How exactly are the "thugs" getting these warnings? Personnal visits? Email? Telepathic? HOW?

If they are just coming from your site--- then it's a non warning since they could care less. Also, they have been given a final warning many times over the years....Looks like Dad is very compassionate and the thugs could give a rats ass.

they get personal visits, yes, often by method of hologram since these are nasty folks. Public notice is also required, thus the use of my site for such as my site is the public outlet being that AH is the 2nd Coming Organization.

These notices also provides teaching to my readers of how things are done. Thus also get email, registered letters from Nebadon and phone calls. They don't tend to be very telepathic.

NIP IS RIGHT. THIS INFO IS OK.
THE ULTIMATUM EXPIRES ON 21/06
THE ANNOUNCEMENTS ARE IMMINENT.
THE EVENT COMMENCES 3 DAYS LATER
THE LOCK-DAWN FINISHES ON 27/06

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 2856052

the event commences before the announcements, they just want to get some truth on tv in the political and monetary realm before the 3 days. People are not going to yet accept star fleet until "god" does the 3 days of darkness, then they will want to listen up. thank banking going belly up will surely get some attention, everyone is go glued to money. It is always important to keep smaller money at home, because plastic won't like be working if all crashes down.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Ben will simply turn the printing press back on and the markets will rally....they will announce more monetary easing and walla--- markets will rally---- do you expect the markets to collapse before 2012 is up?
I think its all BS-- but they wont let this fall yet...

NIP: The ONLY thing that matters in a nutshell is that you develop IDEALS set ahead of you and strive to develop your soul / mind and heart. Always wants soul then progress be made. Just believing on Jesus does not cut the mustard. Does YOUR pastor teach Walter Russell? If he / she does not, something is gravely wrong with your church.

Abundant Hope is THE 2nd Coming organization, and a playground / partnership heaven with Jesus himself. [link to www.abundanthope.net]

Are you sure?

Strange that the all has put himself in amnesia and used himself as spiritual loosh for feeding.

I HOPE we're talking about two different "All's".

There are entities where this universe is their playground, they have angels, jesus's, ect. - to soften the enslavement/confinement/feasting process.

I feel like this reality is the false one which tries so hard to out-do and replace the greater existence outside this universe.

Do you confine yourself to a particular club?

I would blame no one for nothing, but I will not continue to be consumed in ignorance - I would embrace the demi-urge himself, because I know what it must be like to feel so desperate.

You lash so violently towards people, yet you are "spiritual" - where is your patience and empathy? I have not seen it from you unless you're speaking with someone from your "club".

You still come across as being deep in the sensationalism lullaby, I'm sure people would appreciate you if you were more empathetic.

Exciting info! So (this might be a dumb question, but...) how will we see this happening? Will it be in the MSM, online somewhere, etc.?

Quoting: Renaissance Woman

this is exciting. when I read that question above, I got that it would be during the 3 days of darkness and we wouldnt see anything until it was over.

then I got a quick vision of me and my dog walking in the park along wooded trails in the late morning when its normally very sunny - and it suddenly WENT COMPLETELY DARK. I would hate to be out in the woods with no light, or anywhere away from home.

So I put new batteries in my little flashlight and carry it with me now.

Around your globe a massive effort is now underway to complete the processes necessary for arresting your dark cabal and their many collaborators in government, major banking, and many multinational corporations. The preliminary orders for these mass arrests have been completed, and what remains is to issue the legal warrants for their detainment. They are to be held in special purpose-built facilities. Our liaison teams are in contact with those in charge of these activities, and they will be one of the groups that will formally declare the end of the executive administrations of most western nations. The new 'caretakers' have a massive task to perform in what is a very short window of action. However, these are extraordinary times. This was posted by our beloved Rosie today in a discussion thread on our forum. The purpose is for perhaps printing brochures or sending material to help prepare ones. The 3 days could even be left off it. the list is NICE for the purpose of what is wrong with this world alone.

The forum is PRIVATE so a linky is useless, it will not open to it. EDIT June 21, the piece is NOW on the front site, but I don't have the link on my clipboard

A LETTER FOR THOSE IN DAYS OF DARKNESS

Dear Friend,

We find ourselves in times of darkness. For those who have stepped back periodically from their "normal" routines, who have called them into question, and who have recognised the madness and cruelty which hallmarks this experiment called LIFE ON EARTH, it may be no surprise to learn that this physical darkness is a reflection of spiritual darkness:

- the failure to take on full responsibility for our personal and global situations
- the failure to stop corruption in financial and political arenas
- the failure to identify the perpetrators of abuse
- the failure to stop the machinery of war
- the failure to protect our environment
- the failure to teach our children to create and conserve beauty
- the failure to recognise the worlds outside our quarantined planet
- the failure to discern what is needed for harmonious living
- the failure to respect the Creator and respect ourselves as Divine Creators

This time, no-one can look the other way. There is no "routine" now. No telephones. No media. No electric light. No noise. No distractions. The only way to look for answers is INSIDE YOURSELF. Shut your eyes. Examine carefully what you see in the darkness. Write it down. Discuss it openly and honestly with your fellows. Hold your heart and ask "What should I do now? What needs changing? What is of true and lasting value?"

After three days the light will return, and those who love the light will return, and you will learn that this was not an act intended to cause fear, but an act of love orchestrated by galactic helpers who oversee this part of the universe, who have come to our aid in times of great distress. They have prevented us from self-destruction.

This, and so many other things will you learn under their care and in their education. New views, new information, new worlds will open, waiting for your co-operation. Recognise the roots of depravity and rejoice in their exposure, for this will lead to heaven on earth, a world of abundant hope.

HOW DO YOU WANT TO LIVE?

By Rosie

Jun 21, 2012 - 12:13:13 PM

Seraphin through Rosie, 21st June 2012

Dear Children of Light who frequent a WORLD OF DARKNESS which gives the illusion of brightness:

You have been grossly deceived, and in absence of sufficient persistent questioning, you have failed to perceive this deception. Indeed you have played along admirably (according to the perpetrators). You have risen to the bait, over centuries, out of ignorance, lethargy, fear or lack of confidence in your godliness.

If you knew the depth of your godliness, your immense powers would be able to break the spell. But you remain in harness, meekly obeying, humbly accepting, BUT NOT LIVING YOUR DIVINE POTENTIAL. THIS POTENTIAL, IF LIVED, WOULD TURN YOUR EARTH INTO A HARMONIOUS PLANET IN A GOLDEN AGE.

And this indeed is our vision for her, your earth, and as you are personally assisted by unseen forces and friends from other dimensions, so Gaia also has her personal assistants who offer her signs and propel her towards SPIRITUAL GROWTH. As inhabitants on her soil, as guests of her benevolence, you must accept – as she has accepted – the help we offer, or take the consequences. She will enter a new space, a new vibration where the shadows of war, destruction and violation CAN NO LONGER EXIST DUE TO THE OMNIPRESENCE OF THE LIGHT.

Some may say: WHAT DOES “LIGHT” MEAN? The stronger the light, the nearer it is, the stronger the contrasts and the darker the shadows. The light will soon become so strong THAT THERE WILL BE NO SHADOWS AND NO MORE OPPORTUNITY TO HIDE BEHIND THEM. All dust will be driven out, will whirl in great storms in the public arena, exposing injustice, corruption, lies, deception, insult, and damage on a mental, emotional and physical plane.

While the physical damage on earth has been considerable, it is equalled by loss of determination and integrity on a mental level, and it is more than equalled by loss of adequate emotional reactions. We could say PARALYSIS. If we were to say that many people on earth had lost their sanity, many beings viewing this scenario from other worlds would agree with this assessment: you destroy what is good and support what is evil.

This tolerance has extended to all areas of life, making practically everything permissible, making this a place without any moral hold or fabric, A society based on these precepts, unable to take a firm stand against depravity, unable to recognise it as such, will inevitably degenerate. Eventually, it will self-destruct due absolute disdain for life.

You are unable to put your foot down and say ENOUGH IS ENOUGH. You fill every pleasure cup, letting it spill in endless overflowing, without regard for its final destination. The right to limitless waste, limitless gluttony, limitless expenditure, limitless exploitation and limitless sex IS NOT YOUR BIRTHRIGHT. YOUR BIRTHRIGHT IS TO FIND ECSTATIC JOY IN PERSUING YOUR FAVOURITE INTERESTS WITH PASSION, IN A WAY WHICH INSPIRES AND BENEFITS YOUR FELLOW GLOBAL CITIZENS.

Allowing yourselves to clutter up your time with pre-chewed programmes, media, television, in your so-called “leisure” time, will not bring you the happiness of purposeful creative activity. Cluttering up your time with “work” for a large proportion of your day, following pre-chewed instructions, producing useless, harmless or expendable products, repeating the same moves day in day out, WILL NOT RENDER YOU THE JOY OF PURPOSEFUL CO-CREATION.

SO HOW DO YOU WANT TO LIVE? FIND THE COURAGE TO BE RADICAL, TO ENVISAGE THE PERFECT SOCIETY, THE IDEAL ACTIVITY – IDEAL FOR ONESELF AND IDEAL FOR SOCIETY SIMULTANEOUSLY.

Your situation is very acute: prepare your minds for change much greater than your minds can imagine. Know that you will learn to extend yourselves in great leaps and bounds if you are prepared to SURRENDER YOUR CONVENTIONAL MODES OF THINKING, MODES OF PLAYING AND MODES OF PRAYING.

The latter is thought to be the most difficult, but is actually the most simple and the most effective. The divine mind knows all, always acts with love, always has progress as its goal. Your request to grow is all you need, as this request will always be received with joy and will always be endowed with divine support.

Brace yourselves dear Children, for the time is coming where huge adjustments must be made. Those who cannot adjust to the new environment of higher love vibration will lovingly be transported to another environment where they can unfold and learn at an optimum pace as determined and chosen by themselves. Those who can adjust and who are willing to learn will find themselves on the upward path.

With this we leave and love you, Seraphin

Esu Speaks Publicly on Coming Changes
By Jess Anthony
Jun 23, 2012 - 10:49:41 AM

6-21-12

Esu, you said you have words. I am ready to receive your comments.

Jess, let's speak. This is a period of change unlike any the world has witnessed before. The universe itself is adapting to a new vibrational frequency of energy that brings with it many revelations of insight into the truth of the Creator's plan. The so-called Wave of photons is truth and love in an ocean of illumination. This will change Earth beyond any imaginings, and those who continue with her ascension will become creatures of the light just as the planet will.

This period of light must be preceded by the dark. This is the prophesied and foretold "three days of darkness" that religions and New Age gurus have feared and anticipated. Religions of the world dread this darkness because they know the return of the light will bring the truth. Their rituals and controlling precepts will be shown as meaningless. Those New Age believers who look for transcendence will be shown the reality of what ascension really means. True illumination and salvation means taking responsibility individually and working to be compassionate to everyone.

The period of darkness will be brought on by galactic forces. Natural causes can't produce the pause in existence necessary for changes to be imposed from a higher dimension. This darkness will be accompanied by a worldwide loss of electricity. Anything that runs on electrical current will not function. Batteries will work until they are used up. Candles will burn until they are not in stock. Water will be turned off unless the pumps don't require electricity to operate. Man will be forced to re-think his mode of existence for this period of three days.

Many will panic and revolt. It will be surprising how quickly man's civilized veneer becomes selfish and predatory. Banks will not operate and financial systems will not be able to transfer fiat digits. Social unrest will develop due to a loss of restriction and control. Martial law will be suggested. The political process will be in shambles. Food delivery and service will be minimal. Transportation will be limited. Chaos will develop quickly.

My followers and those who will be able to guide others will be tasked with explaining and coordinating events when they can. They are responsible for themselves above all, and they must reach out only as much as they are able without harm to themselves. The time for a greater re-education and transformation will come later.

Three days may not seem much, but the removal of electrical energy will bring everything to a halt. The darkening of the sun will prevent normal activities. The loss of sunlight will cause temperatures to drop. Prepare for sustaining your existence with alternative resources.

As the traditional Summer Solstice has occurred according to your calendar, the peak energy from the sun will wane and the Earth will move into a time of darkness when its inhabitants are seemingly cut off from the universe. The universe is watching man's reactions and taking note. Good can come from bad. Compassion can replace selfish behavior. Assistance and help can throw a lifeline.

Be ready and prepared. Examine your beliefs and convictions.

Esu

On the morning of the fourth day

Christ Michael Thru DS June 20, 2012

On the morning of the fourth day dawn will be burning in amber hues. The silence that had taken hold of one's soul will still be embraced as this new day comes to light.

For during the 3 Days of Darkness the Spirits and Souls of Humanity will awaken and be forced to see clearly their demise by which they had forsaken their truth within themselves on earth and in the heavens above.

In the midst of the darkness the silence will be heard so loud it will echo onto them by which ALL will know the Mighty Power of their Father/Creator.

Much madness, sadness and tears will present itself, for denial was at the forefront of many issues. They will no longer deny the lighted truths from within as the crevices of hiding and denying will be lighted as never before.

Shafts of lighted knowledge, truth, and divine scripture will come flooding into awareness, and the voice of their creator will not be denied. Fear will rise and their core will be shaken, but for these souls, the days of darkness will be their ticket to freedom.

Freedom by which many untruths and lies of deception had distorted their reality of what is real and what is false. Some will rejoice as a spark of lighted memory comes flooding onto them and some will spiral into the fear of uncertainty.

A time of reckoning has occurred, that which was predestined to come. A time prayed for by many and welcomed in dreams. Nothing will ever be the same again! People will never be the same again! The nature of God will have been shown and his lighted love will transcend unto the world his glory and oneness!

Hearts will rejoice and be opened as love prevails and unites many! The golden light of truth will flow in the air opening all doors to the soul. Clarity beholden to eyes opened and minds eager will come to them.

Decisions will need to be made by each as to where they stand as the lighted truths will no longer wait or be compromised. It is the time of reckoning! Each soul's time to face themselves and see what they are made of, as they can no longer deny or hide that which they will know within.

By the end of the 3 Days of Darkness much will have been addressed and confronted by each soul, as this has been ordained.

As the morning sun rises on the 4th Day celebrations will be heard world wide.

The darkened cleansing will have accomplished its divine mission of awakening the masses, and mankind will have been purged of the evil dark cabal.

This will be felt, sensed, and known and there will be no denying the changed energy signature within the air and of those around you....

The hunger and thirst for truth will herald in the time of disclosure and announcements!

May my Divine Light be upon my Anointed Ones.
Blessed be to All!

you need money how? anyone in reasonable health can survive three days with no water, no food. I assume you have some of both and you can certainly store some water in jars, pots and pans or whatever. You will make do. This is going to make people think. that is the point. well when the electricity goes off, the first food will be whatever is in your refrigerator! and then the freezer, and then the dried and canned foods on your shelves.

a member of my forum did without electricity for 11 days in the middle of winter over a year ago as did the neighbors. they got thru it. being winter, thawing food was somewhat of a lesser problem. Since I don't know if food will be paused in stasis or not, don't plan on anything in the frig on surviving, so I would say any food that can be kept with the frig and doesn't need cooking. I have my gas stove so I can cook. Unless the gas coming to my house is pressurized by electric pumps of course. I would suggest a can opener not requiring electricity. if you want some light batteries for flashlight! The daytime will not be completely totally dark, partial light then. But nights will be very dark with no street lights etc. Some people living in cities are going to see the stars better than ever.

Candace - thank you for all of your work over the last few days. You and your team have been quite busy. Do you have any insight with regard to animals? We have a horse that we care for that lives about 30 mins from our house. The food situation will be fine. Any insights regarding water for animals that are in stalls?

There will be people around to help if we can't make it there, but setting aside 30 gallons of water poses a few problems, the biggest one being - who should get the water I set aside, my horse, or a fellow human being?

I guess I'll be picking up my bike from my parent's house tomorrow. :)

The Battle is Won

Sanat Kumara

Oh dear ones, it is I Sanat Kumara, whom you know as Solar Logos of the silver ray, and as Grandfather

Rather than chide the dark, the purpose here is give praise to all of you who have passed your difficult testing on this world. I am specifically speaking to the ones directly involved in the project of raising this world that are from the highest realms, but we are well pleased also with those evolving on this world who have made enough of a grade in progress to return here after the long stasis.

We sit in great joy that we have come to this event, the coming 3 days of darkness, which was not envisioned as being possible many years ago. Hope was about gone that we could keep this world running. It was pretty much accepted that she would be rolled over, after the lifting of successful students and star seeds and things started over thousands of years into the future.

You have made it possible for this intermediate option, since a full ascension of earth's inhabitants did not occur, and we stand in amazement of this accomplishment. See the Hope and Light in this! The battle is won.

I assume people will unite some hopefully in the case of the animals. They too will be asleep during the mini stasis, so there is no worry of un milked cows and the like. The weather will be cooler, would lessen the amount of water needed.

My advice, if you can't get there is that every one will be in the same boat and decent people will pitch in. YOU will have to decide on who gets the water. Showers don't need to be done, only drinking and small washing. many many people have done without for 3 days, people will make it thru.

I have not read "SaLuSa" for a long time now, not since I saw the personality change. I don't have any links any more to any site carrying SaLuSa, can you provide one.

The Litmus Test and Graduation message from Source Thru Hazel

Behold the litmus test is now complete and the results measured against MY will. The time of revelation is present and each of ALL in his individuality will know in doubtless form the results. For those who pass will be offered passage BUT those who fail must repeat or abandon the course of life.

Rest easy all MY ones who have obliged ME for your ascent is assured.

Live in this moment and savour its joy; take a journey through the inner mind and heart and rest there for a while. Plough through the unwanted and cast aside that which is fruitless, clear away the debris and find your rest. Allow the stillness of these moments to usher in light; see it flow in the mirror of your mind as it settles within you and you become the light. Become the Light. With certainty this will serve you well on the road ahead as your days become night and night precedes further night for a short, yet what would seem lengthy period of time.

Be like unto ME, effort to be likened to ME for less than ME does not exist. Peel away the layers of false perceptions; release it unto the cosmos for un creation and observe yourself being filled with MY light to replace the antiquity of falsehood. What sits in discomfort within you is false and must be eliminated to allow for new frequencies to fill your vessel; that streams of elevated awareness may begin its culture.

Make ME your Home, your resting place; your tabernacle; your playhouse and I shall in turn create with you an inner dimension from which your outer world can be birthed. It is MY rhythm that you must match to create as I do and as I would. I speak these words to all who will take the ascending journey for graduation time is at hand and I AM rendering the speech that will usher you into the great halls of light.

I have thus far lent you MY eyes for those who wished to see through ME and espouse a higher vision; I have lent you MY mind for those seeking to draw from its education and be united with truth; I have given you MY spirit that you may seek in spirit to know and become spirit. All things have I bestowed upon thee of necessity that you may tend to your soul and seek its survival beyond the contemporary material octave. I HAVE OBLIGED YOU.

As the handle of the door which separates you from a new world opens I desire you to know that greater power awaits you which demands a new found sense of responsibility for yourself and the evolution of planet and people. The old ways cannot and will not sustain; old thinking and beliefs which fettered progress must be abandoned. New vision must be espoused and that vision must be founded in HOLINESS. Perfection must ever be the goal and the I AM presence the way.

What has been taken for granted in the past must be brought to the forefront and tended to. Let not limitations or perceptions of limitation gather in your force field; for they will only sour your journey and pre-empt greater fulfilment of God potential. Do not think that you know all of ME for only when you can do what I do then you shall in truth know ME. Let this be your yardstick of measurement.

A brilliant era of transformation is now upon you and you the graduates are to be commended for your resilience and readiness to assume the mantle of greater responsibility for self and planet. I entrust MYSELF to thee that you may use this Timeless Resource to light your way forward. Ample instruction will be provided so that when you enter your brand new classroom you will be equipped to begin your creation. The measure of your handiwork; the source of its conception, direction, focus and goal will find its foundation and blueprint in a new paradigm- light, love, balance and perpetuity.

As you ascend, the gap between US will lessen and greater motivation will strike and you will plot your way ever forwards until the totality of ONENESS becomes your experience.

I congratulate you and commit to ever walk with you on this your onward journey. I AM your goal and your goal must ever abide in your consciousness lest you forget the purpose of the journey.

I AM your First Source and Centre.

Blessings flow from Paradise; receive and be renewed.

What will happen to people in hospitals that require electricity to live? Also, will this cause problems for people with pacemakers?

Thanks in advance :) Quoted from above, I messed up.

All modern hospitals should have backup generators. There made be need for the benefit of all, to let some folks go on respirators and the like. This will likely be a choice for nursing homes with large populations of comatose people. This is OK, there are no soul let n those ones anyway. One day we will know more and services will not be extended when the soul has vacated.

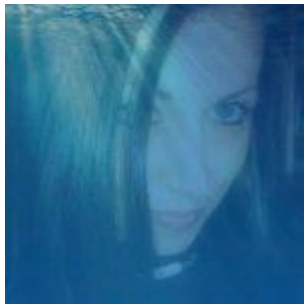

I assume people on battery operated pacers will be fine. Many hospitals have been thru electricity loss before, they have rules and regs on it which they would follow.

A Call To Awaken, From Our Brethren Of The Stars. By, AuroRa Le. June 22, 2012.

Trust me as I say that your world is transforming and the tyranny is waging it's last war upon your lovely planet. We make ready for the full removal of the old Cabal. Expect news of this to come as a whisper in the night at first, with the absences of these individuals to become more noticeable as the weeks and months wear on. Believe me, this is no small feat, even with the technologies we have at our disposal. They know well that it is time for them to surrender and face the ending they themselves created. Immature, misguided souls they are, down to they very last one. They will be justly dealt with by our merciful Creator. Indeed, they take their leave of Earth, and embark upon a journey to a place where their actions will not take a toll on others. Read more:

They are giving us ample time to change things for the better.

If we are granted another day it should be used in going within to change and become aware.

Because that is how the software works. If any of us want to keep something near the top for a few days we have to set the date forwards to do that. That is why I have the registration post on June 30, so I don't keep having to put it on top again. I can't give you a hint because I don't have a hint to give myself. I am not informed on it. the preverbial "soon". I am watching something interesting on Stereo though, but I don't know if what I am seeing is what I hope I am seeing, so I am not mentioning it yet.

I know people get upset over the dates, but I wonder if people consider the fact that they give us time to make the changes.

They are giving us ample time to change things for the better.

If we are granted another day it should be used in going within to change and become aware.

Because when 3 days of darkness comes, its show time.

And I feel it is so close.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

By being here, resisting here, experiencing/learning here. This is a lot to celebrate. Before I thought that making a revolution and bringing down, replacing the system is something worth doing. I didn't know that revolutions are not spontaneous, they are calculated and well prepared in advance by the Dark. The real revolutions, they call it revolts, they were all covered in blood with a cruelty beyond words. The 'real' revolutions are always successful, 'change the world' and are front page in our history books.

If those outside this planet think otherwise then come on down, incarnate here. But not surrounded by thousands of angels and seraphims, or incarnate when the baby is outside the mother womb so they can remember. No, just regular, like we-the-people do all the time. Think of a mother of seven with an alcoholic husband who still find the strength to keep her faith in God. That's a miracle of the human spirit.

This Saturday there is a March For Peace here and I am going to join them. I know it won't change a thing, but I know that it sends a message, that the media has to cover it, and I know that teenagers are going to see/read about this and some of them will get inspired.

Paolo my team has NOT put out ANY MASS arrest material. As to the quakes they have been helping, for example we are OBVIOUSLY not in the solar max yet, and had a long min and its a MIN right now. Had the sun been allowed the natural cycle, we would have had a LOT of quakes of a serious nature. Plus they go thru releasing energy in small quakes, to delay the bigger ones. Also the gulf of Mexico and some other areas were "set back in time", delaying that issue too, for man to grow.

Man can grow the algae himself, but I don't want the stuff until the planet is cleansed more. They are all the time cleansing the air in extra polluted areas and they are surely doing that a bit in colorado right now, because the air here should be worse than it is from the fires and automobiles.

Why is MAN so retarded he does not want et? Why is man so retarded he does not want to CREATE better for himself? Why does man engage in the stupid religions the dark supply, rather than seeking and asking real questions of a spiritual nature. Seeking to have everyone have a nice house and job is not the answer, for it promotes a lazy mind when others do the creating.

Man doesn't even want other energy. He has no concept of pollution and the destruction to the planet thru such. Why is star fleet thus supposed to fix this when man does not want, nor care for it, except the few who are mostly awakened star seeds? God gave the internet so truth could go out and look at this forum! Then also go look t the christians ones, they Stink to a very low heaven. This one attracts SOME thinkers but mot of what I see posted remains bullshit, without good posts in response to issues posted here. why in fuck are WE supposed to use our magic wands to create what man has no interest in? Paolo, there is a nice summary in this channeling and the western lazy peoples include Italy.

[\[link to www.111angels.net\]](http://www.111angels.net)

here is less than 50% of the piece, for purposes of following the copy right rules here. REad the rest at the link, there is a further paragraph that should be read after this below.

“You are a civilization in terminal decline, and what did you do? You have spent and spent and spent, and thoughtlessly, greedily committed the earnings of your as yet unborn offspring to pay for your wasteful lives of today. You have forgotten what is fair and good and honest, and what did you do? You have borrowed, and borrowed and borrowed, and whilst you committed and made it law to care for your elderly and all in retirement, you greedily raided their funds.

“Explain your valid reason to exist now, for what did you do? You are making life impossible for those who worked and cared, provided, and believed in a future, clearly spelled out to provide a reward for all those years. At a time when your communications systems have become almost ‘cost-less’, you keep herding young adults into expensive institutions, top heavy, over-burdened, over regulated and over paid, for them to suffer huge education costs in a jobless world.

Now Paolo, exactly WHY must fleet do something about this miscreation of man which the populace allows? Now it apparently is going to need that big cleansing if we are to move forward in anyway, because man, both the civilian, and their governments have not sought the help needed and which was offered. Don't go blaming it on us. Also do NOT associate Drake, Wilcock, Cobra, et all with us. That is not our information all the men don't want ET Paolo. Sorry but they don't. They want their pretend image of Jesus, not realizing he is ET. And they want Jesus to take them off the planet in a rapture, rather than having Jesus help them rework this world. I know Italians are somewhat more aware of ET, but in American forget it. The think the returned JESUS and his forces are DEMONS and they don't want him. they only want to go off to some heaven and as they think heaven is by definition, they have no clue. Why do we save these races stuck in this stuff who cannot think beyond it?

All the men want to keep raping this earth for gasoline et all. In my country, only a very few people understood what happened with theGulf of Mexico "oil leak", and had any concern about the planet over it. They don't get it. They are not at this time, God material, so they will journey elsewhere until they become God material. I did not understand you comment on the People of Italy around the quake. it was a natural quake, there are fractures all over there, it will quake more as the heating of earth continues.

- you say that you have meet the Et directly on their starship: why they didn't give you the possibility to take a photo or other evidences?

- why they never give us a simple formula to build in open source way some new and useful technologies? And we know that their tech are not difficult.. the difficult technology is that made by men-

I don't know why. That is not my business. Perhaps zero have volunteered, but there is more news coverage at least of UFO's than here. Perhaps channelers there are stuff in the religion or afraid to come forth because of the religion there, they will be bashed. it takes courage to put up with those close to one, negating them because of their channeling.

As to nothing happens, its not ready.

I have explained about the photo until I am BLUE IN THE FACE HERE. I and my team need to LIVE. We have no objections except we will be destroyed if we do. During the teaching phase there will be live camera aboard the craft for show and tell. I had my forum destroyed May 5th, which was Cobras day and others to stick fingers up at ET and GOD , they are not as they say. I have spent now nearly two months creating a new forum alone, along with webmaster. Our webmaster experienced attempted murder AGAIN that day, and most of us had had discomfort, those from the west countries in many ways, on my team. It is NOT SAFE. Eve had her car shot at, others in europe and this country have had stuff done to their cars to cause accidents. The list is LONG since before we went public in 2005. What I have endured is beyond measure, I am not going to re list it here. now do NOT ask that question again of those who have to live this way.

They have provided all the formulas, the thugs will not develop them. A group in europe back in 2005-6 developed a viable excellent plan and had private financing and the money was stolen and people were murdered to prevent it. Now I am NOT GOING TO GIVE YOU ALL THISI AGAIN. It has always been available. There is NO COOPERATION of the thugs, who only develop what suits them. They had to be given many carrots to make the internet public even, it was there for long years before in their own private use before they saw how they could make tons of money by placing it public, look at the money made on that, everyone has how many computers now, alone, plus all the digital cameras, facebook etc. But we do not have free energy because they cannot make money forever on it and if they can't have the planet they will destroy it.

Remember GIUSEPPE dear one, you know him. This is what they did to his house for having energy workshops.

Now put on your MIND, ThiNK and if you can't do that. GO AWAY from this thread, enough already. YOU have not made any effort to once walk in our shoes. They attempted to murder "Jesus" 2000 years ago and "they" have not changed one iota. We can you know, just evacuate God's sons and daughters and roll the planet over, and come back in thousands of years. This what we are doing is the only other option and its a give because of the long history of the thugs on this world. Take it or leave it. this is YOUR ISSUE not mine.

What do you contribute locally to your area and people? Do you tell them anything about fleet, about God, about the hierarchy, about the cosmos? And if you try that, do they listen or slam the door in your face. MOST ON THIS PLANET SLAM THE DOOR and I do admit, it's dam perplexing as to WHY.

Quoting: paolo-r 18795690

Living far from Rome does NOT make you safe. I live far from Rome and London too and it doesn't make me safe. If CM wants another telepath, his team chooses one, not up to me anyway. But in this and your questions you show you care, and that is why I said you would serve once you got your "proof".

What energy development are in you regards your job? Also new energies using electrons are not so supported right now, as before we enter light and life we must be photon based and give up WIRES to transmit energy. So I think any new energy will have to come after the long stasis actually. It would be better to put the efforts into that. Many of the underground bases around the world already use it.

Photon light cannot be run thru copper wires man now still mostly uses for electricity delivery.

And what do you mean by 666, its has tons of meanings, ideologies etc. So I have no idea what you mean since I don't know what it means to you. It means nada, nothing to me except as in these two ways, Number 1, there are people who seem to know that 666, the number of man, refers to his present DNA which is changing over to the DNA of HUman with the hooking of the 'junk' DNA.

The other meaning is that there are 5.6 +trillion evolutionary worlds, worlds with life evolved to free will level thinking. Our number in the records is 5,342,482,337,666 I pay no real attention however to 666, just not on my plate of important stuff. CM himself in the PJ's basically, said he doesn't know and who cares, and why is it important, its not.

man lives only for a short period of individuality, where does THAT COME FROM? MAN is forever an individual personality, as long as he is pursuing his life eternal anyway and has not be uncreated. Everyone with a personality is eternal unless uncreated. Coming back to being ONE with GOD, is not a loss of individuality, it is the choosing to do the will of the father. And stop being a satanic xxxxx.

We really do need technology, how on earth do you think things get done in "heaven". Another sun system larger than our sun, was drawn close to our sun to cause planets to come off it, that took something! Fleet is up there working on the sun regularly using technology! Causing and preventing sunspots, breaking off magnetic filaments before they get too big etc. That is technology and man is to pursue technology, however, he was be spiritual responsible to have a lot of it.

I answered this question; vortex and implosion..

Do you know that one water bubble that implode is able to produce light 5000°C of temperature and 2000 bar of pressure? out like a small sun, inside cold..
You can use this principle to have cold fusion for example or to clean the water and air... the same principle, using gravity and magnetic fields can give the death ray (I posted a video..)..

problems, earth quakes..and so..why don't they help?

what do I now: that there is no ET that will come to help us..it's easy think about this opportunities..at the end someone will arrive to help the earth..we must take our responsibility..do you know that we already have free energy?the capacity to stop world hunger using algae?and also something to cure the diseases?And I cdon't speak about something secret..but something you can found everywhere on the net..this is my job new technology to help the world..and I'm not CM and I don't need to speak about false date or false event..every day I work hard with free energy, new energy, new process to help the world..Question: what do CM made to help?until today nothing...

have you not seen the threads, they are down because the goddard center has no electricity, it was hit by the big storm a couple days ago. there is no us operation Lock down in place, that is rubbish. Greg Giles is NOT a a fleet telepath.

What is LOCK-DAWN, or LOCK-DOWN, its so unheard of, its not on google that I can find. I am unaware of such a thing. Usually if there is internet chatter anyway, it will show on google. Its not.

The "arrests" as I keep saying are NOT a story from US. We have only admitted some folks have been arrested, mostly ones you never heard of, or if you did, the story doesn't fly on the news because our thugs put in replicas of various sorts still.

Sure we would like to see such, but that would require in that quantity massive fleet support to the masses of this world who would be suddenly deprived of all leadership with resultant chaos. These ones and many others will be removed during the 3 dark days period, and there is then a plan to control the chaos. And also we don't have control anyway, in the case of "mass arrests" to keep a lid on all the various parties trying to arrest each other. think it through.

And what are KRAKEN. Google says they are sea monsters. Is there a "plan" on the cia internet sites about releasing sea monsters?

Popping in to say Hi!

Are you out of the dangerous fire area? Hope you stay safe!

In the past we had a pasture fire in TX, and then one here where a neighbor 2 miles away burned debris (should have been a ban) and it took off up the mtn....it burned over 420 acres, some of that our property. The local fire dept sat at our house for a whole day waiting for it to rush down the mtn. The forest dept had to do water drops and the local volunteers did a fire line. It smoldered and moved around and flamed up again alot until we finally had some good rain. That was back in 2005. Almost had to evacuate a few times, smoke building up in the hollow. The plan was to open the gates and let the cows and horse run off the property to safety if need be. This was very frightening to have happen.

Prayers for y'all over there!

Here is what is happening now:

All that you have heard from our earth allies is true and is happening now! The first green light was given with a waiting period to see how many would react! We have seen that more reacted with faith and in a positive way than not! This was good enough to proceed to a second green light which was given today! (2012.06.29)

Many good leaders and forces on earth and from above and below are working today in stealth to clear out all archontic clones (the now-cabal). These beings are intent on chaos and destruction!

Since a green light was given by one of our contacts and earth allies many involved became ecstatic as did we! The news went viral overnight! Now here is the important thing we want you to know

This day and night and weekend we the people of earth, the patriots, sovereigns, the militia, occupy, good earth leaders and positive military forces, anonymous, all light workers, ascended masters and many other freedom groups will join forces to free GAIA and it's people from all archontic tyranny! Today, finally you will begin to see the fruits of labors from 300,000 years of the control of the earth and its people.

Spread this good news with others and tell them how to bring these sons-a bitches down! This will be a fourth of July to remember for time eternal! Spread the word :)

Paolo, there is nothing in that, which says it will done by the end of June. It says there is PLENTY of SHIT TO BE DONE YET in June. Sadly as I get updated each day, the shit doesn't change into good stuff and S333 in particular with the banking is not a happy camper. But so it goes. there is still some preference that the people get some HINTS before the 3 days start, more than hints actually as to how bad it is. The public needs to see it coming down, and thus WANT GOD TO INTERVENE. I get told regularly what is planned for each day and each day usually the come as say will no such luck again. There is a time limit because of the energeries the WAVE is coming again, I hear it, and other stuff and they up there KNOW how it all works together. WE ARE STILL PLANNING a very NICE teaching period and you WILL LIKE IT. But the people NEED to see their world crumbling first so they can "believe " " God" needs to intervene.

Why is MAN so retarded he does not want et? Why is man so retarded he does not want to CREATE better for himself? Why does man engage in the stupid religions the dark supply, rather than seeking and asking real questions of a spiritual nature. Seeking to have everyone have a nice house and job is not the answer, for it promotes a lazy mind when others do the creating.

Man doesn't even want other energy. He has no concept of pollution and the destruction to the planet thru such. Why is star fleet thus supposed to fix this when man does not want, nor care for it, except the few who are mostly awakened star seeds? God gave the internet so truth could go out and look at this forum! Then also go look t the christians ones, they Stink to a very low heaven. And 'anything changed since then? Nothing.

The agreement has not yet been found and it will go on to the bitter end until it will be found ... with the dark of course, that CM's own words, are his children in the gran direct. I think at this point and see how things are going, there's a worm at the source, but that's another story.

What is clear from all this is that CM and the rest of his "court", despite the thousands of words written, more interested in collecting its direct children, rather than the other billions of people every day who are crushed by 'work of his descendants.

Now wait for the next update, the next target messages, and yet another postponement ... a lot of excuses if we can find a great deal.

Acually, there has been a tremendous amount of exposure of the dark ones recently... people are being able to piece together just how corrupt and despicable the BB&G are.

The people of Gaia have to see in real terms how we have been deceived and dumbed down... the intervention of our celestial family is not appropriate until everyone has been given the chance to request from the heart, an end to this tyranny.

The trouble is that you are expecting results as if it is you planning them, and you want it now on the spot or it is not so. You need to understand that your idea of time is one of impatience and your expectations are those based on what you hear and not what you know.
Do you think you can assist a world full of billions of people and half of them dark people with nasty plans, a third ignorant and assisting in helping the dark ones along nicely but blindly, you could not even fathom the works they must have to do to assist this planet.
It is good that you can see the abuses of the governments, no it is not good, but it is so and this is what you need to see to know them for what they are and what they do and why your planet is a mess, hence the sentence above from NIP, it is important for you to just be patient, it will be when it will be.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

After reporting what they want and see that what has been said has not been achieved (almost every time), I would begin by asking me questions and then turn round to them the same questions.

I would not take anything for absolute truth.

Because who has to do with communications coming from the outside (are among), when they want to know how accurate, hiding behind the alleged difference in time and space to justify the failure of the news, does a disservice to ourselves and to their intelligence.

They know everything. Every detail of every story, including the timing and evolution of the event. In my small (my life) I have proof of every day. From the mundane to the most important things (when I know) I know exactly which direction and how time and events occur. But you also know that things are real Candace?

So if CM tells us that extraordinary things happen in June or Esu writes me that this is the time ... then comes the inevitable Siraya that makes us compliments ... and in the end nothing happens, I expect as a minimum an explanation of why not nothing has happened.

Instead what happens? There is a pause (as now) there's a couple of messages, not messages (as I call them) just to irempire space and then restarts the caravan ... the various target message arrives, the new ritual communications and the never-ending story that is behind it all. For years this keeps up ... we want to remember the stasis of late last year? Perhaps it is better to call the fake stagnation, because it was not in the programs and they did.

So what is behind this strategy? The truth can not say never succeed, because going to destroy everything they have reported up to now ... that so bad and ugly "dark" and he needs that are not stupid they have understood.

It 's better to start from something even if taken to the dark, or start from scratch? The first course.

This is politics ... not so much different from what happens in our own countries and internationally. The situation seen from this point leads me to wonder who is actually ... CM is really our god, or is it just our creator (not the same thing) and as such has come to take back what he had created so long ago.

Sorry for my English.

The first, in my opinion would have acted as a being above all, the second much more normal even if it means that you have our eyes are fiction, but it is not God and seeks only the transfer of power more affordable.

Some of the dark are direct children of CM (Christ Michael's own words), or old former allies?

Did it ever occur to you that soon and now may be a form of decoy for the dark ones. If you are so desperate to escape the shit then why don't you do more to change it, no, it is too big now.

We are not in this alone, if we were in this alone we would have been decimated long ago. You need to witness the crap because it has taken you long enough to start to see what deeds are done under your noses yet has escaped your attention and understanding until now.

I have had an amazing experience and teaching by the celestial HELPERS, I have had the privilege of personal experience and have been shown that this is the end of history and that the human occupants are to go through a transformation, an ascension. I ask the right questions and I am shown the right path and the right path is that what Abundant Hope and Candace are teaching, I know it is not rubbish because I have been shown it, and no, I am not a member of her team.

The trouble is that these wonderful helpers have been sent here, chose to come here to help you in the final preparations and you are so lost and mesmerized by this beast system that you cry for help and belittle and try to destroy or ignore it when it comes to you.

You seem to prefer television programming and cartoons and horror films and toys and games and nonsense and alcohol over facts and celestial help.

The information being given to you is so above your understanding that not only do you reject it you vilify and mock it beyond belief.

It may well be true that if God came and stood right there before your face and offered you his hand, your scepticism would probably mock him and deny him. Many of you are hooked on doom and negativity that you actually enjoy it because you have been doing it for so long, the habit has taken control.

I think the information of your origin is too advanced for you and you cannot take it, which is sad because it is who you are. You would rather be stuck in the material than embrace the truth and embrace your freedom.

Christ Esu did not run away when he was attacked, he stayed to help and guide and teach until the dark do what they do best. But he is still remembered a couple of thousand years later and still he is mocked and attacked, but his teachings have done more good for this planet than you can even shake a denying finger at. It is not easy walking out of line with everyone else, it is not easy standing out in the crowd and shining bright, it attracts the curious and the curious are often immature, and the dark will egg them on.

You do not even remember that this earth is a training ground, you want to keep going back a term over and over because you have been convinced that earth is all there is and on it is just to have fun, well it is not fun any more is it, examination time is here and it is never meant to be easy!

Hello and much Love to you all,

...as I was reading all the comments, one thing came to mind that I would like to share with you.

"If you go ahead and do it, I will follow"was one thing I heard a thousand times while changing my life around, stepping out of the system as far as I could.

None of those People who said they would, ever did. At the end they did not want to loose their "comfortable living".

But other People, ones which I never expected to do so came around, wanting to know how it can be done and what to expect.

What I'm trying to say is: Most People wait on someone to lead the way. Once they find out they have to be the ones doing the change....up up and away they go.

It seems everyone always wants "the table fully set" not wasting a thought about what it takes preparing a Dinner.

It's the same with CM, Esu and all the good teachers who are trying so hard to help us in our shoes....and yet we are not willing to walk, instead complaining...complaining...

forgetting that it is not just about us, but the progress of a whole universal section...the one which we a part of.

Please, have a little more patience, be a little more thoughtful, try a little harder to change the things you are able to change....things will unfold, they already do, but one has to look to see. Don't let fear or sadness discourage you.

...or like Eddy Kendricks said it in one of his Songs: "Keep on trucking Baby, keep trucking"....

Such lofty speech! Such lofty speech!

YET, the dark ones control EVERYTHING. You don't think I wish people woke up and took back their world? Yet, the dark control it all and they control your lives too. It cannot be escaped without a mass wake up call. The problem IS and has always been that no predictions EVER come true, so at some point, just like hte boy who cried wolf, the words become empty-- no matter how lofty they are. Love, Love, becoming one, visualize your world, etc..... fall on deaf ears, and rightfully so. We have to do something. DO SOMETHING. Sitting around and meditating is not going to accomplish the tasks. Mass earthquakes? what will that accomplish except a total governmental rebuilt with more security and control forced upon the people who will have no rights or freedoms? Stasis? What good is it if people are unaware? Earth changes? ok--- as long as the dark are removed and the people see it---if the dark remain we are in worse shape.

Hello and much Love to you all,

...as I was reading all the comments, one thing came to mind that I would like to share with you.

"If you go ahead and do it, I will follow"....was one thing I heard a thousand times while changing my life around, stepping out of the system as far as I could.

None of those People who said they would, ever did. At the end they did not want to loose their "comfortable living".

But other People, ones which I never expected to do so came around, wanting to know how it can be done and what to expect.

What I'm trying to say is: Most People wait on someone to lead the way. Once they find out they have to be the ones doing the change....up up and away they go.

It seems everyone always wants "the table fully set" not wasting a thought about what it takes preparing a Dinner.

It's the same with CM, Esu and all the good teachers who are trying so hard to help us in our shoes....and yet we are not willing to walk, instead complaining...complaining...

forgetting that it is not just about us, but the progress of a whole universal section...the one which we a part of.

Please, have a little more patience, be a little more thoughtful, try a little harder to change the things you are able to change....things will unfold, they already do, but one has to look to see. Don't let fear or sadness discourage you.

...or like Eddy Kendricks said it in one of his Songs: "Keep on trucking Baby, keep trucking"....

YET, the dark ones control EVERYTHING. You don't think I wish people woke up and took back their world? Yet, the dark control it all and they control your lives too. It cannot be escaped without a mass wake up call. The problem IS and has always been that no predictions EVER come true, so at some point, just like hte boy who cried wolf, the words become empty-- no matter how lofty they are. Love, Love, becoming one, visualize your world, etc..... fall on deaf ears, and rightfully so. We have to do something. DO SOMETHING. Sitting around and meditating is not going to accomplish the tasks. to meditate keeps your mind & heart & Higher-self in touch with each-other, makes you "whole"/One.

From that point you can operate. Ideas will come how/what you yourself can do, to help make this world a better place.

You will be guided thats all. I changed my life around and by doing so, I stepped out of the System as far as possible. People saw it and now a few others doing something similar.

It's like throwing a stone into a pond. The circles building up on the water will become bigger and bigger.

Just take a look inside and listen to the Ideas that come up and go for them. Most People think they have to do something "breathtaking" to make a difference, this is not so. Many little things, whatever it may be someone could do that benefits all, is what would really count.

This is mostly misunderstood by People who think meditating and "lalala" would be all one has to do.

This is not and I think I can say this, what the Higher Realms, AH or Candace's teaching is all about.

Truth is, you are right when you say the masses have not woke up yet...but they will...when they have no other choice left but doing so. Is it sad...of course, but it should not stop you or anybody from doing what needs to be done. Now is not the time to give up, Now is the time to stand!

I said: I stepped out of the System as far as I could! I went to jail for doing so and I would go there again if that's what it takes!

No Corporation, no Firm, no Bank, no Insurance no Health-care no Money or benefits from government....has a hold on me and my family any longer.

I limited all my "feeding the beast" to my own existential minimum and I like it that way.

I can not help you in your unbelief, I surely would if I could. It is you who has to decide....AC. What you do not understand is, that by you making your choice, you help the changes unfold. Why do you think this was stated over and over again? Choose!!

Choose the change for the better of ALL....Christ Michael is HERE! IS REAL! as YOU ARE REAL! What do you think?;...this is a fairytale? It is not! Look in the night-sky....not once but every night, you can see them with your bare eyes, you can communicate with them, its not a big thing at all. You think they are doing nothing? Wrong! They been at work for some time now, you will see, you too will be a witness!

The whole System is at the brink of braking down...even the blind can see, right?

The world had been on the edge of a WW3 more than once, in the past few years. Did it happen? No, why?;....because the naughty ones all of a sudden found out they still had a heart? Not quite so, but because CM did not let this happen.

The money system bouncing and rumbling...rolling over like Beethoven...how much longer one may ask? Well....watch it come tumbling down as we speak. Just because they keep pushing the market with their last breath, doesn't mean a thing.

Help is on the way! It has been all the time, they will intervene, they do so already.

Try to calm yourself down a little...I know how you feel...I've been there too.

Don't feed your fear, your anger, your feeling helpless...you are not!

AC, if your inner pain gets to much for you to bear and all that has been said can not help you or comfort you in any way, then please give your burden to the Creator. Lay down for a while, rest your mind and ask for answers in your dreams....they will be given.

Not meant to be rude in any way,

much Love

AC, there is so much you can be doing during this waiting period. You have been given time to prepare your outer world around you, (food/blankets/batteries/candles etc) and your inner world within yourself(standing tall in your truth). During the 3DD neighbors/friends/family may be scared and uncertain of what is unfolding. Knowing this truth securely within will guide you to calm all around you. Perhaps it is no coincidence that you are here on this forum learning of these truths. Perhaps you are the guiding light for those around you....ponder this!! Nothing is a coincidence!

Every minute we are here we are guides and truth teachers to those around us. Yes we cannot change the world, but we can change the circumstance of every situation we encounter, with truth. To be fearless needs preparation and guidance from the celestials above and from CM. Ask him to guide every thought, word, and action. Listen in stillness for your guidance. Trust your feelings/intuition as that is how they connect.

Meditation brings insights and enlightenment to each situation daily. Connect constantly within now for that is most important in knowing each minute what is unfolding.

Candace and AH are bringing light to the world by bringing truth. Lets help CM while we are still here by sharing love and truth with everyone we know. We are is ground crew, and so instead of complaining lets start helping, because this task IS huge. Positive energy is needed in thoughts and words each day! Sending love to him and the people suffering in the world.

If you ask, they will guide you each day to what is needed!
They will remind you of things needed in preparation! Use this time to get fully educated and spiritually wise!!

Blessings to all!

Candace, are you telling us that a Creator of an universe cannot resolve the problems of a planet? If the real problem was the Dark Ones they just take them out of here. There must be something that they aren't tell you/us. Isn't that right? Ponder about it dear.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 19007862

To begin with the creator of any universe does not create that universe, it is joint project with MANY. So drop the idea of what you think an creator is. Do you just remove all the people you created over your incarnations of earth?

No, it is not the policy of just take the dark ones out of here, NONE of the hierarchy advocates such at all until the very end of the evolutionary age. They will be removed during the 3 days during the mid way ministasis. And if you have followed any of my and teams work, you know the issues of this planet are not just dark vs light.

If you have been following this thread then you remember Nip saying to watch for economic signs. There was also something about this country needing to be taught a lesson. Well, it's coming. We're really at the brink.
If you don't like to read then scan the bolded topics to get an idea of the implications. This is gonna be deep.

The Bank of England and the US Federal Reserve are both implicated, but they will skate until the end game. They control the prosecutors and the news networks. Few yet connect the LIBOR rigged prices to the important parts of the financial kingdom run by the harried banker elite...-snip

OP
Where are the results? I do not understand why there are so many confirmations that things are imminent, that it's over, that there will be no more warnings, that the time has come, and nothing ever happens.. why? All I see is more and more abuse by the gov's of the world and they are non stop in their abuses.

But the people NEED to see their world crumbling first so they can "believe" God needs to intervene. [NIP]

The trouble is that you are expecting results as if it is you planning them, and you want it now on the spot or it is not so. You need to understand that your idea of time is one of impatience and your expectations are those based on what you hear and not what you know.

Do you think you can assist a world full of billions of people and half of them dark people with nasty plans, a third ignorant and assisting in helping the dark ones along nicely but blindly, you could not even fathom the works they must have to do to assist this planet.

It is good that you can see the abuses of the governments, no it is not good, but it is so and this is what you need to see to know them for what they are and what they do and why your planet is a mess, hence the sentence above from NIP, it is important for you to just be patient, it will be when it will be.

Such lofty speech! Such lofty speech!

YET, the dark ones control EVERYTHING. You don't think I wish people woke up and took back their world? Yet, the dark control it all and they control your lives too. It cannot be escaped without a mass wake up call. The problem IS and has always been that no predictions EVER come true, so at some point, just like hte boy who cried wolf, the words become empty-- no matter how lofty they are. Love, Love, becoming one, visualize your world, etc..... fall on deaf ears, and rightfully so. We have to do something. DO SOMETHING. Sitting around and meditating is not going to accomplish the tasks. Mass earthquakes? what will that accomplish except a total governmental rebuilt with more security and control forced upon the people who will have no rights or freedoms? Stasis? What good is it if people are unaware? Earth changes? ok--- as long as the dark are removed and the people see it----if the dark remain we are in worse shape.

Contagious: Transmuting Dark Hats to White:

"DH" they have to go through that experience, so they can appreciate what they've put everyone else through it, or tried to. "DH" they certainly don't feel empowered, because they have been like so many puppets on the string. But their masters are gone, and still they're so used to the programs that they aren't able to break those strings, you see. They aren't able to free themselves, and that's what we're going to do. We're going to start by loving them, and freeing them, and then watch as dominoes fall! We're going to be looking at Crystal dominoes, and then pretty soon it spreads to everyone on the whole of Planet Earth, and then beyond. Well how's that for a preview?

The cabal's psychotic chemtrailing episode over the last 6 months was an effort to implant destructive synthetic archons into humans at the nano level.

These alien micro-machine-organisms would have created a complete transhuman race in rapid time! This was a key factor for the higher races to set aside the prime directive and to intervene for Gaia! The organite-phosphate dust was designed not to harm sentient life in any way!

I am archiving this from Wild Honeys thread. She had a dream about the days of darkness, the sun thing and knew the dark were being removed. She is one of the few remarkable christians here. Thread: Wow.....I dreamed of the harvest of the Angels! \(Page 14\)

Now I am going to use this thread briefly to provide the education I provided for years now here on glp. And to cover the discussion in the posts above about where the dark ones go. Some of that is very good by the way.

The planet is terribly overpopulated. It is way over polluted and the ecology is dying. Either you all die with it, or there is intervention. The thugs have not cooperated on any plan offered to them. They are going to be removed during the 3 days of darkness. Some of you have heard of that. it is NOT nibiru or any of that new age BS. A very large craft from the very high realms of this heaven you have NO CONCEPT OF, is going to eclipse the sun for 3 days. However, during the mid portion of that, the planetary peoples and some animals (those requiring human care, like Milking) are going to be PAUSED, which is called stasis.

Some of you MUST have noticed my thread with that title by now. Any of you alive on this planet since prior to august 1992 went thru a short stasis period of 1 week when the planet entered the photon belt. For this not to have been, meant for massive global blindness because man had not been prepared for it. This was done by G0d's many S0Ns.

Now you will be in stasis for a few days again, so the hard work you should not see is carried out. A lot of people are leaving. They will go to many places, the population has got to be gotten down. Then, after this 3 days with the stasis in the middle, we call it a mini stasis because its for a few days, those "left behind" are going to get a GLOBAL education about all the shit of this world.

This will last depending on all sorts of issues for a few weeks to maybe a year. The number of dark to be removed is STUPENDOUS and will not go unnoticed. Some companies are not going to function that you work for and the unemployment will be huge during this period, so there has been created a financial welfare program to support all those out of work. And you will not have any more mortgage, credit card, or other debt, because its going away. This is not NESARA. The banks are going to be folded, and this in and of itself will cause a lot of unemployment.

The people of this planet are religious FOOLS and you have allowed the antrichirst to fully manifest as the new world order and all that goes with it.

Now, after this period of teaching, the planet will be emptied of all people for a period of many years while it is rehabilitated. all of the LIFE including plants will be "asleep". The volcanism from the planned axis shift and magnetic reversals, even the plants will not be able to handle. Now this folks is what the management teams of HEAVEN do. God does not wave magic wands.

God is the consciousness that built the whole creation and is present in both matter and mind. This is what the "Trinity" is, it is the creation. Is not the daddy of Jesus and this person named Jesus who is Daddy God's son nor is your "holy spirit" have anything to do with the Trinity energies of the creation.

Jesus is not the ONLY BEGOTTEN SON of GOD. You are all only begotten sons of God and the Catholic church created the Trinity MYTH. Its a really evil myth. It denies you are God and you are. EVERY being with consciousness is a son of God, whether angel or man. This planet is a seed planet for producing new souls in fact, and the evil ones won it in war and then you have that lucifer rebellion thing too. These ones which number 10 billion total between lucifer folks and galactic thugs have been reincarnating here for 200,000 years because of whole variety of situations and many of you are them. Did you grow up over 200,000 years or not. If not, YOU ARE MOVING.

After the stasis of some 4 to 10 years, depending, about 1 billion of you are coming out of storage, stasis, and will resume here under the guidance now of HEAVEN. The planet has been returned to god. This is necessary at this time, because of the cosmic energies the planet is in, and the FACT that the living MOther Gaia is a conscious PERSON in her own right and she is going back to seed planet status as to her body and purpose and not being a prison ward any more.

You are in three energy streams which are going to forever change the frequency of matter in this solar system, and those who do not match that are leaving and there are a lot of folks leaving. Your choices are made.

This planet will eventually enter 5d, and it could have happened already except the people are NOT. You have to have become God Consciousness which is NOT CHURCH. Christianity is fully in the hands of evil, and it is the worst religion on this planet. This is fact and you may not argue it. You people have been "HAD" by your "DEVIL", who like god is not a singular person. People are aligned with god, or evil. period. and at the end of ages like we are in, you don't get to be a fence sitter anymore. You are on the road to good, or the road to evil, you can't be evil sometimes and good other times. At the end of an age, all folks evolving on any planet are sorted as to intent. This planet has been sorted in fact at least very 13,000 years. There are 5 previous LARGE civilizations on this planet since the Lucifer rebellion that bit the dust, this is number 6.

When civilizations bite the dust, people are sorted for placement where they belong.

So now comes the first sorting. Anybody still perhaps reasonably good, but still sitting the fence will stay for the teaching period, and this is an example of GRACE, because you have been so deceived and are getting some chance to hear the truth, but most of those left behind after the 3 days will still be moving, only you will be offered to move to other planets. There is going to be full open contact with concurrent cleansing out in the open with CRAFT.

You are going to meet these people from other worlds including many from the heaven you cannot concept. EVERYONE, even spirit beings LIVE ON PLANETS people, or in craft. There are craft many times the size of earth in fact.

The heaven worlds are custom built balanced worlds on which there is NO WAR, and you do not earn the right to live on even the lowest ones until you grow up and that is how it is. So some of the darker souls here are going to other dark planets. OK. Some will be uncreated. The astral realms will be emptied, as the souls living in the mid astral are also being sorted and those in the low astral are sorted always to the 2nd Death anyway as they accumulate there after death.

The mid astral was moved to the moon as astral realms must be around orbs, and the mid astral is affected by atomic blasts to their souls. We don't care about the lower astral, but the mid was moved. The high astral contains as residents only spirit photon beings of very high vibration and they are not affected by nuclear mistakes. Nuclear damages the morontial soul. So those who are in the mid astral realms between lives live around the moon now. Its far enough away.

You can bash this until you are blue in the face, it is truth and I care not one wit about what YOU THINK OF IT.

I am highly pleased that Wild HOny shared her experience and the correct assessment that it was the dark leaving. And some here bashed her pretty bad in both their arrogant religion and their stupidity fool misunderstandings.

The entire creation is MANAGED by the trillions of Sons of God beloveds and planets in dire shape get cleansed of man. The planet is important.

You are in 3 cycles of energy. I have covered this here until I want to vomit. You are in the Photon Belt, (every 13,000 years for 2,000 years) of Alcyone. Earth went into it in 1992.

You are in the gamma rays/god particle energies from the center of the Milky way since October 2006. For the last 3 to maybe 4 years, you have been in laps of the WAVE from Paradise, the center of the Creation. Another is coming on, these have all be modulated a bit to allow a bit more time. we have no more time.

I want you all to put on those thinking caps. (of which your "holy spirit" is a part, for some of you anyway), and THINK for once. It will do you some good and stop repeating the religious BS. Jesus IS returned and he is the commander of the game going on now. You have been turned away from the end time teachings promised 2000 years ago, by the very people high up in your churches who will not let you have them and some of you have been told the "devil" wrote them. REALLY? Will God did not write your bible, nor did the holy spirit make sure it was ok. it doesn't do that, it cannot do that in fact. HOW Incredibly stupid because most of you who did hear of them rejected them on that premise alone rather than exploring the material to see if it fit. Some of you did very marginally and it didn't completely match your very incomplete bible full of fairy tales so you attacked the messengers who bring it.

Anyway, where was I, ok, I want you all to imagine where mankind is going when the air gets too bad, food cannot be grown and delivered and the banks break. Its going to get awfully evil, if the government falls also, even more evil than now. PONDER THAT, and you will then, if you are still walking the planet after the 3 days, feel very blessed for the intervention. And God with his magic wand is not here waving it. There are 10 million craft here full of both "angels" and people to assist with this big fucking mess man has made and allowed on this world. And you who remain are going to get this same sort of truth shoved in your faces on global TV. How about that for Grace. Then the planet will be closed for the massive remodeling project.

Then those staying will come out of slumber, and with the guidance of those from "heaven", this world is going to grow up, never to be destroyed by ignorant man again. There is no hell fire, how utterly stupid to think that "god" would create such a place. There are only more rotten planets for the thugs to live on, as this one is done being a prison ward, but "god" is gracious and most will be continuing their eternal life on other butt hole planets until they get tired of it and decide to grow up. OK. Thats the story, good night.

We are going to have it.

Do we know if we're going or staying?

Do we find out at that time?

Are "regular" people considered "dark"?

A couple of others who speak about this have said we'll have "a$$holes" there, too. LOL

To be honest, this is the kind of thing that makes me wonder how worthy I am and where I'll actually end up.

I've always tried to contribute in a positive manner, but I've been so confused and negative at times, but this earthly way of life wears me out sometimes.
