Kundalini and Other Related Spiritual topics.

Hi all, I am starting this thread today as I promised another I would. I have to go get their request, around the topic of Kundalini and then post the linky to this thread, where I know that person will check. So will be back shortly to work on it in a new post. I am just creating the thread with this post. The thread the question was posted in, is not the place to do this discussion, it is this thread, where I am posting PJ #27 on the Laws of God. I want to keep that material unique to itself. This topic of kundalini is outside of it. Thread: UNDERSTANDING THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION \(Page 3\)

Ok first I am copying a couple posts of mine and AC6200427 who asked.

OP,

Very interesting post, I am still taking all of this in and thinking about it.

I would like to ask a question:

Where does Kundalini fit into this?

Kundalini in Christian terms (which I am not), is the "descent of the Holy Spirit" into man

I am confused as if the Father fragment is already within us, then how can it descend into us?

Many thanks in advance

WOW what a wondrous question and a LOVELY surprise!

I have to get off right now for some chores, shower etc but I am already pondering how I will teach on this as there is great misunderstanding of Holy Spirit and Kundalini, which are not necessarily the same thing. we have a lot of concepts, like even the word "god" on this plane that often have several meanings and thus difficulty of concept. I will be back later, I am not going to forget this one! I have been wanting to start a holy spirit thread, perhaps its getting to be time on that. Decent of what is called "holy spirit" and the Father fragment are not the same concept. Most folks don't even perceive their Father Fragment yet at this time on this plane. When they do, they will think God is talking to them however. But that is not the same is the Kundalini descending.

This is my next transferred post from the thread mentioned above.

Ok I am not writing the whole response just yet, thinking on it while I am loading the dishwasher etc.

I have covered here on the forum and my own website some basics about this christian idea of the Holy Spirit which I still have difficulty understanding as I have not been ingrained in it, choosng to avoid christianity since a small child as much as possible.

This Holy Spirit of this group seem to be 3 misunderstandings. One is the Father Fragment, and one is Spirit of Truth, and the 3rd is probably the Kundalini thingy. Actually until today I had not included that and taught that Holy Spirit is 3rd person of the Trinity as MOTHER SPIRIT. And this is so and where my story today will begin when I get back to this. Mother Spirit is not understood. Let me first say that the Father Fragment/Thought adjuster is Father Spirit. First person of the Trinity. Not 3rd person Trinity.

The Spirit of Truth bestowed by "jesus"/Michael of Nebadon on Pentecost is a copy of Michael of Nebadon's spirit to the planetary MIND. Its a living growing LIBRARY. Meaning a copy of his Spirit, means its a copy of his MIND. Sort of like you make copies files on your computer of files.

Consider the Spirit of Truth a copy of his "harddrive that makes up his mind." The difference between a hard drive on your computer, and mind should be obvious though. This is a living spirit as it is a copy of living mind. Your mind is also living and not a computer hard drive. But the analogy is useful.

The Spirit of Truth has been mistaken as the "holy spirit" being 3rd person of the Trinity. It is not, nor is it related to KUNDALINI. Now I am getting off again, but anyone who is going to follow this, Understand that Your Father Fragment IS first person Trinity. And thus NOT the "holy spirit". It will help in this. When I do return I will edit this post and continue here.

*****

AC6200427 then replied:

Thank you so far!. I am not a Christian either and neither am I religious.

I had a spontaneous K-Awakening a few years back, a graceful one I am pleased to say, hence my interest.

Could you maybe instead explain the Kundalini within the framework of what you have already written on the first 2-3 pages of this post.

Kundalini is a biological fact but of course there are many frames of reference, so I would be interested in how this fits or maybe doesn't within your framework of understanding.

They can shake hands if the teaching in Christian churches was of the truth. Generally however, you are correct. There ARE some "esoteric seeking Christians." There are christians with risen kundalini and know it but call it the Holy spirit descending on them, because of lack of decent education. These that I have met or sense are never Hellfire practitioners. Most think the holy Spirit talks to them if they "hear it" and that is the Father Fragment or guides and angels. Once in a while their "holy spirit" gives them some very unholy information so its not the Spirit of the Lord, the Spirit of Jesus, or any of their knowledgeable guides advising them. I will quickly review the other posts that showed up and then start with the AC's questions from about 9 days ago or so.

GREAT, I was worried that maybe you gave up on me. The idea did not leave me, just wasn't ready.

Now I just removed Suzie "Christian" who made it quite clear she does not belong here. I am NOT demonic and what I am about to teach is not demonic. You ones have sadly been misled about the RISE of the Kundalini and what it means. This PAINS me greatly, that you ones are not taught truth and only given lousy rudiments about God and his ways, cosmology, kundalini and the like.

You are missing GREAT JOY. 😞😞😞

You others similar to you will NOT be allowed to bring your ignorance with your Dark ENERGY into this thread. Ignorance I can deal with, my purpose is to teach after all. Dark Energy I will not tolerate in my threads. I am thus a gold star with Godlike Powers on glp to remove them and I will.

So continue to read Suzy if you wish and if you wish to ask sincere questions after reading send me a Pm and I will unban you. Otherwise you will not degrade my work. Like it or NOT, My organization IS the 2nd Coming organization and a partnership between The TWO that manifested in one body as "Jesus" (never was his name beloved, Paul mucked that up, so confused was he), and myself. I have a SKILLED global team and you ARE invited to partake of the messages of our telepaths on my site. Just as ones were stoned in olden days and burned as witches, so it continues today by ones who do NOT know God. Kundalini Rising IN FACT proves the GOD WITHIN has developed. The person IS GOD CONSCIOUS of SELF as a Son of God.

To "green thumb" collectors this is MY original wall of text, written right here, so don't report it as copyright violation. yes this happened to me before. On one occasion, I quoted my OWN material and got a double copyright violation and told that we can get red thumbs for quoting material that somebody else did not place the linky on. Well I can't place a linky on MY posts I write here.

OK let me begin. Kundalini IS 3rd person Trinity, Mother Spirit energy. It does indeed lie on the base of the spine awaiting its awakening. When it is fully activated, there is the merger, spoken of with the Star of David, the merger of Father/Mother Energy. Literally the Mother rises within the body, (actually energy fields of the body, or body etheric/body double if you wish for the time being), to meet the Father Energy/Soul. I will think of a bit better way perhaps to express that. Understand here, I have read some very conflicting material over the years on all of this, and a whole bunch is not right, but we have a paucity of correct words in English anyway on this plane. so I do the best I can for the various readers I contend with.

I will encourage readers to tell their kundalini stories here if you wish. For some the process is slow and painful, for others quick and painless, or quite and terrible, or slow and pleasant.

The Kundalini is NOT the descending of the "Holy Spirit", is the ascension of the Holy Spirit, thru the opening chakras. There are 7 basic chakras/energy "disks". In Short, the kundalini Rising IS the Opening of the Chakras and Chakras open at varying rates depending on the soul progress. In some of you, it will include at some point the opening of the spiritual chakras above the crown chakra, that connect you with "outer space" so to speak, "telepathically".

In a future post I will place some material and some links. You are welcome with your kundalini stories to place links that help explain it for you. We can go over some perhaps. I waited to start this thread, because to do it right, it cannot be a "one post" topic. I will also go over the one post I made to AC to see what I started there.

But I will say AC, that the Father Fragment is Source/Father/First Person Trinity, and the Kundalini is 3rd Person Mother Spirit energy and so different from the Father Fragment you commented about. Hope that helps right there.

Your Bodies, your Holy Temples for YOUR Spirit, ARE also MOTHER SPIRIT ENERGY. Her Mind programs the electrons that govern your body to make it work. Thus Mother Spirit energy is within all living things, plants and animal. While Mind is non physical, the knowledge must be stored ON something, and in the case of all physical bodies, the how of the physical body is one them. In fact the electrons make the ASTRAL form of the body, that part of the body that shows up in the astral realms of earth after the passing of the physical body for those going to those realms after physical death. That is why you "look" just like your former physical body, or your current physical body if you "astral" travel. Note the astral body is NOT the soul or your mind, its just the body type used in those realms.

Now, there are basically two situations in which the Kundalini rises and I will deal here in this post with the first. This first situation is that most of you undergoing very active kundalini rising are star seeds. You are being opened, whether you realize it or not, generally on a schedule of when it is time for YOU and the Planet. You are now in greater numbers coming in with specially created embryos with more than 2 strands of DNA. You are coming in at birth with 3 or more. And as a young child you hook up more of them. I have 24 strands now, which is the most for this plane that can be hooked and the persons body still "visible" to the eyes of others.

Now as your DNA hooks and you awake and your guardian angels decide you should be more awake, the process will begin. Some are activated very suddenly, and it can be easy or painful as hell. Some have great difficulty once activated, particularly those 50 and older now, who were activated in their 20's and 30's. They did not fully remember they are highly evolved Sons of God with rather great powers, used or not, and it was very dumbfounding and a lot went into drugs to hide, and then into drugs to explore. The age of the 70's was a typical time for those ones. And the wrong drugs made their way to some of them, on purpose by thugs to harm the whole process. Sadly a wondrous example of that, even though she was only 40+ was the beloved Arch Angel incarnate, Whitney Huston. She didn't have much choice on the drugs she was given without her consent that were to knock her out of her true power. Did she not RADIATE when she was younger? Oh yes. The thugs knew, made their money and destroyed her kundalini.

So why raise the kundalini in the first place, because then your BODY becomes a channel for the works of Mother Energy on this world. Your body is a magnet for Paradise energy also with it raised up. Your Body quite literally is an antenna to receive, and thus a broadcasting unit to this world. Its part of the ascension of this world. Thus this is NOT Taught in Christian Churches. I have no idea if Islam has any mystery schools or teaching on this. But its being left out, and Christians being told its EVIL and devil possession certainly puts a big stop sign on the purpose.

And Christianity has been used to delay star seeds who are initially attracted to it, because they remember the word CHRIST, from manifesting their God power. Many a time the higher self will work in great tears with the lower self mind of the mind controlled Christian and they don't wake up. The wake up rate on this world is terrible. They are made AFRAID of their very own body and its potential. They are made afraid of the sensations their more advanced body perceives in this time from the changing energies of the photon belt and other energies. This Milky Way energies though, since 2006 ARE going to change that body anyway and some will be left in joy and others not knowing what the shit is going on. It is frightening to them what they feel and they reject it. I know people in this condition, and they don't even attend church nor are drawn to it, but they get their mind control in other areas, such as military, law enforcement, teacher education and the like. "Satan" meaning the dark energies have been most successful here.

Thus summarized, those pulled in the mind controlled arenas either refuse the wake up, or are terrified of it, or plain don't see it. And this post is long enough. But you ones to summarize with Kundalini having arisen are beacons to this world. LITTERALLY. You stand out and often you will be rejected, or compromised like the beautiful Whitney. I met her after her passing by the way. When your kundalini is risen, by all means draw the celestial light of Paradise thru your OPEN CROWN CHAKRA and radiate it into this world by extending your aura to 50 feet (16 meters) or more, whatever you can manage. Experiment doing that in crowded stores on the weekend. You will most surprised at its affect on those around and the general energy in those stores, it will improve, as least while you are there.

Hi Candace! While I read about this subject, two questions came up... As I know at this moment, when someone's reaching the 12 strand DNA, that suppose to be in a very healthy state of being, even to be in a 5D "body". Is it other factors in the process, like raising the vibrational level to eliminate the lower "sickness" programs etc.? I know, it's about Kundalini, but almost everything is related to this huge topic called ascension/awareness raising, and the ultimate "goal" is to become a cosmic HUMAN, a fully conscious being...

Secondly, what did you mean to "extend the aura to 50"?
It definitely can't be layers, but I guess it's about inches(?)... Thanks

Hi Planetquest, I made a typo, on the aura, I thought I found them all but did not. I corrected it to 50 FEET (about 16 meters) , but some cannot make it go that far, you can tell actually when you do it you can. I have extended mine sometimes to more than that. depends on the need, but if like standing in line at the store, I may extend it to 4 or 5 feet from my body to encompass ones around me in line.

I will keep the other questions in mind, I want to do my second post on Kundalini first, in the ascending individual/soul/child of this world who are not star seeds. Those of you who are starseeds who have done the kundalini thing are either already as fully conscious as you can be at this time. The 5d body must have 12 strands, that is the basic level of the ascended person. They are built rather gradually as one grows, but many of you from the stars have most or all of them, certainly far more than the animal 2. I have other material to present in tis thread related to this wide variety of related topics and I know I have some posts here on glp that are useful already for here but I have done none on kundalini so want to stay to this for the first posts in this thread.

not related to that at all Tony. the awakened Kundalini is awakened and needs no practice at all Those that like to sell training sell that idea. Yoga is useful as exercise for the body and mind, but it doesn't have a thing to do with Kundalini. I do not practice yoga and its doesn't affect mine. I don't practice it because this body has too much arthritis and muscle spasm, it HURTS to do it and has broken small bones. Kundalini is totally related to reconnected junk DNA and the condition of the spirit using the body. Maybe today I will delve more into kundalini awakening gradually in the earth soul who is not a star seed.

Kundalini in the body is the direct result of the loving and aware spirit, to put it very simply. It happens or is the result or effect to the body system of the god knowing soul

I am curious here about Kundalini and also the various bit of information out and about of the Merkaba energy field which I will post after this one. A few years ago after much study and learning of the energy radiance system of the Chakras here is what happened as I moved from theory of understanding to actual experience and knowing of the focusing on opening up - the reality of it.

First on three occasions I felt a strong surge of source energy coarse through my meridian, an exhilarating feeling moving thought the body. No doubt about it as a physical experience; it even drew a giggle it felt so good. These happened while I was on my back getting energy work done to fix and normalize the sorry stressed out condition I was in.

Second thing was repeated attempts to sit, relax, and focus to align, center, and ground my own source energy, concentrating on bringing in and accumulating my own energy, and when full, sending it into the earth to ground. It required that I "get out of my head" so to speak to center the energy around the heart power center. Then came the focusing on raising my vibration up, moving this source energy upwards to reach a state of calm, clear mind, a very nice place to be indeed. I call it raising my "Derby" because it actually feels like that. I should point out that what helped this process to really work, was the inviting of my Guide to come on in and help me. It took some effort to believe that guides were real, I was previously in disbelief. It was then that I knew how real was my guide (and "Crew") and the little things she did to prove they were definitely real and so enthusiastically available to help me with this effort. This was a major turning point for me.

These "Source Energy" experiences - is that the Kundalini thingy? I noticed that, over time, I needed less and less of "the routine" and found that I could reach that clear mind state more quickly until it seems now, that I am "there" for the better part of each day. Like being in an alpha wave state only better! Oh, and most importantly, on a regular basis, the "Shielding" or what we call "Tubing" of this source energy to wear of a protective barrier against would-be instrusions by others, is a most effective practice of clearing and staying in "the zone".

To me they work together beautifully.

I see kundalini as the same thing as accepting the Holy Spirit into your being. Evangelical Christians would call this "being saved or born again".

As a non Evangelical, I experience this when I meditate. I verbally reject the forces of darkness and ask to be enveloped by the Light of Christ and the Holy Spirit. When I do the rejection, the hair on my body will often stand on end & tingle, when I ask for the presence of Christ & the Holy Spirit, a great sense of peace & tranquility comes over me.

I am not a teacher, this is just my experience.

Edit: To add here, I will go out on the limb and give some personal info: I am a Catholic Christian Mystic and I follow the Roscrucian philosophy. What does this mean? I believe in the Holy Trinity and try to follow the example of Christ by communing with God in nature and within myself. Mass, for me, is for fellowship purposes. Roscrucianism is not religion, but an esoteric philosophy that has been around since the days of ancient Greece.

On to the subject of the Merkaba sometimes also called Merkavah or Merkabah, where it is said, the Mer is the surrounding light field of energy around the body, the Ka is of the Spirit, and Ba is the physical reality, the body etc. If you Google Merkaba you will see the sacred geometry forms, the 3D inverted Pyramids, that form the 2D flat image of the Star of David. Other so-call seminars teach of other gemotry forms such as the Icosahedron.

Somewhere in all of this the Kundalini energy seems to be a precursor connection to the so called Merkaba. What I see being advertised and posted on various sites about the Merkaba however, does not sit well with me. I sense there is a whole lot of New Age Goo going on. Just look at all the seminars you can pay good money, to go get a lesson on "How to Ascend". Hmmm, something does not ring true there because the Light-Spirit-Body focus of the Merkaba,,,where is the SOUL-MIND in all of it? Drunvalo Melchizedek has done much to bring about awareness of the Merkaba. Even the UB mentions it in history discourse in the Paper 111 entitled "The Adjustor and the Soul".

Interesting Candace, that as you posted about Kundalini I was trying to ferret out the truth in the Merkaba material, distinguishing between the Spirit, Mind, Body etc. and analyzing the difference between the body's etheric double and the Morontia Soul. It would seem that all the Merkaba hubba-lou is about Spirit and makes no reference to soul-mind. As always, I eagerly await your response to this. Thank you dear one.

As I said, you who know you have have experienced your kundalini rising, please post YOUR experiences which would be helpful as teaching to others.

I will describe my first Kundalini experience.

I was 9 years old and was engaged in a prayer/meditative activity. Very suddenly, I began shaking all over and had to drop to my knees as I was unable to continue standing.

I felt very light and the experience was ecstatic. It lasted for maybe 3 minutes and was wonderful. It is difficult to put in into words other than to describe it a a non-sexual extreme orgasm. Imagine such an experience, minus the sexual aspect. The uplifted and light feeling lasted for days. Since then it is easy for me to feel "tapped into" the Holy Spirit when praying & meditating. I became very intuitive and do recognize when entities (both dark and/or light) are present. Others abilities have revealed but I do not wish to go into that here.

There is also a negative aspect to this activation. Since this occurance, I have attracted attacks by dark entities and humans who are easily influenced by such. I do easily banish such attacks, but I will admit that the harassment can be tiresome at times. I am certain NIP can relate to such.

really, I have had my Kundalini for an extremely LONG TIME now in this life. It is difficult to explain something to others that do not have it however, as is with ANY experience that another cannot understand having not had some sort of related experience. Kundalini is a spiritual experience and ancient sanskrit has nothing to do with it. I do agree that English is a limited language to express anything about "spirit" and God. But language has nothing to do with the experience, nor does it require a master to open it, it will NOT open until EARNED. It represents a level of progress so to speak. ARE YOU proficient in Sanskrit? You do not need any such to know that it is there. Just as I said it is combination of spirit attainment which also involves hooking the so call junk DNA, which is the only work I have to use that people would understand from what is put out in science and the press. That DNA is NOT hooked in people whose spirit is deficient still, PERIOD.

the cosmic energies now are hooking DNA in those whose spirit is making at least some progress. The christian/bible teaching of being changed in an instant is about Kundalini with the hooking of DNA. You star seeds are hooking prior to the effects on the rest of humanity. All those who have kundalini activation are changed in an instant so to speak.

Janes description above is typical of a sudden kundalini activation for which she was obviously already prepared spiritually, had sufficient hooked DNA that went easily for her.

I will describe my first Kundalini experience.

I was 9 years old and was engaged in a prayer/meditative activity. Very suddenly, I began shaking all over and had to drop to my knees as I was unable to continue standing.

I felt very light and the experience was ecstatic. It lasted for maybe 3 minutes and was wonderful. It is difficult to put in into words other than to describe it a a non-sexual extreme orgasm. Imagine such an experience, minus the sexual aspect. The uplifted and light feeling lasted for days. Since then it is easy for me to feel "tapped into" the Holy Spirit when praying & meditating. I became very intuitive and do recognize when entities (both dark and/or light) are present. Others abilities have revealed but I do not wish to go into that here.

There is also a negative aspect to this activation. Since this occurance, I have attracted attacks by dark entities and humans who are easily influenced by such. I do easily banish such attacks, but I will admit that the harassment can be tiresome at times. I am certain NIP can relate to such.

Thankyou Jane, I did reference your post slightly in the post I made to another above. I have been doing some teaching on the "holy spirit" which at some point I will collect from another thread and post it here. "Holy spirit" is sort of a catch all word. What are you are tapped into as a star seed "opened" at the age of 9, is your own higher self, which contains the Father Fragment I speak about so often, which is sometimes misunderstood as the "holy spirit" in religion, its inside your soul essentially. The other use of the Holy Spirit in particular is the SPIRIT of TRUTH, which was a "copy" of Michael the Creator Sons Spirit bestowed on this world at pentecost 2000 years ago. You can only access the Spirit of Truth, thru the Farther Fragment within.

Those who do not have or do not contact their Father Fragment or in the case of advanced souls incarnate there, their "higher self", cannot access the Spirit of Truth, the two go hand in hand. So beloved you are accessing your own HOLY SELF at any rate, a much stronger link to the "real you". This allows the real you with the kundalini arisen to interface with this world in a particularly fine way, as described above, your form besides being able to interface with your higher self, your body is a magnet to draw paradise and photonic energies into this world and then radiate them to others. I assume your having the awareness that goes with this, made for some success in your martial arts practice?

If you have some problems when you are around dark folks, you might want to lower the energy field a bit, because they surely detect the high vibration and light in your eyes, and will go after you, or let ones of dark energies use them, aware of it or not.

Yes, the awareness has been very helpful in the martial arts studies. When I need intense power I can go into the tranquil state and it is almost as if my body moves on instinct alone. I can even feel when an opponent is about to surge forward in a sparring match before they ever move.

When dealing with the dark energies, I usually send the entities packing with a forward thrust with the astral hand and a command the depart in the name of the Holy Spirit. With the dark influenced humans, I used to let them upset me because I could not understand why they would allow themselves to be utilized in such a manner. Now, I simply collect their dark energies and send them back toward them. I must admit some twinges of conscience when I often see them sicken or become injured within a month of reabsorbing their own emanations. I guess that is something I need to work on.

Hi NIP

Not a Reiki Master, but a "rusty" Reiki level 1 and 2 practitioner. Wondering whether I had a kundalini awakening a few years back when I did a refresher course and a lot of chakra work. That night I had a dream that I know wasn't a dream as I remembered it vividly. I was with my grandmother in a beautiful wood, by a stream who had passed away about 12 years previous. The setting can not be described as anything in this world as the colours were so vivid as if not of this earth and I remember seeing a lot of purple. Sadly I was a little scared after this event and lost touch with the reiki, but very interested in to practicing my reiki again.

Could I ask you looking back at that experience caused you to "fear" after it. I am looking maybe for cultural conditioning in some way as a cause. People raised, just for example as to material on this forum regularly, with a great fear of demons and the unknown have troubles shedding that and see demons everywhere and in everything, to the extreme. I think you had a lovely experience that your lower self was not ready for , because of conditioning.

I have to admit it was the most amazing experience and I wasn't afraid at all. It was only reading about kundalini at the time as it was so expected, that I only read the negatives about it. Kind of kicking myself now, as wondering what would have happened if I'd stuck with it, but getting back in to my reiki and yoga, so will see what happens this time round!

[\[link to adishakti.org\]](#)

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 12565519

Yep we do want the serpent power. Thanks for the link that talks about the kundalini being "mother energy" , however Yoga is NOT necessary to the process. Its not even related to it directly although there is a yoga practice called something like Kundalini yoga but it is not necessary to the process. I am going to copy a portion of this:

Kundalini

"Kundalinfail: 'She who is coiled; serpent power.' The primordial cosmic energy in every individual which eventually, through the practice of yoga, rises up the sushumnâ nâdfail. As it rises, the kunalinfail awakens each successive chakra. Nirvikalpa samâdhi, enlightenment, comes as it pierces through the door of Brahman at the core of the sahasrâra and enters!" Hinduism Today
"The Kundalini is your own mother. Your individual mother. And She has tape-recorded all your past and your aspirations, everything. And She rises because She wants to give you your second birth, but She is your individual mother. You don't share Her with anybody else. Yours is a different, somebody else's is different because the tape-recording is different. We say She is the reflection of the Adi Shakti who is called as Holy Ghost in the Bible. But She rises without any difficulty. Hardly any time it takes." — Shri Mataji

I bolded the above, because I often teach here that what the mind "knows" is stored on electrons which are mother energy. Your mind is non physical but you have to store what you know on something. However electrons store any old junk and as you truly come to KNOW within about something that is TRUTH, it is transferred over to Photons, because the photon is father energy and stores no junk. Thus your Father MIIND Fragment, is stuff stored on photons which also store a lot more than electrons do. Everything about running your body, is stored on electrons. Your body would not work without the instructions on them, and this is true of all physical bodies, plants and animals.

The 2nd birth beloveds spoken of, IS ALL ABOUT KUNDALINI ACTIVATION. It is not going to church, getting baptized and believing ON Jesus. I really like the those statements I quoted above. I have never seen that. Lots of truth. In this basically, where it talks about the "tape recording" that is your real mind, that you carry with you into each incarnation. Your electron mind I guess you could call your own individual mother, I love sometimes hindu stuff. This is really NICE. I just call it "Mother energy" because man does not yet understand mother father energies of the creation. but this is cute, your mind stored on electrons of the Mother, she would be thus your very own unique mother.

In this being born again, or the 2nd birth, while you star seeds experience the kundalini activation , per my above post, you are not experiencing your 2nd birth or being "born again." You are long ago born again, it is simply an activation because enough DNA has hooked, and it TIME to be activated so you body can be that magnet as above, but in this activation you also have available your HIGHER SELF, which Jane so BEAUTIFULLY DESCRIBED when she was the ripe old age of 9 and meditating already. I might actually come to like this thread, I was somewhat hesitant in starting it, for a lot of reasons on this board. But now, and thanks to the AC from SWEDEN, I have a little tool to use. I also collected a little chakra thingy to upload here as a smiley to use. I assume it will upload I didn't do it yet, off to do that now. But again, THANKS AC, this is so useful. If I knew more about Hinduism terms, it would help. I started on that once, because there is great knowledge given in it about spirit, but translating that to English, and to those not raised in it, is difficult and something I did not spend time on.

This is giving me something useful maybe with Christian teaching to use.

And a race of dark thugs from the universe were imprisoned on this world to grow up, few did, and they named themselves Dragon Serpents, which is why you see serpents even in medical insignia. Most are incarnate in this day, within the Khazar Zionist group. NO relation to Kundalini whatsoever, do don't go there in this thread again. In general the dragon serpent people were associated with the Lucifer Rebellion. What you have posted above is typical of christianity. If you go to the linky you provided in your first post, you will get a nicer education than at this linky. I'm not a Reiki Master but my friend is and we do Sessions with each other once a weak.

These were my first Reiki experiences.

On my first Reiki Session with her, I felt my whole body tingling and then it felt like something massive got pulled out of my heart.

The feeling of it was so intense that I opened my eyes( I think I made some noise to) and saw my friend about 4 meters away from the couch where I was laying on, with her arms still up in the air. All the while laying there I could have sworn that she was standing right next to me.

Later she told me, my Aura/Spirit would have filled the whole room with it's presence, also she felt like multiple layers of pain had been pulled out of my heart Chakra.
Ever since that day I feel "lighter" and much more confident and loved.

Before the second occasion, we both had been contemplating on the "Mantle of Christ" for almost a week.

In the middle of the Reiki Session I felt a beautiful loving warm entity in a long "Mantle" feeling his/her presence like a gentle breeze. Still today I have no words to describe what happened to me, all I can say is, it stayed with me up to this day.

After the Session we both wrote down our experience without talking about it, just to discover that we both had experienced the same thing.

Reiki for me, is another form of practiced Love, healing what is broke and bringing one closer to Oneness.

We are working on the Chakras now.

Could it be that a child, say about 6 or 7 years of age with an awakened Kundalini, when getting confronted with spiritual No Go, like false religious teachings when forced upon, reacts to it with strange behavior?

I would think so. And probably an issue with a lot of star kids now. I don't think the higher self or guardians would want that too much if a poor incarnational choice has been made, because a lot of choice around when it is proper to awaken star kids has to do with the conditions. Awakened to early in the wrong place could have horrendous effects. It might be curious if Jane wants to say anything about her life cultural conditions at the age of 9. This could be a reason for behavior problems manifesting in unusually bright children. Too much awareness to be handled, or too much over reaction from the handlers in family, schools and churches. Interesting question. I have actually wondered if some of what is labeled autism at least in some children be related to much information coming in for the conditions the child is in.

If some of you think you were opened early, do you have memories of societal issues and misunderstanding by adults in your life? I am even again lately looking back at my own childhood, from a different perspective regards reactions of others. I do know these days, even where i live, that certain parents are making sure their kids go to schools not in the system, or home school them. Children awakened have to deal with SMALL BODIES and conditions that it impossible for them to get away from them.

It would be interesting to watch these very young talented children who are singers at age 4 and above and other prodigies. You can see the light in these kids. And at this time the money machine will want to make money on them. it could be a very difficult time. I ponder Whitney Houston some times still with what she shared with me, being a child prodigy. They used her for the money but did not want the light to continue and she did not start on the drugs of her free choice, she was started on them, and the rest is history there.

it will just happen. But I hope you have been practicing meditation, which allows communion with your soul. You will be "opened" when it is time if you are star seed or opened when it is time if an evolving earth soul. There are cosmic rays coming in which are causing DNA, what is called junk DNA to hook up. Plus there has to be a spiritually seeking person as part of that. I am going to get into the situation of the evolving earth soul and kundalini and these current times, and the WAVE as part of this. I will bring a post from my wave thread here as part of this. Regards the teaching in the bible that says people will be instantly changed. That is the Kundalini rising/the being reborn in christ PLUS they will embody their morontial soul.

The word Christ however is not necessary to the process. Religion is not necessary to the process. It happens in all religions, and no religions. It is related to these cosmic energies our planet is now in and the readiness of the person. What is important is the seeking of spirituality, of spiritual GROWTH of the soul. this is rewarded with a change in the body. For those not star seeds,

Jesus and the Buddha

To All, These are two excerpts from the 'URANTIA BOOK' about the one known as Jesus in regard to His position or view of religions. 3. Buddhism

(1446.3) 131:3.1 Ganid was shocked to discover how near Buddhism came to being a great and beautiful religion without God, without a personal and universal Deity. However, he did find some record of certain earlier beliefs which reflected something of the influence of the teachings of the Melchizedek missionaries who continued their work in India even to the times of Buddha. Jesus and Ganid collected the following statements from the Buddhist literature:

(1446.4) 131:3.2 “Out of a pure heart shall gladness spring forth to the Infinite; all my being shall be at peace with this supermortal rejoicing. My soul is filled with content, and my heart overflows with the bliss of peaceful trust. I have no fear; I am free from anxiety. I dwell in security, and my enemies cannot alarm me. I am satisfied with the fruits of my confidence. I have found the approach to the Immortal easy of access. I pray for faith to sustain me on the long journey; I know that faith from beyond will not fail me. I know my brethren will prosper if they become imbued with the faith of the Immortal, even the faith that creates modesty, uprightness, wisdom, courage, knowledge, and perseverance. Let us forsake sorrow and disown fear. By faith let us lay hold upon true righteousness and genuine manliness. Let us learn to meditate on justice and mercy. Faith is man’s true wealth; it is the endowment of virtue and glory.

(1446.5) 131:3.3 “Unrighteousness is contemptible; sin is despicable. Evil is degrading, whether held in thought or wrought out in deeds. Pain and sorrow follow in the path of evil as the dust follows the wind. Happiness and peace of mind follow pure thinking and virtuous living as the shadow follows the substance of material things. Evil is the fruit of wrongly directed thinking. It is evil to see sin where there is no sin; to see no sin where there is sin. Evil is the path of false doctrines. Those who avoid evil by seeing things as they are gain joy by thus embracing the truth. Make an end of your misery by loathing sin. When you look up to the Noble One, turn away from sin with a whole heart. Make no apology for evil; make no excuse for sin. By your efforts to make amends for past sins you acquire strength to resist future tendencies thereto. Restraint is born of repentance. Leave no fault unconfessed to the Noble One.

(1447.1) 131:3.4 “Cheerfulness and gladness are the rewards of deeds well done and to the glory of the Immortal. No man can rob you of the liberty of your own mind. When the faith of your religion has emancipated your heart, when the mind, like a mountain, is settled and immovable, then shall the peace of the soul flow tranquilly like a river of waters. Those who are sure of salvation are forever free from lust, envy, hatred, and the delusions of wealth. While faith is the energy of the better life, nevertheless, must you work out your own salvation with perseverance. If you would be certain of your final salvation, then make sure that you sincerely seek to fulfill all righteousness. Cultivate the assurance of the heart which springs from within and thus come to enjoy the ecstasy of eternal salvation.

(1447.2) 131:3.5 “No religionist may hope to attain the enlightenment of immortal wisdom who persists in being slothful, indolent, feeble, idle, shameless, and selfish. But whoso is thoughtful, prudent, reflective, fervent, and earnest — even while he yet lives on earth — may attain the supreme enlightenment of the peace and liberty of divine wisdom. Remember, every act shall receive its reward. Evil results in sorrow and sin ends in pain. Joy and happiness are the outcome of a good life. Even the evildoer enjoys a season of grace before the time of the full ripening of his evil deeds, but inevitably there must come the full harvest of evil-doing. Let no man think lightly of sin, saying in his heart: 'The penalty of wrongdoing shall not come near me.' What you do shall be done to you, in the judgment of wisdom. Injustice done to your fellows shall come back upon you. The creature cannot escape the destiny of his deeds.

(1447.3) 131:3.6 "The fool has said in his heart, 'Evil shall not overtake me'; but safety is found only when the soul craves reproof and the mind seeks wisdom. The wise man is a noble soul who is friendly in the midst of his enemies, tranquil among the turbulent, and generous among the grasping. Love of self is like weeds in a goodly field. Selfishness leads to grief; perpetual care kills. The tamed mind yields happiness. He is the greatest of warriors who overcomes and subdues himself. Restraint in all things is good. He alone is a superior person who esteems virtue and is observant of his duty. Let not anger and hate master you. Speak harshly of no one. Contentment is the greatest wealth. What is given wisely is well saved. Do not to others those things you would not wish done to you. Pay good for evil; overcome evil with the good.

(1447.4) 131:3.7 "A righteous soul is more to be desired than the sovereignty of all the earth. Immortality is the goal of sincerity; death, the end of thoughtless living. Those who are earnest die not; the thoughtless are dead already. Blessed are they who have insight into the deathless state. Those who torture the living will hardly find happiness after death. The unselfish go to heaven, where they rejoice in the bliss of infinite liberality and continue to increase in noble generosity. Every mortal who thinks righteously, speaks nobly, and acts unselfishly shall not only enjoy virtue here during this brief life but shall also, after the dissolution of the body, continue to enjoy the delights of heaven."10. "Our Religion"

(1453.3) 131:10.1 After the arduous labor of effecting this compilation of the teachings of the world religions concerning the Paradise Father, Ganid set himself to the task of formulating what he deemed to be a summary of the belief he had arrived at regarding God as a result of Jesus' teaching. This young man was in the habit of referring to such beliefs as "our religion." This was his record:

(1453.4) 131:10.2 "The Lord our God is one Lord, and you should love him with all your mind and heart while you do your very best to love all his children as you love yourself. This one God is our heavenly Father, in whom all things consist, and who dwells, by his spirit, in every sincere human soul. And we who are the children of God should learn how to commit the keeping of our souls to him as to a faithful Creator. With our heavenly Father all things are possible. Since he is the Creator, having made all things and all beings, it could not be otherwise. Though we cannot see God, we can know him. And by daily living the will of the Father in heaven, we can reveal him to our fellow men.

(1453.5) 131:10.3 "The divine riches of God's character must be infinitely deep and eternally wise. We cannot search out God by knowledge, but we can know him in our hearts by personal experience. While his justice may be past finding out, his mercy may be received by the humblest being on earth. While the Father fills the universe, he also lives in our hearts. The mind of man is human, mortal, but the spirit of man is divine, immortal. God is not only all-powerful but also all-wise. If our earth parents, being of evil tendency, know how to love their children and bestow good gifts on them, how much more must the good Father in heaven know how wisely to love his children on earth and to bestow suitable blessings upon them.

(1454.1) 131:10.4 "The Father in heaven will not suffer a single child on earth to perish if that child has a desire to find the Father and truly longs to be like him. Our Father even loves the wicked and is always kind to the ungrateful. If more human beings could only know about the goodness of God, they would certainly be led to repent of their evil ways and forsake all known sin. All good things come down from the Father of light, in whom there is no variableness neither shadow of changing. The spirit of the true God is in man's heart. He intends that all men should be brothers. When men begin to feel after God, that is evidence that God has found them, and that they are in quest of knowledge about him. We live in God and God dwells in us.

(1454.2) 131:10.5 "I will no longer be satisfied to believe that God is the Father of all my people; I will henceforth believe that he is also my Father. Always will I try to worship God with the help of the Spirit of Truth, which is my helper when I have become really God-knowing. But first of all I am going to practice worshiping God by learning how to do the will of God on earth; that is, I am going to do my best to treat each of my fellow mortals just as I think God would like to have him treated. And when we live this sort of a life in the flesh, we may ask many things of God, and he will give us the desire of our hearts that we may be the better prepared to serve our fellows. And all of this loving service of the children of God enlarges our capacity to receive and experience the joys of heaven, the high pleasures of the ministry of the spirit of heaven.

(1454.3) 131:10.6 "I will every day thank God for his unspeakable gifts; I will praise him for his wonderful works to the children of men. To me he is the Almighty, the Creator, the Power, and the Mercy, but best of all, he is my spirit Father, and as his earth child I am sometime going forth to see him. And my tutor has said that by searching for him I shall become like him. By faith in God I have attained peace with him. This new religion of ours is very full of joy, and it generates an enduring happiness. I am confident that I shall be faithful even to death, and that I will surely receive the crown of eternal life.

(1454.4) 131:10.7 "I am learning to prove all things and adhere to that which is good. Whatsoever I would that men should do to me, that I will do to my fellows. By this new faith I know that man may become the son of God, but it sometimes terrifies me when I stop to think that all men are my brothers, but it must be true. I do not see how I can rejoice in the fatherhood of God while I refuse to accept the brotherhood of man. Whosoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. If that is true, then all men must be my brothers.

(1454.5) 131:10.8 "Henceforth will I do my good deeds in secret; I will also pray most when by myself. I will judge not that I may not be unfair to my fellows. I am going to learn to love my enemies; I have not truly mastered this practice of being Godlike. Though I see God in these other religions, I find him in 'our religion' as being more beautiful, loving, merciful, personal, and positive. But most of all, this great and glorious Being is my spiritual Father; I am his child. And by no other means than my honest desire to be like him, I am eventually to find him and eternally to serve him. At last I have a religion with a God, a marvelous God, and he is a God of eternal salvation." link to [www.urantia.org] the white rose Ok from my WAVE thread: Thread: THE WAVE/Face of God/The ONE \(Page 4\) This is about the wave, and if you have not read the first post in that thread, you need to. On page 4 or so people began posting past materials given. This Christian version is just excellent. I have said Kundalini is Mother Energy, which is often associated with the electron. The Wave includes high frequency electrons and it comes in LAPS. We have just entered another LAP. I think it going to be a doozy.

These electrons raise the vibration of matter, and that includes the matter in the body. It is responsible for the many of those TRUMPETS being heard now. During one of these WAVES a LOT of people are going to be "reborn". They are going to experience the kundalini activation. En masse. There ARE other energies involved with the WAVE. People without Father Fragments are not going to have kundalini activation. Their higher spirit, their MORONTIAL soul is going to merge into the body. Now you star seeds who are spirit beings, you are past "morontial soul" so this doesn't apply to you. In fact the spirit being has such high energy, it cannot enter matter, and you thus always have a LINKY to your higher self, even when kundalini activated. Your "fiber optic cable" to your higher self, gets a lot bigger in this case, so the interchange between your body and body mind system is greatly accelerated.

But the MORONTIAL SOUL folks (you have to have read the ub to get this one), are going to actually merge INTO their bodies. They are separate from them until this time. Their bodies not prepared to host their soul. And their bodies are already being prepared in various ways which I will put into another post, this is a wall of text anyway, and I didn't place the bible quotes with the post in here. You can go back to the wave thread for that.

This post has strong 'Wave' & Christian characteristics...

Posted on GLP from Prophet (507633) 1/24/09

Time is short and the Divine Fire will burn hotter then anyone can imagine. Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. Soon, everyone will KNOW the truth of this statement.

Vision 1-06-09

In the vision, I was looking at the world from a suspended position. I could see people and areas from a panoramic position and also at times, I saw things close up. The position varied as it did with the scenes and with the messages that I was given to understand by the experiences given to me.

I saw what looked to me like great fiery rain coming from heaven and it came in great drops or elongated streams. It was not like the natural rain that we know of, but it was like spiritually infused living molten lava, a real fire, but it was Living Spirit; the living fiery essence of the Father that was raining down towards the inhabitants below.

As I watched, I saw that it fell simultaneously in one great event all over the earth. But it did not fall everywhere, and it did not upon everyone. It rained down suddenly and I saw that many people did see it coming from above as it happened, as it was a real physical event that men could actually experience and see, but it was also a divine event that not all men would experience, but I understood that men would know that God had entered into the corporate natural affairs of men divinely again.

It was not a slow natural event like a storm or a weather phenomenon that you could track, or follow and monitor, actually, from my perspective it looked like a slow unfolding event, but I understood that it actually happened very fast. I was just being given an enhanced view for my understanding and learning.

The raining fire of the Father that I saw falling was the Real Living Essence of the Father Himself that was being released upon those whom He had prepared to receive it below. It was interesting to watch this happen, as it fell upon people whom you would not expect nor think that it would, or even that it would not, by our thinking or reasoning of qualifications.

The fiery rain would come down and fall upon a particular person who would be either aware of it falling or not be aware of it falling at that particular moment, but when it did hit them, they underwent a sudden tremendous change. I watched close up as the living fire seemed to penetrate into them and infuse itself or radiate itself throughout their beings and bodies. They literally became the very same Essence of the Father that the rain was that had fell upon them. Their eyes burned with a new life and even their skin was changed. It was not like ours now. It had a different texture or spiritual component to it's makeup, and the fire flowed throughout their skin like a radiance, but it was not just an outward surface shining, but it was an internal radiance from within the skin layers itself. It was not like human skin as we know it, the qualities had been divinely altered, and the people now had new natures. I did not fully understand all of this process, but it was real and it was new. They were of a different spirit, as they now embodied the divine in such a way that we have yet to experience up to now. (NIP: This skin stuff etc is the result of the morontial soul entering the body. Thus because the morontial soul has with it the Father Fragment, which is composed of photons. These people are going to embody their soul and thus embody GOD. )

The people who were infused would now physically embody the divine fire, but it also lived through them and it became them as they became it, also. They did not lose their individual personalities through the process, but each person was still their own unique vessel, but they were also now divinely infused and were more divinely aware of God and understood their earthly purpose now. The fire seemed to fully express itself within them so that it flowed outwardly also by the transformation that was happening to them. By this I mean that there was such a Holiness and a terrible Presence of the Father in them and on them, that you knew that God the Father walked in them, and that He was now walking through them in a manner that we have yet to experience in any generation yet. God was manifesting Himself in a people just like He did with Jesus, when Jesus walked amongst us. But now these people did it openly.

I then watched in the vision from a view further away, and I saw that it indeed only fell upon some and not on upon others. The selection of who it fell upon was the Father's and not of any man. Most of those that I saw that it fell upon were some people were very weary and very embattled people. From earthly standards, we probably wouldn't have thought that they would amount to anything by their current life and their struggles that they have endured. But I understood that their unique trials and their life's struggles that they lived out had actually served to prepared them for this new infusion that now came from the Father.

One man that I saw in particular that received the fiery rain was very emotionally and spiritually broken. He had endured much physical hardship and I understood that he had endured much persecution from the church. He had been misunderstood most of his life and he also had thought that he had failed God and that he had missed God and that he had lost his place. But God used these things in his life to lead him closer to Himself and to purify this man to be able to be one that would become His chosen vessel. He was very beloved by the Lord and he had learned humility through the suffering which caused him to rise above the hardness and the hatred that's in the world, even though he did not understand why his life was this way.

Not every person that I saw was as broken as this man was that had received this infusion, I was just given to notice certain ones for my own learning and for our beneficial clarity. Many of the people I saw seemed to be living successful lives and seemed to be spiritually healthy or spiritually active in their walks in spite of the hour in which they lived in. But the common factor that I noticed with them all was that they each had undergone recent trials and they were currently experiencing various levels of spiritual warfare and were in various stages of purging by the Lord in their walks. Most did not understand the full reason why their lives were embattled, nor understand the full plan of God behind it all, but they did seek God in the midst of it all.

Another person I noticed was one that did not receive the divine infusion. But rather, this person watched as others were filled and was angry and yelled at God. One man I saw screamed out that he was one of the servants that had prophesied of it's coming, and had taught on it, so he should be one that received it and that he deserved it. He was angry that the Father did not give it to him. I was afraid as I saw this in the vision, as I knew that his anger was pride and arrogance and that the Father was just in this, for this man's heart was not truly right. I also knew that this man would fall as he did not have the right heart necessary to stand in the next hour and to fulfill his course successfully. He had allowed the pride of position and the pride that comes from being used by God to bring forth revelation from God to others, to cause him to be disqualified and to harden his heart. I feared the Lord as I watched, for I knew that we all stand by Grace, and not one of us can receive anything from God unless we truly believe and unless we truly are fully surrendered to Him in every way.

I divinely understood that it was a matter of the individual's heart before God, and not just on his outward qualifications, knowledge, or training. God walks with each of His People, and He daily leads them on their life's journey, and what they learn throughout their experiences and through their dependence upon God through it, determines their receptiveness or not. God desires that we utterly trust Him, that we utterly love Him, and that we utterly believe Him.

Even though we each experience different levels of trials and events in our personal journeys, the lessons are the same for all men. We must each come to a death of our own ego and self life and we must come to a deeper personal knowledge of God and into an intimate relationship with God. Our responses to God in our life's process will determine if we will walk fully with Him or not, and if we will allow Him to change us into what he wants us to be.

God sees us all and knows each of our hearts. He knows who will let Him have His full and complete way in their lives. Even though we might think we have failed Him, because of the severity of our individual paths and trials, and also because we did not understand the process of why we were in the events, the Father knows the depths of what lies deep within each of us.

I watched as others were transformed here and there, and it was also a very shocking event on the earth as it was so sudden and unexpected. It also did not come in the manner in which we had been taught from the church leaders, but it came as it had been ordained from the Father, for this generation. There was worldwide upheaval as the newly infused people began to quickly then be sent out by the Father all over the earth on the Father's business, and the people around them realized that they did not receive what the others had. There was a lot of crying out from people all around also, as this event also produced a huge surge of spiritual searching and even chaos in the church as the people who were not infused questioned the established church leaders of their knowledge of this event and it's significance.

I also was given to know that out of those who did not receive the infusion of the Fiery Essence, this did not mean that they were not the Lord's people. It just meant that they had missed the divine release because of their lack of inner spiritual preparation and that they had not fully developed their hearts before God in their relationships in a timely manner for this event. They were still God's children, but they had missed the opportunity to be used in this higher divine manner for the next stages of events that would come upon the earth. There was a great sorrow expressed over this reality, as many of them realized that they did not fully lay hold of the higher call or obtain to the mark that God had set for them all to achieve. (NIP- in some of our writings of my team it is mentioned that some will have to wait again a very long time for this opportunity, and probably on another world. )

What I did see was that this divine event caused a great sobering wave to spread across the church and also a wave of a great determination to seek God exploded across the church and also across the globe.

Many began to rise up and decide to be purified themselves and they began to sacrifice everything to obey God, but it did not come as a reality in their lives until after these events happened. Nevertheless, this event served to bring about the corporate awakening and the rising up of the majority of the true Body of Christ across the globe. Many now questioned what they had been spiritually taught by others, and many returned to studying the Word and they began to search it out for themselves. A new respect for the Church began to also spread amongst the Christian people, as they realized the reality of being the Body of Christ, and repentance began to burst forth and a new sense of purpose caused them to not persecute one another, but to see each other as Christ.

This event also brought about much chaos, fear, confusion, and anger amongst the unbelieving Christians, and among the religious, and especially the general world populations. Great persecution also immediately broke out against the divine fire, as many did not understand it and they feared it. The newly infused people of God were not like them anymore, as they had been divinely changed, and this caused much panic and turmoil. But it also caused revival to break out and a great fear of the reality of God to began to be spread worldwide.

The devil was also greatly enraged as the Divine Essence now was embodied again in the earth, and he no longer had dominion over God's people to prevent them anymore, and a great resistance and opposition and war broke out in many areas as the Divine Light now clashed with the darkness. I saw great upheavals and war in many areas, but also great restorations and great Light begin to spread throughout God's people all across the globe. The Father is in full control of the earthly events, even those to come and He is active in all of the affairs of men.

The vision ended.

But they do not charge fees for their teaching that is gifted, They acquire their money other ways, thru employment, donations etc, and true masters don't need fancy cars and the like. Jesus himself did not work, except with his father in his early days and some after his fathers death to help support his 7 remaining brothers and sisters, until his mission began. Then he and his group lived on donations, people putting them up for the night, feeding them and the like. Some of his apostles had a purpose to make all those sorts of arrangements and affairs and to see that his Mother got what she needed to continue raising the kids. Many by that time were actually full grown or nearly so.

well that wouldn't be my chosen method, but I guess it works for some. Actually there are a number of people of risen kundalini still needing the experience of some drug use to enter other worlds etc. Actually that is the purpose of some drugs, possibly acid, and should not be used of course by those for whom it is inappropriate. I never tired the stuff, I would not enjoy tripping and I can trip actually without it but without the strange visions that ones who used it described to me.

alright, I've got plenty of things to say. First, While I don't like saying this in public, anywhere, I am having kundalini experiences on a daily basis. I tend to be able to see chi, auras about a few inches out, black energy (unfortunately, kinda) and sparkles, and ghosts, kinda. They look like black smokey strands that give you the chills, or white "shadows".

I've been told that these sparkles could be anything from fairies, angelic energies, portals, demons, ghosts, orbs, you name it... I've been also told about some lady who said she has the ability to do "soul crushing", and kill demons... And I find that quite absurd, honestly... But each to their own.

Do you know anything about this? Was she a load of gump? She could tell a lot about me, and it was wierd. But anyways, yeah, I learned from kundaliniawakeningsystems1.com about the safeties when your kundalini is active. I tend to get these strange headaches like itching on the scalp and crown area, and feel like stuff hits my face, and my legs cramp, I feel pain to later pleasure in the same spots. I used to have the same symptoms to a much smaller degree when I was a young child. That's all I have to say for right now.

Oh, and I used to befriend a person who claimed she was a starseed, and I scared the bejeebers out of her one day, and I never heard from her again. Oh well, good times, bad times?? XD this is a misconception that they can not charge. there is also enough experience to say that people who are not charged do not hold the any value to what they've learned.

in truth, we do not need another being to help us if we completely accept all that the Creator has to give us.

alright, I've got plenty of things to say. First, While I don't like saying this in public, anywhere, I am having kundalini experiences on a daily basis. I tend to be able to see chi, auras about a few inches out, black energy (unfortunately, kinda) and sparkles, and ghosts, kinda. They look like black smokey strands that give you the chills, or white "shadows".

I've been told that these sparkles could be anything from fairies, angelic energies, portals, demons, ghosts, orbs, you name it... I've been also told about some lady who said she has the ability to do "soul crushing", and kill demons... And I find that quite absurd, honestly... But each to their own.

Do you know anything about this? Was she a load of gump? She could tell a lot about me, and it was wierd. But anyways, yeah, I learned from kundaliniawakeningsystems1.com about the safeties when your kundalini is active. I tend to get these strange headaches like itching on the scalp and crown area, and feel like stuff hits my face, and my legs cramp, I feel pain to later pleasure in the same spots. I used to have the same symptoms to a much smaller degree when I was a young child. That's all I have to say for right now.

Oh, and I used to befriend a person who claimed she was a starseed, and I scared the bejeebers out of her one day, and I never heard from her again. Oh well, good times, bad times?? XD

Quoting: WindyMind

Yes he/she is seeing some of that. I see them too now and then and more and more, physical stuff "undulating" around me. Not all around me, just now and then if I look a certain way.

The headaches and itching to the scalp is your HEAD growing. Start feeling for your sutures, they maybe be softening and expanding. You are growing more brain. LITTERALLY. If you are young and have a big head, it may not need to stretch for awhile yet. My head has 2 inch wide splits in my sutures in one place and 1/2 to 1 inch in others. And now parts of skull between my sutures are changing shape. the sides of my head are bulging and my spare glasses are so tight they hurt. My headphones, always too large, now fit a tad snug.

I would not pay much attention to the offers of the lady, load of gump or not. Be careful. Soul crushing, I don't think so. Uncreating gremlins though is really easy to do. Gremlins are little pieces of energy that dark thugs send to muck up computers and all sorts of other stuff. Light beings can do the same, except they use it for good. some of those little orbs are little "fairys" same concept, just a change in purpose.

Because your kundalini is risen is why you have this stuff, results of DNA hooking and opening the chakras and a bigger line to the soul, if you are a spirit being. I have downloaded my monad which Esu did on the day of his baptism long ago, which also benefits me greatly at this time. That was in 2002, I think. Not the same as a kundalini activation. the Monad is sort of a "harddrive" on which ones knowing when one is a spirit being is filed, it is not my whole spirit being which cannot enter flesh.

It's all very complicated the way you express it. Kundalini is not always and sometimes most of the time difficult to handle. Sex can cause it and sex can balance it, so if your to high, have sex prn. lol I joke.

Candacy,
I have a question maybe you can answer.
It occurred to me reading Jane's reply.

Could it be that a child, say about 6 or 7 years of age with an awakened Kundalini, when getting confronted with spiritual No Go, like false religious teachings when forced upon, reacts to it with strange behavior?

Quoting: firmament

I would think so. And probably an issue with a lot of star kids now. I don't think the higher self or guardians would want that too much if a poor incarnational choice has been made, because a lot of choice around when it is proper to awaken star kids has to do with the conditions. Awakened to early in the wrong place could have horrendous effects. It might be curious if Jane wants to say anything about her life cultural conditions at the age of 9. This could be a reason for behavior problems manifesting in unusually bright children. Too much awareness to be handled, or too much over reaction from the handlers in family, schools and churches. Interesting question. I have actually wondered if some of what is labeled autism at least in some children be related to much information coming in for the conditions the child is in.

If some of you think you were opened early, do you have memories of societal issues and misunderstanding by adults in your life? I am even again lately looking back at my own childhood, from a different perspective regards reactions of others. I do know these days, even where I live, that certain parents are making sure their kids go to schools not in the system, or home school them. Children awakened have to deal with SMALL BODIES and conditions that it impossible for them to get away from them.

It would be interesting to watch these very young talented children who are singers at age 4 and above and other prodigies. You can see the light in these kids. And at this time the money machine will want to make money on them. it could be a very difficult time. I ponder Whitney Houston some times still with what she shared with me, being a child prodigy. They used her for the money but did not want the light to continue and she did not start on the drugs of her free choice, she was started on them, and the rest is history there.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

In my case there were challenges. One side of my family was Southern Baptist and I was definitely a child who made herself heard. I remember a preacher one time expounding a point that was contrary to Christ's teachings, a very frightening point about hellfire and graphic descriptions of torture, something I knew was to be found not in the Bible. After the church service I asked him to point out exactly where the scripture was to back his assertions; he could not but reacted with anger and told me I would burn in hell for questioning him. Guess I hit a nerve. I believe I was 11 at the time.

There are many other examples but to tell of them is boresome. Suffice to say that I have met many very good people in all types of churches, but the evangelical churches stand out as a place dark influenced people are drawn to. I feel this is because it is easy to control, manipulate and take advantage of so many of the parishoners in these churches with the weapon of fear.

I ran into similar issues at age 15 when I first started college. I had an annoying tendency to ask professors questions that went against their personal paradigms. Funny thing is, I was packed off to college at that age because the administration in my high school could not handle me. What do you do with a straight-A kid who constantly challenges the status quo and skips class to go read at the library? I remember the last thing the principal told me was that I was very intelligent but would amount to nothing. I guess he was wrong about that, lol!

To this day, I am known to butt heads with those who consider themselves in "authority" when I think they are using their position to frighten or take advantage of people.

Hope this helps.

I do have one thing to add. NIP, I have always been politely honest with you about things I felt skeptical of. About 1 year ago you commented about our heads growing -- this made no sense to me. I must let you know that the sparring helmet I have worn for years practicing martial arts has become painfully tight over the past few months, I had to replace it as I can only get it on with great effort and pain.

It is made of a high density foam designed to distribute impact, not something that would shrink; besides it has never been exposed to any elements that could possible cause such a thing. This is after all the gear intended to protect me from skull fractures & concussions, needless to say I take care of it.

My husband jokes that it my ego and not my head, lol! Either way the helmet suddenly became too small over just a period of a few months.

Thank you, Candace! To stay with the subject, "awakening" the Kundalini needs a very serious practicing, and needs a special attention too. The Hatha-yoga has different postures and "exercises", most of it of course part of the Pranajama, different special breathing-technics... OK, I'll keep my attention on the thread, will check in later...

not related to that at all Tony. the awakened Kundalini is awakened and needs no practice at all Those that like to sell training sell that idea. Yoga is useful as exercise for the body and mind, but it doesn't have a thing to do with Kundalini. I do not practice yoga and its doesn't affect mine. I don't practice it because this body has too much arthritis and muscle spasm, it HURTS to do it and has broken small bones. Kundalini is totally related to reconnected junk DNA and the condition of the spirit using the body. Maybe today I will delve more into kundalini awakening gradually in the earth soul who is not a star seed.

Kundalini in the body is the direct result of the loving and aware spirit, to put it very simply. It happens or is the result or effect to the body system of the god knowing soul

Well when I posted about it to my own website I think 3 summers ago now, I had fun with I grew " a big head." It's not gotten any smaller and this is at least one reason for some peoples low grade headaches and the head is tender. Some report lots of itching and no infections or dandruff etc. Some have gone to doctors for this. Heads growing does not normally make sense to anybody and would not to me either, except it grew. I wonder what it would look shaved because of the "valleys" on it. Some of my team waited for a long time and gave up hope of growing heads but then some had rather sudden changes. A painful tight helmet is going to interfere with concentration!

In fact the part in the bible about being instantly changed is all about kundalini. Lots of material was left out, or removed or re written too or mis translated and mis interpreted. Some christians that have done the kundalini thing have search and found quite a bit to support it, now that they know what it is.

I have had exactly 2 experiences with reiki masters. One was my sister in law. She expected to find blockages of all sorts. So she asked me to hold out my arm and she placed her hands on either side of my hand, it was the left arm. She ran some energy, intense energy and it flowed thru me with no blockages. She was surprised based on family issues I guess.

The other was a few months ago. A Christian fellow who attends a coffee group I attend, brought his massage chair one day. I know he had a lot of healing arts sort of training, but I could not remember what. So he offered a massage to me. I have never had one sitting on one of those chairs. Well it did not take me long to figure he was really good with the reiki. As I got off the chair, I nearly lost my balance, which I could do anyway, from the left over stuff of my MS. But then the energy really surged, it was some on the chair, but as I got off it hit. I turned BEET read in front of everyone there. I then said, You know reiki, and all the voices of the ladies there who knew, piped up, he has a "masters" degree in reiki. I was so HOT I took off my sweatshirt and sweatpants as I had what I had slept in under them, had dressed fast, put clothes over the t shirt and shorts. I was high as kite. This fellow is elderly and going blind from some condition of his retinas. Has a lot of arthritis in his hands. Nice guy, and when not around his wife, isn't quite as evangelical as she is. But because of the Christianity, for some reason I did NOT expect he was a reiki master, because they are evangelical. (well baptist, same difference anymore).

He was amazed and proceeded to tell me, that I was only his 3rd case in all the years of his practice that had ever taken the energy like that. He enjoyed telling the stories of the other two. None of the lady's at the table ever got that from their backrubs. He gave the rest of the massages on the chair except one who has great difficulty with the chair, all had received this from him, nobody had ever had the experience they witnessed in me. It has actually helped with his wife, she doesn't treat me so much like a heathen anymore.

I often flow energy thru my body, its is never blocked. I like to "cocoon " myself in it now and then when distressed, relaxes and recharges me a great deal. I often "run energy" as I call it, (or paradise energy) into earth and around me in stores and on the bus. I don't have any earth training in any of this stuff, its innate. I have done some direct healing with it, and some distance healing. I use it on myself sometimes for that purpose. Had I known more about what was available in the healing arts when I was younger, I might not have gone the nursing wanting to be a doctor route, which I walked from eventually for obvious reasons. I might well have explored reiki, or becoming a homeopath. Homeopath meds work very well on me generally. I have never had any custom made, just the stuff you can get in health food stores. BioALLERS hayfever blends really work for me.

It has actually helped with his wife, she doesn't treat me so much like a heathen anymore.

I often flow energy thru my body, its is never blocked. I like to "cocoon " myself in it now and then when distressed, relaxes and recharges me a great deal. I often "run energy" as I call it, (or paradise energy) into earth and around me in stores and on the bus. I don't have any earth training in any of this stuff, its inate. I have done some direct healing with it, and some distance healing. I use it on myself sometimes for that purpose. Had I known more about what was available in the healing arts when I was younger, I might not have gone the nursing wanting to be a doctor route, which I walked from eventually for obvious reasons. I might well have explored reiki, or becoming a homeopath. Homeopath meds work very well on me generally. I have never had any custom made, just the stuff you can get in health food stores. BioALLERS hayfever blends really work for me.

Thank you for your input on this subject.

I always wanted to be a healing person, my family decided different (we had a family business)and back those days a young girl did not have much choice but to go along with it. But never the less, in all those years I took all sorts of side trainings about natural healing. Since my kids are grown and out of the house, I decided to go back to school to make my dream come true. Now I'm a Naturopath....and may I say it, although I know some people reading here gonna give me red again for it,(which I don't care about) it was because of AH.

Reading and following instructions getting to know ME, gave me enough confidence to give it a chance. I'm 57 and just got my Master Degree.

Thank you to all the Guides and Helpers from "above" thank you Candace.

This too can happen when getting in contact with the Real Self, with the Higher Self.

Looking for some answers,(Kundalini) I thought maybe I can find them here.

As a child growing up in the black Forest, very small community, all Catholic, I was forced to attend church.

I fainted on every single occasion, it happened till I was about 12 years of age.

Although I was brought up with some home teachings of Omraam Iivanhov and such. I was always told to not speak about it outside, for the better of me.

Now I'm wondering could this have been the reason why my life went so differently? Could it be that Kundalini is awake in young children and when forcibly avoided one loses contact to Self?

One man that I saw in particular that received the fiery rain was very emotionally and spiritually broken. He had endured much physical hardship and I understood that he had endured much persecution from the church. He had been misunderstood most of his life and he also had thought that he had failed God and that he had missed God and that he had lost his place. But God used these things in his life to lead him closer to Himself and to purify this man to be able to be one that would become His chosen vessel. He was very beloved by the Lord and he had learned humility through the suffering which caused him to rise above the hardness and the hatred that's in the world, even though he did not understand why his life was this way.

Not every person that I saw was as broken as this man was that had received this infusion, I was just given to notice certain ones for my own learning and for our beneficial clarity. Many of the people I saw seemed to be living successful lives and seemed to be spiritually healthy or spiritually active in their walks in spite of the hour in which they lived in. But the common factor that I noticed with them all was that they each had undergone recent trials and they were currently experiencing various levels of spiritual warfare and were in various stages of purging by the Lord in their walks. Most did not understand the full reason why their lives were embattled, nor understand the full plan of God behind it all, but they did seek God in the midst of it all.

I have found great comfort in this today. Bless you for sharing it. Maybe I as the student am finally ready to receive the teacher. Thank you.

When a reader posted that in my Wave Thread, (I had never seen it before here), I was AWESTRUCK. The thread it was in was short lived. I found the linky to it once, but couldn't find it yesterday, search is not working very well for a couple days. IT should have been a very long thread full of discussion., as the material should have been considered PROFOUND.

Oh yes, I consider it very profound. Wonderful. I am a well-read Christian with serious issues (bordering on spiritual abuse) within my organization as of late. This hardship has been a catalyst for study further afield to find truth over the past year. I am now confident enough to share with you my recent amazing awakening experiences, but I need to do it later today when I have some personal obligations covered. Thank you for this thread.

Hi there NIP - thank you for this thread, I am just beginning to look into this Kundalini thing as I Googled some of the sensations that I have been experiencing and the Kundalini rising seemed to crop up more and more.

I had Bells Palsy about 2 years ago now (stress related) and I took to using relaxation music, meditation material to help me sleep and calm my nerves. I did this most nights and I felt myself start to get a tickling circular feeling on my forehead and on occasion I would wake up with pins and needles feeling across my entire body - a bit unsettling I have to say.

I also get a strong sensation of a large S being drawn on my back as if by an invisible hand it can be light and ticklish sometimes and other times quite deep and intense/uncomfortable. This lasted for months at different times of the day, no matter what I was doing.. I also have had the feeling like my hair is being played with (it's actually doing it right now) sometimes very light and others really noticeable like an insect has landed on my head.

And (embarassingly) I also get a tingling (static electricity) type feeling on my testicles.. not unpleasant I have to say :)

Are these sensations typical of an awakening Kundalini? I assume it's connected to my meditation? Should I be doing anything in particular to encourage my Kundalini development? I have read that you shouldn't mess with this kind of thing as it can mess you up if you are not careful..

Any feedback comments welcome :)

Thanks again

In 2007 I had kundalini. Before it happened I couldn't feel my feet touch the ground.

To this day I'm still having problems with it.

I lucid dream all the time. Or I can see people that are far away from me.

They look like crystal people in my minds eye.

I can't cut it off and I really need help with it.

I started burning frankincense and myrrh in my house before it happen. I think thats what caused it.

Any help would be nice.

What do I use this for?

I can feel peoples pain! Not fun!!!

I dream my future. I see a months worth event all at once.

I feel alone.

When it happen I felt great!!

I know for a fact that we don't die and we are all connected.

But try telling that to someone that has never had this type of experience.

I can feel peoples sex energy.

WHY???? How do I cut that off?

YOu do NOT want to cut it off beloved. It is your misunderstanding perhaps of what happened.

Read my post in the first page, about stars seeds and the purpose of it. YOU ARE BLESSED. Perhaps you need to take some time to understand and use it, and certainly folks here walking COMFORTABLY in their "kundalini shoes" might wish to help? This is what those waiting to be changed in a Instant well experience when and if that big wave shows here.

yes you will feel so much more, including the sexual energy. But unless you feel some dark persons unwanted sex energy, just accept the what is. Those with kundalini activated generally do feel sexual/kundalini in others. I have a relative activated a couple years ago and its obvious there. Do not go hop in bed though. People are not even "sexy" to me unless they are kundalini activated.

The burning of Myrth etc didn't cause it, it was your readiness that caused it, but possibly associated with whatever reason your were burning those? Spiritual purpose?

NIP,

I enjoy working with energy. I pray to God and I can feel the energy all around me. I was wondering if you can tell what will happen if this energy climbs my spine? I have rods, screws and my spine is fused from my shoulder blades down to my hips. I have felt the floating feeling when I relax or meditate similar to the person above who said they could no longer feel their feet. Sometimes I feel my spine has been damaged to the point where the energy will not flow as God intended.

Peace.

I have an extremely messed up spine. No rods, but 2 sets of fusions by surgery, others natural, lots of other lower spine surgery and intense awful stenosis. Lived in neck brace for years for that. I have had help from above so I could do the work, but that is only the body, the kundalini although the body senses the energy, is not actually the body. if you can feel it all around you, I think you are fine.

I was always meditating. When in church during prayers, I never listened to whoever was praying. Instead I cleared thoughts and focused on Christ and trying to "feel". At age 9, I did not realize this was "meditation", it was just what I did.

In this life, I will be 38 years old this summer. I do not seem to be aging as quickly as my classmates. This could be due to a healthy lifestyle & lots of exercise, or have a spiritual element - unsure at this point. Most people guess me 10 years younger than I am.

Edit: In soul age, there are indications I am very old. I hope this to be my last incarnation. I think I would prefer to work as a guide from now on and help others.

WOW, You, me, MissionInvisible and I imagine a lot of GLP members are in the same boat with back issues. I am glad energy work is helping your spine as well. I have read where one person on GLP or maybe another board said they blew a disc out when the energy climbed their spine. I guess we don't have to worry about the fused areas.

Peace to you friend.

Here is a deal, when your kundalini rises it is hard to live a normal daily life. You almost need a driver for at least 6 months. Here is a tip :) If you are a kundalini rising driver turn the radio on loud to music with a strong drum beat. This may keep you grounded enough to drive. Rescue Remedy can be helpful, carry it with you. I think I have said it all before. Just tips for living through it. lol

Something else to share from the experience. Please pardon me, as I have lived this most of my life and consider these things to be my normal:

Soon after the experience at age 9, my body temp stayed at around 101.2 degrees farenheit until around age 13; I was not sick. After which it slowly drifted down and settled at 97.5 in my early 20s. This has been my normal body temp ever since.

My blood pressure tends to be a quite low normal. It averages 90/50. I was at the doctor once for a check up, the nurse took my BP & appeared shocked, that day it was 88/46. She stated that if not for the fact I walked in smiling, had excellent color and had been talking & joking with her she would swear I was bleeding out internally. I do not know what my BP was before age 9, so I have no baseline comparison here, but as an adult I have always had a very cool & smooth running engine.

Anybody else with similar experiences after an awakening?

Try to cut all 2nd chakra cords. Try to filter all cords to from and through you so that no negative energy comes to from or through the cords to you. Energetically move to the place of being responsible for only your energy not others. I can;t remember. or I am forgetting something.

...do not really know if you would consider this as being a similarity, but I had low blood-pressure all my life 50/70 max.

For me it was normal, because I could not tell the difference to what is usually called, normal. My pulse frequency is also on a low level, but I had them Doctors puzzled because my Blood oxygen content has been 99% since the day it was first measured. Funny thing is, I used to be a "workaholic" with a 16 hour workday for 34 years.

Also born with Anemia, which I do not consider as a sickness but as a state of being.

Sad part is that I think I was born awakened...lost it all, picking up the pieces now.

The true master doesn't run on money.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

but even a 'true master' (after all they are no different from us non-masters) needs to eat, sleep and live here on earth and it takes money in many societies. jmho.

Quoting: Water Flower

But they do not charge fees for their teaching that is gifted, They acquire their money other ways, thru employment, donations etc, and true masters don't need fancy cars and the like. Jesus himself did not work, except with his father in his early days and some after his fathers death to help support his 7 remaining brothers and sisters, until his mission began. Then he and his group lived on donations, people putting them up for the night, feeding them and the like. Some of his apostles had a purpose to make all those sorts of arrangements and affairs and to see that his Mother got what she needed to continue raising the kids. Many by that time were actually full grown or nearly so.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Daring to post...carefully waiting to be V& as usual when i do.

Yes Kundra has risen. It was horrific. It got lodged in sacral area, the blue pearl. Grandmother medicine ceremony broke it loose. Traditional healer/medicine woman do not charge for my work. It is our way. Hate to be dependent on sick people to pay the rent.

Ascension is a dogma, I hold no dogmas. Like anything, Kundra has a dark side. Take care in seeking it. I was not seeking, however was doing a kundra yoga class once a week. No more of that as it is a dogma...and when they deny that it is or that there is no dark side, run.

Your kundra will open when it is ready. I do not blame the class for the opening, one can hardly say that a class you went to once a week for a few months is responsible for that. I believe I was sent this experience so that i could understand it as a healer.

I can control my energy field and if I let it fly it can and does freak people out...reactions are rarely positive unless the person is 'enlightened' and understands what they are seeing. I am Reiki master also but no longer work in that old system as it is primitive in some ways..our chakras are moving, thus the energy work must shift to match.

There is no one coming to save you, not aliens, not god, not any outside force, you are not going to "ascend" to something by following yet another set of rules...love is an action verb, the world will not change merely by thinking, we must act as well.

Stop buying into belief sets that tell you it's all OK, send money. stop paying people to teach you, it is all available for free. Stop FOLLOWING HUMANS (Little Grandmother, Humbalz men, Golden Eagle Feather Light..whatever, Wilcox, Fulford, Jesus, Buddha, Mohammad, yada yada yada, the GLF,) sects, gurus..not one of them is better, or stronger or more of anything than you are. YOU are the one you've been waiting for, YOU and only you can heal yourself.

STOP believing you are inferior because you don't think you're a star seed, we are ALL star seeds. Stop believing in labels like INDIGO ect. Each and every human has a divine spark, it is up to YOU and only you to become what you were intended to be.

If you want to know what is coming, google and download the Earth Mother pdf by searching "earth mother*mystery egg*pdf"

It is not easy or pretty, but be strong... in validation, science has discovered large portions of the earth's crust in near the core...and grandfather's biggest caveat "DO NOT GO WITH THEM WHEN THEY COME". It is not the end of anything, just change, as always we change. Humans will not change unless they are forced to....the mother is tired. Time for birth is near.

No one wants to hear the truth. No one wants to operate in truth. Fancy stories, dogmas, invented "saviors", and fake channels (who don't know they are fake) who chat up the alahambra and relay lies mixed with truth. STOP. Follow one rule. DO UNTO OTHERS as you would be done unto...that one rule will guide you in all things.

Creator of all things living, the universal love has NOTHING to do with the "god" of the bible (who is vile, hateful, jealous, wrathful, angry, and unjust).

YOU are the creator of your own reality. Take care in what you create each day. Yesterday's thoughts become tomorrow's reality.

yes there are. I was one of them, and I tend to notice it if I see one. WE have a lot of old souls coming in now, minus a lot more of the veil that us older ones were impacted by. That is why there are so many brilliant kids now, they have a nice wide open connection to their higher self. That's why you see 9 year old professional entertainers with 45 years of experience, or so it seems in the industry. Like Ethan Bortnick.

I know a girl 11 who obviously is kundalini activated,, but she is muted by the Christianity she is exposed to still.

Here is a deal, when your kundalini rises it is hard to live a normal daily life. You almost need a driver for at least 6 months. Here is a tip :) If you are a kundalini rising driver turn the radio on loud to music with a strong drum beat. This may keep you grounded enough to drive. Rescue Remedy can be helpful, carry it with you. I think I have said it all before. Just tips for living through it. lol
Quoting: WindyMind

I found REscue Remedy very useful a number of years ago. I highly recommend the stuff for excessive stress for any of several reasons. I am trying to get my daughter even to get it to try with her dog, who has some stress issues I think it would help with. I would agree on the use of music, whatever type works, but beating type music, with a lot of rhythm can be very useful, use what type you like. And not just for kundalini issues.

boy I was a bit out still from the biggy energy surge yesterday, with my typing!

The memory I had asked for, was if I had a similar experience long ago, of something sort of like Jupiter becoming a sun. Whatever happened, that sun sent out intense lightening bolts everywhere. And was much larger than Jupiter is. Winds began to blow, mud ran down mountains where I was etc. Finally at the end of the "dream", the doors on my apartment finally gave and that's all there was. I know that was the end of that lifetime. I haven't really asked what happened with that sun or fully tried to figure it out, but later when I asked again, the exact same script played. Surely proving we do store important scripts from past lives too. The 2nd dream did NOT vary at all from the first . Perfect match.

Hello Candace,

It has been a while since I have participated here. During meditation and also while I am still, I feel energy running up and down my spine. I could also feel energy around my body but mostly around my back. I also feel goose bumps on my skin all over my body for no reason. I also feel energy on my crown and head like if I have some kind of invisible helmet on. Is this all related to the Kundalini energy?

I have one last question. What does it mean when my guides channeled through my domestic partner say, "What did you expect? A miracle? You are in mother Gaia's womb. What else do you want". I guess sometimes I want things to happen. Will you please give me your opinion? Thank you.

I would think you are kundalini activated and are responding and feeling all these energies and also channeling them into the ethers here. consider taking some of that crown energy, running down your spine and into earth. On your crown consider also you could be getting linked up so you don't have to rely on your partner, if that is the case anyway. The miracle is a slow one. It is a gift to be in her womb now. She is building with all the "help" a new ONE which has never been before on this planet. Considering all the difficulties with these races of people on this world, its going to be quite a miracle when the One is birthed.

As to the birthing of the One, I suggest revisiting this piece from the PJ's of long ago, [link to abundanthope.net]

You who are kundalini activated star seeds have come to pave the way, demonstrate this process, help bring in the energy. Those of you who are earth souls, may also be activated, because its YOUR TIME. MORE WILL EXPERIENCE yet, and then will be at some point the massive activation of the masses that are ready. Those not ready will wait a long time for another chance, usually some place else.

As I have been saying, the Christian version of being "changed in an instant" will be their embodying their soul. They do not understand this, which is why there is a thread by Lisa Lisa, started after I started this one. The piece by the Christian prophet reposted in this thread on page 2, is again, a LOVELY description of the process. I have said this is the get off the fence dimension. You will see that worded another way below. Choose fear or love.

These ones that are being changed, who found love, who will yet raise their kundalini, will be at 5d level consciousness. You star seeds demonstrating the process and helping settle in the energy, are well beyond this stage. As earth continues after this "birth" over the ages, more and more will fuse with their Father Fragments, generally this is a 6d or 7d consciousness level event. Generally the Father Fragment is not heard until 6d Consciousness. So we are not upset that aren't hearing it, that is yet to come. This time, we are upon, is the "Harvest." They are not being raptured off to heaven someplace, they are to embody their soul, and its not just christians but everyone who is readied.

AN INTERVAL OF NON-TIME

When the universe reaches a point of maximum expansion, a unique phenomenon will take place.

There will be a moment when all laws necessary for the creative maintenance of physical matter and all materializing processes become suspended.

Due to the relative velocities of the various star systems. this event will not be experienced simultaneously in all parts of the universe, but will travel as a wave across the sea of creation.

Existing within this ripple of non-time will be the focused conscious attention of the Creator.

As it passes through the material realms, it will stay and take up residence in all life forms with circuitry capable of mirroring its essence.

This is the moment when the Creator will slip inside Creation; the moment for which we are attempting to prepare you.

This is the much misunderstood "Second Coming of Christianity".

It is the event that primitive civilizations have looked forward to as "the return of the gods".

The Mayans went so far as to pinpoint its actual occurrence in what you would call the year 2011 A.D.

Yet while many of your traditions hint at what is about to transpire, none of them have adequately conveyed the magnitude of impact such an event will have.

Indeed, no single conceptual structure is capable of conveying the enormity of what is soon to take place.

Those familiar with the scriptures of your various peoples should be in position to understand what is occurring for these are the times spoken of.

Yet you must realize that God did not invent the words used in scripture.

He merely arranged them In the order most approximating His meaning.

Further, He only presented them in mental pictures and through the years of translation and deliberate tampering most meaning is distorted and damaged.

What is actually happening requires all of biological life to convey its meaning.

Words can symbolize this but hardly portray it fully enough to stand alone.

If you would know the deepest Truth of scripture, look not to words alone but to the great momentum of spirit within your own soul.

This is where the living history is being made.

In a way that would be impossible for your rational intellect to comprehend, this forthcoming event is human history.

The sum total of all that has happened on your planet is but the shadow cast before.

In a very real sense, you have not yet been born.

You are still in an embryonic state.

You have yet to receive the touch of God's total definition.

Through the long years of human history on Earth, your species has been forming the cells that are to comprise the directive aspect of the physical body of the Creator within Creation.

Gestation upon this planet has but set the stage for the emergence of the Planetary Being now taking definite form.

This Planetary Being is actually "who you are".

Has it occurred to you that the mathematical probability of your being here is infinitesimal?

Were you not here, living proof of the impossible, an excellent case could be made for your non-existence--and still can prevail in conceptual reasoning.

Within the framework of law that was of necessity instituted to create and govern these material realms, the existence of biological life would not have been possible, except were it to enter through that one moment when that law was suspended.

Ponder this carefully.

Such is the origin of biology; the fusion of Spirit and Matter.

The impact of this single creative moment is so vast, so far-reaching, that the shock waves sent out before it have given rise to all of the biological life that now exists upon your planet.

You are living in the shadow of an event not yet taken place.

Yet it is you, yourself, under all your layers of false identity that cause this event as you approach ever nearer to the Earth.

From within the context of history, it appears that there has been, on this planet, a progression of increasingly complex life forms evolving toward ever higher levels of consciousness.

It appears that there has been an evolutionary process.

But this is not the case.

What is actually occurring is that the matter of Earth is falling under the influence of your vibrational body. (and boy are we vibrating lately!-C)

This influence naturally increases as you draw nearer.

Only when the center of your spirit touches the center of the Earth will Life on this planet be fully manifest in form.

The same Truth can be presented, however, in that it HAS ALREADY OCCURRED LONG PRIOR TO THIS MOMENT AS YOU PERCEIVE IT AND YOU ARE BUT A REENACTMENT OF THAT WHICH WAS COME BEFORE.

This is not difficult to understand.

What you have considered to be history or in other terms, the evolution of the species, is only what you have been able to observe through the distorted medium of a fragmented and quite subjective intelligence, trapped within the past-future orientation of linear time.

From such a perspective, the act of Creation could appear as a progressive, sequential process.

To the extent that you are able to identify with the spirit that gives you consciousness however, it becomes a much simpler matter: you have yet to arrive.

You are still on your way, so to speak.

Sitting there reading these words is only a reflection of your unconscious totality as it prepares to become fully revealed on the day of awakening.

Your real life will begin when the Creator gives you His definition in form.

Within the womb of history, your species has been primarily defined by the Earth-Mother who is helping to prepare the clay.

She is only interested in getting the form arranged according to specification.

Her only knowledge of Spirit is that It brings forth her potential.

When the Father's center merges with the center of the Faith, the collectivity of human consciousness will awaken to a unified field identity.

You will be born.

After that, the influence of Matter will not affect your consciousness as dominantly as it did during the historical gestation period.

The Earth will continue to suckle the species, so to speak, for another millennium before you are capable of going off on your own, but even during that period the father's influence will be much greater than it is today.

LAWS

The Creator has established laws to govern the bonding of energy.

Through these laws of materialization, the physical universe is created and maintained.

In the material realms, these laws are right and proper.

But when they come into relationship with biological life, they begin to behave strangely.

From a perspective of consciousness, they translate into limitation, contraction and ultimately death.

In psychological terms, the laws of materialization have given rise to the ego--a fictitious identity with a sense of fear, vulnerability and a need to protect and defend itself.

Spiritual consciousness should not properly be associated with the forces that govern the bonding of energy.

Their historical juxtaposition came about through the process referred to as "the Fall".

During the period of species preparation, the presence of the materializing influence on levels of consciousness has been unfortunate but not critical.

However, in light of the intensifying vibrations of the creative spirit that is now nearly aligned with the center of your planet, the definitions that have been imposed by matter will no longer be tenable.

The Creator Himself will dispel this planetary restraining influence and henceforth hold all life forms in appropriate expression through the new definitions of His love.

This will be a profound transition for each and every form Identity, a transition of a magnitude you can only begin to suspect.

COULD IT BE A GENERATION AWAY?

As a collective event, the moment of birth is still a generation away. (1990)

But individually speaking, this event transcends the limits of space and time and is, in fact, already under way.

Your individual birth will take place at the precise moment in linear time when you stop struggling with your rational fear patterns and let yourself go in the divine dance of inner direction.

You must decide whether you are going to accept the inevitable in a state of love and prepare yourself accordingly. or hold on in fear to the bitter end.

Ultimately these are the only two avenues of response.

By the linear time this event takes place, humanity will be polarized according to these two adaptive patterns.

All will be decidedly in one camp or the other.

EITHER OR--

To those of the human race who have turned themselves in to the will of God, the coming interval of non time will literally expand into eternity.

These individuals will be able to experience a lifetime or many lifetimes, in that eternity, while still retaining the option to return to their physical projections as transformed representatives of the

Being of Life on Earth.

These will be our coworkers during the period of Planetary Awakening--please, I hope you ones read this very carefully.

Dharma, pause, chela, and reread the above for it is indeed most important to some of you in this early awakening.

Some of you cannot drift upon the currents but rather must come quickly into knowledge.

Others, not so finely tuned to the forces that will be released at that time, will feel great surges of energy, lasting for an indeterminate period.

Some few will experience an intense fear and many, dear ones, shall die.

Everything in physical form at this time, every soul in every kingdom, will feel something, something incredible, something that according to all the laws of physics ever known or ever to be discovered, could never happen.

But there it will be before all senses; an impossible fact, like the babe in the manger, like the unmistakable feeling in your heart, an incredible vibration of Truth and Love, shimmering, scintillating, awakening every nerve, every capillary, every cell of your planetary body.

Whether the individual form identity reading these words right now will be a surviving participant in that event depends upon that with which you identify and how gracefully you are able to align yourself with God's creative definition.

If you can identify with the flow of Life through your essential Planetary Being and release all subjective definitions of who you think you are, you will play your part most joyously in the birthday celebration.

God's definition of you in form is much greater than any you could possibly imagine for yourself.

During this present period of Individual Awakening, the first of the three creative periods, you are being given the opportunity to embrace this true definition as the cornerstone of your existence.

MORNING OF CREATION

On the morning of Creation, you will recognize the Unified Collective Consciousness of all Humankind as your own true identity. (THE ONE)

You will know beyond a shadow of a doubt that you are the bridge between Spirit and Matter, between Creator and Creation, between Life and the forms through which Life flows.

If you release the definitions that Matter has set upon you, this is the definition that the Creator will bestow, the definition of Christ Himself!

Can you see yourself as we of the distant stars do, from the objective vantage point of the ages, with the eyes of the Star Maker Himself?

To us, your entire history appears as but a gesture of sorts.

We see in your passage through the vibrational field of Earth, a gesture that you make, a salute almost, to the energy-retention systems of this particular heavenly body.

This is how you express yourself on this beautiful blue and white world whirling through space as a wondrously blue-green thing of beauty.

WE HAVE COME TO REMIND

YOU OF WHO YOU ARE!

Dharma, allow us to close this segment for ones must be attuned to the material thus far given that they can have concept of that which will come.

At this time in your racial experience, most of you are simply not yet ready to enter into a closer working relationship with us but we will prepare you, during the coming years of revolutions of your planet around the Sun for the time when your collective vibrational patterns are such that we can blend with them on a very large scale.

We are still experimenting with various ways and means of accomplishing our task of awakening but with the increasing ease of direct informational exchange, our work within the currents of your history will probably subside.

We hope it will not be necessary to shake you out of your exclusive past-future oriented focus on form through any of the cataclysmic events foretold in your various prophecies.

We will use these if we must in order to protect the biosphere of this planet but if you follow through on the information we are clarifying, there is no reason why we should have to resort to such extreme measures.

Through these transmissions and through many others like them throughout the Earth, we are supplying you with more than enough information to enable you to restore your own equilibrium.

AS WE GO

We are allowing a certain amount of ecological destruction to take place without direct interference because such destruction may help to precipitate a voluntary and cooperative return to a pre-Fall state.

You must come to understand that you structure these things yourself and not of outside doing.

This would be far more meaningful than a return that is forced upon you.

A self-initiated awakening will greatly enhance your ability to restore the Earth's ecological harmony. (not happening much yet all these years later, is it?)

Consequently, at this time, we are confining our help as much as is possible to the provision of information and to the development of conceptual clarity.

Meanwhile, there are many among you who will, as time passes, experience one by one the necessary psychological transformation and enter into a conscious working relationship with those of us in a state of grace.

During this coming period we will be largely occupied with the conceptual education of your species along with pointing out that which you are bringing in your own creation.

You must witness the errors of your creation in order to collectively form perfection and balance in that which you are now creating.

As we move along here in this present cycle, we will be withdrawing our activity on conceptual levels and focus more directly on physical and emotional levels.

This is where the real work needs to be accomplished.

The establishment of a conducive conceptual climate however, is a prerequisite.

As we move along we shall be integrating past, current and future perceptions so that you can look at the patterns in somewhat less confusion.

May we abide together, you and us, that clarity becomes our focus and ability to comprehend is granted through grace of Creator.

It is a joy to share in this wondrous experience upon the waves of the universe.

Salu.

Hatonn to stand-by. (Christ Michael)

Cool thread OP, 5 stars. I will read through it completely when im at home

I wanted to tell about my kundalini experiences....

I had my first kundalini awakening about 10 years ago. I ate an unreal amount of psylocybin mushrooms. Energy pumped up my spine. It felt like a huge amount of compressed energy would suddenly decompress from my spine into my head. The vibrations became more intense every second, until i was knocked off my feet. Next thing i know, I woke up 10 minutes later and saw my best friens slapping my face. I couldn't remember what happened in the time i was on the floor. (now i know it, through hypnosis... but its kinda private, so pardon me for not telling). Back then I didn't understand the significance of the event. I labelled it as a drug overdose. Only much later i realized, this was the moment that started my journe to true spirituality.

Another thing I realized about kundalini, not too long ago.

When you are in a truly loving relationship, and you tenderly fondle your partners skin, you can feel a tingling sensation. If you do this to yourself, you will also feel tingling, but not so intense. That is actually the kundalini energy.

As to the interval of non time, RELIGION is being used by our thugs in an attempt to delay, prevent this, plus to keep people so ignorant of it, they will be in huge fear. They want the destruction of the planet. This is how "anti god" they are. Keep sending your paradise energies into GAIA, to her core. WE have conducted a lot of focused meditations to this and without so much success yet, but its gradually getting there.

I wish to thank those of you who have posted here for your commentary in Lisa's thread. It is really good. Since I am banned from her thread, early on in it, I posted from a friends computer without logging in here, and got rebanned when she or one of the others recognized my style after I placed a link here for those that might be interested and my 2 or 3 posts were removed. Perhaps for those who are glp members I will PM them with a linky here.

Yeah, I posted the link to your wonderful AH Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life article on Lisa's thread and guess what??! It was removed too.

you ones who bring your demon stuff to this thread will be banned and posts removed. At least READ the thread before you do so and enter into some conversation. Read the material also in my signature file. AbundantHope IS the 2nd Coming. Those living in such FEAR of kundalini cannot be "reborn" in Christ. YOU WANT YOUR KUNDALINI ACTIVATED beloveds. It is your ticket to a more immediate eternity.

I have a strange request based on some interesting things. Over the next few days, those of you who are kundalini risen, be observing those around you in your work, and other activities and see if anyone reports any strange energy stuff that might suggest suddenly rising kundalini.

Hi Candace, last night I know I had some good dreams, I remember actually doing meditation in my dream!! It also felt that we all saw each other during the night. Did you feel that? I remember thanking Father Source for everything.

Sometimes its hard for me to remember my dreams, BUt I feel I did some conversations with my HS.

Serpent power is that what you guys want?

Yep we do want the serpent power. Thanks for the link that talks about the kundalini being "mother energy" , however Yoga is NOT necessary to the process. Its not even related to it directly although there is a yoga practice called something like Kundalini yoga but it is not necessary to the process. I am going to copy a portion of this:

Kundalini

"Kundalinfail: 'She who is coiled; serpent power.' The primordial cosmic energy in every individual which eventually, through the practice of yoga, rises up the sushumnâ nâdfail. As it rises, the kunalinfail awakens each successive chakra. Nirvikalpa samâdhi, enlightenment, comes as it pierces through the door of Brahman at the core of the sahasrâra and enters!" Hinduism Today
"The Kundalini is your own mother. Your individual mother. And She has tape-recorded all your past and your aspirations, everything. And She rises because She wants to give you your second birth, but She is your individual mother. You don't share Her with anybody else. Yours is a different, somebody else's is different because the tape-recording is different. We say She is the reflection of the Adi Shakti who is called as Holy Ghost in the Bible. But She rises without any difficulty. Hardly any time it takes." — Shri Mataji

I bolded the above, because I often teach here that what the mind "knows" is stored on electrons which are mother energy. Your mind is non physical but you have to store what you know on something. However electrons store any old junk and as you truly come to KNOW within about something that is TRUTH, it is transfered over to Photons, because the photon is father energy and stores no junk. Thus your Father MIIND Fragment, is stuff stored on photons which also store a lot more than electrons do. Everything about running your body, is stored on electrons. Your body would not work without the instructions on them, and this is true of all physical bodies, plants and animals.

The 2nd birth beloveds spoken of, IS ALL ABOUT KUNDALINI ACTIVATION. It is not going to church, getting baptized and believing ON Jesus. I really like the those statements I quoted above. I have never seen that. Lots of truth. In this basically, where it talks about the "tape recording" that is your real mind, that you carry with you into each incarnation. Your electron mind I guess you could call your own individual mother, I love sometimes hindu stuff. This is really NICE. I just call it "Mother energy" because man does not yet understand mother father energies of the creation. but this is cute, your mind stored on electrons of the Mother, she would be thus your very own unique mother.

In this being born again, or the 2nd birth, while you star seeds experience the kundalini activation , per my above post, you are not experiencing your 2nd birth or being "born again." You are long ago born again, it is simply an activation because enough DNA has hooked, and it TIME to be activated so you body can be that magnet as above, but in this activation you also have available your HIGHER SELF, which Jane so BEAUTIFULLY DESCRIBED when she was the ripe old age of 9 and meditating already. I might actually come to like this thread, I was somewhat hesitant in starting it, for a lot of reasons on this board. But now, and thanks to the AC from SWEDEN, I have a little tool to use. I also collected a little chakra thingy to upload here as a smiley to use. I assume it will upload I didn't do it yet, off to do that now. But again, THANKS AC, this is so useful. If I knew more about Hinduism terms, it would help. I started on that once, because there is great knowledge given in it about spirit, but translating that to English, and to those not raised in it, is difficult and something I did not spend time on.

This is giving me something useful maybe with Christian teaching to use.

To "green thumb" collectors this is MY original wall of text, written right here, so don't report it as copyright violation. yes this happened to me before. On one occasion, I quoted my OWN material and got a double copyright violation and told that we can get red thumbs for quoting material that somebody else did not place the linky on. Well I can't place a linky on MY posts I write here.

OK let me begin. Kundalini IS 3rd person Trinity, Mother Spirit energy. It does indeed lie on the base of the spine awaiting its awakening. When it is fully activated, there is the merger, spoken of with the Star of David, the merger of Father/Mother Energy. Literally the Mother rises within the body, (actually energy fields of the body, or body etheric/body double if you wish for the time being), to meet the Father Energy/Soul. I will think of a bit better way perhaps to express that. Understand here, I have read some very conflicting material over the years on all of this, and a whole bunch is not right, but we have a paucity of correct words in English anyway on this plane. so I do the best I can for the various readers I contend with.

I will encourage readers to tell their kundalini stories here if you wish. For some the process is slow and painful, for others quick and painless, or quite and terrible, or slow and pleasant.

The Kundalini is NOT the descending of the "Holy Spirit", is the ascension of the Holy Spirit, thru the opening chakras. There are 7 basic chakras/energy "disks". In Short, the kundalini Rising IS the Opening of the Chakras and Chakras open at varying rates depending on the soul progress. In some of you, it will include at some point the opening of the spiritual chakras above the crown chakra, that connect you with "outer space" so to speak, "telepathically".

In a future post I will place some material and some links. You are welcome with your kundalini stories to place links that help explain it for you. We can go over some perhaps. I waited to start this thread, because to do it right, it cannot be a "one post" topic. I will also go over the one post I made to AC to see what I started there.

But I will say AC, that the Father Fragment is Source/Father/First Person Trinity, and the Kundalini is 3rd Person Mother Spirit energy and so different from the Father Fragment you commented about. Hope that helps right there.

Your Bodies, your Holy Temples for YOUR Spirit, ARE also MOTHER SPIRIT ENERGY. Her Mind programs the electrons that govern your body to make it work. Thus Mother Spirit energy is within all living things, plants and animal. While Mind is non physical, the knowledge must be stored ON something, and in the case of all physical bodies, the how of the physical body is one them. In fact the electrons make the ASTRAL form of the body, that part of the body that shows up in the astral realms of earth after the passing of the physical body for those going to those realms after physical death. That is why you "look" just like your former physical body, or your current physical body if you "astral" travel. Note the astral body is NOT the soul or your mind, its just the body type used in those realms.

Now, there are basically two situations in which the Kundalini rises and I will deal here in this post with the first. This first situation is that most of you undergoing very active kundalini rising are star seeds. You are being opened, whether you realize it or not, generally on a schedule of when it is time for YOU and the Planet. You are now in greater numbers coming in with specially created embryos with more than 2 strands of DNA. You are coming in at birth with 3 or more. And as a young child you hook up more of them. I have 24 strands now, which is the most for this plane that can be hooked and the persons body still "visible" to the eyes of others.

Now as your DNA hooks and you awake and your guardian angels decide you should be more awake, the process will begin. Some are activated very suddenly, and it can be easy or painful as hell. Some have great difficulty once activated, particularly those 50 and older now, who were activated in their 20's and 30's. They did not fully remember they are highly evolved Sons of God with rather great powers, used or not, and it was very dumbfounding and a lot went into drugs to hide, and then into drugs to explore. The age of the 70's was a typical time for those ones. And the wrong drugs made their way to some of them, on purpose by thugs to harm the whole process. Sadly a wondrous example of that, even though she was only 40+ was the beloved Arch Angel incarnate, Whitney Houston. She didn't have much choice on the drugs she was given without her consent that were to knock her out of her true power. Did she not RADIATE when she was younger? Oh yes. The thugs knew, made their money and destroyed her kundalini.

So why raise the kundalini in the first place, because then your BODY becomes a channel for the works of Mother Energy on this world. Your body is a magnet for Paradise energy also with it raised up. Your Body quite literally is an antenna to receive, and thus a broadcasting unit to this world. Its part of the ascension of this world. Thus this is NOT Taught in Christian Churches. I have no idea if Islam has any mystery schools or teaching on this. But its being left out, and Christians being told its EVIL and devil possession certainly puts a big stop sign on the purpose.

And Christianity has been used to delay star seeds who are initially attracted to it, because they remember the word CHRIST, from manifesting their God power. Many a time the higher self will work in great tears with the lower self mind of the mind controlled Christian and they don't wake up. The wake up rate on this world is terrible. They are made AFRAID of their very own body and its potential. They are made afraid of the sensations their more advanced body perceives in this time from the changing energies of the photon belt and other energies. This Milky Way energies though, since 2006 ARE going to change that body anyway and some will be left in joy and others not knowing what the shit is going on. It is frightening to them what they feel and they reject it. I know people in this condition, and they don't even attend church nor are drawn to it, but they get their mind control in other areas, such as military, law enforcement, teacher education and the like. "Satan" meaning the dark energies have been most successful here.

Thus summarized, those pulled in the mind controlled arenas either refuse the wake up, or are terrified of it, or plain don't see it. And this post is long enough. But you ones to summarize with Kundalini having arisen are beacons to this world. LITTERALLY. You stand out and often you will be rejected, or compromised like the beautiful Whitney. I met her after her passing by the way. When your kundalini is risen, by all means draw the celestial light of Paradise thru your OPEN CROWN CHAKRA and radiate it into this world by extending your aura to 50 feet (16 meters) or more, whatever you can manage. Experiment doing that in crowded stores on the weekend. You will most surprised at its affect on those around and the general energy in those stores, it will improve, as least while you are there.

Hi NIP...I will share my experience with the Kundalini rising in myself back in 1990/91...I spent months on a God search using every tool I could get my hands on. Back before the internet there wasn't a lot of information available to me in the small town I was living in so I ventured with what I had been taught...My learned beliefs--I spent months teaching myself to meditate on the thoughts of Mother Mary and Christ too. I didn't have any idea of what chakras were etc...I just spent my time in silence laying in bed for hours...Saying I was on a God search is an understatement. Faith wasn't going to cut it for me. I HAD TO SEE with 100 percent proof that something existed out there..That something was running the show...as the meditation went on I started having small experiences like pulsating lights shooting outward from my eyes when they were closed...at first this kinda scared me but as I worked through the fears I learned to control these lights and could call upon them at will..

Then one night it happened..I'm laying in bed taking nice relaxed breaths..I could feel a electrical current buzzing at the base of my spine..I took a deeper breath and could pull the energy up another notch. The warmth of this shooting up my spine was very soothing..full of energy so I took deeper breaths and pulled the energy up higher. I had no idea what was happening but I knew it was a good thing..I keep breathing in deeper and deeper until I had the energy clear up to my throat area...Once again being in a small town and not having anybody to share these experiences with was kinda tough. I had read some books on Buddhism and Hinduism but I was by no means super educated on the chakra systems...till this day I'm still trying to piece all this together because raising the Kundalini was just the tip of the iceberg of my experience...yes I found my proof I was looking for not to long after this..."seek and you shall find"....I had to know...I've only read the first page of this thread...I'm going to go back and read it all...I've already found some answers for myself in this thread and some e-mails with NIP...funny how we have to put experiences into words/labels...for many years my experience just "was"....now the older I get I want to put it into words and go deeper...been complacent for too long

FACT Candace, only the Anointing is all that is needed and to tell them what that means would be fruitless for the FALLEN have had a very long time to figure it out but blessed they are for the TESTIMONY,for THE TESTIMONY is for all the Sons and the daughters that not one Soul be lost if it is possible...

WE WILL SEE when it is said, NOW THIS IS FINISHED!
