[\[link to www.youtube.com\]](http://www.youtube.com) I assume this may or may not be the Wave, but these have increased during the other laps of it. if you don't read Spanish, this is a recent sound that got a lot of attention on Costa Rica, and they found no quake to match with it. Here's the article. [\[link to www.costaricanewssite.com\]](http://www.costaricanewssite.com)

The you tube is more clear with headphones. Its only 17sec long.

Please post stuff here you think might be wave related and watch for it on glp and other places, or post your own if you hear or feel something.

Also I plan at this time to reopen my forum Thursday morning.

Dear Candace,
Greetings/Good Evening.

1. I have been witnessing the effects of the light from the photon belt. I noticed that you see our planet's envelopment of the gamma rays happening in waves. The gamma rays are some from the center of the Milky Way since October 2006 that are basically steady, but the ones coming in waves, which I do detect periodically, I can feel them, are from craft.

2. Do you have any idea WHEN the force of this wave fully engulfs us? No, but "soon" where I am watching it.

3. Am I correct in my understanding that our solar system is rotating around the Pleiades' central sun? Yes. every about 26,000 years. Our system is in the photon belt twice each time. Alcyone is the name of that sun, and there are about 500 suns which orbit it, not just the 7 sisters.

4. Is it anticipated that we of higher vibration can withstand the full bombardment of the rays or will we be removed? Some of us will do fine. Most people will freak out with lots of death from fright alone. The removal is related to the massive earth changes that will happen as an outworking of it. That is the point of Stasis in part, to protect life, as the earth changes, from all reasons will be severe and the atmosphere compromised from the volcanism.

5. The Earth is ascending but I have read things suggesting Earth will be "dismantled." What's going on with Earth? Earth will not be dismantled. We are returning to rebuild.

I hope you can help me out with these answers. Thank you for fighting the good fight!!

Ok I had looked at your post, but I think I chose to answer later. My brief remarks are in blue above. On checking back I only answered one question.

Hello everyone and much love to all of you.

The "rumbling noise" is being heard all over the world.

It is a deep and strong sound and to me it seems like it has gotten stronger and louder over the last couple of month, it also seem to last longer.

I have noticed that the rumble is always connected with high winds. Orange skies are being noticed also. At sunrise the sky is much brighter in the West then where it should be..East.

Inside feeling is less confusing, things get clearer, body seem to respond much easier then before. I can feel the Wave and it feels like an "all-time high"??

It doesn't feel like sitting on "cloud nine" more like "don't worry" more like "being home".

The ear-ringing changed, it sounds like the constant whisper of the musical tone G. Unlike previously, it feels comfortable and as being part of myself.

GOD BLESS 🍷🌸

I felt strong nausea yesterday, strong energy, and dizzy. Cannot sleep last night, even though i am lack of sleep these days. Cannot move and feel very tired this morning....

The energy feeling is stronger than the one in August...

Is that from WAVE or spacecraft?

Well, last night I stayed up past one am talking to a friend. I didn't sleep particularly well, waking up now and then. anyway, shortly after I went to bed, I was vibrating, and this was because I was being prepped to go to ship. But I noticed that the bed was vibrating too, and I could hear my bedroom door vibrating. there was nothing going on to vibrate either. I have noticed this minor vibrating before like others have in the matter, but hadn't really recently anyway. So I must make the assumption its the wave affect, or we were having a very long period of quaking. Nothing of much interest here during that time which when I went to bed was about 7:30 utc. [link to aslwww.cr.usgs.gov] This is the closest one to me. I assume we must have telemetry someplace in denver because we have a quake history here, but I have never found any. This is in Idaho springs, and there is an underground COG there for the US of A. (continuity of government).

for the purpose of laughing I few days ago in the evening dusk, I heard a new sound, seemed a bit to the south, inside and more intense out side and I could not place it, and it still continued for a long time, until that is, I shut off my sprinkler. I had it on an upside down dishpan to raise it higher to spray better. that was the strange noise that was slightly south.

Hello and much love,

Friday morning I got attacked by a massive head-ache, felt like someone working inside my head with a Jackhammer, never felt pain like this before. The pressure was so immense that my eyes closed up and my stomach turned.

It came out of the blue and it left the same way Saturday night, as if a switch was turned on and off.

Now my back is hurting and it seems like my body is in "flames".

Don't know if this has anything to do with the Energy being released? Or if I'm feeling part of Mama Earth pain, since I connect myself with her everyday?

Hope you all are doing well.

GOD BLESS ❤️🌸

I hear strange sounds periodically, have not been walking at night though to listen outside, easier to here then minus city traffic though. For several weeks my whistling teapot has changed its whistle, more shrill and loud. I have taken to not filling it full, because the noise then startles me pretty good. Nothing about the pot has changed except the sound it makes.

Ok I lucked out just a bit ago. Posted in another thread. This is the WAVE from the bible, but revelations is also about this and I had a copy up on it on the web the other night so I could copy and paste and then I didn't get finished. This is however, excellent. This post refers to somebody asking me for the bible prophesy of the wave.

2PETER3 KJV

10But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the ELEMENT SHALL MELT WITH FERVENT HEAT, THE EARTH ALSO AND THE WORKDS THAT ARE THERIN SHALL BE BURNED UP.

11Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

As to the WAVE I KNOW and recognize the sounds. I am a very old soul from Paradise and I simply KNOW a lot of stuff because its in my soul record and of my experience over a very long time.

But it was said that Adama and the entire Agartha population were evacuated because the big danger that this Wave represented for them. Not long after this, the surface population would be evacuated as well. Tell me, are the Agartha people really living on a big ship? If nobody knows when this Wave will hit what are they doing there? Waiting?

Many people talk to Adama and he never said to any of them that Agartha was evacuated. AH was the only one to say this. Hmmm...

Just a comment, I have begun to hear the next lap of the WAVE again. Maybe a week ago now. The music of the spheres continues at intervals, I think its time for a boost.

Dear Candace,
could it be that the Wave is felt different now?
To me it seems like it is effecting the head/mind much, when before it had more effect on the body.

It feels like the inside head is pulled up, like the "funny" feeling you get shortly before you fall into deep meditation, when connecting with the higher-self.
Like being inside an elevator going to fast??

Well its not fully here yet, but I would think what you are noticing would be night work perhaps? More tuning up? Being enhanced that is separate from what the wave might do to the general populace. I am suggesting this process is particular to you and some others. Rather than more general.

If you have stronger stuff around the top of your head, it could be you are being en circuited more too. Or perhaps somebody is "knocking" to speak to you and in that case, Pick up the Interior Phone. You decide.

Put your head on a pillow, relax thoroughly and LISTEN UP. You might just hear it. Its visible on stereo. Just because you don't make an effort to perceive, doesn't mean its not there. It comes in laps, gathers information, returns to Paradise where the info is analyzed and the next one sent out based on the analysis. It is very difficult to raise up the matter of this world, but it is rising. I can often hear the music of the spheres, which is proof positive to ME because I KNOW THESE THINGS. All planets of even a little higher vibration than this one SING.

I also am removing a post above, I don't understand why the poster placed it, a long list of strange stuff, no linky so I have no idea of the intent.

Hearing, but its not heard outside the head except when it causes the trumpets. I am sometimes picking up the slight trembling of the matter too of my own house, comes and goes. Those that have their kundalini and thus a lot of DNA hooking should be able to perceive it if in a state of semi meditation. Others may not be able too yet, but they will when it get far more obvious.

Yes it is not like it was before, it comes from inside or is heard inside the head. Putting on earphones makes it more intense and easier hearing it. It is higher than the last time but not uncomfortable, it does not sound disturbing like having "tinnitus" would.
I tried to meditate on it but fell asleep.

Hi Candace

I loved what you said somewhere here - 'blessed are those that feel like shit' or words to that effect!! Oh, how I do relate! I had such a laugh, I almost cried.
Anyway, my body has been trembling and/vibrating something silly for the past week or so, along with restless, achy legs at night and endless pain behind the eyes, often waking up with such swollen, light-sensitive eyes I have to keep my sunglasses on all day. I'm never really sure where the vibrating is sourced..sometimes it feels like the nervous system is producing the shakes/trembles and other times it feel like a trembling vibration from deep within me/without somewhere.
And to top off all that blessed discomfort, for dessert today...an intense all-day right temple pineal gland? headache of (painful) note.

On a much more positive note, feline surgery at night on my now adjusted/expanded head is ending...so I'm told. Yaaaay!!

Hi SK, i have had a huge increase also. Perhaps a little magnesium citrate might help with the legs. well I went thru a bunch of that awhile back on the expanding head thing. There are not sutures on area above the ears, and after headaches for a couple weeks or more, my head was expanded during the night in those directions. Twice that I know of. The first time I woke when I was brought back from ship in really terrible shape, but it wore off over a few hours. Nausea,, headache, terrible sweating etc. It woke me up. Then the next time but not as bad. Each time, my headphones were tighter. Probably both your nervous system and your finer body involved. Plus coming back from craft or being prepared for beam up will produce that too. If you notice it when you think you went to ship, before and when you return you are being prepped for dematerialization.

I experienced this heavily also during a period of time at least 4 summers ago when I was trying to learn to dematerialize myself to ship. I succeeded finally, well not to ship but dematerializing myself, rematerialized moments later. It takes so much mental energy to do that. I chose not to continue but it was worth the several attempts that finally resulted in the one success. I sorta was so surprised I didn't myself all the way to the craft. The feeling when doing it yourself, as you approach the point, is like riding down a steep incline on a roller coaster. And the vibrating is INTENSE. In fact the vibrating at that stage always caused me to abort it, but I finally did it ONCE. You have to get your body to 1000 mega hertz or gigahertz, I forget now, but 1000 of those puppies to dematerialize.

That was so helpful, Candace, thank you! Particularly as dematerialisation prepping never crossed my mind. I don't think I have your stamina left in me to focus on doing that consciously right now. It just feels like there's so much loaded on me/in me every single day. But here's a thing: I keep getting the sense of 'transferring' my essence somewhere, like to another 'me'/form. Or maybe it's coming INTO me from my HS...I can't discern properly. If it's leaving me to go to another form, it makes absolutely NO sense why this physical body is being put through all this...

On the head 'surgery', my cat's paws were glued to the area just behind my ears and further up my head..for months, producing this sickening head pain almost all day, every day. Most of my physical pain for the past months has all been located in the head, neck, shoulder areas. I had a spiritual tantrum the other night and asked for just ONE GOOD DAY every so often. So far so good this am...we'll see.

One of the other weird symptoms I've had for the past couple of weeks is waking up sweating with that 'seal/opening' on the back of the neck radiating an intense heat. Do you know what that means?

And then last night I was chatting with some on ship when I suddenly saw myself fitted with something attached to my head. It was like a suction skull cap attached to a long tube which went directly to ship, attaching to the ship also as a suction style thing that side. All of it was silver in colour. I was told this was some kind of communication device..does this sound familiar to you?

I can hear the ringing in both ears, it is more pronounced at night. It ranges from sizzling to actual ringing and has multi tones. I also get a kind of chattering of my teeth, like when cold but very gentle and much faster as of higher octave. Also get static energy movements above my head as if a cord or funnel is moving about.

It's all good.

Hi everybody and much Love to you,

I'm not sure if this is related to the Wave coming in, but since Sunday I had this feeling twice, very strong, happened without a warning.

I took a nice long walk with my dog, when suddenly it felt as if my heart had slowed down and I thought I would faint. At the same time I felt real "light" as if I had lifted off from the ground. By the time I realized what has happened, it was gone. Funny thing was, that I had the impression of being much taller than I am, plus the impression of the ground beneath my feet being much further away. The colors of the Trees seemed softer, everything looked more filigree. This impression stayed with me for over an hour.

Hi everybody and much Love to you,

I'm not sure if this is related to the Wave coming in, but since Sunday I had this feeling twice, very strong, happened without a warning.

I took a nice long walk with my dog, when suddenly it felt as if my heart had slowed down and I thought I would faint. At the same time I felt real "light" as if I had lifted off from the ground. By the time I realized what has happened, it was gone. Funny thing was, that I had the impression of being much taller than I am, plus the impression of the ground beneath my feet being much further away. The colors of the Trees seemed softer, everything looked more filigree. This impression stayed with me for over an hour.

Quoting: firmament

I don't know for sure, during the weekend I had a lot of vertigo and other stuff that I have not had for a time, usually coming from adjusting the tilt or doing a little axis shifting.

Hello and much Love to all of you, as some of you probably noticed the Wave was/is hitting hard again. Inside the head/ears and all around oneself, there is this "electrical singing" one can hear.

Many People complain about being unable to concentrate. At work the "usual" seem to becoming a task, impossible to fulfill. No goodnight sleep, waking up 3-4 times.

Just wanted to let you know in case someone feels similar, don't worry. Embrace the Gift of the Wave, which is AWARENESS.

I AM THAT I AM and so are YOU

LOVE does conquer all!

Christ is not a Name, it is a state of being!

Incoming Energy Waves

Nebadonia thru Rubens Sept 21, 2012

Hello Rubens; this is your sister Nebadonia, yes, the same one, consort of your brother CM. I am here to announce the arrival of waves of energy and the ensuing precipitation of series of events that must occur on your beloved planet Gaia. What such arrival does is to allow all elements to align themselves properly as if by divine hands so that the manifestation of the 3DD that you are so expecting on Earth can take place in the fashion that it ought to without creating havoc on your ground; that is not to say that there will not be any catastrophes occurring during and after such event but , there is sort of a cushioning of multiple blows (as conceived from your point of view) so that we do not provoke a lot more than needed in terms of geological events and their consequential departures of ones on the ground.

This is a much needed happening for it as has been forecast some time ago and it is a divine occurrence that must take place in order to create the atmosphere needed to have an adequate terrain that will see the beginning of a long process of entering into Light and Life. Yes, dear, as you will know it that is the aim of all that is to occur. I, Nebadonia, Creative Spirit of Nebadon am joyous at the prospect of that which will become soon your long awaited turn of events.

I am Nebadonia and greet all of you good bye in the hope that we shall see one another soon.
Adieu my children
