For EVERYBODY here that is new, about the planetary prince

Part I

It is both of them Claude and go read under the UB section I have on the site from possibly the planetary prince chapter, or the UB chapter on the different epochs. As you know there was the Adam and Eve default. This planet has some pretty bad problems so it is going to have 2 planetary princes, the invisible Machiventa and the visible Esu, a joint position for as long as needed, suggesting about 1000 years. Machiventa will remain the permanent one, unless of course something changes, and Esu is temporary. During the Adam and Eve missions great universities and the like are built, and true globalism that goes with entry into light and life is built by them, primarily.

You may have read in the UB, and I think I have that section up, but I am not sure, that probably one of Adam and Eve's children MIGHT replace them at some point. And possibly that might be true in the distance future. Basically Esu and Nada will do the work that needs doing ON the planet that the Adam and Eves do, except Nada isn't planing on having a few hundred kids, there is a different plan in place to genetically upgrade the races, but they will probably have a more normal earth sized family, but over 1000 years, who knows!

So once the earth is stable, many years down the road, Esu and Nada will depart their mission as both have further plans for climbing the celestial administrative ladder. CM is using more and more ascending sons to replace typical descending sons positions. He has 2 ascending sons already as system heads! This is part of a training program to prepare ascending sons for these roles in the new universes of outer space and I too, am on that tract, I plan in the far distance future of being a Creator Son in partnership with my soul mate. I assume I will have temporary positions along the way, and this job as a partner with CM and Esu is also directly related to gathering my own experience in leadership of this sort. This idea is covered in the UB also.

There are a lot of highly advanced ascending sons from paradise here on this planet now, gathering experience and some of you may be amongst them. Certainly all of you participating in this are making a nice resume for yourselves for later positions you may be interested in, regards management, teaching, law, the arts etc.

We also have Paradise descending Trinity Teachers Sons (Daynals) INCARNATE on this planet and two of them are on my team. That is Jess and Henning. As far as I know the rest of us are Ascending Sons. I am a Mighty Messenger, fairly recently graduated as is Tom, my soul mate. He will be walking the planet with me, he is embodied on the Capricorn right now.

If you have not read it yet, go find the piece I did with Mother Shekhmet. She is a very OLD Mighty Messenger, and wrote 3 chapters in the UB. She has worked long on this planet and some of those Egyptian lioness figures are her. She is a Paschet, which is from a group of Felines that made Paradise. Her soul origin was universe 60011, in Orvonton. I forget it's name, I think she gave it to me, in her piece with me. She wrote paper 22, 28, and 30. Read the little section about Mighty Messengers in paper 22, and you see that she mentions that her soul mate also graduated in her class, and that is one labeled Father Alcyone, or Heru, on this planet, and he wrote several of the other papers of the UB. Mother S a feline, indeed, any of the animal forms can come forth from the evolutionary process into "human."

Best be loving your kitty family members, you can never tell where you might meet them later on! Some kitties are starting to get thought adjusters on this planet, I have had 2 that did. They will be incarnating a lot for awhile, as generally to make the mansion worlds you have to be 3rd circle. They are preparing for using a human body on our other side. I haven't chatted with them for a bit, but will someday write a book on all this for kids. Title to be Conversations with Sara, What Cat's KNOW. Sara and Spicy Girl were some cats, very telepathic. I learned a lot from them.

Those of you who have read Mark Huber and the A&A, Rama and Tara, this is totally fraudulent. Mother S is NOT the captain of Nibiru and Father Alcyone is NOT our central sun. And they sell fake channelings of her, and as I have mentioned before, I listened to one of them over the phone on a teleconference once and Rama growled like crazy while pretending to be a lioness and the folks bought it, at least one of them. OK, enough on that topic. I am still not a happy camper on that one and using people that way.

Anyway, Esu and AH will build an international headquarters and will acquire quite a few universities already existing around the planet. This is planned to be in the Denver Metro area and there is already arrangements to acquire a school here of interest. The international headquarters will have an intentional community as part of it, plus schools, and of course an office complex. The different regions will have individual local headquarters, staffed by the regional directors and their staff. Hope this solves the question. Daniel Raphael chats with Machiventa and is aware of this dual position. It is not announced to the UB teaching mission groups, because they are so stuck in the UB they can't look around otherwise.

Interestingly the guy from Australia that does some of the 11:11 work, George Bernard, is STILL convinced "Sananda" is the personal thought adjuster that CM had 2000 years ago. Some folks can't look aside that and understand it, many because of George buy that idea. However, I like his work, but was worried when he dropped out for months and hope nothing went wrong. I don't know if others in the teaching mission accept Esu as the personal thought adjuster or not. But at any rate, I don't know the personal thought adjusters name, but CM has the same one NOW in his incarnate role. You can read about that in one of the pieces I did, called Many Hats of Christ Michael. He explains his role with the pPhoenix now in it too.

Someone, don't let this go to waste!!!! Put it in the file maybe with the piece I wrote introducing myself or whatever! Maybe name it's Candace's important posts for new readers or something.

Part II

HI xxxx, the Father has a bit more personal interest in this planet than the others too, it is of great importance. I have had a couple discussions with him and what needs to be done for better understanding. He is directly communicating to some incarnate celestials through personal Thought adjusters for this service.

I don't know if all of you newer readers here know or not, but NO CREATOR SON has ever embodied a second time on a planet. All of you who have taken an interest in this project, there are many blessings in that, we are all together making some huge "galactic history", going literally, where no man has gone before. I suggest if any of you have not read it yet, to also read #25 thru me, called No Other Planet has Walked Personally with Christ Michael as you shall do.

One most planets the Second Coming is the coming of higher God Consciousness with the entering of Light and life. Whoever the avonal son (or the one time only creator son) bestowal was, the Avonal or Creator Son always returns when the planet enters light and life, but they do NOT embody again. They are visible to some in the first opened morontia temple.

Monjoranson has served as an Avonal Bestowal Son before on a world in Nebadon and at some point while he is working here on the Magisterial Mission, he will return to that world for a short time when it enters light and life, as is expected fairly soon.

And xxxx, there is a morontia temple in Nebadon's area under the Himalayas, for celestia visits, as that is a special area of sufficient monopolar vibration. There will also be a small area here in Colorado before the planet is into light and life, that can be created by elevating the vibration of an auditorium, probably at a university, but we won't have a full public one until we are in Light and life.

The initial purpose of the UB, is to help awaken the high level starseeds incarnate here. Of course it will serve a very long time to those of this planet, and the reason we have it, is because of the Correcting Time and CM returning. It was known of course when it was given, he would be returning, although no date was given. But it was ordered into print just after CM returned. When I finally let myself buy it, I couldn't put it down for a long time, the memories just streamed like crazy. But I was a tad confused about certain things left out, like reincarnation, but that was to protect the star seeds coming in, as the dark side goes for blood, to remove them.

I was encouraged to look at it in about 1996 or 97 when I was in a bookstore with my daughter. It got my attention and I put it back because of the story of Christ. I had quite literally "had it" up my neck with Christians and being informed I was going to rot in hell for not joining this that or the other church etc. My ex husbands mother was really bad in that regard. But I ran into plenty.

I finally bought it in late 2000 or early 2001 as I was continuously urged to do so. It was a bit pricey at the time, and I would initially just read bits of it in the bookstore, but finally I had a little money and got it. I finally had time to myself in early 2000 when the last of my adult children (and grandchildren) were out on their own. I had to do some pushing and shoving so I could have my house to myself, which I needed desperately to be able to grow into this.
