Candace on Religion Part # 2

INTRODUCTION

by Candace Frieze

November 21, 2005

This section is written for those who have had any experience with Christianity, Judaism, or Islam. In particular, it is for clerics. These three major religions, based originally on Abraham, are the creations of those in power on the planet, to divide people. Each believing in one of these faiths, tends to believe the others are fallacies, and at times even call the others, infidels.

Witness what is happening in our post 911 world, in which Jews, Christians, and Muslims have been set against one another, in greater ferocity. Jews and Muslims are at each other's throats in the "Holy Land." Christians are encouraged to support the Jews in keeping the Holy Land from Islam. It is believed that "God" gave the Holy Lands to the Jewish peoples. Islam defends their right to be there also. The Islamic Dome of the Rock is a point of contention.

911 was an artificially created event, to gain the support of the American people behind the conquest of the oil and resources of the Arab peoples. By making it appear this was an attack by Islamic extremists, Christians were encouraged to set themselves once again separate from Islam. I have talked to many Christians, who consider themselves people of God, who continue to support the war in Iraq, not because of the Weapons of Mass Destruction, but rather they see Islam, and the Muslim people, as being less than human, and not of God.

What has concerned me since I was a small child, is the idea that everyone considers their Holy Book, or belief system as the best one, and anybody else's as less, and incorrect. Everybody thinks the other guy is the infidel, and most people do not see themselves doing this. It is way past time to wake up to this simple concept, that each considers the other the infidel. Islam considers Christians as infidels, and Christians consider Muslims the infidels.

Our BBB &G's (Big, Bad, Boy's and Girls) have divided us well from each other, through the use of organized religion. Religion is not the only tool of what we call the matrix, the prison created not with guns, but by belief systems, where separation is defended by the participants of these systems. Belief systems are not limited to religion. They exist in our many communities we engage in, in everyday life. These include our social clubs, our work, our schools, and our families.

God is about love, caring, unity, and the giving of service to others. God never does install belief systems, man who desires control and power does that. Earth is an outstanding example of just about everything that can go wrong with a planet, both in the behavior of its peoples, and in the abuse to the planet itself. In joining a belief system, you essentially lock yourself up and throw away the keys.

Organized religion is an expensive belief system. A large hierarchy, which is nothing more than a business activity, is supported by tithing. In a well run business, there is a great product produced, but in general organized religion does not produce a great product.

The product religion should produce is critical thought, and spirituality. The ability to think beyond the needs of simple living belongs to mankind. The ability to solve problems of a higher level belongs to mankind. And yet I see mind not only wasted and unused, but also discouraged.

In most religions, it is taught and expected that the cleric does the thinking, if thinking is done, for the people in the congregation. That the cleric is between man and God is what is taught and believed, and nothing could be further from the truth. Each human is part of the mind of God, and needs no one to intercede on his/her behalf.

Religion should be about the growth of human potential. Instead, humans are dumbed down, not lifted up. This section will examine many incorrect beliefs held, and may point out where appropriate those beliefs that are confining rather than liberating. God does not confine people; God liberates, in a loving manner.

Some of the beliefs are misunderstandings, others out and out fraud perpetuated on the religious community. Each organization often has the same beliefs as the others, just colored in different colors. I have attended nearly identical churches, in the evangelical domain, in which the pastor will tell his congregation that they are better than the church down the street. Yet, I have attended both, and see no difference.

Many pastors are in the business of preaching because it provides a very good living. They could care less about their congregations. These are often very charismatic people, knowing well the fine art of manipulation. Behind your back, they laugh all the way to the bank.

It is an easy living in general for these types, and there is indeed a great search on the planet now by people seeking something higher in their life. So these types take advantage, and have people who idealize them as a bonus to the money. I am sorry to point this out to those of you who do care, but you do have to admit you see this going on.

For those pastors reading this that genuinely care for your congregations, I have met some of you throughout my life. I actually joined the Catholic Church when I was 18, because a Catholic priest near my university was a fine example of what a pastor is all about. He understood college students and their challenges, and was a fine advisor.

The amazing thing I remember about this man was that he never said to read my Bible to find the solutions to life. He realized the solutions to spirituality came from the living of life itself. I did not own a Bible at that time. Yes, he followed his church rules about conducting Mass, but there it ended. When I left that university, to attend a Catholic nursing school, I woke up to the real world of Catholicism and left. I experienced much pain of the matrix in that school, and in the medical world for that matter also.

Over the years I have experienced many “chosen people” who have attempted to persuade me to their point of view. Here in is a major fallacy, that God chooses people. No people, you chose God, God does not choose you. In the choosing of God, you chose yourself. You chose to become more like God, which is the will of God. In this concept, organized religion fails miserably.

Our Master Creator Son

By Candace and the Urantia Book

18 Aug 11, 2009

Hi everyone, this is a teaching I spent a lot of time on yesterday on my Ask Candace thread on GLP. I don't know if it got noticed for not, for the shells there who have taken it over. I wanted it saved, so here it is. A reader going by "Orange" posted some material for explanation and reading. I had decided before I went to bed the night before I would work on it and another topic during the day. I barely skimmed it before bed, but apparently I was doing some planning while I slept, because this is one of those "it just flows" periods. I preplanned none of this, just allowed it.

I hope some of you will find it useful, now, or new readers in the future. Many of you are already familiar with this stuff. There are 3 posts here from GLP. The first is a response to something obviously from the Urantia Book, but I don't know where.

The 2nd two are my responses to section 5, page 240-241, Paper 21, of the Urantia Book. The paper is titled Paradise Creator Sons, and this material with my teaching is very relevant right now. The UB material is in indigo. Mine in black. I am leaving this exactly as I took it off the forum.

<http://www.godlikeproductions.com/forum1/message855565/pg1> These above are on page 6, and 7. www.urantia.org for the material taken from it.

Nothing can take precedence over the work of your status sphere--this world or the next. Very important is the work of preparation for the next higher sphere, but nothing equals the importance of the work of the world in which you are actually living.

God blessings.

Quoting: Orange

Ok up and back to work. OK, I will give time initially this day to the posts by Orange, then move on. This above, by the sound of it, and knowing Orange a little bit, is likely from the Urantia Book. While Orange did not ask a question, he made a post to cause some pondering, and pondering is most holy indeed. You don't move up until your pondering improves.

It says in the bible, and probably most other religious books, AND the UB, that man has responsibility for the planet on which he lives. And that includes also the architectural spheres (custom built planets) of "heaven."

It is important to always being working on your personal growth that will allow you to move upward to the next higher sphere. But it is of even greater importance to NOT DESTROY the current one, regards the evolutionary spheres.

Man has once again, on planet Earth (Urantia, Shan) just about destroyed his world, and it takes COLLECTIVE actions/inactions to do this.

God did not give your souls wonderful places to experience and grow, only to watch these places destroyed. The implanting of life on a planet is a long and difficult job, and when man is destructive, he harms not only himself and his home, but everybody else and every life form on his home.

We currently have acidic oceans in which the life that generated oxygen and food etc, is being destroyed. This interferes also with the upward journey on spirit in the ocean plants and animals, which support life above them.

Each man, before he can move to higher places to live, has to learn to cooperate with each other in awareness to keep his current home safe and secure as the highest person on the food chain, so that others, all others, plants and animals can also have opportunity to progress.

We currently on this planet do not have people interested, and a LOT of them, in keeping this world healthy and in balance for all that occupy it. Therefore the concept of ONENESS is not present in many. And they will not be moving to higher stations in their ascent, until they do begin to understand and participate in the forward sustenance of this sphere they will not be moving forward, but backward or laterally during the cleanse. Your world comes first, and then you can figure out your personal soul growth in service to your world, which is your current "mother."

Man has to first work locally, while becoming aware globally. We now have global awareness because of communications, but many are not aware of the effects of their actions on the whole of the globe. What you have done to the least you do also to the whole. I see only smatterings of true local involvement, it is growing, but a day late and a dime short.

Man doesn't seem to get that the air he pollutes spreads around the globe harming all life in its way. And this starts even with cigarette smoking and burning the meat on the barbecue. The use of drugs causes problems in societies long distant that are forced to produce drugs to have money. He doesn't even realize what he sends down his drains goes into the water supply the rest of the world relies on. There is little concern still for planet earth and all that inhabit here. So personal soul growth on these lower worlds must include concern for the whole.

And the actions of hatred and love affect the genetic mind of the planet. And that is what is behind the desire of Mother Earth to cleanse. The pollution of hate.

Hi everyone, this is Orange's post from Page 5. in Blue. He posted a small quote and I asked him to provide a bit more. This is from the Urantia Book, and is highly relevant to now, and we have covered some of the concepts between Me and Jess on my site. The UB can be a bit difficult to read, so many new concepts, expressed as best as possible in the English language of the mid 1930's.

Rather than use the quote feature, I placed it in color, so it is easier for me to explain throughout the post. This is from page 240-241, Paper 21, about the Paradise Creator Sons. Christ Michael IS a Paradise Creator Son. He is Father God of our universe, and he did visit very personally 2000 years ago.

This is going to be likely a rather long post and I will be placing it also on my website. This below is not the entire section #5 of that paper. I think here I will do another post with the rest of section 5. I don't know how much can be posted in a post here, there is size limits on most forums. OK, Leaving a bit, be back, may work on section 5 over the next couple hours or so in parts.

ALSO, AFTER I AM DONE WITH THIS, I WILL WORK ON THE TOPIC OF ASCENSION SYNDROME. ONE PROJECT AT A TIME. Ok, here we go.

And my idea of using two different colors to provide answers within the UB material did NOT work. So I scrubbed it and will do the teaching after the quote.

Here: 5. RELATION OF MASTER SONS TO THE UNIVERSE

The power of a Master Michael is unlimited because derived from experienced association with the Paradise Trinity, is unquestioned because derived from actual experience as the very creatures subject to such authority. The nature of the sovereignty of a sevenfold Creator Son is supreme because it:

1. Embraces the sevenfold viewpoint of Paradise Deity.
2. Embodies a sevenfold attitude of time-space creatures.
3. Perfectly synthesizes Paradise attitude and creature viewpoint.

This experiential sovereignty is thus all-inclusive of the divinity of God the Sevenfold culminating in the Supreme Being. And the personal sovereignty of a sevenfold Son is like the future sovereignty of the sometime-to-be-completed Supreme Being, embracing as it does the fullest possible content of the power and authority of the Paradise Trinity manifestable within the time-space limits concerned.

With the achievement of supreme local universe sovereignty, there passes from a Michael Son the power and opportunity to create entirely new types of creature beings during the present universe age. But a Master Son's loss of power to originate entirely new orders of beings in no way interferes with the work of life elaboration already established and in process of unfoldment; this vast program of universe evolution goes on without interruption or curtailment. The acquirement of supreme sovereignty by a Master Son implies the responsibility of personal devotion to the fostering and the administering of that which has already been designed and created, and of that which will subsequently be produced by those who have been thus designed and created. In time there may develop an almost endless evolution of diverse beings, but no entirely new pattern or type of intelligent creature will henceforth take direct origin from a Master Son. This is the first step, the beginning, of a settled administration in any local universe.

The elevation of a sevenfold bestowal Son to the unquestioned sovereignty of his universe means the beginning of the end of a long uncertainty and relative confusion. Subsequent to this event, that which cannot be sometime spiritualized will eventually be disorganized; that which cannot be sometime co-ordinated with cosmic reality will eventually be destroyed. When the provisions of endless mercy and nameless patience have been exhausted in an effort to win the loyalty and devotion of the will creatures of the realms, justice and righteousness will prevail. That which mercy cannot rehabilitate justice will eventually annihilate.

Thank you.

Orange.

Ok, live and learn. Which is exactly what we are supposed to be doing! As do the Creator Sons, they also live and learn, no entity that wishes to be eternal can avoid learning! It is of God. Which brings me now to the above topic, and so let's first define for newbies, what is the Master Son and the relationship to HIS universe.

The Master Son is a Creator Son, who set about creating a new universe and populating it with created entities in his service (angels), and also creating new souls from the evolutionary process which will develop into Sons of the Father themselves in due time (Humans), who as part of his experiential learning, must become AS 7 different entities in his realm. 6 of those experiences are as various angelic entities, and #7 must be as a man.

The Creator Son is from Paradise, created by the Universal Father and the Eternal Son. He has his initial learnings and experience there. Then when it is noticed by scientists from high realms, that there are space conditions suitable to become new material creations, high beings initiate these conditions into material nebulas that become a new universe. The main nebula of our universe, the Andromeda Nebula was initiated roughly 875 billion years ago, after the discovery of conditions almost 1 trillion years ago. You can read this story of the history of our universe in Paper 57 of the Urantia Book.

So at some point a Creator Son will select a new creation as his personal project, and our Creator Son chose this creation as his future playground around 400 billion years ago, and construction of the architectural headquarters spheres was begun. Our Michael, (what the Creator Sons are called simplified in English), moved in with his staff about 300 billion years ago. (and it is thought the whole creation is only 20 billion years old by earth scientists!)

The original plans projected 700,000 universes, and there will be MANY more, creation never stops. Our universe is called Nebadon, and is #611,121.

OK, so the Creator Son comes and begins overseeing the construction of the necessary headquarters and the like and begins with Mother God (we shall cover this later, but she is a daughter of the Infinite Spirit, bringing the 3rd person of the Trinity to a new universe), to create the necessary staff he needs for his creation. WE shall simply call these ones angels for the time being, but there are many different types of entities created to serve.

After a long time has passed and the new universe is steaming along, the Creator Son must experience AS various entities of his universe. These are bestowals, and he is required to experience 7 of his choosing, but the final one is always as a MAN. The others are of the angelic beings. So, 2000 years ago, he had his seventh bestowal, here on our planet as Jesus. You can read about the 7 bestowals in Paper 119 of the UB.

Once he has completed the 7th bestowal, he becomes a MASTER SON. Prior to that time, he is supervised. When he is done with his bestowal, in the likeness of a human, he returns to the Central Universe for approval and then become completely sovereign over future developments in his universe. He has all power in heaven and earth, is the statement in the bible for reference. He sits at the right hand of the Father, as a Master Son over his own universe, he has become Father God of Nebadon, in our case.

He will continue to seek advice always from many, but he makes the final decisions always, for his realm after he is master of his realm.

Now, something different happened with this bestowal, than with similar bestowals of the preceding Creator Sons of the preceding Universes that came into being before Nebadon. Our Creator Son made a choice NO other has made. He made the choice to RETURN embodied, because there are serious problems in this younger universe of ours and others in our Superuniverse called Orvonton. (Super Universes are collections of 100,000 local universes and there are 7 of them).

Creator Sons usually visit planets doing a little better than ours, and they initiate a period of permanent peace. Not so here. The thugs of Nebadon, and a few other universes, the RETARDS, as used here on GLP, were rounded up and placed here. 10 billion of them, both "fallen angels" and "fallen men."

With the advancing ages, man is getting nastier. He has also blended machine intelligence with human intelligence, creating a hybrid being that has no conscience. And he has learned how to use machine intelligence to destroy. You got a little clue about that in 2001, a Space Odyssey, with Hal the computer. There has been a LOT of galactic warring. AND this has to be addressed, it has become beyond the usual, and a real infection to this local creation and Orvonton. It must be contained.

So a lot of this was contained on our planet and in our solar system. And it's judgment time, the final battle of good OVER evil.

Christ Michael returned in 1954, aboard a Pleidian command ship currently called the Phoenix. It will not work to be born of man this time, he is using a special body created for his mission,

Now dear STAR SEEDS reading here, you are to wake up, because you came to serve this mission. This time is the grandest time you might ever experience, and you are in training by your choice to become the future Gods of planets and widespread systems and eventually some of you will even maybe wish to become a Creator Son in the universes forming in our space. It is time to get your shit together, OK!!!!

See that "seeking Visionaries" in my signature file? That is YOU. Don't let the thugs here take you down. Don't debate the shills, their purpose is to keep you away from your mission work. The only reason I pointed out Menow, is because that person is an expert in diversion.

It is time to get out of the new age bullcrap put in place by the CIA "COUNCIL of the NOT so Light." This CIA group has created many of the new age false channels and websites that have you all believing you will get rescued by AA Michael, for being a light worker, and take you off to a new golden galaxy and similar unadulterated crap. You did NOT come here to do that. This was built by the Satanic ones (adverseries to God) to dislodge you from your mission work. They do not wish to give this planet back to God.

OK, I need a little break, and then will return to work a bit on the above "sevenfold" stuff.

Ok, the Seven fold stuff. Suffice it to say, the Trinity, is a huge combination of mind, all one but divided into parts, the 3 persons. They are not angels with wings. And the 2nd person of the Trinity did NOT visit earth 2000 years ago. The Eternal son does NOT incarnate on these worlds ever, but is considered the first born Son, and then he is the "mother" of many sons after Him.

Seven Fold is combinations of the members of the trinity. 1. God the Father. 2. God the Son. 3. God the Spirit 4. God the Father & Son 5. God the FAthre and Spirit 6. God the Son and Spirit. 7. All three together, Father son and Spirit.

You will study these concepts as you ascend. Many of you star seeds here have this knowledge buried deep in your soul, because you have progressed far. It's not very important right now on earth, but it is part of the science of the creation all will study who take the upward journey at some point. The Supreme Being, is also a "God", that is information. It is all of us together of the ascending entities. Enough of that. The Master Creator Son has mastered all this stuff, and personifies it in his universe. As to #3, the Creator Son by being both God and Man, ties it all together.

Let's move on the latter portions.

Now to continue starting with this part from above: With the achievement of supreme local universe sovereignty, there passes from a Michael Son the power and opportunity to create entirely new types of When the Creator Son becomes sovereign, he is no longer allowed for a time to create new beings in his universe, meaning new "angels." New Humans continue to form. He has created many beings and now the human are advancing enough to pick up the slack. And now after all this creation of beings to serve the needs, and getting everything else up and running in a universe, the Creator Son now has more "time" to devote more personally to upliftment in his universe. He takes a greater personal interest. I might add here, there are over 3.8 million life endowed planets in Nebadon and there will be a total of about 10 million evolutionary planets when the universe has finished out its process of making suns, planets etc. Creator Sons are great minds and their minds and Mother God's mind pervade the universe and this can be tapped into by all when allowed to them, both using mind and advanced technologies.

But the Creator Son is also very much a PERSON, and not just a mind force. He can now more personally minister to his realm, and as I said, he's the first one to return embodied in a higher physical form so that he can actually WALK the planet, and he has behind the scenes quite a bit actually, but will one day have a public retreat and abode.

Our universe has always being a evolving active being, spitting out new suns and the like, this continues for quite some time, but the hard initial work is passing and it's time to reap the rewards. And it's time beloveds, for you who came to BE part of this never ever done before thingy, to assume your roles.

With this "final battle of good and evil" in this large sector of Nebadon, it is coming that we can do the necessary growing up of this sector. We have been teaching on AH (AbundantHope) here and there, that part of the getting rid of evil, is related to upgrading the vibration of all of Nebadon. And dear ones, it starts here and NOW.

The whole of Nebadon, the evolutionary worlds to date is being brought up to a minimum of 4th Dimension. Like attracts like. Light attracts Light, and Dark attracts dark. Boy do you know this is you watch a big brawl occur. A tornado of dark energy forms, sucking most into the brawl, except for those that can withhold themselves from it. This minimum vibration greatly locks out the dark, and they will just tornado themselves right into non existance. And we rebuild when it's done.

Let me explain briefly dimension and density. There is HUGE confusion on these. Density has to do with matter, dimension more to do with consciousness. ALL evolutionary orbs, suns, moons, asteroids, comets, planets etc are First Density. But even these can have levels of consciousness associated with vibration, dimensions ar within densities. Jupiter our new sun, is now First Density, 5th dimension. It has moved to a higher vibration of it's matter.

Now, planets with life implanted on them, are 2nd Density. With the ascension of our planet into light and Life, about 25 to 80 years out, which we have as a goal, we enter 2nd Density, 5th dimension, the beginning of true balance and sustainability. That must be built by the people. No magic wand waving, sorry. We are those people.

After WW 2, we were really low in dimensional consciousness. We were under 2, and the planet wanted badly to toss us off. So star fleet came, as part of this huge program and stabilized the planet from going into an 18 degree axis change, so more work could get done. It is the desire of the very Conscious Mother GAIA to take her evolutions, as many as possible with her and not have to clean them all off. We are those leaders, the way showers, for her evolutions. Get that, ponder it, let it sink in.....

We are not of this world. But we must function IN this world to show the way. Ok, another break I do so need, be right back, need to get my coffee.

Ok, now read the bolded part in the above from the UB, which was the original post requesting explanation by Orange.

Once the Creator Son is Sovereign, and his creation less at commotion, He does delve into raise up that which can be raised up, and the let that we can't, become disorganized enough to collapse. It is the goal to get the entire Universe into Light and Life. Here is really begins after the final bestowal. That is what I touched on above, in that we need to get this sector up to at least 4th dimension consciousness, not just this sector, but all that exists in Nebadon to date in the evolutionary worlds.

So after this event, that which cannot be spiritualized, must go. There has been endless mercy. There most truly has in Nebadon. That is the specialty of Orvonton, the 7th Superuniverse, the best and most patient of MERCY. But at some point, folks, we have to throw in the rag. That is behind the stories in the bible of this final battle of good and evil, and of separating the wheat from the chaff. It is not only about little earth, but this is also the seed planet of Nebadon, and also it's prison world, boy does that seem like a dicotomy! It is, but those dark ones that DID, and many DID return to the light, with that they improve the developing DNA patterns which is why the seed planet was used as the prison world. Plus the seed planet was taken in warefare, which is another really good reason to end the warring and take it back.

All entities with free will must choose good or evil. All young souls make errors, thus the need for incarnational experience to obtain wisdom. Evil is allowed to a degree, because it forces growth of mind and heart. but there is a point..... when it is too much, and so there is going to be a cleanse. There are many that have failed all efforts of rehabilitation. It must be done, otherwise these later younger universes will have such an infestation of evil as to seem insurmountable. That would never fully happen, but it has gotten too big and must be cut back. You are all specialists from higher places. You each have brought your special skills to minister WITH Christ Michael in cleaning up a big mess. He is here personally WITH US aboard the Pheonix not sitting back in an easy chair watching it all on galactic TV.

AbundantHope is the Second Coming Organization. It is an organization of partnership between Christ Michael and Esu, and us various motely folks came this way from higher realms to serve together, Two or More in My (God's) Name, in a most magnificent adventure. It is time, beloveds, it is time.....

Seeking Visionaries, who can and will create the many messianic missions needed to heal Earth and her peoples, and bring balance. Seeking those who can constantly expand their truth, and will strive earnestly to stand in that truth 100% of the time, making every moment of every day, a Holy Event. TWO OR MORE IN MY NAME. ~ www.abundanthope.net

TODAY I SPENT QUITE A BIT OF TIME ON POSTING THAT JUST FLOWED, WITH THE MATERIAL FROM THE URANTIA BOOK THAT ORANGE POSTED. SPENT MOST OF THE DAY BETWEEN CHORES WORKING ON IT. IT IS IMPORTANT FOR THOSE OF YOU HERE THAT ARE STAR SEEDS AND UNFAMILIAR WITH ALL THE WORK FROM MY SITE TO GO LOOK AT IT. THERE ARE TWO POSTS. [link to www.godlikeproductions.com]

Also I suggested I would finish section 5 from that UB chapter in post #2 to Orange's material, and it is self explanatory just fine, so I will not spend the time on it, but here is it for those interested. From Paper 21, balance of section 5, page 242 www.urantia.org

The Master Michaels are supreme in their own local universes when once they have been installed as sovereign rulers. The few limitations upon their rule are those inherent in the cosmic pre-existence of certain forces and personalities. Otherwise these Master Sons are supreme in authority, responsibility, and administrative power in their respective universes; they are as Creators and Gods, supreme in virtually all things. There is no penetration beyond their wisdom regarding the functioning of a given universe.

After his elevation to settled sovereignty in a local universe a Paradise Michael is in full control of all other Sons of God functioning in his domain, and he may freely rule in accordance with his concept of the needs of his realms. A Master Son may at will vary the order of the spiritual adjudication and evolutionary adjustment of the inhabited planets. And such Sons do make and carry out the plans of their own choosing in all matters of special planetary needs, in particular regarding the worlds of their creature sojourn and still more concerning the realm of terminal bestowal, the planet of incarnation in the likeness of mortal flesh.

The Master Sons seem to be in perfect communication with their bestowal worlds, not only the worlds of their personal sojourn but all worlds whereon a Magisterial Son has bestowed himself. This contact is maintained by their own spiritual presence, the Spirit of Truth, which they are able to "pour out upon all flesh." These Master Sons also maintain an unbroken connection with the Eternal Mother Son at the center of all things. They possess a sympathetic reach which extends from the Universal Father on high to the lowly races of planetary life in the realms of time.

Also same paper, page 236 is a short interesting statement that may help some have a tad of understanding of the Trinity.

1. Energy-matter is dominated by the Infinite Spirit. Before any new forms of things, great or small, may be created, before any new transformations of energy-matter may be attempted, a Creator Son must secure the consent and working co-operation of the Infinite Spirit.
2. Creature designs and types are controlled by the Eternal Son. Before a Creator Son may engage in the creation of any new type of being, any new design of creature, he must secure the consent of the Eternal and Original Mother Son.
3. Personality is designed and bestowed by the Universal Father.

The Unacceptable Cost of Judeo-Christianity; Its Legacy of Pain

The Unacceptable Cost of Judeo-Christianity; Its Legacy of Pain
Charles E. Carlson Oct 05, 2009

"The Unacceptable Cost of Christian Zionism" is offered as memorial to eight dead American soldiers, who did not need to die, and uncounted Afghans, Iraqis, and Palestinians, all killed the first four days of October. We also memorialize the calculated assassination of a thing we all use and depend upon, the "Dollar," destroyed in a large part by unnecessary and contrived Serial Wars.

The Death of the Dollar" is a passing that will bring deprivation to a class of Americans who never dreamed it could befall them. In the "Unacceptable Cost" first published in August 30, 2007, we explain why we place the blame for Serial Wars and destroyed dreams upon America's churches and church leaders, not all of them mind you, but most. They alone, as institutions, have the responsibility to know the truth and tell it, regardless of the cost. Truth is the product of Jesus' work, but those who claim to follow Him from the mega-church pulpits have played the monopoly game of war along with the bankers and politicians. We blame them, and we see no reason why God will not; stop following them!

The Unacceptable Cost

Far and near, high and clear,

Hark to the call of War.

Over the gorse and the golden dells,

Ringing and swinging the clamorous bells,

Praying and saying of wild farewells:

War! War! War! (Robert W. Service - 1918)*

No religious persuasion has ever been more clearly responsible for so much bloodshed and destruction as has “Christian Zionism.” This 100-year old offshoot of fundamental Christianity has almost single-handedly legitimized wars in Arab states since January 1991. Its destructive power is only now being understood.

We Hold These Truths’ objective for nine years has been to explain why members of this loosely knit group we call Judeo-Christianity thinks and acts as though political Israel was a god. We have documented how they have been misled, especially at the seminary level, by deliberately corrupted scripture and commentaries about scripture, which has then been taught from thousands of pulpits and media outlets. We have amply covered the changes made in the Bible(s) used by Christian Zionists in prior referenced works.¹

We note again that the grassroots individuals within this movement are almost always motivated by altruistic religious belief (this author was once one of these), while the driving force behind their leaders is almost always tainted by money and the power of fame.

This paper explores how Christian Zionism is co-opted by a foreign lobby, AIPAC, and used to carry out Israeli objectives. AIPAC and its powers were well documented in 1994, in One Nation under Israel by Andrew J Hurley, and published by We Hold These Truths.²

Southern Baptist pastor Jerry Falwell (died in 2007) may have been the first leader to recognize the potential for linking dispensational Christianity with Zionism and harness its combined power into a political movement with loyalty to the state of Israel as its primary and passionate mission. In the early 1980s, Falwell called his fledgling army “The Moral Majority.” It was later referred to as the “Christian Right.” Today the millions of people who have made the present state of Israel the centerpiece of their Christian religion have been given the name “Christian Zionists.”³

We Hold These Truths prefers to describe both the Christian Zionist leaders and their misled followers as “Judeo-Christians,” a broadly accepted term, to reflect the fact that the religion they are following is no longer traditional Christianity, but one into which Judaism was injected, producing a radically altered hybrid.

Essential facts about Christian Zionism

First: It must be understood what Judeo-Christianity (also called “evangelicalism,” dispensationalism, or Christians Zionism) is: by any name, a 20th Century phenomena, an apostate-cult, meaning it practices, in part, a deviant path of following Christ, and it relies upon many varied human sources other than the traditional bible(s) for its theology.^{4 & 5}

Second: Judeo-Christianity ascribes holiness to a foreign political state, Israel, as though it was itself a god. It placed political Israel on the throne along side of Jesus Christ, and, in so doing, its teachers ignore, if not annul, much of Jesus’ teachings.^{1 & 2 & 3}

Third: Rank and file churchgoers and many lesser known Judeo-Christian pastors think of themselves as moral, even when they are actively contributing to immoral acts, such as supporting mass military assassinations in Gaza and the West Bank. They do not consider these acts immoral because they believe events are ordained, or even demanded, by God.

Anger against Christian Zionists is misplaced, because they, too, are victims of their own acts. They probably bring more suffering upon themselves and their families than any other middle class group. Judeo-Christians parents rarely opposing any war that Israel favors, so it is quite likely more severe, and therefore more are killed in military combat, than for instance the sons of agnostics or other religious groups. We have yet to find reliable data to support this argument so it is offered strictly as this author’s observation and opinion based on many talks with parents and youths at churches where we have conducted vigils.

Finally, Judeo-Christianity is much larger than generally believed and is active in every state and community in the USA. The new CNN.com six-hour television feature, God's Warriors, hosted by CNN chief international correspondent Christiane Amanpour, stated in the introductory segment:

“A recent poll found that 59 percent of American evangelicals believe Israel is the fulfillment of biblical prophecy. She also asserted: “The Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs estimates 85 million evangelicals believes God tells them to support Israel — more than six times the world's Jewish population.”

Several Pew Foundation polls have supported this statement over the last four years, and in fact may suggest higher percentages than used by CNN.⁶

For these several reasons Judeo-Christianity can easily be used by its leader, and by the leaders of Israel, to carry out a political agenda that favors that foreign political state over and ahead of the interests of America, and ahead of the interest of any humans in the USA or any other country except Israel. For the most part followers of the cult do not know they are being used. Without this understanding many are confused between Judeo-Christian religion and its political agenda. Pro-Israel activists, including John Hagee, should rightly be registered as agents for a foreign government, so open are their objectives.,Some of our allies against serial wars attribute them to Israel, working through its agents and lobbies for the purpose of gaining US dollar support and creating chaos in the Middle East for its own benefit.

Much is finally being exposed about the powerful Israeli lobby led by The American Israeli Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC). AIPAC's agenda that calls for the USA to finance and bless its occupation of its neighbors, and eventually control the oil of the Middle East, tactics that are contrary to American interests.

Professors John Mearsheimer and Stephen Walt have written a powerful paper, The Israel Lobby, which tells us Israel has too much influence in US Foreign Policy. Their paper has led to a soon to be released and much anticipated book that is making giant waves across the world even before it is printed, as Israel seeks to prevent its promotion.⁷

We Hold These Truths sees hope. Educate the laymen within our own churches, especially mainline churches, can break Israel's power-hold over our politicians, and it can restore others to follow Christ instead of Israel. More important, we see no other way to do it!

Without the voting support of church Israel's well-established desire to see Iraq destroyed and its oil divided up resulted in the first gulf war in 1991 and the present contemplated devastation of Iran is nearly unstoppable. AIPAC and many American businessmen have profit interests in war and campaigned for new wars as a matter of business, but it is the Judeo-Christians who have provided the grassroots clout to keep the War On Islam churning.

The Dollar Cost of killing:

The occupation of Iraq paralyzed the oil production from the 2nd largest oil resource in the world. Before the occupation it did not cost $50 to fill the family car. Before the occupation Christian Zionist children and grandchildren could afford milk at a cost per gallon less than diesel fuel, and truck drivers could afford both milk and fuel. Before “wars” on Iraq, American industry was healthy and had not yet been shipped to China.

Our economic catastrophe is real, lead by the real estate and mortgage bubble. Why? Because of the cost of a war is over $500 thousand million dollars, and most of the money has been printed, so it will have to be repaid in higher prices later on. This judgment is like a foul smelling vapor that cannot be put back in the bottle. I use the word “catastrophe” where others talk of “crisis” because crisis can sometimes be avoided and often leads to practical solutions. Not so with our “catastrophe.” We have passed the crisis stage years ago when we began serial wars for economic purposes, printing the money to pay for them.

There is no end to the amount of price inflation we can expect, food prices will surely be the next to skyrocket on our shopping list for reasons to be explained in our next issue. Judeo-Christians as a group are most responsible for our dollar dilution because it is they that supported the wars for which all these dollars were wasted on killing people.

Christian Zionist leaders like Gary Bauer, John Hagee and Pat Robertson are not the only ones who believe the Christian Zionist vote controls the USA. Politician Tom Delay who was an ardent supporter of every war against Islam, recently was quoted as saying at John Hagee’s Night to Honor Israel in Washington DC, that he not only “believes in the Rapture, I live for it” Too bad Delay left the world in such a mess just before his anticipated departure.⁸

Israel lobby harness Judeo-Christianity

Every politician in Congress and those competing for the presidency know George W. Bush became president because he and Carl Rove found a way to identify Bush with the Christian Right, but to get this blessing one must also be Israel blessed. Even today 70% of Republicans support Bush and his war in Iraq because what is left of the Republican Party is predominantly Judeo-Christian.

The relationship between the Christian-Zionists leaders and AIPAC is simple and straightforward. AIPAC pressures Congressmen in Washington to give Israel what it wants; the Christian-Zionist celebrities brainwash the laymen in hometowns to pressure the Congressmen at the polls, and the Congressman takes a junket to Israel and complies. Congress is in the vice between the strongest lobby in Washington and the biggest lobbying voting block in the country. Why would they listen to you or me?

Christians are deceived by Zionism

Misguided Christians have been used to fight and support war from the 11th Century Crusades to Iraq. The names have changed but the message has not. A Pope who called himself Urban II is said to have told the bishop and earls who were to lead the First Crusaders it was up to them to rid the Holy Land of infidels so "Jesus could return there." They passed this message on to the peasants who suffered and died for this false cause for the better part of 200 years. The result was the feudal system in Europe.

Judeo-Christianity, like Pope Urban II, teaches we all must honor Israel ahead of America, and even rebuild a temple there before Jesus will come. The story has hardly changed in a thousand years. Never mind the fact that Jesus did not seem to say anything like this. Urban II did not share his private economic dreams with the peasants, but he did tell the leaders of the Crusade that the purpose of holy wars was for the loot, and the Crusaders proved to be expert looters.

The leaders of the Christian Zionists, Hagee, Robertson, and a hundred more are the knights and barons at the head of the Crusades' columns. Their loot comes in the mail and from credit card contributions from the peasant's foot soldiers.

Human cost to the Judeo-Christian families

Church-going Americans are not only going in debt for war, they supply their sons and daughters to be killed and maimed in the contest. Celebrity Zionists beat the drums for war that Israel wants, but I have not heard of Hagee's or Farwell's son enlisting, or any of the congressmen's children. The scorched foot soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan include a disproportionately large number of Judeo-Christians, who we believe, often enlist because mom and dad raised him in the Judeo-Christian church where volunteering is considered noble, even today after Abu Ghraib and Guantanamo. Their youths are taught that if we honor Israel we earn blessings for America from God. It is these young men who pay with shattered bodies and broken minds for the free junkets to Israel taken by a reported 80 Congressmen in August 2007.

"Where are you going, Young Fellow My Lad,

On this glittering morn of May?"

"I'm going to join the Colors, Dad,

They're looking for men, they say."

"But you're only a boy, Young Fellow My Lad,

You aren't obliged to go."

"Well, I'm seventeen and a quarter, Dad,

And ever so strong, you know."

Recently I was introduced to a sandy-haired, smiling 26-year old with a crushing handshake. But he walked haltingly on two steel legs and his hip joints are also man-made so terrible were his wounds in a rocket attack in Iraq. He talked of friends who have died. He was 17 when he enlisted and the army is all he knows, he would go back to his unit. It did not surprise me when this clean cut young American told me he is a Southern Baptist...every bit a gentleman, he looked and acted the part. He confided that his mother has recently become adamantly against the War (though he did could not bring himself to engage in "political talk"). I know that this mother must be thinking... if only she had been pro-peace before her young son enlisted seven years ago.

We Hold These Truths has hear other stories from boys with a Judeo-Christian upbringing whose parents did not know they needed to guard their children from recruiters. We owe it to every Judeo-Christian to tell them about the cost of our serial wars against Islamic non-enemies. The giant Israeli Lobby does what it wants in its own interest...in Israel's interest and they will not stop no matter what we do.

We must blame those who have influence, the Christ follower who mistakenly listens to the celebrity Christian leaders, and who are themselves victims. What has the Judeo-Christian movement given back to America? It has sacrificed the value of loving your brother as yourself, as Jesus demanded...even loving your enemy. It has left in its place a legacy of hatred, war, violence, and diluted money, all in the name of Jehovah, the God of the Old Testament. This can and must be changed from inside these apostate churches and media sources.

We need to appeal to the sense of morality of Judeo-Christians. Its members are directly responsible for the three current crises in American culture, these being the War, inflation and the break down of morality that always accompanies war. They do it for only one reason; they are led into following an apostate Christianity that started only about 100 years ago, first legitimized by Cyrus I Scofield.^{1 & 5}

We conclude there could have been no Shock and Awe or war of occupation in Iraq were it not for the Christian Zionists' zealous campaign to destroy Muslim nations. The now publicly acknowledged War on Islam is in fact already 17 years old. Project Strait Gate was started to challenge it in its very lair. Jesus and his disciples took their arguments to the temple and the synagogues. We are doing the same.

What is the matter, Young Fellow My Lad?

No letter again to-day.

Why did the postman look so sad,

And sigh as he turned away?

Well, I hear them tell that we've gained new ground,

But a terrible price we've paid:

God grant, my boy, that you're safe and sound;

But oh I'm afraid, afraid.

The Alpha Course

By not sure

#20 Dec 31, 2009

Candace: this was posted today on AHS and should be a read for those of you with friends and relatives in Christianity, and even for those of you in new age, which was also a created religion for these times. If you are interested in the scribd link at the bottom, you have to a member to download the books. So do that first if you are not. It is free.

It is not of God to create these methods of teaching, this is totally not of God and it is this going on in the US of A, and it's it nearly all the churches, not just the evangelical ones. This is part of the method for the dumbing down of this world, and I assume there is something similar going on with all the other religions too. These Holy Spirit weekends are all over Christianity in the US of A even if by somewhat different terms, and these weekends use special "trainees" that tell a lot of false stories.

"The Hidden Secrets of the Alpha Course";

By New Zealander John D. Christian exposes the insidious Illuminati Alpha Course as occult indoctrination posing as an introduction to Christianity.

"Alpha" is being used in over 150 countries encompassing 49 different languages. It has infiltrated the homes, schools, universities, business, hospitals, prisons, churches and even the military.

Since London is known to be the headquarters of the occult, it is not surprising that the Alpha originated there. In 1970 an English cleric, Charles Marnham, devised a four-week series of lessons for non-churchgoers and new Christians. In 1981, Nicky Gumbel, a former barrister of Holy Trinity Brompton, extended the course to 8 weeks. This is how the fastest growing ecumenical evangelization program in world history began.

Alpha presents itself as a "new beginning" and its course structure became a tool for church growth and indoctrination. Videos and tapes, specially produced by the speakers are based on the book titled Questions of Life. This book sets out the structure and content of Alpha.

Group sessions included weekly suppers and discussions, culminating in a "Holy Spirit Weekend Away." Hailed as a means to bring people to a personal salvation, the Alpha course does this without preaching the Gospel.

The Holy Spirit Weekend Away, which is mandatory, is actually a thinly disguised devil worship experience. Alpha's Questions of Life book, the basis of the whole course, is the structure used to pervert the Gospel. In addition to the "Holy Spirit Weekend," the Alpha Course uses mind-control encapsulated and propaganda to sway the innocents.

EXPLOSIVE GROWTH

In just over 20 years, the Alpha system is growing like wildfire in Protestant and Catholic churches. Marriage courses, Alpha in the Workplace, and 80 percent of all prisons and universities in the UK now run Alpha. There were 8,142 Alpha courses running in over 7,300 all denomination churches in the UK alone. The number of churches in the U.S. using Alpha is growing faster than any other country.

Growth is a very important factor in this system. It's not surprising therefore that our mega-churches such as Rick Warren's PURPOSE-DRIVEN Saddleback Church are involved. The true purpose behind the PURPOSE DRIVEN CHURCH AND LIFE is the establishment of a final One World Religion. Key advisers from all over America gathered in London in 2003 to report on their plans to implement Alpha into the U.S. churches.

The congregation and friends of Holy Trinity Brompton financed the Alpha development, and resource courses were sold at a profit. Since the goal was to involve the whole world in their project, Alpha International was founded in 2001. Capitol investment became worldwide, and was headed by a Jewish banker, Ken Costa, Chairman of Alpha Partners.

This banker just happened to be Vice Chairman of UBS -Warburg, London. UBS stands for Union Bank of Switzerland-Warburg. The banking firm of Warburg has long been linked to the giant international Marxist Rothschild banking conglomerate based in the City of London. Isn't it strange that Warburg would be running a Christian organization?

ILLUMINATI BANKERS

The book contains extensive information about the Illuminati bankers and their Satanic predilections.

Our Federal Reserve System had as its prime mover the late Mr Paul Warburg whose brother was involved with the international banking house of Kuhn, Loeb that included Jacob Schiff. The Schiff's are the oldest contemporary Jewish family dating back to 1370. These men, besides implementing our Federal Reserve System, helped found the Bank of International Settlements in Switzerland that is scheduled to become the World Bank. The huge Rockefeller Manhattan Bank united with the Chase Bank controlled by Kuhn, Loeb. Then the Rothchild/Warburg took over control of this bank.

Many are under the false impression that banking conglomerates J.P. Morgan and Rockefeller are American. They are not. Rockefellers owned a small portion of their bank and J.P. Morgan was founded in London. "British" control of our banking system dates back to the original founding of the Virginia Company.

Books authored by the Warburgs contain communist propaganda. James Warburg was a member of Franklin Roosevelt's Brain Trust, masterminded Eisenhower's presidential campaign, and was chief financier of the United World Federalist World Government movement.

Communism is the end product of apostate Christendom-both Catholic and Protestant. All "New Age" Bibles were produced by 2 English professors who were Communists and Christian Socialists.

Bibles promoted by the Alpha library are these: The Bible for Today, The Contemporary English Version and the NIV. These are actually Communist versions based on corrupt text. Fabian Socialism is linked to a "Christian Socialist" organization. The "war on terrorism" is a classic British Fabian Socialist strategy. Inflict a series of "terrorist attacks" against a targeted population, use reaction from the attacks to justify the solution--i.e. to implement a police state over the region. Fabians acknowledge the principal tenet of Marxism, the abolition of private property.

On August 15th 1995, Russia and Boeing signed a contract to develop the first module of the new Alpha International Space Station. Massive sums of money by the U.S., Russia and the European Space Agency have been spent. Scheduled for completion in 2006, we are told the International Station is just "a scientific space laboratory."

Alpha MIRCAL lasers were being developed at White Sands Missile Base in 1985. Some speculate that the Alpha MIRCAL lasers could be used for mind control purposes in connection with the International Space Station.

Question from AHS on DNA

By Candace

21 Feb 13, 2010

Hi everyone, this was posted at AHS this morning, and is based on the piece Ron put up about the ascending body that I added commentary to.

http://abundanthope.net/pages/By_Others_28/Ascending-Into-a-Regenerative-Biological-System.shtml

I should always post these teaching posts so all of you can benefit, so here it is!

--- In ahsupport@yahoogroups.com, xxxxxxxxx wrote:

Hi Candace!

It's a nice info-material, last spring I posted a very detailed channelings from her about the subject, but that that source simply doesn't exist anymore. But I still need some clearness about this DNA-change. Recently, they stated that they reached the state of Full Consciousness, with embodiment of 36 000 segments of genetic material OR 12 master strands of DNA. They "recently" states that they going beyond that level, and started the process of "Soul Infusion", and their form slowly becoming more transparent over many decades ahead...

<http://www.ascendpress.org/staff/Directors.html>

There are nice messages from Gaia about ascension too.

<http://www.ascendpress.org/articles/earth-mother/index.html>

You said, there is not possible to have that 3000-strand DNA-form manifestation on the Earth right know, so my brain is a tiny bit confused at the moment...

Candace: well, as I read the article, it said strands, and strands are different from segments of DNA, which are parts of strands. There are well more than the 12 strands developing on this planet and on other planets and the architectural worlds. As I think I said, I am about done with 24. I am not sure what the max is for a person still partly material.

All have DNA, ALL, including the descending sons from Paradise but the DNA of a spirit being has no earth type elements in it. It is totally photonic in nature, where our earth based DNA is mostly material, having elements such as carbon and nitrogen in it and gradually more and more photons. I am not sure how many segments of DNA the basic double helix has on earth, I know scientists have figured it out.

The newer strands forming from the junk DNA are a little more photonic in nature. And the strands do develop also more segments. 36000 sounds ok to me for segments in 12 strands. I don't know the number but it sounds reasonable. Over time bodies change from the material or physical DNA into pure spirit forms, photon DNA. That's the story in the UB, of becoming less and less material over the long journey thru the local universe. When one graduates the local universe, one is then a totally spirit being, NO physicality at all. No carbon, etc etc. in the DNA or Body. Body form is photons entirely. And these beings can be changed easily what their form could look like to others, only mind is needed!

But as the new strands form, the astral electron form (morontia soul) of folks still in their local universe journey can combine with the higher vibrating physical form, and I have covered this at some point and place on the site. Those with spirit forms cannot occupy the body ever, but instead they can download their monad. The photon form would evaporate the body if this was tried.

So really, Christ Michael didn't fully incarnate himself back then or now. Creator Sons have Paradise photon forms. His Hatonn form, he overshadows or overlights it, but has no memory losses like we have between his spirit form and the 4d regenerating form he uses at this time for the purpose of his return. Complete contact or interface in other words.

When I return from Stasis I will have a new form of much higher DNA but still looking like I do now, but I will glow (actually I do some now, some can see it in the dark) and I will have complete linkage also. No memory loss. As well some of the others that are spirit beings that will be returning to walk the planet.

But even the astral electron/part photon form, if it is moved to an adult body, rather than by birth as an infant, there is no loss of memory either, in the transfer to the cloned body. You all have loss of memory, because you were born infants, and many of you probably had a lot of your memory as an infant, but as you programmed the current brain with your current life experiences, that memory got "buried", often completely gone by the time a child is 4 years old. Now IF the parents have better knowledge, this can be better maintained in the child, by the simple acceptance of such, and encouragement, and not telling the child that all these spiritual experiences are make believe. Many children in the past have subverted their memories because of parental punishment in fact. And lots of new kids are coming into better forms, embryos created for them, so there is considerably less memory loss.

So since I am a spirit being, I will never be IN this body. But my monad is, which is sort of like a little harddrive of storage of my higher knowledge. I downloaded my monad back in, 2001 or 2002. I am always forgetting the year, but it was in May. Very memorable. Well, this is enough, and I am going to copy it and post it right away on the site.

Let's Write the Money Piece Together

By Candace

22 Feb 16, 2010

Hi everyone, I have known I must start up writing about 'money" again. We tried a lot on the forum, and it was a dud. it is difficult to get people involved in discussion of it. It is of course part of our matrix, or counterfeit reality. yes, money is a counterfeit reality. Always used by the dark until people grow up and when they grow up, they discover they don't need it. As well build an authentic reality, money will begin to not be needed. I will say in fact, that we will not have true prosperity for all on this planet, until we do indeed get rid of it. But to do that, so people are enslaved in other ways, we must also have a spiritually mature populace.

Now, we are going to write this together. I do not wish to just be lecturing everyone. So I am assigning some homework, and I want all of you to share the journey and send me the results and I will be posting some or all depending on what I receive. This is going to be in stages and over several postings with several questions I wish to ask you to ponder.

So the big assignment to begin with, is that I want all of you who are interested to go back over your lives, whether you are just a teenie bopper or a oldster or anywhere in between, and write down your biggest disappointments in life that you could not have because there was not enough money. Send me these and then I will derive the next assignment!

If you have one of my 3 addresses already, send it there, if not use the contact form under "contact us." Do not write it to me by postal mail, as I have given up my post office box! I have another question already in mind, but will wait a day or two to post it.

Taking a Step Into The Nothingness

By Candace, my friend, and an unknown author

23 Mar 1, 2010

Hi everyone, I am conversing with a dear friend on messenger right now, about this piece I put up last evening, and with Jupiter coming out and the other changes now steaming at us.

She writes: Have you seen any of the Indiana Jone's Movies? (yes I have seen 2) Well in the last one he was after the "Holy Grail". At one point in the search he has to take a step out into nothingness, a total "leap of faith". The walk way was there but you couldn't see it. Kinda what I feel like right now.

This comment reminded me of a piece of paper I have had tumbtacked for many years now to the wall above my bed. It reads:

When you come to the edge of all the light that you have, and you must step into the darkness of the unknown, you must believe one of two things will happen. Either you will find something firm to stand on, or you will be taught to fly.-Author Unknown

I always refer to this when I am in a rut, that place where there seems no answers, but from which answers always flow if one allows it. I have been in so many ruts in this life, but it is the ruts that produce the growth, and it was a very large rut for me, that caused me to select this journey of finding my unfinished business back in 1998. I have been in plenty of ruts since. About my unfinished business, you can find that story, if you missed it, under The Miracle That is Me, in the menu.

This is an intense time for me, since I discovered the changes on SOHO Lasco images on Friday, the removal of the stupid round ball used for Jupiter and Venus for a couple years, at least, and letting Jupiter show as it is, the new sun. We are all standing on that cliff, from which we must now fly.

The Passion of Christ Michael

By Candace

24 Apr 12, 2010

Hi everyone, today Kibo received a lovely new message of a rather personal nature from Christ Michael. It also details some of the work behind the decision process of running a universe.

When I have been about posting on a variety of forums about this project, a lot of people reject the posts because God knows all, all the time, and is blessed with many magic wands, and the idea of a management structure of "heaven" is not grasped and often laughed at, but so it is.

As I have pointed out before, we are the FIRST bestowal planet of a Creator Son has returned personally in such a manner. Always the bestowal sons, whether Avonal or Creator Son return for a visit when the planet of the bestowal enters Light and Life, for the party so to speak. This is the first Creator Son to not only come back long before the days of Light and Life, but also who has returned with his sleeves rolled up to participate directly in the solutions to this world.

And not just participate with other celestials, but participate with man as he is. Of course a lot of us are here by intent to share also in this project, because otherwise, without us on the ground, the work is much harder. There are always incarnates from higher realms leading the way, but this planet is also a training sphere for ascending sons planning on taking up a much larger role in the administration of future universes. The Father determined that the ascending sons would begin to take over roles previously taken by the Descending Sons.

In this what seems long work by AH over these 5+ years is truly a partnership going on with those in higher places and many of you are from higher places, here to help and also learn.

I often have impatient problems myself. Actually these are related to what some of you also experience, I am just not comfortable in the mundane matters of living in this world, because I have too many memories of "home." And my issues with finding myself on the wrong side of microwave weapons doesn't help that!

I used to love cooking. I always prepared the best of the best for my family that I knew how to do. Not expensive foods, as these were beyond our budget, but GOOD food. I enjoyed also cooking for parties we attended. I have lost that simply joy. I wish I didn't even have to eat, as preparing food, and occassionally also have to put up with digestive discomforts, from eating, has become a chore of some sort. I dislike hugely having a animal digestive tract, because in the higher realms we do not have this.

I went back to making my own soy milk again recently for various reasons, including it is better for me. But this has been a disliked chore. Well, today I attempted to make it fun again. Well, not again, it has never been fun. And guess what, I finally made a perfect batch, no excess seasoning, no burnt pans, no boiling over, no milk slopped all over the place. Attitude had a lot to do with this success, and the milk will have a better vibration for it too. So actually, I let myself have some FUN and enjoy the process. And thus the process went better, and in fact wasn't a chore at all, when all was said and done and I am now enjoying a cup of tea with the fresh soymilk in it. The clean up chore is minimized!

I advise for any of you also homesick ones, to enjoy life as it is, while we continue to build this organization.

Anyway, Christ Michael has shared with you, thru me some other pieces about himself, and some of you newer readers may have missed them. So here's some links to two of them, and I am including a link to the piece today by Kibo.

Candace: This is newly posted on GLP. the link is to the video with a description attached.

These are Photon Beings. And they have the peach-pink aura around them which confirms it and thus not a fake of some sort. Enjoy why it is there.

Introduction to Becoming a Messiah

Introduction to Becoming a Messiah

Written sometime in early 2006 by Candace for the Messianic Forum

My dear friends, as you may already know, a great mission of AbundantHope is to encourage the people to become messiahs, and develop messianic projects. There is not just one messiah my beloved's, there is a need for many, and you can chose to become one yourself, either as an individual, or as a community project.

We all belong to a variety of communities. First and foremost, we belong to a family. Some have very small families, others quite large families. Family members are usually related by blood, but we all have loved ones, that are family to us also.

We may belong to a religious community, such as a Christian church, a Jewish synagogue, an Islamic mosque, or a Buddhist or other type of temple. There are many religions throughout the world, a list far longer than the above. Most have some sort of meeting house, and usually some sort of meeting leader, a cleric of some sort.

Most of us belong to a community where we are employed by another, a business, a government agency, or a non profit organization. We may have our own business. Even if we are self-employed, we have a community of clients and possibly employees.

Then we often belong to social communities. Examples would be Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and similar youth organizations. Some are Masons or Elks as examples. Maybe some of you attend an exercise class of some sort regularly, or go to a senior center. Once I had a business at a weekend flea market. This qualified not only as self employment, but we found great community in that place between those of us who rented the same space continually and came to know our neighbors in this situation.

All of us live in a housing community of some sort. There are apartment communities, single family home communities and condo and townhome communities. There are mobile home communities. In really poor areas there are slum communities. If you are in the military, you may live in a barracks community. Some belong to farming and ranching communities.

Then there are school communities. We attend school from a very early age and eventually often attend a school of some sort after we finish our basic education. And there are now online communities of a wide variety. I formed some community with my readers of the messages as they were written through our exchanges of email. We usually live, work, study, and socialize in a variety of communities.

Many have heard the term "Two Or More In My Name." What AbundantHope desires to do, is assist people to discover this most wonderful way of service and develop a messianic mission of some sort to assist in the healing of our beloved Earth, who has many peoples suffering in a variety of ways.

Through our Messianic forum on this website, we will welcome your ideas to be read by others. We will post on the website projects as they are created, and make suggestions as we find people that need a hand up, or other issues on the planet that need some fixing.

Some are horribly poor. Some are horribly ill. Some are very unloved, and often either depressed, or the opposite extreme, hateful. Some live in polluted environments. In fact, nearly all of us do, because our water, air, and food are contaminated. Some work themselves to the bone, either because they are poor, or they are workaholics.

Some, in fact all of us, lack adequate education to varying degrees. Many, who seem to have everything, feel they have nothing, a lack of spiritual education or identity. Many lack communication skills and self-esteem. Many follow way too much and often have no choice, being mind controlled by others.

There is much on our planet in need of repair. The people need repair, the land needs repair, business needs repair, and animals need love and respect. The planet needs love and respect, period, and we abuse our home called Earth and it's life terribly. Many await that magical messiah who will somehow fix everything, wave a magic wand.

Guess what folks, we are the messiahs we have been waiting for! By the time you read this, NESARA should have been announced in the USA. We may have had the world wide Second Coming. Many prior messiahs are returning to Earth. Many more have come to Earth from other planets. I am one of them. (Candace: Well NESARA did not happen! We will have GESARA after stasis.)

Some came around 2000 years ago with Sananda (Jesus) and Christ Michael, the Creator Son of our Universe of Nebadon. These were the 144,000 mentioned in various religious materials. They have spent many lifetimes on Earth since then, many repeatedly killed and otherwise harmed, often one life after another. Many were burned at the stake for example.

This number was inadequate, so many more have come since then. I came to Earth myself with quite a few family members, around 400 years ago. We are from a planet called Myrua, it's sun called Merope, of the Pleiades. This is my 6th life on the planet. There are many Pleiadians here now, and many Sirians also, plus a multitude of others.

Earth has a number of advanced souls having their origin on this planet, but the numbers are inadequate to effect change, due to the past history of the planet, and you of Earth need the help of all these others coming. Earth now has well over 200 million messiahs, incarnate and more arriving by the method of birth everyday.

In addition, there are many in starships in our skies and our solar system, whose residents have come to lend their hands, their technology, and their vast knowledge. Many will begin now to walk the planet. Others of the star people will communicate through telepathy, and the Internet. We shall soon be able to exchange email with them. We have a huge job, together all of us, to raise up this planet. (Well, email will wait until after stasis too!)

You are all messiahs if you so chose to be, it is your choice. We need little messiahs and big messiahs. A kindergarten class can create a messianic project. A huge corporation can create a messianic project. In fact, the huge corporation can be a messianic project in and of itself. A family of only two can create a messianic project. Even if you are doing a messianic project as an individual, you are going to come in contact with others, and need some help. The power of Two Or More In My Name is huge beyond description.

Two Or More In My Name refers to acting in one's God self, the I AM, with another, or many, all acting in their "I AM," not their "I Follow." Acting in the I AM is acting in co-creation with God. We are Creators, not followers. We must become, not follow. This idea has been denied to many in their journey of life, through many organizations in the matrix, the churches, the schools, the family structure, the laws, and a longer list than this.

So, why did I cover the types of communities you belong to above? Because looking for messianic ideas can start right in your communities. You can be a messiah in your own family, gently demonstrating another way to be. Showing strength in the coming times of great change. Being a rock. Being unafraid to being open to new ideas, and new ways to be.

It is said in the Bible, that Jesus came not to bring peace but to set one against another, even in the family. This was not meant as an act of hatred, but one of saying no to the matrix in place at that time, and still very much in place in this age. The control of the matrix starts at home. In those days, one did not dare to question, not even a parent, to speak an individual mind, to think. So it goes still now. Be the one to show those around you how to change, to grow, to become, in all of the communities in which you are a member. It is time to re-member your communities.

Many of you will chose large projects, with the funding coming that will help you do this. But the small projects, living a messiah conviction, by the many, will do more in many ways to change the whole world. It all begins in the family. Make family wherever you are, in addition to being with your blood family. Strong families are the foundation, the rocks of a successful society. Nurture all those you see as family. Be in Joy, Peace, and dream a wonderful dream and bring in into fruition. Be a creator in every part of your life! Become a messiah!

Densities and Dimensions

By Candace

27 Sep 10, 2010

Ok, I give up, here's the basics. There are Densities first, and then the dimensions are vibratory frequencies within the densities.

First Density, is suns, moons, planets, matter in other words. It can and does vibrate at different harmonic frequencies, called again, Dimensions, although there is not "life" in the matter. Because we are in the changing times, in the photon belt et all, all the moons, suns, planets, asteroid belt etc of this solar system is rising in the actually vibratory rate. Our sun is now vibrating at 6th dimension. So we call it First Density, 6th dimension. Or to simplify, 1.6

Earth has life on it, matter with consciousness. ALL life bearing planets, moons etc, are 2nd Density. Again with frequency variation within, called dimensions. There are better words yet to be made, we can only work with the two words available.

Earth has barely entered 4th dimension, and it's hard to keep us there, we keep slipping up, bouncing around. 4th dimension consciousness is supposed to get off the fence and decide to be light or dark, and there is supposed be great diversity of thinking and the light coming in, causes frequency change. Not working so hot, this was set up back 2000 years ago when Jesus came and said I did not come to declare peace, I came to set one against another. the purpose is to set up THINKING DEBATE, and stop the old following!!!!

It failed at that time and earth consciousness fluttered back and forth over 2000 years here and there between 2nd and 3rd dimension. After WW2, being a world conflict, it sunk to 2.16 (meaning 2nd Density, first dimension of 1.6) and the mother planet begin to shake the people off, and this was prevented by beings from the higher realms coming to stabilize the planet to buy some more time.

And with the war settling down globally and some mental growth in goodness started up, although not fully global we went up to 3d. (D=Density, d=dimensions) So we were 2.3

We are barely 2.4 and it needs to go up. People in the US of A have recently failed a test around the Gulf of Mexico. They did NOT rise up and demand change over to better methods of energy and they flat didn't give a crap about the oil, except some were upset over the wildlife, but NOT the planet. We have failed every test here to become proper custodians of our world. Really bad failure.

Now the planet herself, GAIA who IS a person herself, is making her ascension. People are invited to attend and go along but they aren't, so there is going to be the great cleansing. People cannot survive 5d very long. GAIA will move to 2.5, in other words, which is a STATE OF BALANCE. Man is not in balance, this you all know, just look around.

This planet will always be 2nd Density. But vibration wise, the people and all life can go to 2.9999999999999999 and so forth and so on.

So, this implies there must be 3rd Density, and yes, there are 13 Densities in fact. Density relates to matter. The lower level worlds of HEAVEN, are 3rd Density. Again with many dimensions within. These worlds are custom built, not evolutionary like regular planets and they have MORE Elements than the "natural worlds."

There is an ascending rank of these custom built worlds, moving up to 13th Density, which is Paradise, the Center of the Creation. The headquarters administrative worlds of each Universe are 6th Density Worlds. Then you have Worlds leading up to the Headquarters worlds of each of the 7 superuniverses, which are thus thru 11 Density, each Density having more and more elements (and spirit by the way).

Then 12th Density worlds are Havona, 1 billion gorgeous worlds moving around Paradise. These worlds of the 12th Density have 1000 elements. Then Paradise, 13th Density. Your goals, if you are ascending souls is to eventually earn the right to call Paradise your home. It's a long journey to get there.

When you graduate the 6th Density universe headquarters worlds, you are a spirit being, being pure spirit, having NO physical matter for your body.

Now, heaven is not "space" like some seem to think. ALL spirit beings live on these special planets, and they also live on planets like this one, to which they are assigned and since they are spirit beings you can't see them with your current physical eyes.

Now evolutionary planets also have layers of dimensions in which spirit beings live, a local heaven if you wish. These layers are many from pure crap almost, to very high vibrations. The middle astral planes (as these are labeled on earth) were moved out to the moon quite a number of years ago when man was experimenting with atomic and nuclear power, because the energies from these explosions can and do harm soul matrix of folks living in the middle layers, which is where most earthlings live between incarnations. The astral realms are still attached to matter spheres of some sort, so that is why they were moved to the moon.

The higher astral realms are NOT affected by the atomic and nuclear explosions, because they are totally spirit realms. So they are still here around earth.

During the pole reversal that is coming up, everything in the lower astral will be leaving the planet and destroyed. It is not worthy of God. In fact all beings when they die, if they are lower astral they are pretty much removed within 40 days of death and meet the "2nd Death." Middle folks go to the astral layers around the moon, if they are staying for more incarnations on earth, and if not their souls are taken to where ever they are going to have their next experience. To continue on earth, there must be at least 51% of karma worked off.

Since the advent of Christ 2000 years ago, all souls who are at least 3rd circle spiritual development go directly to the appropriate "mansion" worlds, 3rd Density on up, for their continued learning after passing this plane. So you can surmise generally that the ones going to the astral around the moon, are not yet 3rd circle souls. Entering the higher constructed spheres does not cancel incarnation, but it is never forced. It is highly encouraged as part of ones learning and also those more advanced come to incarnate and teach. And many from these higher worlds also visit locally to just WATCH and study.

This is enough for now. I hope this answers some questions and some of you will see the gift.

Answer to Reader Questions

By Candace

28 Oct 4, 2010

Hi everyone, below is a letter written to me. there have been others of a similar nature.

Dear Candace,

I experienced something last night and wanted your opinion.

I went to bed and shortly thereafter I felt this burning in my legs. It intensified and slowly spread over my body. It started hurting like hell and felt as if I was being burned by a blow torch!

I then saw a face that resembled a gargoyle staring at me. I got pissed and called for Aton and the Light while repeating the Lord's Prayer.

This went on for minutes and the pain increased. I then started to calmly laugh at the gargoyle and call in more Light.

There seemed to ensue a battle and it was messy from what I could catch glimpses of. Finally it all went away.

Any thoughts on this?

Candace: the burnings and vibrations are not of the dark. They are anything from energy coming in you are perceiving, to DNA repair, to taking you to ship. I would advise maybe NOT whitelighting too much at bedtime, because you stand out to the invisible thugs.

In these last short times, the dark invisible thugs are sending folks nightmares and images like crazy. If these happen, turn on a light besides calling in your angels for help. And the ignore it and go back to sleep. I was recently "entertained" myself by dark ones breaking thru, during my semi sleep because I could not sleep due to the intense energies. So I meditate a lot at these time for rest, but that space of not being fully awake allows opportunity for them to play games. They are just games.

There also seems to be an increase of visions and dreams being posted by the thugs on the net to "Christians" who cannot discern and these ones happily then go say the Lord has spoken to them, and place it all over the Internet. I have read a bunch of these again recently, some are good, and some are terrible. It's easy to tell for me which is which.

"This False Lord" is saying some awful stuff and always takes advantage of where the Christian is in his belief system, and so the receiver of these dreams and visions of course believes they are true and from "the Lord."

My Simple Thoughts on Halloween

By Candace

29 Oct 31, 2010

Well, today is Halloween. I don't celebrate it because of all the negative connotations. I do not enjoy the dark part of it and people accepting ghouls and goblins, and the like with it. This is very satanic and not of lighted behavior, lighted knowledge of God and nature. It is rumored about the web and here and there as been a day of satanic sacrifice. I don't wish to research that today.

The link I am providing at wiki, gives a general synopsis of all the rituals and origins. some think it is partially originated in the "pagan" traditions of celebrating a productive harvest, end of the growing season and the beginning of the long winter season. I have NO problem with that, in fact its a good idea, but our dark side is getting rid of healthy "pagan" celebrations. I see nothing wrong with celebrating a successful harvest season, in fact we need celebrations of life of this sort and not celebrations of death and destruction.

This is a planet of darkness and death, not of light and life. Light is lighted behaviors demonstrating our God presence within, resulting from Lighted (true) knowledge. After stasis, or even during our planing at that time, we need to do something about this secular, and evil holiday. It teaches acceptance of the ugly. Every year I have to "endure" one home which is difficult to not notice, in which the people, good Catholics, have life size ghouls, amongst the more awful I have seen, hanging from their trees, and plenty of smaller satanic stuff in their gardens, and giant black spiders on their house.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Halloween>

Now there is a Christian origin thru the Catholic church called All Saints Day, and Halloween is a shortened version of the Night Before. I have placed a quote from Wiki on this which clearly shows the lack of knowledge of God and "the saints." This day of "prayerful" communication between the saints, results from older "pagan" beliefs in which this day between the harvest and the next growing season is a day of the thinning of the veil. Demon worship and misunderstanding of "spirits" and the like occur all over the globe. SADLY.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/All_Saints

All Saints' Day (in the Roman Catholic Church officially the Solemnity of All Saints and also called All Hallows or Hallowmas^[1]), often shortened to All Saints, is a solemnity celebrated on 1 November in Western Christianity, and on the first Sunday after Pentecost in Eastern Christianity, in honour of all the saints, known and unknown.

In terms of Western Christian theology, the day commemorates all those who have attained the beatific vision in Heaven. It is a national holiday in many historically Catholic countries. In the Roman Catholic Church, the next day, All Souls' Day, specifically commemorates the departed faithful who have not yet been purified and reached heaven.

Christian denominations celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day because of the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual communion between those in the state of grace who have died and are either being purified in purgatory or are in heaven (the 'church penitent' and the 'church triumphant', respectively), and the 'church militant' who are the living. Different Christian traditions define, remember and respond to the saints in very different ways.

I stopped giving out candies or treats at Halloween several years ago. I am not allowed by "custom" to provide home made nutritious treats and I don't enjoy watching children dressed in grisly costumes on my doorstep. I don't enjoy giving them dimes or quarters either, because of what money symbolizes in this world. There is NO risk in giving out homemade goodies. Razor blades in apples was created to get you all to buy store bought junk.

I have in the past given out those individual pieces of cheese that can be purchased. You can't give out cheese bought in bulk and wrap it. It might have something unknown added to it after all! This is a marketing PLOY people, there is a lot of money in Halloween. I think we can create something better if we want to treat children and dress them for the occasion in costumes. Ponder it. Halloween is being spread around the world for the consumer value and to make sure we keep bad spirits in our mind set.

We must create true celebrations of life in our new world, so that we remain connected to life. We live in a world of tremendous disconnect from life, at least in the western countries. That allows us to continue without thought to destroy our planet. Ponder this and do some teaching on this day. Do not send your own kids out dressed in ghoully stuff. I know how easy it is, I made costumes for my kids when they were growing up, and amongst those were black witch and ghost costumes.

When I was growing up in the small town I was born in,, there wasn't so much of the ghouly stuff. Most costumes were home make, but some store bought. A lot of kids just had masks. We went trick or treating 2 nights in a row, both Oct 30 and 31. We did enjoy the goodies, and a lot of those goodies were home made. We can keep some of our traditions, but it's time to turn Halloween back into something sacred and since the Catholic church is basically the creator of the word, we need to change the terms, completely. We need to encourage people to eradicate all these beliefs. And once this world is in light and lift, as the vibrations ascend there will be less and less invisible dark beings lurking on the planet. I know it's already Halloween, and your kids already are, or will be going out to collect goodies. But ponder doing some last minute education.

As to haunted houses, in my area, the very WORST ones, in terms of scare factors were the ones put on by churches, in the "name of Jesus" (NOT), for the purpose of indoctrinating children, and arising money, all the while scaring the beJesus out of them! Yes I spelled it that way for a reason. Take care on this day, Candace

30 Axis Shift Videos

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0eGcNqOQDVw&feature=player_embedded

This video may help some of you who have difficulty understanding an axis shift. This is a video of where the equator would be in a 20 degree shift. That of course would depend some on the direction of shifting, and does not consider any earth changes resulting from such. -C

Commentary by Me on Keisha

By Candace

31 Nov 22, 2010

<http://www.vimeo.com/16830337>

Hi All this is Keisha's latest 2012 video. While she seems sincere, and her points on the body changing and the shift starting is accurate in that sense, she is pushing MAGIC again in 2012, and this is not acceptable. She talks of 2 days of darkness for the shift and for people to stay in their hearts and then the sun will arise anew and the world be MAGIC. She downplays the earth changes hugely.

I thus do NOT like this. There are I suppose useful to those seeking, about the teachings of love, but to suggest that one day in 2012 magic happens is not so. She is either misinformed by those she hears, or they are misinformed, or this is a CIA Council of the NOT so light project.

We are long past 2012. Our calendar in fact is 7 years off, just due to the wrong birth date of Christ, which was in 7 bc, on our calendar. Plus our years have changed some since for various reasons. I tire of the 2012 magic. There is the coming "wave" as some call it, where the Father enters the creation, our creation, and that will raise the vibrations substantially, and could occur in fact during the long stasis. But there will not be 2 days of darkness followed by magic. There will still be the magnetic Pole reversal during stasis, and then when people are awakened the sun will be rising in the west, and at quite a different angle than now because we will also experience signification Axis shift.

Keirsha's axis or pole shift here, is not so very correct at all. If she mentioned the sun comes up in the west, I did not notice that. While after stasis, the earth will appear nice and new, a lot of housing and buildings are not going to survive the changes in many places, including high winds. She paints a picture a bit too rosy.

You could show these films to those around you, for the other correct information, but caution against the magic. Certainly years of hard work will look like magic. I have not wathed completely thru her other series, to see if she more accurately covers those very earth changes that are going to be "rough." In this one she implies everything will be hunky dorky as I read it after the 2 days of darkness.

Your Higher Self

By Candace

Some people really like a post a day ago by Hazel and I replied below. Then another asked a question which is blue. I will be posting Hazel's teaching to here in a bit.

👂 Originally Posted by Candace 🗨

You can just use the search feature at www.urantia.org to bring up the section about them. I don't have mine out tonight, and it's bedtime and I am well TIRED. This has been a long few days for starfleet, we can update later when their work is accomplished. Don't know I am so tired though! maybe just all the anticipation and small letdowns when something is less than smooth. We all know "less than smooth".

Candace, I'm so confused om what is meant with higher self. I thought the higher self was your thought adjuster. Does everyone have a higher self?

The thought adjuster is part of your higher self IF you are Father indwelt. Those of you here that are Father indwelt are likely fused with it already, probably LONG AGO in fact. The folks here serving and learning are all different. Some are descending sons, some are ascending sons.

Your "higher self" is simply the real you. So yes you all have a higher self if you are not a brand new person. We have a lot of problems with terms on this planet as the knowledge is so bad and then the black ops folks when confusing it all too.

Nobody is actually "incarnate" in these physical bodies. There is a linkage some call the silver cord to your morontial soul or Monad, depending on where you are in your journey and what type of being you are. Hazel is a melchezidek incarnate in a female form. she is a descending son.

When we "incarnate" our bodies have a "mind system" that comes with them, and that is really the ego mind that is put out there. Since you are an eternal being of long experience, you have your REAL MIND that belongs to the REAL YOU. You access this all the time without even knowing it much of the time. You essentially have thus two minds. The point is to learn to get out of that programmed mind your body was born with, and get into your real mind. That is the point of meditation. To still the earth society programmed little mind of your body and use your REAL MIND. Hazel's pieces are coming from her "real mind." Does this help? I am in my real mind nearly 24/7 now. I am in it as I am writing this in fact.

The idea really is to join them both together as much as possible, as you will be taking the little mind with you to your next journey. Your higher self is composed of all those little minds you have had during incarnations plus all your other experiences in the higher realms.

When people began to remember who they are, you don't need details on that, when you begin to reason beyond the earth crap, you are using your real mind. And people notice that sometimes and think you have changed. And they probably won't like it. but fact is, YOU have changed and when you are using what you really know, you will not slide back into other ways.

I was raised in the episcopal church. I was always in my higher self when I was drug off to that church even, it did not resonate with me, the real me. Many of you have been using your higher minds somewhat to a whole lot during your life. I leave to you ponder WHEN. Some of you from birth, some of you later.

Animals reincarnate too and often have better memories than we do of previous lives they have lived. The mind grows from life to life, experience to experience. I have cats that KNOW they reincarnate and I have one now who remembers ME from long ago in a previous life of hers. I kept her as a kitten, she was born in my house, because she knew who I was even if I could not remember which one of MANY cats she was. One day, when I was meditating on the couch and in that "in-between state" of awake and asleep, she jumped up on me, and I called her Maria. Well, now I knew which one she had been, my higher self remembered her! So you see, reincarnating cats have a "higher self" too, their real mind that is them, no matter which body they have. It was this cats higher self that remembered ME in the first place.

Everytime you "know" something you were NOT "taught" on this planet, you are getting it from your higher self. It's a knowing from another time.

Now, some of you staying here may be getting a new cloned body. We have discussed this. When you are MOVED into that new body, that is your mind is moved to it, you are going to have a lot more recall of your self. It is being born into a BABY that causes the terrible loss of memory here, as the baby's mind that comes with it's body, gets filled up with the stuff of this life. This hides your real mind. Babies in fact usually do remember stuff when they are born and for a few years and it get's gradually LOST as you grow and fill up the new mind of the body. Now these days, there are more and more children coming into better soul carrier bodies that do have better memory of themselves.

I see lots of cute stories now and then on GLP about people's kids who remember and even know why they are here. Every time you knowingly reject the religion you got raised with, you are that higher mind, YOU KNOW BETTER. And so it goes.

A nice teaching about fairies vs gremlins

By Candace and author

33 Dec 31, 2010

Hi everyone, a dear friend sent me this cartoon today. If you don't see the cartoon, this is the link to it. http://comics.com/rose_is_rose/ Now there is often a little fairy angel in these cartoons as below. Sometimes the fairy becomes the big angel, as in this cartoon. The big angel has sent a bit of himself as a "fairy."

Dark entities can do the same, and we call them gremlins. Gremlins can muck your computer up, mess with printing presses, cause cats to fall off their climber taking the cable connection right out of the TV rendering the TV useless (happened to me), and other nefarious asks.

The light can send similar Good fairies to do good tasks. Sometimes these are seen as orbs in photographs. If you have gremlins uncreate them in the name of Jesus Christ.

When you "kill" the gremlin you decrease the size of the larger entity that sent it and that entity may decide to leave you alone. Enjoy the good fairies and give them thanks.

Also I had the idea that the creator of Rose is Rose may also have something hidden about the idea of this New Year as there will be "trumpets" blown this year in a biblical sense, via the 3 month teaching process.

Art Committed by the Urantia Foundation

By Candace

34 Jan 2, 2011

Hi all, Jess recently discovered an amazing art site that has many artists on it, including a fellow from Britain that did some committed work in 2002 for the Urantia Foundation. The main website for the various artists is www.deviantart.com You can find just about everything there in the way of art.

The artist commissioned for the work is named Gary Tonge. His art is at the following link. He calls himself "Antifan-real." <http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/> Gary has since I started working on this developed his own website. <http://www.visionafar.com/> He has a couple NICE video's there about the creation. Well worth you effort. I am continuing to use the links in this article from deviantart, because he has some descriptions with them. I have some saved to my computer to use as wallpaper.

This is link to 4 pages of gallery. Now when you click on a picture in the gallery, it takes you to a small enlarged version. Then click on that image for a much larger image. To appreciate this man's work, you need to see the larger images and he has some commentary with each one. <http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/gallery/>

Now, this person obviously remembers something of from whence he came and for some of you, reviewing his artwork is going to make you awfully homesick! Now first the links which are all on page 3 of the gallery, to the 4 images commissioned by the Urantia Foundation. This is the link to page 3 of the gallery where these are archived. http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/gallery/#_featured--3

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/art/PARADISE-18141294> Paradise is the center of the Creation, and it's start also, the Alpha, if you will. The Beginning. Every ascending human has the goal of reaching Paradise. Many angelics have a similar goal also. My own guardian angel Andrea, has also obtained Paradise with me, as has my soul mate Tom. Tom and I are Mighty Messengers. Paradise is the only place totally free of "time" of some sort, because the Paradise Isle does NOT rotate or travel around anything else. The huge bright area at the center is the Paradise Isle. I will leave you to read about its size and structure in the UB. It has a top and bottom, and this man KNOWs what it looks like. This pic nearly brought tears to my eyes, as this is so similar to MY memory.

Around it are 3 groups of 7 orbs belonging to the Paraise Dieties. The first group swing closest to the Paradise Isle, and are the worlds of the Father. Next out are the worlds of the Eternal Son, which are uninhabited, spirit worlds totally apparently. Next after that swing the 7 worlds of the Infinite Spirit and these worlds are the homes of the Seven Master Spirits, of the Seven Superuniverses. In fact these are the Paradise headquarters of the Seven Super Universes, the executive worlds for them Now I am going to paste in a quote from the UB about these 7 worlds of the Infinite Spirit from the UB. Page 151.

They are not so exclusive as the spheres of the Father or those of the Son, and though residential status is limited to native beings and those who work thereon, these seven administrative planets are always open to all beings who desire to visit them, and who can command the necessary means of transit.

To me, these executive worlds are the most interesting and intriguing spots outside of Paradise. In no other place in the wide universe can one observe such varied activities, involving so many different orders of living beings, having to do with operations on so many diverse levels, occupations at once material, intellectual, and spiritual. When I am accorded a period of release from assignment, if I chance to be on Paradise or in Havona, I usually proceed to one of these busy worlds of the Seven Master Spirits, there to inspire my mind with such spectacles of enterprise, devotion, loyalty, wisdom, and effectiveness. Nowhere else can I observe such an amazing interassociation of personality performances on all seven levels of universe reality. And I am always stimulated by the activities of those who well know how to do their work, and who so thoroughly enjoy doing it. (Presented by a Perfectioner of Wisdom commissioned thus to function by the Ancients of Days on Uversa-Capital World of Orvonton.)

What! Work? in heaven? Yes indeed. Why people of earth want to live in nothingness bliss is beyond me! -C

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/art/Havona-17257679> Havona is The Central Universe. It is a perfect universe of 1 BILLION Spheres that surrounds and includes Paradise. Like all these "seven" numbers, there are 7 circuits in Havona. These do show as Seven "rings" of spheres (planets), in the drawing. You arrive in Havona after your graduation from the Superuniverse of your Origin. In this case, the Superuniverse that earth is in, is named Orvonton. It is the "youngest" of the 7 superuniverses. Now, out here on evolutionary worlds like Earth, there are 100 natural elements. On Havona, there are 1000 natural elements! But yet these have an atmosphere, lakes and streams on them. Heaven is very misunderstood!

I had a big laugh once, because somebody on a forum posted that heaven was not planets! Well, YES IT IS PLANETS. Just handcrafted planets, that's why they are called architectural worlds, and more on that in one of the other paintings by this artist.

This are very advanced worlds. There is never an opportunity of boredom on them! After you work your way through these incredibly huge worlds, you arrive on Paradise, and towards your time as you approach paradise, your form become capable of traveling space, minus a ship. The Central Universe is not in view of Earth. Besides the distance, it is also bounded by dark gravity bodies.

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/art/Grand-Universe-17189369> The Grand Universe is the current Creation. It includes The CEntral universe of Havona, and the Seven Superuniverses, none of which are complete yet. Orvonton is our Superuniverse. There are 100,000 projected universes within each Superuniverse. So there is the potential of 700,000 universes, and most are formed. Some in orvonton on still in very early formation. Our Universe is Nebadon. It is universe # 611,121.

Some of My favorites,

Spirit Rising, <http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/art/Spirit-Rising-10449411>

This link below shows the construction of "sphere" world. People these are the worlds that are built as described as "architectural worlds" in the Urantia Book. over your long eternity you could visit or live on Billions of these. When all 7 superuniverses are complete (700,000 local universes), there will be nearly 500,000,000,000 (billion) of these. The creation is HUGE. Humans also build craft spheres that travel the creation. These can be as much as 2-3 times the size of earth for various reasons. Some of you have seen large craft near the sun on SOHO in recent times. This is "God" works, through his Sons and Daughters. These huge craft can control suns like they are doing now. These are amongst your own options for carreers over your long eternal life of trillions of years.

<http://antifan-real.deviantart.com/art/Arrival-10789423> space transport arriving at huge space city. there is a space city 10 miles in height orbiting jupiTER folks. Ptaah is commander i think, he's from there anyway. Of course, I assume this city moved more than a bit while Jupiter was being made a star.

About the topic of Free Will and Co Creation

By Not identified

35 Jan 11, 2011

I found this gem on my forum today, much thanks to the poster. It was in response to Jess' recent message with CM. This fully describes the purpose in fact of living on a evolutionary planet, in fact even in "heaven."

I did read this up-date. I was in total agreement. I was thankful for the vision and insights. I paid attention to the advice to seek internal guidance. I logged off and let it go. But something directed me the dig for a booklet. "Predictions for the Aquarian Age" on page 6, I settled on reading this:

"Free Will – The belief that man has free will and makes his own choices changes to: the realization that the action of any one person changes the world situation just that much and the actions of all other persons changes the one person's situation accordingly, and one cannot do his own thing without it affecting others, or, without others affecting it. One person's action or thing is every-one's action or thing.

Therefore, the concept of free will changes to one of co-responding and co-creating: responding or creating with others, mutually encouraging or discouraging each other's desires by all parties involved clearly communicating to each other their own desires, then together reaching a workable compromise or arrangement that allows all involved to benefit.

In the case of thoughtless greed and extremely selfish desires of one person, the group must patiently but firmly guide that person into new levels of understanding by not allowing him to bully or manipulate them and by showing him a more workable alternative to the selfish desire, whereby that person gains understanding, acceptance and happiness of a different order, while the group gains freedom from his unpleasant behavior."

*So sharing this seems right. The deed is done. I'm getting some lunch.
Love and Light to all, xxxxxxxxxx*

Candace: Now there is a lot of new age junk teaching about not interfering with others, letting them do their own thing. It's not just "new age" books or on the net, even Oprah went this way, and it is manifest in many programs on TV and books. Man has thus become tolerant of a LOT of EVIL out there. You must not tolerate everything. You must provide a lot of very firm guidance. It is RIGHT to appropriately confront.

A Course in Miracles

By Candace

36 Jan 28, 2011

Hi Everyone, since somebody on the forum (I think it was mine, could have been another or maybe more than one), about the Course in Miracles, I keep "hearing" maybe I should check it out. I have in the somewhat distant past, tried to download a version of it that I know was corrupted actually.

Well today, as I am in the midst of a period of emotional turmoil and stewing, I took the advice seriously to have a look. So I have a suggested homework assignment for all those uncomfortable with this waiting process.

The website is <http://acim.org/> Christ Michael is the "jesus" behind these. I once considered buying the book, but forgot. I can't remember if I have seen it in the bookstore or not.

There are 365 lessons, one for each day. I would suggest taking a couple hours today or soon and working thru the first 18. They are free on the site.

Just start with #1 and work thru and as you get into the material, on the "past" you will see where it's all going. I starting working on my own waiting issue, as a focus as I moved thru. Very enlightening experience. We keep getting told our issues are our creation, and not God's. Perhaps this will help with the inner vision on these ideas. This short time I spent today, brought more understanding to the concept of living in the NOW.

The Disappearance of the Universe

By Candace

37 Jan 28, 2011

I am getting letters about the Course in Miracles. This came today. And is followed by another that came after.

Hello Candace

It has been a long time since we have communicated, though I still read your site, and updates, and yes I am still waiting for some validation. So I like that you made the suggestion about A Course in Miracles for those still waiting.

Further to your suggestion for ACIM I found the book by Gary R Renard 'The Disappearance of the Universe' a useful read before some one starts the lessons, and as it is suggested the text be read before starting the lessons, I suggest the book be read for people to really get it. The book is a simplification of the message of what the course is trying to achieve in plain language any one can understand. "J"

Candace: This is the link I got when I put the Title of the Book into google. Just one part of the website of this man Gary Renard. These are previews to the book which make for interesting reading.

The 2nd letter, from "I"

Hello Candace,

Interesting that both you and I got turned on to the Course In Miracles about the same time. I have had it and used it, studied it for years, but that does not mean I really "got" it. Just sent this out today:

Hello My Dear Friends,

Today I wish to share with you something about "Miracles," which is something, a seeing, a perception of the truth that all is Divine. According to the "Course In Miracles" it is our salvation and that of the world (those we see and know).

This fertile ground comes from a re-doing of the Workbook of the Course in Miracles book. Some of you know I have been healing a stroke since last April, and most recently some very challenging situations with my teeth. As you probably know already, if we have something in our bodies or lives that is not working divinely, there is something to be forgiven that we may or may not know about. I have been doing the forgiveness in many ways for many years.

Many, including myself also have the knowledge that ALL are Divine (Love, Light). And we know that most of our journey has not been experiencing this in ourselves or everyone; not able to see it because we were still coming from the misperception that their actions reflected what was true about them. Thus we judged, hated, sought revenge, blamed, and unknown to us at the time, we did this to ourselves. These perceptions, negative emotions and how we saw things got lodged in every cell of the body, causing illness, injuries; and emotional upheavals, continuing the lie of separation. And even though we may have said, "I forgive myself / I forgive you," it was only skin deep.

This past week, I have spent most of my time in deep focus, calling forth the truth to manifest, the pain to go away, and all that I needed to help me get on the other side of this. Finally one day, I screamed to the heavens, "I need a MIRACLE !" That is when I realized I needed to get back into the Workbook lessons in the book, "The Course in Miracles." I had done the entire 365 lessons some years ago.

For those of you who have or might obtain the book, I will give references here, and believe me, if you allow and do the exercises in passionate intent, with the Master Jesus (Esu Sananda / Christ Michael / Holy Spirit (no separation here), you can be set free of all grievances and thus the results of them in your body and life.

I began again with Lesson # 77, on page 137, - "I am entitled to miracles." That day my miracles included an awareness of what to do about my teeth, then later a loud pop in the back of my head, as the occipital cranial bone on the right side was adjusted into the proper place. I sure felt that and was grateful. My eyes right away began to better adjust in seeing together.

The next one, #78 on page 139 is "Let miracles replace all grievances." In this lesson, we are taken through the truth about our Divinity and that of all others; what grievances are, etc. Then in a process given there, we are invited to state all our grievances against one person we choose to let go and free in ourselves. Then we practice seeing that the light and love of the Christ is all that is true about them.

The power in this is the fresh (already known?) truth given with the power of the Word, and that we have Divine help to lead us through this. Just takes our willingness and focus. I did three people that day, and there is a deep peace inside my fourth seal, and my body is hot in the places where love is purifying the grievances that were stuck there, and my teeth have stopped hurting.

It is also helpful with this particular lesson to also read the same in the TEXT portion. This is found on page 166 +, " III. The Correction of Error." (C.I.M. was first published in three books, so each section has its own pagination). Key here is: "To perceive errors in anyone, and to react to them as if they were real is to make them real to you.""The Holy Spirit in you forgives all things in you and in your brother."

So SHINE, baby SHINE ! It really is a DIVINE world IN there, in all, in you and in me....

Halleluiah !

Who Winds Up the World and Makes It Run

Heavenletter #3745 Published on: February 25, 2011

God said:

From the inner workings of your heart comes the outer play of life. Upon so much of your heart rests the world. The world is dependent upon you. The world takes a picture of your heart and shows it to you. If you truly wish to uplift the world, then uplift your heart. You have thought that your heart is dependent upon the world. To some degree that is true, yet the world begins with you. The world is your disciple, so to speak. You set the tone for the world. Sing a merry tune.

Of course, the world is dependent upon your thoughts, your moods, your love. Everything is dependent upon your love. You are dependent upon your love. Your love sets the course for the world. Your love is like the sun setting out every morning. Your love peeks over the horizon. What is so hard about sharing love and making it apparent in the world? You have been holding back. You have been waiting for the world to fill you with love when it is you who is to fill the world with love. You are like a horse waiting for the carriage to move forward.

The resplendence of the world waits for you. The well-being of the world is your responsibility. Lay out a blanket of your love for the world. Open the shades of the world, and look upon it, and see that it is good.

You oil the gears of the world. More than that, the world does not exist without you. You are the spinner of the world. If the world were a loom, you are the weaver. If the world were a cloth, you are the one who sews the cloth. You are the cabinetmaker of the world. You are the artist and musician of it.

The world is not as you thought. It is the cushion you sit on, yet you are the maker of the cushion. You are the dance teacher of the Universe. You twirl the world. You show it how. You are the spinner at the spinning wheel. You are the nutrition of the world. You feed the world. You supply it with its wealth. You make the world happen, and happen it does. You report the world. You, the reporter, the describer of the world, are also its energizer.

The world contributes to your story, and yet you are the motivator of the world. True, the world is for you, and yet you are for the world. You are more for the world than the world is for you. Which came first? You or the world? The tale is that the world came first for you to inhabit it, as if there were time and sequence. The world was spread out for you. Yet who tends the vineyard? Who picks the grapes? Who eats them? Who spits out the seeds, or chews them, or decides to dry the grapes and call them raisins? Who winds up the world and makes it run?

Of course, your arrangement with the world is reciprocal. The light you shine on the world casts its light on you. The shadows you cast on the world cast their shadows on you. It is up to you to make the world harmonic. The world plays the tune you give it. Get up now and enjoin the world to make merry at no expense to anyone. Lay out a royal carpet. Make the world a nice place for everyone to walk on. Make the grass green and the sky blue. Make a rosy sun to shine on all.

This is how you make the world.
