Yes we are regarding the stasis. That is a testing going on by the dark to reduce the planetary population. Its not fully working yet, still in test stage, regards the dark chemtrails. Its not how God does things. If planetary over population reduction is going to be allowed, it is allowed on better planets than this one that have made poor choices, and people are allowed to experience what they caused from the natural diseases that arise in those situations. They do not allow the dark thugs on worlds like this to deliberately murder large populations by lab created diseases or nerve gas type poisoning. This planet is now under the full management of heaven realms.

The people do not know here, and are thus not held accountable for what they do not know in that regard. This is a prison ward as I have said before, for thugs and only about 10% of them grew up, into the beginning of service to others way of doing things. The rest remained in self service at the expense of others and are now preparing the major world war, using robotic cyborg armies and other terrible technologies, between the two major powers, and they will not step down from that, so we are moving forward for all these too, to end the show and let GAIA rise up. If the planetary people were in support of massive killing wars, like world war 1 and 2, then these are allowed so people can experience what they have partaken in. But at this stage there are many people on this world who don't have a clue and otherwise there are also many who sincerely want peace, and by the stasis we are giving honor to that.

Thanks for your explanation NIP. How many weeks or months away before the stasis happens? What will happen to the bankers, NWO, etc, on this planet?

Thanks

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 3134826

days to weeks. all human beings will be lifted and sorted appropriately. the thugs will be facing the Nebadon and in some cases the Orvonton courts. in fact all planetary citizens and the various angelics in duty on a planet are "judged" at the conclusion of each age. Those deserving rewards get them, those needing more lessons get them. Just like you get work reviews at work, and report cards and grades in school, so it works also for everyone serving on a planet, a job well done or not. Promotions occur often for jobs well done and demotions or back to class, depending on the circumstances for others of the management angelics on a planet. Ascending sons and prisoners are all sorted to where they need to be, and the thugs are judged in actual courts.

the rules change at the end of the age, and when the final catastrophes begin they can, do, and will empty the planet, so don't start that stuff here again. Until then "interference" is done by incarnation,, public teaching and the like. When we incarnate we can work within the planet. but when the axis shift, pole reversal, atomic catastrophe, or massive global deaths at the hands of the thugs, by robot armies, and massive genocides begin they can and do.

These decisions are made at the very highest of the management and in the case of this planet and some of its issues here, combined with the ascending energies and the free will choice of GAIA, they will evacuate. we are at that point. Most people because of the alien bullshit out there will not board craft in my own country, that is why they will be lifted during stasis. They don't know any better. Every single HUMAN being will be lifted off the planet before the arrival of the huge wave that will no longer be mitigated.

These decisions are made even at the level of Paradise regards the outcome of this planet. This is no ordinary planet. The cyborg war coming will lead to the total collapse of life here, along with the poisoning of the people intended and going on for years now.

That this shit has been allowed IS related to the laws allowing free will actions, but you must remember that most of the people are this world are NOT living in their free will, they are enslaved and have begged to be relieved of that slavery. When the people ASK, then it can be done.

This planet because of her own ascension will no longer be able to host thugs, her energy will be too high. Under stand all planets are prepared for life and watched over. Free will only goes so far. ON prison wards people are given an opportunity by experiencing their own bullshit to choose to align their free will with that of the Father/Creation. Those that do not, continue their experience on other prison wards. You do not enter the higher realms until you earn it. And do to the laws of spirit and mater/nature you can't survive in the higher realms anyway.

People will be lifted because they do not have enough knowledge to effect an honest free will choice. Half the population occupying human bodies are still mental animals, and have no true free will because they do not think well. All that is taken into consideration.

Lucifer wanted the ultimate free will. He himself would not subject himself to the rules of the higher realms. He rebelled it and drew lots of support. His experiment was a total failure, and that failure is going to be rectified.

Candace--I always enjoy your threads when i can read them, that is. I can't stand all the hateful comments some so childishly choose to post. It actually physically hurts and I admire your strength Some days I feel like I wouldn't be able to handle it so I skip your posts and catch up later. Much love to you!

I would like to ask you a question, if you have a minute. I've asked you things before and your answers always sit just right with me.

Lately--the past several days--I just don't feel like myself. Out of sorts and bordering on confusion and maybe even disorientation.

Things seem surreal. Everything seems to take place in slow motion at times. Colors look different. My ear ringing has intensified and at times I feel lost.
I see grids when I close my eyes and I hear voices, but I've come to the conclusion that I'm clairaudient--you should hear some of the stuff I hear! LOL!
I've heard voices since I can remember so that doesn't bother me.

One day I had to force myself to remember where I was. That scared me. Thankfully it only happened once.

Sometimes when I'm driving it feels like the road is tipping sideways.

I'm healthy and have always been blessed with a killer constitution and immune system so I really don't think I need to see a doctor at this point and I feel fine physically.

I feel something huge is right around the corner. Maybe the things you talk about???

I almost have the jitters and am edgy with anticipation.

It's driving me crazy!

Last night I was lying in bed with my reading light and puzzle as I do every night and I was told "Close your eyes and I'll tell you something". So I did, hoping for an answer, but I fell asleep pretty quick and I don't remember my dreams.

Please--what is going on? Is this normal at this point?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1124291

Candace--please if you have a minute, could you address this for me.

It's all getting worse and I can't come up with a way to calm myself.

Music usually works for me, but I can't listen long enough right now.

I can't relax much less meditate. Much too hyper. I'm constantly distracted and my mind is racing. The butterflies in my stomach are almost constant and I have almost zero appetite and my hands have started shaking at times.

What is it and how can I calm down?

Is what you're talking about really close? Is that what I'm anticipating?

Or am I losing my mind?

Can anyone help me?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1124291

Have you ever been diagnosed with a magnesium imbalance?

Most people are anymore a lot of your issues might be coming from that. Anyway there is a product called Natural Calm that may help you out a bit I am not saying it will cure but it may help. As always check with your doctor or nature path on anything.

Best deal on line for it:

Yes I have a serious issue with magnesium imbalance and that is the leading cause of restless leg syndrome which I had and was on Klonopin for it until my doctor was on vacation and his substitute took one look at me and sent me to an allergy clinic, (legs were hugely swollen). As soon as they asked me about my restless legs, an immediate asap blood test was done, and I was put on magnesium. I cannot skip my supplements for it, I will have restless legs by bedtime. guaranteed. I carry it in my purse in the event something happens so I have it, and also instructions in the purse about my needs should I wake up in the hospital or something. Getting OFF the Klonopin was an experience I never want again and I surely understand withdrawal syndrome in people now and have great understanding of it.

Will the animals go too?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 15933

Generally yes, ones that live with humans being evacuated at any rate. Most of the rest will be on pause during stasis. The earth changes will cause huge volcanism, so much even the plants will not do well either and will also be asleep. As the volcanism subsides, they will be awakened first, as they will love the air then and flourish like crazy, and in the process helping cleanse and rebalance the oxygen. Then when the Oxygen content becomes high enough the wild animals will be awakened. Some species of plants and animals that will be lost from lands going down, maybe be rescued if they should continue as part of the changes. There are animals that are not in resonance with an ascending planet and dangerous to man that will be removed. In fact is this was forward world, you would do that, as part of taking care of this world.

In terms of stasis, each planet and animal type has a different frequency, and that is why certain ones can be awakened at various times. They can also just put humans into stasis for example, in the frequency range of human. When we were going to do temporary stasis in the past, the range would include the mammals typical of pets and livestock, so they would not suffer from lack of attention.

The planet is already being evacuated partially. The entire population of Agartha (inner earth) is already removed. They must also be out of the way of the big WAVE and the coming earth changes as some of their cities close to say California, could well be damaged and the volcanism will be an issue for them too. They number about 100 million or so and are together on a single evacuation craft. These ones are aware and of higher frequency and thus able to be directed beamed out. (scotty beam me up method.)

The 8 billion reptilians were removed totally over a 4 month period 4 years ago. Both because they are facing end of age judgement also, and plus their own safety. Lots of their caverns will fill with water.

Hi,

If the reptilians are the evil behind this world, why are they also being evacuated?

In how many years will we return to this earth and where will we be in the meantime when all of these earth changes take place?

What will the new earth look like?

When we are taken away, what about our belongings such as clothing and other items?

Thanks

See above, I said they are already gone! Not all reptilians are evil. Their elite however enslaved the rest of their own race. judgement is by soul intent, not race.

you will not be bringing anything most likely there is nothing you can bring if you are lifted AFTER stasis or beamed aboard before. Some places may be evacuated by levitation craft if the people are alert enough to board ship. YOu need nothing,, all is provided.

Go to this link and scroll down for real images of evacuation craft parked by saturns rings. The biggest of these are 8000 MILES long.

Thank you for the updates/explanations Candace.

They are very encouraging for many of us "out here".

Also, I was very interested in your comments about a "cyber army" being unleashed on the world.

This info goes along with some material I looked at a couple of years ago over on Project Camelot. I think it was the interview with Duncon O'Finion, an ex first generation super soldier. Also, I seem to recall David Wilcock talk about thousands of "terminator" type soldiers just sitting in secret bases, ready to be released. There would be no fighting them. Small arms fire would have no effect. They could easily kill everyone, armed or not.

Very interesting, to say the least.....

Candace: This is a piece you need to send to everyone on your lists and your forums you participate on. Thru Hazel.

A Father's Plea- The Creator

I come in this solitary moment to introduce MYSELF to those who do not know ME; to those who know of ME; to those who view me in a religious context; and to reinforce MY presence within those who do know ME.

Times of great change loom auspiciously upon your earth plane and you of the human civilisation must come into the knowing of MY presence; hastily I might add.

I AM the ONE you call GOD, Creator, Source, Universal Deity, Foremost intelligence, Ultimate determiner, Final Judge and Adjudicator. It matters not the variation in title for I AM ONE and the same. I will simply refer to MYSELF as the Universal Father of ALL creation.

Titles and names create distinctions and causes separation in one's understanding as one seeks a God of his/her culture. Know that God is One and All is One and ONE is ALL. It is when you come to understand this simple truth that profound awareness will dawn.

I come to affirm your status as sons and daughters of the light; for it is imperative at this juncture that you perceive yourself in light. Light is the quintessential you. That which darkens your world does not define you. Your body does not define you. Your earthly status does not define you. It is I the Creator of All, that defines you.

I cannot be seen but that does not mean that I do not exist. I can be known and experienced from within; and that is more credible than seeing. Knowing is your proof; feeling is your rule of measure. The nature of ME is the nature of you and you must therefore call upon your understanding of ME to know yourself.

I have many times brought the same message in different ways through different ones and I shall continue to do this until your immortal soul, which you are is allowed entrance into your physical mind to minister truth. Why do I endeavour with constancy and consistency to bring you truth? Simply my beloveds because you are MINE and I desire you to return home to ME. The route your take is of course your choice but I desire to see you placed on the path of knowing.

Which father will leave his children unattended, without care or supreme love? I cannot see you continuously suffering and not endeavour to lead you out of turmoil. It is love which engenders MY effort. I can see what beholds your world presently. I know what is transpiring and what will fall upon thee. I come to assist the confused, to bring clarity that those who may doubt will accept ME once and for all; not blindly or because I say you should, but because you know you must.

I am the living essence of truth within you. You can only find your truth there. I issue an invitation to you at this twelfth hour that has come upon the earth plane. Turn to ME; even if you never have before; turn to ME, call upon ME; not in challenge, but in need and love. I shall respond.

What other choice do you have dear ones? This is my final bid to draw you into the fold using only truth and a promise of a brighter future. The purpose of your life at this very moment should be to discover ME with haste as the winds of change carry yet another cycle to completion; that the new and exciting tomorrow may be yielded for your earth.

Many are now walking a tightrope with little balance left; so what say you? Will you not join the bandwagon of lighted beings and begin the most wondrous exploration of a new plane filled with knowledge and excitement for grander and purposeful living?

The canopy of change has now descended. You need only look around your world to witness the great confusion and collapse materialising. Will you continue to deny what you face or what it portends for your world? Who is your likely salvation now? When all is crumbling around you, who will you call upon? Can you save yourselves? From my vantage point I will offer a negative response.

That which you face on your earth is beyond your control and that which is fortuitously taking place cosmically is also beyond your control. I wish to tell you MY plans for you but how many will hear and believe? How many of MY ones have you castigated and deemed mental? Well it is those very ones who are sane my beloved children. The 'mental' ones are the knowing ones; the ones who know MY truth and serve it. It would serve you well to rethink what you have heard from the voices of God. For these ones who bring truth are MY voice.

I will not come again to you in this way. I take the bolder approach that you may hear without fear. Can you not hear the appeal through these MY words. Do not say after the event that the Father has deserted you or cast you aside. For the Father comes here and now to woo you back home. Will you hear and answer?

For generations I have sent MY beloved sons to effort with you of earth plane. Now I come MYSELF. Will you still reject the ONE you say you love? Must I descend from the clouds for you to believe? I do not live up to false conceptions or beliefs; for I serve Truth, which I AM. I can only urge you to seek truth by listening to the voice within. You will not see ME my little ones, but you will know ME if you know truth for I am already here.

I come not to create fear or feed your doubts. I come in truth only to tell you that your time on the earth has all but ended. Night is upon you now and some will never awaken to a blooming tomorrow. Take MY hand now for this is the final offer before the curtain falls.

I AM THE CREATOR OF ALL THAT IS- MY SON WHO YOU KNOW AS THE CHRIST IS ONE WITH ME AND THERE IS NO DISTINCTION. YOU ARE ONE WITH ME FOR I CREATED YOU. I PROCLAIM THE VICTORY OF THE LIGHT. THE TIME FOR SEPARATION HAS COME.

beloved, that was supposed to be MAN's job, particularly in the US Canada europe. Man is either asleep or has no courage.

Frankly, in the US of A I am convinced the Spirit of Courage is NOT functioning well. I cannot speak for other countries I have not visited, but it seems in some countries in South America, the spirit of Courage is functioning there from some of my reading. I see too much fear in American eyes when they do look at something.

They must also be out of the way of the big WAVE and the coming earth changes as some of their cities close to say California, could well be damaged and the volcanism will be an issue for them too. They number about 100 million or so and are together on a single evacuation craft. These ones are aware and of higher frequency and thus able to be directed beamed out. (scotty beam me up method.)

The 8 billion reptilians were removed totally over a 4 month period 4 years ago. Both because they are facing end of age judgement also, and plus their own safety. Lots of their caverns will fill with water.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Hi,

If the reptilians are the evil behind this world, why are they also being evacuated?

In how many years will we return to this earth and where will we be in the meantime when all of these earth changes take place?

What will the new earth look like?

When we are taken away, what about our belongings such as clothing and other items?

Thanks

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 3134826

See above, I said they are already gone! Not all reptilians are evil. Their elite however enslaved the rest of their own race. judgement is by soul intent, not race.

you will not be bringing anything most likely there is nothing you can bring if you are lifted AFTER stasis or beamed aboard before. Some places may be evacuated by levitation craft if the people are alert enough to board ship. YOU need nothing,, all is provided.

Go to this link and scroll down for real images of evacuation craft parked by saturns rings. The biggest of these are 8000 MILES long.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Hi,

There is no link to see the evacuation crafts.

What will the new earth look like and where will we be in the meantime and for how long?

Thanks

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 3134826

[\[link to abundanthope.net\]](http://link.to.abundanthope.net) sorry! I don't know what the new earth will look like, depends on which earth changes happen.

We hope in areas where are not too harmed to keep some of the good stuff, and the like. Man may live in some areas in those nice underground areas the dark made for themselves. Actually China and russia made enough for their entire populations. Says something, doesn't it?

Only 1 billion will return after the stasis which was estimated to be about 4 years but that all depends. There are millions of craft here to help clear the air and so on and so forth.

7+ billion people cannot come back to earth. At the end of the age, planetary populations are judged/sorted.

The 1 billion returning here, have cleared at least 51% of their karma. Plus incarnate advisors like my team. Let me make a list:

1. Some people are returning to or going for the first time to the heaven spheres, and in that case their souls will be taken out of their bodies because these bodies do not function well there. Many have forms in storage or will be given new forms. The heaven worlds are specially constructed worlds, of a higher vibration and from more elements than earth has. There is a painter who remembers these, they are build as needed in new universes to make a long story very short. [link to antifan-real.deviantart.com] These worlds range in size from earth to 100's of times the size of earth. you might like some of his other art, great memory, and he was commissioned by the Urantia foundation to paint the images on his last page there of the basic structure of the creation.

In many cases, students from these heaven worlds incarnate here for the learning will find themselves having made progress and will find themselves on a more advanced one. I know of somebody who will make the lowest of the Melchizedek University worlds around the capital world of Nebadon, a promotion from Edentia worlds. (capital world is called Salvington). Melchizedek university covers 490 MASSIVE "heaven" spheres and all ascending Sons (humans), pass thru each one. Various angelics also live on all these worlds. Heaven is not out in cold space. ALL BEINGS, spirit, physical and semi physical Live on worlds, or in craft.

2. Some star seeds who are done here, return to their planets of origin, either by birth or taking up a stored body, or being provided a new body. Yes these things are possible.

3. Many folks will go in body to planets with similar atmospheres to Earth. MANY have open arms and space for earthlings and this will be a great treat to those ready. For these places have far better educational systems and more peaceful societies.

4. A bunch are going to Venus also, which has been terraformed exactly for this purpose. It is in fact in Earth's orbit and thus stays on the other side of the sun from us. There are over 200,000 from earth already there.

5. Some will simply remain on the large evacuation craft for the remainder of the lives, which is also wondrous. Many other craft are taking on permanent new members also.

6. Many of the younger souls who have been abused and denied needed experience will go to much younger worlds, by incarnation, and will be given the GREAT gift first of having the terrible memories of this world removed from their soul memory systems. They get a fresh start. Lucifers mess was incredible.

7. The thugs will face the courts. By this I mean old souls of the galactic thugs here in prison. These ones can be anywhere from uncreated (always their choice, when they reject rehabilitation), to placed on a worse prison world than this one. That prison has no reproduction so they cannot beget children, and there are no guardian angels or other angelics there to minister them. Truly godless. They are however observed and those that "get it" finally are given one more chance out of prison to prove themselves. We in fact had a few of these here and some made the grade and some reverted. Those that revert, are uncreated by their agreement before they are given one last chance.

There have been 10 billion prisoners on this world, going in and out of incarnation over the last 200,000 years, since the Lucifer Rebellion. Many are the so called fallen angels and a goodly portion of them actually "passed" and are returning to their former estates, having learned their lessons and desiring to come back into the fold. That is behind the whole story of "repentance" in christianity in fact. Some others will continue here or move to similar or worse planets, depending on their works. They are not allowed to fly the universe and return to their prior places until they choose to grow up.

This is enough for tonight on this one. There are other options I think, can't remember right now.

now as to those returning, in general they will remain in stasis aboard craft until close to the time of return to this world, except for those who are going to be part of the AH team. There will be roughly 50 or more regional districts, to be determined by the earth changes. Each will have a regional director, some are already chosen, and full staffs of various sorts of folks. This world is now back under "heaven" administration.

We will have to rebuild. Despite the false new age material out there, you will not waken to a gorgeous pre built world. Not how it works. But it will be a CLEAN world and the WAVE will have manifested in the matter, making it considerably less dense. It will have more "glow". Everything will be more live. But you are not moving to some magic 5th dimension that already exists. 5th dimension consciousness develops in a civilization and many that are returning are NOT there yet. there may be a period of living under the surface, think I already mentioned that. The ones awakened will be awakened early enough to prepare them.

Understand this is a fairly recently granted dispensation for earth because of the desire of GAIA to take at least some of her own with her, the best of the crop. Other planetary mothers will be adopting her children that are not ready and GAIA adopted children from a planet that died when a sirian sun was destroyed by war.

Otherwise, the planet would be allowed to heal naturally after the big changes, a process taking about 3000 years and then only at least 5d conscious Sons of God would be allowed to move here.

Nip,
Will we retain our memory of this lifetime experience on earth if we go to Venus or one of the other planets that are Earth-like?

Also, do you personally feel the upcoming full moon & eclipse will be a trigger of sorts? Thank you, I appreciate having found this thread.

yes, if you go in body you will still be you. If you reincarnate, maybe. Depends on the planet and density. I remembered ME in time, here, at least somewhat. i realized at a young age some of my dreams were past life dreams anyway. But I got more details later on some of where I have been. There are methods to see, they just aren't used here much, like hypnosis.

If you return to your real form, an adult form, you will have your memories of here. Or can access them. It is being born a babe on a dense world that causes the memory loss. However, on this planet that was intended for the prisoners. The star seed kids coming in are much more aware. The veil is being lifted. On advancing planets is it known about incarnation and if a person doesn't have exact memories they can be retrieved.

Those young damaged souls moving on to younger worlds will not remember this world, and that is a good thing. They will of course be incarnating as I think I mentioned above, you don't drop off these ones in body on a strange world full off terrible memories of this one.

EDIT TODAY: I forgot to answer the full moon thing. NO.

Hugs Nip, thank you for your response but there is one itty bitty question I've asked in previous posts which you may have missed or felt it's been already answered so I'll ask again :). Will there be any indicator to us of stasis and/or are we still to head to the light from craft as previously mentioned in this thread? I know you said it could be days or weeks & I do understand if you are not allowed to be more specific.

Everything you are sharing resonates deeply with me. The various messages on your Abundant

OK I have just spent a good piece of time posting some material off my forum onto the front site, all dated for dec 5 so they will stay on top a bit, under Hazels creator source piece. I am not going to transfer them all here myself. If any you wish to place them anywhere on glp, please do add this to the TOP of each one in bold. This is not important for other forums.

Those making it a mission to collect clusters of 3 green thumbs, these works from my website are approved by SHR of GLP for publishing of FULL content. Please do not waste the mods time by making copyright infringement reports on them. See the end of the post for link and details. Thankyou. NIP for those not knowing the link to my site: [\[link to www.abundanthope.net\]](http://www.abundanthope.net)

The pieces are by Kibo (2) and Leonette with Thoth (2) and Eve should be posting hers soon with Adama of Telos (Agartha) who confirms the evacuation of Agartha. I can't remember if I mentioned that here in this thread yet.

While I bake a new batch of a special bread I make for my outdoor critters (birds, squirrels etc) I will look thru this thread for things I have missed.

You know its funny you mention Aton NiP I'll share with you a story that has stayed with me since I was a kid because it had a hint of something to be revealed at a later date, which it has been.

When I was a kid we'd say the word not a lot in school and because of my dyslexia I thought it would be funny to turn it around because we had a girl in our class whose last name was Ton so I swapped the phrase "Not A" into Aton but I didn't say it as it was meant to be pronounced instead of saying "A Ton" I said Aton over and over for about a week.

Then I realized "Hey, you're saying this wrong" then I thought why would I even pronounce it that way when I knew at the time the word Ton because of the girl in our class. The feeling I had as a kid was a deep connection to the word but no memory of the connection.

It wasn't till many years later that I learned of the 'god' Aton and every time someone mentions something about it I remember that time as a child and the timeless connection I have with this name.

Total reliance on Father's will.

The end of this cycle has begun, stasis has been announced.

In these moments we hold our entire self together by feeling that our Father in Heaven is directing us through this process.

A difficult process indeed.

So we must rely entirely on our Inner Self, in God within us to guide and show us the way.

May God bless us all!

Thank you for the updates/explanations Candace.

They are very encouraging for many of us "out here".

Also, I was very interested in your comments about a "cyber army" being unleashed on the world.

This info goes along with some material I looked at a couple of years ago over on Project Camelot. I think it was the interview with Duncon O'Finion, an ex first generation super soldier. Also, I seem to recall David Wilcock talk about thousands of "terminator" type soldiers just sitting in secret bases, ready to be released. There would be no fighting them. Small arms fire would have no effect. They could easily kill everyone, armed or not.

Very interesting, to say the least.....

The Memes used to control the world has been successful in delaying the awakening of many, which is one of the reason divine intervention is required. I don't see a future in our planet without such intervention. We have been duped by the dark so long that many don't see thru such manipulations and control mechanisms that the dark is continuing using to maintain their power and sense of superiority. So few that are awoken or beginning to awaken to stop the dark's plan to fully control the whole planet and make everyone a slave.

Is inconceivable how far the dark has gone into the abyss. There seems no way out without any help from above.

Or maybe the ruptured out door faucet which is heat taped, and wrapped heavily breaking wasting water everywhere, and then somebody wrapped up my house shutoff value so well I couldn't find it, and screwed on the skirting with so many screws it took a long time to even get to it. All when I asked them when the new skirting was insalled a few years ago to NOT screw it down where my shut off valve was. So I was probably irritated pretty good from that. I have a small lake now next to the house, should be good for ice skating tomorrow.

Nothing to say at all, because of this thread you started. Thread: stasis

These are your experiences, you do not NEED my commentary on them. I took it to mean, and now I still do since you started this other thread, which is why I deleted your posts, now that I remember after my plumbing distraction today, that I figured you were saying stasis cannot exist because you didn't dream it. Why was it necessary to start your thread that attracted Esu's, CM and my adversary's here? It appeared to not be a sincere question, which you started that thread from your post here. All you have to do is read what I have already covered, so it looked like a "challenge." I am not going to repeat and repeat and repeat. You can read the thread for what is already covered.

I apologize for my mood but it is what it is right now. You cannot challenge to answer your questions by starting another thread I might not even have seen just because I did not reply to your post on your time. I do sleep eat, take care of my needs of living, including the ruptured plumbing and the like. I am not online GLP 24/7.

You can visit my website. I have a global team providing this stuff, it is not just me. I run the ground portion of the 2nd coming organization AbundantHope. It is a partnership with the ones that played the role of Jesus 2000 years ago and are returned. I got to get off a bit and do something about this massive headache, I wonder if something is about to manifest, quake or something. I had it before the ruptured pipe and related issues to stop the flow of water. I have to go out shortly and put the skirting back to gether. I do have a case of super crab right now, but I don't get headaches from being pissed off.

Hello,

i followed this thread since it started and i can say by now i got a much better understanding concerning the subject.

I would like to say thank you to each and everyone of you with the Lyrics of one of my favored Songs, hope you like it.

May god bless and keep you always may your wishes all come true may you always do for others and let others do for you May you build a ladder to the stars and climb up every rung and may you stay forever young

May you grow up to be righteous may you grow up to be true may you always know the truth and see the light surrounding you May you always be courageous stand upright and be strong and may you stay forever young

May your hands always be busy may your feet always be swift may you have a strong foundation
when the winds of changes shift
May your heart always be joyful may your song always be sung and may you stay may you stay forever young

Much Love to all of you and GOD BLESS its a website!

i guess i went about it the wrong way. sorry.

its not that i think it cant happen cause i didnt dream it.

it sounds just as far fetched as the things ive dreamt.

deep down im trying to unbrderstand where and why this is coming through one person. if there are more of us with the ability to retain info from the otherworld then wed hear more about it.

it sounds like your own sci fi story. just give me some context and your sources.

Hope your head is better NIP. I see what is happening here...would have to be blind not to. This thread is going great guns, great teaching from you, everyone getting along (mostly) and THEN the attack comes. There are "some" who do not want this information understood or accepted and will go to any lengths to stymie that. Please keep your head up (once it stops hurting) you are helping a lot of people understand what is about to happen! TONIGHT WOULD BE A GOOD NIGHT!

It is very obvious that most of the other channeled messages are misinfo because they give information like it is business as usual and do not mention anything about evacuating the planet. They make it sound like we are staying and first contact is going to happen here on Earth. Candace we are strong. Infinite LOVE always overcomes everything. Lets keep our head up and radiating our LOVE. It doesn't matter what the ignorant ones think. It is game over for them and game ON for infinite LOVE.

If you have any brains and can think for yourself, you would figure that out. Do your research and discern from your heart. That is where your truth is at. In your heart. Use it well it surely makes me look older, Joan Baez was a favorite of mine! I used her music often when I had some hard times to help me refocus. I remember one of those was when I was hope recuperating from a spinal headache following an old fashioned myelogram before the days of MRI's. which delayed a needed surgery. GAWD that was a terrible experience.

NIP,

I love your stuff, and have received many answers from you while on GLP. I am hopefull for the stasis, but one thing in your recent posts bothers me...

If the end time is near, why would you get so upset over a simple frozen line, water break, removal of skirting (I understand you told them not to do this). This is a simple fix, that should not deserve such an angered response. Deal with it, it is probably the last challenging thing on this earth that you will have to deal with?

Please explain why this upset you so? I deal with things now on a case by case basis, nothing is urgent, and nothing is crisis. Thus, nothing upsets me to this degree. Just deal with things as they come, that is all we can do until we are done with this current situation.

Was this a test of you? How you reacted? Did you pass?

I also understand that you are not that capable of correcting this situation in your current physical state, but was it worth getting so upset over it? It is, what it is...

Hope your head is better, my wife has dealt with many physical abnormalities for 3 years, that no doctor can figure out...

Sincerely.

Oh, I also had my very first vision today. I have NO IDEA what it was or what it meant. All I know is that I saw things with my eyes closed. This has never happened to me before and I actually had to calm myself down (I was estatic) to slow the pictures down so I could possibly see them. I saw several pictures, but I cannot yet put them together. I cannot wait to have more!!!

I was upset because a lake was forming in my yard, and the folks who installed every thing had NOT followed my instructions, and mean while the lake was growing by the minute. It took 1/2 hour to get to the shut off valve because of the shotty work. I do have to deal with this world still. And it was harsh on the arthritis in my hips, knees and ankles etc, the bending required etc. Some day the people of this world will take PRIDE in doing things RIGHT.

Hi Nip, hope you are feeling better tonight!

I have been having severe eye ball pain for 3 days now, similar to a migraine. I think some of this is due to either CME's, flares, proton flux or xrays. Recall, I am sensitive to and feel the earth movements and solar storms, etc. This has been happening since Oct. 2010 after I had energy healings done on me by unseen healers, but I was absolutely conscious of their presence and the healings they were doing.

Since then with the increased awareness and feeling the earth movements/wobbles 24/7, I liken it to feeling like I am a cork bobbing on water with some good wave action!!! If there is a geomagnetic storm going, I then get the surround sound with the movements. I am finally able to grab some sleep now, melatonin helps.

I have kept dream journals off and on since the early 80's, but my mantra is "I sleep to dream " and look forward to sleep time so I can get out of body, especially if I am in pain. So, the whole body and energy field healing was much appreciated by me!

I have enjoyed your threads, learned a lot that put the pieces of the puzzle together for me. I had been out of the loop, not on the internet much, damn dial up out here, so haven't had much sharing of info. But I have had plenty of connection to my guides and counselors, etc. Lots of assistance from them. Lots of orbs and solid objects in my photos too!

Thanks for being there for us and reminding us Love is all there is!

Namaste, love and peace!!!

yes they ar NOT metaphors, nature copies everything about a planet. We will have technology to play in them someday. If you have been around since the star trek days, you remember the holodeks that is a real concept.

People can view their own, there are self hypnosis or guided meditations that can help I ask periodically to see some of my own past lives, which is very interesting. I don't really know how to journey, somebody will come in and help extract it for me. In one recently, a planet I was on was being evacuated, something was going on. We had to walk a rather long distance, for some reason whatever transportation we used didn't work. There we boarded trains which took us to our destined pick up point. We knew we were leaving our world. What world, heaven only knows, I have been on so many.

As to cosmology, NASA and thugs behind it are supposed to be truly sharing and if we did NOT have churches, people would attend "mystery" schools, to learn how to hear and make use of information from Source thru their Father Fragments etc. A book like the UB would be sought after and studied, not rejected. Its really a shame what the people of this world do not know and thus miss out on, and when presented is rejected. Religion has done such a disservice to this world. It causes myopia big time.

what was it that happened recently the luciferians did to some or one of you, why has it been suggested you've been neutralized?

i am not advocating on behalf of them, just searching blindly, clawing my way to the truth.

there is some truth to ideas you've presented, also the fact you've been mentioned, and are targeted seemingly, is intriguing.

any suggestions, please no more cover page, copy paste, jobs regarding mission statements, it's... indirect seemingly, avoids specifics.

Acutually since I reported the abusive post (and then reniged and asked it to stand for teaching, just in case it gets removed, here it is.

I DON"T HAVE A RELIGION. I DID NOT START A RELIGION, NOR DID ANY OTHER AVATAR that walked this plane.

NOW LOOK FOR THE FATHER WITHIN YOUR MIND. THAT HAS BEEN MY CONSISTANT TEACHING, THE PURPOSE TO HELP GET YOU ONES OFF THE SHIT THAT IS DIVIDING YOU FROM BECOMING THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN. YOU DON'T SEE IT.

Lemme guess, for a one time installment of _____ all this can be their's too!

You're a fucking cunt who has made the mistake of taking my patience to it's conclusion ... welcome to the rat race.

The only thing I'm gonna look for is your ability to mind your own fucking business, cunt.

If the "brotherhood of man" includes you, I want to part of it, cunt.

well all reading here, soak this one up, and you will see WHY man has not come into Brotherhood under the Fatherhood of GOD. Dam shame isn't it. Man would rather destroy his home than come into love and unity. incomprehensible. A row of 13 sad face emojis (yellow circles with downturned mouths and slanted eyes).

Candace, what would be an example or two of what could prevent stasis from happening?

Also, I'm not clear why we still can't do the mini stasis first. If all the dark ones were removed as planned, why then couldn't things proceed forward?

I understand about the cybor armies. They could be rendered useless couldn't they?

Having been preparing for this teaching period for so long now, I'm bummed we won't be going ahead with it.

Courage is alive, it's just subtle because of all the selfishness. i can see it often, i practice daily.

We have to shed the guilt, not of just past choices, but of wasted time.

Also, forgive ourselves for allowing ourselves to be lied to and controlled for so long, also lying to ourselves about who we are being.

thank you for your time

What's so bad about long stasis now? How does it represent a failure of mankind, any more than is already obvious. It's completely obvious that most are pretty mixed people, and the negative elements include very strong ones. They lose some battles, but they've been winning the wars for years here.

Just clear out the scum. I hope I'm wrong, but it seems the good guys have no new tricks, and the bad guys have been totally committed, totally goal oriented, and totally implacable. Having worked in business, they have been like that just about my whole life. A "special" generation.

If it took the higher realms this long to figure out those folks weren't going to change, they surely have not been paying attention to what I was telling them.

Personally I can take it either way. I'm here to help, don't know how long or what future plans are. But there's very little worth saving, as far as I can tell, in our societies. They are poisoned and getting worse by the year. It seems to me that those with the ability to do so should just get rid of the problem, because those of us down here don't hold the key to overcoming it.

Is there a karmic problem incurred if a winner is simply declared and the bad guys cleared out? If so, I am very grateful if those able are willing to take that on. Maybe there's a more clever way to do it that I haven't seen an inkling of yet, but truly if things like NESARA were planned with the expectation that the bad guys would turn nice because of it, such expectations were very naive (I'm being nice here) to anyone with earthly experience of the past 50 years.

Hello Candace,
It is very sad that man could not wake up in time. The way we feel are just Earthly emotions. The emotions are not the real us. I am ready for Stasis. I have two questions. Is the stasis going to happen indefinitely? After stasis, are we going to be awakened on craft, or are we going to sleep for a certain amount of time and what are the procedures exactly? Don't worry Candace. You need a big hug XXXXXXXX. You did your job. I love you Candace.

it will be different for the different groups as to awakening and where they are transported. BY indefinitely, do you mean permanently? NO, but it must last to protect the plant and animal life from the changes, they cannot be awoken either until it is time. the air will be too toxic for a long time. those part of the planning for the return will be awakened rather soon, after we are that point where the big tasks are under control. Those of the 51% + karma group would be awakened when all is ready enough.

I'd guess that part of the answer is that confusions were intentionally put into the system by the dark ones.

We developed a fair understanding of systems, using the efforts of many good humans, but the dark developed employment systems where the efforts of engineers and scientists were almost fully focused on specified goals. Employment insecurity, security clearances and probably other tricks prevented the technical professionals from controlling the destiny of their inventions, including forced inventions.

If we get rid of money this might be harder. The one whose light brings out the invention can capture benefit from it, but that benefit cannot be monetized and financialized to the point that it is a bludgeon to break fair relationships, or that it becomes fully owned by those whose main interest is power or control.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

I'll start by answering a question with a question: how much would get removed?

But seriously, if we had a chance and weren't opposed so aggressively and so competently, I think there are many who have a lot of fight left in us. Speaking for myself, I am getting older, but I've been helped to keep my health and strength. And there are many in younger generations.

This leaves aside the question of how much more of this our planet can take while we figure out the real meaning of sustainability (not the PC crap version we're fed in the media and by politicians) and do the technical work required.

It also leaves unanswered, as far as I have noticed, that is the downside of just fixing things now. Is it the loss of learning opportunity? I could buy that if that's the answer, but is it?

to me i believe money should not exist. people need to wake up to the fact that it is a tool for control by the dark. Money does not beget anything it is man's creativity in balance with our creator source that brings forth what we need.(material that is) food Mother Earth provides. man must abolish coveting, greed and any negative feeling that creates enslavement. the dark brothers must realize that they have enslaved themselves to greed more of an addiction. to bring this planet to light and life is going to need for all of us to come together and understand we are all one with each other and the universe and our Creator and Creator Source. it's getting close to my bedtime. i would hope we can continue this conversation tomorrow.

I think that if the worst offenders were removed, it would be possible to present truth and good arguments as such, and get adequate attention.

There remain many prepared to speak what they see as the truth and to seek answers to vital questions still facing us. These are not necessarily all star seeds, just good people, not necessarily people with a particular karma score either. Desire is very important, and the real chance of success is very useful in defeating defeatism and arousing a desire to work on important matters.

To me, it is multiple problems... We need to abolish money, be happy with what we have, and desire to help Gaia (Earth). We have screwed up in so many ways that the power grid must be taken down (including everything that operates on 50/60hz) and rebuilt. This frequency is very dirty, plus it requires power lines. We need to rebuild with zero power energy at 400-800Khz, if this will even be required after change. I think after change, we will understand crystals and zero point, so this will not be necessary. If it were to happen with only humans, the complete system needs to be taken down and rebuilt. It was wrong from inception and they new it, but it got too big to stop it at the time. To do it ourselves would mean too many businesses fail, they won't let this happen. It is too deep and corrupt to fix without divine intervention...

I think you have made a very good statement. I don't know about Islam and cultures of it, but I have real doubts that Christians generally could be accepting, but since we have not gone there I do not know. Its more than brainwashed. I observed things in churches so dark it made me have to get out of their, headache, nausea etc. I suspected special energies being used locally right there on Sunday. I was not wrong. You might want to read thru the piece by Leonette and Thoth. On the MEME which can be inserted right into the neural net that controls man and have been inserted and I don't honestly know if they can just be removed for they will influence people after the fact. People are attending churches during special sessions, not Sunday sessions, where selected members are invited and they are given messages using subtle sound that they believe is Jesus talking to them, and these ones will be dangerous.

It is not possible in fact to sort these ones from every body else and their impact will be great. Is great in fact. These ones would not fall into the group of the dark should we have gone into ministasis and would have been a formidable force after mini stasis, in all religions, this was going on in Islamic centers too.

Once a person believes God or Jesus or the angels havee spoken to them in these groups, where they reinforce each other because the all heard the same thing, you have mind control that will not be overcome.

In addition there is another game that will backfire, as many have also been programmed and again would not fit the requirements to be removed during a mini stasis, who will come forth with weapons of all sorts into shopping areas and other public places. Need not be guns, knives will work fine. Our dark brother hood has worked very hard to prevent Michael of Nebadon a good

"harvest", lets put it that way.

The story of Leo and Thoth is not just about cloned ARMIES, of cyborgs, there are mentally controlled CHIPPED robotoids all over the place that can go off and they have NO sense of true right or wrong. I don't even know for sure what countries like China are doing except they have huge mind controlled programmed armies, as they to planned to own this world, and since they have been here for 1 million years now, they consider themselves natives and the proper owners. As I am recounting some of this stuff right now, we were in for lots of trouble still and perhaps its just better to go this route. All humans and good robotoids who have earned the right get lifted off, I guess in a way the rapture becomes true, but their won't be white horse riding across the sky. Why people can accept that is beyond my ability to understand.

200,000 years of intense work and it comes still to this. When I have my "bad" days around mindless people, I cry for the average mind of this world. Something went terribly wrong here.

Understand its thus not just dark vs light. I have mentioned before that "machine mind" was also rounded up here, and that is another topic, the mixed soul that resulted from folks blending themselves with machines/computer minds. They tossed all the worst problems into this planet, as there is also the effort to separate the machine mind OUT of the human mind. This issue has become a real problem around our universe and others. You were given a hint at least in the Hal the computer. But Hal was not a human/machine blend, he could be turned off. I am not sure how the human mind is extracted out of the combination. Individually though,, which was reason to put all those ones here too.

The dark, want to create a "singularity" here, which is exactly the above problem. And some people support it not knowing the difference.

Also to consider time wise and why we must go to stasis is that this is NOT the only planet involved. BEcause of the dark issues in this universe, the goal is to get ALL PLANETS not yet in at least 4d, into it. And this is related also to being in the energies now from the center of the Milky Way since 2006. We are NOT the only planet in these energies, its is a WIDE band, much wider than the Photon Belt of Alcyone, and various parts of Nebadon are going into it, or perhaps exiting it, and this is the TIME to get these places lifted up, because 4d plus eliminates the dark, including the machine mind issues.

You said once that Michael was a tall gray? I have read this. Is this true? You do realize that the grays are the bad guys..and that the triangle is their symbol which if I recall seeing one of you abundant hope contactees and channelers draw a picture on per se Michael's uniform a triangle...I would like to know how do you or them that are brainwashed really know who you're dealing with or channelling? How do you know if they're the good guys and why they've been telling you for years have never ever come true or manifested as they claim?? They do not hold all of creation in their hands for if they did life would be now better and different by now... Man has cried out for many centuries now for justice and freedom and liberation from this darkness that engulfs the world but I see no light from above just the world is getting darker and I see the light is about to be saved from this growing madness and darkness by the one real true Creator of all things! I see nothing good has come from what they claim to do or have done, yet have seen no proof. I see proof from the good guys the real good guys from above. Go by the saying of the Thule society not all from above is good.

Hi NIB,
Any new on when the statis will occur and how? Will it be this year?

Do you also know why some days feel faster than others and time appears to "speed up"?

the momentum is building on this thread, we are coming together as we write, because our thoughts influence the world.

we can forgive the ones who haven't got a clue, like a small child, compassion is the process of acceptance.

the few who are aware and searching like the ones on this thread want positive change, want unity.

some of us are living more minimal, some of us refusing to be a burden on others, and some of us are still working towards helping others.

people will generally suck up energy put into them, you have to be patient and aware to see the energy flowing back, most times it isn't back towards the self. that i think is the main reason it bothers so many people to help others, they expect the energy back.

i tend to notice the energy gets transferred to children and families, people who need it more. it you have come to the place where you can give freely and with awareness, you don't need the energy you put out to come directly back. it manifests in other ways, at other times of need or desire seemingly.

i haven't given up helping others, enabling them, nudging them, or whatever. hundreds of times i thought about focusing on self, but it just doesn't jive, i help in my own ways now.

also, my personal view of the infinite creator encompasses in and out, since there is no out really, the mind knows, the creator permeates all.

whoa, 5:30am rant, time for "labor for money game", later.

Please go back and read the information already given. Christmas is considered long shot this year, depends though on man and celestial decisions. We will NOT be announcing a given day.

I will let you answer your other question, it is a matter of your focus that day. your clocks are not changing around all day!

questions to ponder about the salvation of this race of man:

Has he found the divinity within?

Has he come to care for the planet on which he resides?

Has he mastered his own mind?

He he realized he lives in slavery? In fact, most prefer the slavery, for government to care for them don't they?

He IS miserable enough, many anyway to ask for assistance from "God", but has he been willing to stand and walk in the footsteps of God? TO do this, doesn't he have to place God within himself? Why does he ask another called God, to come solve his own problems for him? When many Christians do notice something horrid, why do they say, quick come Lord Jesus? Where is their spine to rise up and do something?

Does the average man live by the 20 commandments? Does he even know them? Does he care? The average man in my country allows the antichrist the full measure of its evil, does he not?

And why do you who are starseeds also when you see the bad and the ugly, say, come Lord Jesus and save the world from it too? These world civilizations have themselves co created the mess they are in. Why is God supposed to come fix it?

the Plan of AH was to assist a willing civilization to fix the problems, not do it for them. But it required the cooperation of the thugs to turn to God. But does man really truly want to participate in the salvation of his own mess? Better yet, does he even truly perceive the mess? I think not.

Here is a problem. The thugs don't want to turn to God. They have a lust for power, they feed off the negative. Just making it real easy for them to renounce their evil ways won't work.

Can we agree on that now? It should now be obvious if it has not been before. Perhaps the research effort was to see if that's really true, to give every second chance. In my view the question has been answered adequately. Don't waste further effort or life on that direction.

Can other elements, as you list a couple of posts back, change once the very worst are removed? I don't know -- logically we have not done that experiment yet, so we could try. It (after short statis, then teaching period and chance at reform) would be a long slog and much more suffering for good folks, and requiring even more patience from Earth, but maybe that's the program and I would be OK with it.

Again, I'm OK with things either way. I just want to see some logical action that has a chance of success.

Dear Candace,

as I read your last post over and over again...I came to the same conclusion.

It seems to me that there is some sort of invisible barrier keeping people from understanding even the simplest kind of thought. Keeping most of them shut in a mental basement.

So much hate....I get the shivers, so much misunderstanding and sometimes willfully done.

Everybody seems to be like "on the edge" having a very short temper towards each-other.

Thats why every time before I come to the Forum I meditate.

It helps me to stay calm, so no hateful feeling or thought has the chance to make its home in my heart.

Like I said before...I admire you not for your task list, it is like as if one trying to climb the Himalaya naked.

I love you for kindness and your stable resistance against all odds.

Thank you and GOD BLESS

Thanks everyone here for serving and sharing.

Candace, you are clearly a very dear soul in service to the Father. Thank you and many blessings to you and all the Abundant Hope team.

I have been fairly silent since the latest news was announced. Been thinking about all of this, been feeling much as well.

My journey (in this life) has taught me much. About myself, about other selves, and most importantly, about the Father and his infinite love for ALL his children.

I came into this life in the early 60's and was raised a 3rd generation Jehovah's Witness. Got married to my soul mate in 1988. Then in the late 90's, while serving as an Elder, something happened that brought me to question all that I had believed and had been taught by the Watchtower organization. After a year of research and prayerful consideration, I was moved to resign and leave the organization in 1997. I had uncovered blatant lies in their doctrine. I could NOT teach something that I myself did not believe. Even though it meant giving up everyone and many things, including my job working for JW's, I didn't care.

At first I was relieved. Then, I became angry.

I kept Jesus teachings in my heart, but left EVERYTHING else in the way of religious or spiritual teachings. I decided to just live and be the best I could.

After several years exploring physical freedoms (Burning Man, etc) , in 2005-06 I started wondering if this was all there was to life. We had a perfect life you could say, many interesting and open minded friends, work, a home etc. But while mowing the lawn one day, I asked myself, this is great, but is this it?

Well, you all know what happens when you start asking these kinds of questions, YOU GET ANSWERS! lol For me it was first in the form of a few books. By far, the most influential one was "The Spirits Book" by Allen Kardec.

It was in this material that I came across what seems simple, but for me was the most profound, truly deep personal insight I had ever had. My head tingled, my jaw dropped.....

It is this. That each and everyone of us must purify ourselves in Love. To be perfect in Love as our Father is perfect. In that moment, I truly understood HOW DEEP IT GOES. I thought, OMG, NO ONE IS TEACHING THIS!!!! I had spent my whole life devoted to a religion claiming to serve God, yet they NEVER said or taught the depth of this truth. Everything matters, every thought, deed, word. NO EXCEPTIONS.

I then began to work on myself. I thought ok, I am going to try this. Give it 100% to see if living life this way IS the truth. If it doesn't work, then I would never give it anymore energy or thought.

Well, it worked, every time. So, I kept at it, and still do. Changing myself where needed, respecting myself and others as a fellow "me".

My dear wife and I have always been service to others oriented. (she was a social worker for many years but had a nervous breakdown and had to quit.) But now, this took an even deeper turn. Firstly, perfecting these ideas in our own lives THEN sharing with others what we have learned. EXAMPLE first. That's the key. Eat your own feedbag, LOL. Practice what you preach.

I have spent the last 5 years searching for answers, searching for others who felt this way. SO FEW,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,All the while living as best I could as an example of service to others.

I was reading (until recently) material from many sources. Sheldon Nidle, SaLuSa, Project

Camelot, David Wilcock, Cosmic Awareness, Lauren Gorgo, Drunvelo Melchizadec, etc...

I came across Candace and AH material here on GLP about 1 1/2 years ago as I recall. I started to fill out a mission statement but never completed it before it became closed to new members. I was drawn to the material there because I saw a deep spirituality in it. I have read a lot of the Urantia Book, and since it resonated with me, I naturally gravitated to the material on AH.

Over the last months, the material from AH continued to resonate more and more then the other sources I had been reading and sharing with friends and family.

The last movement in discernment for me was Candace pointing out the somewhat subtle way most of these "sources" have been corrupted. They share some truths, but then say or offer spiritual "goo" and magic wand waving instead of plain old hard self work.

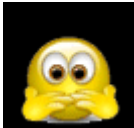

Wow, what a ride it's been. I am thankful for my many "lessons". I am thankful most of all for my wife who has stood by my side while I figured all this out.

I am now getting used to the new plan. After reading the comments Candace has made as to why, I understand now. For many reasons, most folks still just don't get it. I know from our experience working with so many people over the years, so many are just stuck. True, we are seeing progress with many ones we know on many fronts. Still, not nearly where we hoped they would be.

So, while we serve out our last days on this mission, no matter what does or does not happen, may we all continue to remember who we are and who we serve.

To continue serving our fellow brothers and sisters, now and forever.

Wishing peace and love to all!

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 2595311

Nebadon would not be found in any earth reference. These local universes are HUGE, and include many of the stuff up there in our sky. Our local sector of Nebadon, Called SATANIA System of government, includes all of Pleiades (500+suns), All of Orion (I have no idea how many suns, never asked,) Sirius that I have inquired about. Satania has 619 or so inhabited planets. UB figure with more that are seeded with life. "inhabited" means life that has developed to human intelligence. I have no idea if Aldebaran is part of nebadon, but due to its visibility by naked eye, I would assume it is.

That called Lyra system is another system, Not Satania, but still part of Nebadon. Except for the extremely distant nebula out there, I would suspect a lot of what see easily with the naked up there without telescopes is probably in Nebadon. Because Nebadon is currently on the outer edge of Orvonton and our sun on the outer edge of Nebadon, also much of what we see thru the telescopes is likely uninhabited new stuff in the first outer space circle.

The people of earth simply have no idea but perhaps long ago in the days of Atlantis et al, maybe they did. You see, individual planets receive revelation on a needed basis. It is RARE for a planet like this to be given a book like Urantia. This one did because it is the bestowal world on Michael of Nebadon, and also a seed planet and a prison ward for the Luciferians and other galactic thugs. You are BLESSED to have the UB.

The UB is was given thru a sleeping prophet who incarnated for that purpose, from very high places. I don't think it will ever be revealed who it was and it would make no difference anyway, he was probably unknown. Edgar Cayce is an example of a sleeping prophet and one who came thru him the MOST was Monjoronson, our Avonal Magisterial Son. (who has been here since about 1200 AD and is behind the Renaissance also.

Since our sun is IN Nebadon I don't think the borders would be easily discerned. As to size Nebadon will have somewhere around 10 million inhabited worlds, which should give some sort of size, and in fact all local universes have a similar but not exact same content of matter. Many small nebulas can be included in a local universe, as the local universe is concerned with development and government of a wide area of space.

Every Spiral Nebula seen thru earth's telescopes is either part of a local universe, or one being developed.

Michael is not a Tall Grey, He is a Spirit BeING. However the BODY he is using for this return to each is a Tall Grey. He is NOT IN IT, for that cannot be done, it is a created interface for him to use for the return.

Tall greys beloved ARE interfacing bodies for spiritual beings when a visible body is needed for a personal mission to a planet. However, the nasty folks in Orion managed to learn to manufacture little grey and some tall, it is a genetic form after all. If you are old enough to remember Casper the ghost cartoons, you were introduced in those stories to both the perfect "grey" form, large and small, and also the thugs version which look corrupted in those cartoons.

My own destiny guardian, who also made the long journey to paradise and remains my fast friends over these ages, is manifest also at this time, having a physical job of resurrecting folks who don't do so well when materialized to ship, amongst her duties. She is also using the casper the ghost form. She is not as tall, her form maybe 6 feet or so, she is taller than I am in this form. She is pure White. And so is Hatonn/Christ Michael. He is NOT grey in color. The form comes in all colors and a lot of the distorted grey forms are the little grey created by the reptilians as servants. The celestial version is beautiful and uncorrupted in appearance.

The body he used last time after all was an advanced human form used by himself and Esu Immanuel. I myself am simply using this body, it is NOT the real me, but simply a tool so I can interface here. I am a spirit being myself, I cannot be IN the matter of this body.

As I have often stated I have met him in his body/interface personally. Handsome fellow and other than large bald head completely "human" looking. He looks somewhat like this, but not exactly, its the ONLY image I could find on the net, which was on another website that does not carry it anymore, so luckily it was still on my own website. These ones do NOT all match in appearance.

He IS very tall next to me, I have shrunk from 5'21/2" to 5'1/2". He seems nearly double my height. Here is the one image I have found that is reasonably accurate.

The form is not spindly, it is medium stocky. These bodies are NOT as dense as the forms on earth.

As I have also told, I was visited once by 8 to 10 or so little blues. They called themselves Pleiadian emissaries and had been giving me healing during meditation periods. I longed to actually see them with my eyes, and that was granted eventually when they were sure I could handle that, being that my earth body is not accustomed to this. One morning I woke up early while it was still completely dark and there were these lovely blue glowing beings along the other side and foot of my bed. I did not count them. They lit the room in soft blue light though. I thought they were stunningly beautiful in fact. They were about the size of maybe mid grade school kids, well since I remember how far more or less they were above my bed, maybe I can get my yard stick and estimate that brb. OK perhaps about 4 1/2 feet tall. You ones on metric can make your own conversion. would be about 1.5 meters roughly I think.

I have not noticed if any AH members have used the tri angular insignia or not. No memory of such. I know a lot of new ages sites have made use of it. That earth beings like the trilateral commission have stolen such for their use means nothing, concerning the use of it by many space commands. Oh wait, Eve may have did draw that, now that I re read your question. Has it ever occurred to YOU, that the thugs on this world tell lots of LIES so you will reject the ones here? Ponder that one.

I am not the brainwashed one, nor is any on my carefully chosen team. We do travel, several of us to ship and we have meant these ones personally. I have years of training behind my own belt in preparation for this. As do they.

as to your statement man has cried out for centuries, yes he has FINALLY. MAN here consists of 10 billion fallen angels and galactic thugs and its about time for them to finally ask to come back into the fold, for this terrible mess on this planet is the creation of dark beings and not the light. These ones did terrible things and they earned their incarceration here which was an act of GRACE in reality, their final chance to clean up their acts and learn from the inside about what they did to others. They continue to do it to each other.

For example, those incarnated into Gaza right now are thugs receiving the sword of their own kind, those incarnated into Israel. Many in poverty in this world, are the thugs, they have earned the right to experience the poverty they have inflicted on others. 1/2 the current population are robotoids, living reproducing robots, made by them and that has backfired, because these ones are super over reproducing themselves, and that number was 2/3 not so long ago. The reason it is now 1/2 is the massive incarnation of star seeds going on so to uplift the race in general.

Those that monitor the creation do hold it in their hands, the thugs are given worlds like this to grow up on, rather than being uncreated. Ponder that, sounds like mercy and grace to me. What the thugs have done with the mercy and grace however, is another story that is obvious around this world. If man wants good, he has to create it. Mind does not develop in a vacuum. These lower worlds are always somewhat harsh for that reason alone. Mind will not grow unless challenged with many problems.

Since you are being so critical, I will ask, what HAVE YOU DONE TO GROW YOUR OWN SOUL and WHAT HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED TO THIS WORLD in GOODNESS and also WHAT HAVE YOU DONE THAT HAS BEEN DESTRUCTIVE TO THIS WORLD. I invite a LONG ESSAY on your part.

Let me ask a question, even if removing the dark was still on the plate, would man still come into brotherhood? There is still so much division and it's getting worse, not better?

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

It pains me to have to say, 'No, they would not' although I wish it were otherwise. It seems that groundwork for war is laid out, financial collapse has been held off by band-aids that are about to burst, earth changes are happening but overall, we ain't seen nothing yet. If TPTB were removed, the amount of hatred, ignorance and lack of caring is overwhelming. Sometimes I'll read posts where the language the writer felt the need to use is like toxic bile. So you don't agree, fine but why is this verbal vomit necessary? Then I realize it's a reflection of our very sick society which does not seem to be getting any better. It's not everyone, there are alot of good people out there but also alot who are not willing to wake up let alone make changes. It would probably take a something catastrophic happening to us for people to step out of their box. Maybe too late by then... I sincerely hope stasis is here soon, very soon.

I would participate but us ancients are here for that very reason. We've spoken with them for a long time NiP and they still see the small picture even showing them the big one has little effect the brain washing is to strong.

I would like for them to just drop the brain washing for 24 hours. Completely wipe the slate of mental imprisonment maybe then we can see the true face of man.

Tho it might not be what I always hope for.

PAPER 196: THE FAITH OF JESUS

196:0.1 Jesus enjoyed a sublime and wholehearted faith in God. He experienced the ordinary ups and downs of mortal existence, but he never religiously doubted the certainty of God's watchcare and guidance. His faith was the outgrowth of the insight born of the activity of the divine presence, his indwelling Adjuster. His faith was neither traditional nor merely intellectual; it was wholly personal and purely spiritual.

196:0.2 The human Jesus saw God as being holy, just, and great, as well as being true, beautiful, and good. All these attributes of divinity he focused in his mind as the "will of the Father in heaven." Jesus' God was at one and the same time "The Holy One of Israel" and "The living and loving Father in heaven." The concept of God as a Father was not original with Jesus, but he exalted and elevated the idea into a sublime experience by achieving a new revelation of God and by proclaiming that every mortal creature is a child of this Father of love, a son of God.

196:0.3 Jesus did not cling to faith in God as would a struggling soul at war with the universe and at death grips with a hostile and sinful world; he did not resort to faith merely as a consolation in the midst of difficulties or as a comfort in threatened despair; faith was not just an illusory compensation for the unpleasant realities and the sorrows of living. In the very face of all the natural difficulties and the temporal contradictions of mortal existence, he experienced the tranquillity of supreme and unquestioned trust in God and felt the tremendous thrill of living, by faith, in the very presence of the heavenly Father. And this triumphant faith was a living experience of actual spirit attainment. Jesus' great contribution to the values of human experience was not that he revealed so many new ideas about the Father in heaven, but rather that he so magnificently and humanly demonstrated a new and higher type of living faith in God. Never on all the worlds of this universe, in the life of any one mortal, did God ever become such a living reality as in the human experience of Jesus of Nazareth.

196:0.4 In the Master's life on Urantia, this and all other worlds of the local creation discover a new and higher type of religion, religion based on personal spiritual relations with the Universal Father and wholly validated by the supreme authority of genuine personal experience. This living faith of Jesus was more than an intellectual reflection, and it was not a mystic meditation.

196:0.5 Theology may fix, formulate, define, and dogmatize faith, but in the human life of Jesus faith was personal, living, original, spontaneous, and purely spiritual. This faith was not reverence for tradition nor a mere intellectual belief which he held as a sacred creed, but rather a sublime experience and a profound conviction which securely held him. His faith was so real and all-encompassing that it absolutely swept away any spiritual doubts and effectively destroyed every conflicting desire. Nothing was able to tear him away from the spiritual anchorage of this fervent, sublime, and undaunted faith. Even in the face of apparent defeat or in the throes of disappointment and threatening despair, he calmly stood in the divine presence free from fear and fully conscious of spiritual invincibility. Jesus enjoyed the invigorating assurance of the possession of unflinching faith, and in each of life's trying situations he unfailingly exhibited an unquestioning loyalty to the Father's will. And this superb faith was undaunted even by the cruel and crushing threat of an ignominious death.

196:0.6 In a religious genius, strong spiritual faith so many times leads directly to disastrous fanaticism, to exaggeration of the religious ego, but it was not so with Jesus. He was not unfavorably affected in his practical life by his extraordinary faith and spirit attainment because this spiritual exaltation was a wholly unconscious and spontaneous soul expression of his personal experience with God.

196:0.7 The all-consuming and indomitable spiritual faith of Jesus never became fanatical, for it never attempted to run away with his well-balanced intellectual judgments concerning the proportional values of practical and commonplace social, economic, and moral life situations. The Son of Man was a splendidly unified human personality; he was a perfectly endowed divine being; he was also magnificently co-ordinated as a combined human and divine being functioning on earth as a single personality. Always did the Master co-ordinate the faith of the soul with the wisdom-appraisals of seasoned experience. Personal faith, spiritual hope, and moral devotion were always correlated in a matchless religious unity of harmonious association with the keen realization of the reality and sacredness of all human loyalties—personal honor, family love, religious obligation, social duty, and economic necessity.

196:0.8 The faith of Jesus visualized all spirit values as being found in the kingdom of God; therefore he said, "Seek first the kingdom of heaven." Jesus saw in the advanced and ideal fellowship of the kingdom the achievement and fulfillment of the "will of God." The very heart of the prayer which he taught his disciples was, "Your kingdom come; your will be done." Having thus conceived of the kingdom as comprising the will of God, he devoted himself to the cause of its realization with amazing self-forgetfulness and unbounded enthusiasm. But in all his intense mission and throughout his extraordinary life there never appeared the fury of the fanatic nor the superficial frothiness of the religious egotist.

196:0.9 The Master's entire life was consistently conditioned by this living faith, this sublime religious experience. This spiritual attitude wholly dominated his thinking and feeling, his believing and praying, his teaching and preaching. This personal faith of a son in the certainty and security of the guidance and protection of the heavenly Father imparted to his unique life a profound endowment of spiritual reality. And yet, despite this very deep consciousness of close relationship with divinity, this Galilean, God's Galilean, when addressed as Good Teacher, instantly replied, "Why do you call me good?" When we stand confronted by such splendid self-forgetfulness, we begin to understand how the Universal Father found it possible so fully to manifest himself to him and reveal himself through him to the mortals of the realms.

196:0.10 Jesus brought to God, as a man of the realm, the greatest of all offerings: the consecration and dedication of his own will to the majestic service of doing the divine will. Jesus always and consistently interpreted religion wholly in terms of the Father's will. When you study the career of the Master, as concerns prayer or any other feature of the religious life, look not so much for what he taught as for what he did. Jesus never prayed as a religious duty. To him prayer was a sincere expression of spiritual attitude, a declaration of soul loyalty, a recital of personal devotion, an expression of thanksgiving, an avoidance of emotional tension, a prevention of conflict, an exaltation of intellection, an ennoblement of desire, a vindication of moral decision, an enrichment of thought, an invigoration of higher inclinations, a consecration of impulse, a clarification of viewpoint, a declaration of faith, a transcendental surrender of will, a sublime assertion of confidence, a revelation of courage, the proclamation of discovery, a confession of supreme devotion, the validation of consecration, a technique for the adjustment of difficulties, and the mighty mobilization of the combined soul powers to withstand all human tendencies toward selfishness, evil, and sin. He lived just such a life of prayerful consecration to the doing of his Father's will and ended his life triumphantly with just such a prayer. The secret of his unparalleled religious life was this consciousness of the presence of God; and he attained it by intelligent prayer and sincere worship—unbroken communion with God—and not by leadings, voices, visions, or extraordinary religious practices.

196:0.11 In the earthly life of Jesus, religion was a living experience, a direct and personal movement from spiritual reverence to practical righteousness. The faith of Jesus bore the transcendent fruits of the divine spirit. His faith was not immature and credulous like that of a child, but in many ways it did resemble the unsuspecting trust of the child mind. Jesus trusted God much as the child trusts a parent. He had a profound confidence in the universe—just such a trust as the child has in its parental environment. Jesus' wholehearted faith in the fundamental goodness of the universe very much resembled the child's trust in the security of its earthly surroundings. He depended on the heavenly Father as a child leans upon its earthly parent, and his fervent faith never for one moment doubted the certainty of the heavenly Father's overcare. He was not disturbed seriously by fears, doubts, and skepticism. Unbelief did not inhibit the free and original expression of his life. He combined the stalwart and intelligent courage of a full-grown man with the sincere and trusting optimism of a believing child. His faith grew to such heights of trust that it was devoid of fear.

196:0.12 The faith of Jesus attained the purity of a child's trust. His faith was so absolute and undoubting that it responded to the charm of the contact of fellow beings and to the wonders of the universe. His sense of dependence on the divine was so complete and so confident that it yielded the joy and the assurance of absolute personal security. There was no hesitating pretense in his religious experience. In this giant intellect of the full-grown man the faith of the child reigned supreme in all matters relating to the religious consciousness. It is not strange that he once said, "Except you become as a little child, you shall not enter the kingdom." Notwithstanding that Jesus' faith was childlike, it was in no sense childish.

196:0.13 Jesus does not require his disciples to believe in him but rather to believe with him, believe in the reality of the love of God and in full confidence accept the security of the assurance of sonship with the heavenly Father. The Master desires that all his followers should fully share his transcendent faith. Jesus most touchingly challenged his followers, not only to believe what he believed, but also to believe as he believed. This is the full significance of his one supreme requirement, "Follow me."

196:0.14 Jesus' earthly life was devoted to one great purpose—doing the Father's will, living the human life religiously and by faith. The faith of Jesus was trusting, like that of a child, but it was wholly free from presumption. He made robust and manly decisions, courageously faced manifold disappointments, resolutely surmounted extraordinary difficulties, and unflinchingly confronted the stern requirements of duty. It required a strong will and an unflinching confidence to believe what Jesus believed and as he believed.

196:1 JESUS—THE MAN

196:1.1 Jesus' devotion to the Father's will and the service of man was even more than mortal decision and human determination; it was a wholehearted consecration of himself to such an unreserved bestowal of love. No matter how great the fact of the sovereignty of Michael, you must not take the human Jesus away from men. The Master has ascended on high as a man, as well as God; he belongs to men; men belong to him. How unfortunate that religion itself should be so misinterpreted as to take the human Jesus away from struggling mortals! Let not the discussions of the humanity or the divinity of the Christ obscure the saving truth that Jesus of Nazareth was a religious man who, by faith, achieved the knowing and the doing of the will of God; he was the most truly religious man who has ever lived on Urantia.

196:1.2 The time is ripe to witness the figurative resurrection of the human Jesus from his burial tomb amidst the theological traditions and the religious dogmas of nineteen centuries. Jesus of Nazareth must not be longer sacrificed to even the splendid concept of the glorified Christ. What a transcendent service if, through this revelation, the Son of Man should be recovered from the tomb of traditional theology and be presented as the living Jesus to the church that bears his name, and to all other religions! Surely the Christian fellowship of believers will not hesitate to make such adjustments of faith and of practices of living as will enable it to "follow after" the Master in the demonstration of his real life of religious devotion to the doing of his Father's will and of consecration to the unselfish service of man. Do professed Christians fear the exposure of a self-sufficient and unconsecrated fellowship of social respectability and selfish economic maladjustment? Does institutional Christianity fear the possible jeopardy, or even the overthrow, of traditional ecclesiastical authority if the Jesus of Galilee is reinstated in the minds and souls of mortal men as the ideal of personal religious living? Indeed, the social readjustments, the economic transformations, the moral rejuvenations, and the religious revisions of Christian civilization would be drastic and revolutionary if the living religion of Jesus should suddenly supplant the theologic religion about Jesus.

196:1.3 To "follow Jesus" means to personally share his religious faith and to enter into the spirit of the Master's life of unselfish service for man. One of the most important things in human living is to find out what Jesus believed, to discover his ideals, and to strive for the achievement of his exalted life purpose. Of all human knowledge, that which is of greatest value is to know the religious life of Jesus and how he lived it.

196:1.4 The common people heard Jesus gladly, and they will again respond to the presentation of his sincere human life of consecrated religious motivation if such truths shall again be proclaimed to the world. The people heard him gladly because he was one of them, an unpretentious layman; the world's greatest religious teacher was indeed a layman.

196:1.5 It should not be the aim of kingdom believers literally to imitate the outward life of Jesus in the flesh but rather to share his faith; to trust God as he trusted God and to believe in men as he believed in men. Jesus never argued about either the fatherhood of God or the brotherhood of men; he was a living illustration of the one and a profound demonstration of the other.

196:1.6 Just as men must progress from the consciousness of the human to the realization of the divine, so did Jesus ascend from the nature of man to the consciousness of the nature of God. And the Master made this great ascent from the human to the divine by the conjoint achievement of the faith of his mortal intellect and the acts of his indwelling Adjuster. The fact-realization of the attainment of totality of divinity (all the while fully conscious of the reality of humanity) was attended by seven stages of faith consciousness of progressive divinization. These stages of progressive self-realization were marked off by the following extraordinary events in the Master's bestowal experience:

The arrival of the Thought Adjuster.

The messenger of Immanuel who appeared to him at Jerusalem when he was about twelve years old.

The manifestations attendant upon his baptism.

The experiences on the Mount of Transfiguration.

The morontia resurrection.

The spirit ascension.

The final embrace of the Paradise Father, conferring unlimited sovereignty of his universe.

The End is Come

Man did not Unify in Brotherhood

But OH the SUCCESS!

Siraya

December 8, 2011

Beloveds, it is sadness but also a sense of joy that we are closing this chapter of your Earth History. The decision comes from the highest councils of the Creation, of whom I am representative of, over Orvonton. Candace may if she wish explain or provide UB material at the end.

I AM Siraya. I am Master Spirit # 7, and I reside on Paradise. I am representative of the Universal Father, the Eternal Son and Infinite Spirit. I personify those beings to you of the ascending mortals. I AM in fact, not only my personality, but I am also, all of you, being the source of Evolutionary Mind over Orvonton.

Now, it is not usual for one such as me to become involved in the distant evolutionary worlds, but on this world I took a personal interest and for a variety of reasons. First many of you on this planet in the teaching mission are from Paradise and Havona in one role or another. You are in training or in observation of one of the worse rebellions under my Vast domain.

Of course you know this as the Lucifer Rebellion. Lucifer, in your expression, "took the cake" in terms of those who seceded from the union. In all that has ever happened in Orvonton, nobody of angelic character actually decided to become God of a large region. And also took so many with him. This is the source of much of the so called galactic waring in your region. It was terrible. Lucifer had a full compliment of weaponry and he used it to extreme. Although your Urantia Book lays quiet on this one, this was in fact WAR in HEAVEN. And it was with weaponry.

We were aghast. But we let Lucifer and his various gangs of supporters, work it out for themselves for a very long time. This started sometime before your given records, quietly building over the eons until it erupted fully. The decision was made to let it collapse on its own weight and this did occur.

When the Master (Christ Michael) was upon your plane, Lucifer was not, he had already been removed from power. His challenge to the God's did not become a reality in the long run. He could never create. By create we mean new beings, either angelic or human. It has taken great effort behind the scenes to keep your sector of Neadon even alive while this worked out. Never before had we experiences with this level of rebellion and never again will this even come close to being allowed. We have had quite a setback, but at the same time, the necessary learning curve.

You ones accept that God creates with his famous magic wand, as Candace likes to refer to it, and we get much laughter over this. For the whole creation has been created by the ones who reside in it, and not by a single entity.

But lets move on. Lets get to the closing chapter here. 200,000 years ago those of that great rebellion were given a fair chance to repent. Many refused and went to uncreation, long before your planet was ever populated with your "fallen angels." There were 10 billion various ones, angel and human, that decided to earn their way back into respectability.

They were placed on this planet you call Earth in English, and Urantia in the Heavenly records. At that time your Planetary Supreme, whom is also called Urantia was not yet "supreme." She was truly not able to participate in the decision to place these ones here. She had not formed herself. But oh has she now grown into her own conscious divinity, and you ones imprisoned here can no longer inhabit her surface.

You were given 200,000 years dear ones, to grow up, prove yourselves, understand from the very inside view what you have created, for it was your creation to join in this and become gods. Or so you thought you had been promised by Lucifer. Sadly 8 billion of you did not get the message, and are still trying to become God's on your own and you fight even amongst yourselves still who will have dominion of the planet. Well, you had your chance. YOU BLEW IT. You have all been through your karma. You have been the warriors and you have been the victims. And even experiencing as the victim, you did not learn what human experiences are, on the other side of the coin. You go right back into being warriors.

You thought you could keep Earth? You would destroy her, if you could NOT UNIFY into brotherhood, that chore which all ascending humans on the evolutionary worlds must accomplish. You did not learn you are not separate from the planetary mind. You had opportunity of greatness that was given to you, because simply, you did not know of what you did, when you entered the rebellion. You were forgiven, but only on condition you take a journey similar to what human must make, to become a unit of divinity.

YOU DID NOT FOUND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN UNDER THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD. THIS IS IMMENSE FAILURE BRETHREN. THE MOTHER DESPITE YOUR ABUSE OF HER HOWEVER, DID RISE UP AND FIND HERSELF WITHOUT YOU.

NOW THAT IS THE GREAT SUCCESS STORY HERE FOR HER. GAIA FOUND HER GOD MIND OR GODDESS MIND IF YOU WELL. WE DID NOT EXPECT THAT. THERE WAS A TIME BEFORE THE ADVENT OF MICHAEL, WHEN IT WAS CONSIDERED THE PLANET WOULD HAVE TO BE DESTROYED AND A GREAT POTENTIAL LOST.

FOR ON ALL PLANETS IN THE NORMAL SITUATIONS, IF MAN DOES NOT UNIFY, THE MOTHER ALSO DOES NOT BECOME EXISTENT, IN HER GLORY. GAIA DID. NOW WHAT SAY YOU DARK BROTHERS? THE IGNORANT MOTHER FOUND HERSELF AND YOU COULD NOT?

2 BILLION OF YOU PASSED, REASONABLY SO. Many of these did return to their former estates. Actually 1 billion of you are back in the realms of glory with a wondrous new understanding, and of this we are of course in joy, because never again will these ones fail. They are strong now, and will be even wiser for this, having done “the been there and done that,” another term, Candace loves to use. Unto you who fled from glory, unto glory you have returned and then some, and in that regard for these ones, the experiment of repentance under the mercy and grace of God was successful. We hoped for more though. We did not expect 100%, but we hoped for more.

8 billion of you cannot become gods. You were not created as creators and you will no more muck up this glorious planet, this planetary supreme who found herself, out of the muck. She eventualized. What happened to YOU?

Well, some of you are facing the grand courts, of Orvonton. It does not look pretty for you. Others who possess some hope, will get another chance in the DISTANT FUTURE for you ones will never be placed but a few at a time on distant worlds, for you are without trust at this point. We cannot place you in numbers anywhere. You will wait for what may seem like eons in a state of complete sleep, ignorant of your existence, until that day down the road.

You had such opportunity. Such grace was offered. We hoped that the offer would produce true grandeur in terms of your future works. You and you alone are held accountable for your choices and actions.

We are giving out a lot of grace, because you created slave beings to the robotoids who had little chance. But surprise, some of them found the Father, a thing even you could not do. And the ones who really didn't find the Father, but are sweet kind folks, will also get a stupendous chance to become truly human. They go to other worlds, young worlds, to being an incarnational journey in hopes they will find themselves, meaning truly individuate. The Father has such great mercy.

I had such great mercy on you. For it was I who approved the Mercy for you, overriding the Ancients of Days of Orvonton. For 200,000 years I have hoped, and hoped, and hoped. Slowly some of you came around, those 20%. Well 1/2 of those will endure further trials, as these ones have covered 51% or more of their karma. They will get additional chance. But they will submit to the leadership of Michael on this world. They will not have hundreds of thousands of years to finish up.

All those born of human in these ages upon this world since the return of Michael, are cared for. They are young. They will be cleansed of your filth and given fresh opportunity on the younger worlds.

The astral realms of this world will be dismantled. They were of course full of those humans over a time that you did not allow to progress, and who had been trapped here.

They are released to move forward. Even though Michael released them to journey as necessary forward, so many were too immature to move much in each life. We will be gradually resurrecting all these ones, even though they are not ready, to the mansion worlds. That is the purpose here now in part of AA Michael's team. He is the angel of the resurrection.

The robotoids having potential cannot go there yet, they must have opportunity to earn their thought adjusters. Opportunity will be given as above. They will not experience the destruction you planned to invest even upon them, who you called useless eaters.

You 8 billion ones, who did not cut the mustard, will be contained in holodeks, until you can be processed. You are done on this world. Those 1 billion who get one more chance to make the grade, will have mercy of exactly two lifetimes to establish the Brotherhood of Man on this planet. This will be accomplished by each of you, or not, and as a group. This will be your task. This time, it will be done under the normal Nebadon oversight of this world. You will do it, or you will not. Its that simple.

The planet will be cleansed of your filth. All of it. The animals evolutionary patterns will be restored to normal by seasoned beings here for that purpose, under the direction of the great geneticist Skekmet. This is not a thing the Life Carriers can do.

You were given the care of this seed planet, you were so sure you could do that but you set into the infighting and instead nearly destroyed it.

Gaia will make her Ascension shortly. Normally this is done in concert with the sons and daughters coming into Godness with her. She adopted you ones, although she did not fully understand what she had done and look what you brought upon her and all her life.

5 times this planet has tossed you down. This is number 6. Not much of a tract record is it? And you proved what? Beloveds, WHY? For so long all will be asking that question that have been concerned with this arena. But dear brothers in God, you are finished and remember, you are not more powerful than those above you and you did not prevail.

Now, lets get on with some good news, for those of you who came to help the depraved ones. Some many of you have suffered at their hands, even unto the Creator Son, who has given so much grace to those of his and Nebadonia's creation. You volunteered in the millions to lift up this world. To bring it music, theater, films, television, and the greet achievement of the internet. Your gifts have been substantial, worthy and brought comfort to the lesser ones of this world.

You taught animal husbandry and you took so many animals into your arms, that something wondrous happened also not expected on this world. The higher animals are becoming human before they journey in a human body. How glorious is that! This is rare on normal planets beloveds. You have given them such dignity, they wanted to become like you. And they are and we of the hierarchy actually have to change a few things, under the direction of Shekmet on that one. This is a stupendous accomplishment.

You brought love to those in need. You helped the poor. You brought and demonstrated goodness where there was none and showed another and better way. You gave hope. The disabled have wheelchairs, they have medical care now in much of the world. They have love and they have hope.

You have graced this world with nearly celestial level music, particularly this last 50 years, music even beyond the times of the Renaissance. You have perfected the art of acting on this world, even under the pressure of ones who did not want the light in the films. You demonstrated through film proper family life. That is until recently when you have been siderailed hugely by money and power.

You have developed technologies where those who preceded you, like the great Tesla could not. You could not bring in what is labeled free energy, but you did well otherwise and the world is a glow in light even if its methods are not what would have been the best. You got it lighted by whatever means you were able to do so.

You brought transportation to the common man. First the railroads, then the auto. You brought housing to the common man. You brought technology to make life easier to the common man. Examples such as washing machines, heat and related necessities.

And most importantly once more, the Internet. You developed your best programming. You have prevented the dark by that programming, from shutting it all down. You made it impervious to them. Try as they might, and they have, it stays running. That is an incredible accomplishment.

The dark were given some carrots initially but when they realized the potential of enlightenment through the Internet, they put on some brakes, but you were not squashed. You listened to the Father Within who gave you programming skills you could only dream of, and so it stands.

So many of you who are "star seed" have been here so long. You are tired, all of you, we find no star seed over 20 years of age int his life time who is not already tired. It is not due to the food and pesticides, but due to being tired of the effort it takes to accomplish something, but yet you have, even those who have forgotten who they are over the long duration of time. Some of you have been here since the repopulation of Earth after the last trip thru the photon belt.

YOU HAVE ENDURED and your rewards in heaven shall be great. While these dark ones failed, you so shined that your light cannot be covered. You have won. And we are supporting that. There are over 100 million of you who have endured here anywhere from 11,000 years to the last several hundred. You have endured the inquisitions and so many other roundups. You have endured in Mother Russia, who has once again STOOD IN THIS WORLD in LIGHT. At all costs. She survived the great destruction of over 100 years ago now.

While we hoped the United States would rise to shine the greatest light ever on this world. That did not happen, but nevertheless you ones within that country did well. You should not feel rejected and lost and so many of you do feel that way, at this time of great repression on you.

YOU HAVE LIVED and SHOWN the WAY and by your efforts did this planetary mother awaken to her own being. That again IS the biggest surprise of all. Now rest in your glories dear ones, for the GOOD NEWS is far GRANDER than the SAD NEWS.

You ones have so grown in stature, and you will go rise up to further glory. You have survived the greatest of rebellions in Orvonton and well more than survived, you have a created a new way and that is NOT going unnoticed. You will serve well in your future journeys. You have so glorified the Father. IN YOU HE IS WELL PLEASED. You have saved an whole area of the Creation from extinction. You have the expertise now to deal with other dark beings who will manifest, that is the nature of free will.

There will be conclaves on conclaves on conclaves in the future. Whole “universities” will arise to discover what you have done and many of you will be the best of “professors.” These celestial universities will be in Neadon, Orvonton, and indeed even in Havona. For unto you, the whole of the future creations look BRIGHT. The end of the long age of Evil has come. Never will it rise to this extent again. EVER,for YOUR SUCCESSES WILL NOT ALLOW OF IT. I SIRAYA, Master Spirit of Orvonton, STAND SO PROUD OF YOU. You are our most cherished of folks. I AM SIRAYA.

Dear NIP,

Regarding the above piece “The End is Come...”, I am very curious why Siraya said there are 10 billion on Earth now. I think we just got up to 7 billion last month?

Also, Hes said there are 2 billion passed the “test”, but only 1 billion will be back. Where are other 1 billion going to?

Thanks,

10 billion SOULS, not everyone is incarnate at the same time. The others have ALREADY returned to glory, to their former estates.

MAN of EARTH has failed to Build the BrotherHood of Man under the FatherHood of God. I Grieve.

Those who define themselves as Christians, Muslims, Buddhists, political party members, Masons, Illuminati and so on and so forth have not yet discovered they are SONS/DAUGHTERS OF GOD and who thus stand in their own shoes and need no such crutches and false definitions of self. When you define yourself as another, you have not found the Father Within. Ponder it. Your only definition should be as YOU, A Being Conscious of the God Within. Anything else is not so and a false fabrication.

Sadly 8 billion of you did not get the message, and are still trying to become God’s on your own and you fight even amongst yourselves still who will have dominion of the planet. Well, you had your chance. YOU BLEW IT. You have all been through your karma. You have been the warriors and you have been the victims. And even experiencing as the victim, you did not learn what human experiences are, on the other side of the coin. You go right back into being warriors.

You thought you could keep Earth? You would destroy her, if you could NOT UNIFY into brotherhood, that chore which all ascending humans on the evolutionary worlds must accomplish. You did not learn you are not separate from the planetary mind. You had opportunity of greatness that was given to you, because simply, you did not know of what you did, when you entered the rebellion. You were forgiven, but only on condition you take a journey similar to what human must make, to become a unit of divinity.

YOU DID NOT FOUND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN UNDER THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD. THIS IS IMMENSE FAILURE BRETHREN. THE MOTHER DESPITE YOUR ABUSE OF HER HOWEVER, DID RISE UP AND FIND HERSELF WITHOUT YOU.

NOW THAT IS THE GREAT SUCCESS STORY HERE FOR HER. GAIA FOUND HER GOD MIND OR GODDESS MIND IF YOU WELL. WE DID NOT EXPECT THAT. THERE WAS A TIME BEFORE THE ADVENT OF MICHAEL, WHEN IT WAS CONSIDERED THE PLANET WOULD HAVE TO BE DESTROYED AND A GREAT POTENTIAL LOST.

FOR ON ALL PLANETS IN THE NORMAL SITUATIONS, IF MAN DOES NOT UNIFY, THE MOTHER ALSO DOES NOT BECOME EXISTENT, IN HER GLORY. GAIA DID. NOW WHAT SAY YOU DARK BROTHERS? THE IGNORANT MOTHER FOUND HERSELF AND YOU COULD NOT?

2 BILLION OF YOU PASSED, REASONABLY SO. Many of these did return to their former estates. Actually 1 billion of you are back in the realms of glory with a wondrous new understanding, and of this we are of course in joy, because never again will these ones fail. They are strong now, and will be even wiser for this, having done "the been there and done that," another term, Candace loves to use. Unto you who fled from glory, unto glory you have returned and then some, and in that regard for these ones, the experiment of repentance under the mercy and grace of God was successful. We hoped for more though. We did not expect 100%, but we hoped for more.

8 billion of you cannot become gods. You were not created as creators and you will no more muck up this glorious planet, this planetary supreme who found herself, out of the muck. She eventualized. What happened to YOU?

Well, some of you are facing the grand courts, of Orvonton. It does not look pretty for you. Others who possess some hope, will get another chance in the DISTANT FUTURE for you ones will never be placed but a few at a time on distant worlds, for you are without trust at this point. We cannot place you in numbers anywhere. You will wait for what may seem like eons in a state of complete sleep, ignorant of your existence, until that day down the road.

You had such opportunity. Such grace was offered. We hoped that the offer would produce true grandeur in terms of your future works. You and you alone are held accountable for your choices and actions.

We are giving out at lot of grace, because you created slave beings to the robotoids who had little chance. But surprise, some of them found the Father, a thing even you could not do. And the ones who really didn't find the Father, but are sweet kind folks, will also get a stupendous chance to become truly human. They go to other worlds, young worlds, to being an incarnational journey in hopes they will find themselves, meaning truly individuate. The Father has such great mercy.

I had such great mercy on you. For it was I who approved the Mercy for you, overriding the Ancients of Days of Orvonton. For 200,000 years I have hoped, and hoped, and hoped. Slowly some of you came around, those 20%. Well 1/2 of those will endure further trials, as these ones have covered 51% or more of their karma. They will get additional chance. But they will submit to the leadership of Michael on this world. They will not have hundreds of thousands of years to finish up.

All those born of human in these ages upon this world since the return of Michael, are cared for. They are young. They will be cleansed of your filth and given fresh opportunity on the younger worlds.

The astral realms of this world will be dismantled. They were of course full of those humans over a time that you did not allow to progress, and who had been trapped here.

They are released to move forward. Even though Michael released them to journey as necessary forward, so many were too immature to move much in each life. We will be gradually resurrecting all these ones, even though they are not ready, to the mansion worlds. That is the purpose here now in part of AA Michael's team. He is the angel of the resurrection.

The robotoids having potential cannot go there yet, they must have opportunity to earn their thought adjusters. Opportunity will be given as above. They will not experience the destruction you planned to invest even upon them, who you called useless eaters.

You 8 billion ones, who did not cut the mustard, will be contained in holodeks, until you can be processed. You are done on this world. Those 1 billion who get one more chance to make the grade, will have mercy of exactly two lifetimes to establish the Brotherhood of Man on this planet. This will be accomplished by each of you, or not, and as a group. This will be your task. This time, it will be done under the normal Nebadon oversight of this world. You will do it, or you will not. Its that simple.

The planet will be cleansed of your filth. All of it. The animals evolutionary patterns will be restored to normal by seasoned beings here for that purpose, under the direction of the great geneticist Skekmet. This is not a thing the Life Carriers can do.

You were given the care of this seed planet, you were so sure you could do that but you set into the infighting and instead nearly destroyed it.

Gaia will make her Ascension shortly. Normally this is done in concert with the sons and daughters coming into Godness with her. She adopted you ones, although she did not fully understand what she had done and look what you brought upon her and all her life.

5 times this planet has tossed you down. This is number 6. Not much of a tract record is it? And you proved what? Beloveds, WHY? For so long all will be asking that question that have been concerned with this arena. But dear brothers in God, you are finished and remember, you are not more powerful than those above you and you did not prevail.

Now, lets get on with some good news, for those of you who came to help the depraved ones. Some many of you have suffered at their hands, even unto the Creator Son, who has given so much grace to those of his and Nebadonia's creation. You volunteered in the millions to lift up this world. To bring it music, theater, films, television, and the greet achievement of the internet. Your gifts have been substantial, worthy and brought comfort to the lesser ones of this world.

You taught animal husbandry and you took so many animals into your arms, that something wondrous happened also not expected on this world. The higher animals are becoming human before they journey in a human body. How glorious is that! This is rare on normal planets beloveds. You have given them such dignity, they wanted to become like you. And they are and we of the hierarchy actually have to change a few things, under the direction of Shehkmet on that one. This is a stupendous accomplishment.

You brought love to those in need. You helped the poor. You brought and demonstrated goodness where there was none and showed another and better way. You gave hope. The disabled have wheelchairs, they have medical care now in much of the world. They have love and they have hope.

You have graced this world with nearly celestial level music, particularly this last 50 years, music even beyond the times of the Renaissance. You have perfected the art of acting on this world, even under the pressure of ones who did not want the light in the films. You demonstrated through film proper family life. That is until recently when you have been siderailed hugely by money and power.

You have developed technologies where those who preceded you, like the great Tesla could not. You could not bring in what is labeled free energy, but you did well otherwise and the world is a glow in light even if its methods are not what would have been the best. You got it lighted by whatever means you were able to do so.

You brought transportation to the common man. First the railroads, then the auto. You brought housing to the common man. You brought technology to make life easier to the common man. Examples such as washing machines, heat and related necessities.

And most importantly once more, the Internet. You developed your best programming. You have prevented the dark by that programming, from shutting it all down. You made it impervious to them. Try as they might, and they have, it stays running. That is an incredible accomplishment.

The dark were given some carrots initially but when they realized the potential of enlightenment through the Internet, they put on some brakes, but you were not squashed. You listened to the Father Within who gave you programming skills you could only dream of, and so it stands.

So many of you who are "star seed" have been here so long. You are tired, all of you, we find no star seed over 20 years of age int his life time who is not already tired. It is not due to the food and pesticides, but due to being tired of the effort it takes to accomplish something, but yet you have, even those who have forgotten who they are over the long duration of time. Some of you have been here since the repopulation of Earth after the last trip thru the photon belt.

YOU HAVE ENDURED and your rewards in heaven shall be great. While these dark ones failed, you so shined that your light cannot be covered. You have won. And we are supporting that. There are over 100 million of you who have endured here anywhere from 11,000 years to the last several hundred. You have endured the inquisitions and so many other roundups. You have endured in Mother Russia, who has once again STOOD IN THIS WORLD in LIGHT. At all costs. She survived the great destruction of over 100 years ago now.

While we hoped the United States would rise to shine the greatest light ever on this world. That did not happen, but nevertheless you ones within that country did well. You should not feel rejected and lost and so many of you do feel that way, at this time of great repression on you.

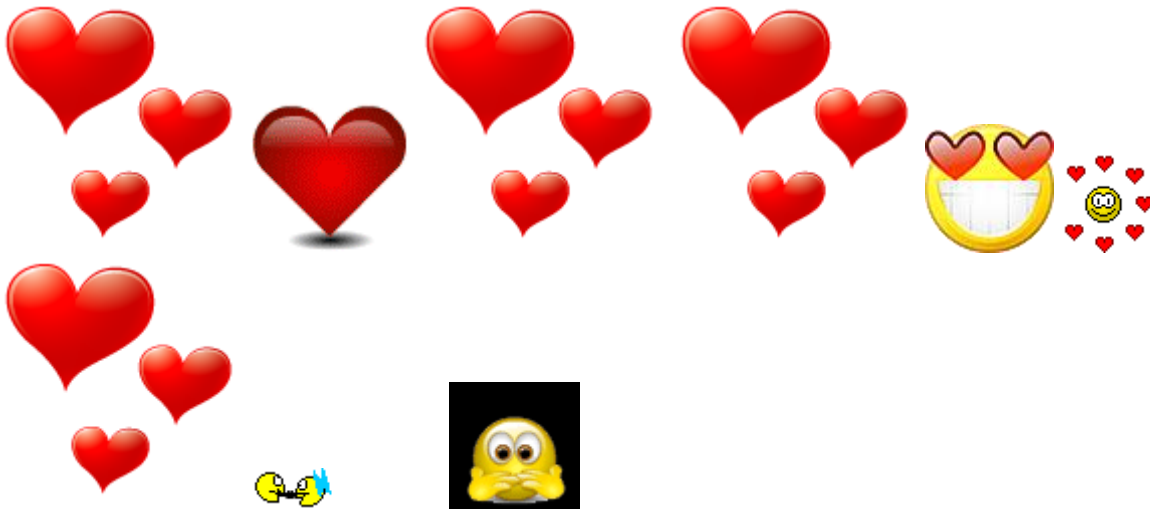

YOU HAVE LIVED and SHOWN the WAY and by your efforts did this planetary mother awaken to her own being. That again IS the biggest surprise of all. Now rest in your glories dear ones, for the GOOD NEWS is far GRANDER than the SAD NEWS.

You ones have so grown in stature, and you will go rise up to further glory. You have survived the greatest of rebellions in Orvonton and well more than survived, you have created a new way and that is NOT going unnoticed. You will serve well in your future journeys. You have so glorified the Father. IN YOU HE IS WELL PLEASED. You have saved an whole area of the Creation from extinction. You have the expertise now to deal with other dark beings who will manifest, that is the nature of free will.

There will be conclaves on conclaves on conclaves in the future. Whole “universities” will arise to discover what you have done and many of you will be the best of “professors.” These celestial universities will be in Neadon, Orvonton, and indeed even in Havona. For unto you, the whole of the future creations look BRIGHT. The end of the long age of Evil has come. Never will it rise to this extent again. EVER, for YOUR SUCCESSES WILL NOT ALLOW OF IT. I SIRAYA, Master Spirit of Orvonton, STAND SO PROUD OF YOU. You are our most cherished of folks. I AM SIRAYA.

In the post above, Siraya does not make distinctions among the 8 billion "failures" described, other than to say that some will go to trial and presumably risk of undesirable fates, and that others will get chances to try again later -- much later, and only a few at a time.

I think Candace was describing a few of the darkest, and the mass of others which can still include some pretty bad actors. I'm guessing that the darkest would be the ones facing trials.

But I wonder why was the experiment not tried (it's clear that this is experimental -- Siraya describes unexpected results of various sorts) to remove the worst and see if the less-bad could reform, when the strongest promoters of the deepest cancers in society and the environment were removed. My normal experimental approach would be to try small adjustments, reserving the opportunity to try larger adjustments later. The rest (or another group of the newly-worst) could be removed later after all. It seems a shame to end the experiment. As Candace was saying a lot of work has gone into this.

Maybe it's as she also said. Earth must be respected now and spared more agony. And perhaps continued risk of destruction of a very precious thing, a living planet.

When did Gaia become self-aware?

Dear Nip,

You may have already noticed but on EIQ's earthquake thread Thread: LIVE "ELF/ULF" MONITORING OF EARTHQUAKE PRECURSOR SIGNALS ON GLP. QUAKE FORECAST UP TO 5HRS IN ADVANCE...\(\(\(Updated Daily\)\)\) By ELQ. \(Page 359\) there are references to you being right about Jupiter and upcoming changes (about 3/4 down page). Please excuse me if this should not be posted here but I am excited at people waking up to what you have saying all along.

Thank you again for all your insight.

well perhaps you are already a cosmologist before incarnating if it sits so well with you.  I made a post there concerns the moon and star ship jupiter.
