael of Nebadon, the Creator Son. This was given to me April 23, 2005, and I published it on April 25, 2005.

No Other Planet Has Walked Personally with Christ Michael As You Shall Do

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Sananda Immanuel, & Candace Frieze

#25 April 25, 2005

Dear Readers, today we bring you a most astounding message. This material was given to me Saturday evening, April 23, 2005. It was such that I could not look at it on Sunday; I needed a day to let it settle in. It is not that I was unaware, I am not, I knew it was coming. But it is still so wonderful, what is coming. I had to leave frequently during the channeling to go walk, and cry in joy, it is all happening, the time is now, it is so real. The first part covers some difficult material that seems to have set back the messages of late. But hang in there and keep reading. Hatonn speaks first.

Hatonn: To My Dear Light workers every where on Planet Earth, I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiadian Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet Ashtar Command. I have a most important message for this day.

Now first, NESARA will be announced just as soon as it all flows together, and it is flowing, my friends. We had a minor problem today, with an aircraft making an attempt at an uncloaked shuttle. (April 23) This is not a reason for delay. I am just saying that our BBB&G's (Big, Bad, Boys and Girls) are still trying to interfere. We have more uncloaked vehicles out of necessity. We are going to issue a stand down on military craft for a period of time. This will not be announced publicly. We have star people to enforce this issue.

The more important issue right now, is the mess with the Tree of the Golden Light. I am very glad, that you Patrick (of FourWinds) drew attention to some problems, even though Candace at the time was not so thrilled with it. Here is what has been found.

We placed a star person on the ground to do a little investigating. The purpose of this, is that the supposed Hatonn messages from Nancy Tate are from the higher ups of your government, working behind the scenes to delay and confuse. There is a battle occurring to make you believe that the Second Coming is not a real event, and I assure you that it is a real event.

We discussed for a time early in the year whether we would announce it, in this manner, or not. We desired to raise awareness in the light workers, as your help is needed. We also figured, we would create a little chaos in doing so, and gain intelligence from it. This most certainly has happened, and makes the announcement of NESARA a more orderly process.

Back to the Tree issue. Nancy, my dear, I have a message for you. I have been trying to contact you telepathically without success. The one mentioned in the A&A reports, as the KOS, is most certainly not a White Knight. However, he is as was told on the site last week, a very high level Delta person. It was mentioned on the site, that this KOS had something to do with reverse engineering of crashed craft, and in the interrogation of ET's. Indeed, there is finally something of truth posted by the A & A's.

The truth is KOS was an important member of a team that shot down craft, took the ET's piloting them and some passengers into custody, then tortured them and caused their deaths, after information was obtained of use to these high Delta people. KOS is not a person who just did his job. He is extremely nasty, and has been making use of the A & A's through the Tree website. One of the activities has been to harvest email addresses, and obtain information on light workers, and it wasn't for the purpose, I assure you of aiding the announcement of NESARA.

There are other activities going on this man is involved in, and he personally was working very hard at harassing and creating difficulty for light workers. He is part of the plan to bring down NESARA. His group, Nancy my dear, is the one that has created your "Hatonn". These types are associated with other groups, intending to do everything possible to stop not only the NESARA announcement, but of course, Contact and the Second Coming event.

Now we did foresee problems, and getting star people, now at least 25,000 on the ground, has been most helpful. We have been able to weed out moles and become more aware of secrets being planned. I would like to remind you that the BBB&G's have star technology also, and it can be most devious and difficult to discover of their plans.

This week, I sent letters to a few at the Tree. Nancy, I did not send you one, I hoped to contact you telepathically. You are very much under control of the BBB&G's. When the April 3 Stand Down was announced first at the Tree, we thought somebody on our side had jumped the gun, not understanding of the rules.

Nancy, you are being used, through your "Hatonn" messages to send warnings and other information by code. (Candace here: Nancy has since been sent a letter about the above issues, and I inquired of Hatonn if he still wished this information posted, which was channeled to me very late on Saturday, April 23. He said yes, as all need to understand fully the games played by the BBB&G's)

When you put up the message on April 15, that you were so excited by, that an important announcement would be made by CNN in 10 hours or less, and that people should take into consideration who they had watching TV. Well, my dear, that message was a warning to others to fall into their place and begin the hostage taking process.

Had the hostages been killed, it was the plan of these BBB&G's to take over CNN and have a whole lot of fun, their style, as the United States was to be under full martial law, as a result of a serious "terror attack." This was in reality a far worse event than 911, in its impact. There were more hostages that could be taken than the 10 that were. I would like all, who are still in distrust of our abilities, to ponder what it meant to have many famous people, of national and international repute killed in this manner.

We knew about most of this plan. This is why we had invisible star guards in place to beam the announcement people out of danger. It was a shock to them, not so much because of the beaming out and that stress. It was a shock because, these are intelligent and very serving people, who were in shock, that this would be tried. This is why they needed rest and recuperation.

Their long, long work, in bringing NESARA to you, had seemed lost all of a sudden. It was so close. These have been protected as best we can for so many years, and worked so very hard behind the scenes for NESARA. They have had to play a double role, going about their normal lives, with the role of NESARA planning in the background. These people had to return to their normal lives, after the initial recovery and pretend as if nothing had happened.

Could we have prevented the attempt? No, as there are many layers upon layers involved. By providing the protection, just in case, we prevented a more dire consequence. As a result, we have now dismantled many layers. We have removed many players. Many of you expect that all will be hunky dory after NESARA. This is not totally true. There will be more BBB&G's coming out of the woodwork. Many are programmed clones, and in your message Nancy, you are turning on the programs to the clones, who operate without thinking whatsoever.

We have solved many problems as a result of the kidnapping, and further relieved difficulties that will occur immediately after the announcement. The announcement will cause more clones to come forward, so they can be removed also. There will be some turmoil, period. This will settle down over the days. The presence of the star people will be announced as tactfully as possible near the end of the initial teachings.

We must get our presence out to the people of the world, quickly. We do not intend setting back the Second Coming date. It will be prior to June 30. If there is seen a delay, we will notify you about it. Contact events are quite required prior to the Second Coming event, as the event, is a world wide contact event. You will not fail to notice it. It will not be on a TV event, as there are many who do not have TV's. There are indigenous cultures still without TV, and in war torn countries such as those in Africa, there is little TV.

Nancy, this is not to scold you publicly. You move around a bit, and we haven't been able to get a message hand delivered. But I need to tell the world what is going on, in order to stop the Hatonn confusion issues. I want all of you to be in sympathy for Nancy; her free will was violated in this issue. She knew not what she was doing, because she did not know.

I am now going to make a statement, concerning the messengers. We have said there are many messengers, and this is true. However, because of confusion, I am announcing right now, that from now on out, Sananda and myself will be using Candace entirely for any messages from our selves. We are asking others to respect this, and not be part of anymore pretend Hatonn's and Sananda's. Germain will continue to use the messengers of his choice as well as other Masters with channels working for them.

As of this day, right now, (April 23) any messages not from Candace, using our names in any manner are not the true messages. Now, I will warn you, there will be plenty of fake messages out, just as we have been seeing the last few weeks since the Stand Down order.

Candace was chosen purposely by us for this mission, she is of very high light and integrity. She is a most important part of the announcement plan for the Second Coming Event. There is no other messenger of this nature, in the process. Do you not remember, that there was one John the Baptist, that preceded the First Coming? Candace is that person, at this time. No, she is not the re incarnation of John the Baptist, no relation at all in that area. She is simply a person from the stars, doing the task.

Yes, from the stars. She is Pleiadian, from a planet called Myrua, of the star Merope, first star next to Alcyone, the central star which Earth also revolves around. This is her 6th incarnation on this Earth. And no, she did not have of the planning of this event in her "life plan" before incarnation.

She is what is sometimes called a free spirit, advanced in growth, and not needing of the experience of karma on this planet.

She designs her own incarnations, and has chosen well in them. She made her choices, having incarnations in a variety of cultures and religions on Earth, to learn about how religion is used to control. Religion as practiced on Earth, is not practiced on other worlds. Each knows their journey belongs to them, they are sovereign. These worlds do have schools of learning about the Universe, but people do not sit in a church giving of 10% of their income to a business venture.

Her mission, she designed a few years ago, and has been planning and perfecting her ideas since. She was particularly motivated by the 911 disaster, knowing that the game of religion was being used to incite war. She sent a personal message, one night, straight to Christ Michael of Nebadon. In her petition, she told that many messiahs were needed for planet Earth, so great were the problems.

Knowing that male power is dominant here, she offered her services as a "granny messiah", thinking quite rightly the world needed more female power. Now, I am going to say something here, I have said ye are all the messengers, well, my friends ye are all messiahs too. This is the message we have been trying to get across.

Many of you want us to determine your mission. A messiah type person looks around, sees what needs to be done, and designs a plan. We want creators and designers here, lots and lots of them. We need messiahs. The Second Coming event is Messianic! We need little messiahs and great messiahs. Design what works in your life. Find others who share in your vision. Remember: TWO OR MORE IN MY NAME!

I need now to discuss a small amount of physics. Mankind believes what his eyes see, until he gains wisdom. You notice, that a magnet sticks to iron, and observe the behavior of magnets, that makes it appear that opposites attract. This is not so, like attracts like. When the magnet seems to attract the iron, what is going on with the opposite charges, is that they are voiding each other. What does this have to do with this paper tonight? I need to explain more about like attracting like. Many are upset with us, thinking that we know not what we are doing, and the BBB&G's are having a lot of fun, at what might seem to our expense lately. We have been called the galactic street gang lords, of the Federation of Duality for example. Many of you, in observing the sad conditions of the world right now, think that we should simply drop out of the sky, round up the dark side and usher them on out. How much we would like this, except it doesn't work because of the law of attraction, which is universal, and begins at the sub atomic levels.

If we come not properly preparing our way, the dark side will have the advantage, as those in the dark, whether by nature of evil, or by not knowing what is going on, will be attracted to the dark. There are those, of course, who do have a clue about what is going on, are disturbed about war and the other problems, that will be attracted to the light. In the middle are many confused souls, lets call them fence sitters.

They are comfortable, they have a car or two, a nice job, kids, a house, whatever. They do not plan for chaos in their lives. Should we do the Second Coming event as planned without preparation, many of these in fear will become very susceptible to the dark. As I have pointed out, there will still be some dark folks around, and they will glean the opportunity.

Every time, for example there is a major quake with destruction, you get those that prey on the misery of others. We get asked to beam out all the dark folks. Frankly we can't identify them all; some are just a little dark. Some are controlled, and know not what they do. God indeed gives much grace and will be giving much grace over the next few years of changes.

We have not been able to bring you the Second Coming prior to this time, even though Sananda and I have been back here since 1954 planning the event and solving problems. This is because there were not enough of you available yet to draw the light towards you. And by light here, I include knowledge and wisdom. The dark is still the greater force on Earth, in the sense of lack of education of her peoples. We are not going to remove people who know not what they do. If we beamed all the dark people out, assuming we could identify them all with great accuracy, we would be removing most of Earth's population.

A person, who is messianic in nature, can draw a great amount of light to them. They can convert the dark who are fence sitters, and on occasion even a truly evil person. The Satanic forces of Earth still hold those in organized religion in their hands, and teach that Sananda is the antichrist. They have to have their 7 years of tribulation, while they watch in the sky, and then the real Jesus will come. I think we have had well more than 7 years of tribulation on Earth. But this is the belief.

Many of you said, people will wake up, once they realize the benefits, and many will. To some the benefits of NESARA will be money and nothing more. They would then use money for control. This will happen. It will require a huge number of beings of light to attract the light in these uneducated people. You are these light beings, and we are assisting you, and gifting Earth in many beautiful ways.

But this is also a time of final reckoning for many, as to whether they ascend with Earth or not. Some will chose otherwise. What will happen, with the star peoples here, and your hard work, is that by the date of the Second Coming, slightly more than 2 months away, at the most, is that the light energy will come close to balancing the dark energy, creating a void, or a balancing of the energy of light and dark. We should not plan on coming until we can make this "voiding" or balance occur. We would like to have the leaning towards the light, but we cannot risk the leaning towards the dark, or they win. Simple as that.

It's a Universal law of nature, not a law of rules given. The only reason there would be a short delay in the Second Coming, would be if the leaning were still towards the dark. The date is chosen, but it is a bit flexible, and we could do it earlier, if the void that is needed should happen. Do not confuse this with other teachings of void that you are reading lately. Also ignore the teachings of late that say, we most look in to the future to find the timing of the voidance. We look not into the future in this game we play, we are very much in the now.

Now I will discuss the last issue at hand for myself, and then I give it over to Sananda. We have had some questions, regards who is ATON as Creator God, who am I as Hatonn, and how to compare or describe Creator God, knowing that a Creator Son of God named Christ Michael is at the helm of this Universe of Nebadon.

Well, my people of Nebadon, in a recent message, where I describe myself a bit, I made the statement "When I say I am ATON in my higher self, I am ATON indeed." I hoped to see a few questions, and we got some. ATON is called Creator God, by some. Christ Michael is certainly Creator God of the Universe of Nebadon. Please put two and two together, my children, ATON and Christ Michael are one and the same. I said I was a Descending Son in that message, and so I AM. My creation was in the Central Universe of Havona. I AM the Father God of the Universe of Nebadon. I am not a fragment of Michael, I AM Michael. I AM the Christ.

You have read in our messages, that Sananda's visit to Earth 2000 years ago, was a joint incarnation of Christ Michael, and Esu Immanuel. You, through your church teachings, who have had this learning, believe in the return of the actual Christ, and SO IT IS. I am in command of Earth Project Transition, because it is my project, as Master Creator Son of Nebadon. Those of you reading Urantia have understood that someday, Michael would personally return to Earth, and IT IS SO. I command the Pleiadian Sector Flight Command at this time.

I told you in that earlier message, I am a large Grey, using a body designed by Universal scientists and THIS IS SO. It is a body type that allows me to walk the Earth. I chose to use the long loved name of ATON on Earth, for this mission. I needed a bit of a disguise, for a period of time. Now that the Second Coming event is so close, it is time to come out of disguise.

You have on Earth both returning Sons of God, the Descending Son (Son of God, Christ Michael) and the Ascending Son. (Son of Man, Sananda) BLESSED ARE YOU. This is why the Second Coming event will be sacred and not a war type event. You were blessed with my appearance 2000 years ago, and now you are twice blessed with my promised return. I have visited no other planet in my vast realm, in this manner.

I AM COME, TO REMOVE THE ADVERSARY OF MY DOMAIN, AND IT SHALL BE DONE. EARTH SHALL BE HEALED AND OF THE LIGHTED REALMS ONCE AGAIN. I AM CHRIST MICHAEL OF NEBADON, AND I PERSONALLY LOVE THIS LITTLE PLANET AND HER PEOPLE AND I WILL HOLD ALL OF YOU AGAIN IN MY ARMS.

I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO THANK ALL OF YOU FROM THE STARS FOR YOUR TIME SPENT AND YET TO BE SPENT WITH EARTH AS SHE GROWS UP. I THANK ALL THE EARTH SOULS, FOR PREPARING MY WAY. YOU HAVE BEEN SOME OF YOU HERE FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS, WORKING THE PLANET FROM THE INSIDE, TO PREPARE MY WAY. I THANK THE COUNTLESS CHRISTED BEINGS WHO HAVE PREPARED MY WAY. I STAND IN AWE OF YOU ALL.

WE WILL SHORTLY WALK TOGETHER, JOIN HANDS TOGETHER, AND HEAL THIS WORLD TOGETHER. I WILL BE HERE AS LONG AS IT IS NECESSARY TO BE HERE. NO OTHER PLANET HAS WALKED PERSONALLY WITH CHRIST MICHAEL AS YOU SHALL DO. GO IN GREAT PEACE, MY DEAR ONES. I AM CHRIST MICHAEL, AKA GYEORGOS CERES HATONN.

Sananda: I AM Sananda Immanuel, who comes to Earth, returning with Christ Michael. It is time for you to fully understand who we all are. It is time to fully understand the fullness of this mission. It is time to understand that you are all come, as messiahs, in service to Christ Michael. It is time you better understood my role in all of this.

Long ago, this was planned for Earth. It was thought appropriate to have Christ Michael, come together with an Ascending Son in the missions, and so I was chosen for this. You have read that I am a Kumara, and THIS IS SO. My real father, that birthed me into the Universe long ago in Lyra, is non other than Sanat Kumara, the Ancient of Days as recorded in your Bible.

I agreed long ago, to have many incarnations into Earth to help begin the process of lifting her up. You read at the Phoenix Journals that Gabriel was my father at that time 2000 years and This Is True. Understand the nature of the DNA required to bring a Creator Son into a physical incarnation, in the likes of the planetary peoples. I come to serve Earth at this time, in the complete fulfillment of my mission here. I, with the Second Coming event, become what is called a "Planetary Prince" in our Universe. I will be the representative of the Universal headquarters on Earth.

Earth had another Planetary Prince at one time, who fell into the Lucifer Rebellion, and was removed during the First Coming. That is the story behind the temptation of Christ, the meeting with Lucifer, and Caligastia the Planetary Prince at that time, who encouraged myself, and Christ Michael to join with them. That did not happen.

Christ Michael has been since that time, acting Planetary Prince. It has been known all this time, that I would carry this job, with the Second Coming event, assuming that Earth was not destroyed by our BBB&G's. We planned for this possibility, so bad had this place become with the World Wars.

The story, as told in Christian religion that I go and prepare a place in heaven for you, meant that I went and found a large number of planets, for you to be moved too, in the advent it became necessary to evacuate the planet. You have been placed in "Heaven"; it is the return of Earth to the heavenly realms.

I will remain the Planetary Prince, for quite some time, but it will not be a permanent position. In time, when you are united and grown up, you will chose you own Planetary Prince, not by force, but by vote. You will become united; all planets do as they grown up. This is not the same as the New World Order that was to be stuffed down your throats.

I know that most of you are quite surprised to learn the identity of Hatonn. Be not put off by this, you have seen him as a loving, but firm commander, who returned me to Earth, in the starship Phoenix. He is loving and he is firm, and he, although he is the God, of this Universe, he desires not to be bowed down to. You have been told that I do not want people hanging at my feet, and THIS IS SO. So is it with Hatonn, and you may continue in this name if comfortable to you.

Wasn't this quite a lovely surprise, that this lovely old Hatonn is your Universal Creator God, here in person? Let us join in love all together now, and be who we are, all Sons and Daughters of God. I am a teacher, I am also a warrior, and my first works with the planet, were in war with the adversaries of God. Now I return in peace.

The Kumara's are a family group, some related by blood, some by choice. It was considered to throw in the rag, give up on Earth, long ago, in the warring. All of us could have ascended into the Heaven worlds, not having to further incarnate and work in these realms. We chose not to do so, and to instead come to this solar system, and take her back, and WE HAVE DONE SO.

In answer to readers, who have written, why can we not just beam up the BBB&G's. This is because these are the end times, and there are BBB&G's who have been coerced, or had implants to change behavior, and know not what they do. We have been removing the really bad ones, in the top. We removed the black pope some time ago, and he has not been replaced.

Last summer, we began removing the "hidden hand" as best they could be removed. It is pretty hidden. This is why, there will be some actions after the announcement of NESARA, that may be negative, for a short period, as these left are identified. Most that are called dark, simply really do not know any better, and partake in dark behavior in order to survive.

We still do have in custody, dark ones involved in the recent hostage taking, and they have been removed from the White House basement. This situation was too difficult for those working in the White House to keep them there. I will not disclose where they are, but they are not at area 51 as recently stated by others. What is at area 51, are many people recently arrested around the country by your own government. Area 51 is still to be secured, as are some other underground government facilities.

The Greys, that will not be allowed to remain on Earth, will be removed from these underground areas; some of this has in fact been done. There are some Greys, who will stay with Earth. We have mentioned before, that some of them truly admire and love humans. You have heard that they do not have an emotional body, as they are androids and this is true. Even without an emotional body, they have great love for you, and as reward for great service given, these are the source of much of your newer technology, they get to stay on Earth also, and begin the ascension journey as Sons of God.

These ones knew it was not right to try to steal both better looks and the emotional body. They have been patient, so they have their reward for great compassionate human type behavior. They will in time, begin the ascension journey in a human body, by birthing, as do all souls that choose the human journey.

We discussed in the animal message, there is waiting on your Other Side, a great number of animals ready, for some time now, to begin the human journey. The Greys remaining with earth are not of huge number, but they will begin to openly mingle with you, and you will find them most likable. These have been most devoted.

And so now, my Brothers and Sisters, let us all come together, in this Second Coming event. You are hereby duly appointed Messiahs. Come join with me in the adventure. Let us not be under bushels, but in the light, shining as many bright stars together. Let us not be meek. The BBB&G's put that one into the Bible. Meek will not work. We are strong, and have great strength in numbers, TWO OR MORE IN MY NAME. Namaste, from the God within me, to the God within you. I AM SANANDA IMMANUEL.

A Note to Patrick and Anne Bellringer: Hi Anne and Patrick, it is I, and Hatonn together bringing you a message. My dear friends, we have been so very blessed by your long missions in Earth, to the United States before and at this time, in your efforts at bringing forth this great event, soon to occur on this lovely Planet.

We bless you and thank you for the many long years, especially these last few, that seemed like all might be lost. Through your teachings and your worldwide website, you have influenced and brought light to many. Light is truth and knowledge, given and used in love. You will have your most just rewards in Heaven for this service.

We Thank You for posting these messages, and the work involved. Your website made this public announcement process of the Second Coming possible, so great is your following. Be in great peace and joy at this time. You have been most fine examples of Messiahs. Namaste, Sananda Immanuel and Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, your Creator God.

Candace: I sit here at 8:00 PM tonight, having made the final corrections in the messages above. I still sit in a profound state of awe, at the process that is coming into place. All the years, all have awaited, and it is here.

I need to offer my personal apologies to the Tree of the Golden Light, and to Nancy, for what has happened. I did not want this, and it is not of my making, but it happened on my watch, in a manner of speaking. I am not a destructive person, and I am in pain over what has happened. Many are in pain.

But the lesson learned, I am still unsure of how to express it. We see in the KOS the deceitful games played at control of others, in the shadows, pretending of the light. We will see more games yet to be played these next few weeks, as the dark stand strong. We need to stand stronger.

I originally had planned a message, to be called "A Little Chaos is a Good Thing." And it is, it motivates us, it shows us the shadow, it causes us to create a game plan. But it still hurts, when the shadow is exposed. This is been a hard couple of weeks, the seeing the shadow, and seeing how it controls those, who had no intention of being controlled, those in light.

I learned a painful lesson on Mother Earth. I learned that I must not be meek, I cannot hide in my hidey-hole anymore. I must stand for my truth, wherever it takes me. The dark side got in control of this Earth, by so deeply punishing those in light, that their backs are broken.

There will be many more messages coming from others still, that will continue, I think in greater effort, to try to sway us from our position, by creating doubt, and by changing the story. There were a couple of messages of the past week or so, that say that Sananda was born of a twin birth, a being AHN stating he is Sananda's father in heaven. This one claims to command the Phoenix, and that no Phoenix Journals came from his ship. I propose that this AHN is just another creation of the BBB&G's.

I have worked personally for many months now with Sananda, Hatonn, Germain, Sanat Kumara, and Maitreya. I have talked with Kuthumi, Archangel Michael, and Mohammed. I have spoken several times with Mother Shekmet. I don't know yet for sure who she is, but I think it will soon be time to bring a message from her also. Mohammed will give a message. He is returning to right the wrongs done to his mission of long ago.

The BBB&G's of the time, while Mohammed was incarnate in one of these downgraded bodies, was taken up to "heaven" as recorded by the Quran. Heaven was a ship, where he was chipped and programmed, and his mission destroyed in essence. So great was this man, that still he somehow got some great teachings across. He never intended the warring done in his name. He loved women, and would liberate the women of his time. He did in some ways.

This is a major reason, why one should assess behavior, but never judge the soul, especially on Planet Earth. This is why care is taken, with those seeming to be BBB&G's, some of them are chipped and controlled and monitored. Many do things they would not do, out of fear. They so often find themselves, in what seems an ideal situation, only to find themselves in one they cannot get themselves out of.

I typed a letter for Hatonn to the A &A's. He is not happy with them, as there is game playing on their part. But he also knows that they are in a situation that is very difficult to get out off, and under control also. I wonder if this is why they gave out more and different information recently, about the KOS. Maybe a call for help? Hatonn offered help, if they will but ask for it. To the A's, I, Candace say please, take the grace and help from Christ Michael, aka Hatonn.

Mike Pitts, webmaster for the Tree is totally innocent, and donates up to 14 hours a day to the Tree. He is a fine and honorable person of integrity. He received a letter also from Hatonn, offering of help and support, and praise for his work.

I find it so amazing. We have in our midst, Christ Michael. Clever disguise as this old firm, sometimes grumpy, very loving Hatonn. I think those of you, not quite so sure about the Phoenix Journals, might will see them in a different light. These are quite truly, messages of truth, from God.

Maybe God just does know, how to run a Universe. And I think this one called Christ, indeed knows and feels what mankind feels. Sort of been there, done that. Somewhere I read in the Phoenix Journals, Hatonn said he had experienced as a Jew on this world. At the time, I didn't see the message in that statement. Now our Christ, our God, is going to walk on two legs with us, personally, again. Our Sananda is doing the same. So will be Mohammed, and Maitreya, and so many others. Talk about a miracle! There isn't a word in our language to describe how I feel.

I think now, those in doubt, might see that NESARA is really going to happen. The Second Coming is really going to happen. And over the next few weeks we will see more and more messages from assorted others, that the Federation will not intervene, are not allowed to. I think, that as Head of Our Universe, Christ can definitely make the choice to intervene. AND SO THAT DECISION HAS BEEN MADE.

Boy, is it ever grow-up time, or maybe more like "grow into" time, for all of us, waiting over the years. Time to grow into being messiahs. There is an expression called, "be careful what you wish for, you just might get it." WISH BIG! Enough for tonight. Take care, Candace Added on November 8, 2005, by Candace: To those new to this messages, the CIA and others try constantly to prevent the Second Coming. They often post stuff on New Age type websites, to confuse those that read channelings. They have been a major headache in this long process. They continue, even to this day, to attack the lightworkers in various ways. I have just recovered by a period of attack by them myself. These bad guys have no problem stealing the names of those of God who are here at this time to cause confusion.

And the CIA, which even though it will be ended officially with NESARA, will stay in the background and continue to raise confusion amongst people, trying to get people to reject the Second Coming, through clerics, and through a variety of websites and other means.

There is a group trying to cause rejection of this Second Coming, because there will be no Rapture, meaning the going to heaven some where else in this process. The Rapture, is the joy, nothing more, nothing less. Some of these groups are trying to say that this is the fake Second Coming, made up of people who are conquering the planet. Our star visitors have in actuality, removed the previous conquerors, the Anunnaki and others.

But those teaching the wrong thing, are telling people this is a fake Coming, and we still get 7 years of tribulation followed by the real Second Coming. Sherry Shriner of www.SherryShriner.com is one of these dubious folks. By their fruits you shall know them. So before your judgment of the process, please watch for the fruits of NESARA, and the star peoples labors. You will find no fault in them, You will see extraordinary help being made available, many messiahs in the making, better technology, the cleaning of the air and the pollution, new methods of growing better foods, and a wealth of education, of a spiritual nature. Fine Fruits, to my thinking.

The Three Days of Darkness

CM thru Candace

May 23, 2012

Dearly beloveds a few days ago, you saw a brief message about the days of approaching darkness. This was planned long ago and the usual method of ridding a planet of the dark living beings. The time has come, and although we did not cover this long ago, it is used with ministasis so that ones do not have to witness the removals. Its is so very simple, we just eclipse the sun with a large craft. This was done 2000 years go on the day of the cross, to remind people of that great travesty, but only for a few hours.

This will run 3 days plus the ministasis in the middle. The populace will only be aware of the 3 days. Many of you may be aboard craft during that time to be briefed. We will commence the teaching period shortly thereafter.

We have arranged the electricity will not function, so consider that in your preparations. The day times will not be as dark as night, just mid twilight to be expected, there is some light released around the eclipsed area.

This is long prophesied and we have come to this point after all attempts otherwise have gone without comprehension. Everyone on the planet will of course notice! This is divine in nature, and not OF nature so they will know, in whatever beliefs they have of "god", that this is of God. the timing will occur on my direction based on multiple conditions including the WAVE.

Tis a shame you dark ones that it comes to this, and many of you are already judged by the courts and will be facing your removal and in many cases your extermination. WE always win dear dark brothers, and you have lost your game.

Candace: This does NOT cause earth changes or other serious issues. I would think maybe a little weathe effects. It is NOT the time of the magic ascension either, don't read something into that. Many folks are "hearing" this now, I have seen a lot of posting on forums about it. I covered it for my glp readers here: <http://www.godlikeproductions.com/forum1/message1689464/pg55>

Just plan on what you need in the absense of heat and light. Candles and batteries will work. Your gas stoves will work, but you will have to light the burner. Put gas in the car, but I don't know if you would want to be out amongst people in fear. Obviously there will be an issue with shopping, since there will be no electricity. I assume you won't be going to work. If you are on pumped water, maybe you should store some. Stand tall.

- The Ancients of Days Speak -

Jun 22, 2012

Behold cometh the darkness upon your world
The darkness that shall in the end cause the great shining of light

For those that have found their light, shall come the opportunity to perceive great glory

For those who made the final rejection shall come the loss of glory and for most, the lost of who they be, as they are returned to the great uncreated to become again remade in the light, but not as their former selves

It is but the cycling of the universe. For old to new to old to new, to brighter even then the last new and so it shall be for those on earth.

After the days of no light, the planet will come forth in the beginning of its new glory. The Mother has won her great battle.

The Battle is Won

Sanat Kumara thru Candace.

Jun 22, 2012

Oh dear ones, it is I Sanat Kumara, whom you know as Solar Logos of the silver ray, and as Grandfather

Rather than chide the dark, the purpose here is give praise to all of you who have passed your difficult testing on this world. I am specifically speaking to the ones directly involved in the project of raising this world that are from the highest realms, but we are well pleased also with those evolving on this world who have made enough of a grade in progress to return here after the long stasis.

We sit in great joy that we have come to this event, the coming 3 days of darkness, which was not envisioned as being possible many years ago. Hope was about gone that we could keep this world running. It was pretty much accepted that she would be rolled over, after the lifting of successful students and star seeds and things started over thousands of years into the future.

You have made it possible for this intermediate option, since a full ascension of earths inhabitants did not occur, and we stand in amazement of this accomplishment. See the Hope and Light in this! The battle is won.

Today has NOT been a good day has it?

David Righter (S333) thru Candace

June 22, 2012

To our dark banking brothers, today has NOT been a good day has it? You are having troubles almost everywhere with your internet connections. Rest assured WE ARE BEHIND IT.

Do you remember ME dear ones? I have posted to AH before, for a period as S333 and then formally as David Righter here and on RumorMillNews. I am a financial lawyer from the very high realms, based actually on the Super Universe Headquarters complex that surrounds Uversa.

I AM here incarnate and I have a large staff of folks walking with two legs so you are directly "reachable" by myself and team.

Your destruction of God's instrument on the world, the OITC did not go unnoticed and those of you directly involved will have your just reward. The courts of Orvonton ARE always JUST.

Now during the interim before the beginning of the 3 days you can expect more "interference" from us. Let the games begin in earnest.

To readers of Abundanthope, its always WISE to have cash around for "emergencies" and to NOT keep your bank accounts overflowing. I AM David Righter.

A Small Update on Pre 3DD Activities

Esu thru Candace

July 14, 2012

Beloveds, stand in your patience. I know this is tiring, but put yourself in our shoes, or mine at the moment. I am in charge of a very large military operation that is most necessary at this time. You may see some odd quakes around as we are taking out more alien bases and it is useful for us to finish that task, if possible pre the The Three Days of Darkness. (3DD)

There are energies in them that need neutralized so as to not effect damage during the mini stasis period that we do not wish. These underground bases are powered by mostly nuclear energies and need tactful handling. I am only reporting this to give you some detail. We are pulling out the reactors and removing them. Some of these bases are even "normal" under ground installations that run on nuclear, and they will likely blow during the mini stasis. There is more to occur during the mini stasis than simple removal of the dark, and on the details I cannot give you at this time. Lets just say that the removal process includes removing more than people and let it go at that.

There is reason that this cannot wait until the large stasis. As you were informed with the Siraya message thru Johan, this plan is related to activities that will affect your future careers, experience wise, and also affect the people that will remain during the teaching period and the length and outcome OF the teaching period. I will say the teaching period will be longer than we have suggested before and therefore to provide special opportunities for all, we must have a "cleaner" format.

Keep your lives going and stop living in the future that is not here yet! And always have preparations no matter where you live, for temporary discomforts, as there is still to come the likelihood of much extreme weather and perhaps some extreme quakes.

Update on the Three Days of Darkness (3DD)

By Christ Michael thru Candace

Aug 22, 2012

Dearly Beloveds, this is Christ Michael and an update is due.

The time is close. We give no dates but I am here to update today about a small change of plans that will affect you. The craft to eclipse the sun has been behind the sun and ready for some time, close and easy. We have begun to move it more "forward".

Now, because folks are NOT aware of what is planned, and most are NOT listening within, the 3DD will start with a partial eclipse of the sun. This will last for about 24 hours so that everyone can prepare for something coming. It gives "notice". There are many countries in which the news will cooperate during this time, but some don't plan on it. I think the pressure will require it, when the whole world notices an unexpected partial eclipse and wonders WHY.

The eclipse will look somewhat different than a partial eclipse by the moon. You will NOT see a huge round dark disk as the method is different but it will be obvious and certainly much more obvious that this is not NIBIRU or any such other thing, in the method we will use. You will not see a gradual eclipse forming. Due to the method used, it will be sudden.

At the end of the 3DD there will be another 24 hours of similar events. The electricity will be turned off shortly after the total eclipse is manifest but not before. And hopefully most news stations around the world will be making that statement about the electricity, so people can prepare some sort of lighting in their homes. People will be advised to GO HOME. For those traveling, home would be of course the hotel or whatever other temporary arrangements are being used. ALL aircraft will be landed during these first 24 hours, we will see to that.

Countries are being encouraged to bring ships into port, and this has been out for a time to leadership, but not much seriousness has been taken by some players on the world stage. Generally however, the big boats make their own electricity and will be fine and smaller ones, if the people are so dumb to not come in to port, and have no way to generate heat or light, it is their problem.

Hospitals of course will make scarce use of electric generators and hopefully during the initial 24 hours will send stable patients home. Ditto other circumstances. Since most businesses require electricity, everyone is going home, there is no need to run any services except for emergency needs.

This is WELL planned beloveds. Do not fear. But we will not be dropping flashlights to people. They will be challenged to manage. Of course native types will get thru it fine. There is still the mini stasis during this. All intelligent animals will be in stasis, those requiring human care. We do not let cows go un-milked, they go to sleep too. This is but one simple example.

The mini-stasis will last at least one week and likely more. Those of you coming aboard during the mini-stasis will be lifted on our schedules devised. Generally shortly after the electricity goes off, but will fluctuate according to local circumstances.

We need those of course in the know, to be working with those who are going to be afraid. If you can have some sort of extra candles, flashlights and batteries that might be useful to share. MANY are NOT needed, one per house is enough, as to flashlights, you chose on candles. It is not hard to get thru 3 days without electricity and in the dark, but it is made easier if the house has some sort of lighting to find the way to bathrooms and the like. It will NOT be pitch black in the day time. The sun's corona extends a fair distance from the sun and the corona will not be completely blocked, so it will not be pitch black in the daytime, but more like a heavy dusk.

You can assure people that its fine to go outside and look out windows. It is the thugs who put out that one needs holy candles and must stay inside flat on the floor in prayer. People will be in prayer though, I assure you.

Where media will cooperate, this will be told in fact. People will be given some time to get small amounts of lighting to find their way in the dark. That is truly all that will be needed anyway, except in hospitals, and nursing homes and most all of them do have generators.

Anything to make light will work as long as its not on the grid. Most people with solar electricity and battery storage may have some light and it will be friendly of these who do, anyone with generators also, to invite neighbors in. There will be NO removals during the darkness. That occurs ONLY during the mini-stasis which is scheduled in the middle of the period of darkness.

The 24 hours of fading eclipse afterwards, allows the grid to be gradually brought back on line and the increase in natural light then will encourage those "left behind" to begin gathering and dealing with what has happened.

Many of our team are to be lifted, including those not known to AH who have roles in this. These ones will all help during that 24 hours of "half light" after the 3 days are over, and many of them will be triggered into action in the preliminary 24 hours. Most of the ones brought up shortly after the darkness starts, will be returned a few hours before the end of the darkness.

Now, during the mini-stasis, the plant and animal life NEEDS the sun and the planet cannot be allowed to cool to much, so of course the eclipsing craft will be moved so the sun can shine. And then the craft moved back when the mini-stasis is over. With the two "half light" days, this makes a total of 5 days plus the mini-stasis.

As soon as it is visually obvious the sun is partly occluded, you in the know, go to work. Some of you may awaken even to news in the morning if this starts during your individual sleep cycles. This 1/2 "light" initial day also provides a powerful motive to some of the dark to clean up their act, but it mostly so ones can prepare as best they can. It will make the shock and awe LESS.

Plan now accordingly and simply LIVE until the time happens. These 3 days are generally done on any planet where possible in the seasons of fall and spring, or the approaching of those times, so the planetary people do not have to deal with so much cold of winter months. Your southern hemisphere is beginning to warm, generally speaking. And the food is near harvest, in the north. Man will be busy with harvest as appropriate after this is over.

This is more than enough and should probably be the last update that will be needed. In great love of you ones who serve AbundantHope, my 2nd Coming Organization, Christ Michael.

Beloveds, now is the time to draw close to me. We are "remodeling" the energy system of earth, to use simple terminology, I can't be more specific. Your sun continues to dim, in final preparation for the 3 days of darkness. Man is not listening, we do not now for sure if we will be on television, so these changes will alert all to what is going on, it cannot be ignored. The energy bursts will come forth every few hours, based on observation of effects. We will continue to dim the sun at regular intervals, with the gradual manifestation of the craft.

Everyone on the planet will feel something and people will intuitively know something is impending. As this intensifies, the fear and dread is going to increase in people not connected to creator and even some who are but don't know what is going on. Continue to stand ready to serve. We have give so very much teaching ow on this and it is the end of this particular path and this is the Judgment event of the Lord. These energy changes may cause some to leave the planet before the partial eclipse fully manifests, that is still on the to do list before the full eclipse.

Many of you who are sensitive will feel these changes, with perhaps heart rate changes, sweating, cold, vibrations, nausea, poor sleep, headaches. You must simply relax and let these energies flow and stay in service. WE have give much, and during this final situation, we expect much in return. Namaste, I AM THAT I AM, Michael of Nebadon.

Candace: People around you may become very touchy and perhaps frightened. I cannot give you advice on how to handle this, make it specific to those around you AS NECESSARY. I am also including Johan's recent piece on the Forum that was not yet time to post here. I was out shopping this morning for last minute food I was low on, and something was very odd at the store, everyone was a mess, apparently large numbers of people did not show up early to stock. A friend who shared my transportation home said she had arrived at her usual 6 am time, and the store was a complete disaster.

When I went to get in line, only one checker other than the check yourself out booths, and the lines were long, as all the check yourself out booths were also full, and the scanners were running terribly. All the time I scanned, it said put in bagging area and then would call the attendant because it said I had not . I had. I took time to even start the scanning when I finally got a booth. A mans dog food broke all over, coupons were not reading, a general check out mess.

I was awakened twice by the incoming energies last night. The first was terribly intense and the 2nd less so. Another as I was getting back home, maybe that was the problem with the scanners. Who knows, but that was about the strangest checkout situation I have experienced. Glad to be home.

OK here's Johan's piece from earlier on September 18, 2012

A Time -Out before THE NOW-MOMENT

My Dearly Beloved Light Workers and Warriors, Star Seeds and Awakened Ones and Meditators in particular.

I sometimes feel like still calling you my Children, yet brothers and sisters and co-workers from all places also fits perfectly well since ALL of you are near and dear to my Heart. We shared many messages through different scribes and we talked about the finish line and the curtain is about to fall, about Glorious Times ahead, teachings and removals, stasis and serious earth changes necessary to cleanse and rebuild.

And then comes that NOW-MOMENT, THE MOMENT IN TIME THAT YOU ARE REALLY THERE. No more side roads or side tracks or diversions or distractions, but THE MANIFESTATION OF ALL WE TALKED ABOUT. Although CHANGE is the only constant there is, when THAT NOW-MOMENT has arrived, then there is no more need for talk, BUT FOR ACTION. That brings along a complete different dynamic.

I therefore wished to address you NOW, since our NOW-MOMENT is ARRIVING QUICKLY NOW ... and I want you to take some of your precious time out, a TIME - OUT, to sit in contemplation with your knowledge and your Higher Self to link you forward in time, when that NOW-MOMENT will knock on YOUR DOOR OF YOUR LIFE.

Many words might have been exchanged, but ACTION WILL ROLL with or without you. When that ' rollercoaster ' starts, there is no turning back and it will not be an omnibus, stopping at every possible station in between. When ACTION ROLLS, IT ROLLS ... So I want you to THINK WITH YOUR HIGHER SELF how that might feel for you, how that might change scenery for you, how that might catapult you into unexpected directions, with landing pretty much YOUR OWN CHOICE OR CONCERN ... No doubt, We from Fleet and Crew are on standby already, and will help where needed, but at some situations, you might find yourself ON YOUR OWN, if not CONNECTED OR INSPIRED AT THAT MOMENT.

Therefore I come to ask you, like the many Guided Meditations we have undertaken together, TO TAKE THIS TASK OF CONTEMPLATION SERIOUS and see what advise or information you can share with those near and dear to you when the Lights are going out, as has started already. Not much earthly time left anymore before ACTION ROLLS, so I suggest your tomorrow mornings and upcoming (Wednesday) evenings meditation to be devoted to my simple but Loving Request. It will help you greatly, as Is My Wish for you. I will be seeing you soon now. "

New War is a False Flag by Israel

By CM thru Candace

Nov 18, 2012

November 17, 2012

Dearly Beloveds, I mentioned there would another update by a different telepath and so it is today, It is time for one thru Candace.

We are of course not pleased about the war, but we have allowed as that a final small testing and the people are not doing well with it, as a group, in countries supporting Israel. Israel has gone all out smug you might say, thinking they are untouchable. Your recent news of various important ones being fired for all sorts of social ills are experiencing the wrath of the State of Israel. Your country remains fully under their dominion. There have been many fired who didn't desire to support Israel.

I remind some of you that many in Gaza are incarnating Khazars experiencing dying by the sword and not to become too upset. That whole issue there is totally an Israeli false flag.

It is time for all readers of AbundantHope to seriously join the Global Meditation tomorrow and focus on your Mother who needs all your support at this time.

We are continuing to darken the sun and before long, it should not look bright to anybody glancing at it. I have ground crew providing updates as to how it appears.

It is necessary to the Mother's energies at this time to dim the sun gradually rather than suddenly, as we had planned. We made the decision to if possible get thru the US of A election and thus we went to the gradual darkening, as a means of mostly notifying certain ones we indeed had the power to do that. This continues. You need not know the mechanisms of why the Mother should at this time experience the gradual darkening instead of the sudden "bulls eye" as it became known.

I will continue to not provide detail the dark should not have to any of my telepaths so as to not endanger them or those they love. You are going to have to maintain your patience and your spiritual readiness because, as it has been said, even the day is known by nobody but the Father and we ARE under that.

The date I put out in August was for notification of our dark brethren, and you are to hold no telepaths accountable for OUR decisions. This is done for a reason, as this is "war" and we must not give all to the enemy. We give what the enemy needs to hear as appropriate.

The necessary cosmic laws as to notification have been handled. More and more people now on earth are being notified by various angels, higher selves, custodians and the like of the impending changes. Candace can give you an link to a very interesting thread she became engaged in yesterday on GLP in fact. There are several who work forums such as GLP getting messages with the hopes they will have the courage to post them and take the heat.

I am leaving now to get back to the preparations and other details, and you ones must be about the Father's Work. Namaste, Michael of Nebadon.

Candace: the thread on GLP. One there had a lovely vision with AA Uriel and some didn't like it at all. It continues today. I put in my two cents worth and there is a list in it of all of Hazel's work with AA Uriel, as the name is less commonly known on this world and people were curious, including the OP of the thread, as he was not familiar with AA Uriel either. Some attacked the thread of course calling Uriel a Demon and all that rot out there that exists. Please do not be upset by my later posts in it, as since working nice is not effective, I decided to work with more intention. It is an act of love. But I loaded it up with slang and other techniques, these ones have little more time to "see."

As to the nature of the thread, you are seeing fully in it early 4d manifesting in which ones have to get off the fence and serve one side of the other, so read it from that perspective. It is obvious who remains on the side that is not of God there. And also those still upon the fence (ones I have pleaded too), and ones who recognize the piece as being a true message. I was going to post just OP's posts I collected yesterday, but then many would not look at the thread. He posted his vision in parts, sometimes in response to questions asked.

Also OP's user ID changed over my night, from 27875016 to 27904634 OP is from Spain.

Obama is NOT The 2nd Coming

By Christ Michael thru Candace

Jan 19, 2013

Dearly beloved readers of AbundantHope, today Newsweek magazine's new issue has on its cover, Obama, the 2nd Coming. This is quite an insult to the process of the real 2nd Coming and the reference relates him subtly to being the reincarnation of LIncoln, as to what was done on the net more than 4 years ago. This is man is not the reincarnation of LIncoln, then or now. He is not fully human. This current "copy" had head scars because he has a computer in his head. Hardly a LIncoln.

It is being put out on the internet that something special from US above, will happen during the inauguration. NO, I have no plans on this. There will be no St. Germain coming forth then, and nothing else related at all.

I am asking all of you when you receive such in your email boxes or read it on the net, to contact the originators or those who have sent the mails and contradict the story. I am asking you to stand thus in MY SHOES at this time. How else can you let the truth shine? You don't need to go educating everyone on things they cannot understand, but you must stand for truth. Point out the head scars. Point out that he looks different for many years ago. Point out that Joe Biden if you have noticed such, seems to perhaps be "president", as he was ahead of all these gun investigations and advisory teams.

Tell people WHY they must keep their guns. Stand in all the truth you are aware of. You need not drive people off, but live the truth, speak simply as to what you know. It can be as simple as saying, I know that is not true. If they don't wish to listen to protection against government, ask them what would happen if there was a sudden decrease in food available? You would want your guns then!

There is no NESARA any more. Nor any other so called "prosperity programs." These are around again building a fake story and on the hopes that the Khazars are again in control of world finance, and they are not. We are going to carry out exactly what we have been talking about. This will be the year of ATON, but there will be no magic from us during the inauguration. NONE. If its there, its been set up and faked. It is but our same old dark brothers playing their dark games.

Help people, my children to see. There is still going to be the 3 Days of Darkness. There is also going to be a great period of contact in your skies, huge show and tell. This will start unless something of danger intercedes, before the 3 Days of Darkness. There will still be the mini stasis during those Dark Days of cleansing as we have covered in the past. And a teaching period for those "left behind" for up to a year. During that period, those without jobs will be supported as necessary, and there will be a lot of financial change, but not prosperity programs. And all those on the galactic welfare program will be contributing during that time in important ways yet to be released. This is all for now. Namaste. The Michael of Nebadon.

Candace: Newsweek is not longer published as a print magazine. It is now online. Here is the linky: <http://www.thedailybeast.com/newsweek.html> This linky just has the image of the cover on it on the right side. I think this is the link to the article referenced above as to content http://contentviewer.adobe.com/s/Newsweek/c5cab60bd7a45d4a6b493fc0ba1ffcf/com.newsweek.20130118/14_fe_inauguration_03.html
If I find the one short comment again, I will add it. So far my scanning for it is not going well.

OK the short comment within the article referring to any 2nd Coming. Obama's take it-or-leave it arrogance in the "fiscal cliff" talks before New Year's masks his more subtle intelligence. Obama may not be the second coming of Lincoln (first-term hype notwithstanding) and our times are hardly as desperate as the Civil War.

The article itself is mostly about the good and inauguration speeches of former presidents. I fail to see, other than pure propaganda, while the cover has such a saying on it.

And have fun rolling over and laughing, because Newsweek and The Daily Beast paired up. How appropriate at this time. I did make a one month membership which includes 8 issues, so I will probably do a bit of reading and watching on this.

As to Truth Telling, consider suggesting that they had nothing to do with picking Obama to run, as global leaders do that, and that his supposed re-election didn't seem to cover very well who voted for whom and that he was announced as the winner quite a bit too early in the evening.

To My Beloved Eve

By CM thru Candace

Mar 28, 2013

Eve, beloved, I did not desire to rent asunder AbundantHope. I would not separate it into pieces either. Candace awaits with great love for you to put humpty dumpty together again!. I want you to develop AbundantHope Northern Europe beloved, NOT AH Germany serving Northern Europe. I await also in great love for this to be developed.

Candace is well. She continues on as CEO of the International Organization. Her mind is sound. Her special arch angel circuits all work. We work together every day. Look at the growth going on. We have plans being set in place for the teaching period. Look who is there serving the central organization.

I would never ask Johan, Jess, Hazel, Rosie, Kibo, Ron, John, Esteban, Drita, Leonette, Christ and all the other strong ones, to leave Candace and go over to a separate organization. I do not divide ONE INTO TWO OR MORE my dearest.

Now let's put this thing back together and make amends with those who were pushed away, or resigned. And I ask you to see the one who was also on your team and bothering Candace in her forum works, for this took place and it was not right and does not deserve your support.

I remind you of the old saying: United We Stand, Divided We Fall. I will not support this division that you created. I did not appoint you to take over from Candace at any time. Esu did not suggest any such rendering assunder of AbundantHope either. He does not look down at Candace.

You are requested by myself today, to either take down your websites, or come back HOME beloved. If you are coming back Home to AbundantHope, you must then be ready to develop the Northern European Area. We are working out the borders at this time for 4 areas of Europe to be served. Well you step in and take Northern Europe? I look forward to this but Candace is my central one, and you must agree to work under her advice. As do all the Regional Directors. Had you forgotten you were one of them, even though we chose not to yet announce it long ago?

Giuseppe remains the other Regional Director to date for the European region and we are working out his request for an eastern section. Others will be appointed during the mini stasis for many more areas around the whole globe. The plan cannot go that Eve is separate from perhaps 50 regional areas to serve the planet initially during the long teaching period. Many are placed that are no known publically at this time and unknown to AH readers.

I AM Michael of Nebadon.

*We love you
Eve!*

AFTER ENLIL

CM, Esu, Enki , and Enlil Thru Candace

Jan 12, 2014

Hello beloveds, this is the Michael of Neadon speaking and bringing to you the promised piece. As you were informed several days ago,,,,, a beloved son of mine, an ascending son, Enlil returned to lighted service. Enlil is a son of Anu and a brother of Enki and both will be part of this message today.... They do not have circuits with Candace and I will lend mine for Enki and Esu will lend his for Enlil at the appropriate times.

Candace was aboard recently at the momentous moment when two brothers made up after a long period of disagreement... It was a joyous time and it is part of the reason behind the Parable of the Prodigal son in your bible.. always does the Father welcome home the wayward son.

Many of you on this planet are of origin with the Anunnaki, just as many others of you have your origins on this world with the Lucifer Rebellion. The Anunnaki have a somewhat bad name in your resources, but they too, all of them of the ascendant group of Sons had their lessons to learn and experienced to be gained.

One day when those maturing on earth, no matter your origins, after this world reaches a stage of Light and Life and not before, HUman at that time will also begin the experience of traveling to other worlds outside this solar system. It is an earned right and will not be granted until those who are mature enough are truly ready. In the meantime you will gain your legs checking out your own solar system as is happening to some degree now... The Russians in fact have earned the right, as a nation to explore the solar system and they do. They have the cosmospheres we have mentioned in the distant past. (C-over 300 of them !)

You in the United States will for sometime to come be restricted to your silly rovers. So Be It... you have not earned the right to put men in space, other than the joint project with Russia on your International Space Station.

As you grow we will also provide rides within the solar system and perhaps transport for those worthy to and from other worlds. But you will not have your own craft capable of travel outside your system until you are mature. These are the rules and so be it...

Now, let me proceed further on this topic of when you shall travel. Not until you have earned the right to seed other worlds with YOUR OWN LIVES and with animals on this planet, for as of yet you are not ready to spread your seed, your DNA until you have ascended. As we have covered before this is a seed planet for the development of NEW SOULS from scratch. It is also an experimental planet in an effort to build a stunning new level of Consciousness to be seeded elsewhere and not until this matures, will you be allowed to spread around your DNA which of course IS reflective of your spiritual progression.

(Candace: the creation ever grows and some planets are selected to be seed worlds for this development of new souls, when when mature can then "seed" other planets with themselves. The period required to develop new souls of HUman nature is very very long, and thus some planets are selected as seed worlds which actually shortens the process by which the growing creation is populated. Live thus MOVES to other worlds,, but before HUman seeds them, life is carried to these other young worlds by both the Life Carriers and those migrating. Before animals including the HUman animal can live on these worlds,, planet life which produces atmosphere and food must be developed. It is always a pretty long time before a planet can have animal life on it,, but once the plants and atmospheres are there,,, advancing human IS allowed to MOVE to them and so shall HUman and his animals and some plants too, journey to younger worlds in due time.)

So, now some of you have read that the Anunnaki seeded your world and did a dam poor job of it. Not so. They did however upgrade a simple race of beings from existent developmental life into slaves and that was a NO NO and they broke the rules.

(Candace: some of you would want punishment for this... but in the natural cosmic way of doing things, this family got to EXPERIENCE the results of what they did, for how else can the knowing be obtained? Knowing does not come from BOOKS,,, it comes from experience.. You can get ideas from books, such as fixing your plumbing and cars, but without digging and doing it, you truly don't "Know" do you? To clear the karmic garbage stored in your morontial soul,, you have to LEARN by the effort of experience and that is the only way it is cleared into TRUTH , which is the knowing coming from the experience. Nobody ever becomes a master craftsman without experience. What better experience than to deal with that which was created, whether created in breaking the rules or not.)

So in short there was a serious disagreement between the two brothers (and this is the short version beloveds),,, over whether to keep these ones ignorant and dumb, or whether to raise them up by teaching. There were more issues, for example, such as fighting between Anu and Marduk over this world and who should be boss of it.

Perhaps its time to bring in Nibiru, for this is the planet of the crossing so to speak which visits your world every 3600 years. It was made out of a world that did survive a war between two planets that orbited a Sirius star. I am re visiting this information for newer readers who may not have heard this story. The anunnaki imploded that star in the process of attempting to destroy the neighboring planet. This was much war there, and this war was kept within the bounds of the said solar system.

With the implosion of that sun, the one planet experienced total perishment of life and its souls were brought to this solar system to continue, and placed on Mars. Well, wars between themselves continued and using weather war, they destroyed their atmosphere and their souls were raptured off to earth to continue. The other planet of that system survived because the people had long before moved to the interior but the surface life was lost without a sun. This planet, because there were surviving beings, was assisted to continue and of course needed a new orbit. Around something. They were given technology to make their planet into basically a battle star as you would recognize it, and that is a bit of the tale told in Star Wars, with the battleship part of it. They were not allowed full propulsion, but enough to steer this now ship you ones called Nibiru around two suns, yours and a remaining Sirius sun. This provided for the 3600 year orbit that Nibiru has for all these many many years, close to actually 1 million now in your counting...

Why were they "saved" beloveds? Because they survived. Its how things are done. The goal after all IS the salvation of man until he becomes HUman. As above, since the other planet had NO bodies left, their souls were moved to this solar system, and the reason behind that was the Pleiadian influence also in this placement. And the on going wars and disagreements over quite a long period of time...between them and the Sirian system. (Candace: allowing thus the working out of those issues between the two. Mars already had life status on it and there was an immature race into which they could incarnate in, as to body suits.)

You of earth, your sun belongs to the Pleiadian system and orbits Alcyone.... As did the destroyed Sirian sun and there was a lot of repair needed in that small system from the imploded sun. This was the case of two suns which orbited the main sun, just as at this time you now have Jupiter Sun to orbit your sun and you will in due time have also Saturn in the same role, as a mini sun.

The peoples who war in this manner beloveds, they are generally taking the slow route to their ascensions which occurs never before 6+d level of consciousness and there is a long period spent on various planetary systems until there is enough knowledge to obtain fusion with the Father Fragment. By the time you fuse with it beloveds, you have been involved in interplanetary problems, issues and negotiations... You are always placed by your guardians on suitable worlds for this experience.

And so thus it was with the Anunnaki group,, which at some point then entered your solar system on this schedule of every 3600 years. At first they did not have interstellar craft at the time of this implosion...and were wholly stuck on Nibiru.... they had lost their right to even operate in their own solar system which was under repair and then when re earned, they were given the right to develop small craft for local journeying within this solar system. Always beloveds is man moved about and given experiences for his ascension. And for some, its a really long rough trip, often affected by the individual and cultural circumstances and responses to such. Now I will stand back and let Esu come in.

Esu: Hello dear ones :) First, Candace will post that this piece has been done but will not be put up until at least tomorrow as she will be making some additions to it. Now to further the simple history lesson, the Kumaras to which I belong, WE matured also in a warring enslaved civilization. Understand where you have been, so have I been, and my clan. I know some of you might feel a righteous anger, from what you have read, about the anunnaki, but all who choose eternal life and continue at it, thru the difficult testing period experience a great deal of "unpleasant" testing. It is the nature of these worlds. In order for the HUman soul to grow it must be challenged and the dark are always quarantined on worlds like this, because it challenges mind of those born to these worlds. Granted this area has experience worse than what you might label Average... and is way behind.

Now to the Kumaras. We came together and escaped our world. We migrated to a higher planet in that system of worlds, as there were several and gathered others who were interested and together over a long period we liberated the people of that world from whence I first came into my own being. From this we earned the RIGHT to travel beyond our solar system and enter into the affairs of others. We came into the Pleiadian system which was also a system of dis-rest. However it was not as bad as the Lyran system. It was in conflict with the Orion system which is also part of the Alcyone system. Orion stars orbit Alcyone. We worked eventually with that which we had learned and gave it to these people of Pleiades and most of the planets there around the several sisters you see in your night sky, entered into peace amongst themselves, but still had difficulty with Orion,, which was INFESTED with those serving Lucifer...

(Candace: Pleiades is a large grouping of some 500 or so suns which orbit Alcyone,,, their central star. You are taught about the 7 sisters in material man has created about what is seen in the sky....There are 7 that make a cluster sort of similar in shape to the big and little dippers... A mini dipper so to speak... those are 6 stars which orbit Alcyone. There are many more. And our star, our sun is one of them. I myself spent some time on a planet called Myrua which orbits Merope, before beginning my service incarnations on this planet some 400 years ago.. This is my 6th incarnation serving our Michael here at this time. I spent time on Myrua which prepared me once again for planetary life before coming here. Myrua is an evolutionary planet much ahead of Earth,, being an 8d planet, as to consciousness of its people and LONG in Light and Life...)

Let me state here, the Anunnaki are primarily Pleiadian origin humans, but there were negotiations and agreements with those of Orion and a number of intermarriages between the reptilians and the humans. By humans here, I mean the body type on earth.... because that is what you call yourselves, humans. But truly the term HUman,,, means advanced soul level regardless of body type and there are HUman level beings in all systems who have different body types from yours. Lyrans had this body type you inhabit at this time,, and so did Pleiades.. Orion had some of our type, but the preponderance was reptilian.. and don't assume all reptilians are dark folks for they are not... Like all races, dark individuals arise because that is the nature of the free will....

By free will, we mean the ability to reason and make decisions, which is god mind. Animals don't have this ability, until they begin to evolve it. Man is also an animal in his beginning stages. And must transform himself by his own will, into greater mind.

Candace: HUman means Higher Universal Man,,, so matter the body type used. The reason the Anunnaki although living on Nibiru, are Pleiadian origin, as to body type, has much to do with migration to Sirian Planets from Pleiades. There was much interchange.)

Now your planet, Earth is NOT how it was in the distant past. In the distant past, she was MUCH MUCH larger and a portion of her resides in the Asteroid belt, as we shuttled the broken away sections up there. There was a war action taken by Nibiruans to empty TIAMET, as she was called then of the reptilians, and again another "solution" did not work out so well. But this is PART of YOUR TRAINING so to speak beloveds, before you ever make your ascension. It is a LONG LONG period for most. You have on your orb some folks promising if you do this, that, or the other routine you can hasten your ascension. NO YOU CANNOT for before your ascension you have to go thru these experiences and come out on TOP OF THEM.

Always is there wars and confusion, for you do not gain the god mind necessary to make your ascension any other way. Always you are moved onto more and more advanced worlds as you learn and you don't move to ones who offer lessons in PEACE until earned. So be it. You cannot handle that which is difficult without the EXPERIENCE BELOVEDS and any of you not yet ascended who might be reading here, cannot make your ascension until your TO DO LIST is checked off. Candace will supply the UB teaching that would be relevant or her own,, being she has long taken that journey to ascension... And now is also a Sananda as am I... We share in the celestial paradise group which are labeled Mighty Messengers... I earned Paradise after my incarnation with Christ Michael Aton.... and she has earned hers while on duty in this solar system...

Enki: Dear ones, I am known to you as En Ki, Son of Anu and the Reptilian Queen named Dramin. Anu had several wives and Enlil and I have different mothers. I am thus part reptilian in my "soul origin. " (Candace: I did not ask if this was a "first life" for Enki, or an incarnation. I might ask that later). And some of you may wonder, as to the difficulty between Enlil and me is related to the parentage as Enlil is fully human. So understand it is not necessarily the body mind type that you ones have been given about reptilians. There is a great deal of misinformation on your plane but it is generally true that the reptilian races are more violent in nature, owing to the degree of cold bloodiness that is part of the genome. But the true soul is that which is important and the experiences of each one.

It was once thought, according to various Pleiadian systems of thinking and who becomes boss of anything that I should be the leader of earth quite some years ago, perhaps 8000 or so. I declined this, because my interest lies much more in science than in leadership roles. For a disastrous period of time, Marduk held this role and vacated it to my brother Enlil because Marduk took by force the command of Nibiru from Anu. And still commands Nibiru. Anu was formerly on a Pleiadian light ship, but had to be removed for violating the NO channeling interference on earth. This was around 2005 or so of your years. Understand at this time, and for ever more, in fact, Nibiru will not be visiting this solar system again and is being held in a small orbit around Sirius B, which is a small sun left that orbits Sirius A and has only craft orbiting it plus some hunks of rock. Sirius B cannot bear life. These are used as storage facilities essentially with artificial life support for residents on them.

I am an Ascended master and made my ascension about 6000 years ago in your time frame. The reason I must borrow Esu's circuit, is that while I can use somebody's vocal cords while they are under hypnosis,,, I cannot get engaged in regular telepathy with those on earth. I have at times connected with a few persons of higher evolution on your planet, , but with the assistance of others who make it possible. There are "translators" so to speak available and much of your channeled material you read comes thru assistance. I am resident on Jerusalem at this time technically but am aboard various craft in your solar system as I am needed. Candace has met with me on the New Jerusalem and the Phoenix. I am in a physical form for my service but of a higher vibrational order. I am not yet anywhere near graduation from Nebadon. I am not yet "spirit being." I require still a body to function of some sort. I have one suitable to my needs at this time.

I serve with the panel about the progress of earth and have no voting rights as of yet, but express my opinions as needed and serve providing intelligence so to speak. I give advice thru dreams to some of my progeny on the planet.

I am the father of many many children, not all in marriage, but we, myself and others labeled Anunnaki have seeded on earth with our DNA, thus the stories of the Nephilim and others in your religions, than came unto women of earth. This is not uncommon. Many stellar beings do this and by stellar, I am meaning from planets whose people have earned the right to travel interstellar space. Many of my children were born though of this solar system, mostly on earth and like all beings are working at their own ascensions. I have not fathered earth children since the time of my own ascension. So if you hear of any sons of Enki born in these times, ignore some of those stories but there are some of my sons and daughters making their progress on your planet at this time incarnate into your forms.

Per some of the stories on your plane, I did wish the children of Africa and the middle east who were upgraded genetically, to be considered the potential sons and daughters of God, but in those days I did not myself fully understand consciousness or the ascending journey, but it seemed quite wrong of me, to prevent a people from progress and many of these were intelligent enough that learning should not have been denied to them. It was to me, purely common sense and also the knowing that enslaved peoples do grow regardless and there comes a time to included them, or face some pretty horrid problems as their minds grow and unhappiness follows in those so enslaved. In some instances I prevailed, in others I did not.

Its important to say here, our influence was mostly in the Middle east and Africa. Some of our progeny set up also in South America. Your planet has had many many civilizations rise from the colonization by other worlds. We are not the only ones to influence it and we are not the only ones who settle here, that caused war and the discomforts from it. Your yellow people who came about 1 million years ago, long before we actually began to meddle here, were quite violent also. And they enslaved each other essentially, in their power struggles. Some of them fled some time ago to your moon, yes the chinese before this time had some craft too, and they aren't about to let you of earth have anything to do with them. Candace calls them the moonians, and they are a peaceful lot and fresh out of wanting war with you.

They are assisting some with the rulers of China at this time and if anybody walks on the moon from this planet, it may well be the chinese in the future. The moon itself cannot support a huge population but the moonians are engaged in creating an atmosphere on it and have some lakes, canals and the like and are growing some vegetation on the surface now which is part of the procedure to build atmosphere. The Moon is actually going to be moved to another of your planets, as earth needs moons that are rocks and two of them orbit you now at a distance and your scientists know this. And although I am not responsible for such in any way, those of the celestial hierarchy do have the ability to move a planet with an atmosphere to another place and so it will be with your moon. I myself will watch and learn from this process in fact, for I have not been so involved before.

That I have many children as above is true and I had 2 wives at one time, but none at this point as neither made their ascensions yet. I am not sure should this happen we would still have a compatibility or not. The form I currently use is not a reproducing form, it is "semi etheric" in nature, but not reproducing. As it is said, in your teachings, in heaven you don't procreate. And so it is. I will vacate now and let the channel be prepared to bring in my beloved brother Enlil.

Candace: at this point, CM who was to finish this up with a bit more, came back in because he was called away for something else to attend, so Enlil is after this below.

CM: Alright beloveds, this ties it up for now. Candace has been given a packie of material to open and work with for more history lessons which will be a part 2 we have decided of this particular narrative. I hope that which is in this first part will help some of you who have not realized the protocols before of the journey prior to making the ascension. It is a LONG journey and not less than perhaps 200,000 of your years, and often 500,000 or more depending on the individual and his choices..And by these numbers it is generally meant, the times spent incarnate, not the times spent resting in sleep until a general resurrection occurs. With this upcoming mass resurrection of those still living, there may be a significant wait simply because of the space limitations on Mansion worlds 1 and 2, for few of these ones are even ready for #3 at this point. These souls at this level sleep always between returns to the worlds of my universe, for a body is needed by them to function.

Not until they are spirit beings can they function without a brain, and that is what is meant by "sleep" until a resurrection. All those in my universe and the others, spend some time in that sleep until there are positions they can fill, for the guidance is replete and time is not wasted on what might be called useless incarnations. So there are "years" where the being has NO activity. You ones belonging to the suns and their planets, that journey around Alcyone, (which include Sirius, Pleiades and Orion, are all part of Satania administration,) get experience not only on those mansion worlds which really are rest periods in a sense, of life not being torn by war on them, but only learning and socialization, but also on many other worlds.

The so called 7 sisters of Pleiades, these 7 suns, their planets correspond in fact to the 7 mansion worlds in the teaching of lessons, and this is enough to ponder for the time being. I actually came in before Enlil because we have spent nearly 2 hours and I have been notified my attention is needed and so I am logging off this at the time being. And then Enlil will come forth. Salu beloveds, there will be another update soon thru Candace by me or Esu or both,,, about here we are with the two brothers and other details of plans. Watch carefully your news, in your various countries as there are going to be increasing exposures. Candace can point out some in her country in this past week and some has been enhanced by intel from Enlil..... I am indebted and so are you to his return to lighted service.

Enlil: Well, dear readers of AbundantHope, let me introduce myself. I am Enlil. The story is true that a long time ago I did not feel we should upgrade our LULU's, the miners we made, I say We, but in reality I am not a geneticist, there were family members who were and are still. I have not made my ascension yet, and I was faced with the reality of this time, of giving up my eternal life, or growing up, would be a fair statement.

Now I have read at Abundant Hope, or perhaps better said, others brought me initially the information, since its inception. I am after all the Lord of this world, as to an ascendant being. My brother En Ki did not wish this role and for a time it was Marduk, who vacated the position to attack and take over Nibiru from within. I would say at this point, my Father Anu is not yet an ascendant being either, and thus not the best of "gods" himself. We are in fact not Gods, but in general the family conveyed that concept to man. My father is frankly a bit fallen and is at a level below myself at this time. I am now at what you label early 6d consciousness and that is why with the ending and sorting going on of this world, I was required to make a choice one way or the other. (Candace: all beings progressing this on this world are making these choices, where they have the ability to do so... even the more intelligent animals, are making the choice to move UP into man's meat suits or not. Most on this world are no where near ready for ascension and not always can choose their next placement, it is done for them by guides and guardians.)

I actually have been working towards progress on this world but totally inept at various junctions of this field. I have been realizing this. Your one labeled Kibo who posted a message recently, finally really began to get my attention. I do read at AbundantHope myself now, with the material that that new solutions will not come out of the same old box . Then Candace really got my attention with that one and the series of little target messages she wrote aimed at me, referred to as the ONE. It is rightful,, I am the ONE, at least to the anunnaki perspective of governance explained above.

I am behind all that material about the coming placing of money into your world, but that is not working because those under me, will parcel it out for themselves, and fight and bicker to no end and I realized this and thus my old box, which I borrowed some from the ideas of NESARA from Germain, whom I do have contact with, was NOT going to work... Germain does advise me at times.

I was finding my self in a quandary, not able to fully make the changes and it is because of my old box. It was getting very tight dear ones, and my shoes were tight to. So then I see the notes about how the celestial Hierarchy does know how to fix the issues, and I see the other little targets including the very important one to me, about how there are to be NO TITS FOR TATS and because that is how we are in my group, I expected of course Tits for Tats, you rub my back and I rub yours, and then it said only working together, would work. Then the offer, which said "Shall we Meet", and YES YES I said, for I did first want to meet this lady, a little grandma living in a worn down mobile home, I have long sensed some great honesty in her and no tits for tats at all. And so we met , and near the end of my interview with her, in comes this fellow going by Christ Michael she has always talked about, you see, not all of us truly know the journey but I have read the Urantia Book, and it would not have gotten published had I disallowed it.

There of course was another discussion and I was given every assurance by the both of them, of this no tit for tat stuff and only service that mattered and I DO CARE ABOUT THE SUCCESS OF this planet my dear ones. I am not an orge but I have been a slow learner. I now will serve in peace with this celestial team. It was my honor to actually engage with the Michael Son..... I am home.....

Candace: At this point,,, there was huge emotion from Enlil and he just stopped the transmission and as he said I AM HOME,,, I choked up from HIS emotion I felt. And so this ended for the time being... Maybe more later..

Candace now on Tuesday January 14. Yesterday I had a long harsh day of being TIRED and could not function with this, after a long long night of interference, work and lots of vibrating that made it difficult to sleep... I did add in some material above, but wish to wait to do anything more. I am still not fully up to snuff and this is enough, and I want to get this published today.

There are some discussions on the forum you can look at around the topics of Enlil and the Gods of this world...

<http://www.abundanthope.net/talkitup/showthread.php?1008-P-The-Olden-Stories-of-Earth-God-s> Is for placing references and discussion about the Gods of this world... The anunnaki are not the only ones.... hopefully some folks from Asia might post if they are in English some of their stories too. India has a rash of olden Gods....

Perhaps as part of this process of the Nibiru/Anunnaki story,,, I might gain myself from questions and comments placed there and answered there, with perhaps gathering some of that into a paper #2 for the front page. Perhaps Christ L could make a nice pdf of the end result. I am simply not ready to write it yet and want to review some other materials... I have one Stichen book on my computer I would like to review,,, the Lost Book of Enki. And Leo suggested a read called The Terra Papers she felt she had been led to a few years ago... so perhaps ask some more questions there... I have not yet read either of the above titles. I have one book at home which is full of some truth and a lot of Baloney by Anu when he was NOT supposed to be working with Earth Folks... That one is We are the Nibiruans by Jelaila Starr.

Christ Lippens has posted selections of material in that thread above from the Phoenix Journals and a bit from the Urantia Book... I have a list of potential topics I still want to teach on based on this work I am publishing today. This paper is already long enough and I think it better to wait and not force myself to produce something sloppy..

<http://www.abundanthope.net/talkitup/showthread.php?1016-P-ENLIL-the-targets-and-discussions-around-his-coming-to-the-light> This is the Enlil thread on the forum... Perhaps maybe some of you can ask questions of him and Enki which perhaps later might be answered. This needs to be an ENLIGHTENING process and not a BASHING process. Anger and old feelings, right or wrong don't work in the now...

I am on hold for updating as to plans in a few days... But as to the small target I posted today on the front site to get thyself prepared,, DO IT...Mentally and the things of a material nature you need. The monetary circumstances are not good right now,,, and the planet wants to act out some more..
