Kibo & Ben - Radio Show - 2 hour.

Intro by KiboDabi

I do so love writing introductions.....don't know why.....

WARNING! This transcript and the original podcast are rated SD for Spiritually Discerning. Only real, authentic, God searching, God finding, God knowing Human Beings who are not pretentious assholes that get easily upset over what they consider the use of 'bad' language in order to hide their own depravities, sins, transgressions, inequities and such as they judge and condemn their brothers and sisters in the Great Bond of Life, Eternal and Infinite for being what they consider to be... other, or different, or lesser, or sinners, or heathens, or any of the other thousands of things that people on this planet have been conditioned to believe in order to keep them ignorant and separate from God, themselves and each other so that they may be more easily controlled by the evil, psychotic fucks that believe that they are the ones that are chosen by God to rule the world as the only human beings and that all others are slaves, or that they are part of some higher, otherground Family bloodline as representatives of Lucifer who are here to make things better through mass negativity which will allow them to go to a better place of negativity that will allow them to make up for all the pain and suffering and death and darkness they caused so that they can finally return back to the higher realms with a pat on the back and a 'Good job' and the after party and then resume business as usual in greater unity with all things.....as true servants of The One.....should read this transcript.....for you out there that are very nice people but too sensitive for words like shit and fuck...i regret that you are being faced with the choice to have or not to have this experience and hope that you will be able to get through it without only seeing the words that upset you as if they were blinders that keep you from experiencing everything else that is there.....this is the part where you run away screaming for your own sense of.....whatever.....

INTRODUCTION TO WHATEVER THIS IS

Right now, as you read these words, there are people loving each other. There are children laughing and playing with great joy in their hearts. There are elders that breathe in the song of the morning and breathe out the song of the evening. There are people being kind and generous and excellent to each other in recognition of themselves in God and God in themselves.

It is also happening on this planet.

So amidst all the gloom and doom and death and destruction, war and government terrorism....gender manipulation, racial manipulation, educational manipulation, religious manipulation, global intrigue, perverse banking procedures and practices, sexual perversions, satanic perversions, slavery, child abuse, adult abuse, homelessness, starvation, pharmaceutical poisoning, environmental poisoning, mental poisoning.....shall I continue?

In the midst of all of that are people of great faith and courage in the face of all adversity and opposition. There is, actually....in my opinion....not just a matter of light being in the darkness, but more of a matter of darkness fading within the light.

The thing about darkness is that it is a creature made thing. So much energy has been given to negative will, intent and actions that it took on a life of its own. All that dark negativity gathered itself together and fed on whatever food it could find in the creatures of time and space.

This planet has been a veritable feast.

But whose fault is that? If we could just stop feeding it with our fear and negativity....it would die.....

Who is to blame for all of this.....shit? – say what you will, but there is no better word for it. It is the refuse that has been generated from within us. There was a time when we did not generate such.....stuff...things.....but that was long, long, long ago.....Lemuria sank and Atlantis was already failing by then.....Lucifer rebelled and the great war was set forth. Lines were drawn in the stars and we found ourselves behind enemy lines....as it were....quarantined and cut off from the greater universe. We were contained within a false system of egoic pride and self satisfaction. DO AS THOU WILT was the order of the day given by the pretentious and pretended, local top of the new and temporary food chain = Lucifer.

This planet has been through so much shit it's legendary. Our system crashed. Our planetary prince sold us out. The Adam and Eve were isolated and vulnerable to relentless assault, resulting in their default. Races, positive and negative, have set up shop here over the millenniums. The Anunnaki being the latest.....Fallen angelics were sent here as a matter of imprisonment, making this a prison planet, along with everything else. The Orion syndicate came and went, at will, setting up shop to expand their influence.....please to be reminded that their priesthood was not happy and fought the good fight to turn the faces of their people to the Light of The Living One.....

The Pleiadians, for the most part, supported Christ Michael of Nebadon, with the remaining remnant not wanting to have anything to do with this.....bullshit....hence the Pleiadians Renegades. They just wanted to be themselves and not get caught up in what they perceived to be a whole lotta crap that didn't really have anything to do with anything. They wanted peace, love and understanding and to be able to continue their way up the Great Path without the hindrance of The Rebellion and Lucifer's insane manifesto...nor was serving the Spiritual Hierarchy by joining the Galactic Federation's war in physicality an attractive option. It was only through the efforts of Merlin/St. Germaine, that they were able to completely come to terms with the issues at hand and energetically support Christ Michael on the higher levels of being, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. While this resulted in some joining the fray, the greater part still refused to support violence and harm in physicality and I can't blame them for that....let's face it, war sucks. It's not that they were afraid, far from it, but they felt that energetic support was enough and the karma of physical war, with it's death and destruction held undesired diversions from their path to perfection. They were willing to help and lend support to The Light, just not to fight and kill for it.....I do so love the Pleiadians...

If only everyone felt that way on both sides.....this whole thing might not have happened.

The Sirians, as well as the Lyrans came to terms and supported the Banner of Christ Michael, as have many others in Nebadon. The entire universe has grown stronger in the great struggle and the Light reigns supreme because of it.

So many races had settled and colonized this planet that it became a seed planet. Mind you it was all by Divine design in CM but the experience of it was exciting, nonetheless. In spite of the quarantine on the forces of darkness, the Light persisted to manifest itself here. The greatest manifestation, so far, was the bestowal of Christ Michael in Esu Immanuel as the one called Jesus Christ.

That life was the way. It was the clear path. It served as one of the greatest examples of faith and devotion to the doing of The Paradise Father's Will ever to be experienced and witnessed in the realms of time and space, bar none. It was the manifestation of God on Earth, in the flesh as human being. The enemies of God, who felt that the planet belonged to them and that they wanted to keep it, saw to it that their puppet minions murdered Him to make an example of their power, yet it was to no avail. The bestowal incarnation succeeded in rendering final judgment upon Lucifer, Satan, The Dark Alliance and their Earth minions. It did not kill God. How could it? God had used His incarnation to create a powerful and growing, energetic space of Light that has grown in spite of all of the attacks against it throughout these past two thousand years. There is Light in the darkness and the darkness is surrounded by Light. There is no escape and no recourse. The people of the lie, the Pharisee priests of the temple of Satan and Lucifer and all who follow and support them, even unto this present moment, took the weight of that action upon themselves and their children.....and have fought that weight, tooth and nail, ever since. They are the adversary and will destroy everything rather than surrender.....but surrender they will...without destroying anything more. So be it and so it is.

Ye ones that exist here, at this time, are witnesses to one of the greatest events ever to be experienced in the realms of time and space. The return of Christ Michael Aton and Esu Immanuel to this small, out of the way planet....with a host of legions of armies called The Galactic Federation Of Light. You're witnessing the end of the matrix system of darkness and lies. You are witnessing the unraveling of the fabric of what passes for reality in order that God may make a whole new cloth. You will soon feel the full effect of the Divine energetic Heart Wave from Paradise that will place you fully within absolute awareness of I AS I AM in all and each of us. Some call it zero time point or zero point.....I call it The Pulse. It is a Pulse of The Heartbeat of God Itself. We are witnessing the ending and new beginning of thirty cycles of being/awareness....think of a clock with thirty hands...all at midnight.....This is, indeed, the great harvest. This is graduation and there is pass, repeat and fail...

This planet, beloved Gaia, will ascend and the enduring servants of GOD IN LIGHT AND LIFE AND LOVE will ascend with her. There are plans for the dark ones and the remnant will either go to their homes in other places, or be held to repeat the dimensional experience again...26,000+ years...until they get it right and ascend on their own, or make the grade at the end of the next age. But such a number of cycles all converging will not happen again for many millions and millions of years...far beyond the next age. What happens here and now is beyond words and worth it just to be here....in my humble opinion.

Lucifer has been uncreated. BELIEVE IT!!! It was his own fault and he could have opted out for a better result. But, for him, this was what he considered to be the best result, in light of his continued and repeated failures at creating his own 'universe within a universe'.....so to speak. He no longer wanted to be subject to THE FATHER'S WILL. For those that think that they're going to be rewarded with a cycle of 4th density negativity to make up for what they were told were their jobs....please to think again...you were lied to.....well...at least ye ones here.....those from other places have already exercised their options. The Anunnaki went into the light back in the nineties.

The greys will cease to be and will be energetically divvied out for further rehabilitation. The Draconians will also be looking for an energetic change. The reptilian races will be no more as they are being phased out.

Ye ones that are here and expecting another whole cycle to work out the accrued karma for your dark causes and effects...well...that came from Lucifer and doesn't stand. Ye ones will get a thousand years in the void...which you should see as a blessing since it cuts down on your rehab time considerably. You should be resolved by then and will be set forth to be tested and those that fail will have to start over completely. The lies you have spread have been incredulous. Thank CM for His mercy upon you for when the Wave hits even ye ones, you will see the full measure of the lies you have been given to operate in and even you will be amazed that ones such as you could be so used. Be humble in the sight of The Living One and praise Him for His loving kindness towards all, for even ye are His children. Return to His Light and continue to the perfection that was promised to all that are willing to accept it and walk in God and His Light and Love and Life.....and let Him walk in ye ones, as well.

Here is the great choice that each of us has to make. The quarantine that was put into place by CM and the Hierarchy to contain the dark infection, has been lifted and the rest of the universe is flooding in! The energetic wave of The Father's Will and Intent, His Love and Light, is upon us, even as we speak. Soon and very soon, we will all experience The Heart of God as a living thing. We exist within the consciousness of Creator and the consciousness of Creator exists within us....each of us, all of us. But we exist because of the Love that He holds for His Creation....HE/SHE/IT is a living thing, THE LIVING THING. THE ONLY THING THAT EXISTS IN REALITY. IT IS REALITY.

THE ONE Loves All in It's Self because It is ItSelf in All.....hence my lil' ol' motto:

GOD IS ALL ARE WE ARE ONE ARE WE ARE ALL IS GOD

In linear fashion, you have two gods....heheh.....kinda dualistic, isn't it?

But in non-linear mode....hence the eternal circle thing and the divine, infinite mind symbol inside... There is one God, and that's the way it is and the way it should be.....

Commercial break.....[shameless advertising]

I know, I know.....but the words you are reading here and listen to in the podcast, in my small attempt to be of service to my and our Creator.....are all for free.

But God doesn't need your money, in spite of what your televangelist preacher says.....I need your money.....and I prefer to give something of material value for it and let you choose whether or not you want to pay to have it or make use of it. I will never condemn you for passing the offer by and will always love you like a cousin/brother/sister...no matter what.....tell that to your priest/preacher/rabbi/imam/ guru.....you'll just have to forgive me for trying to pay the bills.....the concept of phony instruments of debts, monopoly money has always been hard for me to get a realistic handle on. Trying to find a way to keep going until the promised day in ways that support light and life and love and God and human awareness and upliftment and higher spirituality while staying out of the hands of dark manipulators that insist upon overpriced seminars and tours that spew out rainbows and lollipops or doom and gloom and impossible promises and overcomplicated lies so deep that nothing can be proven or disproven.....is difficult. Spirit doesn't compromise. Either you are doing the work or you're not. I'm working and you're reading the result of that work. The t-shirts are tools to help enhance all that and are designed to work as hard as you do. I regret needing money at all and spend several moments everyday giving energy to the destruction of such a lying system of manipulation and pray that enough of us can do the same and create enough energy that is impervious to manipulation and powerful enough to manifest said matrix destruction.

Sort of a GOD OCCUPIED EARTH movement....well....exactly that. Until then.....hey, I'm tryin'...

So I highly urge each and every one of you to do and/or create something that is energetically uplifting and spiritually and consciously positive and in service to The Divine...and thus each other and ourselves. Let's flood the world with the light we create....music, inventions, art, literature, media, industry, and, as far as possible, do it without and away from the people that we reject....grow your own food, make your own clothes, trade and barter, reuse and use natural things and keep trying and keep sharing and keep your eye on the goal = perfection in GOD. Be as God is. Light and Life and Love and Mind. GOD THINKS! So we all have to do the same! God thinks of all and everything.....we're getting there and it does take practice.....you are the field of operation that you are aware of.]

Now.....back to it.....

If you could stand on the Edge of The Paradise Isle and look out at the great expanse...the panorama of endless creation...the Havona worlds and the superuniverses, the universe of universes and the evolving universes and new universes that are forming, even now.....if you could see the glory of the light...the majesty of the sound, the song and the songs, the artistry and science of it...how it all blends in to itself and changes and is one thing....like a picture that goes from ocean to beach to land to sky...and yet is one picture....a balanced equation that involves, explores and answers all and everything.....i cannot begin to explain it all on the vast planes and levels and dimensions and densities....above and below and side to side and sideways and angled and straight and curved and within and without and both being the same at once.....and yet, all of that is within you and me and all of us. It is inherent in what we are...we are what we are as I Am What I Am in I Am What I Am.....There is a reason why the name of God is "I". When you say I this and I that and the energy you put into yourself and things and stuff....that is how you take the name of God in vain. You act in vain because you invoke and involve the name of God in all you are and do...yet you leave Him out of it in your awareness and understanding and your love and will and intent and your refusal to accept, understand and know that you act in each other...so you act alone...and it is in vain.

You fight the evil in vain when you leave God out of it. You live in vain when you leave God out of your life. Be God's experience of you being you in you as you. That is what you are...God thinking of Himself as you.....be that....make it a good experience for the both of you.

Kibo & Ben - Radio Show

Ben: Good evening folks. Welcome. Thank you for joining us. This is a first, this is not Radio Freemantle. This is Radio AH. This is Radio AbundantHope. This is something a little different and very special. I'm sitting here talking today to, I would like to say, a very good friend of mine and I'm so delighted and excited that he's agreed to do this crazy thing; and his name is Kibo Dabi. A lot of you folks out there listening on this particular AH radio channel will be familiar with his work. He's quite a prolific writer. He's a bit of a spiritual junkie and he's agreed to sit down with me today. Kibo, are you hearing me on the other end?

Kibo: Yeah, uh

Ben: (laughing). You are...fantastic...you're hearing me loud and clear. How are you today man?

Kibo: I'm here. Well that's the Spirit!

Ben: That's a start, right? That's an important beginning and a lot of people don't get that far so we're already up on a lot of people.

Now, um...I wanted to start today if I can...I'm just going to intro it like this...basically with something that I found on your website...<http://www.kibodabi.wordpress.com>.

Kibo: That's a blog.

Ben: Yeah, that's a blog. That's the one where you do a lot of your fine work and I wanted to just mention this one today...It's called "I Saw This Today." It's posted on 29 August. It's one of the most recent, I think it is the most recent something that you put on there. I'm just going to read it; its brief, but I want to read it. It goes like this:

I take the train everyday from one end of Chicago to the other. This morning down on the sidewalk, upside down, from my point of view, and written in several colors, was this...

Here is the world.

Beautiful and terrible things will happen.

Don't be afraid.

Please help spread the word.

Thanks, Kibo.

OK...beautiful. Tell me about this. You're on the train. You saw this thing. What's so special about this Kibo? What was it about, pointing about this thing that you wanted to mention it on your blog?

Kibo: Well, I'm glad I learned to read upside down. It wasn't there the day before that I can tell. But somebody took the time to write in beautiful colors, something that they thought would be helpful. What gets to me later I think Steve brought it up that it was from another work and it was only a part of that work. And actually it was more about God and he was trying to say than the person who wrote it on the sidewalk was willing to put down. He, basically what he did, was he took a part of it that he resonated with and he felt that everybody should be able to resonate with whether they believe in God or not. Either he didn't want to take that chance or he didn't believe it or he just wanted that but he put that down there. But the whole message, well, I mean, this is the truth. Shit will happen to you...good shit and bad shit will happen to you. Do not be afraid. And this is what we've been trying to get people to understand. There's nothing to fear. Fear is an illusion. There is nothing to fear. DO NOT FEAR.

Ben: Right, so...

Kibo: For them to take the time to write that out in such a way where it actually got the exposure, not just from people walking by on the sidewalk but from idiots like me who see it from the train. And I just felt that if anyone wanted to go through all that trouble the least I could do was help.

Ben: Yeah...well it is true man. I mean beautiful and terrible things happen and you know depending if you're a half glass full or a half glass empty type, you might say there's more terrible than beautiful things right now and there's a lot of fear around that, you know. There's a lot going on that we don't understand...there's a lot going on that we haven't quite learned how to, you know, make sense of and it's scaring a lot of people. I think the fear thing is definitely still riding high on the waves and affecting everybody's lives. I mean, how do we get rid of this fear thing? How do we do it? I mean, I know we gotta....I think a lot of the fear thing is the unknown, right? It's basically unknown. That's where it all stems from.

Kibo: I don't...you can say it's unknown. I know people who are afraid of the known. They know what they're afraid of. They're afraid of losing their houses...they're afraid of being homeless. They're afraid of getting shot in the street. They're afraid of car crashes. They're afraid of their loved ones leaving them. They're afraid of this, they're afraid of that. Hell, if you had time to be afraid of the unknown. (laughing) You're afraid of the next president; you're afraid of the one you got now. (both laughing)...You're afraid...you're afraid because they give you all this stuff and tell you, and give you reasons to be afraid. And that keeps you unbalanced and that keeps you easy to control. Why does that keep you easy to be controlled? Because, in my eyes anyway, you are...all of that stuff is the perception of material things. You are afraid of a material experience that will cause you pain on whatever level it causes you pain. It will either cause you physical pain, mental pain, or emotional pain.

Ben: [.....]

Kibo: Well, that depends on how you look at yourself. If you look at yourself as a physical creature then you will be afraid of physical things. If you look at yourself as a spiritual creature your physical things become nothing but an experience and we're training in understanding and walking in God and God walking in you. You come to understand that this is all just an experience; it's just one life you can do this. There is actually nothing to be afraid of because you were created as a forever thing. And all of this pain and fear and everything is simply a material illusion for the sake of experience and demonstration and it is up to you to recognize your true self as a spiritual being and understand that this is nothing. What have you to be afraid of? You are a forever creature. You are one in the consciousness of the Creator who is actually you. You cannot die. That pain is a perception of pain. You can train yourself to go beyond the pain physically. I mean there are guys out there, you know, you've got those black op guys who can just hold their hand over the flame ...I mean it's nothing. Why? They train themselves in perception. They have no fear of this. They train themselves not to fear that. Hell, some of them even like it. But that's beside the point.

The thing is. It's just a material thing in consciousness and perception. You can get over that. You can go through anything. You can be surprised what you can go through. And once you get there you go...Oh shoot, that was nothing! I lived to tell the tale. And all that fear that you had in that...why was I so damned afraid. I don't know why...I was afraid ever before I went to living through it and when I went through it I realized it was nothing! It's you know, really, what am I about that I was afraid of that? What is it?

You are taught to be afraid and you were taught to be afraid for a specific reason. And in order to keep you afraid they keep throwing shit at you to make you afraid. And as long as you believe in that fear, you will be subject to it. I understand how hard it is to get over that fear. I am 55 years and I've just gotten to the point where you know what? Screw it.

For two months they had an angel behind my back and like that guy who tells the Roman general “you were just a man”, “you are just a man”...cause he comes home and everybody would be cheering him and like you know, he was all of that. He had somebody behind him whispering in his ear to remind him that he wasn't. So they sent me somebody who would just whisper in my ear all the time “there is nothing to fear...fear is an illusion...fear is nothing...there is nothing to fear...fear is an illusion...it has no meaning.” Tell that to yourself for two or three months every moment of your life and see if you give a shit about fear anymore.

What are you afraid of, pain? Big deal. How long will this pain last? Death...wooo...wow! When you wake up from that you will realize that it was nothing. Losing this, losing that; nothings lost, it was part of life. You learn from it. And OK...you don't like it but OK, I'm still here. The things you fear are the things you give yourself because you acted from a position of fear. You let that fear color your actions because you were afraid.

Now if you stop being afraid and realize that it's just shit...we go through shit all the time. I was afraid of shit when I was a kid, like on that high diving board. But I jumped. After that, I was up there 5 times a day when I went to the pool. When I was afraid of the high diving board, until I got up on the high diving board and jumped off the high diving board, I wasn't trying to do anything fancy, you know...3 and ½ square reverse turn [...]... you know, I was just happy if my feet were headed in the right direction, but I went off the board. Nothing!! What was I afraid of? It seemed so high because it was a perception thing. Shits going to happen; don't be afraid, because at the end of the day when it's all over it's just lessons learned man.

Here on the planet where...oh yeah...there are people who are afraid to come to this friggin' planet. Look at where you are! You had the courage to come here and you're going to be afraid of this shit? You're going to let them beat you like that? Hell No! Learn...learn to look them in the face and go pfzzzzzzzzzzzz...I ain't afraid of you, you piece of ...you're just doing your job and I understand; now leave me alone.

Ben: Yeah....

Kibo: What of you got to be afraid of; shits going to happen whether you're afraid of it or not. So why be afraid? If it happens it happens for a reason, it has a purpose...get through it.

Ben: Yeah...well man that makes sense, but I still, I gotta tell you that it still most of the driving factor on this planet...this fear. And you told me the other day, we had this conversation...a couple of day ago you were talking, I mean you're a positive guy. And you seem to be, to me, a positive guy. I'm serious man, you came across real positive. I said to you that it was hard to pull ourselves out. We need a lot of help. You remember that? I said that we need a lot of help?

Kibo: But I've learned to be a positive guy because I have experienced that help.

Ben: OK.

Kibo: I am still in this house where you're speaking to me now because of that help. A year ago when I was...I woke up every morning going AHHHH! I mean that how I woke up in the morning. You talk about fear I was one fearful motherfucker...and when it was all over I said SHIT! How the hell that did that happen? Somebody said this, they sent me that...this happened, that happened and God bless them [...] but the whole thing was there in the first place...how long ago ...[.....] God bless you. I love you. For somebody, how many years ago did that happen and ...what, how? It can only come from one direction. I am walking in alignment and attunement in god and God is walking in me and I can learn to rest in that and walk without fear. What have I to fear? What the hell can man do to me? I had to learn that. And it was a hard ass lesson to learn. Even though I should be freaking out now, I'm not. My 5 year mortgage is up on the 28th of this month. I don't have the money. I can get kicked out of my house by October. I have no idea what's going to happen and I have no idea what's going to be done, I have no idea if I'm going to be here or not. All I know is that for some strange reason I have no fear of the situation because I'm looking at something bigger and I'm trusting that. And I know whatever's supposed to be here or somewhere whatever happens as long as it's God's will I don't care. As long as I am doing God's will, as long as I'm where God wants me to be...and I know that, I'm good.

Ben: God's will can be, you know, you're ass out on the street...can that be God's will as well?

Kibo: Yes...

Ben: And you're gonna be fine with that?

Kibo: Yeah, I have to be.

Ben: I mean that's rough man. What type of god does that man?

Kibo: Well, let's see. Ummm...

Ben: See, that's the problem. That's the problem. You're saying terrible shit happens and that we should be OK with that and we should be willing to deal the cards we're dealt and still realize that it doesn't mean anything in the grand scheme of things. But the problem we got is people are getting their asses kicked out of their homes, people are getting their children taken away, there are bombs going off; there are drones in the sky, there is some crazy shit out there and people aren't asking the question, "What the hell is God doing?"

Kibo: God is waiting for us to do his will.

Ben: OK, let me get this right. So, the stuff that's going down...you know, there's a lot of pain out there and you've been telling us now that the pain is nothing to fear, you've got nothing to fear...the pain. Fine, you've got nothing to fear the pain and this stuff that's happening...if the pains not important, the pain doesn't mean anything....

Kibo: I didn't say it wasn't important. I didn't say it didn't mean anything. I said don't fear it.

Ben: Don't fear it. OK, OK...alright. So it's important, it has purpose but not necessarily to cause us grief and anguish. Can we accept that statement?

Kibo: You can be in grief...you can be in anguish. Don't fear it.

Ben: OK, alright. But the thing is we've got this stuff going down and people are screaming now, screaming more than ever. Where the hell is God?

Kibo: Apparently not enough people are screaming, are they? If they are still picking up their guns to go to fight, they are still at the Republican convention, they are still at the Democratic convention, they are still waiting Jihad, they are still pointing guns at each other, then they are still doing this stuff that they are complaining about. They are still hating their neighbors...OK...they are still listening to the lies. They are wondering why they are in the bed of their own making. And they are complaining about it because they have done what they have wanted to do. They have put their wills ahead of God's will. They have put their hatred of each other in front of God and loving each other. They have not loved the Lord Thy God with all their heart and soul and they have not loved thy neighbor as thyself. They do not love each other as each other. They do not recognize themselves in God. They are living the lie. And because they are living the lie, they are feeling the effects of the lie. And that is on them. And they can complain all they want but it's their own fault. When they put down the gun, when they tell the cabal "fuck you and your money", when they stand up as one and they look to God and see God was in them and as one people they join hands and they say, "You know what God, your will, will be done"; whenever it may be let us fulfill it in ourselves. We are complaining because we are experiencing the effects of our own wills. That is what free will is all about. We have chosen our will. We are looking at everything from our perspective. We are not looking at it from God's perspective. And I know that is a hard thing to do for an ascending creature; but it can be done. They are not listening. They have not heard. They are not realizing. They are letting their differences come between them, which I understand; it's a human thing to do. But all of this shit...yes... I know all of this shit is going on...but what are we doing about it? We are telling people visualize the new world, hell! Visualize making the new world. Visualize no war. Visualize making no war. Visualize people putting down their guns. Visualize kids not joining the military because they don't have anywhere to go. Make it possible for them to have somewhere else to go. Make it possible for these kids out here on the street to have something to do other than to run around and sell crack and shoot at each other. You don't like the educational system get your kids out of it and teach them something real. You want God to take care for you like you're a baby or do you want to stand up like a spiritual adult on your own two feet and say "Damn it Dad, I'm with you".

I'm sick of this shit and I know that you are too. Well we still do it. We let ourselves be lied to. We like the lie; tell me those lies; make me happy man. I got lightworkers everywhere now signing up on the site for Cobra because Cobra said that they were going to give them money because they know they were poor put upon lightworkers. And now he's going to go around giving speeches so they can find out what these people who signed up look like. They're the Galactic Federation that's going to show a ship if it looks like Obama's going to have a hard time being re-elected but if it looks like he's going to win and everything's going to be fine we'll show up after the election. This is what they just put out. I don't understand it, because this is what people do. They want to be told, that they want to believe that...they're not in themselves. This is what they want to hear. They want somebody to come and save them. I understand. Hell, I want somebody to come and save me too, but I have to earn it. You have to walk the walk and talk the talk.

Ben: What do we go to do to earn it man, what do we got to do to earn it? I'm sure everybody wants to earn it right now. I mean they don't know exactly they want to earn but they know that they gotta earn something because what they're getting right now is not a whole lot.

Kibo: Do what you were told to do.

Ben: Man, but we don't have anyone telling us to do anything. All we have is our word.

Kibo: The words have been there for two thousand years. That word hasn't changed. They could not keep it out of the book. The word was there. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and soul, thy mind and strength. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. If you can do that... the Master told you the Kingdom of God is within you. Go up to the Kingdom. It is within you. Don't listen to me. Don't listen to them. Don't listen to the channels. All the people saying anything, you know what? It's in you. Sit down. Turn everything else off and give yourself completely to the One who made you because he is in you. He is you! You think you are somebody. You are God being you. It is time you recognized that and acted accordingly. If we could do that, we wouldn't have any of this shit. But we wanted to be ruled by men and God let us. Now, what do we have? "And that which I do ye may also do and more. The hills will skip like little lambs for you." "Why, know ye not ye are gods?" Why can you not act like gods? That is what you are. Ye are gods learning to be gods.

Ben: I don't feel like a god, man.

Kibo: Who does? It doesn't matter. When you get to the point where you are making your own creation and administrating and maintaining your own creation, your universe and making it perfect, you will have a definite feeling for the charges that you created. You will know them. You will know what you are sending them through because you have been there. And they will have to go through the same shit. There is no other way. Everything cannot be rainbows and unicorns and lollipops. It would be nice, but you would be weak. You have to have something to strive for. There must be a challenge. There must be something to prove your resolve. In the face of all adversity to find peace and war, love. In the face of all chaos and hatred, light in the darkness and they send you. You shine with that light.

You want people to change. You can't change people. Change yourself. Be that light; be that light out on the street. Be that light in action Do the things that light does. Do the things that God does in you and other people will see you and go "damn" ...and they're gonna want to be like you. And it will grow. We treat each other with respect. We are excellent to each other. We pick up trash off the street. We feed the homeless. We offer hugs to little children when they are crying. We return things that others have lost. We do not steal. We do not cheat. We do not take advantage of each other. We live the life of God. And you let that grow because more people are doing because you're doing it and the people who see you want to be like you, because you want to be like God. And God gives it to you to do so. Because if you could just open yourself up to God and actually realize you are God...you are a character of God...be an actor now, act like God. Let God walk in you and know you walk in God. You are the same being. He's just you. He's being you. You are his idea of you. Now he has let you go your own way because he knows eventually you'll figure it out, one way or the other. You can do it this age, the next age or even the age after. Time is nothing. One life is nothing. When we go through all this shit and we scream and shout and yes we are hurting...we don't like it. There's a lot of crap I don't like but you know what, I know where it goes. It's just one life... I can do this.

And you know, two blocks away from me people got shot down. We heard it. We heard the shots; getting closer. And I know... I know...I know...what can I do? All I can do is the best I can do and try to be more light at the darkness. That's all I can do. I can't change their mind. What am I gonna tell some grand gangbanger he can't do what he's doing because he's making more money in a week then I can in a month. What am I supposed to tell him, his life that he believes in? He's got his life that he believes in. Oh, I'm going to tell him about God? What has God done for him lately? He doesn't know; he doesn't care. God don't pay him money. You know, God don't get me women, God don't get me bling. God don't get me a new car. God don't pay the bills. Actually, yes he does, but not if you're gonna be like this.

Ben: Doesn't seem like God's really into the stuff that we're into.

Kibo: Actually, yes he is, but it is a matter of energetics. You have to understand who and what you are. You have to understand that actually, yes, you are God in action and if you were willing to have that relationship with God, being one with God, then to listen, I mean to really develop hearing, which is one of the hardest things to do because there's so much in the way. I have to worry constantly about what I'm filtering. You want to get to the core of it without hindrance; you want to do it without anything in the way. And if you can get to that point and then...it's just not easy; but the thing is that you're trying and that's really what matters; you're trying. People die trying. So because they died trying, they're much better off in between and in the next life. I mean really, it means a lot.

Ben: You're allowed to try?

Kibo: Yeah! Trying is everything man!

Ben: So failure, there's no failure...there's just trying or not trying. There's no success and failure. Trying is success is it?

Kibo: You get nothing without trying. The Book of Urantia tells you that. You talk about success or failure like depending on what you think success or failure is...material success or failure or is there spiritual success or failure? And if its spiritual, well personally, and this is just me now, I think there's nothing but success as long as you try. However slow you may be on the path, I myself am crawling on all fours, (laughing) and as long as I'm making progress I don't care. I mean, sometimes I feel like I'm going in leaps and bounds and sometimes I feel like I'm just flat out on the ground and the only thing I got going are my fingers.

Ben: I feel like that to...you know the crawling. It's a really good way to put it. Sometimes its crawling and I think I'm supposed to be some kind of, you know, more advanced individual than most, maybe...and you know I'm crawling man; its fingertips; its nail biting.

Kibo: Yeah but I'm trying, I'm moving. I got turtles passing me by. (both laughing) I'm movin'...Ok, and that's all that matters to me. This is me and I can't do nothin' for nobody else. I gotta, you know, I gotta get there. I can't get anybody else there. I can mark a rock along the way and if somebody notices it that helps. But the fact that they're there to notice the rock means they're trying. I ain't tellin' nobody nothin new. And I ain't savin' nobody. All I'm doing is giving my experience and sharing and praying to God that somewhere along the line something I did helped; if I helped anybody I'm grateful. But if I helped anybody it's because I helped myself first. I gotta be there in order to tell you where it is because I learned from the people who told me where it was. That's how I got there. I got [...]. I got people along the way that I've known and loved and they have helped me immensely to learn and to be where I am now. I wouldn't be here without em', because we all shared. We did that. We were there for each other one way or another whether we knew it or not or meant to or not. We were there for each other just like the guy who wrote that thing on the sidewalk. We were there for each other. The people that you meet on the street, you were there for each other. You talked to them. You helped them; they help you. You learn from everybody and everything. You learn from the wind, man. You got to take everything as a spiritual experience because that's what it is. It's a spiritual experience in consciousness of awareness for the sake of demonstration and experience. You are perfection becoming perfect. You are perfect becoming perfection.

Ben: Perfection becoming perfect...that doesn't make it. I don't get that one. How can you be perfect and then being working towards perfection? But If you're perfect why are you working?

Kibo: Because you have to understand what it means.

Ben: To be perfect...

Kibo: Yes

Ben: And we can find that here?

Kibo: You can find that anywhere. You can find that everywhere. You think this is your first life? You think this is your last life? This is all about you becoming perfect.

Ben: This place doesn't look perfect to me man.

Kibo: So?...

Ben: You have to look harder to see the perfection in this place.

Kibo: How do you fight a forest fire?

Ben: Well, not with fire.

Kibo: Yeah, you ever heard of..... what do they call it...I fought a fire once when I was in college. We were watching Sound of Music and they came in and said "Hey, you want to fight a forest fire? OK, sure! It's like that...you know...so we're out there with the [.....] and basically what they did was...the fire was ahead of us and they had burned something before the fire. We were helping to put that secondary fire out. I forget what they call it but what that does is it holds back the fire...the main fire. It takes away what it has to burn. You can fight a fire with fire. You know, perfection is hard to see from the inside, that's why you have to be able to look at it from the outside in. You have to look at the whole journey instead of just the step you're on. You have to be able to have the imagination to realize that this is just a small point in the total picture. And that this, what you consider to be imperfection, is actually helping to make everything perfect; because this will be over one day. And when this is over then the new thing begins and everybody goes oooo,ahhhh...but it wouldn't be as great as it was if we hadn't had gone through this shit. And it had meaning much more glorious because we did. And those of us that are staying here to help out are that much more glorious and courageous because we went through this shit!

And we can teach others and they can learn from us. And so perfection is added on to become the perfection that it is in actuality. Right now we're all potentials but we're creating an actual thing and we're all in this together. We are helping Christ Michael Aton in the growing of his creation and to the perfection that it is meant to be. And in order to do that there has to be an alternative...everything can't be rainbows and unicorns. You gotta go through shit to understand what shit is.

And the only time you can stop shit is when you've been through shit. And after this shit we'll never let this shit happen again...(ben laughing)

Ben: (Still laughing)...that was beautiful man. (both laughing some more)...You oughta write that down.

Kibo: I mean...come on...People tell me you should give yourself more credit. In some ways yes...and some ways no. I recognize who and what I am and I allow myself small moments of appreciation. You'll forgive me for this, but sometimes I do it just to entertain myself. (both laughing)....Before we started today I had gotten dressed and I got my interview clothes on...I thought I'm going to wear this. This is nice, it's natural and everything and I got up in front of my wife and said "I am beautiful! Look at me in my magnificence and sigh!" ...and she just looked and me like...yeah right...(both laughing)....and I said...hey, hey...once a life I am allowed!! It's OK to love yourself. Yeah, OK...none of us are 'perfect'. We got a long way to go but damn it, appreciate how far you've come. Give yourself a little credit. Pat yourself on the back once in a while. Say to God...thanks again. And God will say, "Well hell, you did half the work." Well, yes, thanks anyway. I'll say thank you. That's a relationship. OK?

I keep telling you people, God is your Father, God is your friend, God is the guy who can sit on the couch with you and talks to you while you watch TV. And if you really develop that relationship and you have that conversation all the time, you would be amazed. Because he's Right there...Forgive me, you know, this is where I am. This is what I do. This is what I have all the time. I have these constant conversations now...this is where I am. You're watching TV and you're having this conversation and you have to do it on your level you know as you wake yourself up, the conversation gets better. But basically they can't go beyond what you can deal with. So you know, you're sitting watching this TV and something comes on and you hear that celestial voice go "You really believe that shit?" No..."Why do you watch that? What the f...?" Well it's something, but I...look I know this is shit...but it's entertaining shit. "Yeah, but there isn't anything better on?"...I dunno...check the guide...(both laughing)...That's me and God.

Ben: That seems so casual man.

Kibo: It is casual. That's what I'm trying to get people to see...

Ben: Yeah but you're...you know...you're celestial royalty. The rest of us, we're shit kickers down here.

Kibo: But that is my understanding from an ascending point of view. You don't want to hear my understanding from a Descending point of view.

Ben: I don't know if we have the time...you know...

Kibo: All of this is coming from what I consider the human part of me. I'm still trying to deal with that, you know, Descending Son. And you know I'm like OK...I can deal with it, I can accept it but I can't move a corn flake across the table. The only thing that affords me that I can see that other people don't do, is that I'm willing to look at things more from the stand point of Source and Center. That's it. That might be the only advantage I have and I don't think it's much of an advantage because other people do this to. I don't think it's anything new; it's just something I do all the time. I think it's a mistake to just look at things from a human view point. I think you have to look at things from the position of your God center because that's what you are...that's what you're here for. You're here to do God's will which means you have to see things from his point of view to see how that relates to your point of view and how that works. And then you start seeing the nuances in life...why did I see that writing on the sidewalk? Why did it show up there? Why am I having this conversation with this person? How did it turn out that way?

It's like I told you the other day...I had a woman come and talk to me and we had this whole energetic conversation simply because I threw trash in the trash can. And that made her look at me differently. She was no longer afraid of me. She saw something in common so we had this wonderful conversation. But that was because of the conversations I have all the time and the Boss said, "Why don't you do something for Mother Earth". Really, you want me to pick that up and put it in the trash? Yeah...OK...Boom, there it is. Next thing I know this woman comes and sits next to me and ...you know ...it was a wonderful conversation and we shared. She sounded great and we had both profited. What am I supposed to say?

Ben: Well, you know, I think if we're all going to be talking to God like that on that level it's going to be a different picture for everybody. He does that, he's willing to do that...he wants that...that's what he wants?

Kibo: He is that! Now you forget you are a god. You are a part of God and God is thinking of himself. That thought is what we call creation.

Ben: No, I get that, man...I get that you know...I really do...no, by all means...

Kibo: Wouldn't you want to talk to your creation every chance you got?

Ben: I know...you know we're not exactly the greatest crea...well, I can't say that...I don't ...

Kibo: How can you say that??

Ben: I didn't say it man...

Kibo: You know, that's because you view yourself differently from what you really are. You are God being you and if you appreciate that nothing else matters.

Ben: God is me...God is me...

Kibo: God looks at you with the same love and appreciation that he created you with. You will always be that for him. He will always love you...he will always embrace you...he will always look at you in life with that attitude of like "damn I made something good!" Look at this...do you see what I made? [and the angels say: yeah Boss]. (Ben laughing)

Kibo: Ain't it great? Yeah Boss. Ain't it beautiful? Yeahhhhhh...Boss. Do you think it will ever come to me? Don't know. [Ben still laughing] God I love what I made! Yeah Boss. Hope he don't mind I love what I made. That's right Boss. We love it too. I know. [both laughing]. Why can't you love yourself like God loves you? Why can't you appreciate yourself like God appreciates you? Why can't you see yourself through his eyes instead of putting yourself down and saying, "Oh, I this...I'm fucked up. Yeah Ok...you're fucked up. God know why you're fucked up. It's all part of the process. But that's OK. You don't want to be fucked up anymore? Talk to the one who made you. He'll get you out of it. When you're ready...boom! ...there it is. But you gotta want not to be fucked up anymore. Badly...[Ben laughing] OK..I mean you really have to realize how fucked up you are to say I don't want to be fucked up anymore. I say, "God, I am too stupid to pick my own women. Please! And that's how I got my wife now. She's a real blessing! Nobody's going to put up with me and love me like she does. Nobody's gonna understand. She is proof to me that God loves me. Why? ...because I completely gave it over to God. I told God I am too stupid to live my life. Please help me out and here I am. I know. He has helped me appreciate myself from his standpoint because from my point of view I'm just fucked up and don't know shit. How do I get over that? By, you know, taking the word of the One who created me. "Well you are pretty cool and beautiful and I do love you. You know, I know you think you could do better and you want to do better but divine timing is a process. You know, you gotta appreciate it; get the value of it, you know? Just work with me. I'll get you there." Yeah Boss! [Ben laughing] That's all I want.

Ben: So he's gonna do that right now...he'll do that anytime we want...we just gotta want it bad enough, right?

Kibo: As long as you're sincere...you are willing to do the work. The work does not save you from pain. The work will test you. The work will send you through some shit but at least you will understand why you're going through that shit. And if you really understand why you're going through that shit you will appreciate it and you'll be able to smile about it. And you'll be able to laugh about it because you will know in whose hands you walk. You know who you walk with. You know who you walk in, you know who walks in you and you know that all of this shit don't mean shit. It's just a thing and you're just doing what you're supposed to do as God sees fit.

My shoe came off the other day. I'm walking around with my sole flopping. Now I could have gotten pissed off and what the fuck...I had to laugh about it. (Ben laughing). I said maybe somebody will think I'm homeless and give me some money. And I'm trying to shuffle because I don't want it flopping too much so I'm walk...I don't know what I look like when I was walking. You know what? I'm like, you know what? I 'm gonna find some duct tape and sure enough as long as they saw what I was doing, next thing I know a perfect wire...just long enough...not the breakable kind...it's like electrical wire, you know with the cloth thing. I don't know how to explain it to you but it was right there in my path...like they put it there and I tied it on the bottom of my soul and tied it to my shoe and I was good for the rest of the day. I don't get mad at shit no more...Fuck it. It's all just a thing...

Ben: It's a test...

Kibo: It's just...You are God man! You are God being you...You are beautiful...God loves you...God made you...God wants you to understand what it is to be you. God wants you to understand that your experiences have meaning to the whole making of perfect creation. That what you go through is NOT in vain. It all has a reason...it all has a purpose and if you can just get through it with a loving heart and a understanding and an appreciation of what it is to be alive in God you wouldn't be pissed off. But then these evil folks are running the world...I know. They ain't running the world. They're just running the system; Stop lettin' em run you. It'll all be fine and it'll work out, but you have to think of yourself as a free will ascending being of faith. They can't touch you inside. They can't touch you when you walk with God. Energy that you create is against them all by itself and reduces them because they don't have that control over you anymore because you walk with The One that controls them. And they know it. God does not choose groups or nations or peoples. He chooses everybody. The ones that are chosen are the ones that chose God back and that is an individual thing. It ain't about black or white or rich or poor or heterosexual or homosexual. It ain't about Catholic or Christian or Mormon or Jew or Islam or Buddah or any of that. It is about the core of your being. It is about your unique personality that God gave you...God is your personality...being you. God is making a perfect life for himself in you and when it's all over you're gonna appreciate the hell out of it because you went through some shit. And when it's over you're gonna sit back and you're gonna relax and you're gonna say, you know what?...this is soo cool...[Ben and Kibo laughing]

I am so freakin'... happy ain't the word for it...look at... look at what I am ...look at what I know...look at what I be...look at what I do. [.....]...You made it. I know what you're saying but Kibo, that could be billions and billions of years from now. Yep...[Ben laughing]. And you're telling me that a whole life of less than a hundred years is fucking you up? I don't care how bad it is. You make it through this life...this is the New York City of the universe, man. You can make it here, you can make it anywhere. You can make it on Earth, you can make it anywhere. You came here because you said I can do it and you got here and you went "AhhhhhhhhAhhhh"...You all did that. I had no clue....Ahhhhh...Ahhhh...God No...Hell, you're in it now.

Ben: You're in it now. That's right, you're in it. You jumped out of the plane...the parachute, you know...you free fell, it looked nice from above and then it got, you know...it got kinda murky as you got closer to the ground. And then you finally landed in a pile of dung...and you said it doesn't smell so good.

Kibo: You're alive! I know you will get this shit. You're alive. Now here's the problem...some people like it in shit. It's warm, it's soft. They haven't moved from the shit they landed in. You have. You're OK. You people....you AH members...you people that are striving to be aware, you get there and I know, you know, I'm not satisfied with myself. Stop this shit you're perfect. You're out of the shit, ain't ya? You're out of that shit consciousness, aren't you? Alright; you are working it! OK...quit putting yourself down...quit telling yourself, I can't handle it here....well we all feel that way. [.....] We are beautiful. Look at us. Look at us in our glory and sigh at our greatness. WE walk with God and God walks with us. Why? Because we like it.

Ben: You know, I just thought of something. I get some people who are contacting me at the radio show. One guy said to me, you know I just don't know what's real anymore. I don't know where to look, I don't know what to do...I read AH.. you know, I talk about AH on the radio show and people heard and they get put on there and that's great and that really wonderful. You talk about feeling good about something in my life...that one gives me so much joy. But to think that for a moment you know, I might have had a small part to play in someone regaining a firmer identity about who they are and all these things, but he said I don't know what to believe anymore. I don't know whether to believe you ...I don't know whether to believe them...I don't know to look anywhere...

Kibo: Look within...the work is within...that's why they came to God is within you. Don't take my word for it. I'm just a village idiot. [start 50:32:7]

Ben: Man, what does that mean though...go within? People look at you funny when you say that. You know...I say that. You know, people just think I'm a crackpot. So, you know...go within...what do you mean by "go within", Kibo because go within, there's a lot of organs. You know, ah...

Kibo: There's no organs involved. (Ben laughing). There are no organs involved in going within.

Ben: Who goes within? You go within because you're a Michael Son and you can do that because you know, you worked at it? What about the newbies, how do they go within. They ain't got no guidance to go within.

Kibo: You are NOT your brain! Your mind is the mind of God. Start using it. You are a consciousness experience. Explore your consciousness. It is within. Figure out everything you've done, everything you're doing, the whys and wherefores. Reach out as far as you can to understand. Hold your hand out to God. Let God know you are holding your hand out to Him and I guarantee you, you will feel His hand holding yours. It is within you.

Ben: Like just ask...just ask.

Kibo: All you have to do is know what you are. If you can accept that, everything else will fall into place. You cannot deviate from the knowledge of who and what you are because that's where you get in trouble. They weren't kidding when they said "human know thyself". WE don't know ourselves. WE think we're what we see in the mirror. We think that we are flesh and blood and muscle and brain and eyes. No.... we're consciousness. We are energy. We are energetic. We are micro and macro. We are chemical and we are electrical. We are mechanical...we are quantum! We are the consciousness of God in action. That is what you are. It doesn't matter if you are Descending or Ascending. All of that is the same. It's just a step on the ladder; but it's all the same...There's only one of us here and it ain't you or me or the people listening to this. There's only one of us here. You want to know what's real? That's REAL. The ONE is REAL. The One is the only REAL thing there is. Everything else is here because of the ONE.

What is reality? Do you know how many realities there are? Think of every decision you've made throughout your life since the time that you were born. And the decisions that got you here. OK. Think, how many decisions do you make a day? How many choices...would you have made any of those choices differently? You've created a new reality and that branches off into somewhere else. There are an infinite number of infinities. There are infinite, infinite numbers of realities. What is reality Papa? Papa's the only reality! You want reality...go within...because this shit out here ain't reality. It's made up. It is made up of shared consciousness experiences based on the causes and effects that we have placed into action. And all of those are the results of causes and effects that got us here in the first place all going back to the original cause which affected everything. God is that cause! That's why it's a plan. That why it's perfect. That's why it's going to be the way He wants it to be. There's no changing that.

God wins! God wins because there is no other way. There's nothing else to be. There's nothing else to do. There's only God. All of this is for the sake of experience in demonstration that we may learn what it is to be gods so when that day comes we are perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect, we will understand what it is to be perfect. Do we wanna just be made perfect? You know what you would be doing right now if you were...there are people who are made perfect in personalities on the Paradise Isle...you know what they're doing right now? They're listening to this broadcast.

Ben: They're listening to this broadcast?

Kibo: Yes!

Ben: Why?

Kibo: Because they want to explore too. They're looking at it from the outside in. We're experiencing it from the inside out. Who's having the better time?

Ben: Gee...

Kibo: The people on the roller coaster or the people watching the roller coaster?

Ben: Well roller coaster's are cool.

Kibo: See? [Both laughing]

Ben: OK...yeah, but, you know, this rollercoaster unlike any other roller coaster you find in a theme park. This is, you know, this is crazy out here...this is...

Kibo: You don't know what crazy is. You are looking at it from here. This is really...right now, this is all you know. Maybe after this flight you can put all those experiences together, Yeah, this was crazy but it wasn't as crazy as that other place we were at. Oh, man...that was some shit! Yeah! But you know, if we hadn't had done that we wouldn't have been able to go to Earth, that's true. We got to come here, yeah. But see? Look, we went through this shit! We got to Earth, so now what happens? I don't know, man...and what do you want to do? Is there anything harder? [laughing] Always something... The thing...

I have something to do. [laughing] You think all this floating around
.....ahhhhhhhh....lalalala....Who the hell are you going to barbeque in heaven, hmmm?? You know... cows are in heaven too and in cow heaven there are no barbeques.

Ben: No...

Kibo: So what are we barbequing [.....]....chicken and beer, chicken don't want to be fried chicken...no....We're talking you know, hell.... grilling? C'mon! [both laughing] You gotta have something to do. Always work to be done. The making of perfection...I mean think about it. You have the Paradise Isle, which is Perfect. You have the Havona worlds which have been made perfect. You have the Seven Super Universes and each of those seven super universes you have how many universes? And each of those universes has to be settled in Light and Life and they have to be made Perfect. And once all those are Perfect then the Super Universe itself is set in Light and Life and that is made Perfect. How long does that take for all seven Super Universes to be settled in Light and Life? And then God just kinda puts it all together and that's just another level of perfection and there we are. And then there are now evolving universes around us in which we get to play gods and we do it our way. The thing about creating universes is that you have a template...you have a template in the Paradise Isle. So you were creating this...you have seen Papa create and then we have an advantage because we have seen not only how Papa created but we've seen how Papa creates through the Creator Sons, the Michael sons and their creations. And so, the ideas come to us in our lives here...another reason I like Anime...because the whole of the human imagination is right...oh, the ideas, God! You know, you come up with....can I make a universe in the shape of a cube? Can I make a universe in the shape of a rocking horse? [Ben laughing]. You know, how do I want my universe to be? Because I know one day, you know, and don't think this is just a Michal Son thing, because you...I'm an ascending son here. I like this. You know, I'll probably do it with you guys. I'm thinking of this from an ascending perspective. Well, OK...can I do one where there actually is magic and you know, at some point that's kinda like blending with technology but its, you know, its like the Avatar thing ...(Ben laughing) . I know that's out there. There are people that can do that in this universe. You know, there are people that can raise houses with just the wave of their hand...they take a mountain and move it over here and move it over there...You'll be surprised what people can do once they figure out how. But it's all consciousness. OK...what you understand, it's like what...a three minute mile?

Ben: Yeah...

Kibo: OK, remember when they said that was impossible? Remember when somebody finally broke the four minute mile and the next thing you knew everybody was doing it? Now it's a three minute mile. Michael Jordan came and he was taking the ball wayyyyyyy...you know, 200 feet out...everybody was doing it...We are the energetic quantum experience no matter what you try to do, we share with each other whether we like it or not. And if we shared more actively that which was positive and light filled...that is why I say..."know yourself" . Know that you are God in action and be the actor. OK, and your energy will spread and other people will get it and this thing will spread and this will decrease the influence of the dark, because you're putting yourself out there. You're putting your God energy out there.

Don't visualize what's to come, visualize it NOW...this is it! Don't visualize...I mean this is just me. I don't want to tell you...I think it's a good thing, you know...what is it...John Smallman and Spirit Eagle. He said visualize the new world. That's cool. Me...I would say, visualize making the new world. Visualize a world full of people that look at the bankers and tell them...you know what, forget you. We don't need your funny Monopoly money. We reject you. You know, think of a world where...visualize the world right now...a minute ago; everybody said, you know what? Screw this. WE don't need Democrats or Republicans. We don't need military. We don't need any of this. WE don't need central banking, we don't need any of this cabal, illuminati, whatever. OK, whoever you people are, we reject you. We walk with God. God's will be done on Earth. And the ones that are with it are with it and the ones that ain't, oh well! We love ourselves, we will love our God and we will love each other, period, and we will act like it. WE WILL BE EXCELLENT TO EACH OTHER at all times. And that will grow and that will spread.

We've had delay, delay, delay, delay because these people don't realize they need the help. And people, you know, they don't realize the help that's available. They don't believe this. They don't believe in the Galactic Federation. They don't believe that God is right here and they don't believe in Christ Michael. They want to do it themselves and they're still in it and they think they got a better idea and they think, well you know...it's like Fulford. I love reading Fulford. Let me get this straight. He wants to give everything to the Chinese and let them run it, right? Like that's really gonna be any better right now, OK.

Ben: Yeah...

Kibo: You know, OK...people are trying but they all want to do it their way. I want things God's....I want things God's way. I want people to say, we want God's way. In fact so many of us want God's way, we feel God had no choice but to come down and say OK, OK...you asked for Me...here I AM.

Ben: And I'm one of those...I'm all for that one. Kibo..can we take a quick break. I don't want to take a quick break but we gotta do for this recording here. We're gonna take five minutes and we'll be back. You hang on?

Kibo: Yeah, I'm here.

Ben: Beautiful, we're going to take five minutes and we'll be back. Everyone, thanks for listening and you stayed tune. We've got more of Kibo right after this.

[Continues in Part 2]

Ben: Okay, we're back folks, we're here again, this is Benjamin with you, thanks again for tuning in. I'm talking with Kibo now, we're talking too much, actually. We've spent more time talking off the interview set than we are on the interview set. We've gotta start recording this stuff, so Kibo, are you hearing me again? You're with me loud and clear?

Kibo: Yep. Ahoye.

Ben: Okay, brilliant. Now, I gotta hit some gritty stuff now, this is some history. I wanna revisit some history, I wanna get your take on some history, 'cause I think – you know, we broached this subject the other day, and you said some things to me that I didn't consider quite in the same way. But you know I can appreciate your point of view.

We're gonna talk about Short Lucy first, can we do that? Short Lucy, I believe that's the phrase that you coined, I have never seen that before. Short Lucy? You know what I'm referring to?

Kibo: Yeeaah. (laughs)

Ben: Yeah, we gotta talk about it because it's, you know, it's been on my mind for quite a few years, and anyone who knows anything about the rebellion, you know, this guy's been a talking point around the Universe of Universes. You know, there's a lot of review going on. There's a huge amount of review about the one they called, "Lucifer."

Kibo: Well, Lucifer is not Short Lucy!

Ben: Oh, oh it's not?

Kibo: No!

Ben: Oh, damn, I'm sorry. I want to talk about Lucifer.

Kibo: Short Lucy are the idiots that are running around here trying to keep things going. Your Cabal –

Ben: Oh, I've messed up already, okay...

Kibo: And Short Lucy is nothing but a psychopathic perverted human being that thinks he's sitting on top of the world, only he thinks it's a mountain and he doesn't realize it's a toilet and it's about to flush him in.

Ben: Okay, we'll get to that, then. We'll get to that. I apologize, I take that back. So, we won't call him Short Lucy, we'll stick with Lucifer. I want to talk about that guy.

Kibo: Okay.

Ben: So you mentioned the other day – I said to you, I was not impressed with his (Lucifer's) performance, and I was not happy, you know, the things that he decided to do and you know, take this rebellion...

'Cause we had an interview the other week, I had those guys from the UB Society, the Urantia Book Society, and they were great. They took us through the whole routine, you know, how it came about, and he (Lucifer) had these ideas which were not the same ideas that were kinda floating around the traps, and he said, "This is the way we're gonna do it," and he was given free reign, no pun intended, to do that. And, you know, it didn't work out. And I said to you, that I was not impressed. Look at this place, look at this job! This is the aftermath of the Rebellion. We've got, you know, a planet in chaos, planets in chaos, this being one of the worst, but, you said you admired the guy. You said that.

Kibo: I didn't say that! I didn't say that. What I said, because what you were asking was... basically your idea of him was that he had been that way all along, and what I had reminded you of was that Lucifer was a bright and shining servant...of Christ Michael Aton for millions of years before this happened!

Ben: Okay, we clarified that. Alright, you got me on that one.

Kibo: He had a very good reputation! You do not – the Rebellion was not that big because he just came up with this idea. Why do you think so many listened to him?

Ben: I don't understand that, either.

Kibo: Well, why do people here listen to Obama?

Ben: Well, because they – he gives them hope. For change.

Kibo: Now, let's say Obama started off as – let's pretend (laughter). Let's pretend that Obama started off as a great and wonderful president.

He was full of fairness and justice and he was going to make sure, he was making sure that the money was spread out, and the payments were made, and everything that we Lightworkers and lovers of God and people who wanted to see the new world come into the new age – he was everything that we actually hoped he would be. And we all celebrated Obama, because he did exactly what we expected him to do.

And then in the second term, because we loved him so much we voted him back in. Because he did everything that we wanted him to do, okay. He told the bankers, "Fuck you!" and they all went to jail. (laughter)

Ben: Now you're dreamin'!

Kibo: Okay, you know, he told Iran, "You're not working on the bomb, right? Well, if you are, get rid of it. We'll take care of Israel, we'll talk to them. We'll get everything straight and we'll free the Palestinians, we'll get rid of this..." boy, hey, he did it. Okay? And he let Kaddafi create an African Union and they got rid of all the warlords and the guns and all this shit. And the world was at peace and everybody was happy and there was prosperity and everybody blamed Obama for that, and they were applauding him, man. (he claps)

And then, in the second term, all of the sudden, Obama says, "You know, this ain't workin'. You know what? We're gonna go in a completely different direction. The way I got it figured, blah blah blah, blah blah blah blah, blah blah blah blah blah, blah blah blah...and they would go with it because they had so much faith in him before. Lucifer was a damn good System Lord! Okay? He had a good reputation! He shined brightly. He developed the wrong attitude.

Ben: He had an attitude problem.

Kibo: His problem was, as far as I can tell – I could never really understand it. I never understood why he couldn't believe in Central Core. As far as I – he should have. There was enough evidence. He didn't want to take the Michael Son's word for it. He didn't want to take any words for it. I'm beginning to think he just did it because it was expedient and it was in his way.

He could rebel against Christ Michael Aton, but he saw no way to rebel against Central Core. In order to have a rebellion, he needed to completely disregard Central Core in the first place. So, he denied Papa, he denied The Paradise Trinity, he denied all of it. That was Step One. Step Two was, and I honestly do believe, that he was jealous. And I believe that jealousy came out of his ego because basically, what he was looking at, was a whole program set in place from some fuzzy, unknown being that the Michael Sons were supporting, of training the Ascending Faith Sons and Daughters of the realms of Time and Space for Godhood.

Technically, in his eyes, what was happening was, these lowly, stupid creatures who are being sent through all kinds of shit so that they can learn what it is to be Creators, and they're doin' it the hard way, man, and he said,

(Lucifer) "Well, why don't we go help them?"

(GOD/CM) "No, that's not the way we're doing it."

(Lucifer) "But you know, we could be with them, we could show them the way!"

(GOD/CM) "Well, no, we need them to do this shit on their own. We can give them a little help, but we can't do it for them. You want to do it for them."

(Lucifer) "But how – but – say..."

(GOD/CM) "It will work out. Just follow the plan."

But let me get this straight, he said,

(Lucifer) "When this is over, they're gonna be greater than me?! Let me get this straight. You're training them for the job I want. Nooo! Well, how you gonna do that to me?"

(GOD/CM) "What do you mean, you?" (laughter)

Ben: Yeah.

Kibo: And this is where shit went bad. So, he worked up a plan and he took it to Christ Michael Aton and he says, "How about this? This'll work."

And Christ Michael Aton said:

(GOD/CM) "You can do everything but that."

(Lucifer) "What do you mean?"

(GOD/CM) "You can't do that."

(Lucifer) "I can do that!"

(GOD/CM) "No, you can't. You don't have that in you. You haven't gotten that far yet."

(Lucifer) "If, if, if..."

(GOD/CM) "If, what? (laughs) That's my job. That's Papa's job. You can't do that! You don't have it in you."

(Lucifer) "Yes, I can..."

(GOD/CM) "No, you can't."

(Lucifer) "I'll prove it."

(GOD/CM) "Good luck. Tell you what. I'll give you a workshop."

And it was on! He felt that he could create creatures that could be perfect of their own free will and accord, on their own, by just being what they were. If he could control the whole thing and create souls, if he could give the gift of life to these people, based on his image, then it would be good, because they would follow him and he would bring them along! And time after time after time, he failed. Remember the Animus? They were like Borg. He couldn't do it.

Unfortunately, that sent him over the edge. And he, oh, God, he was, he's (small laugh) huh, nothing, no – no talking to him. No talking to him at all. You'd try to tell him, and he just, I don't, uh, and everything just went to shit. I mean, talk about somebody literally going to hell within themselves. He just, if he had just followed the plan, if he had just understood, he would have realized that his time would come, and he would be a Creator God himself. He would have been a very good one. But he couldn't wait. He believed in himself more than the Divine. He believed more in himself than he did in his Creator.

Kibo: He believed in himself. It's the same problem we're having here on Earth. People believe in themselves, and if they can't believe in themselves they find another human being to believe in. Do not make the same mistake that Lucifer did. Believe in God. Believe in the God that is within you. He rejected that – don't do the same thing!

All these people out here doing what they want to do because they feel that's the way, that's the Luciferian way. Do as thou will. That's why you have all this shit out here, because we have been allowed to feel the full effects of our actions. Change our actions! How do we act? We act like the Gods we are!

You don't believe in yourself as much as you believe in God. If you believe in yourself, it is because you know yourself to be part and parcel of God, and the only reason you are here is because of God. You wanna have faith in something? Have faith in the one who made you. Dance with the one who brung you. (laughs)

It's a simple concept, but people don't want to do it – because they want to have fun. That's all. They want to do what they want to do. Do what God wants you to do, and if you don't know, ask, and where do you ask? Ask within. Ask, ask and keep asking. And if you don't know what to do, remember the rule – thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and soul and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. If you love your neighbor as yourself, how are you going to treat the people around you? Be excellent to each other, because you want people to be excellent to you.

But the Golden Rule – (some say) I don't like the Golden Rule because there are some people who like to get whacked up the rear end. People who like to get whipped. There are people who like torture and pain – this is what they grew up with, this is what they believe in and so they treat other people that way because that's how they want to be treated. That's all well and good, but that doesn't really work for the rest of us.

Ben: No.

Kibo: Be excellent to each other! Love each other as God loves us. And see yourselves in each other because that's what you are. There's only One of us here and it ain't you and me. Lucifer couldn't, he couldn't wait. He had no patience. It's a shame, really, I mean, I guess I get it, kinda, sorta. I mean, you live so many millions of years, you're an eternal creature, really. And you watch all of this stuff go by. You watch lowly, lowly creatures become Finaliters and you come to find out that they're going to be creating Universes far ahead of you. You're not happy with that. You want to do it. You're raring, you're itching to go. He couldn't follow the plan. And because he couldn't follow the plan, he didn't want anybody else following the plan, either. That's why he screwed with Adam and Eve so badly.

But all of this was written, and Papa knew about it before the whole thing began, before Creation was even created, He knew. But Christ Michael Aton had to go through this shit. That's his experience. We go through our shit and it's our experience. Everybody gets surprises, everybody gets a script and they wonder what's coming next. And we go by Christ Michael Aton's script, and Christ Michael Aton goes by Papa's script, and so on and so forth, so forth and so on, and we all get surprises. Makes life interesting. It's all right, just one way.

This Universe will be settled in Light and Life, this Universe will be made perfect and we will all go out from here and we will be the Gods of the new Universes. And the creatures that waited patiently and knew their place and knew what they were about it - their time will come. And they will get upgraded and they will get uplifted and (laughs) it all becomes perfect. And then it keeps going, and there's more made and that becomes perfect, too. God is creating family and collecting it all together. You think about an infinite amount of infinite space? We've got all and forever to work with. Always more and more, there is an infinite amount of infinite possibilities to realities that can be created. It never ends.

And this is what we're doing. This is what we're a part of. It's beautiful and it's exciting and it's dangerous, it's everything. We are experiencing everything. There's a glory and a beauty to that, if you appreciate that for what it is, nothing will disturb you, you will fear nothing 'cause hey – it's just great. Never a dull moment.

So he had his time and now he's gone and there's no one in his name to carry on. So be it. The king is dead, no more kings.

Ben: Yeah. You know, I wondered as well 'cause it's kinda scared me a little bit. That fact that this guy was...you know, he was pretty high up, and as you said, he did his job well. He did it very well, it's the reason why he was doing what he was doing and why Christ Michael loved him so very much. But -

Kibo: Christ Michael Aton loves everybody.

Ben: (Laughter) Well, yeah, he does. I understand that, I stand corrected. But how did he get that high up and still fall that far and hard? I thought you didn't get that high up unless you understood the game...

Kibo: First of all, he didn't get high up. He was created for that. That was his job, that's what he did. That's what he was. You think he started off as some kid somewhere in a crib sucking his thumb. No. That's what he was. That's what he was created as.

Ben: And in his perfection he was created to do what he did?

Kibo: You think he went to school for that...or what? (laughter)

Ben: No, but you make my point, though. You say he was created for that – he was created to do what he did and there were others like him in a similar role, doing what he did.

Kibo: Um hum.

Ben: But then, that kinda didn't work out. So was he was created for that as well?

Kibo: On some level, yes, and - Christ Michael Aton didn't create him for that. You'll have to talk to Papa about that. Let's look at the whole picture and the guy who's responsible for everything, who knows everything before everything is everything 'cause everything is everything. And on some levels, He allows himself to be surprised because that's what He wants and on some levels He knows this shit because that's what He wants, and nothing gets past Him.

This is all God thinking about Himself, being who and what He is and creating. This is God telling himself a story, a story of stories. This is God creating family, this is God creating friends, this is God creating living space. This is God creating experience. God wants to experience. I mean, really, what else is there to do?

Ben: Not much...

Kibo: Well, I mean, would you just rather have that whole nebulous, you know, before thing?

Ben: No...

Kibo: See? So here we are. It's all experience. Lucifer was not the first rebellion in this Universe. This is not the first Universe to have a rebellion. Okay, but it was a big one, it is one for the books. But the ending, heh-eh-eh, that's what counts. (laughs)

Ben: You know the other thing that doesn't fly well with me, 'cause that whole thing, you know, of rebelling against God, within my small but reasoning mind...knowing that, as you mentioned, everything is all and God is everything and we are all that is, which is He, but, how could that Lucifer guy expect to get what he wanted when in the end there could only be one winner? How could he separate from that which was himself? It's not logical, it's not...

Kibo: He believed in himself.

Ben: But he knew that, well surely he knew that he was that which was created...

Kibo: He admitted that he was a creation. He admitted that he was (laughs) He admitted... Well, he was willing to admit that he was a creation of CM Aton and he was willing to deal with that accordingly, but he completely rejected Paradise, the Paradise Trinity, and thus he - he rejected Prime Source. He rejected Source Core. He felt that the Michael Sons were covering something up, that's what he said.

Ben: Covering something up?!

Kibo: He thought that they were the ones running everything. He convinced himself of that. He thought it was a program and he decided within himself that it was a scam and there was something they weren't telling us. There's always something they're not telling us. The question is, do we really need to know? (laughs)

Ben: Yeah, so the whole thing about someone above and beyond the Michael Sons, he thought that was just, that was made up, that was just false idols and to keep everyone in line kind of thing, but really, there's nothing beyond that.

Kibo: Pretty much. He was willing to deal with that he could experience, but for some strange reason he could not experience Source. And that seemed to be a gift that was given to the humans, so you can see his dismay and frustration.

Ben: Yeah, that would hurt.

Kibo: Okay, I mean you go work in an office and have them have you train somebody, and then find out that the person that you trained is getting the promotion that you wanted. Happens all the time, here. So how you think that made him feel? He was pissed off. They tried to talk to him about it. They tried to explain it to him. He didn't want to go along with the plan.

They told him, it will be alright, your turn will come. He didn't want to wait. He came up with an idea, they told him it wouldn't work - you'll get that far and then you'll come across a huge block and you'll never get over it. He says well, let me try and they said okay.

He could not take failure. He was not willing to admit that he failed. And his reaction to that was just to fuck up everything that he could. (laughs)

Ben: Yeah, he did that.

Kibo: (He was) Like a little kid, if I can't have it you can't have it either. I will fuck up your action! Okay, good luck with that. Tell you what I'm gonna do – you fuck up what you think you can fuck up, and then I'm gonna to show you just how good you made things in the end. I'm gonna use you. I'm gonna use you to create a people so strong that nobody in Creation will be able to stand against them when it comes to Light and Life. And that's you. (meaning Ben and the rest of us) You want to complain about that? (laughs)

Ben: No, no, that makes sense, man, that makes sense. I can go with that.

Kibo: Here we are.

Ben: Here we are.

Kibo: Here we are. And those of us, the best and the brightest of us - the best and the brightest of the best and the brightest of us know one thing; God's will be done. Because they know there's only One of us here. So, it behooves them to act accordingly. Don't just be a character, be an actor. Act - accordingly.

Ben: 'Cause that's what we are, we're acting right now, right?

Kibo: Well, too many of us are characters, and we're being acted upon. And we don't understand why.

Ben: You'll have to clarify that...

Kibo: If we understood why, and became the actors and became more proactive and interactive and so on and so forth, more cooperative, it wouldn't bother us so much.

Ben: What's the difference between actor and character, Kibo? What's the difference?

Kibo: The reason, the difference between being a character and being an actor is, the actor knows why. The actor knows why the character is going through what the character is going through. The character has no clue. Shit just happens to the character and the character is totally flabbergasted. Because the character never knows what's going to happen next. And the character goes through it's shit as just a character and never understanding why his time on stage is the way it is.

Ben: So that's most of us, pretty much the majority of the people on this planet right now?

Kibo: Pretty much, yeah, that's what it looks like, yeah. But those that realize that they are Divine beings playing a character, they have a different perspective - and perception and perspective is everything in this game.

You have to have a more expanded, higher perception and perspective if you are going to survive this. You have to look beyond the box. You have to look beyond the planet. We are very Earth-centric. We are very human-centric.

We look at everything from our perspective. We're like the Catholic Church saying that the Sun revolves around the Earth, and the moment somebody says, "No, I figured out that the Earth revolves around the Sun.." "KILL HIM!" (laughter) "Get the hell out...tie him to the stake!" "But, but, but --" "Shutup! How dare you! We are the center of Creation, dagnamit!" "Well, okay."

People still think that. They think what they are doing is what everybody is doing. People still think that other people react as they would react to a situation. Rachael Corrie thought that she was dealing with people who had a certain amount of humanity. She was wrong. In America, you lie down under a bulldozer, they ain't gonna run over you. (She was) dealing with a completely different perception and perspective that was totally alien to her. And because she didn't understand, she died. Now, what that says about the people who did it, I'll leave that up to the individual. But, she tried.

Ben: There's that try thing again.

Kibo: She tried. She was a human being, and she showed what it was to be a human being. Maybe, just maybe, the other human beings will realize the folly of lying down all over the world, so that they don't get bulldozed.

And before you start thinking that I'm talking about, you know, Israel and the Jews – I don't even know what a Jew is anymore. I know there are people that follow the Talmud. I know there are people that follow the Torah. I know there are good people out there, individuals, and I know that there are people that people call them Jews. I know there are Judeans, I know there are Ethiopians, I know there are Ashkenazi, I know there are Sephardic. I know there are people who love God and they follow the path and they love the Torah and they hate this bullshit. Am I to condemn them? No. Because they love like I love and they see what I see.

And there are people who are obedient in Islam. They pray five times a day and they're not blowing themselves up. And they're, they're not falling for the bullshit. They're being obedient. They know what they're going to tell God when the day comes. And there are Christians who understand, truly, what is being said, and they go beyond the televangelists. There are people who are doing the work in every walk of life, of every religion. These are the people that have chosen God. And because they have chosen God, God has chosen them.

Now, God does not choose groups. God chooses individuals, and God can only choose individuals that choose Him because technically, God chose everybody. But everybody didn't show up for the fucking party. So the people that showed up to the party are the ones that 'get it.' They get it all!

So where do you show up for the party. You show up within. And I don't care what your religion is and God doesn't care what your religion is, either. And if you're using religion to fuck over other people, well, God's got a pill for that.

Be excellent to each other. That's all you gotta do. Love thy neighbor as thyself. Love the Lord God Almighty with all thy heart and soul, thy mind and strength. Why? Because He is you. And if you can do that, you see everybody else in you and you see you in them. And you see you in every member of the Galactic Federation that's on those ships up there. You see you in those beautiful, intelligent ships up there that are evolving also. And you see you in those planets and those stars and those Nebulas and those galaxies and those other Universes all the way back to the Paradise Isle. And you see you. You see you in the Eloheim, in the Wingmakers, and they told you, "We are you." They all will tell you, "We are you!"

Why can't you see that you are them, too? Why can't you see that this is all One Thing? Why can't you see that there's only One of us here? It's okay to enjoy your life. It's okay to laugh, it's okay to be with other people and enjoy – now forgive me for saying this - enjoy the perception of being with others. It's a good thing, that's the way God intended it to be. Okay?

We're company! We're good company! We're good company for God and God is good company for us and none of us are alone. We are with each other, and the more we love each other and the more we love God, and the more we love God the more we love each other, we are never alone. We are in each other. God walks in us, we walk in God. We are each other! You have to live your life according to that definition of yourself. You wanna hear God? Believe it. Believe that's what you are. Know that's what you are. You are created by God in the image of God. How? Through consciousness. God thinks! We're trying to tell people now, "God thinks, why don't you?!"

(in advertiser voice) "No thinking below this line." (laughter) I got that from Les Visible. I love Les Visible. I wanna make a t-shirt with a line across the heart that says, "no thinking below this line." Nobody buys my t-shirts. They're scared of them. I made t-shirts with energetic designs that were guaranteed to help in these matters, but they're weird to other people. I tried to make something more palpable to the masses, you know, I can't help the price. I'm doing it through Zazzle. (<http://www.zazzle.com/infinitchirt>) I ain't got no factory. Whatever. I'm leaving it up to the Boss on this one. I'm done. I got nuthin'. (laughs) Whatever happens to me happens to me. I – All I want is for people to see themselves as they truly are. Screw me. I'm here, I'm gone, I'm here, I stay, it doesn't matter. But you guys have got to start realizing that you are the "more" that you already want to be. But you're not practicing it.

How do you get to Carnegie Hall? Practice, practice, practice. How do you get to perfection? Practice, practice, practice. How do you get to higher consciousness? Practice, practice, practice. And there are an infinite numbers of ways to get there. I mean, it's okay to join groups, it's okay to do this, and learn that and Kabala and Yoga and Tao, or, whatever it is that you've been made to do. You will find it. But you have to want it. And I know you're saying, "But I want it!" Okay. Sit down, relax, breathe, deep. It's in you. This is just one life – you can do it! You've been through so many others...you can do this one. Don't worry about the bullshit, okay? If you just take care of your own damn self, the bullshit will work out. As more people take care of themselves, and stop the bullshit within themselves, there'll be less bullshit, okay? You can't shovel the bullshit out of the world until you shovel the bullshit out of yourself, okay. This is our job – get rid of the bullshit. We have swallowed enough shit. It is time to regurgitate. It is time to shit out the shit.

Ben: (laughing) There you go with that poetry again.

Kibo: Well, look at it, basically we've been at the mercy of a bunch of dark, psychotic people who basically told us, for how many thousands of years, "Eat Shit!" Okay? We've eaten enough shit! I ain't eatin' shit no more. I'm not. I don't care about your shit. I am a seashell on the shore through which the breath of God blows. Ain't no shit in there. (laughter) Whatever happens to me, I am in the hands of God. As long as I'm in the hands of God, I have nothing to fear. I don't even have the fear of fear itself, because fear is an illusion. It doesn't exist, unless I create it. I have nothing to fear.

Nobody has anything to fear except they fear it. They create their own fear. You learn through experience that the shit you feared was just shit, and there's no reason to fear shit. It just lays there, stinking, but we get filled up with all kinds of things because they filled us up with it. They filled us up, through the TV, and education and the pharmacy and all the stuff that we've been complaining about. That's the shit. The money, the central banking, Federal Reserve, that's the shit! Okay...and we have to figure out how to get this shit out of us. And we do the best we can.

Maybe we can get rid of all of it, maybe we can't...I still got shit in me. I'm working on it. (laughter) But, at least I'm trying. I'm trying. I'm trying to get there myself. If I can get there myself, then maybe somebody else will see, and they will find a way for themselves. Nobody has to walk a path behind me, but at least they can see that a path can be made...and whose path am I following? Christ Michael Aton and Esu came together as one and gave us a perfect path. Then what happened? I got a religion where everybody is stuck on the cross. Nobody looks at the Cup.

What is the most important thing – to me, to me personally – this is just me, I don't know if anybody agrees with me, but the most important moment of that whole Bestowal, was the Cup. He didn't have to do that shit. He really didn't have to do that shit. He could have said, "Well, you know, Daad, I think I'll go in another direction." He didn't do that. He said, "Okay, let me get this straight...they're gonna take me, they're gonna march me around and beat the shit out of me. They're gonna whip me, they're gonna spit on me and beat me some more and make me carry this heavy-ass motherfucker. And then they're gonna put this shit on my head and I'm gonna bleed some more and then they're gonna nail me on this son-of-a-bitch and I'm gonna be up there – how long? Okay. That's what you want?! Okay. Mind telling me why? Uh huh...uh huh...oh. (chuckle) Okay, fine...uh, well you know what, Dad? Father knows best. Your will be done, not mine."

Now if he could do that, knowing what's coming, who are we to complain about the little bullshit we go through? You try hangin' your ass on the cross for nine hours and see how you feel at the end of the day. And we're bitching about the shit we're bitching about. This cat came and showed us every motherfucking thing we needed to know. In style. And we can't even drink the little Cup that's being offered to us, however sweet or bittersweet or bitter it is. That's our Cup – drink it. Your Cup – drink it. Do God's will. What else is there?

I'm trying my best, man. I don't know what's going to happen, I, I, you know...(sighs) I want the best. I, whatever God wants, man, that's all I want. And whatever He's got for me, I'll take it. 'Cause that's what He wants. He made me. How can I say no? He's everything to me, how can I say no? He has loved me, He's the most adorable one, He is the magnanimous one, He is the one who will give me everything if I can just get with the program and follow the lead...He is just everything. I'm gonna say no? Whatever I have to go through I'll...fuck how I feel about it, I'll try to feel better about it – at least get over that hump.

But we're all so worried about the shit we go through – why? All the shit we go through is the shit we go through because that's the shit we're supposed to go through for reasons that are beyond us and when we find out we'll go, "Oh, okay, I get it...cool...what's next?"

Do God's Will. How do you find God's Will? The Kingdom of God is within you, the Will of God is within you. You were created by the Will of God, the Will of God is inherent within your core system. Find your core system. You are the operator of an operative device called a human body. Be the operator, don't be the body. Be the consciousness within you. All things are found there. The whole of Creation is found within you. But you got to want it, man. You got to understand it for what it is and the things you don't understand, you got to ask about – and accept the Will of God! All things come in Divine time. You will never be left alone, your ass won't be left hangin'...you will do what you have to do, you will do what is made for you to do.

But if you resist and fight and struggle it's just gonna be that much harder for you because there's no way around it. What was the prophet who didn't want to go and ended up swallowed by a whale? Jeremiah? He tried. He tried to get out of it and look what happened to him. And he was workin'! (laughter) He was on the job, he tried to get out the building.

If you're gonna take the job, do the job. If you don't want the job, say so. Don't want to do the work, say so. Live life as best you can, at least love each other. Be excellent to each other. But if you want the upgrades, you want the promotion, you want to get ahead and you want Divine company, do the work! Do the work. The work is within. I'm going to be saying this for the rest of my life until they get it or the new age comes.

Doo the work! The work is within...you'll get there.

(spontaneous singing to a Sesame Street tune) Practice, practice, practice is a consciousness thing. Da da, practice, practice, practice it's a consciousness thing. (laughter) Da da da dum, sit your ass down and do your thing...let God give you wings. Bum bum bum bum, bum bum bum bum... I can see myself on Sesame Street now. (laughter) Anything else?

Ben: Oh, man. I'm digesting here, it's...I'm looking at...I'm trying to do what you're suggesting; I'm trying to look at it from God's perspective right now, like what you're saying. And look at what the work is and how many people have been doing the work here...

Kibo: You cannot make such a leap at once.

Ben: Then I could try. (laughter)

Kibo: Here's the thing. I have asked you, in so many words, let's say the great – okay. Look at it this way. The great spiral path is a path that winds around a seemingly, infinitely high mountain. The mountain is so huge, that while you're on the path, the path looks straight. That's just how big the mountain is. But, actually, you're walking a curve. That's okay, not everybody sees it, some people do. What I am asking you to do is understand what's at the top of the mountain.

If in your consciousness, and I understand this is a tricky thing, but it can be done...there is a world of experience before you of people who are on the path ahead of you and who have made it to the top of the mountain. There are people who are doing this even now. Their energy is the same energy that lies within all energy, which is one thing which is everywhere. It is possible for you to take your consciousness and move outward with it. Think outside the box. Think beyond yourself as a flesh and blood creature. Think beyond this planet, beyond the Universe, the Solar System, and this Galaxy and this Universe, into the Super Universe. Send yourself, like a phone call, until you get an answer.

You can't just jump into Papa's lap and say – well, some people can – but even then, they've had years of experience in finding themselves able to do that. And some of them don't even know how they did it. I want you to know how you did it. Here's the thing: God reaches out to you with both hands. If you could just reach one hand back He'll grab it, He'll meet you halfway.

Now here's the fun part. While you're doing all that inner work and reaching within, take your consciousness and realize that everything that you see outside of you is also within you. That whole Universe thing, that's also inside of you. So go inside your consciousness – travel! Travel all over. See yourself heading to God...inside yourself. The infinity of your consciousness. Inside yourself, however you see that to be.

Do the work, travel, fly! Go, talk, learn! It's a consciousness thing. I'm not asking you to astral project (laughter) All I'm saying is use a little imagination to support your Divinity. That's all you have to do.

Now I've written on the blog just the other day, if you just put yourself in the endless field of light, and then see yourself off in the distance, and then become that self off in the distance, then where you were, you aren't there anymore, you're here now. And that one really got a lot of people.

I didn't (expect) – no, really! I know some of them got it. I kinda stopped short because I realized that, the next step was, okay, now see yourself as several people. (laughter) See yourself as several people all at once and from there you can create a whole population.

Ben: Wow.

Kibo: And I got – oh, yeah, I got one from Brian, Brian is, oh, he just grew in leaps and bounds. He sent me stuff, I was, like, "Well, shit!" (laughter)

Ben: I'm imagining right now, a population of Kibos.

Kibo: You're creating – I mean, basically all you're doing is just practicing your job before you get there. If you can see yourself traveling to God, as you see God, okay, and then realizing God is traveling to you, you find a place to meet, and this is all inside. That's why I told people, make an office/altar. Make a living space inside yourself and deal with it from there. I got this whole treehouse island thing, and it's just, it's, oh, it evolves! It's a living thing. I've got, you know, it's, I'm happy with it. This is something, as far as I'm concerned, everybody can do. Make a little space.

Ben: You got an island with a treehouse, right?

Kibo: Yeah!

Ben: You created that space, right?

Kibo: Yeah. I've actually had people come to visit.

Ben: And that's your, like, base of operations in your inner mind?

Kibo: Well, it started off as a space of operation. It kinda became, I didn't, the thing that freaked me out was that it ended up being more than I thought of, and basically what I'd come to understand is that this is something that already existed, I just reconnected with it.

Ben: Right.

Kibo: Okay, so basically all I did was, um, find home. And I can communicate from there better than I can communicate anywhere. But, that's within. If you create a space that is specifically made for your relationship with the Divine...I think I started off telling if you're going to do the work, make an office, so you can do the work. Make an energetic living space inside your consciousness that's specifically for your relationship with Papa and Christ Michael Aton and any other personality or Celestial beings that you want to have a relationship with. Since all is consciousness, that will give them a better opportunity and a means to relate to you on a more mutual level. You understand what I'm saying?

Ben: Yeah.

Kibo: But this is up to you. It's an individual thing, it is part and parcel of who and what you are. It's made through your personality. So, whether you make a closet, or a planet, or an island or a ship as big as the sun, it doesn't matter. You can fill it up with whatever, but it's your responsibility. You have to keep up with it, you have to maintain it. You created it, it's your responsibility. The beings that you created are real, and I know what you're thinking, "But they're just in my mind...uh-uh..."

Everything you created was real. Everything you're creating is real. It's just that now you're doing it on a higher energetic level. This is not the bullshit you make on a material plane. You do something that's a cause and effect and it comes back and bites you in the ass. "Why did I do that?" and now you owe five hundred dollars to something you had no idea about. Or something. Whatever, you know, this is why we go through the shit we go through. I want you to make something on a higher plane, which is within yourself. I want you to raise yourself up to a place within yourself that you know, specifically, for God to come and talk to you.

For Christ Michael Aton to come and talk to you, for Esu and Nada and Nebodonia and Metatron and Majeston, and Siraya and the Eloheim or anybody else that you want to get in contact with. That's your couch, that's your TV, that's your living space, that's your living room. That's your headquarters. You do that. And you have the power to do that because that is in your consciousness and your consciousness is the same consciousness that comes from God, that God put in you as a part of His consciousness. You walk in each other. You do that, that is your space, and you work with that, and you do the work from there. And they will come to you, you will have those conversations and you will learn and you will practice and you will get it right. And you won't need anybody to tell you any motherfucking thing because you will be getting it straight from God's mouth, you will be getting it from the unicorn's horn.

Ben: Okay. I got a cave. I got a cave in the side of a mountain. I already made one, it's awesome. I look out at this vista of such beauty. And inside this cave, I've got it all set up how I like it. It's comfy.

Kibo: Okay.

Ben: Yeah. Yeah, it's really good. I like my spot. (laughs) It's high up, too, it's real nice.

Kibo: So, when you sit down to do the work inside yourself in consciousness that's where you go. You want to talk to God, that's where you go to meet Him.

Ben: You personalize it, yeah.

Kibo: Yeah, anybody can do it. We used to do this as children. We used our imagination, we were creative. And then the Cabal said, “Oh, shit, they’re being creative.” And the first thing we knew, creativity was being taken out of the educational system.

Ben: Right.

Kibo: Okay, like I said, that’s why I love Anime. Anime is pure imagination and creation. I mean, anything the human mind can imagine, you can put on film! For better, for worse, through good or evil, it’s all there. I am amazed at the things I find. I know they say, well, TV is run by the Cabal... I know that, but I still get a lot out of it. I study it. I’ve always been fascinated with TV because I see it – I see it as a means of good and evil. I can pick diamonds out of shit. (laughter)

Ben: That’s important. That’s what you need to do right now. If you look around you see that there’s a lot of bad stuff going on but that there’s pearls of wisdom in there. Or diamonds if you prefer, you know, you just gotta know what you’re looking for. And having said that, Kibo, we’re coming up to the end of the second hour. We could keep going but – we gotta do this in doses, you know? This is like medicine, so we gotta do this, inch by inch. So, I want to ask you, say as much as you can in the next five minutes, but you mentioned in some of your writings, whether it be on your blog or the contributions you make wherever you make them, about “examination time.”

I mean, this time, even if you’re half aware of what’s really going down right now. There’s so much to be aware of, to take in. We really are on the cusp, we’re like the cliff edge...some might suggest we’re already falling, in a sense. We’re moving into a new chapter. What should we really – do we focus on what’s going on around us, I mean, it’s a lot to take in, or do we just go straight to the inner work? Just ignore it and we get down to the nitty gritty on the inside? Is that your examination time – what is your examination, is that this time?

Kibo: How aware can you be of everything? Ignore nothing. You have to be aware of what’s around you. You have to be aware of what’s within you. You have to be able to balance the relationships. Because what is within you creates what is around you. What we are dealing with is a mass creation. However much it has been manipulated, we let that manipulation happen, because we were weak and stupid, and half asleep and full asleep. What did the guy say, “I didn’t know, nobody told me, I wasn’t there and if I was there I was asleep.”

Ben: Yeah.

Kibo: So, you can ignore nothing. The problem now is that we are at a stage where we are paying more attention to what is around us rather than what is within us and that is a mistake. We have to pay attention to what is within us, not to the extent that we ignore what is around us. That is a huge mistake, that is part of the problem. Like the New Age thing... “Oh, that’s just so negative. That doesn’t resonate with me, I don’t want anything (to do with that)...”

Ben: (laughing) I hate that!

Kibo: You know, okay, so basically what you’re telling me is that I can come up to you every day and slap the shit out of you and you just ignore it. (laughter) Because that’s what’s happening! Basically we got a small group of people, whoever they are and wherever they come from, ‘cause as far as I’m concerned, they come from all walks of life, and they call themselves whatever the hell they call themselves and I just call them The Evil Cabal. Psychopathic, whatever. But basically what they do is they come out every day and they slap us in the face, laugh and walk away.

Now, either the people on this planet are going to wake up and realize they're being slapped, and decide how they're going to react about it, or the people who think that they're awake, and they're going, "Oh, that poor man, he has problems, I'm going to love him." You know I can love you and kick your ass, too! (laughter) I can kick your ass with all the love in my heart. But I'm tired of you slapping me. (more laughter) Okay! I mean, really? Sunshine and lollipops and...what was it, beat me baby, beat me please (riff on Prince song)

No. Noooo!. You got to be aware, next time he comes, at least duck. I understand you don't want to hit him back, you don't want to cause anybody any pain. I don't want to cause anybody any pain either. I'm a terrible fighter. If I got into a physical fight I'd probably get my ass whooped. You make me really mad and I snap and get all evil on your ass, I'll just buy a nine millimeter longshot with a scope and wait six months until you fuck with somebody else, and then shoot, but they'll blame it on somebody else. But I don't want to go there. I don't want to do that, no!

Ben: Oh, no, don't do that, that's not good.

Kibo: Okay, but what do they say, "I do realize that's an option." (in announcer voice) I think some people leave me alone 'cause they think I'm crazy.

Ben: No, no.

Kibo: No, really. I think if people look at you, "Well, he's cool, man. I don't think you really want to fuck with him 'cause he'll get – you know, shoot your ass six months later." (laughter) I pick up flies and insects and let them out of the house. I don't want to hurt anybody. I love everybody, I don't want to do harm to anything, and "Forgive me, Lord. I still have problems with myself. Yes, I eat meat. I love a good bacon cheeseburger, I can't help myself. I do apologize..." No, really, I have to think about shit like that. I'm smoking tobacco and drinking RC's (soft drink) and I don't drink alcohol anymore, and I don't like the drugs. Even the weed ain't natural I don't want to touch that. You can't get a job nowadays unless you do ... now I still have to deal with the system and I'm trying to duck when he swings at me. Every once in a while I put an arm up and go, "don't do that." But, I'm aware. I know the little motherfucker – I know Short Lucy's there waiting to slap my ass.

Ben: Yeah.

Kibo: So, basically, right now I'm just laughing. Laughing and ducking as best I can. If they tag me, well, that's all right, it didn't hurt too much, and I know what's coming for you, so you keep that up. You're about to get gang banged on your ass real soon, so laugh while you can. I'm laughing, too, we're just not laughing for the same reasons.

Ben: No.

Kibo: I don't know what that does for me, I'm still waiting for the NATO swat team to show up at my door. (laughs)

Ben: No, come on, man, come on...

Kibo: I don't think – you ask what reality is, I don't put anything past anybody for anything anymore. Okay? I know I'm dealing with a bunch of psychotic evil fucks who will do anything they want as long as they think they can get away with it. And my only protection is God. And the only reason a hell of a lot of shit ain't happened to me is because of God. And I am grateful for that and I am trying my best to stay in His good grace, 'cause I got nuthin'. Okay? I got nothing. I got no power to defend myself against any of this shit. Were it not for God, I would not be here. I am only here because God thinks of me. My, my whole desire in life is to have God think as well of me as I possibly can. I wanna be on His good side so bad... (laughs)

Ben: Yeah...

Kibo: That's all I want. If I'm on God's good side, I'm cool, okay. He's my best friend, and I know if He's standing right with me or next to me or behind me that little motherfucker ain't ever gonna come up and slap me again. 'Cause he sees, hey, he sees what I got. So, that's it!

Ben: I think that's a good point that you make, and I think the reality, the reality of it is that we have not got nuthin' if we not have the one that created us, 'cause right now we need Him more than ever. We think we kinda, maybe needed Him, a little bit here and there occasionally, but right now, we need Him. And He's all we got, really.

Kibo: Well, here's the thing. He can only be with us as much as we let Him be.

Ben: Right.

Kibo: Okay, so we can only be with Him as much as we let ourselves be. And this is why is it so important to go within and do the work. I keep saying, there's only one of us here, recognize that and give the guy his props! Start acting like you're supposed to act. What else can you do?

Ben: That's it. Now, Kibo, I'm gonna bring this second hour to a close, we gotta finish this second hour, this hour is going longer than an hour should go, but there's just so much to be said! (laughter) So, in official terms, I'm going to call this meeting to a close at this time. Thank you very much for this uh, time you spent with me, Kibo, I'm sure a lot of people are going to get a lot out of this conversation. There's a lot to be said about these times. A lot of us are sharing these kind of experiences, feeling the same things, and it's nice to illuminate them for each other.

Kibo: Can I say thank you? You know, this is going out to AH, and I want to thank the people that have helped me grow and have gotten me this far, 'cause you guys don't really understand what you've done for me, okay? If it weren't for Candace and Jess and Hazel and Eve and, and, and (laughs) I've got too many people (to thank) I'm learning from everybody here and I'm taking what you're putting out and I'm using it! I am, I'm using it! All of you are helping me grow and I appreciate that, and we're in this together and there's a reason we're here. I know I don't always post, you know, and I don't do the Happy Birthday thing...

Ben: (laughs)

Kibo: And people put up posts for help for this or that and I give it to them, I just don't post about it. I want you guys to know, I'm there for you, I love you, I am your brother, okay, I am with you.

Ben: Well, thank you. Thank you.

Kibo: So, you know... just saying... (laughs)

Ben: That's good, and we're there for you, too, man, and thank you so much for spending all this time today. You think we might convince you to do it again, sometime soon?

Kibo: Oh, well, you know, whenever you feel the need, I guess, I'm mean, that's what I'm here for, I reckon.

Ben: (laughing) I'll take that as a yes and I'll hold you to that. Okay, folks, I'm going to press the pause button on this recorder...folks, this has been a fantastic experience, I'm so glad. This is Kibo, coming at you with Benjamin, again, this is for AH and everyone who listens to it, we hope you find this useful and interesting and worth a listen and we'll see you real soon on the other side. Peace out!

Kibo: Oyahe. God goes with you.

And here's his blog if you haven't bookmarked it. <http://kibodabi.wordpress.com/>
