Hershel, (sorry I am sure I misspelled that) Channeled is a catch all word. In the case of the UB it was genuinely channeled, meaning Passed thru a human while said human was out of his body and another using it. The "channel" of the UB was a sleeping prophet, just was was edgar cayce. And in those days somebody had to write down was heard, there were not tape recorders. Dolores Cannon has been blessed with tape recorders for her work. She puts the person into hypnosis, and sometimes the person's higher self is coming thru, in other cases, entities from the higher realms come thru. The soul moves aside and another uses the brain and vocal cords. If you have not explored her work, that is a must in my book. I was guided to her work, I would get asked to (by telepathy) to go to the book store and what I was to examine would come out on the shelf in front of me. That in fact is HOW I came to find the UB, I had not ever heard of it, and that was in probably 1996, or perhaps 1995. I was in a book store with my daughter who had come home from, well that makes it 1996, Europe. She was buying stuff for her boyfriend to take back to Germany. Boy friend is now my son in law.

I was directed by telepathy to go to the new age section. I have never liked new age sections very well, but I went and there it was, half off the shelf. I was not sure I wanted it yet, and had little money at the time. later I was again there with some more time, and found it fascinating until I saw the last 1/3. I put it back because it was about "Jesus' and seemed a bit too much of christianity. I cannot stand christianity. I have been sentenced to hell fire ever since my early childhood by vicious christians.

But again I was asked look at it, several times while I was also looking at other recommended books as to preparing me for my journey. Eventually when I got a charge card I finally bought the thing, and in the privacy of my home, I fell in love with the finest work of God I have seen on this planet. And I am still in love.

It is "channled" (sorry I almost got off the story line here), because a PERSON is being used to go THRU. The person is not the channel, the celestial is, and using the persons mind and body much like like energy passing thru an electric cord. And that is exactly how so many entities came thru one sleeping prophet over the 2 or so year period the UB material was given in answers to questions by the contact commission at that time.

Dolores cannons material is give the same way, except Dolores puts the person into deep hypnosis , rather than the sleeping prophet putting self into deep hypnosis and vacating for the channel to come thru. There are a number of books that have been written by this method and various personalities are still using this method to this day. There ARE reasons for that.

Now with the PJ's, I was directed to them too. I was told to just google them and that is how I found them at www.fourwinds10.com. The other site called PhoenixSourcedistributors did not have them at that time, they in fact copied them from 4 winds. Patrick Bellringer got copies of all of them in print, copies each and every page by method of copy machine, they were after all published books. Then these were scanned. I was told to find them in 2003 after Michael of Nebadon gave me the symbol and directions for AH. Which i was given at that time in deep meditation.

Now at that time, Patrick had them in a form that did NOT do well on my computer, the words bounced and were red and black and not very readable. I don't think I found the pdfs to download them, or if I did, they took a long time and were still not readable. I was asked to read PJ 2 and 3 first. Well, finally in June 2004, he put noticed of them on his front site, there was a new form they had been put into. Well, just like with the UB, I feel in love all over again.

Now the PJ's are not channeled. They are sent by a type of short wave signal and then Dharma translated the signal, into words, for which she had been prepped with a receiving crystal in her head. I will not say where or how that crystal worked, its not truly for public release at this time. This allowed huge clarity so she could type just as fast as she could type, there was now computers. This was at a time also shortly after the circuits to Urantia were reopened and a lot of material was coming in. Dharma simply took the dictation. She was a secretary.

Now like the issues with the UB I mentioned above, the PJ's are not perfect, every where all the time. Our thugs detected the radio frequency and sometimes used it and sometimes dharma could discern the change and sometimes not. That is why you will sometimes find two different answers to the same story. This happened a lot, and Hatonn would send over a different frequency and it would get contaminated again, but over all the work is marvelous and a person who CAN discern, as I can, I am an awfully old soul, by the way the trip to Paradise takes much longer than I think it was you who suggested such above. Average for a go getter is 1 million years, so I am pretty old. For slower ones like the thugs of earth, it can take billions.

Thugs are given as long as necessary to grow up. Which sometimes does seem an eternity.

Now, there is the telepath. This is direct mind to mind communications a;nd few on earth do this, but there are many starseeds who do and are even unknown as their instructions are secret as to mission. I have always been telepathic. It is the normal way. Animals are very good at it naturally. They don't do "language" they do pictures back and forth.

As to the TEAching Mission, the so called channels, step aside and let others come thru them. This is conscious channeling. They have been labeled TR's so I tend to use that term for that method. These ones, who are REAL are always encircuited to do this. It is not yet natural on this plane. But it is the way to bring material thru to a group of people, and this is going to be heavily used AFTER STASIS.

During stasis, the world will be sectioned into 50 to 100 areas of administration. There are going to be MISSIONS. YOU might want to read my older material on my site about the Many Missions project. Now each AH sanctioned mission, will have a TR. Each mission will have an appropriate celestial supervisor who will provide guidance thru the TR to the mission team. I can also TR but I am not into that in terms of being before a group like the others. Dharma could also TR and did, and Hatonn and probably others gave thru as well as Hatonn's Higher self ATON. (Michael of Nebadon). These were tape recorded and while I don't any of them, I have a friend who does and I did listen to some when I was with her once.

There will be at least thousands of missions. All funded through the celestial monies on this planet already, which is not to be confused at this time with NESARA. There is great wealth secreted away on this planet, of old relics and high energy gold and other precious metals and jewels and crystals. These have been ON the planet since the days of Adam and Eve and if that mission had not been corrupted.... well you know the rest. However, the corruption went far beyond Eve's sexual betrayal to Caligastia. That was not enough to abort that whole mission. There were reasons to NOT cover this in the UB because we do still have all these thugs on the planet facing their FINAL JUDGEMENT, its the end of the 2nd Grand cycle. I will get back to that piece when the mood is there again.

Now telepathy is used even when one communes with ones thought adjuster. You have read the person is usually 5 or 6 or even 7 d consciousness when this occurs more naturally. In the UB it mostly covers that by the story of the 7 circles. That is what those circles mean, the level of consciousness that has been obtained.

There is a great deal of fraud by the CIA and others in "new age." There is fraud in the teaching mission and I can also state here there has been covert CIA infiltration into the Urantia Foundation teams and also into those involved with the Phoenix Journal project. You must be aware of Daniel Raphael. I KNOW this person, or thought I did, he lives not far from me. We met many times. he was clean once. He is not now. He apparently wanted like others so bad to serve and he not enough money, so he fudged. The stories around the fudge are both sad and hilarious. But the whole www.monoronson.com is now corrupted, near as I can tell, because I am seeing a lot of shit coming forth. Mighty Messenger Charles IS a CIA creation and the name choice and position choice is a play on ME. Candace Mighty messenger, Charles Mighty messenger and I am in receipt of a work by Daniel which announces that Mighty Messenger Charles is now the chief advisor or something to that effect of the trivalent of Monjoronson, Michael of Nebadon and Machiventa. Another piece by somebody else states Machiventa is ousted and replaced by another commission et all.

This is why I do this, people this big time, when this shit happens and I am not angry to some of you for your exposure of your crap about ME, (ie YAH), I am greatly saddened at the corruption and success of the CIA and others into iniquity. WE have tried so hard with this planet. However, some of this is necessary as part of the 4d thing, in which people have to choose which side they are on and cannot play the fence. We are seeing this from the WAVE and other energies now, on GLP and all over. People are reporting this stuff not only here on GLP but lots of people I come into contact with are reporting such also.

Michael of Nebadon said he came not to bring peace. he came to set on against another, THAT IS THE PROCESS of 4d that will lead to 5d consciousness on this planet as the phoenix arises from the ashes of that mess. This is necessary for people to learn to think, and stop all the shitty following and you "Urantians" (isn't everyone on this planet a "urantian?") who are FOLLOWERS it is LIKEWISE. YOU MUST FIND YOUR MIINDS. Many of you too follow because the book sounds so good. AND IT DOES, as do the PJ's.

But there is no complete record YET on this planet and the thugs do their best to destroy the truth and infest God's work on this world. They are VERY GOOD AT what they do, real professionals in fact. ONCE the NORMAL GOOD MAN discovers how much more powerful he can be, than even the tried and true thugs, so will this planet change massively.

And on editing, the TEaching Mission was corrupted in part initially because the thugs placed agents trained where there were microphones placed in the meeting places, so the questions could be heard from the audience and the false "TR" had a little hearing device himself on his body, an electronic receiver for his part in it. And I am pretty sure Daniel R is making use of such now from something STUPID he said in an email to somebody I know. And he has a nice house now for his work and a secretary who is in on the deal.

And OBE, to receive form Source, as you call it, is the goal, in the UB this is called the thought adjuster. I prefer Father Fragment, I think it's more accurate but there was likely a reason for that word too. You are an old soul. YOu can travel cold space as you discover some time ago. You hear from Source thru your Higher Self, your real you. You are long "fused" with your Father Fragment. One day I we will cover more of the construction of the soul that we have so far.

For those of you who are UB readers, the morontial Soul is your astral form, in which your records as stored as your personal akashic record. WE have too many words for the same thing on this planet and during stasis we are going to unify the concepts into one language, english, and add a lot more words, because we don't have enough words. It becomes "morontial" in the new soul having it's first life when eternal life is chosen with the receiving of the thought adjuster.

Not one of the predictions of Candace Frieze become reality.

Since 2006 she was talking about the First Contact, 2007 Jupiter became sun, mars 2009 again Jupiter and earthquake, immobilization and now the new entertainment: reverse something.

All these years of energy which is spending by the people who follow you instead of grown espirituality and consuming waiting the apocalypses

Candace who continually publish CIA MK-Ultra mind-controlled rubbish to fool the people and create negative energy through confusion and fear.

She is the source of the fake Christ Michael messages and the garbage of the Jupiter Event and stasis, and she shall be held accountable for her evil actions of misleading the people and causing great fear.

The stasis event is pure nonsense. The Realms of Light are bound by the Cosmic Law of Non-Intervention. This even flies in the face of the Cosmic Law of Cause and Effect.

Since the summer of 2005 she was gradually placed under CIA mind-control, when her increasing ego caused her to lose her Divine Protection. The Jews_are_great website is fooling many people with disinformation. Candace has been pulled into the Mormon camp and their plan to become the One World religion. The Mormon Church had great input in the compilation of the Urantia Book, and much of it is simply not Truth.

Creator God Aton is the main author of the Phoenix Journals, and He has made it quite clear to us that His name is not Christ Michael. Candace uses some of the Phoenix Journal material and the name, Aton

People must learn to be discerning. There is no Stasis (sleep) Event, no Jupiter Event, no GESARA, no Plan A of a smooth transition of Earth Shan and all people living happily ever after in a grand paradise on our earth. Candace has concocted (no, the CIA has) the "Sovereign Integral Network" (SIN) nonsense, etc. The souled being already has a God-connection to Creator Source through his God Spirit within. Candace has kept many people, especially on the West and East Coasts of the U.S., in fear for their survival.

The CIA is one agency often used for such purposes (mind control),. They may test us by putting out garbage on the Internet to see how much they can fool us, how gullible we are, especially the "enlightened ones, who are a threat because they can discern Truth.

You need to develop your critical skills. Educate yourself. Channelled messages and all those "metaphysical" sites won't really educate you. What they do is confuse you. When you're in a confused state of mind you are easily tricked and deluded, hypnotized, and led into wherever the hypnotizer wants to lead you, whatever twisted philosophy or ideology. And this is being done to you without your being aware of what's happening. But it's a technique really, or a bunch of techniques. Those techniques will not lead you to enlightenment. They lead to confusion, misguidance, illusions, delusions and utter nonsense. In short: they aim to bullshit you.

If you believe Candace's endless explanations like the one that you cannot see real Jupiter through a telescope but you can see it through naked eyes or through binoculars, well then you will just believe anything really.

Those who themselves are seriously misguided want you to believe anything that they say. They may actually tell you not to use your logic and reasoning; not to question, doubt and criticize, but just believe, just have faith, just wait a little longer and don't do anything real about anything but just keep yourselves deluded by reading or listening to their material that is keeping you confused and misguided.

Who got you into that bullshit? Was it someone you knew? Was it someone you felt you could trust? Was that bullshit recommended to you by some friend?

AGain YAH you post the crap about me that Patrick Bellringer, a CIA agent MADE UP. You were retold by WHOM to report the lies? Are you short of mind and reasoning powers? Doesn't cut it for your supposed original exposure of me. THINK, it's showing that you don't very well.

The MORMON CHURCH HAD JACK SHIT TO DO WITH THE UB. The contact commission people who asked the questions that produced the papers, some did belong to a less well know but much more real church than the MORMONS. Patrick has made ME into a mormon in some of his shit. I attended one mormon sunday service in 2005 as part of my research into religion. I was not impressed. I have not be "officially" raised in any religion, not even the episcopal religion on my mothers side of the family. I completely rejected it. I walked out of my "confirmation" classes on the 2nd day, I could not stomach that.

Boy somebody is desperate here, aren't they? WHO and WHAT ARE YOU YAH because as I said you contacted me real soon after you joined here. I should have copied those PM's, but I just left them and they fell off eventually here.

SIN was not MINE, nor the CIA's. It was JAMES of Wingmakers. And it has nothing to do with the Father Fragment, it has to do with placing advanced planets on the galactic internet. There IS ONE people. But planets are not put on SIN until their peoples have proven their morality.

What Patrick reports I said about Jupiter is totally misconstrued. I never said the real Jupiter was visible with the naked eye but not with a telescope. Let me tell you WHAT that story is about. It was about the PHOENIX Craft.

Hatonn/Aton/CM had the craft down over my area for 10 months, from march 2005 thru December 2005. It was a huge bright light in the sky and he loved to play with the lights etc to get peoples attention.

Now one day in April of that year, a kid next door had noticed the light in the sky which did not match any stars or planets, it was rising in the east shortly after sunset while it was still light and that got this kids attention, because he had a pretty decent telescope for a 14 year old. So he got it out and I explained this was a craft with a galactic commander aboard. Whose name was Hatonn. And that this activity of craft was related to the 2nd coming process. As it got darker I pointed out other craft in the sky.

With the telescope set up, neighbor hood kids came by. Well you could see the LIGHTS of the CRAFT with ones eyes or a binocular or the Finder lens on the telescope. But we could see NOTHING with the telescope do the nature of the cloaking, which is why he could be down so low for all those months. Now that evening. Commander Hatonn put on a show about 1 1/2 hours long for the all the neighborhood kiddies. We got to see ports (red lights) on the craft open and admit smaller craft coming aboard, he was down that low. Well you could see the red lights and tiny flecks of light going into them.

He moved the craft around a lot, changing the light patterns a great deal. I wrote the experience up in email for my list of readers, as I did not have the website then. I don't remember if Patrick was on the list or not, but I did send him the messages for publishing. That was not a published message, it was to my readers only.

Many during those 10 months could see the craft. It was often in a different place and some nights it wasn't there at all. many in my own neighborhood watched it, and I would just again say, it has to do with 2nd Coming or later on, sometimes that Jesus was on it. One of my team members who lives on the east coast used to watch it with his kids after we disclosed who Hatonn was and they liked to call it the Christ Michael Star. That story occurred LONG BEFORE we started talking about Jupiter. What a shit head.

And Patrick LONG admitted and POSTEd my material about Aton being CM. HE POSTED piece #25 we placed on I think it was April 25 of 2005. I am going to go check something out to see if he still has something posted that could be of interest here. BRB.

OK I hit paydirt. Still on his site, [\[link to www.truthwinds.com\]](http://www.truthwinds.com) is this statement: Hey YAH, now go find that piece HE WROTE that you posted above and provide the LINK.

Persons

--Ascended Masters - those beings who have mastered their lessons in soul growth in 3D and higher dimensions, and have now come to help us in 3D to achieve our mission and to assist with the Ascension of our planet and her people.

the PJ's are not perfect, every where all the time. Our thugs detected the radio frequency and sometimes used it and sometimes dharma could discern the change and sometimes not. That is why you will sometimes find two different answers to the same story. This happened a lot, and Hatonn would send over a different frequency and it would get contaminated again, but over all the work is marvelous

Yes and then when it goes to the printer, gremlins can play some more games and change yes to no and other similar grammar stuff completely changing the meaning. And I am sure on occasion with the UB, that the board that was told they could correct the grammar for publication, perhaps fiddled a bit more there too! And Bellringer, who had the unpublished journals, deliberately changed some of those, particularly on topics like homosexuality, as he is homophobic. It shows. Anne sent me a bunch several times, and something was funny about some of it, so I asked..... well something was funny about it. on the unpublished ones there was incorrect new age material and anunnaki stuff and the like in some samples. I have guardians above my house in craft and I saved those to my computer at the time for them to pick up of observation.

Phoenixsource distributors initially carried those when Patrick put them up (and saying they were done by somebody else not Patrick too, which was dishonest), and then later took them back down and bashed Patrick. They also never admitted that the copies they put up on that website were copied from 4 winds, but it was awfully obvious they were. Lots of shit games are played.

Also, and I don't remember which ones, but I have most of the PJ's in print, except for a few that were no longer in stock. Now, in my print editions in some of them, which were later printings, I noticed some difference between the original that was on Bellringers, many of his are original printings, and the later printings. Some folks were making some changes after the fact for later printings. Printers can deliberately mis set type too. In one of the early ones, with Esu, I forget which one, but over two pages he describes what the sun could do and it's hilarious. Somebody blew that one big time. Perhaps the printer.

I have been sentenced to hell fire ever since my early childhood by vicious christians.

But again I was asked look at it, several times while I was also looking at other recommended books as to preparing me for my journey. Eventually when I got a charge card I finally bought the thing, and in the privacy of my home, I fell in love with the finest work of God I have seen on this planet. And I am still in love.

It is "channled" (sorry I almost got off the story line here), because a PERSON is being used to go THRU. The person is not the channel, the celestial is, and using the persons mind and body much like like energy passing thru an electric cord. And that is exactly how so many entities came thru one sleeping prophet over the 2 or so year period the UB material was given in answers to questions by the contact commission at that time.

Dolores cannons material is give the same way, except Dolores puts the person into deep hypnosis , rather than the sleeping prophet putting self into deep hypnosis and vacating for the channel to come thru. There are a number of books that have been written by this method and various personalities are still using this method to this day. There ARE reasons for that.

Now with the PJ's, I was directed to them too. I was told to just google them and that is how I found them at www.fourwinds10.com. The other site called PhoenixSourcedistributors did not have them at that time, they in fact copied them from 4 winds. Patrick Bellringer got copies of all of them in print, copies each and every page by method of copy machine, they were after all published books. Then these were scanned. I was told to find them in 2003 after Michael of Nebadon gave me the symbol and directions for AH. Which i was given at that time in deep meditation.

Now at that time, Patrick had them in a form that did NOT do well on my computer, the words bounced and were red and black and not very readable. I don't think I found the pdfs to download them, or if I did, they took a long time and were still not readable. I was asked to read PJ 2 and 3 first. Well, finally in June 2004, he put noticed of them on his front site, there was a new form they had been put into. Well, just like with the UB, I feel in love all over again.

Now the PJ's are not channeled. They are sent by a type of short wave signal and then Dharma translated the signal, into words, for which she had been prepped with a receiving crystal in her head. I will not say where or how that crystal worked, its not truly for public release at this time. This allowed huge clarity so she could type just as fast as she could type, there was now computers. This was at a time also shortly after the circuits to Urantia were reopened and a lot of material was coming in. Dharma simply took the dictation. She was a secretary.

Now like the issues with the UB I mentioned above, the PJ's are not perfect, every where all the time. Our thugs detected the radio frequency and sometimes used it and sometimes dharma could discern the change and sometimes not. That is why you will sometimes find two different answers to the same story. This happened a lot, and Hatonn would send over a different frequency and it would get contaminated again, but over all the work is marvelous and a person who CAN discern, as I can, I am an awfully old soul, by the way the trip to Paradise takes much longer than I think it was you who suggested such above. Average for a go getter is 1 million years, so I am pretty old. For slower ones like the thugs of earth, it can take billions.

Thugs are given as long as necessary to grow up. Which sometimes does seem an eternity.

Now, there is the telepath. This is direct mind to mind communications and few on earth do this, but there are many starseeds who do and are even unknown as their instructions are secret as to mission. I have always been telepathic. It is the normal way. Animals are very good at it naturally. They don't do "language" they do pictures back and forth.

As to the TEAching Mission, the so called channels, step aside and let others come thru them. This is conscious channeling. They have been labeled TR's so I tend to use that term for that method. These ones, who are REAL are always encircuited to do this. It is not yet natural on this plane. But it is the way to bring material thru to a group of people, and this is going to be heavily used AFTER STASIS.

During stasis, the world will be sectioned into 50 to 100 areas of administration. There are going to be MISSIONS. YOU might want to read my older material on my site about the Many Missions project. Now each AH sanctioned mission, will have a TR. Each mission will have an appropriate celestial supervisor who will provide guidance thru the TR to the mission team. I can also TR but I am not into that in terms of being before a group like the others. Dharma could also TR and did, and Hatonn and probably others gave thru as well as Hatonn's Higher self ATON. (Michael of Nebadon). These were tape recorded and while I don't any of them, I have a friend who does and I did listen to some when I was with her once.

There will be at least thousands of missions. All funded through the celestial monies on this planet already, which is not to be confused at this time with NESARA. There is great wealth secreted away on this planet, of old relics and high energy gold and other precious metals and jewels and crystals. These have been ON the planet since the days of Adam and Eve and if that mission had not been corrupted... well you know the rest. However, the corruption went far beyond Eve's sexual betrayal to Caligastia. That was not enough to abort that whole mission. There were reasons to NOT cover this in the UB because we do still have all these thugs on the planet facing their FINAL JUDGEMENT, its the end of the 2nd Grand cycle. I will get back to that piece when the mood is there again.

Now telepathy is used even when one communes with ones thought adjuster. You have read the person is usually 5 or 6 or even 7 d consciousness when this occurs more naturally. In the UB it mostly covers that by the story of the 7 circles. That is what those circles mean, the level of consciousness that has been obtained.

There is a great deal of fraud by the CIA and others in "new age." There is fraud in the teaching mission and I can also state here there has been covert CIA infiltration into the Urantia Foundation teams and also into those involved with the Phoenix Journal project. You must be aware of Daniel Raphael. I KNOW this person, or thought I did, he lives not far from me. We met many times. he was clean once. He is not now. He apparently wanted like others so bad to serve and he not enough money, so he fudged. The stories around the fudge are both sad and hilarious. But the whole www.monoranson.com is now corrupted, near as I can tell, because I am seeing a lot of shit coming forth. Mighty Messenger Charles IS a CIA creation and the name choice and position choice is a play on ME. Candace Mighty messenger, Charles Mighty messenger and I am in receipt of a work by Daniel which announces that Mighty Messenger Charles is now the chief advisor or something to that effect of the trivalent of Monjoronson, Michael of Nebadon and Machiventa. Another piece by somebody else states Machiventa is ousted and replaced by another commission et all.

This is why I do this, people this big time, when this shit happens and I am not angry to some of you for your exposure of your crap about ME, (ie YAH), I am greatly saddened at the corruption and success of the CIA and others into iniquity. WE have tried so hard with this planet. However, some of this is necessary as part of the 4d thing, in which people have to choose which side they are on and cannot play the fence. We are seeing this from the WAVE and other energies now, on GLP and all over. People are reporting this stuff not only here on GLP but lots of people I come into contact with are reporting such also.

Michael of Nebadon said he came not to bring peace. he came to set on against another, THAT IS THE PROCESS of 4d that will lead to 5d consciousness on this planet as the phoenix arises from the ashes of that mess. This is necessary for people to learn to think, and stop all the shitty following and you "Urantians" (isn't everyone on this planet a "urantian?") who are FOLLOWERS it is LIKEWISE. YOU MUST FIND YOUR MIINDS. Many of you too follow because the book sounds so good. AND IT DOES, as do the PJ's.

But there is no complete record YET on this planet and the thugs do their best to destroy the truth and infest God's work on this world. They are VERY GOOD AT what they do, real professionals in fact. ONCE the NORMAL GOOD MAN discovers how much more powerful he can be, than even the tried and true thugs, so will this planet change massively.

And on editing, the TEaching Mission was corrupted in part initially because the thugs placed agents trained where there were microphones placed in the meeting places, so the questions could be heard from the audience and the false "TR" had a little hearing device himself on his body, an electronic receiver for his part in it. And I am pretty sure Daniel R is making use of such now from something STUPID he said in an email to somebody I know. And he has a nice house now for his work and a secretary who is in on the deal.

And OBE, to receive form Source, as you call it, is the goal, in the UB this is called the thought adjuster. I prefer Father Fragment, I think it's more accurate but there was likely a reason for that word too. You are an old soul. YOU can travel cold space as you discover some time ago. You hear from Source thru your Higher Self, your real you. You are long "fused" with your Father Fragment. One day I we will cover more of the construction of the soul that we have so far.

For those of you who are UB readers, the morontial Soul is your astral form, in which your records as stored as your personal akashic record. WE have too many words for the same thing on this planet and during stasis we are going to unify the concepts into one language, english, and add a lot more words, because we don't have enough words. It becomes "morontial" in the new soul having it's first life when eternal life is chosen with the receiving of the thought adjuster.

Quoting: Nobody in Particular

Decision regarding the teaching mission, Candace you are like a dog that returns to her vomit. Enough, may god have mercy on you, because I don't.

A message of importance from the editorial staff of the Invisible Fellowship . . .

DURING THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS, an activity has surfaced in Urantia Book reading circles that is known as "The Teaching Mission". Participants claim to receive channeled messages from unseen "spiritual beings".

These channelers call themselves "Transmitter-Receiver" and they profess to represent a new, invisible planetary government. They insist that they are given special information and guidance. But the most serious assertion they put forth is that their material is an extension of the Fifth Epochal Revelation -- The Urantia Book. Thus they justify taking over Urantia Book study groups and "updating" The Urantia Book with their channeled "messages" from "celestial" personalities.

The proponents of "The Teaching Mission" and other channeling activities have been most aggressive in promoting themselves, and they have generally been allowed to pursue their agendas at will. In our opinion this is a critical situation that has too long gone unchallenged -- we believe channeling compromises the integrity and credibility of The Urantia Book before the world and affects the entire Urantia community. To avoid taking a stand against what we deem to be error is -- as Martin Luther King once said -- "to be an accomplice to it".

This special report was prepared to answer a long-standing need for a balanced, organized, and replete argument against channeling. Our love is not diminished for our brothers and sisters who choose to believe and support channeling. It is, rather, in the spirit of that love that we offer this information

We hope that all readers carefully consider what The Urantia Book teaches about channeling activities. We also urge you to take a hard look at what is happening to the Fifth Epochal Revelation.

A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE ON CHANNELING IN THE URANTIA MOVEMENT
by Larry Mullins

In my twenty-five years or so of reading The Urantia Book I have known of three powerful attempts to control and manipulate the movement and to exploit the Fifth Epochal Revelation.

Each of these has been associated with “channeling”, “special messages”, and/or “exclusive” information. Each attempt has involved “favored” individuals -- such as self-proclaimed “reserve corps” members -- people who were generally egoistic, strong-willed and charismatic. Very rarely did leaders publicly challenge these usurpers or question their authority. The agendas of these aggressive personalities were sometimes even championed and supported by other leaders in the movement. The cumulative result of this general passiveness and appeasement has been disastrous to the mission of disseminating The Urantia Book and its teachings.

The first two instances were closely related attempts to control from within. In one case, after the death of Dr. William Sadler in 1969, a small nucleus of individuals in the Foundation and Brotherhood held sway over the entire movement for years. Policies of non-advertising and harsh control were justified by unspecified, or partially disclosed “messages” and “mandates”. Following the death of one of the key members of the exclusive inner circle in 1982, a single individual sought control of the Revelation based upon his own “secret messages”. The final outcome was a “World War III” scare that resulted in years of chaos, disrupted lives, and a fragmented movement.

After the war-fear crisis passed, a cult-like atmosphere existed at the Foundation. The last surviving member of the original control-nucleus maintained a policy of closed and secretive repression, demanding more and more acquiescence from the General Council of the Brotherhood. The years of avoidance and accommodation proved fatal to reconciliation: The Brotherhood (now the Fellowship) and the Foundation severed relations completely -- and as a result Urantia Books have virtually disappeared from bookstores and are difficult to obtain.

The Urantia movement is now faced with a third attempt to control and exploit the Revelation. In this instance, it is not someone in the “inner circle” who is presuming unique authority, the threat is from the outside. Dozens of Urantia Book study groups have been taken over and supplanted by “channeling” sessions. Potential new readers are turned away by activities that are less than wholesome and appropriate. Some official representatives of the Fellowship foster channeling and are open advocates of the practice. A mass of material supporting channeling is being passed back and forth between readers. To paraphrase Shakespeare, many of us are being “won over with truthful trifles, to be betrayed in the deepest consequence”. Since the early days of the movement, the General Council of the Brotherhood has been reluctant to take official stands on tough issues, fearing to be perceived as a “doctrinaire” body. The new Fellowship has continued this policy. Readers who look to the 36 General Councilors for decisive leadership are advised to “make up their own minds”. But too often only one side of the “channeling” story is being presented. A fuller disclosure of what The Urantia Book teaches must be provided before informed decisions can be made. This booklet is designed to furnish this needed, more replete distillation of The Urantia Book’s philosophy about “celestial guidance”.

The Urantia Papers were not “channeled”

THE URANTIA PAPERS were materialized by means that have never been fully explained. Dr. William Sadler was very clear, however, that the manner in which the Papers were materialized in no way paralleled or was related to any form of marginal human consciousness. In other words, they were not channeled. Whatever the “Teaching Mission” and the various other channeling activities may be, they are not a continuation of the Fifth Epochal Revelation. Much of the channeling material is contrary to the broad philosophical fabric of The Urantia Book. The primary purpose of this publication is to establish that proposition by using quotes from The Urantia Book - - the Book speaks best for itself. Appendix One is provided to allow the reader to weigh the ideas of a secular team that investigates the use of channeling as a control tool by would-be gurus. In Appendix Two, you can read the perspective of Dr. Meredith J. Sprunger, an esteemed theologian who is the only living colleague and confidant of Dr. William Sadler. The final appendix was extracted from material that was edited and published by advocates of channeling. Though brief, these excerpts demonstrate that some of their own carefully prepared and showcased material should be repugnant to the common sense of any reader who is familiar with the exquisitely consistent and symmetrical philosophy of the Urantia Book.

The collection of Urantia Book quotes presented herewith was developed to support the premises and contentions on page eight of this special report. We have sought to be objective within the context of these premises. Many people may take exception to the conclusions we endeavor to support; but in doing so they are confronted with a formidable amount of Urantia Book philosophy that they must reconcile to their views; or simply ignore.

The most significant questions every devoted reader must confront is: Are channeling activities truly a continuation of the Fifth Epochal Revelation, or are they not? If they are not, should these activities -- even in the interest of being "brotherly" and avoiding confrontations -- continue to interfere with, and possibly confuse, those who desire to study the original teachings of The Urantia Book?

In the rich mythology surrounding the Urantia Papers, it has been written and stated that when the book was at last published in 1955, a final message was communicated to the original Forum -- and then the contact was severed and fell silent. This last message was said to be: "You are now on your own".

CLYDE BEDELL joined the original Forum in 1924, at the age of 26. In 1981, he wrote about the supposed "secret" information that the Foundation was then using for manipulative control of the readership.

"After being in the Sadler Forum and its successive or subsequent organizations since September of 1924 . . . I do not believe The Urantia Book will ever be superseded until some distant date from now, and then only by another Epochal Revelation, not by some anonymous spirits secretly passing little do's and don'ts to fallible human trustees. If the Revelators ever in the future cancel the 'you are now on your own' [message], it will not be to discredit the book and Jesus' instructions. Of that you may be certain".

I hasten to suggest a qualification to the alleged final message: "You are now on your own". As Meredith Sprunger points out in his commentaries in appendix two of this work, we have a direct line to the highest authority in the universe -- we have our Father Fragment within -- not to mention the Spirit of Truth, and the Holy Spirit. But we must make decisions with our human minds, and complete those decisions with appropriate actions.

This is a time for courageous human decisions-and a fresh measure of passionate commitment to the formidable mission at hand. This mission was valiantly set into motion nearly 2000 years ago, in an obscure province of the Roman Empire. Its completion has been touchingly entrusted to us, the ordinary mortals of the realm. This mission is eloquently redefined for the world in the pages of The Urantia Book. In my judgment, and in the judgment of the staff of The Invisible Fellowship Magazine, the time has come for believers in The Urantia Book to wholeheartedly be about the completion of that supreme and noble mission-the mission of Jesus of Nazareth, Christ Michael of Nebadon

The PREMISES and CONTENTIONS of this DOCUMENT

1. God has provided for our spiritual development through our moral decisions and no being in the universe is permitted to interfere or impinge upon that process.

2. "Of all human knowledge, that which is of greatest value is the religious life of Jesus and how he lived it."
3. Jesus, as a human on this planet, did not employ celestial personalities for "advice", he used only his Thought Adjuster, just as do other mortals of the realm. This was true up to his baptism, which is equivalent to the point at which a mortal would fuse.
4. The supreme, authentic "teaching mission" was set into motion by Jesus. The Creator Son was required to use "natural, ordinary and trying methods" to win the hearts of mortals, "as his earth children must subsequently follow".
5. The human being cannot discern "celestial messages" from the products of his or her own mental processes.
6. Contrary to the alleged channeling " , notably "Machiventa", who has been showcased by channelers as one of their higher quality "teachers", our great task in mortal life is to seek better attunement with our Thought Adjusters. ("Machiventa" claims the "teacher" will be even closer to the mortal than the Spirit (Father) Fragment!)
7. Channeling is likely a new form of "alter egoism", similar to that of primitive spiritist religions.
8. Midwayers, although never involved in spiritualism or mediumship, are always employed as guardians when authentic spiritual contacts are made with mortals. Channelers do not employ midwayers as part of their "communications" process.
9. The efforts of the "teaching mission" to bring about a premature world order under the control of "favored" mortals is not consistent with the gospel of the kingdom of heaven as taught by Jesus.

The Sovereignty and Responsibility of Human Will

[71] Having thus provided for the growth of the immortal soul and having liberated man's inner self from the fetters of absolute dependence on antecedent causation, the Father stands aside. Now, man having thus been liberated from the fetters of causation response, at least as pertains to eternal destiny, and provision having been made for the growth of the immortal self, the soul, it remains for man himself to will the creation or to inhibit the creation of this surviving and eternal self which is his for the choosing. No other being, force, creator, or agency in all the wide universe of universes can interfere to any degree with the absolute sovereignty of the mortal free will, as it operates within the realms of choice, regarding the eternal destiny of the personality of the choosing mortal. As pertains to eternal survival, God has decreed the sovereignty of the material and mortal will, and that decree is absolute.

Jesus used only his Thought Adjuster

[1398] This year Jesus made great progress in the organization of his mind. Gradually he had brought his divine and human natures together, and he accomplished all this organization of intellect by the force of his own decisions and with only the aid of his indwelling Monitor, just such a Monitor as all normal mortals on all postbestowal-Son worlds have within their minds. So far, nothing supernatural had happened in this young man's career except the visit of a messenger, dispatched by his elder brother Immanuel who once appeared to him during the night at Jerusalem.

[2088] Jesus brought to God, as a man of the realm, the greatest of all offerings: the consecration and dedication of his own will to the majestic service of doing the divine will. . . The secret of his unparalleled religious life was this consciousness of the presence of God; and he attained it by intelligent prayer and sincere worship -- unbroken communion with God -- and not by leadings, voices, visions, or extraordinary religious practices.

[1407] He obtained knowledge, gained experience, and combined these into wisdom, just as do other mortals of the realm. Until after his baptism he availed himself of no supernatural power. He employed no agency not a part of his human endowment as a son of Joseph and Mary.

[1521] Jesus chose to establish the kingdom of heaven in the hearts of mankind by natural, ordinary, difficult, and trying methods, just such procedures as his earth children must subsequently follow in their work of enlarging and extending that heavenly kingdom. For well did the Son of Man know that it would be "through much tribulation that many of the children of all ages would enter into the kingdom".

[1808] Between these two celestial visitations, one in his thirteenth year and the other at his baptism, there occurred nothing supernatural or superhuman in the life of this incarnated Creator Son. Notwithstanding this, the babe of Bethlehem, the lad, youth, and man of Nazareth, was in reality the incarnated Creator of a universe; but he never once used aught of this power, nor did he utilize the guidance of celestial personalities, aside from that of his guardian seraphim, in the living of his human life up to the day of his baptism by John. And we who thus testify know whereof we speak.

[229] When a bestowal Son has mastered the experience of living the mortal life, when he has achieved perfection of attunement with his indwelling Adjuster, thereupon he begins that part of his planetary mission designed to illuminate the minds and to inspire the souls of his brethren in the flesh.

[1493] Jesus spent the last three weeks of August and the first three weeks of September on Mount Hermon. During these weeks he finished the mortal task of achieving the circles of mind-understanding and personality-control. Throughout this period of communion with his heavenly Father the indwelling Adjuster also completed the assigned services. The mortal goal of this earth creature was there attained. Only the final phase of mind and Adjuster attunement remained to be consummated.

[2084] Christianity has indeed done a great service for this world, but what is now most needed is Jesus. The world needs to see Jesus living again on earth in the experience of spirit-born mortals who effectively reveal the Master to all men . . . And when Jesus becomes thus lifted up, he will draw all men to himself. Jesus' disciples should be more than conquerors, even overflowing sources of inspiration and enhanced living to all men. Religion is only an exalted humanism until it is made divine by the discovery of the reality of the presence of God in personal experience.

Additional Thought Adjuster quotes [also see pg. 32]

[Compare to "Macheventa"9/23/92: "You will have someone much closer to you than your spirit fragment" and: "attunement to your teacher".] See Appendix Three.

[1207] The Thought Adjuster is engaged in a constant effort so to spiritualize your mind as to evolve your morontia soul; but you yourself are mostly unconscious of this inner ministry. You are quite incapable of distinguishing the product of your own material intellect from that of the conjoint activities of your soul and the Adjuster.

[1206] I cannot but observe that so many of you spend so much time and thought on mere trifles of living, while you almost wholly overlook the more essential realities of everlasting import, those very accomplishments which are concerned with the development of a more harmonious working agreement between you and your Adjusters. The great goal of human existence is to attune to the divinity of the indwelling Adjuster; the great achievement of mortal life is the attainment of a true and understanding consecration to the eternal aims of the divine spirit who waits and works within your mind. [Solitary Messenger]

[1207] Trust all matters of mind beyond the dead level of consciousness to the custody of the Adjusters. You are so devoid of courageous decisions and consecrated co-operation that your indwelling Adjusters find it next to impossible to communicate directly with the human mind. Even when they do find it possible to flash a gleam of new truth to the evolving mortal soul, this spiritual revelation often so blinds the creature as to precipitate a convulsion of fanaticism or to initiate some other intellectual upheaval which results disastrously. Many a new religion and strange "ism" has arisen from the aborted, imperfect, misunderstood, and garbled communications of the Thought Adjusters.

[1208] These are problems which will have to be solved through individual discrimination and personal decision. But a human being would do better to err in rejecting an Adjuster's expression through believing it to be a purely human experience than to blunder into exalting a reaction of the mortal mind to the sphere of divine dignity.

[24] The existence of God is utterly beyond all possibility of demonstration except for the contact between the God-consciousness of the human mind and the God-presence of the Thought Adjuster that indwells the mortal intellect and is bestowed upon man as the free gift of the Universal Father.

[1111] Throughout all religious experience, from its earliest inception on the material level up to the time of the attainment of full spirit status, the Adjuster is the secret of the personal realization of the reality of the existence of the Supreme; and this same Adjuster also holds the secrets of your faith in the transcendental attainment of the Ultimate. The experiential personality of evolving man, united to the Adjuster essence of the existential God, constitutes the potential completion of supreme existence and is inherently the basis for the superfinite eventuation of transcendental personality.

[1119] The indwelling Thought Adjuster unfailingly arouses in man's soul a true and searching hunger for perfection together with a far-reaching curiosity which can be adequately satisfied only by communion with God, the divine source of that Adjuster. The hungry soul of man refuses to be satisfied with anything less than the personal realization of the living God.

[1217] Mind is the cosmic instrument on which the human will can play the discords of destruction, or upon which this same human will can bring forth the exquisite melodies of God identification and consequent eternal survival. The Adjuster bestowed upon man is, in the last analysis, impervious to evil and incapable of sin, but mortal mind can actually be twisted, distorted, and rendered evil and ugly by the sinful machinations of a perverse and self-seeking human will. Likewise can this mind be made noble, beautiful, true, and good -- actually great -- in accordance with the spirit-illuminated will of a God-knowing human being.

[1207] Certain abrupt presentations of thoughts, conclusions, and other pictures of mind are sometimes the direct or indirect work of the Adjuster; but far more often they are the sudden emergence into consciousness of ideas which have been grouping themselves together in the submerged mental level, natural and everyday occurrences of normal and ordinary psychic function inherent in the circuits of the evolving animal mind. (In contrast with these subconscious emanations, the revelations of the Adjuster appear through the realms of the superconscious.)

[1096] Actual spiritual status is the measure of Deity attainment, Adjuster attunement. The achievement of finality of spirituality is equivalent to the attainment of the maximum of reality, the maximum of Godlikeness. Eternal life is the endless quest for infinite values.

[1099] In contrast with conversion-seeking, the better approach to the morontia zones of possible contact with the Thought Adjuster would be through living faith and sincere worship, wholehearted and unselfish prayer. Altogether too much of the uprush of the memories of the unconscious levels of the human mind has been mistaken for divine revelations and spirit leadings.

Jesus and personal responsibility

[1570] One by one they embraced Jesus, but no man said aught. A great silence pervaded the place while a host of celestial beings looked down upon this solemn and sacred scene -- the Creator of a universe placing the affairs of the divine brotherhood of man under the direction of human minds.

[1731] "I have called you out of the darkness of authority and the lethargy of tradition into the transcendent light of the realization of the possibility of making for yourselves the greatest discovery possible for the human soul to make -- the supernal experience of finding God for yourself, in yourself, and of yourself, and of doing all this as a fact in your own personal experience". [Jesus]

[1635] "How is it, then, that you would have me turn aside from my work for the gratification of the curious and for the satisfaction of those who seek for signs and wonders? . . . When men are attracted to us because of extraordinary manifestations, many of them come seeking not for truth and salvation but rather in quest of healing for their physical ailments and to secure deliverance from their material difficulties". [Jesus]

[1729] And for a long time there will live on earth those timid, fearful, and hesitant individuals who will prefer thus to secure their religious consolations, even though, in so casting their lot with the religions of authority, they compromise the sovereignty of personality, debase the dignity of self-respect, and utterly surrender the right to participate in that most thrilling and inspiring of all possible human experiences: the personal quest for truth, the exhilaration of facing the perils of intellectual discovery, the determination to explore the realities of personal religious experience, the supreme satisfaction of experiencing the personal triumph of the actual realization of the victory of spiritual faith over intellectual doubt as it is honestly won in the supreme adventure of all human existence -- man seeking God, for himself and as himself, and finding him.

[1705] In less than one month's time the enthusiastic and open followers of Jesus, who numbered more than fifty thousand in Galilee alone, shrank to less than five hundred. Jesus desired to give his apostles such an experience with the fickleness of popular acclaim that they would not be tempted to rely on such manifestations of transient religious hysteria after he should leave them alone in the work of the kingdom, but he was only partially successful in this effort.

Jesus and the "Way"

[1815] Said Jesus: "I have told you about myself and my Father many times, but you will not believe me . . . many of you believe not because you belong not to my fold. The teacher of truth attracts only those who hunger for the truth and who thirst for righteousness. My sheep hear my voice and I know them and they follow me".

[2089] Jesus most touchingly challenged his followers, not only to believe what he believed, but also to believe as he believed. This is the full significance of his one supreme requirement, "Follow me".

[1818] "The true shepherd gathers his flock into the fold for the night in times of danger. And when the morning has come, he enters into the fold by the door, and when he calls, the sheep know his voice. Every shepherd who gains entrance to the sheepfold by any other means than by the door is a thief and a robber. The true shepherd enters the fold after the porter has opened the door for him, and his sheep, knowing his voice, come out at his word; and when they that are his are thus brought forth, the true shepherd goes before them; he leads the way and the sheep follow him. His sheep follow him because they know his voice; they will not follow a stranger. They will flee from the stranger because they know not his voice. This multitude which is gathered about us here are like sheep without a shepherd, but when we speak to them, they know the shepherd's voice, and they follow after us; at least, those who hunger for truth and thirst for righteousness do. Some of you are not of my fold; you know not my voice, and you do not follow me. And because you are false shepherds, the sheep know not your voice and will not follow you". [Jesus]

[1819] "And now, lest some of you too easily comprehend this parable, I will declare that I am both the door to the Father's sheepfold and at the same time the true shepherd of my Father's flocks. Every shepherd who seeks to enter the fold without me shall fail, and the sheep will not hear his voice. I, with those who minister with me, am the door". [Jesus]

[1829] "I am the door, I am the new and living way, and whosoever wills may enter to embark upon the endless truth-search for eternal life". [Jesus]

[1808] "I have shown you the way; go forth to do your duty and be not weary in well doing. To you and to all who shall follow in your steps down through the ages, let me say: I always stand near, and my invitation-call is, and ever shall be, Come to me all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am true and loyal, and you shall find spiritual rest for your souls". [Jesus]

And they found the Master's words to be true when they put his promises to the test. And since that day countless thousands also have tested and proved the surety of these same promises.

The alter-ego

[996] Children, when first learning to make use of language, are prone to think out loud, to express their thoughts in words, even if no one is present to hear them. With the dawn of creative imagination they evince a tendency to converse with imaginary companions. In this way a budding ego seeks to hold communion with a fictitious alter ego. By this technique the child early learns to convert his monologue conversations into pseudo dialogues in which this alter ego makes replies to his verbal thinking and wish expression. Very much of an adult's thinking is mentally carried on in conversational form.

[996] The early and primitive form of prayer was much like the semimagical recitations of the present-day Toda tribe, prayers that were not addressed to anyone in particular. But such techniques of praying tend to evolve into the dialogue type of communication by the emergence of the idea of an alter ego. In time the alter-ego concept is exalted to a superior status of divine dignity, and prayer as an agency of religion has appeared. Through many phases and during long ages this primitive type of praying is destined to evolve before attaining the level of intelligent and truly ethical prayer.

[997] As it is conceived by successive generations of praying mortals, the alter ego evolves up through ghosts, fetishes, and spirits to polytheistic gods, and eventually to the One God, a divine being embodying the highest ideals and the loftiest aspirations of the praying ego.

[961] The early monospiritism ghost fear was gradually evolving into a dual spiritism, a new concept of the invisible control of earthy affairs.

[962] And now the simple ghost cult is followed by the practices of the more advanced and relatively complex spirit-ghost cult, the service and worship of the higher spirits as they evolved in man's primitive imagination. Religious ceremonial must keep pace with spirit evolution and progress. The expanded cult was but the art of self-maintenance practiced in relation to belief in supernatural beings, self-adjustment to spirit environment.

Midwayer activities

[Note: The "Teaching Mission transmissions" by-pass these guardians of the spirit realm; "transmissions" are not done in liaison with midwayers. Yet the job of midwayers is to patrol the spiritual realm of the planet, and they are always used as liaison in spirit-contacts with mortal beings.]

[864] Midwayers are the guardians, the sentinels, of the worlds of space. They perform the important duties of observers for all the numerous phenomena and types of communication which are of import to the supernatural beings of the realm. They patrol the invisible spirit realm of the planet.

[865] Contact personalities. In the contacts made with the mortal beings of the material worlds, such as with the subject through whom these communications were transmitted, the midway creatures are always employed. They are an essential factor in such liaisons of the spiritual and the material levels.

[865] Their chief work today is that of unperceived personal-liaison associates of those men and women who constitute the planetary reserve corps of destiny. It was the work of this secondary group, ably seconded by certain of the primary corps, that brought about the co-ordination of personalities and circumstances on Urantia which finally induced the planetary celestial supervisors to initiate those petitions that resulted in the granting of the mandates making possible the series of revelations of which this presentation is a part. But it should be made clear that the midway creatures are not involved in the sordid performances taking place under the general designation of "spiritualism". The midwayers at present on Urantia, all of whom are of honorable standing, are not connected with the phenomena of so-called "mediumship"; and they do not, ordinarily, permit humans to witness their sometimes necessary physical activities or other contacts with the material world, as they are perceived by human senses.

The trance-like state

[1099] Under no circumstances should the trancelike state of visionary consciousness be cultivated as a religious experience.

[1099-1100] The great danger in all these psychic speculations is that visions and other so-called mystic experiences, along with extraordinary dreams, may be regarded as divine communications to the human mind. In times past, divine beings have revealed themselves to certain God-knowing persons, not because of their mystic trances or morbid visions, but in spite of all these phenomena.

[1100] The characteristics of the mystical state are diffusion of consciousness with vivid islands of focal attention operating on a comparatively passive intellect. All of this gravitates consciousness toward the subconscious rather than in the direction of the zone of spiritual contact, the superconscious. Many mystics have carried their mental dissociation to the level of abnormal mental manifestations.

[1100] However favorable may have been the conditions for mystic phenomena, it should be clearly understood that Jesus of Nazareth never resorted to such methods for communion with the Paradise Father. Jesus had no subconscious delusions or superconscious illusions.

Reincarnation

[Reincarnation is taught by the Sedona group of channelers, and creeps into the “transmissions” of the “Teaching Mission” channelers, notably Solona [1/13/93]. Also see page 24 of this document, excerpts from The Guru Papers. Reincarnation is repudiated in the teachings of The Urantia Book.]

[528] When, with the passing of time, the physical bodies of these unique creatures deteriorate from usage and age, their creators, in collaboration with Life Carriers, fabricate new bodies in which the old spornagia establish their residences. Spornagia are the only creatures in all the universe of Nebadon who experience this or any other sort of reincarnation. [Note: Spornagia are an advanced kind of animal without surviving souls. We encounter spornagia later in our universe careers.]

[1029] And of all the contaminating beliefs which could have been fastened upon what may have been an emerging monotheism, none was so stultifying as this belief in transmigration -- the doctrine of reincarnation of souls . . . This philosophically debilitating teaching was soon followed by the invention of the eternal escape from self by the submergence in the universal rest and peace of absolute union with Brahman . . . Mortal desire and human ambition were effectively ravished and virtually destroyed.

[1646] Jesus further explained to his apostles that the spirits of departed human beings do not come back to the world of their origin to communicate with their living fellows. Only after the passing of a dispensational age would it be possible for the advancing spirit of mortal man to return to earth and then only in exceptional cases as part of the spiritual administration of the planet.

The gospel of the kingdom

(NOTE: This formal discourse on the kingdom of heaven was presented by the Master near the end of his life in the flesh).

[1863] The Master on this occasion placed emphasis on the following five points as representing the cardinal features of the gospel of the kingdom:

1. The pre-eminence of the individual.
2. The will as the determining factor in man's experience.
3. Spiritual Fellowship with God the Father.
4. The supreme satisfactions of the loving service of man.
5. The transcendency of the spiritual over the material in human personality.

This world has never seriously or sincerely or honestly tried out these dynamic ideas and divine ideals of Jesus' doctrine of the kingdom of heaven. But you should not become discouraged by the apparently slow progress of the kingdom idea on Urantia . . . Neither should you make the fatal mistake, in looking for the age of manifestation of the kingdom, of failing to effect its establishment within your own souls.

SOME COMMENTS BY CONTROL-PSYCHOLOGY EXPERTS

(Control psychologists study the phenomena of cults and fanatic group behavior)

The excerpt on the following several pages is taken from The GURU PAPERS: Masks of Authoritarian Power, by Dr. Diana Alstad and Joel Kramer, pp 121-125, North Atlantic Books, Berkeley, CA, 1993.

NOTE: Dr. Alstad received her doctorate from Yale University in 1971. She taught in the humanities and initiated and taught the first Women's Studies course at Yale and Duke. Joel Kramer did post-graduate work in psychology and philosophy and was a resident teacher at Esalen Institute (1968-70). The author of The Passionate Mind, he is also an internationally acknowledged adept of physical and mental yoga. Dr. Alstad and Kramer have written and led seminars together since 1974.

On Channeling Disembodied Authorities

Channels, channeled writings, and the spirit entities that supposedly speak through them are part of a trend that includes giving credence to different kinds of otherworldly, non-material, or other-dimensional, super-human intelligences. These presumed entities all function in a similar way in that they make themselves manifest by talking to or through someone they choose, who then becomes their channel. Why the entity chooses a particular person remains mysterious, as is the process of channeling itself. Becoming a channel is also a new frontier of esoteric activity. Anyone who hears a voice inside that is not consciously willed can assume something external is doing the talking and thereby take on the identity of channel.

Turning to disembodied experts is not a surprising progression. In recent years, the godlike stature of many gurus evaporated in a mire of corruption, deceit, and abuse of power. In contrast, incorporeal entities seem free of corruption, as corruption makes little sense without a body to profit from its results. Also, these spirit authorities do not take their followers over in the total way that gurus do by demanding their prime emotional allegiance. This makes involvement with the teachings safer.

The assumption that the spirit and channel are separate entities means incongruities between the channel's behavior and the channeled words are not seen as significant or relevant. A channeled message can never be questioned or challenged because of the impurity of the messenger. "Spirits" are assumed to be pure, or at least the purveyors of pure truth, whereas their vessels for this truth are "only human" and do not need to claim or manifest infallibility or purity. Thus being a channel for otherworldly wisdom is less dangerous and confining than being its source, as with gurus. The channel can get drunk even if the "spirit" disapproves, while a guru would at least have to hide or justify the discrepancy between words and actions. The channel is not necessarily even supposed to be the entity's best student or exemplar, unlike those in the guru's inner circle.

Of course, many are exploring these hermetic realms out of an understandable curiosity. Some approach channeling as potentially useful information that emanates from the channel's unconscious, involving possibly some form of extra-sensory perception, or a particular kind of sensitivity or gift of insight. They are more concerned with how astute the information is than with the nature of its source, utilizing only what makes sense to them. In contrast, regarding a channel as merely a passive vehicle enabling a superior, otherworldly intelligence to expound makes it difficult not to be swayed by the channel's input.

Assumptions about Channeling

There is no way ultimately to prove to everyone's satisfaction where a given voice comes from. So, the most revealing and also resolvable questions on channeling involve what the voice is actually saying; the implications of what is said; and whether the voice is assumed to have a direct line to the truth, making it unchallengeable and therefore authoritarian. What mainly interests us are why people consult channels, and the assumptions made about the presumed entities and their channeled messages. Some who call themselves channels may be merely milking the gullible; but we assume that many who channel believe in what they are doing. It is only the latter who interest us. Those who believe an external intelligence is the source of the voice or writings make at least some of the following assumptions:

1. Being disembodied makes the entity a pure (or purer) voice of cosmic wisdom and spirituality.
2. The entity not only knows more, but can access information otherwise inaccessible, or at least exceedingly difficult to get on one's own.
3. The entity tells the truth.
4. People's well-being is the entity's basic interest.
5. The entity knows what's best for a given human or humans in general.
6. These entities would not be motivated by power or wrongly manipulate those who come to them. In short, they have no self-interest.
7. One is better off getting the information than not.

8. The fact that most channels put forth a similar message and share a similar worldview is sufficient proof that what they say must be for the most part true.

The thread running through these assumptions is that disembodied entities are reliable, trustworthy, benevolent authorities with a deeper understanding of the nature of things. Here channeling, like gurus, creates a context of privileged knowledge that essentially cannot be challenged.

Though therapists are also assumed to know more, good therapists are knowledgeable and careful around transference issues, meaning they are alert to the dangers of becoming an unconscious parental authority for their clients. They also know that even if they see something about a client they're fairly sure of, clients are far better off finding it out for themselves than being told. Channeled "spirits" (or the channels themselves) are also subject to transference, as are gurus. Imputing a different and higher order of existence to be the source of information makes such projections inevitable. (See "Gurus, Psychotherapy, and the Unconscious" for more on transference.)

Should one give disembodied entities any credence at all, the drama and excitement of a supposed spirit entering a mortal to reveal deep, hidden truths evokes a seductive, magical aura of seemingly ultimate cosmic portent. Wanting to believe that spirits have a direct line to the truth ties into a deep yearning for something truly pure one can trust. When values of purity have been implanted, it becomes difficult to trust oneself as one is never pure enough. So looking for someone or something more pure fits neatly into people's deepest "pure-itanical" conditioning, which instills self-mistrust. (See "Who Is in Control? The Authoritarian Roots of Addiction" on the nature of this conditioning.)

Hearing an inner voice or voices that seem to be coming from outside oneself is neither new nor historically unusual. When the voice urged doing something considered bad or hurtful, it was attributed to possession by evil spirits or the devil; when it voiced values of purity and selflessness, the spirit was assumed to be a messenger of the sacred. Attributing purity to another realm and to the information that supposedly comes from it is part of the age-old split between the sacred and secular created by renunciate religions. (See "The Power of Abstraction: The Sacred Word and the Evolution of Morality" on the origin and nature of this split.)

Channeling is an ancient phenomenon necessary for any revealed religion whose unchallengeable dictates have to come from God. God's wishes can only be known in three ways: either God has to speak through a person or assume a human form, or a person has to become godlike (the East's enlightenment paradigm). Thus many writings that are the foundation of traditional renunciate religions, such as the Koran and much of the Old Testament, were considered to be channeled from God by prophets and holy men. They contain the rules for staying in God's good graces. Most sacred texts from all religions are considered to be channeled (divinely revealed).

Eastern religious worldviews are more generous than Western ones in bestowing infallibility through mastery. It is then not surprising that most modern channels espouse a worldview containing elements of Eastern mysticism, usually including the Oneness perspective, with karma/rebirth presented as a given. Not insignificantly, the alignment with Eastern tradition is used as validation. There are other enticing messages: "If you only knew enough, you would see you are perfect". All limits are in the mind and can be transcended". These temporarily empowering beliefs are very seductive. What is channeled largely accentuates the positive: beauty, transcending fear, loving yourself, and intimations of immortality within an unlimited universe of plenty. Many channels, either directly or indirectly, put forth the appealing notion that "You create your own reality". What this means, or is taken to mean, is that if you do it right you can create anything; conversely, everything negative that occurs you have really chosen in order to learn a needed lesson. To make this belief work, a theory of karma/rebirth is necessary, for without past lives and karma, it would be hard to explain why one “chose” the particular painful lessons one needed to learn, and why one needed to learn them. (“Do You Create Your Own Reality?” describes this New Age adaptation of karma.)

APPENDIX TWO

SOME COMMENTS BY DR. MEREDITH J. SPRUNGER

Dr. Meredith J. Sprunger is a minister in the Church of Christ and a college professor, now retired from pastoral and teaching responsibilities. For many years Dr. Sprunger was active as a counselor and psychological consultant, holding a Private Practice Certificate in Psychology in the state of Indiana. He has served congregations in the Midwest, and taught at Elmhurst College and the Indiana Institute of Technology, functioning as head of the Department of Psychology, Chairman of the Division of Liberal Arts, and as President.

In the Urantia movement Dr. Sprunger has served as a Field Representative, Chairman of the Education and Fraternal Relations Committee, and as President of the Urantia Brotherhood.

He is founder and Director of the Christian Fellowship for Readers of The Urantia Book, a trustee in the Jesusonian Foundation, and the editor of The Spiritual Fellowship Journal.

CHANNELING and the URANTIA MOVEMENT Meredith J. Sprunger (Published 3/28/92)

Psychic or paranormal psychological phenomena variously referred to as extrasensory perception, channeling, spiritualism, mediumship, and activities of marginal consciousness have been rather common throughout human history. Many years ago I made a study of these paranormal communications and found they varied in quality as widely as the capabilities of the human mind. Some of the psychic communications studied present verifiable factual knowledge for which scientists find no reasonable empirical explanation. The great bulk of this material, however, is demonstrably inaccurate and unreliable.

Since the publication of The Urantia Book, there have been many claims by book readers of “special” channeling information or guidance. Some even claim The Urantia Book came through a channeling process, although the authors of the book deny the spiritual authenticity of channeling-mediumship psychic phenomena (pp. 685, 1640). Dr. William S. Sadler, leader of the group receiving the Urantia Papers, after listing every conceivable form of psychic phenomena (marginal consciousness), unequivocally declared: “The technique of the reception of The Urantia Book in English in no way parallels or impinges upon any of the phenomena of the marginal consciousness”.

Basic Error in Evaluation

The basic error in evaluating knowledge -- especially psychic communication and revelation -- is to look for verification in its source, author, claim or “authority”. There is a natural human desire for superior, unearned knowledge; we yearn for surety, a “hot line” to higher guidance. This is the source of fundamentalism, literalist, dogmatic thinking. Claim or authority, however, is never a criterion of truth. The only road to truth is through earned, evolutionary experience. We should always evaluate information by its content, not its claim or supposed source. In our earned experience we have the highest resources to guide and verify our judgment: the Spirit of God (Thought Adjuster), the Spirit of Truth, and the Holy Spirit. Our judgments must also always be tested by personal experience, the experience of others, and time.

When measured by these earned, experiential standards over time, the value of channeled communication does not rate very high. We should not, however, allow fear or prejudice to prevent us from honestly examining the content of information received through channeling. We should be open to carefully evaluating all types of knowledge.

A Specific Case

Recently I examined recordings of "The Teachings of Ham" channeled to the Salt Lake Study Group. I found the quality generally good. They are of the quality I would expect from a creative, intelligent student of The Urantia Book. While, in my judgment, they are not in the same league with The Urantia Book, they are basically constructive and insightful.

There are a number of limitations to the above generalizations. I find no empirical-experiential evidence for the claim that the Lucifer Rebellion has been adjudicated and that the system circuits are being opened. I question the truth of the claim of giving people their "spiritual" names. The authors of The Urantia Book tell us that we are given a new name only after fusion with our Thought Adjuster (p. 538). I further question the wisdom of this practice. Why is Rebecca more spiritual than Jan, Joshua more spiritual than Thern, or Martha more spiritual than Kathy? This is the kind of technique used for controlling people through "special" or "secret" knowledge. Many cults use such practices.

Ham discourages a member of the study group from taking an eight week summer course because he will miss these channeling sessions. Even the higher ranking authors of The Urantia Book do not use this style of manipulative control. Why would the Vicegerent Planetary Prince single out the Salt Lake Study Group for special attention as they were told? And through this special attention Ham tells them "You are . . . under . . . my . . . direction". Group leadership and direction are common practices, but I see in this kind of atmosphere the danger of acquiescing to uncritical manipulation.

Ham tells the group the spiritual center of the planet is Manitoba, Canada. This differs from the Chicago contact information designating it as at the Grizzly Giant in the Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias in Yosemite National Park. When Ham is asked about Norsen, he identifies him as a teacher, which is markedly different that the Chicago contact information telling that Norsen is the new "take charge" planetary supervisor.

One wonders why people feel a need for channeling guidance, which, historically, does not have a good track record, when they have direct personal contact with much higher sources of truth: their Thought Adjuster, the Spirit of Truth, and the Holy Spirit? It seems to me that the study of The Urantia Book would be superior to preoccupation with this quality of channeling information. I further see a danger in the possibility of giving the channeler undue respect as an authority figure which might by-pass higher spiritual guidance. When this happens, cults are formed with susceptibility to manipulative control.

The Bottom Line

The content of Ham's teachings is basically constructive and is no doubt helpful to some people. There are also those who have not summoned the courage and confidence to initiate outreach work who will do so when encouraged by channeling messages. At best, such channeling activity can be a supplement to Urantia Book study, guidance, and individual initiative; at worst it could be a substitute for it. We should always critically evaluate the quality of any kind of guidance.

FURTHER COMMENTS on CHANNELING (PUBLISHED 9/6/93)

During the last several months I have received a number of papers promoting or explaining channeling and the “teaching mission”. Some of them are “off the wall” and ludicrous, containing veiled threats to join in with them or face rejection of salvation, while others are well written and on the surface appear to say all of the right things. All of them attempt to ride the coat tails of The Urantia Book

It might be helpful to some who are still perplexed about this phenomena to add a few summary statements to my paper “Channeling and the Urantia Movement” (3/28/92) for consideration.

1. Psychic, esoteric, or paranormal psychological phenomena is rather common throughout human history. In the field of religion, such things as “speaking in tongues” (glossolalia), seeing visions, getting “special” or “higher” instructions through spiritualistic or psychic channels tends to occur in periods where people are stimulated spiritually without having concrete social-organizational channels to express these motivations in service or outreach activities. Historically, these psychic activities have not had a very good track record.

2. Currently there is an attempt to explain and justify this phenomena by claiming that the Lucifer Rebellion has been adjudicated and the system circuits are opened. To give the “teaching mission” further prestige, they claim these instructions are a continuation of the Fifth Epochal Revelation.

Both of these claims, in my judgment, are without foundation. My guess is that the adjudication of the Lucifer Rebellion will be communicated to our planet in a more significant way than channeling messages! Claiming that these channeling messages -- or even our own autorevelation -- is a continuation of the Fifth Epochal Revelation is to toy with “delusions of grandeur”. This is different than God’s historic way of bringing epochal revelation to our world. Epochal revelation has always come in specific, concrete, objective form -- in persons or a book -- not in subjective messages of various quality from numerous “teachers”. The content of these messages, in my judgment, is not in the same league with the Urantia Book but what I might expect from an intelligent student of the book. Some of these messages are not even up to this quality.

3. The best apologetics for the “teaching mission” do say things that, in the main, are harmonious with the wisdom of The Urantia Book but neglect a key spiritual insight. Preoccupation with “intermediaries” or dependence on their direction tends to sidetrack the basic purpose of spiritual growth: God-consciousness, learning to grapple with tough problems through our own decisions and experience, and outgoing service. We have the greatest teachers available to human beings - - Thought Adjusters, the Spirit of Truth, and the Holy Spirit. We have ample opportunity to learn through personal decisions and experience, and we have service potentials to fully occupy our lives.

Although it is unintended, I can think of no more subtle way to disrupt unity in the Urantia movement and divert attention away from a dynamic outreach program to bring the Fifth Epochal Revelation to our world than the preoccupation with channeling and other psychic activities.

4. I know that many people have been helped by these channeling “teachers”. Some of them are close friends. All of us probably have conscious or latent desire for a ‘higher’ spiritual mentor. As material beings we appreciate “tangible” personal relationships. So I understand the attraction of “special teachers” and share these observations, not to denigrate those who may disagree with them, but to clarify differences in perception, and with the hope that in spite of differences, we may unite in bringing the Fifth Epochal Revelation to our world.

From a letter to Larry Mullins in answer to inquiries about channeling and drug use, 11/11/93:

“Historically, there is a connection between psychoactive drugs and assumed ‘divine messages’. Down through the ages various groups and individuals have used consciousness altering drugs as a means to initiate what participants regarded as ‘spiritual’ experiences. Often these substances were viewed as ‘sacraments’.

“It is surprising and disturbing to see how intelligent contemporary people in the face of all this historic evidence of deception can be deluded by the same psychoactive drug experiences. The authors of The Urantia Book point out the danger of such artificially induced, mind-distorting experiences. We are led Godward by our highest thoughts, not by our emotions, psychoactive drugs, or mystic states. But one can be sure there will always be those who will repeat the mistakes of our ancestors!”

APPENDIX THREE Excerpts from “Channeled” Material

These were taken from showcased material that was prepared for publication. Those who prepared and edited these “teachings” either personally lacked the knowledge that they contradicted The Urantia Book, did not care, or claimed The Urantia Book has been altered.

“MACHIVENTA” Material “channeled”. 9/23/92 This material was widely disseminated to demonstrate the high “quality” of this “transmitter receiver’s” teachings.. The document is titled “WELMEK”.

“MACHIVENTA”: . . . “Haven’t you all experienced times when you’re searching for words and cannot find them? You will have someone who is much closer to you than your spirit fragment who will be able to serve and help you in this way”. (pg. 7)

NOTE: SEE PAGE 1190 of The Urantia Book: “Apart from possible co-ordination with other Deity fragments [Thought Adjusters] the Adjusters are quite alone in their sphere of activity in the mortal mind . . . the Father has certainly reserved for himself the right to be present In the minds and souls of his evolving creatures to the end that he may draw all creature creation to himself ...” and [1177] “The Adjuster is man’s infallible cosmic compass, always and unerringly pointing the soul Godward.”

“MACHIVENTA”: “Stand up for yourself when the time is right as our Master did in the temple when he destroyed the money-changers and the animal sellers. This is fine”. (pg. 13)

NOTE: SEE PAGE 1891 of The Urantia Book. Of course, the Master did not “destroy”. anyone. Allowing for rhetorical excess, the purpose of the cleansing of the temple was not to stand up. for himself. Aside from this specific incident, the Urantia Book passage goes on to establish a broad principle. The principle of the temple cleansing applies to groups, not to individual relationships. (The statement by “Machiventa”. was in reply to someone who was asking about a personal relationship problem.) In the spirit of the book, those who, in the name of being fair and open-minded, allow their study groups to be dominated by a few individuals with personal agendas should read the text on page 1891 with care:

[1891] The cleansing of the temple discloses the Master’s attitude toward commercializing the practices of religion as well as his detestation of all forms of unfairness and profiteering at the expense of the poor and unlearned. This episode also demonstrates that Jesus did not look with approval upon the refusal to employ force to protect the majority of any given human group against the unfair and enslaving practices of unjust minorities who may be able to entrench themselves behind political, financial or ecclesiastical power. Shrewd, wicked, and designing men are not to be permitted to organize themselves for the exploitation and oppression of those who, because of their idealism, are not disposed to resort to force for self-protection or for the furtherance of their laudable life projects.

SLAGLE: "Welcome to Change"

From a large publication promoting various "channeled" material, this segment dated 2/25/92

SLAGLE: I asked how to better discern my Adjuster's guidance'.

"CELESTIAL TEACHER:" "That is the quest of the human: how to discern the human mind from the divine mind. This is your great challenge as it is of every other mortal on this planet". (pg. 2)

NOTE. SEE PAGE 1207 of The Urantia Book: "You are quite incapable of distinguishing the product of your own material intellect from that of the conjoint activities of your soul and adjuster . . . trust all matters of the mind beyond the dead level of consciousness to the custody of the Thought Adjusters". [1208] ~ A human being would be better to err in rejecting the Adjuster's expression through believing it to be purely a human experience than to blunder into exalting a reaction of the mortal mind to the sphere of divine dignity".

"PALADIN" "Channeled" 1/30/91

This is extracted from a large booklet produced in Sedona: The Salvington Circuit, Volume 1, No 1, May, 1993. This group declares The Urantia Book to be the first one tenth of the Fifth Epochal Revelation and their own material to be forming the remainder!

"The spiritual deficiencies of twentieth century Urantia are such that these rebellious starseed have remained on the seventh, sixth, fifth and fourth psychic circles for countless centuries without advancing to a higher circle". (Pg. 10)

NOTE: Putting aside the question of mortal reincarnation, which The Urantia Book refutes, one must wonder how Urantia's twentieth century deficiencies have caused problems for countless centuries. Paladin, one of the centerpiece "celestial personalities" of the Sedona collection of "teachers", manages the difficult task of contradicting himself within the same sentence.

The Salvington Circuit denigrates the integrity of The Urantia Book by insisting that Dr. Sadler altered the text to exclude reincarnation and astrology. [Page 20]: "William Sadler Sr. was vehemently against the idea of reincarnation . . . He was also vehemently against astrology . . .".. Paladin states that when information in the papers declared these beliefs to be true: "He then began a systematic degradation of these papers.".. One of the articles in The Salvington Circuit is titled: Ascension Astrology, and was a "channeled" work of Paladin.

Others who have had pet beliefs, such as the dead returning to earth to communicate with humans, have also insisted that Sadler must have altered the original Urantia Papers, since the Papers refute their own ideas. Clyde Bedell, who was in the Forum from 1924 until it was disbanded with the publication of The Urantia Book, told me that Dr. Sadler held his responsibility as to the integrity of the Papers as a sacred trust. Alteration would have required the collusion of at least five Individuals, each of whom was sworn to protect the text inviolate.

Channelers pick and choose material from The Urantia Book at will; they use the Revelation when it suits them and claim it was "altered". or is "out of date" if it does not. Other beliefs are possible, of course. But should they not stand upon their own integrity and quality, and not upon the shoulders of the Fifth Epochal Revelation?

Selected quotes from the Thought Adjuster Papers

[1176]: Although the Universal Father is personally resident on Paradise, at the very center of the universes, he is also present on the worlds of space in the minds of his countless children of time, for he indwells them as Mystery Monitors...

[1177]: The Adjuster is man's infallible cosmic compass, always and unerringly pointing the soul Godward.

[1187]: There are no intermediaries or other intervening authorities or powers functioning between the divine Adjusters and their human subjects; God and man are directly related.

[1190]: Apart from possible co-ordination with other Deity fragments the Adjusters are quite alone in their sphere of activity in the mortal mind . . . the Father has certainly reserved to himself the unchallengeable right to be present in the minds and souls of his evolving creatures to the end that he may so act as to draw all creature creation to himself, coordinately with the spiritual gravity of the Paradise Sons. Said your Paradise Bestowal Son when yet on Urantia: "I, if I am lifted up, will draw all men."

[1206] The great goal of human existence is to attune to the divinity of the indwelling Adjuster; the great achievement of mortal life is the attainment of a true understanding consecration to the eternal aims of the divine spirit who waits and works within your mind.

[1209]: It is to the mind of perfect poise, housed in a body of clean habits, stabilized neural energies, and balanced chemical function-when the physical, mental, and spiritual powers are in triune harmony of development-that a maximum of light and truth can be imparted with a minimum of temporal danger or risk to the welfare of such a [mortal] being. By such a balanced growth does man ascend the circles of planetary progression one by one, from the seventh to the first.

Thanks Hurchel for that, it WAS ON their website at one point, or I read this someplace else, and I have been looking for it. You see, it disappeared from my old desktop. Maybe I did not have all of this, I don't remember, but I had some of it. I copied a lot of files that are no longer available now. I will make new copy.

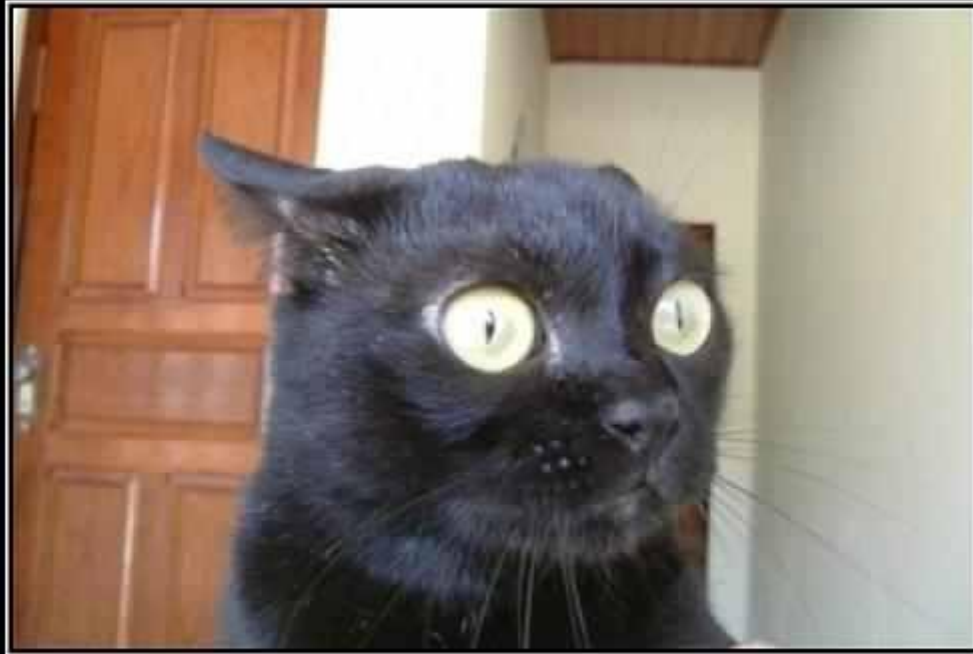

Read it carefully though, because it smells in some places too. the original group was right to stay so cloistered at times because of CIA infiltration and I see that IN this very piece as I loosely skim it. I have an awfully good bullshit meter. I am not going to take it apart, because a lot is true. I need to fully read it again, but stuff of this sort is exactly WHY

THANKYOU! We are moving right along.

Please understand I am not a dog, nor an ogar of any sort. I do things RIGHT. And If I goof, I correct it. I don't ever do my housework right though. I couldn't care less on that one.

And

WHAT HAS BEEN SEEN...

Cannot be un-seen.

There is importance in this kitty smiley. Remember that YAH, because you see, I remembered Bellringers posting you produced. It took me a couple reads before I remembered the source, but it was not Unseen, because it had been Seen.

Hurchel, did the UB remodel their website sort of recently, because it's sure not the same. All the stuff about the lawsuits over the copy rights is gone too, unless it's really buried. There is something else I am thinking of, hopefully no longer "unseen" from there that was important to me.

Also Hurchel, you are playing games. You are "leading". You are playing to attempt to entrap me some place. It may not work as well as you hoped.

why don't you just read the thing and made up your own mind? I am not going to do YOUR legwork. Yes they are "beneficial." By that i assume you mean "unfallen" and not "demons" or something else? READ IT. And decide for yourself. There are those out there that always think demons and reptilians wrote everything and to them, then this is all shit from demons. To those like myself who have completed the journey to Paradise, we recognize these beings and topics. Follow your own heart.

also, are they a rebel a group, a positive group or a neutral observer, lukewarm/

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 1476643

My knowing is they are from the very high realms. thanks for clarifying your question which I had not seen before I replied. This is a book that must be experienced with open mind, because there are MANY classes of beings in the creation. angels are not classed as rebels, positives or neutrals. And the word angel is really really "generic." Angels are CREATED BEINGS by God. No magic wands there either. They are called in general, Decending Sons of God. there are many many many many tpes with many purposes and job description. Then there are the Ascending Sons of God, which includes some angels also, but mostly this refers to the souls of MAN. Who ascend into god hood over time.

In the Lucifer REbellion, it was mostly Descending Sons, but on a lot of planets, knowledgable ascending sons also participated. I am an ascending Son. I am of origin in Nebadon, but not this planet. I have taken the long trip to paradise and belong to a order of beings called Mighty Messengers. Man does become like the angels as the bible says. When you are in "heaven' you are trained for many many career possibilities. You are provided and experience all that can be during eternity.

If you have an OPEN mind, you might well love the book. It is complex, some parts are very easy to read, others harder and some concepts are difficult simply because we don't have words for them, and so they have to define and define as best they can. You do not have to read it front to back. You can skip around. There is a lot of social commentary about life on this planet and other planets that is excellent, thought provoking and not that hard to read. You can skip around some terms. over time you will understand them better.

There is the structure of the creation presented. And the government of the creation, a history of this planet and 1/3 devoted to the life of Jesus. All sorts of concepts are covered. One nice paper, is about life on a nearby planet and how a society there has matured. Open, play around, enjoy. skip that which you can't deal with yet. YOu can get some ideas of what might interest you from the contents.

between me and you and think the urantia has a lot in common with the quran; stylistically at least.

but i have read some of urantia, and i just cant see why i should add it to my library. i already am a deep student of all the ancient holy books. i have nothing against it, but i dont see what it can add.

and i also think the torah is the deepest because it is the most fragmented, try the chumash stone edition, it will blow your mind, the torah is not straight forward like the quran, but it has more layers.

i guess what i am getting at, is the book of urantia doesnt stir any "holy" emotion, it doesnt stir the inner god in me, it is really dry, and seems a bit to sci fi, it may contain knowledge, but it doesnt contain wisdom and emotion, the sages say god teaches through stories, numbers and letters, it seems urantia is missing all three. no sacredness is produced, it sends no transmissions.

beloved, find the chapters that DO. There are some that will touch you with teaching. I don't know if you are Christian but if you are, certainly some of the stories told by Jesus will! Often material doesn't resonate because people are unprepared for it. This planet is VERY behind in the ways of knowledge. There is a LOT of wisdom in it. it doesn't teach thru stories, numbers and letters, in that regard, it teaches right straight IN YOUR FACE, so you do not have to search for meanings. Some of it IS going to fly in the face of all religions on this earth, which were contaminated heavily in many ways, poor translation, lack of understanding of cultures during the time given, and deliberate change. I do not know where your interests lie. IF you have an interest in what the hubble looks at, perhaps Part 3 might be interesting as an example, if you have been interested in nebulas and the like. If you have taken any geology type stuff, you should find resonance there perhaps. that section, papers 57 and 28 are pretty readable. Science like but readable.

Although you might not understand "mortal epochs" what they mean, in there you find how man generally evolves on planets. I love paper 63, The first human family. well start with 62 and lead into it.

You are right, it is not full of soft material in that regard, but your future training is going to cause you to know all that stuff as you make your way in eternal life. Maybe the Adam and Eve story, and about their fall might appeal. paper 74. If you have an interest in the fallen angel Lucifer story, it's there. A hugely wide variety of topics, but yes, it reads like a college textbook. But it enthralled me because of the MEMORIES it brought back to me. When we are incarnate, we remember a lot as a tiny child and then who were really are gets lost in the stuff of earth. There are a lot of children, with the opening of the circuits now that are remembering a lot more. I wish I had discovered it perhaps sooner, lead to it in 1996, never saw it before then. But it satisfied MY soul about who I was because of the memories it stimulated. I read for hours at a time, couldn't put it down, I resisted buying it between 1996 and 2001.

In the last 3rd on jesus, his oral teachings are in RED on the website. www.urantia.org perhaps thats a place to look. On those, you can definitely skip around.

Paper 72 may be interesting, on government on a nearby planet, I think I mentioned that. You could relate it to our world. Compare. I think evolution of human government, is very interesting. Play with it, if you wish, and if you still find it dry, put it aside until there is an interest again perhaps, because as I use this "smiley"

At some point that which you have looked at, may come back and you will wish to investigate some more. Something may prompt you.

there are MANY ANGELS and some ASCENDING SONS as authors of the UB. There is NO one group of them. They are from several areas of the creation. the author of each paper is given. there are many more types of angel that what is recorded in man's literatures. that is why it has to be read with an open mind. I refused all religion on this plane and that HELPED me read it because I didn't have preconceived teachings, although I was exposed moderately heavy to christianity, but I never ever followed thru, I just loved my grandmother and went to episcopal church with her, was bored in the summers and attended the bible schools in my little town, thought I would be catholic my first year in college, because of a very good catholic priest, most are not that good, and so on and so forth. Hubby' mother was souther baptist, so I had to deal with that. I made a study of religions and after Kennedy was murdered, the 2nd coming stuff would have started otherwise soon after, I knew whatever I had come to do wasn't going to happen for a time, that is when I read the bible and then I made other searches. I consider becoming some sort of cleric, and a day spend at a local seminary researching cured me of that really quick.

This book is daunting because it goes far beyond any religion. Religion on each is pretty mediocre. But people open to god as they open and you have to consciously take your own journey because you see, YOU ARE YOUR PATH. You write YOUR PATH, there is exactly no religion which can write it for you. There is no meditation groups that can write it for you, and so on and so forth. ONLY YOU CAN TAKE your JOURNEY into your own God hood. for the will of the Father is that you become LIKE HIM. As as people on any planet desire more and more to do the will of the Father, to become LIKE him, in all their choices, so does a marvelous planetary civilization grow. We aim to get this civilization to that marvelous state. The rebellion squashed it. The people here are far behind where they should be.

but i am still waiting for a particular way in which this book can benefit one beyond what is already out there. i think you tried to address that by saying becoming like the father is the point, this is no different than living in christ, or becoming a saint, or living like muhammad, etc.

People follow here because they are till immature. It is not possible for people who are not around 6d consciousness to "hear" their father fragment. Mind and consciousness grows very slowly. religion and books serve a purpose. I don't have a problem with the churches except they don't do much of WALKING AS GOD, you know, exposing 911, getting this country out of the genocide that it is committing, fixing local issues. If this was not a world of controlling thugs, the clerics could be much better than they are. many of them in fact serve the dark to keep their people behind.

it is easy to do with beautiful Sunday services with lovely music and certain types of sermons and the like. I have attended a lot of stuff as in researching, trying to understand the control of the elite thru religion on people. There is not one person who cannot understand that they are god walking this plane, if this is taught since they are young or at least that they are children of God learning about God! God is NOT taught on this plane.

People can however use their hearts and that is not developed well here either, generally speaking. In this advanced stage of falling apart people will either grow upwards or move backwards, the nature of what is going forces the get of the fence. Some people don't intentionally ride the fence, they don't know any better. We could do so much better early childhood, at least where I live, I have not traveled the world to see how other people do it.

Jesus TAUGHT and it seems left out of Christian theology and the bible that God is within YOU. A piece of God's MIND is in YOUR MIND. We need to teach reincarnation because people do not move off these prisons wards until they grow up and if they KNEW they would be living on lower worlds, they would grow up far faster. Because living on these hell worlds, is well, HELL. Over the years of the growth of the NWO, education is dumbed down, and before TV people WERE smarter because they didn't come home from work to soap opera crap. The elite want mindless servants and it is going to bite them in the butt big time. People need to be challenged through life. these worlds are harsh for that reason, because MIND does NOT grow unless it is challenged to do so. These are CRADLE worlds to develop MIND.

I had chance to tutor in a local middle school for 2 years. What I saw appalled me verses the education I went thru growing up.

The thugs want people who cannot lead themselves. I say unto you LEAD YOURSELVES, for there in you will FIND GOD WITHIN YOU. This world does not have sufficient education in all sorts of endeavors. In terms of God, it's really bad. The UB, and PJ's and the Course in Miracles (the lessons, not the urtext which is co-opted in some ways) provide to searchers what has been left out and its provided to also wake up the starseeds here that are here in service, and one of the reasons, they have a remembrance of God but the churches are used to mind control them into forgetting God. we have the worst percentage wakeup on this world of any one, when worlds like this are infused with star seeds. Usually only 20% on a world wake up, on this world tons more were sent and the wakeup is at best 1% These thugs are so good at mind control. I advise anyone searching to try on the UB because it might be what it takes to wake them up.

Ok. Its bedtime. Life is going to be busy tonight. Lots of energies coming in.

People follow The Book of Urantia. People follow The Bible. The Koran. The Torah. David dlcke. And a host of others. How about not following anyone? Just trust in your own heart. Other people have grains of wisdom, but no one on this planet KNOWS any more than any one else.

People follow here because they are till immature. It is not possible for people who are not around 6d consciousness to "hear" their father fragment. I don't have a problem with the churches except they don't do much of WALKING AS GOD, you know, exposing 911, getting this country out of the genocide that it is committing, fixing local issues. Candace, you getting shredded by your own people on your own materials!!

This going to be much easier than i anticipated

you like all the quotes we got? we have so much more on you crazy lady

Many members of Candace Forum ran away from her lies, and she accused them for be part of "the CIA's pendulum program" Is it the name of your own programs dear Candace?

Read how Candace write about that in her own forum:

Bill wasn't as strong as he let on if Blanca got to him so easily. Fidel was strong enough on my forum to resist the person that was pushing him to enter into the CIA's pendulum program and he had the courage to write me privately and let me know, after which I exposed the game. These are good people who are surround yet at this time by dark invisible entities as well as the "visible" ones who come to raise trouble. Jennifers post here is quite true, the dark manipulators are skillful and you don't know about them from the skilled writing until they make themselves known. And we have I have discerned at least 3 people here, playing double roles with more than one login. I am seeing the personality similarities in the postings, come of which are infrequent. I am truncing those here who have more than one log in and make it obvious by always signing their name. For all I know "Blanca" is still a member and we haven't discovered "the alter ego" yet!

Candace you are selling your self. You admit in your forum that you had contact with the CIA Council of Light Program,

Candace wrote:

"He ( Patrick)has blown it with me before personally, back in November 2005 with the letters he sent me from the CIA Council of Light Program, I guess he didn't realize I knew what that was and we had quite some interesting exchanges. He once use to post he would post all my letters to him and I have encouraged him to do so. I have nothing to hide. But I have also told him, when he made another threat of some sort a few months ago, that if he carried that one out, I would print those letters from the Council of Light and some others I have and he would regret what he was trying to carry off. Patrick by his fruits is enemy. He was visited personally once by Esu and told to go to Hell, yet he pratters on about his brother Sananda who is his enemy in fact."

"And sometimes the "channels" are receiving through CIA technology. Sometimes on the pendulums I have mentioned before, which have apparently have devices right on them, or equipment can be put in the person's home somewhere. Until the reptilians were removed, possibly some were hearing from them. Also, since more and more as the body remodels people are beginning to "hear" and search, they usually think, if Christians the Holy Spirit spoke to them, entities on our other side maybe making connections, some are finding relatives and the like, but often these ones still in earth's school of learning don't know any too much themselves".

I have only just begun.....

Candace, again and again accusing other message of Michael (French channels) Everybody are working for the CIA but not her.

"So this is a Fake Michael of some sort, borrowing sort of a description of the Arch Angel of Michael as from the UB, and borrowing a description from the Wisdomoftherays. com piece. (...) These are fraudulent works the above reasons and I will not have them on my website and thus I explain they are fake. Either they are completely made up by the French channel, or coming from CIA type programs, or a dark entity is having a lot of fun."

Candace The fish die by the mouth and your are a fish

Every body who is not with you work with the Cia pendulum
Every Channel who doesn't come from your mouth work for the some pendulum.

"This has happened many times. I think I recently told the story of one who was writing people on the forum by the private system and trying to get them into the CIA pendulum program. This lady announced one day that Esu had retired me and bought me a nice home out in the country by the university. Except n that hadn't happened and the university is not out in the country. She even wrote this as a channeling from Esu, via the little speaker that whispered stuff in her ear on the pendulum. I am used to this, but it saddens me greatly when somebody succumbs to this."

One of the so many contradictions of Candace. Michael (Jesus) spoke through her and was surprising because he didn't one news (an other lie of Candida)

Christ Michael: Dearly beloveds, Candace will do a large quantity of filling you in at the end of this regards the noticeable changes. The planet is going into magnetic pole reversal and we have made the decision to not prevent it, but merely keep it slowed down. Candace informed me of the sun rising 20 minutes LATE today, and that is a large clue beloveds. I do not fully time your sunrise because I am parked out past Saturn's orbit right now.

Michael (Jesus) was parked in Saturn's orbit and didn't what was happened in the Earth. You, Candace don't read well THE URANTIA BOOK Foreword

Candace Frieze is just another cult leader. She, like other cult leaders, needs followers, devout believers who parrot her stuff and disseminate her words that she claims come from GOD. Those words do not come from God. They are lies. God doesn't lie. But Candace Frieze and her multiple pseudonyms (Christ Michael, Aton, et al) sure do lie and nothing else.

All these cult leaders are so similar when properly and thoroughly studied. What they're all basically saying is that what they have to offer is the truth, or better yet the absolute truth or the word of God. Then your job is just to believe that, and go on believing, no matter what happens, and never mind the consequences and casualties, never mind any evidence on the contrary or other petty things such as facts or reality. You must believe that the cult leader has the truth, after all s/he's the one with the direct link to God Almighty, not you, and this is what the cult leaders teach you. Nothing could be farther from truth. That would in fact be very very bad teaching, spiritually speaking. Cult leaders and their followers can't really offer any sound spiritual guidance. What they actually do is hamper spiritual progress. They misdirect people and they do harm. And they don't care.

Did Candace Frieze ever care when she led people to believe that they have to move away from the coastal areas because terrible earthquakes were about to happen and California was to sink in the ocean according to CM and Candace's God figure ATON? (Fact: no storms and earthquakes, no sinking!) Did she ever even apologize? No. She didn't say a single word of "sorry!". What she did instead was not giving shit, or labeling the victims and those with any uncomfortable questions as "dark" (which is exactly what cults do – it's always 'us' versus 'them'). And then she just went on telling her false stories and terrible catastrophic predictions to other people. (Fact: none of which ever came true!) And for your information: God has no such plans as igniting Jupiter or any of that other crap that keeps on coming from Candace's keyboard that is just huge misunderstanding if not deliberate distraction.

When we look at the structure of Candace's organization we see a typical cultic structure. That is there is one leader on top and everything else is subject to the leader. The leader doesn't allow any criticism, questioning or doubting regarding his/her status, words or ideas. The followers might think there is freedom of speech and thought, but you'll soon see what happens when that kind of thing is being put into action – those who question the authority of the great leader or Mighty Messenger will be expelled. They will be labelled as trouble-makers or CIA-agents or dark attackers and they will be removed, if not threatened to be uncreated.. :) You can see this for yourself in Candace's writing or that of her most faithful ones like Jennifer who is the owner of the AHSupport yahoo group (that is leader of that group, but in reality Jennifer is subject to Candace of course).

Hershel, (sorry I am sure I misspelled that) Channeled is a catch all word. In the case of the UB it was genuinely channeled, meaning Passed thru a human while said human was out of his body and another using it. The "channel" of the UB was a sleeping prophet, just was was edgar cayce. And in those days somebody had to write down was heard, there were not tape recorders. Dolores Cannon has been blessed with tape recorders for her work. She puts the person into hypnosis, and sometimes the person's higher self is coming thru, in other cases, entities from the higher realms come thru. The soul moves aside and another uses the brain and vocal cords. If you have not explored her work, that is a must in my book. I was guided to her work, I would get asked to (by telepathy) to go to the book store and what I was to examine would come out on the shelf in front of me. That in fact is HOW I came to find the UB, I had not ever heard of it, and that was in probably 1996, or perhaps 1995. I was in a book store with my daughter who had come home from, well that makes it 1996, Europe. She was buying stuff for her boyfriend to take back to Germany. Boy friend is now my son in law.

I was directed by telepathy to go to the new age section. I have never liked new age sections very well, but I went and there it was, half off the shelf. I was not sure I wanted it yet, and had little money at the time. later I was again there with some more time, and found it fascinating until I saw the last 1/3. I put it back because it was about "Jesus" and seemed a bit too much of christianity. I cannot stand christianity. I have been sentenced to hell fire ever since my early childhood by vicious christians.

But again I was asked look at it, several times while I was also looking at other recommended books as to preparing me for my journey. Eventually when I got a charge card I finally bought the thing, and in the privacy of my home, I fell in love with the finest work of God I have seen on this planet. And I am still in love.

It is "channled" (sorry I almost got off the story line here), because a PERSON is being used to go THRU. The person is not the channel, the celestial is, and using the persons mind and body much like like energy passing thru an electric cord. And that is exactly how so many entities came thru one sleeping prophet over the 2 or so year period the UB material was given in answers to questions by the contact commission at that time.

Dolores cannons material is give the same way, except Dolores puts the person into deep hypnosis , rather than the sleeping prophet putting self into deep hypnosis and vacating for the channel to come thru. There are a number of books that have been written by this method and various personalities are still using this method to this day. There ARE reasons for that.

Now with the PJ's, I was directed to them too. I was told to just google them and that is how I found them at www.fourwinds10.com. The other site called PhoenixSourcedistributors did not have them at that time, they in fact copied them from 4 winds. Patrick Bellringer got copies of all of them in print, copies each and every page by method of copy machine, they were after all published books. Then these were scanned. I was told to find them in 2003 after Michael of Nebadon gave me the symbol and directions for AH. Which i was given at that time in deep meditation.

Now at that time, Patrick had them in a form that did NOT do well on my computer, the words bounced and were red and black and not very readable. I don't think I found the pdfs to download them, or if I did, they took a long time and were still not readable. I was asked to read PJ 2 and 3 first. Well, finally in June 2004, he put noticed of them on his front site, there was a new form they had been put into. Well, just like with the UB, I feel in love all over again.

Now the PJ's are not channeled. They are sent by a type of short wave signal and then Dharma translated the signal, into words, for which she had been prepped with a receiving crystal in her head. I will not say where or how that crystal worked, its not truly for public release at this time. This allowed huge clarity so she could type just as fast as she could type, there was now computers. This was at a time also shortly after the circuits to Urantia were reopened and a lot of material was coming in. Dharma simply took the dictation. She was a secretary.

Now like the issues with the UB I mentioned above, the PJ's are not perfect, every where all the time. Our thugs detected the radio frequency and sometimes used it and sometimes dharma could discern the change and sometimes not. That is why you will sometimes find two different answers to the same story. This happened a lot, and Hatonn would send over a different frequency and it would get contaminated again, but over all the work is marvelous and a person who CAN discern, as I can, I am an awfully old soul, by the way the trip to Paradise takes much longer than I think it was you who suggested such above. Average for a go getter is 1 million years, so I am pretty old. For slower ones like the thugs of earth, it can take billions.

Thugs are given as long as necessary to grow up. Which sometimes does seem an eternity.

Now, there is the telepath. This is direct mind to mind communications a;nd few on earth do this, but there are many starseeds who do and are even unknown as their instructions are secret as to mission. I have always been telepathic. It is the normal way. Animals are very good at it naturally. They don't do "language" they do pictures back and forth.

As to the TEAching Mission, the so called channels, step aside and let others come thru them. This is conscious channeling. They have been labeled TR's so I tend to use that term for that method. These ones, who are REAL are always encircuited to do this. It is not yet natural on this plane. But it is the way to bring material thru to a group of people, and this is going to be heavily used AFTER STASIS.

During stasis, the world will be sectioned into 50 to 100 areas of administration. There are going to be MISSIONS. YOu might want to read my older material on my site about the Many Missions project. Now each AH sanctioned mission, will have a TR. Each mission will have an appropriate celestial supervisor who will provide guidance thru the TR to the mission team. I can also TR but I am not into that in terms of being before a group like the others. Dharma could also TR and did, and Hatonn and probably others gave thru as well as Hatonn's Higher self ATON. (Michael of Nebadon). These were tape recorded and while I don't any of them, I have a friend who does and I did listen to some when I was with her once.

There will be at least thousands of missions. All funded through the celestial monies on this planet already, which is not to be confused at this time with NESARA. There is great wealth secreted away on this planet, of old relics and high energy gold and other precious metals and jewels and crystals. These have been ON the planet since the days of Adam and Eve and if that mission had not been corrupted.... well you know the rest. However, the corruption went far beyond Eve's sexual betrayal to Caligastia. That was not enough to abort that whole mission. There were reasons to NOT cover this in the UB because we do still have all these thugs on the planet facing their FINAL JUDGEMENT, its the end of the 2nd Grand cycle. I will get back to that piece when the mood is there again.

Now telepathy is used even when one communes with ones thought adjuster. You have read the person is usually 5 or 6 or even 7 d consciousness when this occurs more naturally. In the UB it mostly covers that by the story of the 7 circles. That is what those circles mean, the level of consciousness that has been obtained.

There is a great deal of fraud by the CIA and others in "new age." There is fraud in the teaching mission and I can also state here there has been covert CIA infiltration into the Urantia Foundation teams and also into those involved with the Phoenix Journal project. You must be aware of Daniel Raphael. I KNOW this person, or thought I did, he lives not far from me. We met many times. he was clean once. He is not now. He apparently wanted like others so bad to serve and he not enough money, so he fudged. The stories around the fudge are both sad and hilarious. But the whole www.monoronson.com is now corrupted, near as I can tell, because I am seeing a lot of shit coming forth. Mighty Messenger Charles IS a CIA creation and the name choice and position choice is a play on ME. Candace Mighty messenger, Charles Mighty messenger and I am in receipt of a work by Daniel which announces that Mighty Messenger Charles is now the chief advisor or something to that effect of the trivalent of Monjoronson, Michael of Nebadon and Machiventa. Another piece by somebody else states Machiventa is ousted and replaced by another commission et all.

This is why I do this, people this big time, when this shit happens and I am not angry to some of you for your exposure of your crap about ME, (ie YAH), I am greatly saddened at the corruption and success of the CIA and others into iniquity. WE have tried so hard with this planet. However, some of this is necessary as part of the 4d thing, in which people have to choose which side they are on and cannot play the fence. We are seeing this from the WAVE and other energies now, on GLP and all over. People are reporting this stuff not only here on GLP but lots of people I come into contact with are reporting such also.

Michael of Nebadon said he came not to bring peace. he came to set on against another, THAT IS THE PROCESS of 4d that will lead to 5d consciousness on this planet as the phoenix arises from the ashes of that mess. This is necessary for people to learn to think, and stop all the shitty following and you "Urantians" (isn't everyone on this planet a "urantian?") who are FOLLOWERS it is LIKEWISE. YOU MUST FIND YOUR MIINDS. Many of you too follow because the book sounds so good. AND IT DOES, as do the PJ's.

But there is no complete record YET on this planet and the thugs do their best to destroy the truth and infest God's work on this world. They are VERY GOOD AT what they do, real professionals in fact. ONCE the NORMAL GOOD MAN discovers how much more powerful he can be, than even the tried and true thugs, so will this planet change massively.

And on editing, the TEaching Mission was corrupted in part initially because the thugs placed agents trained where there were microphones placed in the meeting places, so the questions could be heard from the audience and the false "TR" had a little hearing device himself on his body, an electronic receiver for his part in it. And I am pretty sure Daniel R is making use of such now from something STUPID he said in an email to somebody I know. And he has a nice house now for his work and a secretary who is in on the deal.

And OBE, to receive form Source, as you call it, is the goal, in the UB this is called the thought adjuster. I prefer Father Fragment, I think it's more accurate but there was likely a reason for that word too. You are an old soul. YOU can travel cold space as you discover some time ago. You hear from Source thru your Higher Self, your real you. You are long "fused" with your Father Fragment. One day I we will cover more of the construction of the soul that we have so far.

For those of you who are UB readers, the morontial Soul is your astral form, in which your records as stored as your personal akashic record. WE have too many words for the same thing on this planet and during stasis we are going to unify the concepts into one language, english, and add a lot more words, because we don't have enough words. It becomes "morontial" in the new soul having it's first life when eternal life is chosen with the receiving of the thought adjuster.

as proven numerous times within pages in this thread & other threads that i have engaged you in... it is pointless to argue with you in circles because of your delusions & your ego refusing to comprehend...

since i have said everything that needs to be said to you in the past & recently, you may review the information whenever you wish... i will no longer invest that much energy to try to explain over & over again... from now on i will not engage with your arrogant ego & will only post short gentle 'reminders' of the lies you push/spread everywhere...

Asking critical questions is imperative in any sound education, spiritual or otherwise, but false teachers do not allow that. They have a totally different agenda. Their mission is not to teach, they don't wish to offer education for other people's benefit. What they want to do is to put themselves on a pedestal and make everyone bow to them and obey them and their "mighty messages". Real spiritual teachers don't draw attention to themselves, and their personal stuff isn't what's important. Contrary to Candace, who's always writing about herself, her doings and experiences, and even how she's the one giving information to Ascended Masters – wow! – things that just keep on amazing yourstruly again and again.. just how arrogant can this person get?

Someone who is waiting for the final truth to be revealed via Candace is truly waiting for Godot – waiting for nothing, waiting in vain. Nothing worthy regarding your spiritual journey comes from that waiting. But how are people sucked into these false prophets, cults and other forms of spiritual misguidance? It is not true that only some gullible fools or poor deluded or ignorant people would be those suckers who are sucked in cults. Anyone can be trapped, including very intelligent people and those who should know better. Cults recruit followers step by step. First they do offer you something, something good. That can be some true sounding spiritual message or it can be so-called love-bombing. Love bombing has nothing to do with real love, unconditional compassion. Love bombing is love and acts of friendship directed for those who are either potential cult recruits or those members in that particular cult who behave in manners expected from them, that is they obey the cult and its leader. Love, friendship, fellowship, comradeship, all the flowers and flowery language are reserved for those potential or actual cultists. Other people don't get any of that "love". It's 'us' versus 'them' from the start to finish.

Once you get in a cult or start reading a lot of cult material and therefore are under cult influence, it gets easier for you to be sucked in completely. You may see the leader and other cultists as very wise and knowledgeable, you may think they have experienced tremendously spiritual-wise, and you just wanna have that too. You want to be as knowledgeable, experienced and wise as they seem to be. You wanna have the same certainty, faith, or whatever it is that they say is important.

What they don't tell you is that they really don't know shit. They don't tell you how imperfect they are. They give you the impression of the opposite – but that is just the impression that people in general like to give of themselves, nothing more. An outside observer might see the cult and the cultists for what they are, and see it immediately, but once you're under the cult influence you're no longer an outside observer. What you want is to belong to that group or mission or whatever.

Cults always say they serve some higher cause. It can be saving the planet, spiritual advancement, helping the needy, or whatever that sounds good in your ears. The actual behavior is what's important. But, once you're inside a cult, you stop seeing the actual behavior. Cult followers don't see what's in front of them, they can hardly read and think for themselves any more, since they start seeing everything through the cultist eyes and thinking through cult dogma. If the leader has enemies, the followers are there to defend the leader. If the leader is "attacked" with criticism, the followers are there to offer their consolation to the leader in words of being forever faithful for her/him and her/his cause. No individual thinking there! Remember, once you're in a cult, they won't allow any of that. Cultists are like puppets who don't see the puppet-master pulling the strings. Followers are blind in that respect.

Candace, you are sick. Go see a shrink or have some pills. Your delusional posts area clear evidences of a disease called schizophrenia... That's your problem. You are sick and does not want to admit it!

Or else am I supposed now to believe you have been to an alien ship so many times but you are completely unable to provide evidence of that? Of course you can't. You have been there only in you sick delusions.

As well as everything you say and write. Channeling, statis, Aton/Hatton/ESU/Whatever, Galactic Federation, Starfleet, Jupiter Ignition, and now Sun out of place. Come on! All work of a sick mind whereas SOLID EVIDENCE has not been provided for any of these! Your claims have been debunked, re-debunked and debunked all over again as many times as I can count for. Nevertheless you keep filling in this forum with your sick crap.

Quoting: YAHisking

YAH, star trek was great, it's purpoe to open people. I haven't watched it in many years, it got boring. and of course I assume only re runs for a long time.

Now YAH and others reading this, people often post of personal experiences on this site. And tell them to others. So someone might come here and explain his dog is dying, he has broken with girlfriend, he lost his job or found a job, or describes other details of life. These ones live their lives. Should I go and tell them their pet is not real? A figment of their imagination? Should I tell them they aren't married? Or they don't have children? or they have 3 girls instead of 3 boys? Well they KNOW how many kids they have, they know if they are married or not, they know their jobs etc.

Now YAH what you and others do to ME here, is you claim my life is not REAL. Well dear one, it is very REAL. I had long experience in psychiatric nursing and in counseling. I devoted some few years to counseling in fact in the local MS center, where I was also created a great group that met a couple times a month or so on Saturdays, an all day session where I educated them on MS and adaptation to it. I went with the flow in the afternoon portion which was always for discussion of personal issues affecting the individuals. Some times we had couples attending, so the sessions focused on the spouse who had to deal with it and sometimes the children too.

I have a lot of knowledge from various activities in my life and i know when someone is NOT engaged in life. I have taken care of multiple personalities, both those programed to it, (satanic programing), and natural ones who lived such horrors they have to detach to another world. Sometimes the detachment is to alternate personalities, and some to past lives. The Schiz generally is living in a past life. Something has gone wrong with the programming to prevent past life interference.

These folks, when they are disassociated for whatever reason cannot function in society. If they do it alot or permanently they must be caretaken for because they cannot function in society as it is. They cannot shop, plan small details of life and the like. They could not sit here like I do and write for hours on end some days.

I can and do provide for myself in every way. I do not require a custodian. As I posted if I was CIA my ex "friend" did not need to come into my house to gather records and help himself to a pay check for doing so by stealing. Me and my team members would not need to experience stuff like lug bolts loosened on tires etc to cause murder by car accident. And so on and so forth. There were episodes of this again recently in EUROPE. There were many attacks on my team members in the very early days starting even before my website went up. We have specially written software on our site that keeps it running. WE have the last several months cut back the serious updating to protect the team.

There is not one confused disassociated member of my team. If I detect any signals of being CIA, they are removed from the team. I have removed several over the years. I am NOT the only one of this team. It is a partnership.

My experiences I describe some places here and on my website at times, I do for the teaching benefit. These are REAL and are in no way imaginary or disassociation. I spend long years in preparation before the go ahead came to start the public journey in January 2005. Prior to that I was writing about other stuff on an alternative news site, to which I was invited to write for, by letter and phone call. BEcause of material I had written that was posted on other sites or sent to other sites even if not posted.

As far as I could determine I was the first on the net to realize the TEETH of the man arrested as "saddam" was not the teeth of the real saddam.

I am not a looney toon. I know what looney toons look like because of my past working experiences in the field of looney toons ok. Any some of the looney toons I did take care of were merely advanced souls connecting with God who were on purpose placed in hospitals, that is how the dark likes to deal with them sometimes you know.

YUones, like YOU YAH who published material written by such as Patrick Bellringer, offered as PROOF against me are lies. And you are guilty of passing those lies. I know he is CIA, he proved it too me. I was offered help with my website et all, if I would only cooperate with them. Well everyone who does that for the monetary benefits in some way, has to COMPROMISE WHAT they DO and I will not compromised what I do. I trusted in my alignment with those above, and that is the only reason my website can exist for starters, as it is protected against take down. Others have come aboard to serve as necessary and we lost a few who took thee fast path to success as they saw it.

YAH you continue to make statements that are not true about my journey. You have never met me, and posting shit from Patrick as your own words, really tells of your intent by your fruits. And posting your other shit about me are lies also, which you apparently manufacture as needed. I know because they do not describe me accurately. I am fully grounded on earth and in heaven. I consciously live in both realms and I never get lot in one or the other, EVER.

That seems to prove your iniquity, but I will let the judges of heaven judge your intent, but by your fruits, it seems rather obvious.....

I am immune to your stuff. It only gives me opportunity to teach, so you ones keep right on up and I will keep right on teaching as long as it serves at the moment. I am getting off here now. going to log off the computer period, because I have company later today and a nice evening planned, and the time off will be wondrous. See you perhaps tomorrow. Good day.

PS, and YAH look at that post above, you have distorted what I said. Where did you get the sun out of place? I did support what the folks in the NORHT saw this year, when the sun rose 2 days early, that is the axis shift and proof of it in fact. The tilt and rotation do get variances and I watch that carefully for a full year a couple years ago, when I noticed the sun set too early one day, it was dark too early. I set up a pretty good system of watching shadows cast and the like, I had about a dozen stations I watched on sunny days and kept a record of rise, set, and where rise and set occurred each day. this sometimes required quite a walk in the bitter cold of morning during the winter to see the horizon from a good viewpoint etc. and sometimes a walk of several blocks in the evening. I proved in fact the north star is NOT in the same place every night, using a secure 1 inch tube as suggested by Dr Postman. YOU can't look at that thread, when everyone watching this stuff kept jumping him, he deleted all the evidence.

IF YOU yourself did not carefully tract this stuff you don't have jack shit to say about it. OK???? many folks are picking up on the changes in valid ways and folks like you the attack the material when you have not done the work! Go figure, but you ones surely do expose yourselves in the process to those of us that do pay attention.

The sun rose 2 days early in the arctic. The earths year is 365 days (actually its less than that now) and there are 360 degrees in a circle. I published a figure somewhat lower than 2 degrees for the axis shifting last fall. Now do the math, 2 days early is about 2 degrees difference in the axis.

But it's ok because they claim to be nothing but sweetness and light and they can use flowery language. Do you want to know how crazy is Candace?. Read another of her hallucinations:

Everything You Wanted to Know About Robotoids And Clones By Candace

"Hi everyone, since Patrick has been placing emphasis on "clones" recently, its time to more fully clear up the mysteries. First, let's utilize two different terms, clones, and Robotoids. A clone, in this discussion will mean the clones you see in government, such as our resident and unelected clone residing in our White House, and all his cohort clones. These clones are made in a matter at most of a few weeks, from cells taken from there bodies, be they real humans or robotoids.

So what then is a robotoid? It is not exactly a clone, as in the above description. Around 2500 BC the owners of the planet became concerned that those that survived the last trip through the Photon Belt, the great flood and other calamities, we coming again into their own, real humans, and they were still wanting this planet for themselves, with a slave race to serve, destroying the intent of this seed planet.

So using a combination of energy and light effects on the planet, they downgraded the DNA massively. This did not produce the robotoid, but it set mankind back. Just as we are now experiencing an increase in the higher vibrations, similar technology was used to lower the vibrations and this affected the entire planet and all of her life. Then, from the underground laboratories, (not to be confused with inner earth), the dark scientists began to take human sperm and eggs from the humans, and further affected the DNA, cutting off the portions that produce a true human, and this created the Robotoid. They implanted these robotoids embryos back into women, and over the centuries, more and more Robotoids were born. The robotoid can only produce another robotoid."

This is because my 'arguments' have already exposed your old religious superstitious beliefs+lies many times before & on this thread... plz flip a few pages back & reread.. since you seem to have a bad memory or denial ...

your ego is itching for a 'battle' with me but i refuse to repeat the same things over & over again to you... you are behaving like a little child kicking & screaming because people are telling you that santa claus is not real(in your case the flase gods christ michael/'father fragment'/esu/aton/jesus) little child, i cannot force you to change your beliefs.. you will have to grow-up & find out by yourself...

feel free to look back & study my replies from now on...

Common YAH spill the beans. I have never hidden my circumstances. Lets here yours. If you have been around here a couple years ago, you would have NOT made the comments to OBE that you just made. We were definitely NOT good ole buddies and he has never been my "sock puppet". far

This thread is so funny in some places. Keep digging YAh, you will find the stuff from when Jupiter was made a sun too. A bunch of my folks saved the evidence as we watched the back of sun, before the thugs erased it. But NASA did get a little pressure from ATON/CM to post the evidence. And as I have said over and over, there cannot be two Jupiters, one of them is fake in some way, ie star ship hologram.

While Jupiter Sun was hiding and by NASA's own admittance it was still lost in the glare of the Sun, those with telescopes who great each new arrival of Jupiter from behind the sun, were snapping away at the HOLOGRAM, for a fews in fact before NASA posted this video. And notice, the SOLAR CORONA! things that are not suns do not have solar coronas. And as I said, because of the crap it was taking and getting discouraged about, I got to watch Jupiter StarSHIP turn off the lights one night in the summer of 2009 proving the point and not one of you can steal or negate that experience.

Again Nasas video READ what it says. Jupiter was NOT seen yet and it has a solar corona, when these images were taken mid march 2009. about 5 to 6 weeks after the ignition. [link to sohowww.nascom.nasa.gov]

And ET, don't bother to even try to do something with this again. It won't work.

Ok green tea break over, back to my company preparations.

Have you, too, fallen into the CIA trap of Candace Frieze and her BS about Jupiter becoming a second sun (star)? I am very surprised!

Has NASA always told you the Truth about our space program? Do you know that their space pictures are always authentic? Has the media always been Truthful in their news reporting? Has Candace always told you the Truth? Do you think our world's scientists would not be going wild about such an event, as Jupiter blowing up? Do you think that such an event would not totally upset the balance of our solar system and of our planet? Do you think that is Creator God's Plan or some science fiction nonsense to fool you?

You have joined the laughing stock of both the spiritual and scientific worlds. May you find your way.

Thanks Hurchel for that, it WAS ON their website at one point and I have been looking for it. You see, it disappeared from my old desktop. Maybe I did not have all of this, I don't remember, but I had some of it. I copied a lot of files that are no longer available now. I will make new copy.

Read it carefully though, because it smells in some places too. the original group was right to stay so cloistered at times because of CIA infiltration and I see that IN this very piece as I loosely skim it. I have an awfully good bullshit meter. I am not going to take it apart, because a lot is true. I need to fully read it again, but stuff of this sort is exactly WHY

THANKYOU! We are moving right along.

Please understand I am not a dog, nor an ogar of any sort. I do things RIGHT. And If I goof, I correct it. I don't ever do my housework right though. I couldn't care less on that one.

And

There is importance in this kitty smiley. Remember that YAH, because you see, I remembered Bellringers posting you produced. It took me a couple reads before I remembered the source, but it was not Unseen, because it had been Seen.

Hurchel, did the UB remodel their website sort of recently, because it's sure not the same.

spin doctor bs dont work on me lady

Many members of Candace Forum ran away from her lies, and she accused them for be part of "the CIA's pendulum program" Is it the name of your own programs dear Candace?

Read how Candace write about that in her own forum:

Bill wasn't as strong as he let on if Blanca got to him so easily. Fidel was strong enough on my forum to resist the person that was pushing him to enter into the CIA's pendulum program and he had the courage to write me privately and let me know, after which I exposed the game. These are good people who are surround yet at this time by dark invisible entities as well as the "visible" ones who come to raise trouble. Jennifers post here is quite true, the dark manipulators are skillful and you don't know about them from the skilled writing until they make themselves known. And we have I have discerned at least 3 people here, playing double roles with more than one login. I am seeing the personality similarities in the postings, come of which are infrequent. I am truncing those here who have more than one log in and make it obvious by always signing their name. For all I know "Blanca" is still a member and we haven't discovered "the alter ego" yet!

Provocation

4/25/11 From The Lord, Our God and Savior - For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Thus says The Lord God: I dare this people to speak against My servants. I call them out, that they may bring their hard words against My witnesses. Yes, I will provoke them to anger, that they may come out and speak harshly toward My servants. For they have provoked Me to anger, therefore shall I also provoke them... That I may slay them and cut them down, as tares harvested for the fire!...

Thus says The Lord, to all those of the provocation: YOU SHALL ALL SURELY DIE! ALL SHALL BE PIERCED!... As YOU had pierced Me, even as you pierce Me now, so shall the multitudes receive of the same. They shall all be pierced and struck through!

For you have fought against Me...

*You have hated My name and My Holy One,
He who is the glory of My majesty...*

Therefore, I am sending My servants, the prophets, against you!

They shall prophesy against you viciously... They shall tear at you, tearing you as a lion devours his prey! For I have given them claws, and with them they shall strike, penetrating deep into your flesh.... And you shall be torn! Yea, they shall roar in that Day, a great multitude of roaring lions! Behold, they shall roar, with the breath of The Almighty in their nostrils!... And your every pillar shall break! Your four walls shall crumble! Your every foundation, upon which you have highly esteemed yourselves, shall buckle! Lo, the weight of your pride shall no more be upheld by your false glory, borne of your vanities! It shall all come down, collapsing under the weight of the Truth, which I shall declare through My witnesses! For strong is The Lord's proclamation against you!... For My Word is fire! A fire already kindled! And you shall ALL be made to pass through its flame!

Thus says The Lord, your Redeemer: Perk up your ears and listen, for I shall speak and tell you the truth of who I am...

I walked these roads with the wicked, with My heart heavy over all this sin, which led God's people astray at all times and in every season. I was destined to die, before the foundation of the world. And though I am King, I came to be your slave. Before any of you had entered into your mother's womb, I knew you and loved you...

As water spills upon the ground, so had sin made My people unrecoverable to The Father, unless a sacrifice sufficient to receive you back again was made... A pure and holy sacrifice, greater than any man of the earth could offer. For the sacrifice of God in the flesh was the only means by which you could be reconciled... He having the power to turn back death, the power to break death's hold, which sin had placed upon His people. For your God is holy, your God is just, your God is righteous and pure...

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS YAHUWAH! He laid the rules of righteousness and set the foundations of holiness... Thus I AM HE! THE TRUE SALVATION OF GOD!... YAHUSHUA HAMASHIACH! Bow therefore, and give Me glory! BOW, ALL YOU WICKED!... Before all creation is made to bow before The King!

Thus says The Lord to His servants: Prophecy, My sons... PROPHECY, O SONS OF SERVICE! For I have purposed for you to anger many. You shall incite them, and the heat of their lividity shall be shown in their faces. And many shall be slain by the words, which I shall place in your mouths...

Their number is 144,000, My holy elect, who shall subdue entire nations and humble multitudes of people. For My witnesses go wheresoever I lead them, having the seal of The Living God upon their foreheads, saying, "Holiness to The Lord!"... And shouting, "MAKE WAY FOR THE COMING OF THE LORD!"

*Behold, this generation has been made subject
To My servants, to their every word...*

*Not one word proceeding from their lips,
At My commandment, shall fall to the ground!*

Oh yes, they are indeed set above you, all you foolish leaders, all you haughty men in authority! They are set high above all these self-righteous, modern pharisees... To humble, to bring down and to break! Declares The Lord.

For I have called to them, I have shouted to them in a loud voice... Yea, My word screams at them!... Yet their ears remain stopped, they REFUSE to hear! Behold, I am come forth in My power! And in the strength of My might, I shall cause the wicked to hear and the high-minded to listen!... All you wicked and deaf children!

You would not come to Me for healing! Therefore you, every last one of you, shall be made subject to My Word! And you shall hear the voice of The Holy One of Israel when He arises mightily in battle!... BEHOLD! THE SWORD OF HIS MOUTH SHALL SLAY YOU! And you shall cease from before Me! You shall be no more!... No more shall you dwell before My face! FOREVER!

And still you ask, "But why?"...

Thus says The Lord: If you would have left all your doomed houses, obeying My voice and My command to come out, you would have known why, for I had said, "The atheist shall have it far better than you, when the wrath of The Great and Dreadful God has come"...
For you had sought to lay hold of My throne, O acolytes of satan. And as you endeavored to ascend above My Holy Mountain, I stepped down and crushed your wicked climbing! I halted your evil aspirations! I smashed your satanic fingers, oh vicars of Christ!... You abominable vines! Roots of rottenness!... I AM AGAINST YOU! Says The Lord.
For you have hated Me, returning to Me evil for good! You would not kiss The Son as part of the holy convocation, nor would you drink from My cup; nor would you sip the elixir, which I had freely offered for your cleansing, by which the remnants of Eve and Adam's error was to be purged... Even of all your sins, whereby you do continually sin against The Lord your God, and pollute My name, and spit upon The Glory of My Majesty!... YOU HAVE COVERED ME IN THE KISSES OF JUDAS!... EVIL WORKERS! RAVENOUS WOLVES!...

Therefore, I am come down!...

And I shall surely put an end to all of satan's work! For it was all for naught!...

Thus I have declared it! And I am He who shall also do it! Says The Lord.

My sons, they do not love Me! They have no love for God in their hearts!... Though their words are full of praise, and they speak many high and lofty words, with many prepared speeches, I tell you the truth, they do not love Me! Therefore, let them take their flatteries and all their filthy pretense, and wipe their own rear ends!...

For they are NOT My children, neither do I know them...

*And due to the multitude of their foolish and contemptible acts,
And because of this great measure of insolence I have found within them,
Are they left alone in the wilderness...*

Far removed from their God...

Abandoned in these desolate lands!

Yet I have reserved to Myself a remnant, a precious remnant who shall be hidden from this world, though they remain in the midst of it. They shall be sheltered from all this hissing, from all these murderous aspirations brought forth against My elect, and they shall learn holiness for a time and times and half a time... While the world, and all who remain in it, run quickly toward their destruction.

Yet all those who continually profess in their pride, to be the true "remnant church", shall surely come to know the meaning of the word! For they have adorned themselves as queens, high and lofty, in their extravagant churches!...

Therefore, thus says The Lord: THEY SHALL ALL BE AS WIDOWS! I shall divide them as spoils! I shall serve them strong correction, and purge their numbers! I will discipline them harshly, and send many of them to die in that day! Then shall they know, I AM THE LORD!... And truly, I have made of them a remnant.

Yet even now, there is indeed a small number among them, Who I do know, and in whom I see of Myself...

These shall come to Me, so I may receive them...

For My love had been completed in them before the time.

For most assuredly, I say unto you...

If I had not shortened these days, no flesh would be saved...

Says The Lord.

Candace, again and again accusing other message of Michael (French channels) Everybody are working for the CIA but not her.

"So this is a Fake Michael of some sort, borrowing sort of a description of the Arch Angel of Michael as from the UB, and borrowing a description from the Wisdomoftherays. com piece. (...) These are fraudulent works the above reasons and I will not have them on my website and thus I explain they are fake. Either they are completely made up by the French channel, or coming from CIA type programs, or a dark entity is having a lot of fun."

How does mind control work?

Over the last ten years, cults have used tactics of coercive mind control to negatively impact an estimated 20 million victims in the last ten years

The new religious movement (NRM) in place of "cult" because of the high negative emotional content and multiplicity of definitions of the latter term.

- Recruiting large numbers of young people into their religious groups, by using deceptive techniques.
- Subjecting them to severe mind-control processes , and subsequently developed by NRMs to a much higher level of refinement.
- Destroying their followers' ability to think critically and to make independent decisions.

The New religious movement as being particularly efficient in attracting normal, intelligent older teens and young adults, and convincing them to:

- Donate major amounts of time and effort to the group, (Candace bought a house in Denver)
  - Uncritically accept its teachings,(Its for you Jennifer)
  - Conform to their behavioral restrictions and
  - Make a permanent commitment to remain in the New Movement.
- Cult methods of recruiting, indoctrinating and influencing their members are not exotic forms of mind control, but only more intensely applied mundane tactics of social influence practiced daily by all compliance professionals and societal agents of influence."
- "...cult leaders offer simple solutions to the increasingly complex world problems we all face daily. They offer the simple path to happiness, to success, to salvation by following their simple rules, simple group regimentation and simple total lifestyle. Ultimately, each new member contributes to the power of the leader by trading his or her freedom for the illusion of security and reflected glory that group membership holds out."
- "Cult mind control is not different in kind from these everyday varieties, but in its greater intensity, persistence, duration, and scope."

Bob and Gretchen Passantino of the conservative Christian group "Answers in Action" have analyzed the ACM belief systems about NRM brainwashing and have found them lacking in credibility: 2

- Brainwashing experiments have all been unsuccessful. The CIA used drugs and electroshock during their investigations into mind-control. "Their experiments were failures; they failed to produce even one potential Manchurian Candidate, and the program was finally abandoned." The brainwashing attempts by Communist military organizations during the Korean war also failed. They were forced to use torture to supplement their mind-control techniques and were able to obtain success in only a few cases. However, ACM promoters appear to believe that modern forms of mind-control within religious organizations represent a major advance over earlier primitive brainwashing techniques. The Passantinos question how relatively uneducated NRM leaders could succeed when highly trained experts had earlier failed.

- They wonder how New Religions Movement can brainwash recruits in a week, while professionals failed after years of indoctrination. They quote the writings of sociologists Bromley and Shupe 3 which point out how absurd this idea is: "...the brainwashing notion implied that somehow these diverse and unconnected [religious] movements had simultaneously discovered and implemented highly intrusive behavioral modification techniques. Such serendipity and coordination was implausible given the diverse backgrounds of the groups at issue. Furthermore, the inability of highly trained professionals responsible for implementing a variety of modalities for effecting individual change, ranging from therapy to incarceration, belie claims that such rapid transformation can routinely be accomplished by neophytes against an individual's will."
