The Law of Right Action

By Kuthumi, thru Michelle Eloff

Apr 26, 2007

Hi everyone, I am publishing this from Kuthumi, because it is tough and I think everyone of us can benefit at this time from it. The essence of it is about stopping gossip against, self and of course others. There has been much failure in recent years in the esoteric community, and this certainly points out what some of it is. We are in early 4D, and we must get off the fence and get to work, and get this world moved up. 4D is NOT a nice time for any of us, that is not the point of 4D. It is the dimension of the great challenges in which one gets off the fence and chooses to stay and serve the dark, or get with it and serve the light. It is the "dividing" dimension. The bolded portions, are my own bolding as I read it, which point out to me both my own issues and what I have experinced at the hand of others as I make this journey. This is a firm piece, chewing out and then building back up the lightworkers.

He discusses the Law of Right Action in this piece. Of interest to some of you, is that the next film by the people who made "The Secret" is to be about the Law of Right Action

ASCENDED MASTER KUTHUMI LIVE CHANNELING IN JOHANNESBURG

Please note that reading this information will have an effect on you. You will energetically be linked with the Channeling being and a similar process facilitated with you. It is not exactly the same as being in the presence of the channeling Master, however the effects are just as powerful. Do not concern yourself too much regarding time lines given to the participants in the channeling. You will be taken through a similar one in accordance with your Divine Plan, Timing & Purpose. All Questions & Answers from the session have been left in the transcript as we have

I am Kuthumi and I come forward upon the rays of love and wisdom, to greet each of you at this time and to bring unto you the blessings of tranquility, peace, healing and harmony. Greetings, beloved ones. And it is with great joy and pleasure in our hearts that we may gather with each of you upon this day, as we hold you firmly within the heart of Christ and securely upon the hands of God.

Beloved ones, today's gathering is one that brings about the onset of the deeper realization of the role that you as a soul are playing within human existence. All of you, and those whom you know have been facing challenges that have been forcing truth to the surface. For many years you have been guided and coaxed to move in specific directions, to address particular issues. However due to the ego's fear, which is a natural state within the current and most recent past Piscean age, especially with the ego's inability to trust that it will be supported and guided into the light of the divinity of its most powerful aspect, the authentic self. Therefore you and those around you, your family, your children, your friends, your partner, your acquaintances, your clients and even those whom you know only by sight or voice, have created experiences over the past 24 months, that in certain instances, truly shook them/you to the core of your being. Each situation has unfolded in a variety of ways, each of these situations, a means to unlocking the doorway to that very powerful part of you. Some of you have experienced this in the form of relationships ending or going through immense challenge. Some of you are in, and have been in, career situations that have taken all the life force out of you, where you feel every ounce of passion and inspiration inside of you has died. Others of you have experienced the process of physical death in your environment, loss, and/or lack. Change has come with every guise there is. Now it is up to you to acknowledge, which means to consciously accept that you are consciously aware of the situations unfolding in the here and the now, and addressing them.

Some months ago I already spoke of the energy of denial and how none of you will be able to play the denial game any longer. There is nowhere to hide and there is no thing that will remain hidden for very long. That, beloved ones, is not a simple statement, but in fact, a fact. Every illusion, every lie, every deception and every deceit to come will be revealed, regardless of the circumstances that will come as a result. And the reason why we say this is because every soul has been given the opportunity to step completely into acknowledgement, to look at what the game of life has presented and admit if one is in actual fact playing the game in terms of embracing everything that life is offering - the messages, the signs, the directives that are so clear, so obvious and sometimes so in your face, as many of you say, yet still choosing to turn a blind eye and a deaf ear.

Beloved ones this is what this current time, the autumn equinox, is all about. The Mars energy comes forth without mercy as it honors all the calls for freedom. It hears the prayers to be released from the constraints of that which weighs down so heavily upon you and it rips through the veils of illusion, and its whirlwind of energy often leaves one reeling in the wake of its passing. Yet the revelations that are presented are always well worth the trauma, the pain, physically, emotionally and otherwise because the lightness, the sense of freedom and the peace experienced afterwards, is your gift. The autumn equinox brings with it many other energies. The energies of the eclipse, as it is called, is one that penetrates deep within. We call this time the Soul Eclipse. It is the time of the dark night of the soul. The time where the soul is hidden within the shadow of your fears, your guilt, your anger, your resentments and your projections, your jealousies, your envy and your self deception. And what it does is forcefully push you right down into the very depths of that mish mash of astral mess and forces you to look at and accept what you have created. It shows you that part of your role on this planet is to grow through situations and to allow change. One of the things that has been the "saddest" for us to watch is how those who are indeed the catalyst angels of the earth, who have gone forth and served as catalysts in situations are being and have been, and probably still will be in the future, persecuted, judged, gossiped about, tarred and feathered, rejected and at times completely ostracized for their role as a catalyst. Anyone who has turned your life upside down or left you feeling shaken, betrayed or vulnerable has been a Catalyst Angel gracing your presence. Have you acknowledged their role as well as your part in attracting that person into your life? Or are you angry and still bearing a grudge, or even worse, gossiping about them and painting a tainted picture of them to others?

All of you, and those who will come to hear these words, and read these words in future must now realize that where you are on your pathway, is in a manner of speaking, a merciless one when it comes to choosing to apply old paradigm systems of behavior, reactions and any other level of ego based behavior. We are not speaking of genuine fears around things that one is having to overcome, challenges that one is facing in the terms of many obstacles that will pull down the membrane that has prevented you from seeing your light, your strength and your purpose. We are referring to every person who consciously and who willingly involves themselves in the games of drama, any kind of ego based or motivated judging of another or any other person's pathway, their choice of religion, faith, their choice of who they are, who they choose to be with, or what they choose to do with their life. None of you and when I say none of you, I'm referring to everyone other than the chosen Law Givers & Law Keepers, have the right or the power to judge, to point a finger, to speak negatively of or gossip about any other person, for you have not ever walked a single moment in their shoes.

Many, many months ago I spoke of gossip being the blackest of all magic in existence. Do you know that gossip is not limited to speaking about the drama or going ons in other people's life, but is also how you gossip about yourself and what we mean by that is how you speak negatively of yourself. How you bring yourself down in the midst of others. That is a form of gossip, especially when you are continuously speaking to more than 3 people about what it is you are having difficulty with, with yourself. You are betraying your inner child, your adolescent self and all the wounded aspects of yourself. You are gossiping about them, you are highlighting their weaknesses, their fears, the choices they made based on where they were in a specific moment in time and beloved ones, please bear in mind that what I am saying now applies to absolutely every single situation revolving around gossiping and speaking negatively of a person or people. You were not in the person's shoes or the group of people's shoes at the time a decision was made, an action was taken, a word or words were spoken. Unless you were there, it is none of your business quite frankly. Unless you witnessed the group's or the person's choice of words, what motivated a decision, what motivated an action, you have no right to pass any judgment and to even look at the so called wrong doer, or whatever labels you choose to give them, with judgment in your eyes or your heart, because you were not present. And you the adult self was not in a full state of consciousness when your inner child or your adolescent self underwent whatever it was he or she did.

So now, we the Masters of Light, tell you that to be a part of the Sacred Council of Truth you are to stop, NOW and NEVER again, EVER speak negatively of yourself or another. Not EVER AGAIN to point a finger in judgment at any aspect of yourself or another because the dynamics you create is DESTRUCTIVE! It is NOT in accordance with the laws of right action, therefore you are BREAKING THE LAW and you WILL have to take responsibility for that. We said many, many teachings ago that there is no harm in speaking to someone whom who trust or a councilor, or a therapist about what weighs heavily on your heart' or what causes you pain and suffering... at which time a candle is preferably lit and one invokes the light of the masters and whomever else it is whom you work with, to transmute that energy and to bring healing to you and to the situation. However where you harp on the negativity of a situation and you point fingers to others and yourself, you are NOT healing, you are HARMING! You are breaking down every thing you have convinced yourself of you are trying to create! And might I add, in what we have observed amongst individuals, is that these individuals even convince themselves that they are not doing anything wrong by speaking of their own shortcomings to many others or speaking of the shortcomings of others, because inside of them they feel it is justified because perhaps they don't like the person very much themselves, or there is jealousy or envy or fear, or simply because they've convinced themselves that they have a right to because they are a friend or a healer..... It is NOT in accordance with the laws of right action!

When a situation is constantly harped on, when the same people are constantly fingered with razor point edges, your inner child and your adolescent self and all the other wounded aspects of yourself feel exposed and humiliated, which is why we say, STOP! We also say to you today, and this you can tell EVERY single person you work with, speak with, socialize with and interact with, that there are very powerful energies at play on your planet at this time. There are VERY stringent laws that govern the right action of your planet, and light workers are being given less and less room to play victim and to be in a constant state of self pity. So let us say you have worked your way right out of your little comfort zone of manipulation, victim hood or victim consciousness, poverty consciousness, conditional love and all the other negative attitudes and consciousness that accompanies it. You have been adamant to achieve a level of ascension, a word so many of you love to use but in fact have very, very little understanding of what it truly means. And I, Kuthumi stand in front of you today and present with me are 244 of the Masters of the Grand Council of Truth of the Great Brotherhood of Light and we look to every single light worker on the planet and we tell you now, that if it is truly your intention to work with the laws of ascension, the laws of right action, and to become a free and liberated soul, to love unconditionally, to live peacefully and blissfully then GET OF YOUR GODDAMN HIGH HORSE and START living that way!

I, Kuthumi, head of the Ascension program which Lord Maitreya implemented some many cycles ago have now come to a crossroads with many light workers, and I am bringing the full essence of the golden ray, today. And this energy, this message I am bringing forth, is not limited to only those of you who is hearing this, you happen to be here physically to hear these words but this applies to EVERY single person on the planet who has chosen to wake up..... And I can use the word goddamn as much as I want to because much of what is transpiring is not God blessed! If you are serious about your pathway, if you are serious about the journey you have chosen to walk.... If you are sincere in your commitment to yourself, to your soul, TO YOUR SPIRIT and therefore to Father/Mother God, THEN STOP ALL NON SENSE, STOP THE CRAP! ... I, Kuthumi will NO LONGER tolerate any of this weaving of NEGATIVE vortices of any kind between those who serve the pathway of light and those who call to the masters of light for assistance with ascension.... If THIS is indeed what you call for, then YOU STAND UP in your power, NOW!!! And you TAKE responsibility for what you have called forth!! And my sternness COMES WITH AN ENERGY I DO NOT BRING OFTEN!!!! BUT I BRING THIS TO THE ENTIRE PLANET on this day!! To hear that Spirit too has a boundary!!!! And this boundary is NOW IN PLACE and will REMAIN in place!!!! And any soul, light worker or not, who chooses to overstep this boundary and CONTINUE to play the game of the dark brotherhood, best you make your choice as to whom you are serving!!!! THERE IS NO MIDDLE GROUND ANYMORE LIGHT WORKERS!!! THERE IS NO SITTING ON THE FENCE ANY LONGER!!! There is no "today I will listen to God and I will love myself and tomorrow...." the opposite!!!! That polarity does not exist any more!!!! IF YOU CHOOSE IT THEN PLEASE DO US ALL A FAVOUR & MOVE BACK INTO THE LOWER DIMENSION AND PLAY YOUR GAMES THERE!! DO NOT call the servants of the light into your morbid games, into your ego dealings, into your gossip, your ego fights, backbiting and backstabbing!! THIS IS THE END OF THAT GAME!! And we have highlighted a big screen within your universe today; GAME OVER!! So today marks the end of ALL OF THAT.

The 244 members of the Grand Council of Truth of the Great Brotherhood of Light called for today's gathering. THIS IS NOT TO BE TAKEN LIGHTLY. We come most times bearing words of lightness, words of love, enfolding all of you in uplifting energies, motivating words and teachings, yet you walk away from the teachings and your judgment begins, the gossiping begins, the backstabbing, the backbiting, the self criticism, the self rejection, and the self hate starts all over again. The scales are STILL out of balance. It is not that there is MORE nurturing and loving of the self than what there is of the occasional criticism and judgment!! It is still the other way around! AND I AM MAKING MYSELF HEARD TODAY as the MASTER who has taken over from Lord Maitreya, for I am RESPONSIBLE for what it is that MY initiates, MY adepts, MY ascension students create. THE TIME HAS ENDED and those of you who ARE here today, physically hearing these words, it is for a purpose because you are the ones now, who can start spreading this message the quickest by getting the word out the fastest and yes, you tell them, KUTHUMI IS PISSED OFF because I am!

Light workers across the globe throw their hands up saying "why me, why did this happen to me?"

"What have I done?" LOOK AT WHAT YOU ARE FOCUSING ON! This time, especially now autumn in the Southern hemisphere moving into your winter, is very important in terms of looking at what is inside of you. The demons that still lurk deep inside of you that have been feeding your anger, your jealousy, your envy, or whatever it is - GET TO THE BOTTOM OF IT!! Stop talking to everyone about it and DO something about it!!! TAKE RESPONSIBILITY and don't tell me; "oh but Kuthumi I am taking responsibility, what more do you want from me?!" THE MORE I WANT FROM YOU IS ONLY THE MORE YOUR SOUL WANTS FROM YOU! And what your soul wants is for you to STOP to turn away from everything that is outside of you. To release yourself from all the people you are addicted to, the co-dependant relationships, the little dramas that you have so beautifully created where you gather and gossip and point fingers and judge and talk about this person and that group and that event and "oh have you heard.....?" NONE of that does any good. Whenever you do that, you are playing the game of the 3rd dimensional world. You are IN astral reality, plain and simple period. And this is why I say to you, you DO NOT have a cooking clue what ascension means or what it means to be an ascended master, or what it entails to walk the path of ascension, what it means to be devoted to healing and becoming one with God!! YOU DO NOT KNOW because if you DID, you would not indulge in the crap that you DO!! You would not play the games you do!! You would not judge your friends!! You would not judge people who are less than you!! You would not get involved in other people's drama and judge people because of it!! And MOST important, you will STOP judging yourself, because that is the greatest damage you can do!!!

We are ever present as we always have been, and it is that by law we respond to every call that is made because that is the commitment we have made to ourselves and to God. So when you call, we come, we bring the assistance, we bring the messages, we bring the people, we bring the situations, no matter how disastrous they are sometimes. But you still don't get it! So we ask YOU; WHAT do YOU want from us?! What do you human beings want from the angels, the ascended masters and every other God/Goddess and being that exists everywhere. WHAT do YOU want from us? For as far as we are concerned, we were doing everything you asked..... But it is never good enough for you... because you are too BUSY wallowing in your negativity! You are too BUSY focusing on what is WRONG and on every little injustice that is befalling you! You are so BUSY focusing on what injustice someone did to you or what mistake you made or resentments you have, what someone did to you yesterday, a year ago or 50 years ago that you don't SEE what you have!

As long as there is resentment in your heart towards your life or towards another person YOU WILL NOT EVER achieve ascension. As long as there is jealousy and envy in your heart, YOU WILL NEVER achieve ascension. As long as you choose to remain within the ego based motivations of the 3rd dimension, then, I suggest you make yourself very comfortable because the news is; you will be coming back for a lot more...

This is the time for you to scrutinize your relationships, your friendships, your career and everything you choose to do. You need to look at your motivation because can I tell you, some of your interactions with people are motivated by hidden agenda. You are being manipulative. You are getting some kind of satisfaction out of the dramas and this is taking you further and further away from the goal of ascension might I add. You see, your higher self, your soul, the masters, the angels, whoever it is, sees the intention in your heart. We are not blind to it, certainly not oblivious to it, yet all we do is honor your choices. And when you ask for change, we bring it. Sometimes, as I said right at the beginning of today's message, we have to make it LOUD AND CLEAR before you hear, or see..... and that is where the Catalyst Angels come in. And if you are a Catalyst Angel and you have been at the receiving end of the judgments, the projections, and whatever else comes with it..... DON'T GIVE UP. Remember the words of Master Jesus; "Forgive them Father, for they know not what they do" That is the affirmation of the Catalyst Angel, because the Catalyst Angel is perhaps one of the most daring and courageous. Yes, often most foolish... and sometimes the most wise of all the angels. So don't point your fingers at them, don't judge them or reject them simply because they were called to service, to do what was required in your life or within the life of someone you know.

Now the Grand Council of Truth is calling to the light workers because of all the new councils that are being created. These councils are being formed upon the inner planes linked to physical, incarnate members of the teams of light which this is why you received such a forthright and energized transmission this morning. No one can hold that responsibility if they are sitting on the fence. No light worker can be trusted to stand firmly in their authentic self if the light worker is still playing the games of the old paradigm. So do you understand why it was necessary to tell it like it is?

Yes.

There is no pretty way to deliver the message because like a young child, sometimes, one needs to be a little firm and straight to the point, to drive the message home so to speak. This selection process is going to take place over the next 18 months setting all the councils of truth in place. I, Kuthumi am head of this project with Lord Maitreya and all other 244 members of the Grand Council of Truth of the Great Brotherhood of Light who are guiding me as to what is required to set the councils up. Each of the 244 members are allocated 22 444 light workers. Now, in order to get this done within 18 months we have our work cut out for us, as do you. We however do have another plan in place as a back up if not all of the physical members can be assigned in time, as a result of the ego being their main motivation. That will be implemented if need be. This also means that all of you here today and all who will hear these words or read these words need to clean up your act, pull yourself together and as I said, STOP the nonsense. If it is not you that is involved in any nonsense, then you beloved one are the Catalyst Angel, or the Messenger Angel to make it known to those who are. So yes, the work that you are all involved in now is very important and you are now being shown first hand what the true meaning of the word ascension is all about.

This is the beginning of the next leg. I spoke recently of what is to be expected regarding the second wave of ascension that is coming in December 2008 and this forms part of it, in fact, is the core stabilizer of that entire process. And it is the core stabilizing mechanism for the entire golden age. Remember your belief systems determine your attitudes and your perceptions, all of those are falling away because you are moving into a state of claircognizance, the only state in which to be. Claircognizance is the all knowing self, fully active. It is about living, governed purely by that aspect of self. Therefore nothing challenges you, or sways you from your truth in that sense because you KNOW the truth and that is the foundation, the very bases of what makes up the Sacred Councils of Truth. In order to serve as the physical manifestation and anchor of the collective body of the Sacred Council of Truth, your bases, your foundation; your base chakra - your root system must be rid of all the belief systems that motivate you by fear, that feed your jealousy, your envy, your anger, your resentments, your hatred, and whatever it is that lurks inside of you, that causes you to feel and to behave negatively. There is no harm in having a bad day, I have always said that even a few days is acceptable, but when you get into a cycle of negativity, then you are breaking down the light that you have tried to create. You bring that negativity not only into your own being, but into your home and into everything that you are doing, and do you think you can perform light work when there is so much negativity around you? If you are filled with negativity, how are you to present and perform pure "light" work?

So clean up your act, clean out your environment, your home, your social circle, any aspect of life, intimately, career, and all those habits and prepare yourself for your true role of ascension, because if you want to know what ascension truly is, what living in the light really means, then get cracking. Living in the light, following the pathway of ascension has nothing to do, I repeat, NOTHING to do with denying people with true love in their heart of your attention or of your time regardless of what they do, be it drink, smoke, take drugs, be promiscuous, never bathe...

because that is a judgment..... Walking the pathway of light and truly serving God means that you have the capability to see Christ in all of them and honor that. However if the person chooses not the honor the Christ within themselves and chooses to focus on negativity... and it brings you down or it pulls you in and you become a part of that negative cycle of judging, criticizing, gossiping, hurting yourself and others then best you get out as quick as you can. Do what you will but harm none.... physically, verbally, psychically or mentally, spiritually or any other way. Why? because you have no right to.

The Ten Commandments hold power, they are LAWS, however they have been distorted, misunderstood and very seldom applied. Because of the misunderstanding in them people have felt no laws exist. Very few people in actual fact know what their truth is or what meaning of those laws are, which is what I, Kuthumi as Moses brought to the planet. However, I in fact brought 99 tablest, not just 10, and this was the body of teachings that was given to this channel some 9 years ago, however humanity has not been ready to receive it. When there are sufficient light workers who've truly committed to the pathway of ascension, we will begin releasing that information again. Even though the Ten Commandments are distorted and not understood, there are still other laws that apply... AND IF THERE IS ONLY ONE YOU WILL EVER REMEMBER, THEN REMEMBER THIS ONE - The Law of Right Action, and of course that what you do unto others you are doing unto yourself. The way you treat yourself is how others will treat you. What you believe in your heart is what you will create in your reality, so if you believe you are not good enough or deserving of and you know the list, then as sure as tomorrow will dawn, it will come to affirm your belief.

So now, please close your eyes for a moment. Taking a deep breath in through your nose and exhale through your mouth allowing your body to relax..... All the words that have come forth today every part of your being has heard and has honored because the light inside of you, the authentic part of you has called for this, and has been ready to hear this and knew that the ego aspects of you NEEDED to hear this. To know that even Spirit has boundaries, that even the world of light will only allow so much and no more, and that when individuals claiming to live the pathway of light behave negatively, it is blasphemous. (in this is the misunderstood law of blasphemy, in taking God's name (yours and others in vain.)

Now take another deep breath in and as you exhale, just allow the negativity in your body to be consumed by the light pouring into your crown chakra right now..... and just take a moment to think about any negativity you have been wrapped up in over the past few days, weeks, months or perhaps even a negative cycle that has lasted a few years... and allow the light to pour all over those memories and seep deep into the core of the negativity and transmute it.....Just see all of that which has weighed you down becoming as light as a feather... and all of those negative feelings, associations and projections turning into soft white feathers and velvet white rose petals, floating all around you cleaning up your energy field and softening all the energy around you.....

Now think about any judgments you have been making of others... think about the person or the people... and see the light filling them.... Look at the heaviness of the judgments that have been projected that have caused them perhaps discomfort..... Look at them..... Be courageous enough to acknowledge what such energy does, energy that you in this case may have projected. If you have not done such a thing then just be aware of the people that you are seeing and how they appear as a result of the judgments that have been projected toward them, the negative words, gossiping and rejection. Look at what that energy does....

Now begin increasing your ability to magnetically draw in the light from Infinite Source and replace every negative energy you've projected towards that person or people with the light you are bringing from Infinite Source and begin uplifting that energy..... lift it, dissolve it, dismantle it, and soften it until you see the feathers and the velvet rose petals..... And now you are to send a sincere blessing to the person or group of people... if one of sincerity does not come then be still, do not say anything and send light to the person or people..... Breathe in deeply exhaling fully as this soft, gentle, uplifting energy begins swirling and twirling together and the All Oneness that connects all of you together fills the ethers.... And the mutual light of acceptance shines in all your hearts... Allow the light of acknowledgement to fill your body, your heart, your mind and your soul and remind yourself that where you are today, is at the end and at the beginning... and that you have some very important choices to make, ones that you need to commit to.... And as the feathers and the rose petals float around you, you know that you are quite capable of remaining faithful to your commitment.... And acknowledge this to yourself.... Acknowledgement is the process of owning and accepting what is and then doing what needs to be done to make whatever changes are necessary from the point of stillness within.

Everything begins and ends with you. Conflict begins with you and it ends with you. Judgment begins with you and it ends with you. Gossip, rejection, fear, anger, all begins with you And it all ends WITH YOU. Breathe this into you, knowing again, that this is true; everything begins and ends with you. In other words, your choice... And how you use your power... YOUR power to respond, in other words your ability to respond to life, which is why you are YOUR responsibility and whatever happens around you, is YOUR responsibility to change from within IF you are not happy with what is happening... At this point beloved ones open your energy field to welcome the 244 Grand Masters of Truth of the Great Council who are of the Great System of Light..... As you are introduced to their energy, if and when the time is right, based on what happens from this day forward, one of them will connect with you to serve as an anchor for the Sacred Council of Truth and perhaps what we should add, is that not only is it the Sacred Council of Truth, it is also the Sacred Council of Cognizance which will first be created INSIDE OF YOU... and THEN you will be part of the greater council. THAT is THE LAW of co-creation within the realms of light... Just feel your energy surrendering and welcoming the beings, their energies and their presence....

Welcome the energy of change that has come to greet you, that has been filtering through your body over the past 17 days, that has caused massive shifts in most of you already. Some of you have experienced it more physically, others of you have experienced it emotionally, some mentally, and some have been facing very deep and dire spiritual crises. The change has met all of you and the Soul Eclipse has brought you the gift to look into the eyes of the darkest of your shadows, to embrace those aspects, to acknowledge them and now bring them into the light..... Draw in more of the light from the Infinite Source which you are able to always magnetically do....and wash it through your body, wash it through your aura, through your emotional body and your mental body... Wash it through your spirit body, through your causal body and all the way through to your monad, so that you are now glowing with light...

I, Kuthumi bring recalibration to your body, aligning your chakras.... I place around you a golden egg... and as you stand within this egg you are being prepared for the death and rebirth cycles that come with the time of death and resurrection, related to the Easter period... and if you choose to work with this energy any other time after the Easter period, you will still undergo the death and resurrection. It is just more intense now because of the Easter energies... And give thanks for all of this..... This light will remain within you and all around you because you ARE permanently connected to the Infinite Source.

Draw your consciousness back into your physical body... always welcoming the light into your being, welcoming the light into your home, your heart, your mind and every aspect of your environment, and be grateful for everything you have.

Beloved ones before I end this transmission, I ask you to use your power of choice wisely. Choose to focus on that which is of the light; choose to spend most of your time in places and with people who uplift your spirit, who honor the laws of light, who honor the laws of service to God.... And keep your ego in check. YOU are master not your ego.

And so it is that we bring forth the blessings from the 244 masters of the Grand Council of Truth of the Great Brotherhood of Light... The energy that they send to you is now also supported by the light of 244 female masters of the Grand Council of Cognizance of the Great Sisterhood of Light.... May all of you have within you the sense to recognize truth, the self respect and the self love to choose truth, to remove yourself from that which is negative and that pulls you into negativity on a long term basis, and may you have within you the conscious recognition of the force of power that exist within you. The forces of power that will inspire and motivate you to go forth and remove yourself from the drama of the world of others, and remind you to mind YOUR own business. Your life is your business, the business of life, take care of it, mind it with light and it will prosper, it will grow and it will bear very delicious, very sweet and abundant fruit. Remember, everything begins and ends with you.

I am Kuthumi, Chohan of the Golden Ray of Love and Wisdom, head of Ascension, walking with Lord Maitreya and I greet and bless you in love. Adonai.

Primary Midwayer Andréa.

Subject: "A Gift You Can Improve Upon."

Received by George Barnard.

Andréa: "This is Andréa. I am a Midwayer born on this planet. I am part of the permanent worldly citizens of this planet. I am more than 500,000 years old, and I have a perfect memory of all that has ever happened to me, and around me, in my years of service.

"Primary Midwayers like their Secondary counterparts do not need to eat or sleep. We spend a little of each 24-hour day in what we call reversion. We may in fact be a tourist on our own planet, and spend time with other celestial beings, or spend time in play in some fashion. During each 24 hours we spend time talking with the Creator of All. That leaves us more than twenty hours in each day during which we are of service to many; humans and other beings.

"I am a Primary Midwayer. My ability to communicate with this receiver and other humans all over the world, for I have many students, is unusual and a gift from Mother Spirit, for which I worked hard, and for which I am extremely grateful.

"Not every planet has Midwayers of the Primary and Secondary kind, for mostly they are the planets on which individuals are so created that, by nature, they have a greater ability to become advanced spiritual individuals. It is on these planets where there may only be one type of Midwayer, capable of communicating with the angels and the humans of that planet alike.

"As a rule, Midwayers are capable of varied professions, as you might designate them. Some are communicators, some are healers, some are translators, some have the ability to materialize, some are organizers, some are creative personalities, some are teachers, and that might well be their main task, although there can be much of an overlap in the capabilities of some to fill every niche of planetary requirements.

“There are various ways in which we can contact you. We can ‘prime’ your brain and mind whilst you sleep. We can create a situation during your wakeful hours of making you look at clocks and number plates, receipts, invoices, the pages of a book, and recognize these numbers. We are capable of switching on and off your electric lights. We can, at times, interfere with your email messages if we know that no good is to come from your communications.

“Our Secondary Cousins can materialize on occasions, and you may never know whether the person you meet in the aisle of a grocery store is in fact a human or a Midwayer with a message. We can appear and we can vanish when the job has been taken care of in a few moments of time, at least as a rule. As our abilities vary between one Midwayer individual and another, so too do you vary in your abilities.

“As long as you are a recipient of the various time prompts, you are capable at least of taking in our messages whilst you sleep. You may well be capable of hearing us while you are awake. You may well be able to record us in the way this receiver and his friends will be broadcasting our discussion of the day. You may well be able to learn to see us, and you may well feel our loving touch.

“Whatever capability you have been given, rest assured, through meditation and visualization you will be able to improve upon what you have already been gifted with. This is Primary Midwayer, Andréa. I send my love out to you all.”

George: “Thank you Andréa.”

Candace: Discussion about the Midwayers can be found in the Urantia Book, www.urantia.org. Paper 38, pp. 424-425, for a general discussion, and paper 77, titled “The Midway Creatures,” pp. 855-867.

Midwayers form a “bridge” between the material and spiritual worlds, thus the term “midway.” On our planet Urantia (also called Shan, planet of tears) many Midwayers went into the Lucifer Rebellion, and are not here on the planet anymore. Most planets have 50,000 Primary Midwayers, which are more angel than man, and varying numbers of Secondary Midwayers, who are closer to man, than angel.

The remaining Primary and Secondary Midwayers who remained loyal and did not enter the rebellion, joined together after the Bestowal of Christ Michael, into a group called, The United Midwayers, and number 10,992, of which 1,111 are Secondary Midwayers. Many people, who are touched by the Midwayers, think they are angels. They “guide” many humans on this planet.

If you find the reading laborious in the Urantia Book, on this topic, try sections 8 and 9, in paper 77 mentioned above. The pp. are 864-867. Please do work with the Urantia Book, it gets more readable as you work with it, and some parts are very clear and readable. It is far better to purchase a copy you can mark up and review, than reading it online, since it is about 2000 pages long.

About Clones

About Clones

This is a series of lessons that is intended to cover many of the aspects of Ascension. These lessons will be taught by female Ascended Masters of various Orders. Although all of these masters are balanced in the male and female aspects of their personalities, these individuals have chosen to manifest female bodies during this time in the continuum of All That Is. Please join us for our weekly lessons. Dhyana Markley

The following lesson was given on November 8, 2007 by Sehaji Master Lady Lemlet:

I am Lemlet and today I would like to speak to you about clones. Discovering if any clones are in your current day life and, if so, how you might want to consider working with them.

First of all I would like to state that clones are real. They have been in existence for eons and the fact that you don't know about them to any great extent is due to the lack of truth given to you by way of your media, which is greatly controlled by those with their own personal agendas.

Almost everything has already been cloned on your world...people, animals, plants, insects...you name it. This has been kept a secret from you because those scientists who are cloning fear that if or when you find out, that you will violently rebel against their actions. There is probably great truth in that. Especially since it is now fairly widely recognized that clones do not have souls and cannot, unless by direct order by Creator God Itself.

Since it is known that soulless creatures do not have the direct connection with Creator God Itself, it is also known that clones even though they "look" exactly like they original, they are not. For not only is the soul missing, but also missing is the ability to greatly love, feel compassion and receive intuition from your higher self. A clone is only interested in its survival and the objectives that were programmed into it and clones do not have the life longevity of a souled being.

Now, you might ask why clones were created in the first place. My point of view or perspective is that they serve a great purpose in helping to create the conditions necessary for soul growth. In other words, without clones in positions of power on this planet, it would have taken a very long time for souled beings to create challenges for themselves in which they can learn the lessons necessary for them to realize that they truly are a piece of Creator God, with many of the abilities of creation, compassion and love that that implies.

Clones in reality are just a speeding up of biology with a little programming thrown in. Your scientists have been able to do this for almost 50 years. Yes, almost 50 years!

Of course, they learn more and more as time and experience allows, but the techniques have been basically perfected for decades, at least since the early '60s.

Now you might ask if you know anybody who might be a clone. I would have to answer, "YES." You would be absolutely amazed at how much all of you have been kept in the dark, not only about clones and cloning but about many other things as well. For the most part all of you have been living in a world of grand illusion where you are fed information that creates or confirms what you believe to be right or true according to your basic nature and that is non-threatening as well.

I am not saying these things to frighten you at all, but it is time for everyone to wake up and to see things more clearly.

Those of you with a spark of Creator God have nothing to fear. Even if attacked by someone, anyone, if you follow your instincts and react without thought in self-defense, you will be fine. Your Guide or Guardian Angel is always with you. As I said, clones have very strong survival instincts. If a souled individual says to his attacker,

"I call upon the God within you to stop this!"

a souled attacker might truly stop. A clone will not stop his attack.

Still, I repeat, most of you have absolutely nothing to fear. How often in the past five years have you gotten into a knock down, drag out fight? Most of you would say decades, not years. Most of you haven't fought since you were teenagers and some of you not even then.

So, are there any clones that you might need to be warned of? YES. There are many clones in your governments and military especially. And, yes, many of them are in leadership positions.

Perhaps some of you saw the photo on the Internet about a year ago showing President Bush in his pickup truck in Texas with a black box on the back of his shirt. Well, that box, although rumored to be a receiver for advice from someone telling him what to say to the press and other people, was really part of a programming device because this was a new clone put in place. As of today, President Bush has had 47 replacement clones activated to keep the illusion going that he is still alive and functioning. The soul that was this president, is no longer in this realm. Some might say he is in "limbo" while others would explain that he has gone to where all souls go upon death of their physical body. Anyway, he is dead and so are his mother, father and wife.

I know this will come as a shock to many of you, maybe even most of you, but Dhyana asked me to speak honestly and with as much detail as I thought wise. After all, our goal here is ascension by increased consciousness of All That Is and clones are a part of All That Is.

Again I state, there is nothing to fear about clones, even though they now exercise great power over you in all aspects of your lives. They could, however, present a danger should you allow their continuance in such power, because they will always use power for self gain and not for the good of the whole. So, what can you do about it? TAKE THEIR POWER AWAY. STAND IN YOUR OWN POWER AND TAKE THEIRS AWAY!

This is actually a very timely message because you are about to hear about massive banking fraud on a global basis that perhaps you had the inkling of an idea about or a gut feeling about, but felt that it was a crazy idea and probably not true. Well, I am here to tell you today that it IS true and most of this has been created by the programmed clones.

Mother Earth and her inhabitants have now come to the point where each one must decide for his or herself whether s/he wants to ascend or to stay behind with the clones and the 3-D world. For the most part, you have already ascended, for ascension is about the raising of vibrations and not about instantly disappearing from the face of the earth. You can tell you have shifted your vibrations because you are more awake and no longer satisfied being lead around by your nose by the so called "powers that be". You are starting to realize that they have greatly misused the powers you gave them and that you are constantly and consistently lied to by all of them.

Almost all of the most powerful people in the world are clones: the U.S. President, the U.S. Vice President, almost all of the U.S. Senate, almost all of the U.S. Congress, most heads of government on a State and even City level, especially the big cities. The Queen of England is a clone, the Pope, the heads of "most" religions and evangelical movements, the heads of major banks, Henry Kissinger, etc. In other words, if any souled being gets to a position of power and refuses to follow all of the rules given to them by the true controllers of this planet, they are killed and replaced by a clone of them.

Now, I need to bring you back again to the point of why this all has been a good thing for you to experience.

In the past you souled beings have been sleeping on the job, so to speak. You came here to learn, to face adversity and learn about the dark and light sides of yourself. You have all done that very well for a long time, but in the past 50 to 100 years, you got lazy or tired of the effort that it takes to continually unfold.... so you took a break.

You decided, especially after World War II, that you were tired of always having to fight for everything you wanted to experience or learn. You then created an after the war boom, got yourself new homes, new cars and invented television to distract you from your everyday life.

Well, the dark saw you falling for the good life and decided to put your consciousness to sleep even more. It's easy to do when someone is tired of fighting all of the time. Humans are basically all LOVE. Anything that is not love is very difficult to be around... or at least it was back then. Now it seems that society has a great tolerance for cruelty, pain and suffering. Wars and football are good examples. Anyway, the people started to be really manipulated about 1945. The dark has been active much, much longer, but their efforts were more subtle then.

In truth, your famous Constitution of the United States of America has been undermined since about 15 years after it was created. But that is another story.

To continue, since about 1945 the dark has made great strides in lulling the public into a false sense of security, while robbing them blind on almost all fronts, from banking to drugs, to health care, to education, to media information, to wars and the true reasons for them, to inventions that could get you off oil and even give you free energy, to the discovery of important historical artifacts which would inform you of your true place not only as spiritual beings, but as brothers and sisters of many galactic races.

I don't have the time or space to go into all of the lies you've been told when what I really want for you is to WAKE UP! Get on your computers, go to your libraries and read some controversial books, not just main stream ones that tout old ideas and old ways of doing things. I'm not saying to just jump toward something because it is new, but to at least learn about what is available out there and decide for yourself if you want it in your life. You won't get much truth from your media, so you must seek it out yourself then discern whether or not it is true for you.

One more tricky thing you lonely ones are going to have to decide for yourself is whether or not you would ever have a clone for a lover or a mate. Yes, that is the latest talk about cloning on your planet so that you will be more open to accepting clones as friends.

Clones can be programmed to be extremely compatible to you and perhaps seem to be a perfect mate. However, I must warn you that any children from such a bonding would probably be soulless and unchallenged by another soul, you would probably not learn much about yourself that would help you to quickly continue your spiritual ascension.

Hoping you are not all in shock, I am Lemlet and I thank you for sharing this time with me.

This may be shared freely as long as it remains in its entirety and proper credit is given. Thank you.

Candace Note: The planet's population is 50% robotoids, or clones. These ones have been introduced over a long time. At one time, it was 67% but the DNA enhancing programs going on are reducing the percentages, as it is not possible to incarnate into a cloned body.

Since there is not an incarnation, there is not the information that comes through ones soul parts, including the thought adjuster spoken of in the Urantia Book, and called other assorted names. We'll just call it the Father Fragment. However, a clone can get a father fragment, if it does something of human and god mind value, and currently about 10% of robotoids do get this. The ones not receiving a father fragment are generally uncreated at death, and what a waste this is, in my opinion. I will do something later with Christ Michael on this, but not until we are long past Jupiter.

Allumage du Jupiter

By Elisa

Nov 14, 2007

Sananda are you ready to be honest with us about the Jupiter lighting
[Ignition that turns it to a sun] ?

I think that your spirits need current explanations concerning this subject. I agree to say to you that what is envisaged will be, and that what you wait to live will have to occur. One should not forget only the divine plan is activated increasingly strong each day, and that what is known as can not be erased . I do not think that it is convenient to currently give you other information, your role being to remain centered, serene and calm no matter what it can occur. There is in addition an army of Light which is capable to minimize the major risks in the atmosphere, and it is with this assertion that I let to you digest this concept of immediate future.

I do not give you time, of date, this is out of my range, you know it, but I ask you to say however that times are close to this explosive arrival of your energies on Earth. The people who are not capable to hear these words are those which always took share with the insanity of these prophecies. Now came time from the revelations and the arrivals of these predictions. I rather clearly remain in the hope to have been near you, and I ask you to give this news
among your friends scouts in their turn. What do you want to know with regard to this question, if I then to clarify my statements your consciences
frileuses this evening?

Is disseminated information exact? Is disseminated information correct? This man took the party to say to you what it hears, and it is with an aim of lighting that it did it. It needs however tact and more than conscience, because these statements are clean to frighten rather than to give hope. I am not this opinion that to give prophecies to all is the best thing to be currently made. There are many beings in request for care, and comfort which are not able to accomodate of such words.

I ask you to target your statements, and to deliver only what you will think of saying good to all. This end of the year will be difficult to live all parts, and it is in these words that I let to you foresee an unpleasant turning for much. Hunger, thirst, diseases, losses of expensive beings, and tremors violent one in the bodies. . I do not know how you to say that the Earth will be as you and that these adventures will take a catastrophic turning sometimes.

Certain countries will be frozen, others will be under water. It is the result of this setting with fire of Jupiter which can not be avoided. I think that this text is good to be diffused in its greater part. I let you to judge uprightness of your step in an aiming to light and not to sow the fear. I am with you in a way stable and immutable, I give you my peace. . That all the pure hearts take the party maintaining to light and comfort.

The advice of survival for this Christmas 2007? To make food reserves and covers, bicycle? This question concerns the fiction. You will not be stripped at the point not to have food any more. You will have certainly to be secured cold during this time of the year, but your close relations will be, just like you capable food in normality.

Which will be the signs before runners? Wait you with winds violent one, earth tremors and abrupt changes of climate.

Your life will not be in danger, you will not be taken in the ices, and framework of your life will not be devastated. The signs will be those of a storm which is announced, a catch of general fear in the bodies, and has unquestionable need for comfort. You will be able to understand that these signs will be felt before you by your close animals which will be in a rather strange state. You will see them running, taking forms of zombies, or asking you to frequently leave them.

Signs then of metabolism which will be accelerated. Perhaps they will be frightened, and will be eager to have to you close to them. Remain trustful and reassure them. Nobody will be evacuated from Earth during this phase of great energies. You will have to be however awaited to live moments of disorders of your conscience making you take much rest, and to ask you which date you live. You will have the impression to have dreamed more than of habit and you will be amorphous [Stasis]. .

This formed part of this sudden transformation which will have made you pass a new powerful vibratory race. Nothing is intolerable you, I reassure you. We will be in damning up? This question disturbs you much... This issue disturbs you much What you call damning up is in fact an appearance of sleep which will occur in any event by the ambient vibratory degree. Your bodies will be exhausted at the same time as very energized of a blow, causing in you intense upheavals at the emotional and cardiac level.

It will be necessary for you to rest and wait until your bodies are accustomed to this new vibration. It is not insurmountable insofar as all, you have reached this vibration little by little maintaining for a few months. Greatest fear resides at these people who have the staggering body [elderly] and low energy. It will take them more time to assimilate this revival in them. This hard period approaches, you of it are conscious because your bodies claim you rest and patience currently.

I send my greater recommendations with regard to the cold to you which will be vigorous. Take time to dress you and remain with the heat if you can it for this period of a few days. This vibratory change will project us in 4th° or 5th° Density. The continuation of this master key will be one period of revival for all, an occasion to see new gleams in the sky, and to say to you that all changed indeed well. It will be a new version in your life, and your friends will be increasingly happy to see you.

The love will be more present, and these men of faith and size will be close to you. The night will not be completely present in your sky [no darkness] . There will be unusual gleams, and some sources of energy which you do not know. You will include / understand whereas this time expressed by disorders of the life on the Earth will indeed have been established, and that your destiny will be again between the divine hands. Nothing will be dreadful nor terrible, are into certain. I cannot currently give you other details of this phase of energy rehandling, it is time to put back you for this arrival of energies.

I thank you. Will these be a few days the 3 days of night before the New Earth? (I hear yes.) On the other hand, I ask you to forget your knowledge on the matter and to give you entirely so that you will need to live for this period. (I hear yes.) It will be one strange period and disorder, of the questions will be while you, while waiting to find a new way of living the present thereafter. I let to you hope for beautiful meeting again and very strong meetings with our friends of stars.

They will be present close to you and will do what is necessary to help you to collect these energies in your bodies. There is no question of following them nor to leave your place of residence, but to accept them in your life the time of this move in order to accelerate your vibrations and to let you carry to by them. Am I clear? You can develop? I do not know how you to say that you will need assistance, comfort and support. There will be at these times of the pure sources close which you will be able ressource by making these dreams in your sleep as you currently do it.

You will amongst other things have beings of all galaxies close to you, and your sleep will be agitated unusual tremors, dreams, and manifest presences. You will have then the capacity to join us the one night time and to demolish you the your strongest anguishes concerning this phase of energy reorganization. It will be the beginning of your rise on the Earth. I think that many is on the way of living these events currently in a calmer way thanks to their assiduity to demolish their heavy luggage. Others will need assistance: we will be close to them.

Take time to undress you and still wait to still go up in which these bodies around you become more extensive and more. It is what we call the phase of final transformation. I wonder whether this stage I only it must live at home or in family? You need to live calms this phase.

Remain with the variation of any family concern and would be in peace.
And if each one will be able to see the brothers of light come to bring their assistance? Each one will be able to feel our presence
once again in an energy way in its bodies.

You have had many examples of this fact for two years.
Nothing will be really new, but more intense in an unquestionable way.
It is especially at the energy level that the things will be activated, at the physical level with share the climate and this new sun, the appearance will not be transformed a whole with the whole. You will have to be awaited climatic changes and human. You will have the impression to leave a tunnel of blackness to live in full clearness.
The light will be present on the Earth and your axis will have also changed in a tiny way. It will be also the time of the revivals in the consciences due to this vibratory acceleration.

New ideas will be born, and of the men of science will be promoted with the row of the wide world of your beings. It will be necessary to take into account the roughness of the climate and to remake certain forecasts with regard to your means of heating and lighting. It will be a new way of living with many levels. It will be a new way of living with many levels. But time will be in your cords, and your arch will be guided ... Accept this life of passage in this new era as you accepted in your incarnation, and all will be accomplished.

The disturbances How long will they last? You will need a few days I think to become aware that the life will have changed and that your being will be again in operating state. You will not be destroyed, but simply not very tired, of need for rest. Open your hearts then, and accomodate the new era. Forget your concern, you will live in the present moment though it arrives. We will be informed in order to make safe our environment, I think of work? Your government will take measures for saying that these a few days will be favourable with breakdowns, and disconvenues of all kinds.

Certain people know that this time approaches. Certain people know that this time approaches. You want to say that the leaders are with the current which they have a plan to stop the company? Does the government know and thus will ask people to remain on their premises for these 3 days of disturbance? What will be known as is that time will be disturbed, and that any safety measure will be the welcome. Accomodate these words like serious, but nonextremely serious warnings.

Closed schools? I can not say to you if the schools will be closed or not, it will be according to what will occur in your area. Let speak your heart, and wait you to live strange moments. What is certain, it is that you will be in a different state during this phase all, and that your bodies will be very tired. Will our bodies be different after, our eyes will see another reality? What you will see will make think of a revival in you and around you.

Your eyes will see will have them, you will not be any more as before for the majority, and your children will be the largest leaders; they are prepared with this events since their arrival on the Earth. They have them all in this active genetic luggage, and will pass this course with facility. They have amongst other things this faculty to see and hear, which is dormant for the majority of the adults still human.

They have in them these concepts well anchored, and they trace you to some extent the way. Currently thank them for their presence on the Earth, and give them these words of hope that nothing will be any more like now. I address to you my words of hope and peace in you, and invites you to go to extend you. I thank you.

Allumage de Jupiter

Conversation avec Sananda du 11 novembre 2007. Canal Elisa, suite au message de Sébastien Mitaut sur la Stellarisation de Jupiter et confirmation.

Sananda es-tu prêt à jouer franc jeu avec nous au sujet de l'allumage de Jupiter?

Je pense que vos esprits ont besoin d'éclaircissements concernant ce sujet actuel. Je consens à vous dire que ce qui est prévu sera, et que ce que vous attendez de vivre devra se produire. Il ne faut pas oublier que le plan divin s'active chaque jour de plus en plus fort, et que ce qui est dit ne peut s'effacer réellement. Je ne pense pas qu'il soit opportun de vous donner d'autres renseignements actuellement, votre rôle étant de rester centrés, sereins et calmes quoi qu'il puisse se passer.

Il y a d'autre part une armée de Lumière qui est à même de minimiser les risques majeurs dans l'atmosphère, et c'est avec cette affirmation que je vous laisse digérer cette notion de futur proche. Je ne vous donne pas de temps, de date, ceci est hors de ma portée, vous le savez, mais je vous demande de dire cependant que les temps sont proches de cette venue d'énergies explosives sur votre Terre. Les personnes qui ne sont pas à même d'entendre ces paroles sont celles qui ont toujours pris part à la déraison de ces prophéties. Maintenant est venu le temps des révélations et des venues de ces prédictions. Je reste dans l'espoir d'avoir été assez clair auprès de vous, et je vous demande de donner ces nouvelles parmi vos amis éclaireurs à leur tour.

Que voulez-vous savoir en ce qui concerne cette question, si je puis éclairer de mes dires vos consciences frileuses ce soir?

Les informations diffusées sont-elles exactes?

Cet homme a pris le parti de vous dire ce qu'il entend, et c'est dans un but d'éclairage qu'il l'a fait. Il a besoin cependant de tact et de plus de conscience, car ces dires sont propres à effrayer plutôt qu'à donner espoir. Je ne suis pas cet avis que donner des prophéties à tous soit la meilleure chose à faire actuellement. Il y a beaucoup d'êtres en demande de soins, et de réconfort qui ne sont pas capables d'accueillir de telles paroles. Je vous demande de cibler vos dires, et de ne livrer que ce que vous penserez bon de dire à tous. Cette fin d'année sera difficile à vivre de toutes parts, et c'est dans ces paroles que je vous laisse entrevoir une tournure désagréable pour beaucoup. Faim, soif, maladies, pertes d'êtres chers, et tremblements violents dans les corps. Je ne sais comment vous dire que la Terre sera comme vous et que ces aventures vont prendre une tournure catastrophique parfois. Certains pays seront glacés, d'autres seront sous les eaux. C'est le résultat de cette mise à feu de Jupiter qui ne peut être évitée.

Je pense que ce texte est bon à être diffusé dans sa plus grande partie. Je vous laisse juger de la droiture de votre démarche dans une visée d'éclairer et pas de semer la peur. Je suis avec vous de façon stable et immuable, je vous donne ma paix. Que toutes les âmes pures prennent le parti maintenant d'éclairer et de réconforter.

Conseils de survie pour ce Noël 2007? Faire des réserves alimentaires et couvertures, vélo?

Cette question relève de la fiction. Vous ne serez pas démunis au point de ne plus avoir de vivres. Il faudra certainement vous prémunir du froid dans cette période de l'année, mais vos proches seront, tout comme vous à même de vivre dans la normalité.

Quels seront les signes avant coureurs?

Attendez-vous à des vents violents, à des secousses sismiques et à des changements de climat brusques. Votre vie ne sera pas en danger, vous ne serez pas pris dans les glaces, et votre cadre de vie ne sera pas dévasté. Les signes seront ceux d'une tempête qui s'annonce, une prise de peur générale dans les corps, et un besoin de réconfort certain.

Vous pourrez comprendre que ces signes seront ressentis avant vous par vos animaux proches qui seront dans un état assez étrange. Vous les verrez courir, prendre des allures de zombis, ou vous demander de les sortir fréquemment. Signes que leur métabolisme sera accéléré. Ils seront apeurés peut-être, et seront désireux de vous avoir près d'eux. Restez confiants et rassurez-les. Personne ne sera évacué de la Terre pendant cette phase de grandes énergies. Il faudra vous attendre cependant à vivre des moments de troubles de votre conscience vous faisant prendre beaucoup de repos, et vous demander à quelle date vous vivez. Vous aurez l'impression d'avoir rêvé plus que de coutume et vous serez amorphes. Ceci fait partie de cette transformation subite qui vous aura fait passer un nouveau cap vibratoire puissant. Rien n'est invivable de vous, je vous rassure.

Nous serons en stase?

Cette question te perturbe beaucoup...je crois qu'il est nécessaire de donner d'autres informations concernant cette stase.

Ce que vous appelez stase est en fait une apparence de sommeil qui se produira de toute façon par le degré vibratoire ambiant. Vos corps seront épuisés en même temps que très énergétisés d'un coup, provoquant en vous des bouleversements intenses au niveau émotionnel et cardiaque. Il vous faudra vous reposer et attendre que vos corps s'habituent à cette nouvelle vibration.

Ce n'est pas insurmontable dans la mesure où tous, vous accédez peu à peu à cette vibration maintenant depuis quelques mois. La plus grande crainte réside chez ces personnes qui ont le corps chancelant et l'énergie peu sûre. Il leur faudra plus de temps pour assimiler ce renouveau en eux. Cette dure période approche, vous en êtes conscients car vos corps vous réclament repos et patience actuellement.

Je vous adresse mes plus grandes recommandations en ce qui concerne le froid qui sera vigoureux. Prenez le temps de vous vêtir et de rester au chaud si vous le pouvez pendant cette période de quelques jours.

Ce changement vibratoire va nous projeter en 4° ou 5° D?

La suite de cette passe sera une période de renouveau pour tous, une occasion d'apercevoir de nouvelles lueurs dans le ciel, et de vous dire que tout a effectivement bien changé. Ce sera une nouvelle version dans votre vie, et vos amis seront de plus en plus heureux de vous voir. L'amour sera plus présent, et ces hommes de foi et de grandeur seront proches de vous.

La nuit ne sera pas complètement présente dans votre ciel. Il y aura des lueurs inhabituelles, et des sources d'énergie certaines que vous ne connaissez pas. Vous comprendrez alors que ce temps manifesté par des troubles de la vie sur la Terre aura bien été implanté, et que votre destin sera à nouveau entre les mains divines. Rien ne sera affreux ni terrible, soyez en certains. Je ne peux vous donner d'autres détails de cette phase de remaniement énergétique actuellement, il est temps de vous reposer en vue de cette venue d'énergies. Je vous remercie.

Ces quelques jours seront les 3 jours de nuit avant la Nouvelle Terre?

(J'entends oui.) Par contre, je vous demande d'oublier votre savoir en la matière et de vous donner entièrement à ce que vous aurez besoin de vivre pendant cette période. Ce sera une période étrange et trouble, des questions seront en vous, en attendant de trouver une nouvelle façon de vivre le présent par la suite.

Je vous laisse espérer de belles retrouvailles et des rencontres très fortes avec nos amis des étoiles. Ils seront présents près de vous et feront le nécessaire pour vous aider à capter ces énergies dans vos corps. Il n'est pas question de les suivre ni de partir de votre endroit de résidence, mais de les accepter dans votre vie le temps de ce passage de façon à accélérer vos vibrations et à vous laisser porter par eux. Suis-je assez clair?

Tu peux développer ?

Je ne sais comment vous dire que vous aurez besoin d'aide, de réconfort et de soutien. Il y aura à ces moments des sources pures près desquelles vous pourrez vous ressourcer en faisant ces rêves dans votre sommeil comme vous le faites actuellement. Vous aurez entre autre des êtres de toutes galaxies près de vous, et votre sommeil sera agité de tremblements, de rêves inhabituels, et de présences manifestes.

Vous aurez alors la capacité de nous rejoindre le temps d'une nuit et de vous défaire de vos angoisses les plus fortes concernant cette phase de restructuration énergétique. Ce sera le début de votre ascension sur la Terre.

Je pense que beaucoup sont en passe de vivre ces événements actuellement d'une façon plus calme grâce à leur assiduité à se défaire de leurs bagages lourds. D'autres auront besoin d'aide: nous serons près d'eux.

Prenez le temps de vous dévêtir encore et attendez de monter encore dans ces corps qui prennent de plus en plus d'ampleur autour de vous. C'est ce que nous appelons la phase de transformation finale.

Je me demande si cette phase je dois la vivre seul chez moi ou en famille?

Tu as besoin de calme pour vivre cette phase. Reste à l'écart de toute préoccupation familiale et sois en paix.

Et si chacun pourra voir les frères de lumière venus apporter leur aide ?

Chacun pourra ressentir notre présence de façon énergétique encore une fois dans ses corps. Vous avez eu de nombreux exemples de ce fait depuis deux ans. Rien ne sera vraiment nouveau, mais plus intense de façon certaine.

C'est surtout au niveau énergétique que les choses vont s'activer, au niveau physique à part le climat et ce nouveau soleil, l'aspect extérieur ne va pas être transformé du tout au tout.

Il faudra vous attendre à des changements climatiques et humains. Vous aurez l'impression de sortir d'un tunnel de noirceur pour vivre en pleine clarté. La lumière sera présente sur la Terre et votre axe aura changé aussi de façon minime. Ce sera aussi le temps des renouveaux dans les consciences dus à cette accélération vibratoire. De nouvelles idées vont voir le jour, et des hommes de sciences seront promus au rang des grands êtres de votre monde. Il faudra prendre en compte la rudesse du climat et refaire certaines prévisions en ce qui concerne vos moyens de chauffage et d'éclairage. Ce sera une nouvelle façon de vivre à bien des niveaux. Mais le temps sera dans vos cordes, et votre arc sera guidé...

Acceptez cette vie de passage dans cette ère nouvelle comme vous l'avez accepté dans votre incarnation, et tout sera accompli.

Combien de temps les perturbations vont-elles durer?

Vous aurez besoin de quelques jours je pense pour prendre conscience que la vie aura changé et que votre être sera à nouveau en état de marche. Vous ne serez pas anéantis, mais simplement très fatigués, en besoin de repos.

Ouvrez alors vos coeurs, et accueillez la nouvelle ère. Oubliez vos soucis, vous vivrez dans l'instant présent quoiqu'il arrive.

Nous serons avertis de façon à sécuriser notre environnement, je pense au travail?

Votre gouvernement va prendre des mesures pour dire que ces quelques jours seront propices à des pannes, et des disconvenues de tous ordres. Certaines personnes savent que ce temps approche.

Tu veux dire que les dirigeants sont au courant qu'ils ont un plan pour stopper la société? Le gouvernement sait et donc va demander aux gens de rester chez eux pour ces 3 jours de perturbation?

Ce qui va être dit est que le temps sera perturbé, et que toute mesure de sécurité sera la bienvenue. Accueillez ces paroles comme des avertissements sérieux, mais non gravissimes.

Écoles fermées?

Je ne peux vous dire si les écoles seront fermées ou pas, ce sera en fonction de ce qui adviendra dans votre région. Laissez parler votre coeur, et attendez-vous à vivre d'étranges moments. Ce qui est certain, c'est que vous serez dans un état autre pendant cette phase tous, et que vos corps seront très las.

Nos corps seront différents après, nos yeux verront une autre réalité ?

Ce que vous verrez vous fera penser à un renouveau en vous et autour de vous. Vos yeux verront les auras, vous ne serez plus comme avant pour la plupart, et vos enfants seront les plus grands éclaireurs; ils sont préparés à cet événements depuis leur venue sur la Terre. Ils ont en eux tout ce bagage génétique actif, et passeront ce cap avec facilité.

Ils ont entre autre cette faculté de voir et d'entendre, ce qui est latent pour la plupart des humains adultes encore. Ils ont en eux ces notions bien ancrées, et ils vous tracent le chemin en quelque sorte. Remerciez-les de leur présence sur la Terre actuellement, et donnez-leur ces paroles d'espoir que rien ne sera plus comme maintenant.

Je vous adresse mes paroles d'espoir et de paix en vous, et vous convie à aller vous étendre.

Je vous remercie. Que ces paroles soient retransmises.

The Trial and Tribulations Suffered Today By All Who Chose to Cling to the Patterns of the Past

By Sehaji Master Lady Kata Daki, thru Dhyana Markley

Nov 26, 2007

I am Kata Daki and today I would like to speak to you about the trials and tribulations suffered by all who choose to cling to patterns of the past.

One of the most difficult things for humans to do, it seems, is to change with ease and grace. Most of you seem to only accept changes in your life when it is absolutely necessary and even then many of you do it kicking and screaming like a spoiled child.

Now I know this may seem harsh to many of you, but I believe it is time to speak bluntly and as honestly as I can from my point of view, about the situations I see going on in your lives.

Your lives could be so much happier and easier if you would choose to just relax and accept changes that come into your lives, rather than continue to cling onto something, be it objects, patterning of thoughts, words and deeds or even jobs or people when it is obvious to all but you that the time has come to move on.

It is nice to have a past. It is nice to remember pleasant things from your past. It is handy to remember a way to repair something or cook something or drive or fly something, but as everyone grows, be it physically or spiritually, one must discard the old that no longer serves you and accept with grace and gratitude the new.

Now, I am not saying that everything old is no longer of use or that everything new is good and will be of service to you in your next steps of life, however, there does come a time in everyone's life when it seems to become obvious to everyone, but the main person involved, that it is time for a change.

My reason for picking this subject today is that I would like to encourage you, all of you, to look at your life with a slightly more critical or discerning eye and see if any of my words are appropriate to your life.

In other words, WAKE UP! Look around at your life and see if there is anything that is no longer working for your greater benefit.

For too long the people of American and Europe especially have focused on having more, more, more and still more. Everyone seems to be trying to keep up with the Jones, Smiths and the Rockefellers. And has it made you happier? I ask you.

Are you truly happier with that bigger house, newer car, bigger television set and smaller cell phone? Sure, it's fun for about a day and a half when everyone is admiring your new purchase but what about a month later when the bill comes or six months later when it is totally "old hat" and no longer excites you?

Let me tell you a story. Our friend Dhyana took a six week bicycle tour in Europe almost twenty years ago and learned a lot about what she truly needed to survive.

She took only her bicycle and 35 pounds of clothing, a tent, a sleeping bag and a few other things she felt necessary. She had been told to take no more than 25 pounds plus her bike, but she took more, convinced that she would need it because she was going to be gone for so long.

About three days into bicycling on her trip, she realized that 35 pounds of "stuff" was way too much for her to handle comfortably for the next six weeks, so she spent a small fortune mailing it half way around the world, back to Hawaii.

Then it still took her two to three weeks to relax enough to really start enjoying her vacation. In the beginning she kept thinking that there were things she needed to do. She worried so much that it took a lot of the joy out of her vacation.

Finally, she started really appreciating the simple life that was not only total freedom from her work life back home, because no one knew exactly where she would be from day to day, but also because she had found out by that time that she had everything she truly needed to live comfortably on that little bicycle. She will tell you today that the last three to four weeks of that vacation were some of the happiest days she has ever spent "on the road".

My point, of course, is that everyone except the most impoverished probably have many things in their life that make it more comfortable, true, but are not truly necessary.

There is an old saying that people don't own things, things own people. That is because when you own much, it seems that you are always having to take care of them, insure them, worry if someone will steal them from you, and so on and so on.

There may come a time in the future when it will become desirable for most of you to pool your resources and share, so that all might live more comfortably and with greater ease. And, when that time comes, if it comes, I hope you will remember Dhyana's joy in finding freedom from the responsibility of "things". It is a lesson she has never forgotten.

With those thoughts, I will leave you for now.

I am Kata Daki and I am grateful that you have shared this time with me.

This may be shared freely as long as it remains in its entirety and proper credit is given. Thank you.

11:11 New Earth Portal Activation

By Kutumi, through Michelle Eloff

Dec 6, 2007

Tuesday, 6 November, 2007 at Johannesburg, South Africa (posted 14 November, 2007)

Many of the New Earth grids have recently been anchored within Mother Earth's body in preparation for post 2011. This has led to the Grand Council of our Cosmos agreeing that it is now time for the New Earth portals to be permanently activated. This will grant those who are ready access to the higher levels of the Akashic Records and our Sacred Platinum Blueprint. To date these levels have only been accessible by highly advanced Beings and a few humans who have managed to master the trappings of the old paradigm. We are now at the point of doing the same, and this activation will catapult us in the direction of bringing higher intelligence into our everyday reality and in so doing remembering how to harness and use the information and energy wisely.

Please note that reading this information will have an effect on you. You will energetically be linked with the Channelling being and a similar process facilitated with you. It is not exactly the same as being in the presence of the channelling Master, however the effects are just as powerful. Do not concern yourself too much regarding time lines given to the participants in the channelling. You will be taken through a similar one in accordance with your Divine Plan, Timing & Purpose.

I am Kuthumi and I come forward upon the rays of Love and Wisdom to greet each of you at this time and to bring unto you the blessings of initiation, understanding, tranquillity and new vision. Greetings beloved ones.

And it is with great joy and pleasure in our hearts that we may gather with each of you upon this day as we hold you firmly within the heart of Christ and securely upon the hands of God.

Beloved ones the vibrations that each of you are opening to receive are ones creating an entirely new dynamic within your physical reality. This dynamic is not coming from outside of you, it is coming from the essence of your being and it is therefore a dynamic very new to you.

For years I have been speaking of all the new energies to come. We have spoken to Lightworkers everywhere about the importance of moving beyond ego, moving beyond personality even. The 11:11 New Earth portal is an amplification of this need to release. This particular gateway is an entirely new one, it grants you access to the higher levels of the Akashic records. Up until this point there have only been a handful of people so to speak who have been granted permission to access that level of wisdom and knowledge. With everything you have mastered within yourself you have earned the right to move into this realm however as always taking a giant leap of this nature requires of you responsibility. What you will see, what you will experience will become a part of you and much of what you will see within this realm that you will step into will completely change your perceptions of life altogether. What you will tap into will reveal to you levels of life that have eluded humanity up until this point simply because the majority of humanity is not ready for it as yet. You were not ready for it but now you are at a point in your personal growth where you are able to begin grasping the concepts that will be presented to you through what you will see, sense and come to understand as being the new earth.

I suggest you become accustomed to hearing me speaking of the new earth because this is the world that will be your life after 2011. This does not mean it will not be your life prior to that time what it does mean is that now is especially important because you have at your disposal some of the most powerful energies humanity has ever had access to and these energies are not here permanently, these energies are coming in waves and I have mentioned this before and as each wave penetrates the field of Mother Earth's body you must be ready and willing to respond, to work with what is at hand and make the necessary changes.

In the past you worked with your issues in a manner that took a long time, for some it dragged on for years and previous to that for some even lifetimes. Many asked me this question: Kuthumi, does one ever reach the core of the onion? You know what beloved ones this is time where you are penetrating that core, layers and layers have been removed. All of this you have done for yourself, as each layer has fallen away you have been shown more of yourself. You have had to come to recognise who you are and often your authentic self has sacred the living daylights out of you, some have scurried back into the comfort zone of the old paradigm however many more of you have opened your arms in gratitude even though you have had moments where you doubted the pathway, you even questioned your own ability to continue on the path, the fact is you are here and you have mastered many of the old paradigm lessons.

The stripping away of ego and personality has also been misunderstood by many. There are a number of schools of thought experiencing rivalry at the moment and by now many of you will know that that is not something I will entertain and whoever chooses to create an argument based on what has been presented through my channel is taking it upon themselves to create such an experience. Information is simply that information, one can do with it what one wills, the most important thing is how do you feel inside of yourself when you have that information inside of you, either it resonates it with you or it doesn't, it is as plain and simple as that and if it does not resonate with you it does not mean that you have license to create arguments based on what has been said. The truth never needs defending it always reveals itself and if your truth is in alignment with what is considered a greater truth it will reveal itself to you.

In this current timeline there are more levels of consciousness than have ever been before by this I mean a variety of levels of consciousness therefore do not expect everyone to resonate with what you say. This 11:11 portal that you are crossing through will reveal to you the aspects of yourself that are in conflict with your authentic truth this means the ego and the personality aspects of self that are governed subconsciously by the old paradigm will be challenged to move beyond those parameters of limitation and embrace this new dynamic that emerges from inside of you. There is an essence that is emerging inside of you that comes from the core of the essence of Father/Mother God, an energy as I said earlier, you are not accustomed to experiencing. Over the past eighteen months and more so the past three months there has been brutal energies at play, the brutality of these energies have not been there to cripple you in anyway whatsoever they have come with the force needed to show you what has become obsolete, what no longer serves the pathway of destiny you have chosen. As each new pathway of destiny has been anchored on an atomic level, on a molecular level, within every single vibration of your DNA and therefore cellularly you have brought this new dynamic into the sacred blueprint of your complete essence and this is what is attracting to you what we have recently been calling your 'divine compliment', the aspect of you that reflects your inner wholeness. One of the key areas of attention at this time is relationships, the reason being that it is the key area where balance will be anchored. So every relationship in your life regardless of it's nature that has been a reflection or projection of imbalance in your life is being highlighted and removed if that is what is needed and in many cases and in fact most cases this is what has happened, the relationships have not been limited to romantic relationships, it has been in all areas.

As balance comes into the system of creation every single one of you are energetically experiencing a recreation of energy. The recreation of energy is establishing the new magnetic grid that you will utilise to attract to you your new life experiences which are already seeded within the new earth. Your future self has already connected with you, this is a part of you that you called to that has come to you now to ensure that you master the pathway that is now before you.

You are being called to service and to serve alongside that divine compliment, the divine aspect of self. For many people this divine compliment may very well be and will in fact be a romantic partner but there are also a number of people who will connect with their divine compliment through someone of a similar gender and they may come forward as a friend, a teacher, a guide or a mentor. Some people have requested that the divine compliment manifest in this manner and you have the power to request this which is why it has been done in this manner.

The dynamic of relationships is the key area for the change needed to ensure the new earth is fully anchored in the physical world. It is the fundamental essence of everything and the relationship you have with yourself is the most important.

The 11:11 portal is taking you into a new dimension of relating to yourself, a new relationship with yourself. A time of releasing all the baggage of your past, your wounds in the form of insecurities, fears, distorted perceptions of self, the lack of deservability that you experience, low self worth, everything that makes up the four old paradigm pillars of poverty consciousness, victim consciousness, conditional love and lust consciousness. The one thing I ask all of you to keep in the forefront of your mind in every moment is this: the timeline you are now entering is unlike any timeline you have ever experienced in human form before, you cannot measure it and you absolutely cannot under any circumstance compare it to any thing you have experienced in your past. This in fact is it's greatest quality and greatest advantage, everything that you come to experience from the 11th of November 2007 onwards is held within the core of the energy I speak of, that is the crossing into the new timeline, into the new way, the new world and at the same time stepping into the realms of the higher Akashic record vibration therefore you are doing yourself an injustice by denying yourself anything from that day forward because you are afraid it will be a repeat of your past. I repeat to you do not even dare to compare what is coming to you with what you have had in the past by doing that what you are then doing is pulling the old paradigm energy into the morphogenetic grid of your new life.

Very recently we activated the energies of the new morphogenetic like grids, these grids are unlike the ones that were created before. The morphogenetic grids that were originally created held information not energy, these grids are a combination of information and energy and serve as amplifiers of the energy and the information programmed into it. Your world was abused through the utilisation of morphogenetic grids because those in the know programmed the grids with very intense energy which would maintain the levels of ignorance that were required to maintain control over what you know as being the old paradigm. You have stepped beyond being governed by those energies, your energy vibrates way above that field and the sooner you realise that and remember it the easier it will be for you to move through all these new energy changes and the next fifteen months will be the most beneficial, most rewarding and most fulfilling of this particular timeline leading up to what will become the new world in 2012.

You are Merlin from this day forward. You are the greatest magician that has ever existed, the master alchemist, honour and accept this. Spirit is delivering to you the answers to your prayers, your most fulfilling romantic relationships are coming to you if you are not already in one, your most fulfilling friendships, your most fulfilling time of relating to God and the Goddess, Spirit and everything that makes up Spirit is now in front of you. Your energy, your powers so to speak will be like a new garden bursting to life and the only thing inhibiting that from being your reality is you entertaining the past paradigms, believing that your history needs to be replayed, it need not, your need is different, your perceptions regarding your needs will never be the same again. Keep your heart open to the empowering energies of every single facet of love that exists, these facets are dimensions of light which are fed by even greater universes of light calling to you to step out of the illusion and into this expansive new world that you have called for. In your imagings, your visualisations, your dreams, your prayers, your meditations, you have asked for all of this and I must have you know now God is delivering, the silver platter is in front of you, what are you going to do with it? Are you going to turn your back on it because you are afraid that your past will haunt you? Are you afraid to love again because your past relationships were so hurtful? Are you afraid to be creative because in your past you have been ridiculed, criticised and belittled because people did not resonate with your creative essence? Are you going to continue to be a victim, to live in poverty consciousness because someone with an ego and with a personality convinced you that you are undeserving of having every single one of your needs met, not just little bits of it but every single one of them fully met and beloved ones this energy coming through to you now is the energy, the vibrations that will change it and if your life does not change then there is only one person that you can turn to and that is you.

The gates to every universe is open and the 11:11 portal is your first introduction to the power of that energy, the power of your creative and co-creative abilities. The 11:11 annihilates the words cannot, I can't, I am afraid, what if, none of that exists in the new world simply because it embodies the old paradigm consciousness. Old paradigm consciousness is simply a program that is all it is, all it ever was, it was a lie, it was a story woven into the dynamic known as greater consciousness, a story so dynamic that everyone bought into it and imagined it as real. The last two and half thousand years specifically have been the years of the great illusion in fact the greatest illusion that has ever played out in existence. You are the ones that are ensuring that the great illusion never tricks you again however what that entails is complete trust, complete faith and hope in yourself this means beloved ones you are now at a time where all self criticism must stop, self abuse, self rejection, self denial most stop by doing that to yourself you are denying yourself the gifts that are being presented to you now, the reward for all of your efforts, you have completed the initiation of the great illusion, you have mastered it and every single person will who hear these words or read these words in the future are making the transition. This is Spirit saying to you physically you have completed the initiation which means you never have to return to the great illusion ever again unless you choose to do so as an enlightened teacher but never again will you incarnate into the matrix of the great illusion unconsciously and if you want to ensure that that is the case for you then my beloved ones you need to give to yourself like never before, you need to open your eyes, open your heart and open your being to the potential of what God is presenting you with like never before. When you are opening your heart now, opening your being, opening your spirit and opening your mind you are not opening it to what you have left behind you are opening it to what is standing before you within the new paradigms, what you have stepped away from is now no longer a part of your energy field, what you choose to bring into your life now is your new life, it is the new dynamic and passing through the 11:11 portal shuts the door to everything you have left behind over the past eighteen months and even more so the past three months.

It takes maturity to recognise that everything that you have experienced until this point has served a purpose, it has been part of your initiation, it has been a necessary evil so to speak so that you can find yourself where you are now. It takes maturity and wisdom to acknowledge and to know that you have the power to create a different reality and that never again will you recreate what you have left behind because that world is no longer a part of your essence. It takes maturity, wisdom and love to open your being to receive your greatest good, it is only a fool that turns his back or her back on what Spirit is now presenting in the form of love opportunities, friendship, careers, emotional growth, spiritual growth, every single arena of life but we know you are certainly no fool otherwise you would not be listening or reading these words.

So now it is that the beings of the new earth, those who hold the sacred grids of this new time of your life step into your energy field and I ask you to still your mind and to turn your focus inside and welcome them into your energy field, acknowledge their presence. These beings will personally escort you into the new paradigms of the new earth that lie on the other side of the 11:11 portal. Before this transition is made I, Kuthumi, assisted by your master guides and all your key guardians embrace you in a spiral energy. This spiral energy moves around you creating a suction which begins to extract from your chakras all the old paradigm fears that may prevent you from fully embracing the gift being bestowed upon you now.

Relax your body and try to imagine this spiral energy swimming around and the suction like motion tapping into your chakras and with every breath you take in and every breath you release relax your chakras, let go.

I, Kuthumi, bring you the blessing of love and wisdom. I hand you the key to the new world, the key to every golden opportunity you have ever wished for. For some of you what you have asked for may come in ways that surprise you but the surprise will be far greater than your original intention or vision.

The spiral energy begins to expand around you as it expands it embraces all your energy bodies and begins extracting the same out of your emotional body, your mental body, the astral bodies, the spirit body. As all of this is removed you are now presented with the opportunity to fill that space with whatever it is you choose.

Take a moment now to consider what you would like to replace the vacuum with.

Magnetically we now attune all the systems within your body to receive this dynamic essence emerging from your core and all you need do is imagine an energy extending from the core of your being and bubbling up from the inside of you. It knows exactly what it needs to do, how to do it, when to do it, there is nothing else you have to do. This essence will permeate through every level of your being and attract to you that which you are dynamically attracting to yourself based on what you are focusing your energy upon.

The beings of the new earth now create a circle around you. The vibration created as a result of their presence dissolves any dense or negative energy in your energy field right now. The clearing of this energy now opens the 11:11 portal and opens the reflection of the 11:11 portal within your heart chakra. Imagine this gate opening and a brilliant blinding light extending from it, this light pouring into your physical body, filling your emotional body, your mental body, your spirit body and every other body beyond that.

This brilliant light is the passageway into the new earth, you must now walk into this light as blinding as it is trusting that every step you are taking is secure and as bright as this light is you still do not know what it contains. When you are ready walk if you have not begun already, feel the courage inside of you to step into this new world to claim what is yours by divine right and this energy is like water washing through all of your bodies and you will see the further you walk into the light the more accustomed your vision becomes to this light and you begin to see what is within the light. It may come in the form of symbolism, you may see faces even places, do not attach anything to it, just observe. Walk all the way in.

Soon you will reach an archway made of pearl, stop when you get there. This pearl gateway is an entrance to the higher world of the Akashic records. The information held within this sacred library can, will and has the potential to change your life forever. Before you step through I have to ask you a few questions. Are you fully prepared to embrace the new energy and the new life that will come to you as a result of what you will tap into? Are you willing to keep your heart open to love no matter what your past experiences have been? Are you willing to embrace the dynamic power of your authentic self and follow it's directives faithfully? Are you willing to give up any and all attachments on a subconscious and conscious level linked to the old world, to past relationships, past belief systems, attitudes, thought processes and every single perception that has caused lack, loss and deprivation in your life, are you willing to give that all up? If your answer has been yes to all of these then beloved ones you are giving up your identity, the identity you have familiarised yourself with that you knew as the ego and personality that existed within the grand illusion.

The time that lies before you is a time of re-familiarising yourself with the truth of who you are, the being that exists beyond personality and beyond lower ego. This is a higher aspect of you that offers you a greater opportunity of mastery, a complete new level of life, new things to learn, new things to master, a new level of ascension. If you are still willing to follow us knowing that you are leaving everything behind then step through the pearl gate into the higher realms of the Akashic records.

As you enter this world beloved ones so it that the Archangel Metratron, the Archangel of Light, brings to you a blazing white flame. This flame is placed within your heart chakra. The flame that will maintain the energies that you need to ensure the grand illusion and veils never blind you again. This white flame will serve as a beacon of light for you from this day forward, it is also a magnetic field drawing closer and closer to the core essence of your authentic self. Every step you take from this moment forth is a step that takes you to the oneness and wholeness of your divine compliment, the whole self. As you merge with this divine essence of self so every facet of your light becomes a reflection in your world. The dynamics of balance begin to rearrange themselves and settle within the foundations of your life when this occurs you will be shown the areas of your life needing your attention to ensure that you benefit from what you have now accepted as your new reality.

Breathe in deeply exhaling fully as the energy systems become accustomed to this new frequency.

Now beloved ones over the next ten days some of you might go through a period of mourning, this period of mourning is natural, it is the mourning of the old self, the old identity you thought was you, the old paradigm that you were lead to believe is reality, your life and your future. If this period of mourning manifests for you simply be within it do not under any circumstance try and stop it, your body needs that release it will not last longer than ten days. Through every level of release that comes so more of the new paradigm will anchor itself within you, the vibrations of this 11:11 gateway will keep the templates of self-mastery in place replacing all the old paradigm grids in your four lower bodies namely the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual bodies. During this time I, Kuthumi, will personally re-encode your chakras with the sacred signatures of the higher Akashic records granting you access to that information. Be aware of your dreams during this time. Listen to your heart and trust yourself.

Do not pay too much attention to the mental processes that will unfold over the next ten days. Your mental process is linked to the personality and ego which is why you need to focus on your heart and intuition. The mental process is the most unreliable right now it may mislead and will in fact try to simply because the personality and ego aspects of your old identity are fighting for their life. The grand illusion is fed through the mental dynamics impact on your thought systems which comes through the collective consciousness fed through the astral realms.

Focus on your heart, focus on you intuition. The minute you are analysing or thinking to much about anything you have bought into the mental program, step out. This will continue until the end of December 2007 so all it means is for that period of time your heart and your intuition are your voices of truth, your mind is the voice of the old world. You must work with the mind however by allowing the voice of your heart and intuition to replace the confusion with what you now know to be truth. Use whatever tools you have at your disposal to re-programme the mind so to speak, it is vital that you concentrate only on that which you desire to create not that which you desire to release this is very important, I repeat focus only on that which you are choosing to bring into your life. This is a key component in creating in the new world.

Lord Metatron now take his leave. The beings of the new earth begin circling you, as they circle you they create another spiral grid. This spiral grid is absorbing all the new energy from the essence of your being, the new dynamic coming from inside of you will merge with this spiral grid and you will begin to experience first hand the power, the light, the love, the magic and the miracles of your new creations. This is the gift of new life, this is the promise of the new earth, a whole new world of experiencing yourself, experiencing love, friendship, creativity and God/Goddess.

Breathe in deeply as this concept is drawn into the cells of your body. Your inner most being needs no convincing beloved ones it is only the human self that will need convincing that what you are now going to experience is not a farce, some silly idea or wishful thinking but that is in fact the reality of the new world, the reality that eluded you as a result of the great illusion and at the end of the day it will always boil down to what you choose to invest your energy in, what you choose to believe you are worthy of experiencing.

The energy these beings are creating will continue for the next few hours until your new grid is completely in place aligned with all your chakras and every other energy system within your body, this create the shifts chemically as well as psychologically, physiologically the changes are important because this level of light influences every system inside of you.

Your key word is trust, trust, trust. Give yourself the chance to experience a different life, allow yourself to receive your just reward and walk into the new world.

I, Kuthumi, embrace you in the golden ray of love and wisdom. My feminine counterpart embraces you in the platinum ray. As these two energies merge so the feminine aspect of love and wisdom and the masculine aspect of love and wisdom become one and settle harmoniously within the core of your heart chakra and there it will remain eternally.

When you feel ready, in your own time, we suggest you sit quietly, ask for permission to enter the higher realms of the Akashic records and explore them. See what lies there, discover what is a part of you and indulge in this new adventure. You are inventing new life. Do not make the mistake of expecting your past to replay itself in your future because in truth it doesn't exist anymore. The only thing that exists is you here and now, you here and now only exist in the present moment as you experience yourself. This moment is all you have, what are you going to do with it?

Very gently begin drawing your consciousness back into your physical body becoming aware of your physicality, your surroundings. Draw your energy all the way through your physical body into the earth rooting yourself firmly within and upon the earth in order for this new dynamic energy to manifest the forms of what you visualise and intend to have in your physical life. You must be rooted to the earth, grounded, otherwise it will remain in the energy bodies, up in the air so to speak, the more grounded you are the easier it is to manifest all your needs as met.

Beloved ones every day without fail focus on the dynamic that exists within you, that powerful essence that is constantly in a state of creating your tomorrows and use the love and wisdom that I, Kuthumi, and my feminine counterpart have now delivered to you. Use this wisdom and love to bring to you your greatest love, your greatest wisdom so that you can truly experience heaven on earth.

And so it is beloved ones that we embrace you in the divine essence of love and wisdom , in the power of the new earth all its frequencies and all its blessings and we hold you through this very important time of releasing the ego and personality aspects of your old identity and welcome you into the world of your authentic self where the truth of everything that you deserve to experience awaits you. Embrace it unconditionally without expectation, just be simply, experience and give it the opportunity to show you how powerful it's potential is. Prove your history wrong, prove to yourself that everything you experienced up until this morning was simply a part of your initiation completing the journey of the great illusion. May the light of the white flame burn brightly inside of you and may the power of your authentic self walk alongside you revealing to you the truth of the truth of that which is your truth and the life you deserve.

I am Kuthumi, Chohan of the Golden Ray of Love and Wisdom. I walk beside and I hold you in that light. Adonai."

The Jupiter Event and What It Will Mean For You

By Sehaji Master Lady Kata Daki, thru Dhyana Markely

Dec 6, 2007

I am Kata Daki and today I would like to speak to you about the Jupiter Event and what it will mean to you.

Although many of you may have already heard about this event, for those of you still unaware, Jupiter is about to explode into a sun. This is a very important event that will aid ascension not only in your local Solar System, but the entire Galaxy and the Universe.

This event is set to trigger once Jupiter and Earth hit the mid points opposite the sun... with Earth being on one side of the sun and Jupiter on the other. Mid point is said to be about December 23, 2007, however, the actual ignition could be at anytime before or after that date.

Now, most of the above you already know. What you do not know is that this event is being excitedly anticipated by trillions of beings of whom you are most probably currently unaware.

This Jupiter Event signals the next great leap in spiritual consciousness for the entire Universe.

Now you might ask why is Earth and her Solar System so important to the whole of the Universe. My response is:

Earth was originally created as a seed planet, a paradise where many, many, many different species and types of life were designed to live in peace and harmony with each other. As you well know, something drastic happened that changed the course of her destiny and extreme darkness, because of human free will, was allowed to reign and to almost totally destroy your beautiful planet.

Mother Earth could have stopped this process at any time by just turning over and crushing or drowning any and all life, but she was unwilling to destroy any of her inhabitants, if there was some way to save them and still return to her destiny as a paradise.

So, Mother Earth was patient, very patient and kind, as any loving parent would be... especially with her human inhabitants living on her surface.

Finally, a few years ago, she realized that she would not survive the damage that humans had done to her planet, so she called for help, saying that she would take matters into her own hands to save her own life, if help were not forthcoming.

Help came, en mass. More lightworkers were born onto the planet and immediately started their work, waking up others to their power within, given them as a spark of Creator God. Light and love was sent from all corners of the Universe. Finally the population of the planet started to awaken. First slowly, and now it is at quantum light speed. Your Brothers and Sisters of Inner Earth were also more active than they had been in the past, realizing that it would greatly benefit them as well, if the surface population were to ascend instead of self-destruct.

Through this great effort made not only by lightworkers, the Spiritual Hierarchy of Earth and those of Inner Earth, what many of you may have yet to realize is that many, even most of those trillions of other beings from our Milky Way Galaxy and beyond have also been helping to uplift Mother Earth by sending her massive amounts, huge waves, tremendous blessings of love and light across the entire Universe on a constant basis for years!

Many think that love only comes from the Central Sun, but this is not total truth. Love can come from anywhere, any direction and from anyone. And love can be consciously directed anywhere, in any direction, from anyone...even from you.

Now, this is the point of my lesson today. I would like each and every ONE of you to consider spending at least fifteen minutes a day, twice a day would be better, just filling yourself with love, BEing in a state of peace and sending that love wherever you want to send it... wherever you think it will do the most good, be it to this planet, the peoples, the animals, the sea creatures or even off-planet to Jupiter or any of the other planets of this Solar System OR even to other sentient beings in other dimensions and realms and Galaxies.

But please consider one thing. It is important to remember that your "intent" is NOT to change anything, because you do not consciously know all of the details of the Divine Plan, nor do you know what is best for anyone except yourself. Therefore, please only gift your love and do not tell the receiver what you want them to do with your gift. If you tell someone what to do with your gift, it has strings attached and you are trying to manipulate them with those strings.

Personally, I would rather live without your gift than receive it with strings attached.

Now, back to the love being sent to Mother Earth and her inhabitants from others throughout the Universe. When you finally are able to see and meet some of your benefactors, many of you will be shocked because many of them do not look anything like humans or animals with which you are familiar. Yet, some WILL look like animals and humans, and be able to telepathically speak to you, if and when you remember how to be telepathic. Some will look like giant insects which may have frightened or repelled you in the past. Some will look like jelly sea creatures or have many talons or arms.

Please ask yourself, "What am I going to do when face to face with a creature like this? How am I going to act?"

Remember, I said that these creatures have been sending you love and light for years and therefore have been helping you in your ascension.

So, what are you going to do? Are you going to be grateful and gracious or are you going to be insulting and just run away from them?

Things are about to greatly change for everyone. Are you truly ready for these changes? It is time to look within your heart and into the mirror of your Soul, to look honestly at who YOU really are.

Are you as loving and kind as those beings who have helped you?

With those questions, I will leave you to ponder.

I am Kata Daki and I thank you for sharing this time with me.

THE EMPOWERING GIFT OF FORGIVENESS

By AA Michael, thru Ronna Herman

Dec 8, 2007

Beloved masters, as the higher frequencies of Light and Creator wisdom permeate the Earth and humanity, a radical shift in consciousness is taking place. More and more precious souls are questioning their basic beliefs and examining their life patterns, the many structures they have built, both physical and mental, which make up their personal reality. Fear and uncertainty are rampant, and a great majority of people fear that the best times are past, and the future looks bleak and uncertain. It is normal to resist or be uncomfortable with dramatic changes, especially when people feel they are not in charge and in control of their future. That is why it is so important to tap into the wisdom of your Higher Self and connect with your wonderful angelic guides and teachers.

Know that the pathway home has always been in place and your return to the higher realms of illumination is assured; however, be aware that the secret of how this is accomplished comes from within, not from your outer world. The internal transformation process can be accomplished with ease and grace when you once again gain access to the wisdom of your Sacred Heart and mind, and take advantage of all the wonderful information that is coming forth from the Realms of Light via the many messengers and teachers who have dedicated their lives to bringing forth advanced universal wisdom.

Beloved ones, you are deep in the process of healing past transgressions and releasing the painful memories of your many past lives on the earthly plane and those from throughout your solar system and galaxy as well. We have said before, you will not be punished or cast into hell. Will you please heed our words? You are not judged and never have been judged by anyone or any Being from the unseen or higher realms; YOU ONLY JUDGE YOURSELVES!

Under the universal laws of cause and effect, all your thoughts, intentions and deeds are stored within your auric field and your chakra system, and you radiate the vibrational patterns created thereby, which go forth from you in an infinity pattern and return to you in like frequencies and measure. In the past, it often took many lifetimes to reap the rewards for positive, loving actions, or to experience the penalties for negative or hurtful actions. Therefore, most often, it was not obvious that the "righteous" are indeed rewarded, and the "unrighteous" also receive their just rewards in kind. Again, no great or small Being is doling out rewards or punishment. The universal laws are firmly in place and your own Higher Self monitors your progress or lack thereof, either clearing the way ahead and blessing you with miracles large and small, or by placing more obstacles before you in hopes you will awaken and step onto the spiral of ascension.

Dear hearts, too many of you are carrying great burdens from the past, mistakes you have made in this lifetime, and also many from past conditioning and buried memories of painful events or actions from all your previous lifetimes. Holding onto these memories or carrying the "burdens of inequity" no longer serves you. It is time for you to allow us to help you heal the painful memories stored within your physical vessel and auric field, just as we are clearing the distortions of the third-and fourth-dimensional collective consciousness belief patterns, and bringing those dimensions back into their originally designed spectrum of duality.

As you descended into the restricted, limiting realms of consciousness, the veil of forgetfulness was put over your memory so that most often you could not remember your past lives, for it would be too much of a burden to remember all your past mistakes and imperfections. It was an act of mercy, for it has proven difficult enough for you to forgive yourselves for your errors and misjudgments in this lifetime, much less all your past aberrations. These restrictive membranes of Light are slowly dissolving as you return to balance and harmony and advance on the spiral of ascension and reunification. An important fact to remember is that even though you no longer remember your past errors and the thoughts and deeds that threw you off balance, those energies were still present within your cellular structure waiting to be rectified and returned to harmony within. That is the process you are now in the midst of: through your conscious awareness and by aligning your will with the Will of your Higher Self and our Mother/Father God, all that is not in harmony with the frequencies of the higher fourth/fifth dimensions is roiling up within to be healed and returned to the harmonics of peaceful coexistence, joy and loving intention.

Imagine a great orchestra playing a symphony; however, each instrument is a little off -key, and now imagine how uncomfortable that would make you. Now picture the vibrational patterns you have sent forth in the past. Instead of beautiful, melodic frequencies which lift and inspire, it is as if, primarily, you have been sending forth discordant frequencies which clash and create chaos instead of balance and harmony. Your Soul Song was no longer sweet and harmonious and, therefore, both your inner and outer worlds were off-balance and discordant. We have stressed over and over again, one of the greatest challenges, yet the most important thing to be accomplished in order to step onto the spiral of ascension, is to return to center within your Solar Power Center, which facilitates the opening of the Sacred Heart and, thereby, allows the Creator Light to flow freely to and from you, which in turn assists you to reclaim your uniquely beautiful, harmonious soul signature.

We have explained how a membrane of Light was placed over the portal at the back of your Sacred Heart Center until it was time for you to begin your journey back into the higher dimensions and the realms of Light. However, you and you alone placed a membrane of protection over the front of your Sacred Heart Center because you have been hurt, disappointed and disillusioned so often. Slowly, but surely, through the techniques we have given you, you have dissolved those restrictive membranes so that the Love/Light can flow freely to and from you in the way it was intended. In order to access and radiate the ever-increasing frequencies of Light, you must be able to integrate and permeate your Being with these advanced vibrational patterns, and you must be prepared to radiate them down into the core of the Earth and then project them out into the world-at-large via your Sacred Heart Center portal, from both the front and the back. Envision how you looked when you first came to Earth: you were a shining crystalline Pillar of Light, filled with a full allotment of the virtues, qualities and talents of your God Ray consciousness. Slowly as you sank into the density, you began to build a cross of matter that became more and more unwieldy as your spectrum of Light and shadow increased. Now you are loving those fragments you have created back into balance and harmony as you seek and tap into higher and higher frequencies of Light. You are in the process of become a cross of Light, beloveds, as your spinal chakra system becomes ignited and you radiate Love/Light from your Sacred Heart Center in front and behind you.

Why not move into the center of the spiral of ascending consciousness, into the eye of duality and polarity where all is calm and peaceful, and filled with pure cosmic life force substance called Adamantine Particles just waiting to be molded into your vision of the future? This very moment, as you move into your Sacred Heart Center, you can experience the profound love and compassion of our Father/Mother God and the Supreme Creator, and know that you are a treasured son/daughter on an important mission, and nothing you can say or do can diminish that love.

VIA THE GIFT OF FORGIVENESS , YOUR EMOTIONAL, MENTAL AND ETHERIC BODIES CAN BE HEALED AND TRANSFORMED BACK INTO WHOLENESS WHICH, IN TURN, BENEFITS YOUR PHYSICAL BODY AND ENHANCES YOUR SENSE OF WELL-BEING.

Stand in front of a mirror and gaze into your own eyes or go into your Pyramid of Light and lie on the crystal table. Say to yourself, "I forgive myself for any action, thought or deed, past, present or future, in this or any other reality, which has not been composed of the frequencies of Sacred Love. I forgive everyone with whom I have shared conflicting, discordant energies during my present or past lives, in this or any other reality and I return to them, wrapped in a bubble of love, all negative memories, impacted energies and probable futures that we have created together. I ask the angels of forgiveness to permeate all facets of my Being with the frequencies of Love/Light so that I may become 'soul-focused and heart-centered' as a Bearer of Light and a self-master."

Breathe deeply as you move into your Sacred Heart Center. Allow the pure Love/Light to pour down through you via your Higher Self. Feel the expansion in your heart center as this Divine elixir of love permeates the very depths of your Beingness. Sacred Love is what frees you from the shackles you have woven around yourselves, binding, restricting, and entangling you in karmic interactions. When you deny this love, you are denying your heritage and your Divine birthright. Perform this exercise as often as necessary until you feel you have accepted the truth that you are worthy of forgiveness.

Forgiveness is a very personal act and must come from the heart. It does not matter if others forgive you or not. When you forgive from the heart, it changes the energy dynamics between you and others. As we have said before, you can only change yourself and you must allow others to change in their own time and way. You are only responsible for your own spiritual growth, but remember, dear hearts, your loving energy speaks for itself and creates miracles.

Forgiveness of Self which facilitates a forgiveness of all others is an integral step in the process of opening the portal to your Sacred Heart center, and your heart portal must be open in order to successfully connect with the many facets of your Divine Self and your universal consciousness.

You must make a concerted effort to return to harmony and balance within your own Being in order to be ready to connect with your Divine counterparts. Your painful, unsatisfying earthly relationships are a result of inner feelings of unworthiness, guilt, fear of failure and rejection.

The battle of the sexes is really an internal battle with Self, as you project your "needs, wants and desire" outward to someone else in hopes they can supply what is missing within. Your relationships will surely reflect to you the negative energies you need to overcome, as well as some of the positive attributes you desire for yourself. Either can be painful or fulfilling, depending on the way you wish to "play the game of relationships." Negative-based physical relationships are fear-based, rigid, self-absorbed and limiting. Sacred relationships are love-based and Spirit-inspired, and allow each party to integrate and express the positive attributes of their intrinsic masculine and feminine nature. They focus on wholeness and unity and yet are flexible and allow freedom of expression.

As you lift your consciousness and return to harmony within, you radiate forth more refined frequency patterns and, therefore, you will attract to you those who are radiating and are comfortable with the same level of the Light spectrum. The reunification process entails rejoining multiple facets and levels of your soul family consisting of your earthly family, your solar, galactic and universal family and the many facets of 'Self' and then eventually the wholeness of your I AM Presence.

Beloveds, won't you begin the process of forgiveness NOW, and make a concerted effort to open the portal of your Sacred Heart Center so that these wondrous gifts can be showered down upon you? Call on us and allow us to assist you. Remember, we are only a heartbeat and a thought away. We enfold you in sacred, unconditional love.

All is One

By Sananda thru George Bernard

Dec 11, 2007

Illawarra District, Australia, December 3, 2007.

The Damascus Scribe (Sananda).

Subject: "All Is One."

Received by George Barnard.

The Scribe: "We will endeavor to overcome the paucity of required concepts, and general poverty of human languages, to take ourselves one step closer to an understanding of the gifted ones, the amazingly precocious of your races.

"In all this still feeble contact you must accept that, as yet, you have no clear view of the extent to which we are allowed to apply Correcting Time measures that have been granted us, you, and the vast populations of all other rebellious worlds in this sector of Neadon. Even less so do you comprehend the real meaning of Light and Life status as achieved by an entire planet, not just individuals, not just small or large groups, but by a planetary system as a whole.

"All is One in the universe of universes, and that includes those universes organizing in deep space. Every personality is on a path of learning and teaching, of doing and being, and none is excluded from this mandated avenue of progression; to be perfect as The Father Himself is perfect.

"As human beings you may learn, and sometimes forget. You may teach your kind, and not always be understood. You may acquire skills and sometimes fail to produce, and you may become the spiritual person you are meant to be, yet relapse in anger, fear, jealousy, or agitation of some kind, and all the while within you lives the ability to discern myriad higher truths.

"Those who dwell in the time-space morontia world arenas learn, and remember all. They teach and they are fully understood because of the way they share their minds without speech, without secrets, without qualms. They labor incessantly to achieve what they set out to achieve, sooner or later, yet in God's own time, and they progress, steadily, ever reaching beyond the limitations of their time-space understanding into the near-incomprehensible realm of spirit.

"Finally, those created perfect have their tasks, and those who have attained perfection are not resting on their laurels without suitable employ. There are myriad projects; too many to number for those who were gifted with innate perfection, and for those who are perfecting to the very pinnacle of this superb realm, whilst remaining all they ever were, and in their elevated state of being, capable of sharing, indeed donating, mindal equity without any loss to the self.

"All is one, my curious human friend, and here you begin to see your universes as fully interconnected in every way, as we have come full circle, giving you a smattering of an idea about a growing tribe of precocious ones as you are edging out of the darkness of a rebellion, and into the first glowings of a delightfully precious estate in Light and Life. I Am Sananda. I Am unconditional love."

Johannesburg 24 November 2007

To find out more about Michelle & The Lightweaver please visit www.thelightweaver.org. Please note that reading this information will have an effect on you. You will energetically be linked with the Channelling being and a similar process facilitated with you. It is not exactly the same as being in the presence of the channelling Master, however the effects are just as powerful. Do not concern yourself too much regarding time lines given to the participants in the channelling. You will be taken through a similar one in accordance with your Divine Plan, Timing & Purpose. To order a download of the recorded audio of this channelling, please go here <http://www.indecontent.com/shop/the-lightweaver-07/12-12-universal-solstice.html>

I am Kuthumi and I come forward upon the rays of Love and Wisdom to greet each of you at this time and to bring unto you the blessings of serenity, integration, synchronicity and divine vision. Greetings beloved ones.

And it is with great joy and pleasure in our hearts that we may gather with you upon this fantastic day of universal awakening as we, all of the co-creators within the Universe unite with you, a Universal Co-creator, and celebrate this day of the Universal Solstice Beloved ones you have reached a point upon your journey where you are moving into a new set of initiations. Let us call it this for now. This set of initiations will unfold rapidly, each of them challenging you to a degree to turn and look at the inner qualities of your inner light and how those qualities serve your greatest and highest good and that of humanity.

The 12:12 celebration is linked to the Alchemy Consciousness as well as the Alchemy of Consciousness. The days of blindly living your life have long ago ceased. You are living in a state of higher awareness within a world embodying great potential. I, Kuthumi, stand in front of you today, my energy graces the presence of your planet and I challenge you to stand up and say no to the old ways of reacting to life and the old ways of creating the limitations of your past.

The 12:12 vibration is one of the most powerful in existence relating specifically to human consciousness. The reason why I say this is because on the 12th of December every year the attention of the entire universe is turned to Mother Earth, it is the universal solstice, the celebration of the light soul that exists within every soul currently inhabiting earth. You inhabit earth for a purpose. The purpose is not to be inhibited. The lessons that have presented themselves to you on your earth journey have inhibited certain aspects of you.

That time has ended. It is in your past, gone. You have entered a world where you have to truly understand what it means for light to reflect light. If you have been one of those who have bought into the idea that light and dark need to stand in equal amounts in order for one to truly learn and master the lessons of light and balance, then I must ask you now to immediately erase that from your consciousness. The choices that you have made are presenting you with this opportunity, the opportunity to live your life expressing and reflecting light and in so doing attracting every aspect of light that exists within you into your physical reality and having it reflected back at you. This may challenge many of your belief systems especially when there are so many people out there telling you that if you do not experience darkness you cannot continue to grow, I tell you rubbish! That is over, I will repeat it over and over again if I have to.

Your choice to move into vibrations of today's Universal Solstice is activating the memory within your cells which is triggered by the light within your DNA reminding you that light reflects light, that you are a powerful enough master to ensure that everything that you experience and that you express in life embodies light. How is darkness to be transmuted if light does not become the presence of majority? Think about it.. The 12:12 vibration is presenting humanity with a remarkable opportunity of accelerated growth. You have heard of the 144,000 volunteers of the light, these are in fact Lightworkers, you, who have agreed to return at this time to anchor light, to be the ones who live life with light reflecting light. That is the theme of the Golden Age and in order for you to fully embrace, to integrate, understand and live within Alchemy Consciousness you need to grasp the Alchemy of Consciousness and this is something that will happen rapidly for you by embracing the knowing that light reflects light and no longer do you need to have equal amounts of darkness so that you can appreciate your light.

As a result of this accelerated development we are able now to expand the energy of the volunteers and awaken more and more of you and even those of you who are awake, you will experience awakening on deeper and deeper levels. So we have had 144,000 Lightworkers and instead of us now moving to 288,000 Lightworkers and then awakening another aspect of that and manifesting 432,000 Lightworkers we have been able to, with your assistance, double it to 288,000. When we move through this key activation of the 12:12 universal solstice today in the next year, twelve months, we will have doubled that to 576,000 Lightworkers fully active, fully awake and by this I mean 576,000 Lightworkers who have consciously embraced the knowing that light reflects light, 576,000 Lightworkers who have fully embraced Alchemy Consciousness, the Alchemy of Consciousness and are actively living their life abundantly, manifesting wealth, creating wealth, experiencing health, truth and the joy of life.

Once we have anchored the energy of the 576,000 Lightworkers by the end of 2008, during the year of 2009 to the end of 2010 we will have manifested the awakening of 2,304,000 Lightworkers just as we have explained a moment ago. When I say WE will have manifested the awakening of, I include you in the WE, this means you are becoming more and more active in your role as a creator, an alchemist, a being of immense power living within a human form.

It is vital that I remind everyone of you that living within victim consciousness, poverty consciousness and conditional love consciousness deprives you of the essence of Mother/Father God's love. You block it. They do not withhold it. We do not withhold anything from you ever. You determine what you are able and ready to accept, to integrate and attract into your life.. Again this puts the ball in your court beloved one. This is the reason why I always say everything in life begins and ends with you. You are the Alchemist of your life. You have the power to turn all those base dense aspects of yourself into golden light, golden consciousness by using the Alchemy of Consciousness.

Today is the fantastic day where the Ascension Flame of the Divine Mother will increase it's light from inside of you. As this happens there are powerful encodings, which have to do with new hydrogen matrices with amazing bonding potential inside of you awakening, this means that you are able to merge with light in an extraordinary way. This sets in motion the full activation of all the biological keys to mastery, to freedom and to full awakening inside of you. As this Master Light bursts to life inside of you, you will experience that it is possible for you to accelerate your growth like never before. In order for this to happen you need to bear in mind everything that I have said to you this day so far, to remind yourself of it daily. We also suggest that you redo the process that we are about to take you through at least once a day for a period of twelve days or once a week for a period of twelve weeks depending on how you feel about it. For some of you, you may feel that you are not able to do it once a day for twelve days. If you feel the energy is too intense then do it once a week for twelve weeks. Those of you who are ultra daring you can do it for twelve consecutive days for twelve months. Hold onto your bootstraps if that is your choice!

Having said that beloved ones let us now move into the energy flow of the 12:12. Shut your eyes if you have not already, make yourself comfortable and begin to focus on breathing in deeply and exhaling fully. Take a deep breath in through your nose, hold to the count of four and breathe out slowly to the count of six, hold to the count of two. Breathe in deeply to the count of eight, hold to the count of six. Breathe out to the count of eight, hold for the count of two. Breathe in deeply to the count of eight, hold to the count of six. Breathe out slowly to the count of eight and now allow yourself to breathe rhythmically, always ensuring that you are breathing in deeply and exhaling fully.

Imagine the presence of all the beings of this Universe gathering around you. The vibrations of their presence penetrating all your defences, the masks you wear, and the veils of illusion that float within the vision of the old way of living life. Consciously open your being and all your chakras to receive the blessing of the light of the Almighty Divine Presence of All That Is. Allow it to seep in through every pore of your skin to become one with you.

While this energy seeps into your being the biology of your body begins responding. This response initiates the changes from the very core of your inner self. Firstly the atoms of your body begin emanating higher frequencies of light. Your atomic structure is now able to absorb light from the core of the cosmos. As it brings that light into the atoms of your body new life is awakened, and new light bursts forth inside of you. The sound of that light travels into the molecules of your body activating yet another level of new life. This light I speak of embodies Alchemy and it embodies consciousness. These frequencies empower you to truly understand the Alchemy of Consciousness. Try and imagine this whole new super nova exploding inside of you, the sound of that light seeps into your DNA and all twelve strands begin vibrating, responding to the quickening of new life. This automatically activates the twelve strands of its Divine Complement and the Twin Grid of Divine Service.

Alchemy Consciousness and the Alchemy of Consciousness explodes into a new form of energy, this energy is fed by the New Flower of Life that is now beginning to create itself around you and your Divine Complement, in other words, your Twin Self. Your Divine Complement, this Twin Self or Divine Counterpart if you like, is not the part of you that reflects your darkness, it is not the so-called evil twins. Remember what I said earlier on, you have moved beyond that. This Twin Self is the reflection of all of the Light inside of you and the same applies to the Twin Self. You are the reflection of his or her Inherent Light. As this exquisite New Flower of Life forms around the two of you, I want you to imagine yourself standing in front of your Divine Complement. Raise your hands so that your palms touch those of your Twin Self. Imagine the powerful life-force being transported through you, through the palm chakras of your hands into that of your Divine Complement, and the same happens with this powerful Light moving through your Divine Complement and into your body, and now see your heart chakra and that of your Twin opening and as you look closer you see the Flower of Life.

The exquisite beauty and magnetic energy of that Flower of Life is the exact reflection of the Flower of Life inside your heart chakra. It is the exact replica of the Flower of Life that is being created around the two of you. Even though it may appear that this Flower of Life looks like any other one you have seen, I ask you to feel it's energy. You will notice it's vibration is unique, a signature, a sound never expressed through any other ever before, a vibration as unique as your fingerprints.

Breathe the vibrations of this unique tone into your body and surrender as the cells of your body respond to its powerful vibration. Fall into the love within this sound as the both of you are transported to Zero Point.

This Flower of Life begins to become a crystalline sacred geometric Merkaba vehicle around the both of you. This is the unique Merkaba vehicle of the Twin Light. It is the Light Vehicle of the Divine Complements, two unique vibrations merged as one. The powerful gift that you are receiving through this, beloved ones, is that your unique vibration and that of your Divine Complement were originally created to fit together. That vibration will not fit together with any other vibration other than that of your Divine Complement, and when these two energies unite at Zero Point this powerful new sacred geometric Merkaba vehicle of light is born. I ask you now to open every fibre of your being to absorb this powerful light as it seeps into your being, and this is what accelerates the upcoming initiations I briefly mentioned at the beginning of today's message. This light is a light you have never experienced before, a frequency never experienced before, it is this frequency that ensures that this Sacred Mergence at Zero Point becomes the Marriage of Light, the Marriage of Light that allows Alchemy Consciousness to embrace the collective consciousness, planetary consciousness, solar consciousness and galactic consciousness. These rings of consciousness are being penetrated because our goal is 2,304,000 fully active Alchemists by the end of 2010. You are a key component in making that a reality. Movement into a Golden Age requires Alchemy Consciousness and it is this gift that you are receiving by merging at Zero Point with your Twin.

Now we take it a step further and I want you to visualise the twelve strands of your DNA connecting with the twelve strands of your Twin's DNA. Just be aware of the vibrations of these Twin Strands of DNA. Take a deep breath in and as you slowly exhale notice how the twenty-four strands of DNA begin to merge with one another until there are just twelve strands of DNA again.

The Vibration of Light, the frequencies emitted from these twelve strands will never be the same again for they embody the Twin Consciousness of Androgyny and Alchemy Consciousness. Your DNA has merged with it's Divine Complement, this means God and Goddess as one, masculine and feminine married and the sacredness of the power of that combined consciousness enables Alchemy to weave Powerful Magic..

Continue to breathe in deeply exhaling fully as this exquisite energy pulsates through your physiology, through your anatomy, through your biology and into all the subtle frequencies of your emotional, your mental, your intellectual and causal bodies.

Take a deep breath in and as you do this a powerful ray of light comes from the very core of the cosmos. This light filters through all the higher levels of your being, seeping into your causal body, penetrating your intellectual body, your mental, your emotional and your physical body merging with Mother Earth's body.

Beloved one this two-way flow of energy is going to continue flowing and pulsating in this manner for the next ninety-nine days. The reason for this is that at the end of those ninety-nine you will have completed a powerful stage of understanding the alchemy of consciousness. It is a time where you will have completed the initiations I spoke of earlier and you will have embodied a new lease on life, a new ability to truly see what you are capable of by allowing your light to shine through, by allowing the light and support that comes from your Twin Self regardless of whether that person/soul is a physical part of your life or not doesn't matter, you are still connected.

Take a deep breath in now and as you exhale we transport you through space, through time and we take you beloved ones to the Kings Chamber in the Great Pyramid in Egypt.

Just open your energy, relaxing, surrendering. Egypt is one of the ancient heart chakras reflecting the Love and Divinity of the Divine Cosmic Mother. This is where the Christ Egg of Peace was anchored on the 9th of September of the year 2007. It is one of the highest altars, so to speak, of Gratitude and this is why we have brought you into this space now. The energy within the Kings Chamber has access to many portals of light and as the sound of the Twin Connection expands and increases in frequency your unique sound, the Twin Sound, of your Twin Soul, your Divine Complement, your Divine Counterpart begins to strengthen. This sound begins filling up the atoms, the molecules, the DNA and cells of your body. Surrender to this unique sound, it is beginning to activate the portal of the 12:12 gateway.

While that is taking place you will notice that the twelve strands of DNA that have been hovering between you and your Twin stretches as the both of you breathe it in. They do not separate. They are bonded within and between the both of you and that Sacred Grid of the New Flower of Life, that unique Divine Complement Merkaba Vehicle of Life is now divinely secure and crystallised within the Cosmic Grid of New Life. Surrender all your fears, surrender all of your concerns, your anxiety, any sadness or grief you may embody, any other negative emotion, feeling or thought and allow the Sacred Sound to transmute all of it.

With every breath you take the 12:12 Gate expands opening to welcome you, to welcome your Divine Complement, to welcome two expressions of Sacred, Divine, Exquisite and Powerful Light.

When you are ready remove your palms from that of your Twin Self and take each other by the hand, both of you facing the 12:12 Gateway. By choosing to walk through this gate you are choosing and committing to the Pathway of the Twin Flame and I must emphasise at this point that when I speak of the Twin Flame in this context I am speaking of the Twin Self in the form of the Divine Counterpart, Divine Complement, the Divine Expression of self that reflects light. You are also committing to the Pathway of Service as Divine Complements carrying out your role to serve together and to bring the same Alchemy Consciousness to the rest of humanity. This will contribute to manifesting the 2,304,000 fully awakened Lightworkers in all walks of life.

So take a deep breath and when you are ready take the first step in the direction of this new world, walk through the 12:12 Gate into Golden Age consciousness, in other words Alchemy Consciousness and the Alchemy of Consciousness. The Zero Point energy you have touched upon will continue to fuel you, by this I mean it's energy will motivate you to be aware of what your motivation is. Zero Point represents zero tolerance of anything embodying fear, poverty consciousness, victim consciousness or conditional love consciousness. Be aware of the Golden Energy of the Golden World filling the Merkaba Vehicle of you and your Twin Self, and be aware of this Golden Light filling the Flower of Life within your heart chakra.

You now stand within the presence of the Universal Lords and Ladies of the Light and the Great Celebration of the Universal Solstice is now taken to another level as we all celebrate your Unified Coming of Age, stepping into the Golden Age, embracing the Rays of Life that liberate you. We ask you now to stop, to turn and face your Twin Self again and this time we ask you to embrace one another so that the Flower of Life on your heart chakras merge and become One.

This Flower of Life now becomes a three-dimensional spinning ball of light. This spinning ball has magnetic qualities to it ensuring that the two of you are always drawn together and if you are both in physical form this vibration will ensure that the two of you unite and live your life together as one if you have not already.

Continue to breathe as we complete the activation. We will remain with each of you until midnight at which time the Universal Solstice Celebration comes to its end, however the energies that have been activated will continue for as long as you allow it to. Remember what you have stepped into, remind yourself of who you are, of what you emanate and allow yourself to choose a life of light reflecting light.

Take another deep breath in and as you exhale gently begin drawing your awareness back into your physical reality. Become aware of the sounds around you. Become aware of the feelings inside your body and know that even though you are returning to physical life, to physical consciousness and awareness that what you have experienced today will remain with you. Every single one of you who have experienced this activation today, you will continue to emanate that light through you for the rest of your existence. The Sacred Sound that exists inside of you held within that Flower of Life, will facilitate the emergence of the same process for the planet and for every willing soul who chooses to become an active One within the 2,304,000.

Never underestimate your ability to make a change. Never underestimate your ability and power to change your own life. You are now at Zero Point where zero tolerance exists, therefore no room for excuses. There is only room for action. Even when you are being passive you are being active, it is the active act of being passive, the active act of being still, of being creative. Everything embodies an action and the universe supports action.

Beloved ones we celebrate the journey you have chosen. We honour you for making the choice you did today and for allowing yourself to become one with your Twin, that Flame of Life that reveals to you your light within everything around you. Celebrate your life, give thanks for everything you have, give thanks for every journey you have embarked upon, every lesson you have learnt. Give thanks for every day of your life and you will see how an attitude of gratitude is in itself one of the most important keys of Alchemy Consciousness. May each of you fully recognise the gifts that lie within gratitude. May each of you feel the presence of the divine inside of you expressed outside of you and may all always be well in your world.

I am Kuthumi, Chohan of the Golden Ray of Love and Wisdom and I greet and bless you in love. Adonai.

"Come the ending of this year it will be the last one of its kind."

From hereon the changes will manifest in a positive way, that will tell you beyond doubt that you have broken away from the old ways. Even for those with little or no knowledge of the end times a sense of change for the good will uplift them. You have been going through some of the most difficult times you have ever experienced, but you shall be more than compensated by the Light descending upon Earth. It will take announcement of the coming changes to fully awaken people to what a momentous period you are entering.

The time has arrived to release your worries and have faith in the future of Mankind. It has been planned for eons of time that you shall lift up in the final years of this cycle, and the preparations have ensured it will be so. The Galactic Federation is not alone in this venture, and civilizations from all over the Galaxy have made contact with Earth for the purpose of overseeing its changes. For all of your insignificance as a planet at the edge of the Milky Way, you are the centre of attention because of your importance in the Ascension process. Much depends upon your safe and successful transition, so that the whole Universe can also begin its final upliftment.

How we wish we could shout the news from the treetops, but for the time being we have to approach the whole matter in an orderly manner. It is essential that we do not cause shock or confusion by our actions, and this is where we need to co-ordinate our progress with our allies upon Earth. At present many of you unaware that you are enlisted in our activities, but until the right time we cannot reveal your identities. Your potential has already been recognized, and pre-planning has ensured that you are primed and eager to start the final stages of Earth's changes.

It is not that you are lacking ideas as to how to deal with the problems connected with your environment, and many now wait some opportunity to use their expertise. You have been impressed with many wonderful ideas as to how to overcome the needs of Earth and its people. Therefore, moving up another level will seem quite natural, and we shall train personnel to use our advanced technology. Speed will be of the essence, and with our help we shall successfully work together as a team that shall achieve miracles. Mother Earth will be pleased, and able to delay what would inevitably have been some serious physical changes.

Transport and communications will be amongst the first needs that will be addressed, as our allies must be able to move freely around the world and keep in touch with their base. Much of the directions that will accompany you will be given on board our ships, and we can download information into your consciousness in a way that requires little or no time. You will not of course be on your own, and we will be delighted to work with you. Over long periods of time many of you have been closely associated with us, and unbeknown to you we have often met and laid down the plans that are to be implemented.

What a wonderful time is ahead, and what a relief it will be to you to throw off the restrictive practices and controls that prevent your free and uninterrupted travel. We will ensure that our plan is put over to you in a clear and simple way, and it is our announcements and subsequent communications that will put beyond doubt our intentions for you all. Of necessity we will need to land some of our craft upon Earth, but a mass showing of our presence will come at a later date. There will be plenty of time to acquaint you with our teams, which are your close families from Space.

Weather control will be our responsibility, and we will ensure that it is beneficial to you, and eventually you will find yourselves in a more temperate climate. Presently you suffer from the tampering with your weather patterns, and it has not always been intended for your good. The demise of Atlantis was because the Atlantean's played with powerful energies that they could not control, and you would otherwise face a similar situation but for our coming. We have absolutely no intention of allowing the dark forces to have a free hand to destroy your Earth. Already they know of our presence, and have experienced our ability to severely limit their actions.

We know that Man is at heart a benign Being, and all that is required to bring his peaceful mien to the front is to remove the constant threat of curtailment of his freedom. So many of your "lost souls" will respond to our coming and the hope we bring. We will show you that you are spiritual Beings, with an enormous potential to bring peace and happiness back into your lives. It is your natural state, and we shall release you from the intense laws and regulations that bar your way. Freedom of expression and the means to do so will become your normal way of life before long. It will also break down the suspicion and lack of trust between the different races.

You cannot live in peace together when your leaders contrive situations to keep you apart. They teach fear and isolate you within your own countries, and you become lethargic and disinterested in life, which seems to lose its purpose. With our coming a wave of new enthusiasm for life will stream across your world, and at last you will be able to express yourselves freely and put your many talents to use for the betterment of all. Man is normally industrious and loves to work for the upliftment of all life forms, and soon the opportunities will come thick and fast. The seas must be completely cleansed, and respect paid to the whales and dolphins that have carried energies that have been essential to you and the Earth. They are marvelous Beings that have a consciousness at least equal to your own.

Dear Ones, I am SaLuSa from Sirius and I have come with love to uplift you, because you still have much to learn about all life around you, and we shall ensure that you are well informed and aware of it as soon as possible. Busy times are ahead, but also enjoyable times where drudgery and monotony will have no place. Be in joy and happy at the prospect of taking a great leap forward, because there will be no going back to the old ways – never again."

Thank you SaLuSa.

Candace: I have chatted with SaLuSa a couple times. The first time I was pondering her work while out on a walk and trying to figure the pronunciation of her name, and this called her forth. I then later chatted with her, but not recently. I found her very loving and dedicated to this world.

The Latest Buzz on Bees

By Mother Earth/Gaia thru Pepper Lewis

Jan 12, 2008

Is it my imagination or have you been strangely silent on the subject of the declining honeybee population? It seems like almost everyone has 'rang in' on this one, and the information as usual has run the gamut of diversity. I don't want to admit it, but in spite of all that has already been said I still feel unsatisfied. Pardon the pun, but as a long time reader of your column I have felt the honey sweetness of your words, as well as the sting of the bee now and then. Would you please comment on this subject?

Actually, my sentience, which expresses itself in a myriad of ways, only one of which is through this column, could not be more vocal on the subject. That being said, sometimes the loudest voice is the one found within the silence. By their very absence the bees have spoken, and continue to do so. Their offering to humanity is one of luxury, for their purpose is unequalled and their loss immeasurable. Who or what else could assume their endless labors on nature's behalf or yield the results that they do on a daily basis? Their mystery has tantalized philosophers and poets, mathematicians and metaphysicians alike. By your own admission little is left that has not been summarized or theorized.

Honeybees are longtime residents of the earth and have been here far longer than humanity has. They have also existed elsewhere, particularly when humanity (or a version thereof) has also been present, including other planets within this solar system. How and why they arrive is at least as interesting a topic as why they depart. Perhaps you will find and follow the dimensional link as we explore their message.

Honeybees are as pure as the honey they produce. They are a dimensionally evolved species and have elevated and woven themselves throughout the kingdoms of nature and indeed within the web of life. Their society is a superior one and ideal in many ways. Symbolically, they represent the true disciple, working to perfect the whole, because the whole serves the many as well as the one. The disciple (worker) prepares honey (nectar), the most delectable and unique food, which is extracted from the flower (universe). If you observe honeybees long enough, they will teach you how to extract the honey from your own life, lifting your spirit and filling it with a perfume that is delicious and inebriating to all but the higher frequencies of life.

No other insect compares to the bee. They were not born of this earth any more than you were, and the mysteries they protect are no different than the ones that still elude you. Nature always offers a mirror, a reflection of itself, as if to mock the illusion that life is singular. Where the bee is concerned, nature has offered the wasp as its lower frequency counter-part or cousin. Wasps are capable of building wax cells, but they cannot make honey. Symbolically, they represent the unconscious side of man who takes but has not learned to give, the unawakened disciple who eats honey, but cannot prepare it. Wasps represent the illusion of selfishness, or those who serve the lower-self while the higher self goes hungry. Nature will continue to protect its secrets and mysteries until man removes the veils of misperception that obscure his vision.

Humanity fears the bee's sting, but from the stinger flows a substance that keeps the honey pure under all circumstances. Without this unique ingredient the honey becomes affected, and subject to the variations and alterations of the lesser aspects of nature. Once altered, the honey is no longer appropriate for human consumption. It is true that once a bee has used its stinger its life is forfeit, yet if it cannot serve the whole (hive) by making pure honey then its life has no value, and to serve in a lesser capacity is to lessen the value of life.

Bees are perfect architects and builders. Tireless workers, they have a built-in compass that is based upon the magnetic grids of the earth. It is impossible for them to get lost although they are capable of faking disorientation if only to serve a higher purpose. Bees can recognize and identify subtle energies including disharmony and dishonesty. As their purpose is to make both hive and honey more perfect, they will rarely build a hive or remain in one that is in or near an unjust environment. They are also able to distinguish between peaceful and chaotic surroundings and can even detect vibrations of fear, which they detest. Many a bee sting is the simple result of the overwhelming and chaotic vibration of fear, aggravated by flailing arms and other human acrobatic attempts to flee a bee's interest. Bees have an amazing attention span and such hopeless attempts are humorous to all but those who consider themselves at risk as potential victims.

Bees prefer symmetry in all things. They are insect scientists and are able to recognize quantity as well as quality. They can distinguish vast arrays of color, including pallets and hues barely visible by the human eye under any circumstance. The bees' ability to see such a wide gradient in color variations make them representatives of full spectrum light, the perfect prism that distributes light (love) equally through the beneficial forces of nature. These subtleties also make them the patron totem of the twice-born, or those who return from a journey somewhat changed by the paths they have chosen. The twice-born live as others do, but perhaps more simply and near the outskirts of where others choose to live, not because they fear becoming ensnared in their previous life, but because they choose to live otherwise.

Bees are the true alchemists of nature and no other creature great or small can protect or project knowledge as they do. They are nature's child and wisdom's offspring and their retreat is notable, particularly because man does not yet know how to prepare honey. Yet we see him as the wasp, over yonder in his neighbor's field building fortresses of fear instead of symmetry and peace; enlarging the threat of its sting, and staking claims on simulated resources while nature continues to elude it. The wasp, caught in its own illusion cannot help but sting even those who come to free it.

As insect scientists, bees are instruments of nature, and as such they respond to the same invisible codes of evolution that you do. As humanity's evolutions path quickens, that of every aspect of must also quicken. It would be a false path if it were otherwise, do you see? Humans have accustomed themselves to measure their growth by comparing themselves to something or someone else. In other words, by looking behind or into the past to see how far they have come. When looking into the past everything that was left behind appears to remain the same, because the speed of life (light) reflects a constant speed of change, displaying the change as new, or the next now. Because the new moment seems uniquely different from the last or past one, the contrast between the two is perceived as growth, or evolution. Confusing? Here is a simple example: Do you remember the last time you attended a school or family reunion? Did you feel as if you had taken an evolutionary leap forward compared to those who attended the same gathering?

What does this have to do with the bees? Everything, because the pace of your evolutionary cycle is linked to theirs and vice-versa. They are incapable of reflecting a false reality to you as that would be inconsistent with their model of striving for perfection, but if you continue to watch and study them, they will begin to show you a metamorphosis in how they live, and perhaps even offer a few solutions to some of humanity's upcoming challenges. We have elucidated the irredeemable qualities of the bee and made it even more indispensable than ever, but we have not yet fully answered the question, what in the world is wrong with the bees and where are they going? Simply put, the internal alarm of the entire species has gone off and they are responding to nature's call in droves.

Remember that we have said that they will work tirelessly toward the perfection of the whole, but if the whole (hive) can no longer be represented as perfect, then their purpose must lie elsewhere. That is why some bees become disoriented when they are near their hive and others altogether abandon it. If the hive is no longer consistent with their purpose, then either the hive or the purpose must change. Bees do not have individual personalities though each hive has unique characteristics of its own. Likewise, European bees are uniquely different than North American bees, and South American bees are different from Australian bees. Bees are not angry as they are incapable of such emotion, but they are disoriented and dissociated from their previous model. Their relationship to the hive is no longer based upon the same processes, or those that would be considered normal to humanity.

Each continent will see changes reflected in its bee population in a different manner. Most countries will eventually be affected; only some will be afflicted. North America will suffer higher losses because their number was higher to begin with and because the stress of evolution is more pronounced upon this continent. There have been very few normal hives for several decades. Boxed bees are crated and shipped along with everything else that moves along the world's highways and byways. No longer a symbol of wisdom, the prosperity they offer seems reserved for those who control the crop they are to pollinate. We could number the burdens that humanity has foisted upon their species, but there would be no purpose in it, especially as they harbor no resentment; they are incapable of it.

Their stresses on the other hand, are no different than the ones you respond to daily. Neither are the parasites, pesticides and viruses that they are exposed to. Do you see? It falls to the species closest to the ones they serve not only to act as messengers, but also to lead the way towards change whenever possible. All of nature is but a reflection of itself. Humanity has many examples within nature to draw upon at present, it must now ask the best of itself to come forward in order to create the best of all possible futures. Humanity's evolutonal alarm clock has also sounded and soon even the least alert will need to open their eyes.

Where have the bees gone? Nature has directed the strongest among them toward the southern hemisphere. Guided by shifting magnetic grids, they are moving toward the equatorial regions and further south as well. These, less affected bees will gain strength from their new colonies and form evolutonal allegiances with indigenous bees. They carry a new set of encoded instructions based upon a newer environmental blueprint. They will use this to create a new working model of nature in balance. Following a greater purpose they will build a better hive and be more productive in ways that will benefit humanity the most.

What will happen to the North American bees? Interestingly, bees from Oceania [Australia and New Zealand] are being imported to North America in great numbers in an attempt to stave off an abrupt end to an old model. Much of what will transpire next depends upon modern Apiarists, Farmers, Ranchers, and others who serve as an interface between the human kingdom and all of the others. Many who occupy these positions today have played similar roles before, at least as far as nature is concerned. They, perhaps far beyond others, understand that the old model cannot continue as it has. Those who work within the realms of nature, as protagonists or antagonists, are privy to both the laws and mysteries that govern it. Even those who manipulate these laws for personal or professional gain know that odds dictate that one day the pendulum will swing in the opposite direction. Humanity's long ignorance of the laws of nature do not excuse it from the need to find solutions that will restore balance to nature and also feed a hungry world.

Restoring the health of the North American bee population will also aid in the restoration of the world's health. Perhaps it has become obvious that woven within these words are examples that link changes in the bee model/purpose with current and upcoming changes within the human model/purpose. To be clear, the bees are not offering a warning; they are setting an example.

They are refusing to take on additional stresses imposed upon them by an older model that no longer serves the whole. The lesser among them are succumbing to illness and malnourishment due to parasitic invaders. They are rejecting the chemical and artificial placebos that the old model would otherwise continue to impose upon them. They are changing how and where they live. They are moving, sometimes great distances, to place themselves in more healthful environments that will ensure the future of their species.

Given these irrevocable conditions, the world's agriculture markets will shift and the economies they support will of necessity drift elsewhere. Old model agricultural practices will begin to shift, but more slowly than preference would dictate. In an effort to maintain its commercial position and in hopes of harnessing a hold on a continually diminishing bee population, cooperative enterprises will experiment with indoor agricultural practices. The great expense associated with this effort coupled with a shift in world economies will drive the price of many items significantly higher. On a positive note, there will be a more pronounced return to organic practices as its benefits become evident, especially where indoor agricultural practices are concerned. Other industries will obviously be impacted as the result of these changes plays forward, but these can be evaluated at another time.

The future of the world's resources, including vitally important food and water, depends upon a cooperative world that is willing to serve and support its neighbors, as well as one that is willing to honor the strengths and weaknesses of each kingdom. Specific relevance must be paid to each species and the service they provide. Assisting and supporting one or more species must offset the extermination of an unwanted one. The continued manipulation of nature by those who pretend to own it cannot persist, neither can the equally detrimental pursuits of those who would destroy rather than protect the property of others because they do not agree with its current purpose. Feeding ignorance with cooperative brotherhood will seed the world with future generations who promote wellbeing in word and deed, models of a humanity that lives in peace and without fear. Without fear, listen and watch the message that the bees are modeling for you. Other species also have important messages for you, listen closely and they will make themselves known to you.

Subject: "Orbs."

Received by George Barnard.

Bzutu: "We have trained you as far as we can train you. When it comes to receiving our messages, we can assist you no further. And so it behooves you to proceed with confidence, and not to consider your shortcomings. You and I and everybody else have our shortcomings. It does not pay us to dwell on these, but rather, it would be profitable for us all to expand our talents, our capabilities, our unique individual capacities. I will step aside for another, and it now appears we must wait for a short time. This is Midwayer ABC-22."

(We wait some 3 or 4 minutes).

Samuel: "Thank you my dear Midwayer friend for facilitating this exercise in communication. This is Samuel. This is your Teacher Samuel of Panoptia. I was momentarily otherwise engaged. The promised communication about orbs that was cut short on our previous meeting is what I now have in mind.

"Communication, you will find, becomes an evermore important aspect of life in the morontia worlds, pre spirit worlds, and spirit worlds, as ever-greater groups of individuals will be involved in projects of all kinds.

"It is on those occasions when they have a project at hand relating to your world that communication devices are placed at their disposal. The early morontia individuals on the Mansion Worlds are mostly in a situation where they still have much to learn, and so, it is with a device called the Harp of God that they can enjoy, and learn from, regular universe broadcasting.

"As they advance, as they proceed, as they get to a situation where they are in pre spirit life, they may have an involvement that deals with activity with particular brothers and sisters that are still 'in their mortal clothing.' The well-advanced pre-spirit individuals will no longer judge, they will no longer criticize; they will no longer be surprised at any happening. You may now consider them to be ideal parents, who only want the best for their mortal children in true unconditional love for these children, without exception or condition, without judgment or question.

"And it is on these occasions when they are interested in a project, or mortal individuals that still dwell on the planetary systems that they are presented with the communication device we earlier discussed. These are the orbs of different sizes and different colors that occasionally appear in your photographs. For those in higher realms, involved in projects that go on at a terrestrial level these devices that are minded, that can be instructed, that can take individual instructions, and yet are not endowed with a personality, are of immense value to those who must have their fingers on the pulse of terrestrial happenings.

"The orbs that you will see more and more often in this, the Correcting Time, are not spies because there are no spymasters. They are not divisive; they are simply living devices that keep their superiors, their owners, those at higher levels, up to date with the goings on that particularly concern them.

“Orbs are not Angels. They are certainly not ‘long lost relatives’ or Spirits. They are simply minded machines that can maneuver themselves into any situation where they can record and transmit information to where it is needed elsewhere in the universe.

“This is Samuel. I thank you for your time and your interest in this subject. Let us communicate more often. I say goodbye for now.”

George: “Thank you Samuel.”

Teacher Samuel.

Subject: “Potentials, Realities, and Rewards.”

Received by George Barnard.

Samuel: “Long ago you learned from your dear friend, Athena, that both common knowledge and revelation are only of value when they are shared by all. Her poem, read by many, also speaks of rewards. We shall cover that and more in this communication.

“For a human to arrive at a new idea, a conclusion, or to invent something, has no basic value, unless same is communicated to others, and others learn from, or in some way profit from the original thought. The original is a potential, only, until it is communicated. Once shared, it becomes a reality, and incidentally, the more that is shared of original ideas, the greater the chances that additional information be intuited also from Brothers and Sisters in the Celestial World.

“Presently, with your world in the first phases of the Correcting Time, there is a great deal of interest on High about potentials. There are those on Paradise that know all potentials of your world, and they have the minds to calculate to what degree each contributor will have brought the period of Light and Life closer by his or her contributions, and conversely how much each detractor will have staved off the advent of Light and Life by his or her impairing progress.

“Share, my brother, because beside your name, information about lineage, your works, and personality, the precise and calculated degree to which you and every other will have brought forward the advent of Light and Life on this still irregular planet will be a recognizable aspect of your very being, for ever and ever, in the place of your end destination. That which is only in your mind is still secret, despite your Destiny Guardians knowing your thoughts, whilst that which is shared, just once, becomes a shining gem of great value to myriad others.

“This is Samuel of Panoptia. How I treasure to teach on this planet, and how I sometimes wished I lived my mortal life here, on this orb in space, in the crucial time-slot that is the present. I say Adieu for now.”

Divine Father: "My beloved child, your Father Michael greets you! Striving for attainment is your nature state of being. You have a natural program living inside each cell that compels you into action. You were designed to live dynamic, interesting, explorative lives that bring out the best in your nature, to take your raw humanness and craft it into a work of art.

"Allow yourself to be the clay to My hands. I am the Master Potter who can help mold you into the beautiful vessel of Spirit that is your higher divine nature. Rest yourself in My hands and I will shape you according to the plans you contain in your being. I know your nature and your being thoroughly. I know where the rough stubs are on your vessel; I know where the smooth and lovely places are.

"The challenges of self-perfection were not meant for you to be handled on your own. Your Mother and I created you, and therefore We can help you build a strong, noble, and gracious character, grafting those seeds of your divine nature into your raw human self and helping them to grow and blossom.

Divine Father: "Beloved child, this is your Father Michael. The season for change is well underway on your world. As you head into the celebration of a New Year, I celebrate with you. 2008 will see more change come to your world, and you may anticipate that the awareness of My presence on this world is growing. People may not know My presence by name, but they feel it. It is perceived as a lightness growing inside and a loosening of old energies long held intact.

"Celebrate with Me this time of change. This is the long awaited time of healing spoken of by prophecy. Many seers of the past looked to this day when the world would be released from its bonds of spiritual enslavement. I say to you: The time is here. My children are being freed, and yet each individual must awaken to the sound of My voice resonating deep within him and her. The sound of My voice is getting stronger in their hearts.

“Soon sweeping changes will wash the fear from human minds and build a new reality of love and altruism as the foundation of the planet. I will hold you steady as the changes come about you. Turn to Me during the times when you feel unstable and wavering in your faith and hope, and I will bolster you. Come to your Mother Nebadonia and ask Her to expand you in courage, strength, and peace. Know that We are holding you in Our arms in spirit as you walk about on your material world.

“Truly, this is a glorious and unique time upon our planet Urantia! Open your hearts to Me ever more each day, My beloveds, and you shall indeed feel the joy that the universe feels as your world is brought closer to Light and Life!”

Whenever you feel alone or confused, simply refocus your attention on this place and call out for Me. Yes, I am here and I respond, but it is up to you to quiet your mind substantially that you may perceive My Presence.

“The subtleties of spiritual energy move in you particularly when your thoughts and feelings are positive, calm, and directed towards loving others. You actually grow in spirit when you are in this state of mind and being, although you may not perceive it at any given moment. Yet, when you are in this state and remember to call upon Me, you will receive a quickening or rush of energy in your heart center. This is My calling card; relax and enjoy the feeling, allowing it to take over.

“The inner reality of spirit that grows in you is tied to your motivation and desires for more Father-consciousness and being-ness. You actually add the spirit content necessary for more peace and love to be threaded into your being by your thoughts of God-awareness. Each thought captures a vital spark of love that adds to your inner beauty, it helps you respond to life’s situations with a love-dominated response.

Time to say farewell, and the first steps into a newer reality

By Adama through Evelyn Kümmerle

Jan 21, 2008

Be in peace
With all the farewells upon you
And be in faith
With all that is to come
Be the captain on your ship
And be ready to navigate it
Out of the love
Of your precious heart.

To all who are our Lemurian guard on the surface, who have lovingly served during the ages and to all the diligent hearts who came here to fulfil support: This is your eternal friend Adama of Telos and I'm connecting my heart with yours in order to bring into your awareness that you and all of us are right now living in a time of farewell.

Here we go, heart to heart and hand in hand, at the very edge of a change so big that it still is pretty beyond your imagination. For years you have been told that someday this change will literally be upon you – and now the time is here. January 1st of the year 2008 is a 111 and in numerology 1 stands for a new beginning. And what a beginning this will be! And see what little time you still have left until then.

As always I offer you my deep eye to eye contact and my heart filled with compassion for all that is.

So, if you wish, let us one more time look around with open eyes and open heart, as this world in the way you still perceive it to be will never more be your "reality" again.

All you have been working for is going to come into manifestation. While you roam saying farewell to what has been the world you live in, bring into your mind what friends, loved ones or other people in your periphery might possibly not come with you – due to their age or other reasons. We ask you to clear the connections with love, so that you will be in peace and sure that you have told them the words of love you may always have wanted to tell but actually never did, as you perhaps postponed this day by day and week by week. You don't need to tell them what they might not be prepared and wanting to hear, about the New Age and changes and so on, this is just about clearing your personal connection with love – and if there is no possibility to do this loudly, you can do this in your thoughts, and your thoughts will reach the sub-consciousness of the person you turn to.

So, may there be words of love to tell and may you be able to speak them out of your deepest heart to be heard. Never postpone on tomorrow what you could tell today, as regarding the person you want to talk to you do not know if there will still be a new tomorrow to experience at your side.

To tell the words of love is your responsibility and so is everything you do. And from time to time you might become aware that your words of love will mean a farewell at least for a certain period.

When we are talking about responsibility in times of change we also will take a look at what you call advice. I'm not talking about spiritual education in general, I'm talking about a serious issue, and this is about giving your responsibility away.

Many among the surface population still do not trust that they are and carry god, the love of the prime creator, inside their very hearts. They prefer contacting channels hoping to get advice about what they should do. This could result – if the channel is not clear enough - in being told “move here, do this and that”. I would doubt any answer with a suchlike content – as no higher being would advise anybody via a channel that the questioner had to move at a certain place or suchlike things.

Dear ones, it won't work – even if the potential for a move was there – if you do not feel you have to do this inside your own heart and love. There is no higher being than the cosmic being that you are, carrying the energy of God – you are also God. Doing things faithfully out of the advice of your own heart will bring things into flow – and everything will easily manifest, without any feeling of being blocked.

You do not need to contact others for information, “so called higher beings”. We may have hierarchies in universe, but no being is higher than yourself or like any other being – maybe just a bit more experienced – and no being has the right to create reality as a substitute for you – this will not pass any of your tests. The decisions must come from yourself and YOU must take over responsibility for your deeds.

When you have a look at what is happening in your life you'll easily be able to see if all is fine and in easy flow. – or if nothing seems to work at all. In the latter case it would be worth considering where exactly any decision was made just out of your mind or another ones mind and did not have it's origin inside your own heart.

This is the time for checking your position once more, this is the time for choosing your direction.

If you want something to manifest in your life, it's necessary that your heart is able to FEEL IT WITH LOVE.

If things do not work some of you show a tendency to justify this by certain phrases like “But xxx told me to do so” or “yyy sent me there, as this is my higher order”. These phrases will not count and never be accepted to justify anything. The universal law will not accept your hiding behind any seeming order of archangels, ascended masters or whoever may have been the address you wished to contact.

Time for some clear words, beloved ones:

YOU are the creator God and YOU have to make your decisions and to take over full responsibility for them. The higher dimensional beings will never more take the role of being your crutches. Old energy has disappeared and we are assuring you that

YOU ARE ABLE to walk on your own,
YOU THE SHIPS are seaworthy and
YOU THE LIGHTHOUSES are ready to guide in stormy times.
PLEASE DO NOT RELY ON ANYONE ELSE THAN YOURSELF!

Be it aware or unaware – every single one of you has had plenty of lessons. You are holding a “driving permission” in your hands.

Only then when you turn to accept being a creator God you will reach what you are aiming at, the shore of a world of peace and abundance. Only if you are in loving flow and trust and ease you can render the desired service to the planet and humanity. Service is NOT walking around in circles asking others: Tell me what to do!

Don't misunderstand me. Giving and receiving suggestions will always be fine – besides this is what I am doing here – as long as you will have a look into the deepness of your soul and heart to make an own decision – like a grown-up. Advice is meant to be just a twinkling in a certain direction or asking questions on the topic of concern, still leaving all other possibilities open. As you say on the surface: There are many roads leading to Rome – be open to more possibilities.

And as we have been talking about farewells you are now also – and once again – encouraged to say farewell to the old pattern of giving your responsibility away.

You have been encaged during eons of time, have been born in arrest. But now the gate to freedom is open and your freedom is guaranteed, so reactivate your “navigation system” and step out and away from your cages of being told your direction by others. If your decisions match universal law you will do fine.

What will you do if in your region a blackout occurs and your computers fail and you won't get the latest transmissions? You will have to rely on yourself.

There exists a potential for a time where you possibly won't have another book to purchase or a further seminar to attend.
It's true that all of us are eternal students at the university of evolvment but we are not taught to always remain on the same level or grade.

MAKE SURE THAT YOUR SHIP LEAVES THE HARBOR HEADING FOR THE SHORES OF HOME.
NAVIGATE BY YOUR INNER STARS AND LIGHTHOUSE. THIS YOU ARE ABLE TO DO. THE COMPLETE UNIVERSE DWELLS IN YOUR SACRED HEART.
SAY FAREWELL TO THE SHORES OF THE OLD DIMENSION AND WELCOME THE HIGH TIDE OF A NEW ENERGY GIVING BIRTH TO A NEW WORLD OF PEACE AND ABUNDANCE.

The New World is beckoning to you a heartfelt welcome.

Beloved members of our big family,
HAVE A BLISSFUL AND SAFE JOURNEY
don't forget
THAT YOU NEVER WALK ALONE, and that finally
IT'S ALWAYS THE HEART THAT MATTERS.

I Am the eternal friend of your hearts with love, Evelyn

Let it go,
Let it roll right off your shoulders,
Don't you know
The hardest part is over,
Let it in,
Let your clarity define you
In the end
We will only just remember how it feels
Our lives are made
In these small hours
These little wonders
These twists and turns of fate
Time for to wake
In these small ours,
These small hours still remain.
Let it slide,
Let you troubles fall behind you,
Let it shine,
Till you feel it all around you
And I don't mind
If it's me you need to turn to,
We'll get by,
It's the heart that really matters in the end.
All of my regrets will wash away somehow
But I cannot forget
The way I feel right now

The Art of Aware Communication & The Ceremony of the Heart

By Adama through Evelyn Kümmerle

Jan 21, 2008

The art of aware communication
Will create the most delicious dishes
Out of the kitchen of your mind and heart..
You will serve these dishes
On a plate of love,
Heading for a dialogue of harmony.

Dear hearts, here we go again. It's me, your friend Adama of Telos, and it's such a joy to connect with you again. We will have a walk together, side by side, and I will share with you something which is about the art of aware communication.

Come on, take my hand, imagine me to be at your side. And together we will explore what can be told about this very important tool.

As I told you, this is about communication. And I beg you to have a look at these challenging times you chose to live in. How many problems have already arisen because of misunderstandings, because communication was not clear.

When we are talking about surface communication we are mostly talking about a communication of mind, using the spoken word. This is what you all are used to.

But, dear ones, communication is far more than just the word coming out of somebody's mouth.

So, where do we start. Let me start here, in this situation, where it's you and me in communication. In this case it may seem that I'm the active part of the two of us communicating, but that's not the whole thing, as if there was not you to listen to my words and to answer them by thoughts – there wouldn't be any need for communication.

And, let me also tell you that this communication did start a long time before I addressed the first word to you.

Before I go into detail, let me once more emphasize the urgent need for you to learn about and to integrate aware communication in your daily life. The reason is: How will you build up a conscious society without communication – and I promise to all of you – you will have to communicate a lot. How will you form and hold your councils in order to create valuable decisions of high vibration?

I think you got it. So I will now start to share with you the complete "download". You see, beloved ones, long before I addressed my first word to you our communication started with my intention to have a communication with you. And this intention, it did not come out of my mind, but rather out of my very heart. My heart was forming the wish to share with you what could be useful for you to know. So, out of the love of my heart I started to form the thoughts creating this occasion for connecting to you.

And here – talking about thoughts – we are touching an interesting issue. Most of you have already heard about that thoughts are somehow energetic patterns being sent out into space. Your problem is that you can't see these patterns you create with your physical eyes. But if you could – some of you can perceive it on an inner level – you would really be astonished to see the energetic creations matching your thoughts. It's universal law in the basics – loving thoughts create nice energetic patterns – and vice versa.

Let me clarify this a bit. Let's say, you are standing in the kitchen of your mind trying to figure out a meal for a special occasion. You will have guests for a dinner of communication. Will you cook a delicious meal right out of the love of your heart and decorate it on a beautiful plate, or will you put on the plates just some junk food or canned stuff from cans you have bought "ready to serve" with contents of industrial and modified ingredients? Just to follow the rule that you have to offer something to your guests?

And which guests will answer your invitation and join you for dinner?

If you want to have nice friends and a communication with love resulting in having a wonderful meeting – you will surely have to offer a meal cooked with love.

You are my guest now, but I am your guest, too. We have connected. We have built a bridge of loving energy to bridge the illusion of the distance. We are having an eye to eye contact. Do we? (smiles) I invite you to look into my eyes. I invite you to be in contact with me. How does that feel? Can you perceive a flow of energy? Yes, I do have your attention, and my attention is with you. Well, dear, this is the basics of communication.

I hear some of you saying: Well, we've heard it all before. This is nothing new – we know about communication. Do you? Really? Have you really integrated it and are you successful in practising it? Then, congratulations to you being a ferryman on the river of energy.

Remember, you are living in the age of "chat rooms" and "flat rates". This is chatting on a flat rate, on a very flat rate, I would say. Will you call it communication? I think this is merely a shadow of it. In an age of SMS in telegram style – what can be expected about aware communication? Even your governments are chatting about peanuts all day long, just to fake your mind.

Or take a dialogue between two people – one is talking, maybe tries to get in contact, is talking to the other person but the other one is roaming around in the room, doing other things, not showing the slightest interest in having a conversation and not even being polite but rather without respect. Let 5 minutes pass and then they will mostly not know any more what they have been "talking" about.

For others, communication is about convincing somebody else about the own opinion, some argue. Some get in rage. This has nothing to do with communication. This is nothing of service.

Remember that I'm speaking in general. How many words does one speak during a day of life? How many of these words are impolite, unnecessary, offending, threatening, harmful, charging..... as they do not come out of a loving heart. They wouldn't seem to be missing, if they had never been spoken. But spoken once, they went out to space creating reality, affecting your weather patterns, your mass consciousness....and on and on. .

You would not be likely to tolerate kids playing with weapons? But sometimes you are unaware playing with words, prattling. Believe me, this is a serious topic. You want to go to the 5th dimension, so you need to become aware in communication.

Set your intention for harmony in communication and respect different points of view.

Be clear and loving in all that you say,
speak out of the wisdom of your sacred heart..

Be connected, be in touch, with an eye to eye contact.

Choose your words carefully.
Don't make too many.

Do not let your words become weapons.
Let your words be love.

This still seems to be difficult for the most of you dear ones. But remember that you are not like slot machines having to react like this and that just because a certain button is being pressed. There is no reason for you to deliver “rage” just because somebody presses the button to order “rage”.

Remember, dear ones, you are masters in this art. You just will have to remember and to activate this art again. Don't worry, you don't need to say good-bye to spontaneity, as this is not excluded in aware communication. It's just a matter of practising. I recommend that you start practising NOW, without delay.

To support you in practising I will submit you a little gift. I would not be Adama if I would let you go without, in this time approaching to 11:11, the yearly stargate. So – if you resonate with my suggestion – you may now widely open your heart and mind to receive this gift from me named

The ceremony of the heart

As we have been talking about practising the art of aware communication by heart I will share with you a wonderful ceremony which is going to serve you at the highest.

I will celebrate this ceremony with you now, if you choose to accept the receipt of this gift. When we are through you may – for the next time – invite any good friend to this ceremony, who is being open for experiences of high vibration. You will always have to form a combination of 2 participants (today, it's you and me) – or you may choose a mind & heart connection like in meditation with any member of your soul family in the higher realms, or with your twin flame or any loved one who cannot be with you in physical condition for certain reasons.

So, if you are willing to accept my invitation, let us choose a peaceful location to sit down in front of each other, right on the warm ground of mother earth somewhere in nature, on a mountain, or at the shore of the ocean – or even in the sacred area of the Temple of the rose pink Flame of Love – wherever if you wish. Make your choice and I'll come with you.

See us now sitting there very close in front of each other, so that we'll easily be able to touch the region of each others heart charkas. Take a deep breath and make sure you have really arrived where you are. Everything is fine. Feel the wonderful energy of this place. Sounds of heaven are surrounding us. Remember why you came here. You came here to celebrate a heart ceremony with your friend Adama from long ago.

Now silently confirm by your thoughts that you have the intention to communicate by the energy of the heart. Breathe deeply. You are loved so dearly. Imagine golden light surrounding our energetic fields and bodies, granting us a sacred space.

Breathe deeply. Allow yourself to smile a bit if you feel like that and to sense into the loving unity of all that is. Sense into your own presence and sense into mine. Be aware that our energetic fields have already managed some kind of merging.

Close your eyes and feel the flow in the energetic fields.

Now slowly lift up your right hand – the hand of giving – and bridge it over into my heart region. You may choose to have it first in the aura for a while or you may place it directly in the region of my sacred heart with a slight touch. I am doing the same with my right hand. Feel my hand giving you a very soft and gentle touch. Take a deep breath.

Now take your left hand – the hand of receiving – and lay it softly upon my right hand which is in touch with your sacred heart region – which is located a little bit above the seat of the physical heart.

This means that your receiving hand touches my giving hand to make a connection. I am doing this accordingly by placing my receiving left hand upon your giving right hand over my sacred heart. By the completion of this position the circle of energy is activated and connected.

You may visualize this energy as a pink flow from your heart to mine and from my heart to you, through our arms and hands.. Allow yourself to ride this flow of energy for a while to perceive how our hearts are connected. Allow whatever is to come. Allow the love to flow, allow tears to come up if there are tears to come. Allow yourself to smile, if you feel like smiling.

It's a gift of god to celebrate such a kind of heartfelt communication. Be open, and if there are still walls then allow them to disappear. You are safe. I am your eternal friend.

Now, after a little while, open your eyes to get an even more intense connection. Pledge your open eyes into my open eyes and allow this deep contact from soul to soul. The eyes are the mirror of the soul. Perceive your emotions in this moment. It may feel as if you might never be able to find words to describe this feeling. Just be. Just be there with this eye to eye connection. Just be in this moment of the Now, where everything is love and light.

It might be that you will be only able to hold this position for just a few minutes, but even this short time might feel like ages, as this process is setting free the codes of the heart and is transforming illusions – by zipped downloads of energy.

When you feel a kind of completion of this ceremony you order your energy back into your system and then please give me a slight and short impulse by your left hand with a more intense touch and we will express to each other our gratefulness with a smile. We softly bring our hands back again to ourselves, forming a Namasté over our heart chakra, to close this ceremony.

You may talk to me about what you have felt – if you wish to – by words or without. (smiles)
.Nobody has ever remained untouched by practising this ceremony. Even if we leave now the energy is still working and you will be able to enjoy the sweet vibrations of the heart flow for quite a while still.

Come on, let me give you a hug. This ceremony has been so beautiful. You are doing this so well. We can have more exercises like this and we can also have walks in silence, as also in silence is communication. Communication does not depend on words or thoughts. Sometimes it's just a sweet or compassionate smile.(smiles). This would be a good ceremony for the day of 11:11.

Equal what you thought communication could be – it's more. And love is the common denominator of all.

The world is in urgent need of love.

Much you give and share and much more love grows from this..

But still there is much lack of love,
so never stop spreading it to strengthen the potentials for ascension.

Your commitment to the New Lemuria

Will change the face of the world.

And when love on earth flows over the gateway for ascension will open.

Beloved ones, this is Adama of Telos. Will you take a little break to share some time with me? Will you take a deep breath to let go your daily burdens for a while and sit down next to me, on a comfortable sofa of your favourite colour? You are dearly invited to be at my side for a heart to heart contact.

Do not regard this as a message of instruction but rather as suggestions from a friend. Please consider this as an opportunity to meet a friend who wants to share some time and words with you. And please, do not place me on a stage just because my mission is being the High Priest of Telos. We can make a more direct contact when you consider me simply as Adama, your friend from long ago. And so, I'm not wearing my official robe.

Many of you are still tending to put the ascended masters or members of the Galactic Federation on a kind of throne, just as it was done with the ancient prophets or "gods" of the Old Testament of the Bible. But this is not how we see our role. We long to be your family, your friends, to give you advice to bring you forward, and from time to time we may sound quite strict. This is to bring over the seriousness of the current situation and of the need to act as one light out of love divine. All in all we long to enlighten the flame of loving service inside your hearts and we will not stop nurturing you out of our inexhaustible resources of love.

So, dear friend of my heart, see yourself sitting next to me with a contact eye to eye. I'm smiling at you with a heartfelt "Namasté" and it's such a joy to me to have you here. Lean back and make yourself feel comfortable. Take a rest.

Dear grounded angel, see my love floating to you. You're in need of love, and so is the world. Without love you are getting a burn-out, folks. Without love nothing can be kept together and will sooner or later fall apart in bits and pieces.

At first fill up your own reservoir of love from the divine source, the supply is everlasting. And then you can start distributing it to all the world. To everybody, and I really mean everybody and all dwelling there. This is not what I would call a spiritual strategy but rather a loving service....by the way...

You are facing a lot of discussions about spiritual strategies, dear ones. You are somehow leading some hidden and unrealized spiritual war among those not having understood the rules of ascension. Where is love in this? As long as some of you consider ascension like a ludo board game - just asking about the rules of the head – I again ask you – where is love in this? Go inside and ask yourself for the motivation in your process of ascension. Is it just about that some of you are fed up with the 3rd dimension? Or could it be that you are feeling love for this beautiful planet and the longing to participate in the healing of all? That you are feeling the lack of love still existing on the surface and that you commit yourself to never stop pouring out love over and over on earth until ascension takes place?

Everybody has an own special path to go and individual exams to pass.

You know, dear, we in Telos had quite some inquiries for commenting the partly controversial and confusing statements placed in the internet. I guess you will know what I mean. But please understand, that we will not give any comment on this. We will never tell you that one is right or wrong and we will never join the pointing fingers. We return this question to you and but recommend you to ask your own heart. It is your job to make up your mind on this! Ages ago we, the Lemurians, made up our mind, too, and succeeded to build our paradise and now we live in this manifested dream. Now it's your turn to do so, with our assistance, but you will have to do the work.

Equal what you decide to believe or not – it's your choice and nobody can meet it for you. But also be aware that in your view in 3D you do not have the overview of a higher level, so your mind might not be able to believe some of the things you are being told. Again one possibility remains: how does it feel?

We cannot walk the path for you. It's up to you to pass your exams. Actually, we already have given you a lot of information concerning the ongoing process. Your heart is a key. Equal what chaos might be around you, it cannot betray your heart.

Be open to new solutions. Tear down the limiting walls of your mind. We never told you these times would not be challenging.

When you have a look at the world with open eyes you will see the changes. You see the poles melting. You see storms raging, volcanoes erupt. You see truth coming out. You see people turning to new energies. You see people setting up new political concepts. You see people crying out for change. And dear ones, the change will come. Your mass consciousness is lifting up, believe in this and keep supporting this. It might happen that from one day to the other the politicians will loose ground below their feet. It might happen that you awake in the morning and you will suddenly realize that the changes have invaded your personal life.

This is what you have been trained for, to stand anchored on the rock, even if the waves seem to be higher than you. Get rid of your fear. Trust in your divine connection.

Nobody can force you to read newspapers or magazines or even to listen to the "official" news with all the manipulated material. You're safe, as beyond the fear there is complete safety. You will be at the right place at the right time. Remember the different time lines of the planet. I told you before. The more love you succeed to pour out to the world in dedication to the divine service the softer the process of renewal will be. In a natural process there is nothing that love can't heal. We believe in you, beloved ones. Act as adults and masters.

What comes to my heart right now is a song which is quite well known at the surface. A wonderful one, with a great potential. The title is "We are the world, we are the children". Let me bring some lines of the lyrics to your mind:

When you're down and out there seems no hope at all
And if you just believe there's no way we can fall
Well, well, let us realize, that a change will only come
If we stand together as one...
We are the world, we are the children,
We are the one to live a brighter day, so let's start giving,
There's a choice we're making,
We're saving all our lives,
It's true, we'll make a better world, just you and me!

Listen to it and take it to your heart. And you also may write down your commitment to the new world; to the New Lemuria. To write it down puts more weight on a decision. Set up your contract of service. But make sure that it is connected to your heart and love. It could read as follows: "I commit myself to receive love, to be love and to give love. I commit myself to pour out love all over the world and I commit myself to bring in my service to the process of transition of the planet and humanity, out of my divine heart connection to the Prime Creator." Just be creative. You may place your commitment at a location where you often have a look at. Your fridge? Your bathroom mirror? Your computer?

Dear hearts, you have been on the outer journey for such a long time. It's so good to be in contact again.

You may contact me any time. We will be at your side whenever you need us. This is our commitment to you. We can meet again on this comfortable sofa, but you may also take me with you on a walk in nature. Get used to telepathic conversations.... Peace be with you and never ever forget that I AM your friend Adama who loves you dearly.

The Bridges of Humanity

By Adama of Telos Through Evelyn Kümmerle

Jan 24, 2008

Bridges of Humanity
Adama of Telos
Through Evelyn Kümmerle
21st January 2008

There's a lot that a bridge can do.
It connects and it carries.
It connects shorelines of different nature
And it does not select to allow who will cross it or not.
A bridge does not judge.
And beyond design or architect
A bridge is a bridge.
And, dear ones, bridges are needed!

Greetings, dear ones, it's such a joy to meet you again in this brand new year of 2008 into which you have just crossed the bridge, so to say. I'm very thankful for this opportunity to give a further message to you, the dedicated workers of light. I take all of you to my heart to give you an intense hug to express the brightness I feel in my soul on this occasion of gathering again. Beloved ones. This feels so good.

So, here we are, beyond the time of Christmas, sailing into 2008 with full speed. You have taken Christ to your heart. Time passes quickly. The quicker time passes the quicker you sail. Or, maybe, it's vice versa.... The quicker you sail, the quicker time passes. (laughs)

I can tell you that I have had many really nice conversations with you in the meantime, conversations of the heart, conversations of silence, conversations of advice, conversations of guidance. Not to forget conversations of humour. I have dried some tears and I have shared smiles and laughter, with you, the dear friends and members of our family. Thank you, beloved ones, for your trust and faith. Thank you so much.

With interest I have watched your reactions on the December piece "Joy & surprise". This was really an extraordinary one, wasn't it? This piece seems to be something a few of you are not used to. It was a message of a different style, some kind of surprise in itself, to experience good old Adama in the humorous way of this message.

Some of you – a few – seemed to have some difficulties to accept that also this way represents Adama. They said: Well, there seems to be such a big difference between this piece and – let's say – "time to say farewell" – this cannot be the same master, something must be wrong. This master here turns out to be a clown. Do I hear some kind of prejudice here?

How does that come, dear ones? What's the reason? The answer is quite simple. At first, some of you are not yet used to humour in spiritual messages and are still glued to the very "holy" perception that only if a message shows mighty weight and a powerful headline and offers a suchlike content – then and only then – it can be a "high" masters message. By eons you have been confronted with paintings of suffering Saints in your churches and with the belief that it comes up to blasphemy to make humour fuse with the holy spirit.

At second, this has to do with your linear thinking showing you just one thing at a time.. You see, when you follow me to the temple of the blue flame, you will see this big diamond crystal with it's myriads of facets. Stand still here and have an intense look at it. The personality of a soul – equal if it's the soul of an ascended master or not – has at least as many facets as this crystal.

If you have come to know a certain facet of a person – how can you say that you know all of the facets. And it's the same with your “career” of ascension way back to the Prime Creator – as many experiences you may have had already – there is always something new to learn. No doubt.

So, some of you said: Adama of Telos is this way. And everything different is not Adama. Well, you would be really surprised if you were able to see all of the many facets of my personality.

Humour, dear ones, is no sickness, no disease. Humour – as long as it does not harm or enters it's “foot into the flower beds of someone else” – is best suited to bring lightness and joy into your life. Why should you not have joy and lightness? You won't find any cosmic being without a sense of humour.

Now you might ask: But Adama, if it's like this, why is there such a lack of humour in the most channellings?

This, my dear ones, depends at first on the message itself – I mean – it depends on the question if there is room in it for humour – and it also depends on the development Mr. Humour has reached within the soul of the channel. You see, if there is still some lack of humour in the “mind database” of the transmitter, or any resistance against a combination of humour and spirit - how can this channel then be a transmitter for a “cosmic comedian”? All of you know that channelled messages mostly carry the colour of the transmitter. So, if humour is no outstanding colour there – the humour does not “come over”.

Referring to the message “Joy & surprise” I would say that this little and funny experiment turned out some nice mirrors you have to look at. In the moment where you point out that a certain message matches Adama and another one does not, just because there's e.g. a bit of humour inside, you are judging that messages by Adama always have to follow a certain style or way, and any other way to come out would not be adequate just because it has not been part of your experience so far. If you go into it – into the vibration of love – you will find out, that it very well comes out to be a message by Adama in fact.

If I asked you “Who is Adama of Telos” some of you would answer: “He is the High Priest of Telos”. Some would say “he is an architect of the crystal grid” Others would answer “Adama is the patriarch of the Lemurian Mission”. Or: “Adama is a good friend from long ago” Or “Adama represents the heart of Lemuria”. Or “He is the one giving me advice when I'm having mind walks”. Or: “He is a master who once dressed up as the German “Nikolaus” just for fun.” Just a few of the many facets – and all correct.

So, dear ones, the ball is in your court again. When you have developed your perception concerning humour & spirit you will be able to accept humour in a message, otherwise – if you still seem to have resistance against humour in spiritual teachings – then here you are facing a wonderful opportunity to walk around the centre of your perception in order to have a view on it from all positions of the 360° of the circle.

All in all it's not just about humour. All in all, the concern is about things appearing you to be different.

What are you going to do if you meet people who have different points of view, a different behaviour, a different culture, a different colour of skin, a different past, a different history, different likings, different religious beliefs? Do you feel threatened? Do you feel rejection? What are you going to do if you have thought to know somebody – and then – suddenly – from now to then – the person shows you a facet of personality you have never supposed to exist there. How will you react?

Joy & Surprise

<http://www.neueslemuria.de/eng/channeling/joy.htm>

is some kind of model role for you. Dear ones. I have explained to you that you should be open for a new perspective and new perceptions.

What have I done now? I have built a bridge for you, so that you can see that the Adama with the weighty universal teachings is the same Adama signing the easy and humorous message. Both of the pieces have a common denominator, so to say, and the common denominator is me, my love, my vibration, just dressed up differently. If you are still not sure – go deeper.

When you are going to meet people who seem to be “different” at first sight, will you then walk away, sit down on an island and set in flames the bridge leading to the island?

No, you won't.

With an open heart you will build a bridge to connect the different shorelines, you will yourself be a bridge leading across the water of separation – may it be troubled or silent, deep or shallow. You will pass your hand to build or shape the bridge, you will make sure that there always will be a bridge behind or in front of you – so that anybody will have a chance to reach you – any time.

There was a bridge even for Lucifer, the rebel. Even Lucifer had been heartfelt invited to cross the bridge into the light. And there was great sadness among the builders of the bridge when Lucifer decided to burn it and to leave creation.

You see, this is also something that might happen. You have built a wonderful bridge, a real strong one, a beautiful one of majesty And the person invited to step on the bridge won't come because the person meets a different choice finally. But be in peace. So sad as this is, there will be others needing your bridge and these will come.

I said “You build a bridge”. It's not only that you are going to be the architects of outstanding bridges on planet Earth, Shan, Urantia.... It's not only that you are going to construct bridges across canyons of all sorts.... It's about that
YOU, YOURSELF, ARE TO BE THE BRIDGES.

Your multidimensional make-up will not have the slightest difficulty of being a lighthouse and a bridge at the same time. It's about that you open your eyes to recognize and that you welcome every single situation that trains you.

There are still canyons among different camps of lightworkers. Let me tell you a true story. There is a person working for the Lemurian Mission and in addition this person is also working for another organisation of light under a high order. One day the person received an email in which the sender asked the person to cancel the work for the other organisation for the benefit of the Lemurian Mission, as the sender was in fear that the Lemurian Mission could be harmed. The addressee sent a very loving reply to the person in fear, stating that *the Lemurian Mission was LOVE and that love was not vulnerable and could not be harmed, as love would always be love.

The person stated to be a builder of bridges and not a destroyer of bridges whishing to be PRO love and not AGAINST something else, whishing to BE the bridge between the two institutions,
so that unity could be created instead of separation,
as finally all was one anyway.
And that this, finally, would be a reason for a celebration.
The person stated that love would not resent anybody,
love would not segregate anybody,
love was due to embrace in order to be integrated where needed, and that love flowing from the Lemurian Mission would even act as an amplifier for any other mission basing on love.
Love was to be simply what it is – love.*

I am pleased to tell you that these words fell on a very fertile soil and all of us have been very enthusiastic about this reply.

So, dear folks, it looks like as if you had a new hobby: Building bridges. May I invite you to have a look on various bridges all around our planet. You have all kinds of bridges in physical state... real monumental ones – like the Golden Gate Bridge – but also very small and simple ones - like catwalks – and very artificial ones like the bridges in the Japanese gardens. You have architecture of outstanding beauty, of tricky shape – you have constructs which you regard as a triumph of the human spirit. Look around at this great variety of bridges and architecture – to finally find out that the bridges of the heart, the bridges of love are the essential ones for your future.

If you meet somebody who is intending to burn a bridge, then please, do your best to give him your loving advice and ask the person not to do this, unless the bridge is dilapidated and likely to break down (but in this case the motivation is a different one)

Love is the ethereal element of a bridge of the heart matching the Holy Geometry. Whatever you build – if you build it according to the Holy Geometry – it will last. Whatever you do with love – it will last. Love is the only thing you may bring with you to the realms where you will go when leaving the old spheres. And if you have built bridges – not the amounts of steel and concrete will be measured, Just love.

When you look around with open eyes you will see bridges everywhere in your life. When people shake hands they are connecting their hands and arms to be a bridge between them.

Your arms represent the bridges reaching out from your heart. Isn't this a wonderful imagination?

I once told you that a smile is a bridge. Even some of your letters represent the bridge. For example, take the letter "H". It looks like a bridge between two shorelines. H, like holy or heaven or home or heart.

However, I foresee that there will be a nice person asking – grinning at me: “But Adama, how about the word “hell” or “harm”?”

Dear friend, in this case I would just say that there is a bridge even out of hell and out of harm. And I’m smiling at you with all my heart.

There is a bridge in everything, as you may find hidden love in anything.
You will find your bridge to freedom, to your fellow’s heart and light.
Your main purpose in this year of 2008 will be to be the builders of bridges and to be the bridges.
And you already built so many beautiful bridges,
dear Lemurian architects, and you will build so many more.....
the vibration of Lemuria is back in time and it’s bridges will remain and last,
strong and beautiful and glorious and shining,
in these times of troubled waters.
You’re not alone, we are always with you,
the dear ones who are representing
THE BRIDGES OF HUMANITY.

Hug you very dearly, this is Adama, your friend from long ago.

A song that fits well in is:

* Monjoronson (Mark TR): I am honored to greet you once again. I am Monjoronson, and it is with pleasure that I would return one of your serves and play with the idea of trust.

There has been discussion about this topic before, but it is ever-present in your efforts to negotiate with life, and therefore does this topic lend itself to continual review as to its dimensions, its components, and its aspects. I would point out to begin with that there are both active and passive aspects to this dimension that is referred to as trust. I would call you all to witness in your own lives that you have over many instances acted to embrace those things that you would trust, that is, you have chosen certain facets that are in your estimation trustworthy and invested yourselves in these truths as you determine them to be. After having accepted and embraced these truths of your choosing, you then enter an aspect of trust wherein you relax and let go of any further speculation regarding your issue that is worthy of your trust and simply allow this trust to be, allow this trust to bring to you that which only your trust can bring. This passive component of your trusting enables you to receive your insights and your assurances that that which you have chosen to trust is indeed worthy of such trust.

Having established that certainty, the relaxing into the awareness of trusting then allows you to be open to where you might be led or what you might be granted as a result of your having such trust.

Trust is oftentimes linked very closely to your experience of faith, although trust more often is arrived at through the mental process of acceptance and approval and adopting of that which is acceptable and has met your approval. Faith steps beyond trust and into conviction, and this is where, having satisfied the requirements of mind and provided the assurances of understanding, one may choose to give into that of faith where you relax into your spiritual awareness. This awareness, as part of its composition, brings with it conviction and certainty of the spirit. But oftentimes you must start with your sense of trust and then branch out to your willingness to act in faith.

You all can bear witness to the many things in your material lives that you have grown accustomed to trusting, and you no longer occupy yourselves with whether or not these principles are trustworthy, but rather you accept that they are and build on your awareness that this is so. Faith may offer you the springboard to go beyond what your wisdom may dictate into the realm of negotiating through matters of the spirit that are far less tangible to both the senses and the mind but offer you nevertheless the conviction that they are as real as any experience of the senses that you are convinced of.

Often there is an attitude among the family of humans that in order to believe in any given truth it must be proved to them; it must be shown, and they must see it with their own eyes, as it were. Only when these requirements have been satisfied do you grant your trust to that which is in observation. When you begin to rely on confirmation of a spiritual nature you enter the arena of faith wherein you are going to embrace matters that are far less tangible but recognizable on spiritual planes. In either case, that of trust or of faith, there comes an aspect of passive acceptance and relaxing into what you deem trustworthy or that which you accept on faith. It is when you reach these conditions of acceptance and allowing that you then can be granted that conviction that you so desire in this process of understanding.

So perhaps you might begin to observe yourselves in your various interactions and see what you trust, where you do not trust, what you have faith in, and what you may still lack conviction of. Notice this distinction between the act of engaging in trust and the subsequent act of settling in with this trust, of accepting this condition and being at peace wherein your next level of trust may be found, your next horizon of faith may be observed.

I would conclude my remarks there to allow this forum for others. Thank you once again for this opportunity that I cherish, as do you. Farewell.

* Elyon (Jonathan): This is your trusted friend Elyon. It is my desire to speak about being entrusted.

You have mentioned today the trust of the Father's Presence. You, being the center of will, you being sovereign in volition, run the directions that your life will take with the presence of God inside, alongside. You are not being dragged to Paradise; the way is shown, but you are the one who takes the path.

You know of the parable of the talents and how one can be inclined to squander the opportunity of the leveraging of those talents for greater gain. You have been entrusted by Michael to, not only preach the gospel, but to manifest this all-pervading love of the Father and the interactive love for one another. As you mature you are given greater potentialities for action. Yet while this enlargement of possibilities is a gift, you are the enactors, and it is your responsibility to bring into manifestation those potentials.

Today you have been entrusted with this contact by brothers and sisters you cannot see. While you trust our presence and our teaching you are the ones in possession of those teachings and are the ones who can spread, not just the thoughts of these teachings, but be the manifestation of these teachings. Given this responsibility you are learning a manner of ministry that has far-reaching implications in the ages to come.

There will be centers of training that you will be directing; there will be entire spheres that you will oversee. What you learn today in sensing, accepting, possessing, and manifesting the realms of spirit will be of great value to you in the distant future.

You know from experience the sense of guilt when you have recognized an opportunity to be of service to a fellow and have let that window of opportunity close. While you know that there is forgiveness for error, the gem within that experience is the recognition by yourself of the opportunity to have done so. That is what is acknowledged in you as being trustworthy, even though your actions were not so responsive, for that sensitivity established within you causes you in subsequent situations to respond. You have become trustworthy over time. It is not an instantaneous attainment.

So today we have engaged with you in this Teaching Mission. It is the beginning of your trustworthiness for missions of outreach that you will engage in in universes beyond the one in which you dwell today. We have often said that you are of great significance to this program even while you may see no great manifestation or outworking of this Correcting Time overtly. But it is your seemingly insignificant actions that build the program, and this program of the Correcting Time is only one of a broad spectrum of programs.

To those to whom much has been given, much will be required, but it is only given as you are able, and I do not mean able in full accomplishment, but able to begin to take on that responsibility. We all work for Michael, and it is our honor, each of us, to do so. And he works for each one of us, for he has been entrusted with the Father's program of bringing every creature into His Paradise presence. In the great family of God all rejoice in the success of one another. Assistance is everywhere present, and you will be amply supplied with such assistance at every level of entrustment. Therefore fear not and do be of good cheer.

Kathy: Earlier we were speaking of how our job is to host the angelic forces and let them ... problems I received a message:

* unidentified (Kathy): Angelic forces are with you at any point in your journey on this mortal plane. If you allow their assistance to guide your development you will engage in increasing levels of connection and activity with the other mortals on your world. Be assured that the angelic corps are involved with you daily in your daily activities and work to increase your potentials and growth opportunities. We are pleased to be able to aid your connection with the mind/spirit circuitry of Mother's creation.

Always rely on our help; we can be trusted to have your best interests ... focus.

Mark: I have this phrase in some part of me that says, "As we learn to trust so we are trustworthy". It makes me think that correlation is there. I welcome your comments.

* Elyon (Jonathan): This is Elyon. I will take your serve. You have a game that is played often in courses where self-realization and social awareness is being taught wherein you place your feet toe to toe with another and hold hands and lean backward. I use this imagery to underline your comment that in such action you are trusting and being trustworthy. One does not precede the other necessarily but go hand in hand in mutual dynamic exchange.

Mary: I'd like to express appreciation for Elyon's presentation today that we have a sensitivity to reaching out to someone in our lives when we don't take it. He sees that we recognize that window of opportunity is closed. The perspective of God is noticing that we sensed that opportunity. On the human side we tend to focus on missing it instead of going, "Now I notice that there's an opportunity. Next time I will be more alert". Thank you for that thought.

* Elyon: Much of what we teach to you is from the emphasis of positive, and you have recognized our inclination to address subjects in that way. But I have at times pointed out the value of apparent negative experiences such as doubt, guilt, regret, confusion.

These are very useful experiences when you are oriented toward progress and spiritual upliftment. They can, of course, lead to avoidance and shutting down, and you have extracted my intention well today of looking towards these apparent downsides of experience as stepping stones and building blocks.

Just as one who puts the shot must lift weights day after day to be strong enough for that competitive event, so do these episodes that bring discomfort bring one to be stronger in the end

* Michael: Michael here. Father gave me a universe, Nebadon, and I made many choices on my own of how to arrange this local universe and what forms of life will manifest on the many spheres and in what way the cultures and civilizations that develop will function, all with the goal of the ages of Light and Life. And I continued to apply myself in that manner time beyond your fathom.

Yet it was not until I lived your life that I truly blossomed and became the Michael Son I was created to be. Yes, you look to me as deity - and I am - but my engagement in your level of reality as you was wholly transforming. I say this to emphasize how important even the apparently insignificant actions can be to your spiritual attainment, for who would think that God becoming a human being could have such a transforming effect upon deity? Would it not be, if it was asked, merely a stepping down to a lesser place? No, it is not. It is the upliftment of oneself. It is the meaning behind the phrases I have left with you such as, "He who would be first will be last, and he who is last will be first."

You know in your own physical form, and I have experienced this as well, the transformation of puberty. While this is a physical occurrence, there are such transformations where you are taken to a new level, entirely changed. I have undergone such an unfoldment when I attained sovereignty status. It was a joyful experience, but it was also hard work. Each life I lived was an awakening to me, and, yes, many give me the credit for leaving with them wonderful examples of how to live and teachings to live by. But the gifts given to me through these experiences are inexpressible how beneficial they have been.

You have in your short earthly life begun to appreciate the transformations that you have gone through. More lie ahead, my children. Trust yourselves, for you will be given great opportunities. My peace I leave with you.

Allow Me to Speak for You, A Catch 22 Situation & The Universe is Calling to You

By Christ Michael and Nebadonia

Feb 13, 2008

Oakland, California, US of A, February 10, 2008.

Divine Father (Christ Michael).

Subject: "Allow Me To Speak For You."

Received by Donna D'Ingillo.

Divine Father: "My children, your Father Michael greets you. I call you into the sacred service of helping your brothers and sisters into their divine inheritance. While you are not responsible for their awakening, I encourage you to help them grow into a new self-awareness with your loving compassion of their status. Love your brothers and sisters exactly where they are, knowing that they, too, are on their journey. Perhaps they are not as far along on it as you are; nevertheless, they are seeking and they are on their own path.

"One of the most challenging aspects about service is to meet the individuals whom you wish to serve where he and she are. You do not have to be concerned about the words you speak. Allow Me to speak for you. Sit in your heart center and hold the intention and desire for My words to resonate into their soul. The more you can focus on this, the more you let go and allow Me to guide the person before you. In this manner, you allow the pressure you may place upon yourself to be of service to be released, freeing My words to echo in their hearts.

"Following this example, service becomes easier and more inspired. You learn more how to connect with Me and through your Mother. You learn how to listen with your heart to another person's journey, validating them. You provide a safe space for them to trust you as you focus on their needs. You feel the energy moving as it connects you together; you forge a real bond. Its effects in your body are pleasurable and healing.

"My children, if you only could feel a measurement of the good you do when you allow yourselves to be available for service, you would be serving all day long! Become more mindful of the opportunities before you. Open your hearts with the desire to be of service to Me, to your Mother, and to the universe, and allow us to surprise you with new brothers and sisters to love! "

Christ Michael.

Subject: "A Catch-Twenty-Two Situation."

Received by George Barnard.

Michael: “I exhort you to be positive at all times. I would like for you to have that trust at all times. I desire for you to have faith in that your words will always be Mine. This is your Father/Brother Michael. We will converse about what is often referred to as a Catch-Twenty-Two Situation.

“You live your mortal life with the objective of moving away from the more animalistic side of the human being into a more ethical, a more spiritual, and a more moral and beautiful plane. To achieve this in your mortal life, in that relatively short mortal existence on one of My planets, can be a very tough, a very difficult task, with many barriers to break down, many tall hurdles to scale. Your mortal life is the most opportune prime-growth period of an existence into eternity.

“And yet, your mortal life with a beginning and an end is but one minute stepping stone towards a life that carries on forever and ever, which in itself is beyond your ability to fully comprehend. In many ways, on many occasions, and rather consistently throughout your earth life, you are confronted with what is the right thing to do, against what is the wrong thing to do, and every so often you find yourself in a Catch-Twenty-Two Situation.

“It is then that you must have the fullest confidence in deciding which is the lesser of two ‘evils,’ the least painful for self and others, the most advantageous for your spiritual welfare. For many of you it can mean the breaking off of a relationship, moving away to another place, indeed, even the undoing of the marriage vows you once made. There is the necessity to decide what it is that will progress you and others, opposite what it is that will set you all back. And you agonize, but you must decide on which will be the lesser of the two temporary tribulations. Once having decided, do not look back, but move forward, allowing yourself to progress.

“By virtue of His residing in time-space, even a Paradise Creator Son can find Himself confronted by a Catch-Twenty-Two Situation when there is no win/win, no win/lose, but only a lose/lose outcome. There were myriad minor, and three such major situations, yet only one that you are familiar with -- the Lucifer rebellion. Trust that in the instance of a rebellion your Paradise Creator Son is guided also. His personality will come into it, certainly, but at the same time, at some place you do not now understand, you cannot now comprehend there is the knowledge of the future, of all futures, and I was, as many before Me in other local universes, guided to make the right decision.

“Results reveal this as having been the right decision. For every individual, for every created child from former rebellious worlds, there are real tears wept when they, quite by themselves, decide to ‘go another way’ -- to create for themselves a dead-end road that ends in oblivion.

“There are from the normal worlds not a lesser number of those who decide not to carry on. There is, however, an enormous gain in the powerfully determined individuals that come from worlds such as yours, who have become and will continue to become the towers of strength of the new universes now forming.

“Again, My dear children, mark My words here: There are as many failures from normal worlds as there are from the former rebellious ones. But you, and you, and you, each individually, have the opportunity to rise to great heights of achievement, of receiving the well-earned respect of your elders, your Teachers, your siblings, and those who come after you.

“We conclude herewith our discourse on the subject that troubles many a mind. Take My loving care, and take My warmth and light, and share this with all you meet in this life. I am Michael.”

George: “Thank you Michael.”

Divine Mother: "Beloved child, the universe is calling you! This is your Mother Nebadonia, and I welcome you into the greater reality of My home—the universe of Nebadon. This starry cluster of numerous worlds, inhabited with many children, is a wondrous place that you will one day explore to the fullest of your curiosity. While you live on a physical world within a solar system, you really are a child of the universe having your being in your Divine Father and Me. I invite you to open your mind to consider what being a universal citizen means.

"Sit with this thought, My child, and allow Me to move in you.

"I will expand your ability to conceptualize the universe view of reality. I will fill you with the love that fuels its existence. I will spur you on to adventure; it's out there waiting for you to explore. So much of your self is as yet unrealized. The universe is the place where this will come to its fullest blossoming.

"You start the journey here on this world by spending time with Me, quietly each day. Ask Me to grow you in My womb of safety and light. Nestle here as I build you in the substance of the universe ... the primal source vibration of Love."

Recieve My Heaing Touch, With Greater Awareness and Trust, & The Close of the Age of the Agondonter

Divine Father (Christ Michael).

Subject: “Receive My Healing Touch.”

Received by Donna D’Ingillo.

Divine Father: “My child, this is your Father Michael. I speak these words into your heart. Open yourself to Me so that this healing language may soften your unconscious mind to My love. Your body contains much that need My caress, and in opening to Me, you will receive My healing touch.

“Receive these words: The power of Love washes through your body, embracing those places in your being where you still feel unloved or unlovely. Invite your body to open to Love and sit with Me and your Mother for a few moments while this moves through you. Relax and trust that a mighty force is moving through you now. Breathe and relax as this moves in you, creating new places for My truth and goodness to be infused in you.

“My beloved, as you increasingly become filled with this mighty force, know that you are slowly changing from the inside out. It is entirely safe to open to Me and to receive what I wish to share with you. Stay in this receptive place for as long as you need to, and return here again when you need another strong influx of Love. It will always be given when you ask.

“The time of healing is upon your planet. Make time each day for yourself to be healed and made whole through My healing touch. The simple intention to receive Love will provide you with what you need, yet you must open the portal of Love through your desire. I respond immediately through the breath of Mother. Call on us. We are here for you!”

My presence is subtle but powerful. The vibrations of My love echo in your heart. As you focus on feeling your heart beating in your chest, allow yourself to feel its pulsations. Know that it is My presence in you that keeps this vital organ moving rhythmically with My breath of life.

“Your time on this world is so short in comparison to the long adventure of universe exploration and discovery awaiting you, yet in becoming aware of My presence on the earth plane, you embark on the long faith-led journey to your divine destination with greater awareness and trust. It is My desire that you feel this connection to Me to help you make those decisions that foster your happiness, fulfillment and creativity. Sit with Me now, child, and feel your Mother’s loving touch through the beating of your heart.

“Even though My presence may feel slight, or even as yet undetectable to you, I am there. Spending time each day focusing on your heart beating will help the spiritual energy I pour into you become stronger. It builds you in what you need to live a meaningful and purposeful life. Monjoronson.

Subject: “The Close of the Age of the Agondonter.”

Received by George Barnard.

Monjoronson: “We have spoken before. I am a reality, and in these days I have become a little more of a physical reality than what I was considered to be in the past. I presently still reside in higher spheres, however, I shall be with you when that all-important window of opportunity presents itself. This is Monjoronson.

“I was long ago aware of the 11:11 group’s efforts. There are many pages that have since been added to the available record I initially took in about the group’s endeavors, about it as a growing community, and, yes, there will be those amongst you that I will surely meet up with in the flesh. All required information about you and your many friends is at any time available to me.

“There is at this point in time -- as there was with Machiventa Melchizedek, and as there was with your Savior Christ Michael -- a Thought Adjuster of extraordinary experience that will remain with me, that will guide me, that will assist me. It is more important for Magisterial Missions to be successful, even if they go at the ‘cost’ of the Magisterial Son himself making lesser decisions than would be the case if he were a local universe Creator Son living a life from birth to ascension, indeed, as a child of the realm until His task were completed.

“I shall be with you as a fully matured individual, for decades and decades. You will see me many times rejuvenated. It is then, in various places, and as the news of my presence spreads, that the time of the Agondonter (those who believe without seeing) will slowly come to a close, and this sphere will then become a more normal world.

“The kind of mind available to me as a Paradise Citizen will not be there as a human being. However, rest assured I will be far above genius level intellect. Trust in that I will make the right decisions and teach according to the capacity to be understood, for I shall be guided all the way. It may yet be some years before I arrive in your midsts. Many of you will sense it, you will feel it, and you will know that something has changed for the better.

“One by one you will discover that Paradise has its representatives among you; my entourage and myself. I thank you my dear friends for taking in my message. Know you are appreciated. Carry on. This is Monjoronson. I send my love to all who will hear my words.”

George: “Thank you for answering all our remaining questions.”

Ascension and Physical Symptoms

By Sehaji Master Lady Kata Daki: thru Dhyana Markley

Feb 14, 2008

I am Kata Daki and today I would like to speak to you about the word "Ascension".

I realize that all of you reading this are on a quest for continued ascension but what this means to one person may not be what it means to another. So, I would like to share with you my understanding of what ascension is and what it means to me.

To ascend means to rise up. In the spiritual realms this is taken to mean a raising up of ones personal vibrations to such an extent that a shift is made in the conscious understanding of life as you are experiencing it. In other words, ideas and concepts that you were previously unable to indoctrinate into your life, now become desirable because you can more fully understand the effect those new ideas or concepts might have in bettering your life.

Every Souled being will continue to ascend, to grow and learn forever. There will ALWAYS be a next step.

As one ascends from any lower vibration, your life may become a bit unsettled for the short term, while you are getting use to the new way of living your life. However, with time, everyone soon relaxes into this new lifestyle and becomes more quiet, more balanced, more confident in their own knowingness and less effected by the chaos (slight or great) of the vibratory level that they just left behind.

Along with the obvious life changes, often come physical changes. Stress is reduced the higher one goes in vibration and more peace and joy is found in the simple things of life. The quest for more and better is reduced and happiness can be found in the smile of a loved one, watching your children or animals at play, or even the uplifting music of some of the classic composers like Chopin or Beethoven.

Lower vibrating sounds become a turn off, a distraction that abruptly pulls you from the higher realms and causes you to flare with anger... until you can consciously bring yourself back into balance again. It will become obvious to you that loud, lower vibrating sounds are truly damaging to your consciousness. It also distracts you from "listening within" to the voices and music you will find there and even your own thoughts.

Have you ever noticed on television when the stations put on a commercial they turn up the volume? They say this is so you can hear it when you go to the kitchen to get one of their products, but this is not truly the reason. The true reason is that they want to FORCE the ideas and products of their advertisers into your mind so that you will be FORCED to consider their products and what they wish you to do... which is to buy their product at the first opportunity to do so.

This is all extremely low vibrating attempts to control you. As you ascend in vibrations, you will more easily be able to spot such manipulations and to mute the remote or turn down the volume until you are once again ready to view your chosen program.

Advertisers also know that they are creating stress in you when they cause you to feel too fat, too old, too ugly or to feel any way other than good about yourself. It is your choice to fall for their ploy or not. Stress creates illness and illness appears to need drugs which is then provided by the controllers or manipulators of men.

Ascension also brings with it physical symptoms that may or may not be considered a sickness or problem. Just as when a child is growing from a small body into a larger one s/he needs more sleep so that all can remain in balance during these great changes, so does an individual who is in ascension need more sleep so their bodies can adjust more easily.

As your vibratory rates gets higher, goes faster, certain bacteria and viruses that once found a fertile feeding ground in you, will find that they have to fight for their lives to remain a part of you. Each living thing has what is called a Mortality Oscillation Rate. In other words, a vibrational rate that will kill them if it is reached in their environment.

No one wants to die, even bacteria, so will fight desperately to remain alive as long as they can. So, you will find that your job is to continually clean and clear your body of any poisons, negativity, disease or such that you can. This includes poisonous and negative thoughts, words and actions. For these will create an environment which invites other negative experiences.

Much cleaning and clearing can be done by visualization techniques that you can create for yourself, which will pull darkness from your various bodies that is no longer useful or able to teach you anything.

The easiest technique that comes to mind is called the Comb Technique.

THE COMB TECHNIQUE

With this technique all you have to do is image a big comb over your head and pulling it down through your body, actually all of your bodies, until your comb has pulled out any darkness or negativity from your bodies, that is no longer helpful in your ascension.

Once you have pulled the dark dross out from beneath your feet, roll it up into a ball and laser it with your eyes or a space cadet's laser gun, until it dissolves back into nothingness and joins the All That Is. Or, you could toss the ball into the Ocean of Love and Mercy, or give it to Creator God or burn it in the Sacred Violet Flame of Transmutation. You get the idea.

Each time you do this technique, make the teeth of the comb closer together and KNOW and INTEND that this cleaning and clearing is being done upon each and everyone of your Light bodies.

It is equally important for you to make an effort to live your life in a more balanced, benevolent and harmonious way. For, as you ascend, these qualities will become more and more desirable.

With ascension also comes responsibility. Now I am not saying this to scare those of you who flee from responsibility. The type of responsibility I am talking about will come easily from your heart, from your desire to share the love, joy and peace that you have found, to serve the greater good of All That Is and to continue to find more ways to serve and learn as your travel the higher vibrating highways and byways of life everlasting.

Now ascension for many is recognized as "Initiations". Within the Mystery Schools there are recognized patterns or traits that a chela or student will display when they are nearing an evolutionary leap or ascent or when they have entered into a new level of understanding.

Initiations are a very difficult thing to recognize in another person and best left to those Masters who are able to function in full consciousness in all relevant realms.

It does not matter what your initiation is.
You can be compared to no one else.
You are unique and so is everyone else.

Some of you have traveled the sacred paths before and for others, this is the first time.

PLEASE DO NOT TRY TO COMPARE YOURSELF WITH ANYONE ELSE.
ALL THAT WILL BRING YOU IS HEARTACHE.

There will ALWAYS be someone who is ahead of you on the path and someone who is behind you.

Do not worry at the physical changes you are going through. Your bodies are being recreated and your DNA greatly improved. The sharp pains you feel that soon go away, well, just think of them as needle pricks from the medical personnel in the higher realms who are helping your body to change in the easiest, most beneficial way.

Many of you have also had new chakras activated... the Seat of the Soul Chakra in the Medulla Oblongata area of the brain at the back of your head (which has greatly affected your nervous system); the new chakra on your back which is opposite your new Universal Heart Chakra (which is located a bit above where the old Heart Chakra was); and the new chakra on your back opposite your Solar Plexus Chakra.

While the chakras in the front of the body spin in a clockwise direction, the ones on your back spin counter clockwise. These new chakras meet up with their mate in the center of the body. You may think of one as a Male energy and the other as a Female energy and now fully activated in most of you.

Has your head been itching like crazy?
Has the high-middle of your back been itching like crazy?
Has your back just above your waist about 4 to 6 inches been itching?
Well, this is just your reaction to those chakras being activated.

Your Pituitary and Pineal Glands have also been more activated, as has your Thymus Gland behind your Sternum. Don't be surprised if your hat size increases a bit.

In other words, a LOT of things are going on in your body that are perfectly normal to an ascending human, so it is NOT necessary to go to the doctor and get drugged up just because you are experiencing a few shakes, ear ringings, phantom pains and the like.

Now I am NOT saying that you should stop medication that is working for you, that does not worsen your condition. I am just saying that it is time to be conscious of your body and what is going on and to take responsible steps to make it healthier, whether this means enemas, drinking more water, colloidal liquid vitamins and minerals, eating more fresh fruits and vegetables, walking more or even taking more baths.

Keep your body as clean and clear as you can from caffeine, artificial sugars especially, any genetically modified foods, any animals given steroids or growth hormones, over indulgence in alcohol... well, you get the idea.

Think of your body as your Temple and keep it clean and the trash picked up, especially the useless trash in your mind.

Well, I guess I've given you enough to think about for awhile.

I am Kata Daki and I thank you for sharing your time with me this day.

This may be shared freely as long as it remains in its entirety and proper credit is given. Thank you.

Candace: I would like to add a small comment here. I have all these chakras open front and back, and I like to open up my crown chakra and draw what I like to label "Christ Light" down my back along my spine, and then bring it up through the front chakras and then send it out my arms and into my aura. When I was first teaching myself this, I would imagine a cheerful sun above my head. I call this "running energy" and it is invigorating and stimulates the chakras to rotate, you can feel them rotating.

If you are having a "stuck" day, they may be "stuck" also, and then just relax and breathe deeply and they will "loosen up." When I have a good flow going, I like to send some of this energy down into Mother Earth and bring some of Mother's earth's energy back up through my legs and blend it into the energy already "running." This can be learned with a little practice, and it can work better than a cup of coffee to providing energy. Really good to do if you are a sluggish riser in the morning. Do it off and on all day when you have quiet moments, and it's a great way to calm yourself in a short time when you have uncomfortable moments and can get away from the situation for a few minutes. It is really pleasant feeling.

Do this when you are standing in a long line with grumpy people, and extend your aura out a bit (done mentally), and you will find the others relaxing. Can work really well with a grumpy sales clerk, along with your smile to change the 'atmosphere'.

Soul Maturation & Journaling

By Samuel of Panoptia thru George Bernard

Feb 16, 2008

Illawarra District, Australia, January 23, 2008.

Samuel of Panoptia.

Subject: "Soul Maturation."

Received by George Barnard.

Samuel: "This is your Teacher Samuel. As promised you, we will have discourse about soul growth. Firstly, let me explain that when the system-wide rebellion affected so many planets, my home planet, Panoptia, was in a much better position than was yours to 'weather the storm,' so to speak.

"There was a civilian government that functioned well -- a planet-wide government -- and until that time of betrayal, there was an overarching Celestial Government that, likewise, had done a tremendous job in assisting the mortal inhabitants to become spiritized. The (Lucifer) rebellion stopped all this, but in a sense, it did a great favor to the mortals, who united even more strongly.

"My life was much different to that of your average citizen. We were well educated in the sense that we had an acute awareness of that Guiding Light within us, that Pilot Light; that Fragment of the Creator Father; the Thought Adjuster allocated, One to each of us, and addressed as He or She depending on the mortal's gender. Compared to my world, it is here that most believe they merely have a soul. This is regularly referred to in many of your many sayings like; 'someone who has soul,' or something that 'fires the soul.'

"In every way the spiritual aspect is here much less understood. It is vague, at best, in the sense that it is seen as, perhaps, an essence, or a power, but not clearly understood as an Adjuster of Thoughts that indwells the mortal as a most vital Component that carries the promise of eternal life as the main Generator of growth of the individual's soul. I prefer the term 'maturation' of the individual's soul.

"So scant is your awareness of the Father's Great Gift within you!

"You will concern yourself about advancing spiritually, or regressing spiritually, as if that responsibility was left to you, and to you alone. My suggestion is that there would be no great spiritual forward strides if you were to rob a bank, for instance, if you were to seriously misbehave, if you were to create severe difficulties for others around you. However, in the hardships that may come your way, in the great obstacles you may encounter, there would normally be no regression, no serious 'hold-back' in your spiritual development.

"This tendency for you to believe that, in soul maturation, you are quite alone is based on fear and incorrect, for no matter the difficulties you need to overcome, both your struggling mind, but foremost your Thought Adjuster, are working on your spiritual growth; your soul maturation.

Again, it is incorrect to view your present difficulties, your present hardships, and equate that with the lack of soul maturation.

"Not at any time can you determine to what degree you are progressing or regressing. This will always be unknown to you, and can only become clear in retrospect. Do always give credit to the Fragment of the Father Creator that dwells within you for working together with you on spiritual progress.

“This is Samuel of Panoptia, and I do believe that at this point I have kept to my word that you and I, my dear student, have answered a question that is so often asked, and have now brought this communication to a satisfactory conclusion. I thank you both for your time, your concentration, your efforts. Au revoir.”

George: “Thank you, Teach.”

Candace: Although some of the Celestia staff entered in the Lucifer Rellion on Panoptia including I believe their Planetary Prince, the people of this fairly advanced planet did not, and the civilian leadership stood up and did the right thing. You can go to www.urantia.org and enter Panoptia into the search engine to draw up the relevant reading.

A comment to both new age readers and religious readers to come, just because life seems hard, doesn't mean it is a punishment from a wrathful God. Many in these "ending times of the old" have taken on a difficult journey for the intense learning to be had. As your soul becomes "heavy" with learning you are able to handle more tasks in a lifetime. I myself have had to listened to people who tell me that because I developed Multiple Sclerosis that I was being punished by God. While there is karma on a planet of this type, and some are having the opposite learning experience, a tough life is NOT a sign of displeasure with God. Not even "karma" means God is displeased.

As you consciously handle your tough life with lighted response you experience great soul growth. Every single experience can be studied, journaled if you like, and made positive and learned from. That is the point of "conscious living." An example of possible karma, that I remember Esu handling in a response through me to an email, is that there was a delightful little girl born, minus about 1/2 her arm. Esu responded that this could be an example of "karma", as the rest of the child's body was completely normal.

He told the grandmother who had written about it, that in all likelihood this child had made some poor error in judgment in a previous life and deprived someone of their arm, and so she was to live this life minus her arm. But this not punishment by a wrathful God, this is simply allowing one to experience what it is like to not have an arm. And he also said it was possible that the child chose this condition to teach others around here. It matters not really, as the learning takes place as intended.

And people, there are advanced souls taking incarnations by intent into disabled bodies, so that they can do great work on this planet in showing the needs of the disabled person. One is not usually able to tell the motive behind the condition and that is why the soul is not judged. You might like to review my post of the film Emmanuel's Gift (http://abundanthope.net/pages/article_284.shtml). This is an example of an very advanced soul (thus the mother's name for her child) who incarnated by intent with a withered leg and then showed the world a marvelous lesson and greatly improved the lot of the many disabled in his country of Ghana. Judge not the soul.

Samuel of Panoptia.

Subject: "Journaling."

Received by George Barnard.

Samuel: "The subject of today has been covered before, and quite recently. However, this is rather an important one, and we do not mind repeating lessons of the past, especially if little notice has been taken of the earlier suggestions. This is your Teacher Samuel.

"The lesson for you today has, as always, been approved by Machiventa Melchizedek. It is for your dear friend, Midwayer Chief ABC-22 to facilitate after having so unceremoniously awoken you from your slumber (see note), and it is for me to once more bring you this lesson on documentation, yes, journaling.

"There are as many paths that can lead you back home to the Creator of All as there are individuals that journey there. There are many ways to become a more spiritual being in your all-important earth life, and there are a great number of methods whereby you can boost your essential progress. One of these is to simply, willfully, become a dedicated servant to others. One of these is to serve in becoming a teacher to others. And it is regarding the latter that we point out once more that there is meditation, there is the practice of stilling the mind, and there are methods of visualization.

"The much more common way is for one to detail one's daily happenings and observations, one's feelings, and to also document one's prayers to the Creator of All, to eventually receive His acknowledging answers, thus bringing His subjects into closer association with their Fragments of God to receive the lessons that are so very much needed on your world.

"If you have long thought of keeping a journal, then do remember to go out and buy the bound blank pages that will slowly transform your existence as you jot down your thoughts, your ideas, your request and prayers, on each day.

"Many of you are 'living in your pasts' with blurred, inaccurate references that are of little or no use. Diligent journaling will help you to 'gracefully live in the now,' adequately learn from your pasts, and profitably plan your futures. This is Samuel of Panoptia. I pass on the love of myriad Guardians to all."

George: "Thank you Samuel."
