Hello Candace. I know how you feel now when you speak the truth. The recent messages from Abundanthope were posted on Extraterrestrials.ning.com. It seems like most people don't want to accept what is happening. They say it doesn't fit right with them. So I commented to support this truth about stasis. Some of them believe in timelines like if there is going to be more than one Earth on 12 different timelines. 12 different dimensions on 12 different timelines. It doesn't make sense that there is going to be more than one timeline for Earth. I said there is only one Earth and she is going to ascend and the planet evacuated. The person seemed to get angry and defended his more than one timeline theory. Can you comment and tell us exactly the truth on this? I support you and Abundanthope always. Thank you.

Dear Nip,

You may have already noticed but on EIQ's earthquake thread Thread: LIVE "ELF/ULF" MONITORING OF EARTHQUAKE PRECURSOR SIGNALS ON GLP. QUAKE FORECAST UP TO 5HRS IN ADVANCE...\(\(\(Updated Daily\)\)\) By ELQ. \(Page 359\) there are references to you being right about Jupiter and upcoming changes (about 3/4 down page). Please excuse me if this should not be posted here but I am excited at people waking up to what you have saying all along.

Thank you again for all your insight.

Signed,

My father told me a story once that took place before i was born he said he was working the graveyard shift at DOW chemical and on his break, he was out side smoking a cigarette and looking up at the sky then he said he saw 3 small lights in the sky that seemed to rotate in a circle as he watched he told me that they started to come closer to him then they picked up speed and struck him in the face he told me that afterward you could see 3 marks on his forehead like a sunburn. I was pretty young when he told me that story but it stuck with me through my life my dad has long since been dead from heart failure but recently I had been thinking of that story and I asked my mom about it one day and at first she did not remember then I started to tell her what my dad had told me and not even half way through the story she had remebered and she told me she rememberd my dad telling her that as soon as the lights struck his head he felt enlightened. Ever since I have reggreted not asking my dad more questions about the event because ever since then I have delved into the the world of ET's,conspiricy theory,disclosure and what not and I still cannot explain what happened to my dad i wondered if you have ever come accross anything that sounds similar and if it indeed gave him some sort of enlightenment, did it effect me?

IT ALL ENDS

In your honest opinion can you give an estimate as to when an advanced ET race will make official "public" contact with mankind, whether it be through communications or face to face.

And also, are we more likely to encounter hostile or deceptive Et's first as opposed to the friendly kind with mankind's best interests at heart?

Quoting: Night Dreamer

the mayah calendar was for this year, not 2012, for the arrival of the big wave. Not what has been put out there in new age. We have had 2 laps of that wave this year which has been modulated by star fleet, the 3rd lap will not.

All the stuff out there about a big CME or X flare mucking up everything is also not so, but is a demonstration that our thugs could use EMP waves or whatever to simulate such in terms of messing up the electrical grids and then blaming it on the sun and the like.

Star fleet is heavily modulating the sun, they caused the long min and the sun is still discharged as needed more often on the BACK of it, than the front.

Thanks to whoever pinned the thread again.

The Bridge ~ Reminder #71

Timing

Whatever needs to be known will be revealed in the exact moment you need to know it

How often do we stress ourselves out because we think we know how long something is going to take, and then it takes longer than we expected? We see this all the time and yet we do ourselves a tremendous disservice by setting time related goals. For, from the moment we go past the time parameter we have set for ourselves, we tend to take on unnecessary emotional charge. For some, this charge acts as a small nuisance, but for others they see themselves as "running behind" or "having to play catch up all the time." What they aren't realizing is that they never would have built up any emotional charge in the first place if they hadn't set any predetermined time limits for themselves.

The truth of the matter is that we never really know how long something is going to take. We can guess, but in guessing we run the risk of needlessly upsetting our inner balance. If we would remember this, we'd save ourselves a whole lot of self-imposed stress.

The next time you make an intention--it doesn't matter what it is--resolve, at the same time, that you're willing to wait as long as it takes for it to manifest. Do this for a few of your intentions, then step back into a state of divine nonchalance, knowing that whatever you're intending is coming to you in its perfect timing. Now you're free to experience patience, and one of the first things you'll discover is that stress is not as much a part of your life as it once was. It's gone by the wayside because peace of mind has stepped in and taken its place.

From The Code: Intentions in Action

My Intention for today is:

I Intend that I remember that everything is happening in its perfect timing.

For those who may not know much about Siraya, Master Spirit #7 from our Grand Universe of Orvonton from the message "The End is Come, Man did not Unify, But OH the Success By Siraya thru Candace", here is some references or information to assist.

Those making it a mission to collect clusters of 3 green thumbs, these works from my website are approved by SHR of GLP for publishing of FULL content. Please do not waste the mods time by making copyright infringement reports on them. See the end of the post for link and details. Thankyou. NIP

1) From channeling: "Siraya speaks with Rubens, who is in a state of surprise By Siraya and Esu, thru Rubens([link to abundanthope.net] on May 2010,

"Candace:for you newbies, Siraya is as such, the Father of Orvonton, It's master spirit. Each superuniverse has it's Master Spirit, there are 7 total since there are 7 superuniverses. I would advise reading Paper 16 of the Urantia Book. If you do not own a personal copy (get one post haste!) you can read online at www.urantia.org. The page numbers of Paper 16 are 184-196. There is special coverage, since we belong to Orvonton, of Master Spirit #7, Siraya in that paper, but his name is not given.

These ones reside on the orbs of the Infinite Spirit that encircle Paradise. You may read of this in Paper #13, the Sacred spheres of Paradise. Section 4 page 149-15- covers the worlds of the Infinite Spirit. These 7 spheres ARE the executive headquarters of the Master Spirits.

Understand the Master Spirit pervades all of his particular Superuniverse, Siraya does not visit in person, so to speak, his "person" includes the whole of the circuits of Orvonton. But he does visit thru the universal channels of communications. It is sort of like, you visit somebody when you call them on the phone or connect on the Internet. So basically he has made a personal "galactic internet" visit to various individuals right now. I myself received a call, which was my 2nd call, the first was some weeks ago when he did the message with Jess. We had a private short discussion, not an update to print."

2)From the Urantia Book, Paper 16, ([link to www.urantia.org]

"(188.2) 16:3.14 Master Spirit Number Seven. The presiding Spirit of the seventh superuniverse is a uniquely equal portrayal of the Universal Father, the Eternal Son, and the Infinite Spirit. The Seventh Spirit, the fostering adviser of all triune-origin beings, is also the adviser and director of all the ascending pilgrims of Havona, those lowly beings who have attained the courts of glory through the combined ministry of the Father, the Son, and the Spirit.

(188.3) 16:3.15 The Seventh Master Spirit is not organically representative of the Paradise Trinity; but it is a known fact that his personal and spiritual nature is the Conjoint Actor's portraiture in equal proportions of the three infinite persons whose Deity union is the Paradise Trinity, and whose function as such is the source of the personal and spiritual nature of God the Supreme. Hence the Seventh Master Spirit discloses a personal and organic relationship to the spirit person of the evolving Supreme. Therefore in the Master Spirit councils on high, when it becomes necessary to cast the ballot for the combined personal attitude of the Father, Son, and Spirit or to depict the spiritual attitude of the Supreme Being, it is Master Spirit Number Seven who functions. He thus inherently becomes the presiding head of the Paradise council of the Seven Master Spirits.

(188.4) 16:3.16 No one of the Seven Spirits is organically representative of the Paradise Trinity, but when they unite as sevenfold Deity, this union in a deity sense — not in a personal sense — equivalates to a functional level associable with Trinity functions. In this sense the "Sevenfold Spirit" is functionally associable with the Paradise Trinity. It is also in this sense that Master Spirit Number Seven sometimes speaks in confirmation of Trinity attitudes or, rather, acts as spokesman for the attitude of the Sevenfold-Spirit-union regarding the attitude of the Threefold-Deity-union, the attitude of the Paradise Trinity.

(188.5) 16:3.17 The multiple functions of the Seventh Master Spirit thus range from a combined portraiture of the personal natures of the Father, Son, and Spirit, through a representation of the personal attitude of God the Supreme, to a disclosure of the deity attitude of the Paradise Trinity. And in certain respects this presiding Spirit is similarly expressive of the attitudes of the Ultimate and of the Supreme-Ultimate.

(188.6) 16:3.18 It is Master Spirit Number Seven who, in his multiple capacities, personally sponsors the progress of the ascension candidates from the worlds of time in their attempts to achieve comprehension of the undivided Deity of Supremacy. Such comprehension involves a grasp of the existential sovereignty of the Trinity of Supremacy so co-ordinated with a concept of the growing experiential sovereignty of the Supreme Being as to constitute the creature grasp of the unity of Supremacy. Creature realization of these three factors equals Havona comprehension of Trinity reality and endows the pilgrims of time with the ability eventually to penetrate the Trinity, to discover the three infinite persons of Deity.

(188.7) 16:3.19 The inability of the Havona pilgrims fully to find God the Supreme is compensated by the Seventh Master Spirit, whose triune nature in such a peculiar manner is revelatory of the spirit person of the Supreme. During the present universe age of the noncontactability of the person of the Supreme, Master Spirit Number Seven functions in the place of the God of ascendant creatures in the matter of personal relationships. He is the one high spirit being that all ascenders are certain to recognize and somewhat comprehend when they reach the centers of glory.

(189.1) 16:3.20 This Master Spirit is always in liaison with the Reflective Spirits of Uversa, the headquarters of the seventh superuniverse, our own segment of creation. His administration of Orvonton discloses the marvelous symmetry of the co-ordinate blending of the divine natures of Father, Son, and Spirit."

A message from Siraya from April 2010 thru Jess Anthony to complement the last message thru Candace.

Siraya Speaks on Earth's Unique Place in the Universe
By Jess Anthony
Apr 22, 2010 - 8:01:49 PM

4-18-10

There is a message that is ready for me to receive, it seems. Speak clearly to me and identify yourself for posting purposes. I am curious about comments from Siraya/Surea, but I will be pleased to accept what comes.

Jess , this is Siraya. It makes no difference how you spell the name; both are approximations of what is given me. There are things I will tell you, but tomorrow is a better time for your concentration. We will resume this then. I wish to speak of the relationships in the universe and how Earth's ascension scenario is a unique manifestation.

Goodbye for now.

Ok, let's start. I'm speaking to you as the representative of the Creator Source, to use that phrase. My work is as the voice for his ideas in what you call the superuniverse of Orvonton. I am the expression of the Creator's intent and observations in this configuration of the Trinity. My words are his words, as a rule, although I am capable of voicing my own observations and guidance. I am the conduit for his energy to be expressed in this seventh universal manifestation.

I say all this to you to clarify my position as spokesman, although my gender is more balanced and neutral than your word indicates. I link him to the various Michaels that have formed universes within this superuniverse. Your Christ Michael Aton, as you call him, is the creator of Nebadon, of which your Earth is a small but very significant part. Your Michael argued the merits of his concept of creation before the hierarchy overseeing the growth of Orvonton, and he was granted permission to proceed. I spoke the words for the Creator Source giving him Divine approval.

Part of this concept was the creation of Earth as a proving ground to train new Michaels. No more descending sons will be created to function as they were envisioned, and your Christ Michael Aton persuaded his overseers to allow him to develop a planet where ascending sons could begin training to assume that role sometime in the distant future. This was to be done by giving them free will to make their own choices in a situation purposefully separated from most divine guidance. This experience, with only a minimal point of contact, would prepare them for any sort of contingency they might face. They would already have solved the problem, in effect, by acting as a co-creator.

The lessons of this experiment have been learned through an existence that has been much more demanding than was ever imagined at the outset. The Lucifer rebellion and the subsequent quarantine took separation and its possibilities to an unprecedented but logical level. Ultimately, being disconnected from God would make you think you were God with the ability to create your own existence. This was an illusion, but it created the upheaval you are aware of. It was allowed to play out its life cycle, however horrendous it may seem. Once it was set in motion, it couldn't be stopped short of uncreation of the universe it was connected to. It was allowed to wind down to a manageable level of turmoil, although always with the presumption it would be reclaimed and put back on the course it had been destined for.

The worst betrayers of the truth of Christ Michael Aton's universe have been placed on Earth to work through their sequences of choices in the hope they would return to a life of ascendancy. Many others have incarnated with them to be guides and examples, as they too have opted to struggle with the sense of separation from divine truth. This interaction has culminated in the spiritual stalemate that you have been experiencing the last few years. Although fewer have returned than Christ Michael Aton hoped, he has salvaged a large enough percentage to persuade him to rethink the closure that seemed inevitable.

The end is inevitable because of the changing universe that Earth is part of. There is an immense clockwork of galactic interactions that trigger changes and reactions that are all part of the grand design of growth and ascendancy that was built into Nebadon's creation. To continue as part of its universal cog, Earth and its surroundings must change in sync with all the other parts. A natural process of growth and change would have resulted in Earth refashioning itself by geophysical changes and a reversal of polar direction. This would have removed any elements that were blocking the planet's shift, including anything living or created that was an obstacle to this change.

Typically a planet would refashion itself with no regard for the existence that had developed on its surface. This was the fate that was expected for Earth. The frequency of its natural vibration had slowed to such a low level that it seemed counterproductive for those who had incarnated here to help awaken a spiritual awareness to persuade the misguided inhabitants to change.

Because Earth was Christ Michael Aton's seventh bestowal planet, and because his incarnation here earned him the right to be truly considered the sovereign of Nebadon and final authority in determining its development, he decided to attempt its ascension without the chaos that normally would ensue. Plans were drawn up to evacuate those who had reconnected with Christ Michael's vision of what the next phase of the planet's existence would be.

This plan was reconsidered with the wave of victims and the out swelling of support that that sprung up as a result of the 9/11 attack. For the first time, a sufficient portion of Earth's mass consciousness was unified and focused with healing compassion on a higher level of spiritual understanding. This unity of awareness convinced Christ Michael Aton that the previous plan for Earth's ascension could be modified to account for those inhabitants that looked for a higher purpose and resolution. The plan became one of allowing man to ascend on Earth along with the planet. This concept meant a drastic re-thinking of the process to allow man to reach a level of awareness sufficient for his physical incarnation to be able to adapt to the higher frequency of energy that would be necessary to allow Earth to be renewed.

The last ten years have been a series of preparations and disappointments as the entrenched resistance on Earth proved more difficult to deal with than expected. Ultimatums have been ignored and the number of inhabitants waking up has been less than hoped. Earth has graciously held off a little longer to allow man to catch up. This has reached a point in the cosmic synchronization where delay is impossible for Earth and man.

Christ Michael Aton has begun the series of events that will lead to closure of this phase of Earth's existence. No resistance is forth coming to geophysical changes, and they may occur as they are necessary. Man has chosen either to stay and work for the planet's ascension, or leave and continue elsewhere. Evidence of this sequence of events is becoming impossible to hide.

Look for the collapse of civilization as you know it and be prepared for upheavals on Earth that are unprecedented in known history. Many will leave and much of the Earth's surface will be changed. This is the necessary closure that is required to shift the direction and frequency of your existence.

Know that the events you will experience have a universal purpose, and that you who are staying here have chosen to take part in this unique development. You will be guided and supported by your galactic family. You will be protected and relocated when necessary. You will be taught and be made aware of your history. You will see your place and recognize your purpose within the cycle of ascendancy you are part of.

This is my explanation and my comfort in these last days.

Siraya, Voice of Creator Source in Orvonton

According to these 'channelings', stasis is always 'next week', 'next month', but over 3-4 years of seeing this I have to say nothing of the sort is going to ever happen.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1450740

you do not understand the long process on this planet and we give the dark advanced notice also this way. the plans fluctuate with all the other things going on and we are linked to other planets undergoing a lift up too, which are also in the energies of the Milky Way, we are not the only one, things have to be coordinated which my long terms readers should hopefully understand. You ones that wish to pay attention to have had opportunity to witness the ever flowing needs, requirements and plans. And if this organization had not materialized at all, we would just empty the planet, let it fully undergo the complete earth changes and let only advanced Sons of God live on it surface, after a wait of about 3000 years for natural restoring of life. We are doing something considerably different now that give 1 billion folks another opportunity and a chance to proceed in letting these ones form the brotherhood of man while those of us providing the advice can have additional training and experience.

EDIT. I see this older piece by Siraya with Jess has been posted here. I have not looked at it since it was posted back then. Look at it above. Perhaps the understanding will better come.

Read the channeling posted on this thread, "Siraya Speaks on Earth's Unique Place in the Universe By Jess Anthony" from Abundanthope: (link to abundanthope.net) for insight as to why things have not manifested as first envision as well as the last channeling from Siraya posted here thru Candace.

I assure you these are the last days, we all have to work with God and not God for us. We expect God to work with our schedule or expectancy of how things should happen. There are many parts to a clock, they all have to work in harmony for the seconds and minutes to be in sync. Earth is a part of the whole, which determines what hand of the clock move first or last.

no the planet will be evacuated before they happen which has been clearly stated. NO ONE WOULD SURVIVE otherwise, the earth changes and the ugly stuff otherwise coming, regards wars is beyond what the planet and surrounding energy fields can endure. This planet has been evacuated before, its not the first time and others are evacuated too under dire circumstances.
Quoting: Nobody in Particular

But this planet is beautiful!

Quoting: Kael

yes it is, and its going to get MORE BEAUTIFUL. after the cleansing.
Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Hi NIB,
How many years will it take to cleanse our planet?

Will we be on a spacecraft during this time?

When we return, who will rule the earth? Governments? Politicians? Banks?

Thanks
Quoting: Anonymous Coward 3134826

God will rule earth when we return. I assume certain star seeds will be temporal rulers, as the countries are going to change, a lot. The timing of everything is yet to be determined by the timing of everything, this is estimated originally at 4 years but now that the more intense earth changes are going to happen, both the magnetic reversal and axis shifting, it will likely be quite a bit longer.

Most of you returning, yes you will be on craft, as even inner earth and also Nebadons headquarters under Nepal in the himalayas was evacuated. Man may possibly return initially for a number of years into surviving operational underground bases. Its all up to what happens.

Quoting: overmind

The Master Spirits are "Son's" of the Infinite Spirit, but are the highest "rulers" of the superuniverses, so in that sense they speak for First Source to each of their Superuniverses, if one is to ultra simplify their roles. Creator Source speaks directly to MAN thru the thought adjuster. (which I have long labeled the Father Fragment.) I like it better because it is a fragment of First Source.

However, each also is different in constitution, representing 7 fold deity together.

7 fold deity is father, son, spirit, father & Son, Father & Spirit, Son and Spirit, and Father Son and Spirit. Siraya being the final combination of the above, has likeness to the Trinity, Father son and spirit. does that help? Probably not. So I suppose you could say he represents First Source, and the Trinity.

their roles are massive. Each is also the sum total of the evolutionary mind of their entire superuniverse and more.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1346767

confusion reigns here. I don't say to follow anyone. Michael of Nebadon along with Esu Immanuel played the role together of "jesus". Jesus was NEVER the name by the way, Paul sort of blew it and named them that. And we are stuck with it.

Christ Michael of Nebadon is YOUR CREATOR if you hail from the universe of Nebadon. He is called a Creator Son. His Parents are the Universal Father and the Eternal Son and thus he personifies their beings and energies to this universe. The Infinite Spirit of the Trinity is personified by the Creative Spirit, a daughter, who is Mother Spirit, Between the two, you have "Father Mother God."

There 700,000 universes and counting, and each universe has A Creator Son and a Creative Spirit, as its creator Beings.

These sons and daughters create the angelic administrators, Life Carriers, guardian angels and more, that they require to organize their universe. They also create "man" of the many evolutionary planets within the domain of the universe. You do not FOLLOW Michael, you strive also to become like him. He provides many many schools to educate his angelic and human sons.

I don't follow Michael, I serve him here, in partnership. I do serve his will. That is not the same as following. It has NOTHING to do with the Religion started by the confused Paul. All races and cultures are sent various teachers.

Michael and Nebadonia thus personify the Trinity to this Universe.

Courage is alive, it's just subtle because of all the selfishness. i can see it often, i practice daily.

We have to shed the guilt, not of just past choices, but of wasted time.

Also, forgive ourselves for allowing ourselves to be lied to and controlled for so long, also lying to ourselves about who we are being.

thank you for your time

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 6717514

I love what you say. Besides in me, which I'm working with letting go of, I see a lot of guilt over wasted time in awakened folk who feel they haven't contributed enough...it is about self-forgiveness so we are free as far as possible. And be even more ready for the action to follow!

dark has really ingrained the guilt. but my own "guilt" or sense of failure on this world led directly to what I do now. I was offered to leave, special meeting march 30 of 1998, and I chose to stay because I felt this whole incarnation had been mostly wasted. I wrote the story up on my website under "the miracle that is me", its called finding my unfinished business. [link to abundanthope.net] your site is full of specific information regarding luciferian topics. very few would be willing to openly put out anything regarding them.

i can understand the reason now for the energy they are directing into destroying you all.

it makes sense now the answer i received when i asked about them being able to pray to the infinite creator.

i felt a terrible, terrible, longing for them to be a able to do that. i wish i could help, but it's folly seemingly, oil and water...

thanks for the info, it's like filling in the gaps on my awareness, getting the other side of the coin.

to be open and honest, i have spent a good amount of time studying the left. as new info is assimilated along that path, it changes your reality, separates, creates indifference, amongst other thought forms.

while some of these have been a useful tool at times, upon reflection, a good amount has been directed towards self.

while i do not agree with the service to self personally anymore, the knowledge learned from that structure has brought me here. i feel if it had not been for the occult, my awareness would be nowhere near the level it is today.

understanding and knowing are seemingly a longer process then previously thought.

thanks again
more questions to follow... ;)

easy is a relative term, if it were easy, everyone would be following them without much effort. without the effort, what merit of value would it hold?
there are spirits responsible for many negative things in this existence, imposing their influence upon mankind.
few things are easy seemingly, you have to claw and fight for every measure of mind and awareness. how many humans even come to the level of asking questions or even search for a higher self or the infinite creator?
how much energy has been put into keeping humans in the dark, not even aware of ego, or polarity, or god?

it takes mindfulness to adhere to a loving disposition and service to others, the tide is against you and we can't get that stuff changed. Chem-trails are worrisome too but they're further down the list, because we don't know for a fact how bad they are. They're unreachable, up there in the sky. Some do complain, but to whom does one complain? How does one raise holy hell?

Plastics choking the lands and the oceans
Wars of convenience

Politicians working for corporate interests rather than the people. Lying boldly and happily during the campaigns, then having no accountability.

That's the problem. The dark is really too powerful. Terrorism, wiretapping and conspiracy laws would prevent many attempts to fight back. OWS was one attempt -- some in it were trying to fight back -- but it hasn't gotten much done so far.

beloved MAN is supposed to be complaining HUGELY about them, I find it "odd" people do not and in fact think they are just "contrails." Where is the MIND in my country? Where is the action? Where is the concern that should promote action is maybe a better statement. NO CONCERN except for the few. And even the few don't seem to find each other in enough numbers to raise some HOLY HELL about them.

There are so many things to complain hugely about. Off the top of my head:

Plastics choking the lands and the oceans

Wars of convenience

Financial repression

Psychological games against our children especially in school

I desire you ones to be alive to the fact that as your grow in light the dark ones will seek every opportunity to attack that light. You must therefore be aware of that fact and as I have taught you, protect yourself with the white light of God.

Finally I desire you to awaken to the Oneness in all things. Many of you sprout the phrase because it sounds "nice" or it is the spiritually correct thing to say. How many feel that sense of Oneness with all? How many can bless their dark brothers and prayer for them. How many can see every life force in creation as One and Equal. When you can start to see, know and feel that oneness through your God mind, then you will find that you will move in swiftness into a knowing of your Oneness with me. You will be that Oneness.

I am Christ Michael Aton your Father who has been telling you for aeons to awaken to your light. Will you hear me now?

Namaste.

This thread has been presented as a medium for discussion, so I feel it is proper to provide some views from a different perspective.

Unraveling the Dream(s)

I believe dreams, visions and voices are not purely figments of the imagination. I believe they are mostly 'psychic' communications between living beings.

But they are fraught with confusion and misunderstandings, not to mention mischievous intentional misdirection.

Two people can be 'talking' to each other and not know who each other really are. Or one can be talking 'to' one person who may or may not be hearing the message, while another person is listening, and thinking they are the intended recipient of the information.

If the speaker is warning one person of a hurricane, and the 'listener' is about to experience a flood. The result can be disastrous. Hiding in the basement will not help, if a flood is on the way. I call this 'Out of Context'.

Another thing can happen, usually thru the effort of one who would deceive, like this.

The speaker can be saying

Dont Go To New Mexico !!!

All the 'miscreant being' has to do is block the "Dont"
And the intended recipient hears

Go To New Mexico !!!

Why would beings of questionable nature want to deceive innocent righteous individuals who want to 'save the world'?

Well, one example might be,, If they convinced these people that the aliens are going to come and haul off the bad people, and basically solve the great troubles on Earth, then that would pretty much convince these people to sit back, and wait, and let someone else worry about the troubles that surround us. 🙄

It is sad and tragic that 'main stream', 'real people', Cannot entertain ideas that are far from the 'norm'. They cant believe 'ESP' or that Aliens could possibly have visited Earth.

{ I, believe in 'ESP' but that is is not generally reliable. And that intersellar travel is certainly possible, if not likely. But I do not assume we have been visited by interstellar aliens, }

But some 'purported truths', however remotely possible they may be, assuming ambiguous technology beyond the present understanding of man. are still too, 'fantastic' to be accepted without scepticism.

I have mentioned Jupiter being kept in its orbit, behind the Sun. Now i present the 'Hollow Earth' story.

It doesnt take much scientific understanding to know that is no 'natural' situation. And while the imagination can perhaps be stretched to think up mechanisms of incredible science, that could produce such a circumstance. It just does not seem likely. 🙄

What is stasis,mini stasis?

Stasis 101, by Henning

Beloveds,

it was my personal interest that I asked CM to answer some questions about the upcoming stasis and things we will have to focus on immediately after the end of the event. Again, you won't get a transcript of my conversation (held in German, as you know), instead, here is a summary of my questions and the answers.

How is it accomplished?

CM: "Basically, the stasis is created by lowering – or better: halting – the vibration on the sub-atomic level. This applies to a specific range of creatures on Mother Earth. Every creature exists on a specific vibration level and signature. The energy field for the stasis influences only a specific frequency spectrum of living creatures. That's why cells, micro-organisms, plants, animals and humans sleep – whereas entities existing below or above this spectrum continue to vibrate or live. In essence, it is the part of creation existing in 3-4D (roughly) which is sent to sleep. Imagine "The Sleeping Beauty" – this picture describes best what happens.

I tried to explain the whole thing in an easy-to-understand way, as you surely can imagine, things are a little bit more complex.

The energy field for initiating stasis is created by a group of starships sending out a specific energy pattern. Earth's surface area which is enclosed by this is relatively small (less than 1 of 360 degrees), and only one half of Earth is covered simultaneously, starting in the Far East as I already told you. That's why it basically takes 24 hours until the Earth is fully in stasis.

The energy field is then cut off, and it is possible for star people and humans to come down to the surface to do the several tasks you already know of. After having accomplished the tasks, the creatures are awakened by another special energy field from the ships. This again takes 24 hours to complete.

Notice that the stasis is active on Mother Earth's surface only. It is not in the Inner Earth and of course not in your retreat area in the Himalayas."

What about the WW news during the initiation of stasis?

CM: "We will make sure that the information flow from the areas where the stasis begins first (Far East) will be controlled to some extent. This is relatively easy as the 'sleeping' creatures cannot pass any information to other parts of the world. So the 'controlling' of information basically deals with masking the real reason for the lack of information to understandable reasons, i.e. defects in the communication infrastructure."

How does life change after waking up?

CM: "First, understand that we will start the teaching activities shortly after the earth coming out of stasis. Our current plan is to start with that when the stasis is ended entirely.

These first hours after awakening from stasis are the most critical ones as people will realize the things happened with fear and shock. It is most important for you as the ground crew that you are rock-solid and in best control of your emotions during these first hours and days.

Remember that we will seal a significant amount of oil dwells during stasis, so that resources in this area will be restricted a good deal.

Which are the top priorities we as AH team must work on after stasis?

CM: “The top priority is preparation work for the ignition of Jupiter. It will be your main task to work as liaison people between us and the new leaders on earth. We as a team have to ensure that people are prepared best for the ignition event.

Plenty of GF people and craft will be available to your disposal, but you and all your helpers have to do the planning and negotiation with the GF folks. You will have several options to react i.e. on reduced “earth transport capacities” caused by restricted gas as you can organize GF craft and people for serving the Earth transportation needs until sustainable solutions are in place.

Depending on the available capacities, relocation to public shelters is an option in several countries. In other areas it might be necessary to protect people’s homes. Massive evacuation by the GF is not appropriate!

As you know, the ignition itself will cause a massive energy burst on several levels. Take into consideration that electric grids, data networks and wireless devices will not work at least for a couple of days. When the ignition begins, people must be in safe places and enough food and water stored for 2 weeks minimum.

Furthermore, the houses where the people live must be protected sufficiently against the massive light and energy bursts. This can be accomplished by sealing off doors and windows. GF folks are able to offer other forms of protection, too. But it’s your job to get this known and plan accordingly. To summarize things, here is a list of the top-priority actions:

1. Assist people in moving away from the coasts
2. Take care for protection of people’s homes.

We try our best to prepare for all this, and you all will be amazed to the amount of planning and preparation we already did – and you are currently not aware of. But it is a ‘big hairy job’. Indeed I AM sure that we altogether will make it.

"Hi all...my son just woke up and had another Supermoon dream...here it goes...let me know what you think this is about...We were pulling out of driveway and he looked up and saw scripture in the clouds...he doesn't know which one except that it ended with "...Lord"...he then saw the crescent moon again and the what looked like a star above it...the crescent moon quickly vanished and the star was getting bigger and bigger and it became a GREEN Supermoon!?...It was shining down on the streets and everywhere...he said it was brighter than the sun...he also said that everyone knew that probably the rapture was going to happen....God Bless you all...and Love to you all!!

..4th eye is above the 3rd, roughly along the hairline, depending of course where the hairline is! but about the top of the forehead. well, we were NOT supposed to see the eclipse HERE this morning, so I did not make any attempt to look, the moon was setting about the time I pulled myself from bed.

Look on www.spaceweather.com for a pic taken in Boulder, SHUCKS. I thought the moon rose a bit too far north last night, maybe that is proof.
MAN of EARTH has failed to Build the BrotherHood of Man under the FatherHood of God. I grieve..

I just assumed that since the eclipse was observed so well here in Colorado is that the moon or earth or both is off a bit. According to spaceweather it as to be a Pacific event and so I had NOT planned on trying to see it. then my suprise that it photographed here in Boulder which is about 20 miles as the cross flies west of me.

' THE END IS COME ' , AND A NEW DAWN IS COMING ALONG AND UPON YOU.

By Johan and CM

Dec 11, 2011 - 4:25:58 AM

CMATON : ' THE END IS COME ' , AND A NEW DAWN IS COMING ALONG AND UPON YOU.

While not being able to sleep in the very early morning hours, just before getting out of bed, I lay thinking about the last couple of days at AH, the messages and posts, THE BEST MESSAGE OF ALL TIMES from Siraya through Candace, the weariness I sense amongst our members, being in the knowing yet not knowing what is going on right NOW ...

Especially when I see words repeated like 'belief', understanding why they are used, but wanting to scream : belief is blindly accepting what somebody else merely tells you, wants you to belief, accept, pour down your throat without you even swallowing, let alone THINKING OR KNOWING, usually with a certain agenda and purpose, usually not a good one !!! Hence the MEME ... and the situation this world and society finds itself in, BUT NOT FOR LONG ANYMORE.

So what to do but to go Within, knock on somebodies door and that is usually my Spiritual Father, CMAton. See if He wants to Enlighten me so I can share that with my AH brothers and sisters, and help them hold on without falling into despair. My best advise ofcourse were to mention : GO WITHIN AND ASK YOURSELF AND FIND OUT, IF YOU ARE HUNGRY ENOUGH TO KNOW ... otherwise, occupy yourself wisely ... One text in that regard caught my attention on the AH front this morning : (Candace this is from whatever PJ segment was up)

" Take life as a task; each step of it to be practiced until it can be done perfectly, that is, with patience, with soul harmony, and rest. Remember the "Christ-ness" of the humble ways is with you. His "Well done, good and faithful servant," is spoken, not to the GREAT of the Earth but to the humble bearer of whatever might flow, be it pain, annoyance, joy, irritation, to the patient worker in life's ways of service. So even on the quietest day, and in the lowliest way, mighty opportunities are given you of serving the King of Kings, Spirit of Spirits and Creator of Creation. See, beloved Friends, that you welcome and do not resent these opportunities. And, always pray for another-- that the reflection of the goodness can overflow yourself."

Surely worth the reading in that regard.

Knowing that CMAton knows what is on my heart, I put on my brave face and asked him point blank : whatz up ? What do I need to know to know enough, to TRUST, not that that is a problem at all, but I want to know in trust, not because I am childishly asking, because I am doubting or because I need to know every detail of the schedule and program what my brains would not be able to grasp anyway.

The Loving and Wise Parent CMAton came to my rescue :

My Beloved Child in whom I am well pleased, I know what you know and see your intention to relief some of the weariness you sense amongst your AH brethren. That pure intention will be satisfied by understanding the following :

Remember the birthing process of Gaia you described and meditated about, or saw in your meditations? That will be my point of reference : The process ongoing and at hand, the so called wait for the Long Stasis that can spiritualise ANY MOMENT, ANY SECOND, but seems to take too long for some of you ?????????????? is like expecting 1000 visitors into a village of 50 houses. You know that is not going to work. So either quickly more houses will have to be build, perhaps more hotel or motel style, perhaps some will have to be send to neighboring villages to help out, perhaps some mobile homes will have to brought in. THAT my scribe is what we are completing WHILEST ALREADY HOSTING THE FIRST ARRIVALS. One hundred million from one place, many many millions from other places, but all is going very well. Not only tremendous amount of preparation is needed, at the same time the AFTER MATH of such a huge operation MUST BE IN PLACE AT THE SAME TIME.

Not only do these visitors need to housed, fed, entertained, instructed, guided, directed ... MORE OVER what needs to be done afterwards, MUST BE IN PLACE ALREADY. This is happening as real as you can pinch yourself and feel the pain. This is not a dream of work on paper BUT WORK FOR REAL. This is the ' heavenlies ' that are organised, planned, carried out just like a very busy cooperation where all must fit together to reach its end result or product. The dismantling of your astral realms, the huge volume of work for the mansion worlds, ALL OF THAT is being organised and taken care of. The transport of those to different ships for different destinations, you cannot even imagine it , can you?

Even putting everything and everybody to sleep and removing what needs to be removed cannot be done without the crews in place to take on what will be the result of the Higher Frequency Energy about to cause havoc on this extremely fragile body of mother Earth. Not to mention the monitoring of those who choose to counteract, even destroy far more then the carnage they already caused and left behind. As we do not want everything to fall apart and be utterly destroyed, THAT ASPECT ON ITS OWN needs preparation and organisation.

As we need to take care of tremendous amount of clean up, detoxification, pollution everywhere, deadly poisons that were meant to kill you all and destroy what was left of Life on Earth in General, all of that needs to be in place BEFORE it happens, WHAT CAN START ANY MOMENT. All of that needs planning and readiness WITHOUT FAIL AND ALWAYS EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED. Now we are talking only about your precious mother Earth. Not even mentioning what is happening to the rest of you Solar Sytem and beyond. As the cosmic clock is ticking, we also MUST be ready for what is rolling in and be rolling over in moments notice ...

Let me go back to the birthing process : you all visualised, meditated on the mother Earth giving birth to her new BABY, her New Self Gaia. With mommy being totally incapacitated, although fortunately with full consent and in Pure Spirit, we are standing by her side every second of every minute of every hour of every day, not to mention the months, years we already do that ... Not only does it take tremendous care and attention from special crews to take care of the mother, but by birth, also the baby will need tremendous care because of cosmic influences that even you, healthy ones, would not be able to withstand ... Besides, the aftermath of having a baby : new clothing, special food, housing, constant care REQUIRES PREPARATION UPFRONT, as all mothers know needs to start during the pregnancy, so all of that and much more we are taking care off.

Any emergency will trigger the instant Stasis and evacuation in record time, but otherwise TRUST that all is ongoing, can turn into instant action as we are upon the last fraction of a nano second indeed. Therefore, occupy yourself wisely, with the emphasis upon looking to the horizon of what you would like to do next. Your soul might have agreed upon that already, your Guides might have pushed you towards those goals, but there is nothing but future in the NOW ... your decision, your choice ... We provide the tools, you do the work, planning included. All the work I just described in general is done with the greatest pleasure, yet with the highest dedication from ALL involved at the Same time. Once you move beyond the invisible curtain or veil into Higher Awareness and Come Home, you will quickly come to appreciate the tremendous organisation that keeps all ongoing and BEING a part of that will delight your heart beyond imagination.

I can better finish by repeating the title of ' THE BIGGEST MOST IMPORTANT MESSAGE OF ALL TIME for you at least ', according to the words and description of this scribe : The End is Come, A New Dawn is Coming Along and Upon You. Salu and See you in a while ...

I AM Christ Michael, your Dedicated Sovereign.

Love and Light,

Johan

I forgot to add in my post above. That, the most 'garbled message' comes when the speaker themselves is being manipulated in a dream.

Most anyone no matter how Wise and Righteous, Unless they are guarded in their dream, may be manipulated to believe they are in almost any circumstance.

When that same Wise and Righteous person is at the same time, speaking/channeling to someone else. They have the tone of someone of high integrity, someone you can trust. But, if they are in such a manipulated dream, their message can be something they would never believe or say in their waking right mind.

I just assumed that since the eclipse was observed so well here in Colorado is that the moon or earth or both is off a bit. According to spaceweather it as to be a Pacific event and so I had NOT planned on trying to see it. then my suprise that it photographed here in Boulder which is about 20 miles as the cross flies west of me.

Clif of HPH says that it indicates in his opinion that the moon is under intelligent control...???

well it is occupied, so of course Also star fleet has had to manipulate it's orbit some times so that it stays more or less where it should, as to days of full moon etc as we have been in very short ministasis situations many times of just hours to a couple days for them to work in the open. Of course that statement also implies earth must be manipulated now and then to maintain man's expected illusion.

Nip,

There seems to be more & more talk about the Fema Camps being activated which makes me wonder at what point Stasis will be implemented. I realize this is just one other thing happening amidst all the other global chaos but it is really intimidating on many levels if you stop & consider everything else that is happening, particularly in this country (US). I ask about stasis because in one of the messages on AH it sounds like the unacceptable line to be crossed was use of 'cyborg' soldiers against the masses. Are you able to shed any light on this? Perhaps this is just a test for one to maintain positive focus and not allow fear to reign. Maybe I'm just needing reassurance from you as I do believe your organization shares Truth. I think I answered my own question.

Everything is as it should be. Just needed to vent...

(if answering any of these would jeopardize your situation, please do not answer).

how is it you seemingly prevent yourself from being destroyed by the luciferians who are seemingly intent on removing you?

how is your immediate family involved in all this presently?

how many friends or family have been reset because of your involvement with a.h.?

do you currently perceive yourself as having any other purpose then what you are doing with the a.h.?

if your busy saving the planet, what do you do in your spare time, for money, relaxation, and all that?

what defenses do you currently employ to prevent negative ethereal influence.

do you do any work on higher levels while conscience here on earth?

do you live with any pets?

is the mass of earth going to become more, should we expect a larger planet?

explain your interpretation of the blue light at the core, please.

how is what you are doing by posting here not a distraction?

what have you done in the past that hindered your progress, what has been fruitful?

why are there still underground reports of radiation blanketing the us and accumulating?

do you use your chakra , pineal gland, or magic, intentionally?

does technology have a polarity, or is it neutral until intent is used?

yeah, the guilt of wasted time or not helping when opportunities are presented is a major issue with some.

it seemingly happens to most at some point in peoples lives, usually when older, after a life of _____ <--- fill in blank.

it's fine, look at the past as nothing but a learning tool, be glad you learned what you did, don't dwell on timing.

if anything, laugh at yourself for being so dense you never saw it before, it helps.

shed the guilt, let all go, don't forget what you learned.

stop listening to others regarding what you should do. the connection you've made with yourself through serving others is real, straying from it causes discomfort. funny, how when you care about others, you seem to care about yourself, doesn't work for the other path.

it is not the purpose of any of the waves to "open your chakras". When this hits you do not want to be on the planet, for it will super jump the earth changes. Even Agartha was in danger and was evacuated out. Consciously however, they are accustomed to the presence of the Forces of God here.

this lap and perhaps one or two more will hugely change the vibration rate of all matter, and even the plant life is going to be paused. It was hoped man would move up gradually in his spirituality and also in the energy production and it just didnt happen, the gradual process.

When the body dies, where the soul goes depends on where the soul is. Some reembody almost immediately, others return to the astral realms, some go to the mansion worlds, some return to planets of origin, all sorts of possibilities on this world. As to your memories, if you are reincarnating as a babe from the astral, you loose your memories over the first years of your life, but the time you can express them they are buried under the rituals of whatever culture you incarnated into.

depending on what you need to learn or have purpose some is blocked for any one life. I am pretty much blocked in music, which would have been a glorius career for me, my choice this time actually.

Your God fragment within you retains the important memories, not the memories of breakfast lunch or dinner. I review my past lives pretty often, some people in them I know, some I don't. Worthy experiences are retained.

If you are a star seed, with this coming changes, if you are going home you will have your memories. But perhaps a new body, these ones don't work on lots of planets.

First to explain what they are doing, I must explain why they are.

There is something huge on the horizon change wise in the very nature of what is going on around you at all times.

What you are noticing is a counter effort to ease the masses into something.

This something being revealed is huge and could very well cause mass panic if just thrust on everyone's attention.

Mini Mob style panic would spread like wild fire as well..

so....

The current stage of our Human collectives awareness of everything that is to be seen around them allowed for the past atmosphere to be perfect cover for what travels in our skies.

So many people have now been triggered into noticing that something is going on that they are being kept from knowing about.

It has gotten to be sooo many people that it was spreading way too fast and it would have spread into a mass panic if allowed to continue on that pace.

The pace of people waking up to their surrounding in full is being counter measured to make for the smoothest transition into the new reality on its way..

What is being done is simply more clouds. There is nothing in what you are seeing that is toxic to you or anything else for that matter.

We have high speed travel in constant circulation going on in a certain altitude and is moving so fast that the cloud cover and thickness of the atmosphere that high lowers the possibility of a sighting by a controlled amount based on how much is manufactured.

Nondisclosure was never the intention or for things to be hidden from you.

It was hidden for you, because of you, and has been the hidden agenda behind everything this whole time.

The masses are under the impression they are alone and this for some reason makes them feel safer.

This is fact.

The last thing everyone expects is to hear that UFOS and alien races and creatures of all kinds were here the whole time hiding in the light and speed deferential.

No matter how it was revealed the Human Race would have always freaked out.

If it was just never hidden from the beginning it would have been chaos and terror. This would have had many casualty from violence in between only the Human Race.

Even if it was only hidden for a one year the masses would feel betrayed and lied to and would rise up in heated anger and threats of war.

The only option was to ease everyone into it until it became such a well known concept that everyone's tolerance for the idea grew.

You can now ask everyone in the world how they would feel if aliens were to come in peace and most by a land slide would be perfectly fine with sharing the world as long as there is no funny business going on.

right?

so

Now that there are crazy situation standard movies and film series surrounding creatures and alien races and the world is loving them along with crazy alien warfare video games in the nastiest of places have been selling out shelves.

mixed with scheduled sightings of UFO and alien experiences in a gradual increase to create the simulation of a trail leading to a point.

and boom.

You got a reason to add more chem-trails to make sure its done smoothly...

see..if some one said this to everyone before now this would have made everyone terrified..

but I know that this is exciting everyone.

That's on purpose 2.

The group funding this assist project are the ones known as men in black. hahaha...funny right...They make a joke about it to make you think its silly to think they may be real..

MIB.....is a real place and so is what they do for a living for the most part...It's not all gestapo as Big Willy and Agent K. but they do have the patents on a few nice little gadgets that pay them nicely.

The chemtrails are a joint effort..Many of the crafts you see will be the cloaking device projecting a reproduction image of a scanned object instead of projecting its surroundings to create it's invisibility shields.

You can ask any pilot about if they are under the impression that there are any harmful chemicals in what they are spraying and they will laugh because they know all they are spraying is moisture basically..It water vapor for the most part. Of course they need to make sure it has a density but still it isnt harmful..

NOW....

What they are really doing is something even more than just this...Past atmosphere was non-breathable to anyone but native species. There is a undetectable additive that is inside of what is being sprayed to be included into the atmosphere to rectify this.

The Human race will never notice any change at all but if you guys were involved in the decision to spray this stuff into the air you would all be up in a hissy fit.

They are making the air breathable for everyone to visit freely and be out in the open in perfect correlation to the lifting of the veil over everyone's eyes.

It's quite spectacular in design in reminiscent view.

Those chem trails are your proof that disclosure is on its way..

The sightings will begin to increase in bulk soon.

New creature sighting will be caught on camera.

Angelic and miraculous events will increase in mass amounts.

and the only reason that I can say this is because I'm offering you no proof..Just the exact truth of it.

The object of the game is to point you into the right direction so you stumble onto it yourself so you dont have too much of a shock when you rise from slumber..

You are waking up..

You are Gods

and there is so much that has happened while you were sleeping..

Father is coming to show you what you were missing..

while I.V. sings the ALL song like MATH.

How was that?

Thought it might be...

It doesn't get much more detailed than that dear.

MAN of EARTH has failed to Build the BrotherHood of Man under the FatherHood of God. I Grieve.

The greatest Lie in your Bibles is that Jesus was the ONLY Son of God. You who can THINK, (not copy), are SONS OF GOD. That was his greatest teaching, that HIS Father is also YOUR FATHER.

This is the REAL Lord's Prayer: "MY SPIRIT, YOU ARE OMNIPOTENT. YOUR NAME IS HOLY. MAY YOUR REALM BE INCARNATE IN ME. MAY YOUR POWER REVEAL ITSELF WITHIN ME, ON EARTH AND IN THE HEAVEN. GIVE ME TODAY MY DAILY BREAD, AND THUS, LET ME RECOGNIZE MY TRANSGRESSIONS AND ERRORS, AND I SHALL RECOGNIZE THE TRUTH. AND DO NOT LEAD ME INTO TEMPTATION AND CONFUSION, BUT DELIVER ME FROM ERROR. FOR YOURS IS THE REALM WITHIN ME AND THE POWER AND THE KNOWLEDGE FOREVER, AMEN. found on p. 37 here: [\[link to tweeofmeer.webs.com\]](http://link.to/tweeofmeer.webs.com)

I have not followed that thread, I don't generally tend to follow the ones here anymore from anybody that has all the secrets. People flounder to them on glp. I made only a couple posts in the thread, where I brought attention to something that was NOT so and I don't remember what I argued about or what I said actually. In your above quote, I am thus NOT in the mind enough of the person to follow it, I find it diverting here and there and I got lost in the intent. As to OP of that thread, I have no comment, having not followed it.

I would ask you to discern the intent, if you have followed the thread!

Thanks for your feedback.

Thanks and much love well by the end of the year, IS what we put out thru Kibo. I hope soon, I am restless and homesick but if it takes the whole two weeks left in this year I am fine with that or whatever. I wish I could share some of what is going on, but the thugs don't need a progress report to destroy.

HI NIP,

Thank you very much for your comments above!!

Yes, NIP...I could handle a two weeks wait, but am certainly preferring an "and suddenly" like NOW! Thanks for all you do...Please just keep posting with what you can as many on this thread can only obtain more information here.

I don't understand today's meditation post on AH:

[\[link to abundanthope.net\]](http://link.to.abundanthope.net)

at least as it applies to me. I think I'm done here and want to go home when this cycle is over. To the best of my recollection and impression, that's what I agreed to.

To make decisions in this clouded state about what to do later, once I get back my memories, information and friends makes little sense. Don't ask me what the next step is. Let me go home, catch my breath, catch up with folks, and then get back to work or whatever is the appropriate next step.

Doesn't that make more sense?

There are some folks staying and they need to ponder. far too many of my readers are in fact planning on star fleet telling them what they are to do or just accepting whatever has been decided for them, home or staying. You can plan better than that actually. It is possible. A little forward imagination is appropriate.

a lot of our readers are still not listening to the voice within and if they were, they would know. If you are going home and know that, then your thinking will go along those lines. But before you go home, might you also help settling folks in, in some way?

If there's a stasis, then during that time I would get back my memories and greater awareness, right? Then I think that would be the right time to ask me the question.

Otherwise it's like asking someone to sign a contract while they are temporarily mentally incapacitated.

Good advice. I have decided to take a tee shirt that only my family would recognize to help them know it is me and there is no deception in trying to get them settled. Whether I stay or go on from there remains to be seen...but teaching in some venue is in my future!

LETS FINISH WHAT YOU ARE ALL SUPPOSE TO BE WORKING TOWARDS.

By Johan and CM

Dec 18, 2011 - 12:38:45 PM

LETS FINISH WHAT YOU ARE ALL SUPPOSE TO BE WORKING TOWARDS.

Upon waking up, saying Hi to my Higher Universal Family, I found myself knocking on CMAton's door for the morning news, update, WHEN ??? , weak as I am, or hungry too, perhaps dying to KNOW ... evenso KNOWING that we are in good hands and expecting to hear the same Fatherly Advise and Answers, Yet expecting the unexpected ALLTIME AND ULTIMATE REVELATION ... (should I call myself ' poor child ' ...)

CMAton explained upon my (silly) question if any progress towards the start of the Stasis had been made:

Of course my Son, progress has been made. How do you expect anything different from a well oiled machine you call the Heavenuies where everything is preplanned, prescheduled, prepared, except for what some of the players on the ground are or choose to be doing. And still I say as your Sovereign: even though also WE had hoped for better/other/different results, do you think that the GIGANTIC organisation to keep Creation ever expanding has not kept in mind that what we allowed to unfold might have taken a different course AND still staying in charge afterall ??? I seriously hope there is no doubt in that compartment or your schooling might take a little longer due to many more opportunities to learn to overcome just that, that might be coming your way or you might have invited to come along.

When we dangled a carrot in front of the dark to allow them to dig the tunnels we knew we needed for later :

in the material sense of the underground facilities, in the financial department, allowing their greed to bring us closer to the unity currency or way of conducting business or outcome we actually needed and planned, going in the direction of bringing Mother Earth into the Light and Live, in the political department, allowing their hunger for power and absolute control to narrow down the way to diversified ' governance ' of the worlds population, in the military department, allowing them to bring forward the available Higher Potential and Advanced Technology to come to the surface in order for it to be used to the benefit of humankind instead of abusing its power to destroy, etc.,

we had hoped indeed for it all to run differently, BUT WE DEAL WITH EVERYTHING TO PERFECTION UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, there is no other way.

That does not include having the job done before a certain time, however there IS a Cosmic Clock Ticking its last fragment of a nanosecond when put into perspective, but having the job done TO PERFECTION, regardless of its complexity, a concept that will only be understandable once you see things from the other side of the veil.

And glory to the Heavenuies, some of you are already peeping through that invisible and non-existing veil, others will sleep just a little longer and need the wakeup call we have ready for you, not to mention those that will sleep very much, and much much longer ... upon their own choosing.

To satisfy your hunger to know, my Son, and those you represent with your call, let me say that also We have learned very much in the process, what will greatly enhance some of your future Bestowals as you already know some of you are not here to waste time or play around, but to WORK on your future Heavenly or Spiritual Functions and closer team work with the Divine. I enjoyed your expression yesterday when you mentioned to one of your esteemed colleagues that you are all in ' bringing together the Divinity with the Divine Within ALL, or visa versa, and if that did not spiritualise in the dark, at least it might have worked for some of yourselves, also using the method of learning through HOW NOT TO DO THINGS... This might also show the importance of understanding and estimating ALL involved and not dividing anything; actually observing and learning from ALL you see and get to know for what it really is.

That is all for now, there is not much more to explain, we have work to finish although closing in most rapidly towards the moment you are all waiting for, or let me say : WHAT YOU ARE ALL SUPPOSE TO BE WORKING TOWARDS ... and I hope you DO exactly that, on your behalf.

I AM CMAton, your Sovereign.

Love and Light,

Johan

I got really tired of negative email, and cut it off for me. Not just negative email, but too much email wanting personal counseling and the like. I prefer to spend the time on forums where many can benefit. And some were giving out my email address and I was getting a lot of unwanted mail from that.

Doesn't mean they will be killing fields though, but they have created them for massive breakdown in society begins. In germany just prior to the WW2 the first camps there were for political dissenters. I spent time in one, Dachau, in my previous life. I have some pretty clear memories from there.

I forgot to add in my post above. That, the most 'garbled message' comes when the speaker themself is being manipulated in a dream.

Most anyone no matter how Wise and Righteous, Unless they are guarded in their dream, may be manipulated to believe they are in almost any circumstance.

When that same Wise and Righteous person is at the same time, speaking/channeling to someone else. They have the tone of someone of high integrity, someone you can trust. But, if they are in such a manipulated dream, their message can be something they would never believe or say in their waking right mind.

In Summary:

BE WARE!

Quoting: quest 1482722

I do not channel in dream state. I have created circuits I use for the purpose of this work, custom built by those I work with. I could show you what it would like if you could see the connection, but I have long lost a image someone sent me of a visiting angel that had one, she took with her camera and sent me some surprising pics. Well maybe its not lost, I had it on my forum once. If I can find it, I will upload it. I will probably have to get Christ L. to crop it for me.

At any rate, when I am in contact, this is an arch angel type circuit I have, I have to open the circuit on my right side of head, and the incoming persons opens the one on the left, When the linkage is done, the energy meets over my head from the both of us, and the Image I have, its a purple/gold energy that runs from the sides up to the top of the head. looking a little like soft serve icecreams looks when it comes out of the machine, or beaten egg white or whipped cream when you remove the beaters, it forms little peaks.

That Will Come Close Enough

By Johan and CM

Dec 21, 2011 - 11:33:37 PM

During my evening meditation, I was again suggested by CMAton to follow the latest directive and that included all my Love and Light and Reiki to all of my AH family.

The second part, as usual, is asking CMAton for what He allows me to see and report:

Just at the beginning of the meditation, after greeting CMAton, I had asked Him boldly : My Sovereign, My God Aton, My Spiritual Father, would you find it disrespectful if I ask You: " When exactly will the Stasis start? " CMAton answered: " My Dear Son, would you find it disrespectful if I don't tell you, if I cannot tell you for a few good reasons? What if I also have to respect the ' Thief in the Night Scenario ' even for you AND your friends at AH? Now, let us make a deal : concentrate on the mind movie I will send to you, that will come close enough ! " I knew CMAton would sail His way diplomatically around an exact date, KNOWING AND TRUSTING HIM ENOUGH anyhow ...

I was looking at a small canoe that was rushing down a river with increasing speed. It seemed like the water was flowing ever faster and with more vigor as the meters and yards passed by. All of the sudden, the small canoe became a normal size fishermans boat, still on the same river. That turned into a ship, what resulted into a parade of military marine vehicles, from a destroyer to a big battle ship, to ultimately an aircraft carrier. All followed the same river, one by one, at the same increasing speed, BECAUSE ... AN ENORMOUS WATERFALL WAS JUST AHEAD AND NONE OF THE VEHICLES WAS ABLE TO STOP OR TURN AROUND OR ESCAPE THE DEADLY WATERFALLS.

CMAton put upon my heart: WHO DOES NOT GO WITHIN, GOES WITHOUT, and WHO GOES WITHOUT, DOES NOT KNOW, DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY WARNINGS, IS DESTINED TO GOING OVER THE EDGE, INTO THE ABYSS.

" All the dark are taken hostage by their own river of greed, power, lies and deception, control, money and once they embarked upon that journey, its almost impossible to escape their own deathtrap. Very few make it out before they crash down over the edge, over the waterfall. Although many times, they are thrown life lines, rescue gear is lowered down, but most will not dare to change their path, change their often 'known' suicide path, including out of fear for their partners in crime.

We are at the point right now where the military and many other departments of world control hungry groups are about to plunge into their own created abyss right in front of everybody's eyes, eliminating themselves and all those who did not dare to get out. Now ' everybody's eyes ' means others are still around, on both sides of that wild river. But the WAVE coming in does not allow ANYBODY, on the water nor safely on the river banks on both sides, to be around, as all will be swept away by alot stronger energy than that river.

That will need you all to be in safety, if not the bodies, surely the souls. Since alot more factors then you can possibly know, are a High Risk to mother Earth, even unexpected events, no matter how much we monitor them closely, can trigger an emergency Stasis as we have indicated before. Without an emergency, as we see evolving now, knowing the plans and dates of the dark, we are still within the timeframe that has been put forward. So let me repeat here that as things stand now, christmas is still a long shot and you will not see the beginning of a new earth year. As I said, that will come close enough. "

This was CMAton putting this upon my heart.

Love and Light,

Johan.

Words can't describe the feelings we will all have upon reuniting with all our old off -world friends. Many that we left behind in order to be involved with this mission.

seem to like you, some of your perceptions are seemingly true, or at least they resonate as truth. upon personal reflection, i seem to think there is something not entirely truthful. not sure about any specific, it's just coming off that way. discerning truth amongst all the distortion is seemingly a never ending pursuit.

the negative influential spirits here have no power without being given it through consenting will/desire.
this doesn't mean they do not exist without your existence or attention.

your thoughts on that last one please.

also, should i remember to bring my towel?

No towel needed, and unless you wrap up in it 24/7, it would not come with you anyway! Most to be lifted will be lifted shortly after the stasis is begun!

I would think the discomfort comes from the very inadequate knowledge of how planets are managed, which is one of our goals, to demonstrate that!

they will only give me limiting information regarding the structure of things. i have to pry tidbits of knowledge to reach any understanding. most is service to self polarity orientated, they have a way of enticing you by dangling truth in front of you, albeit at a price seemingly.

no time for more this am, have to play the work game.
but please elaborate more on the structure of the planets and universe and their effects on us spiritually.

please and thank you.

depends on what you have chosen and what they have chosen. Its sorting time, depends on where each is going. Many will stay in current bodies. Those returning to the architectural worlds have to drop these bodies, but most of them have one in storage or will be given a new one, as one example. Those going to Venus and other physical worlds where this body type will function, keep this body. Those staying behind, who are not on the AH team sleep for a time in stasis and will walk this planet in the same body.

A Love Note to Christ Michael, Esu Sananda and The Source

A Love Note to Christ Michael, Esu Sananda and The Source

My dearest friends

As I reflect on my life over the last 2 years, I recognise how profoundly The Father has so touched my heart with HIS perfect presence within me. I am so filled with HIS spirit of love, life and truth that I needed to express it to HIM. Words can never suffice but my celestial soul helped me to write this; an expression of my unreserved love and loyalty to the ONE.

YOU play the tenuous strings on my evolutionary heart, where YOU create a masterful composition blending YOUR cosmic culture with the tuneful longing of my desire; to coalesce in a vibratory range, pleading harmonious tunes drawn from the ethereal pocket.

With untold skill YOU conduct the symphony of love; that classical rendition of a heart pulsing to the rhythmic beat of its celestial heritage.

Such perfection in presence; those deft and lighted fingers convert riotous notes into compassionate chords and fires the frequency of the ascendant scales until a matchless crescendo erupts in the ecstasy of ONENESS and I am left satiated in the energetic display of YOUR mastery.

My indigenous heart screams encore as it rises in surrender, offering itself in boundless service; that YOU may perfect its tune through YOUR artful strum and channel the harmonious passion of its nature, to transcribe the lyrics of your heavenly composition, that other hearts may be inspired to allow the Master entry, that they too, may find their eternal tune in YOU.

I AM THAT I AM

In divine love birthed from YOUR perfection within.

This is your sovereign Creator Son, Aton coming to you in sort of an emergency basis. Write down what I have to say for it is important. We are about to enter stasis...yes I do understand that you are skeptical and would prefer not to take this message. It is not up to you to decide whether or not this is true and I would rather that you show more of an understanding towards the matter.

There is an urgency regarding the plans of the controllers of your planet to send the entire populace into disarray and confusion while condemning many to a certain cruel and undeserved death. That certainly will not happen under my watch and frankly we had already made provision for that sort of thing. As we have stated previously, although the clock is ticking towards the denouement of this theatrical piece prepared for you, we had our own plans to counter the misdirected actions of the PTB.

It is with regret and joy at the same time that I am officially announcing the end of this era and the beginning of a new one that stasis means to so many of you. This is not to be taken lightly and I am asking you to post this to the forum and the rest will be taken care of.

Why did I choose you? Because it is within the plans that I already had in place among other things. Dear one, do not be dismay for you should rejoice despite the immense fatigue of the soul that you go through as so many others can relate to.

There is nothing else to say and I ask all of you to go within and we shall meet soon.

Your sovereign.

Aton.

Hey NIP(or Candace is it?), I'm Adroit. This

I honestly couldn't agree more with OP's concept. Although its not the money thats the problem its our enduring enslavement to the materialistic paradigm that we lovingly embrace as a society and civilization. We love our "things", our useless shit that won't accompany us in the next plane nor help us get there. We are slaves to our own belief systems and capitalistic, consumer based, thought processes/mind programs. The truth is that the money we so desperatley desire is also the figurative double deadbolt lock on our cages and the bars of the cell itself. Unbeknownst to the general slave population we are the slave drivers and masters pushing our minds and bodies to the brink of incapacitation and/or insanity, locking ourselves in our own prisons every night, with the locks on the INSIDE of the doors facing us, & the keys around our necks; literally hanging us with fear of the unknown and uncertainty in the result of necessary change.

Simply put money should only be a means of exchange.

The dollar bill does not say In God We Trust because we put our undying faith in God. No, it says In God We Trust as in In Money We Trust, i.e. money is your God. Just look at a dollar, read the print, and see how you feel. Do you feel as if you are proclaiming something about the money or your faith?

In a world where having stuff to show off so that you can attract a "mate"(woman) etc. isn't paramount and the physical, emotional, psychological, and spiritual(not religious) state and status of the people IS(paramount), peace reigns. In a world based in this mindset, with the stasis of the people being of the utmost importance, peace reigns over all lands; for the friction caused by turmoil in the human psyche has been thwarted and all the basic needs of said human are met. This type of society works because there is no question of whether or not we have enough resources it works on a system of DEMAND & SUPPLY. We have space which=food and an abundance of water on our planet that literally CANNOT escape our atmosphere=limitless supply, therefore the only question ever asked is how much is needed; and the the needs are met with the supplies(resources) that we have available to the the collective WHOLE.

The rest of the everyday B.S. that has been rooted in our culture as a people and planet are just luxuries.

The Stamp of Divine Authority- The Source

A gale passes through the ethers and in a blink life as you know it will change. It will be a kindness to allow the earth and mankind to sleep through the revolutionary event. This event is like none you have ever experienced before on a scale known to man. What is to eventualise is called 'cosmic detinue'. Yes that is indeed the description. If you are unable to comprehend seek the meaning behind the words.

The earth as all planets, are creations of The Divine. The underlying elements of each planet are divinely constituted. The energetic composition of each is of a divine nature. The earth is not to be seen as merely a body of rocks, minerals and soil with an atmospherical covering. It also contains a spirit which finds its heritage in The Divine's nature. The foundation of the earth is divine. All that is divine was and is meant to underpin the earth plane. She is a creature of 'The Divine' just as you are creatures of 'The Divine'.

The earth has not forgotten or abdicated her divinity. She has been browbeaten by all that is not divine and left prostrate at the will of man. Her divinity eschewed by the custodians of her body has left her bereft and with marginal life. You cannot hear her wails or her cry for Divine assistance. For many of you, if not the majority have become buried by the foul soil of all that is poisonous to Divine order. Mankind is reaping what he has sown in the earth and for himself. Why is this? Divine authority has escaped his understanding. Man in mass cannot comprehend his relationship with The Divine. Each has his /her peculiar understanding of life and seldom is it tied in with The Divine life force that is espoused within them. Many are unable to recall their beginning and the nature of their evolution on the earth.

Man has chosen to create laws that are counter to the divine programme given to him and lives as he chooses without regard for his divine nature. The authority that man wields on the earth plane is purely physical ego related authority. This has manifested destructive elements which gloat against all that is of an outer dimensional authority, meaning the Divine Will. Creation flows from within yet your minds have been moulded for aeons to accept that your mortal presence is all that is. You have been seduced into believing that that which subsists around you bears reality and only the tangibles are real.

For the majority the inner sanctum is unknown and there is an abysmal lack of connection with the inner mind, being that higher understanding that can teach you who you are. You cannot trace your heritage from within or mark the point of the beginning of your existence; for should you do so, this would bring enlightenment in understanding that you may come to appreciate that each bears the stamp of Divine Authority within, through his/her creation. Knowledge of this carries a divine responsibility; such being as it is, one that you are not in readiness to embrace as your senses become lashed with the attractions of an outer nature that hounds you into slavish obeisance to that which is unreal and distinctly un-divine.

So to be sure that you receive in truth the message, I AM telling you that Divine Authority lies within you. It is your inheritance; and awareness of this will reunite you with your everlasting power. Yet my ones, you are not in droves ready to assume the heavy responsibility that this state requires of you; for you have become too busy and enamoured with the toys created for you by the wily ones of satanic influence. You prefer to bow to them and play in their tedious games than to rise to your true stature. Yet you continuously seek yourself.

The inner shift occurring in many at this juncture is no coincidence; for awakening always comes when great transformation is about to ensue. I will say though that there is still insufficient light as yet capable of making substantial inroads into the wealth of greed which populates the earth in darkened tones.

There is an absence of Divine Authority in the governance in your places on Earth Shan; for man has ignored the Laws of God given to create a balanced life for him. All planets within the universe are governed by these laws; but earth man has reneged on his divine responsibilities and chosen the path of imbalance. Mans' life on earth has become one big puzzle as he is unable to set the pieces in the correct order to create a harmonious and balance existence. He vacillates in his choices and delivers an incendiary blow to his soul's growth.

Those who have deliberately belittled Divine Authority have in effect committed cosmic treason and will now be called upon to answer for they have forfeited their right to have a say now in the earth's evolution. She is going to ascend as I say. You of earth have sullied the very laws I gave unto you by besmirching its intent and converting them to suit your visceral needs. I say no more!

Your earth is bent and broken and is in disdain for what man has wreaked upon her. She has seized up and I say that no amount of prayers now will save her for you. She is to return to the light. It is too late to effect the nature of the changes required to place her in an ambient position for continued service in your dimension. I remind you all to revisit the prophesy of the Master, MY dearly beloved SON and know that you are now here.

You cannot fight that which is ordained. They who have perpetrated ill upon the planet and upon humanity are breathing their last breaths in human format before the divide falls. You ones know who you are. You continue to use scare tactics on my ones but you have already failed. I say surrender to the light for all that is dark upon the earth is to be removed post haste. The glow of immortal fortune is on the side of those who have chosen the light but for the obsequious there is no such promise.

MY divine promise to you is that the earth will be remoulded in light and this time the stamp, being MY Stamp of Divine Authority will be emblazoned on her and there will be no mistaking the nature of her and her predominant purpose. Man will again be given the laws of creation and he will once again be taught that Divine Authority rests within each and that each is responsible to create through that authority a civilisation that speaks the Divine nature of all so that Divine order prevails. This is the only way that the earth and mankind can continue its journey as it rises to meet the standard of Paradise.

I AM your Divine Source and Centre of all Divine activity. Be ready to receive MY Stamp of Divine Authority as I reach down to reclaim what is rightfully MY OWN.
